Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.09, 629.14, 629.17.

627.161 Exemption from filing.—Under such rules and regulations as he shall adopt the commissioner may, by written order, suspend or modify the requirement of filing as to any kind of insurance, subdivision or combination thereof, or as to classes of risks, the rates for which cannot practicably be filed before they are used. Such orders, rules and regulations shall be made known to insurers and rating organizations affected thereby. The commissioner may make such examination as he may deem advisable to ascertain whether any rates affected by such order are excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

History.—§426, ch. 59-205.

627.171 Excess rates.—Upon the written application of the insured, stating his reasons therefor, filed with and approved by the commissioner, a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk.

History.—§427, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.12, 630.05.

627.181 Appeal by insureds and others as to filings.—

(1) Any person or organization aggrieved with respect to any filing which has been approved without a hearing may within thirty days after the date of such approval make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon, except that the insurer or rating organization that made the filing shall not be authorized to proceed under this section. Such application shall specify the grounds to be relied upon by the applicant.

(2) If the commissioner finds that the application is made in good faith, that the applicant would be so aggrieved if his grounds are established, and that such grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing, he shall, within thirty days after receipt of such application, hold a hearing upon not less than ten days' written notice to the applicant and to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing.

(3) If, after such hearing, the commissioner finds that the filing does not meet the requirements of part I of this chapter, he shall issue an order specifying in what respects he finds that such filing fails to meet the requirements of this chapter, and stating when, within a reasonable period thereafter, such filing shall be deemed no longer effective. Copies of the order shall be sent to the applicant and to every such insurer and rating organization. The order shall not affect any contract or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in the order.

(4) Any such person or organization denied a hearing, or who after such hearing suffers an adverse order, shall have the right of appeal from such order as provided by §627.391 (appeals from the commissioner), and the commissioner and the insurer or rating organization which made the filing shall be parties to such appeal.

History.—§428, ch. 59-205.

627.191 Adherence to filings.—No insurer or employee thereof, and no agent shall make or issue a contract or policy except in accordance with the filings which are in effect for such insurer as provided in part I of this chapter, or in accordance with §627.161 (exemption from filing) or §627.171 (excess rates) of this code. This section does not apply to contracts or policies for inland marine risks as to which filings are not required.

History.—§429, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.08, 629.18, 630.03, 630.10.

627.201 Deviations; property insurance.—

(1) Every member of or subscriber to a property insurance rating organization shall adhere to the filings made on its behalf by such organization; except that any such insurer may make written application to the commissioner for permission to file a deviation from the class rates, schedules, rating plans or rules respecting any kind of insurance, or class of risk within a kind of insurance or combination thereof. Such application shall specify the basis for the modification and a copy thereof shall also be sent simultaneously to such rating organization.

(2) The commissioner shall set a time and place for a hearing at which the insurer and such rating organization may be heard and shall give them not less than ten days' written notice thereof. If the commissioner is advised by the rating organization that it does not desire a hearing he may, upon the consent of the applicant, waive such hearing.

(3) In considering the application for permission to file such deviation the commissioner shall give consideration to the available statistics and the principles for rate making as provided in §627.061. The commissioner shall issue an order permitting the deviation for such insurer to be filed if he finds it to be justified and it shall thereupon become effective.

He shall issue an order denying such application if he finds that the resulting premiums would be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

(4) Each deviation permitted to be filed shall be effective for a period of one year from the date of such permission unless terminated sooner with the approval of the commissioner.

History.—§430, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §629.09.

627.211 Deviations; casualty and surety.—

(1) Every member of or subscriber to a casualty or surety insurance rating organization shall adhere to the filings made on its behalf by such organization; except that any such insurer may make written application to the commissioner for permission to file a uniform percentage decrease or increase to be applied to the premiums produced by the rating system so filed for a kind of insurance, or for a class of insurance which is found by the commissioner to be a proper rating unit for the application of such uniform percentage decrease or increase, or for a subdivision of a kind of insurance:

(a) Comprised of a group of manual classifications which is treated as a separate unit for rate making purposes, or

(b) For which separate expense provisions are included in the filings of the rating organization. Such application shall specify the basis for the modification and shall be accompanied by the data upon which the applicant relies. A copy of the application and data shall be sent simultaneously to the rating organization.

(2) The commissioner shall set a time and place for a hearing at which the insurer and the rating organization may be heard and shall give them not less than ten days' written notice thereof. In the event the commissioner is advised by the rating organization that it does not desire a hearing he may, upon the consent of the applicant, waive the hearing.

(3) In considering the application for permission to file the deviation, the commissioner shall give consideration to the principles for rate making as set forth in §627.081. The commissioner shall issue an order permitting the modification for such insurer to be filed if he finds it to be justified and it shall thereupon become effective. He shall issue an order denying such application if he finds that the modification is not justified or that the resulting premiums would be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

(4) Each deviation permitted to be filed shall be effective for a period of one year from the date of such permission unless terminated sooner with the approval of the commissioner, but no such termination shall be effectuated until after the deviation has been in effect for a period of at least six months.

History.—§431, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §630.05.

627.221 Rating organizations; licensing; fee.—

(1) A corporation, an unincorporated association, a partnership or an individual, whether located within or outside this state, may make application to the commissioner for license as a rating organization. As to property or inland marine insurance the application shall be for such kinds of insurance, or subdivision or class of risk or a part or combination thereof as are specified in the application. As to casualty and surety insurances the application shall be for such kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof as are specified in the application. The applicant shall file with its application:

(a) A copy of its constitution, its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation, and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business,

(b) A list of its members and subscribers,

(c) The name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served, and

(d) A statement of its qualifications as a rating organization. If the commissioner finds that the applicant is competent, trustworthy and otherwise qualified to act as a rating organization and that its constitution, articles of agreement or association or certificate of incorporation, and its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business conform to the requirements of law, he shall issue a license specifying (in the case of a casualty or surety rating organization) the kinds of insurance or subdivisions thereof, or (in the case of a property insurance rating organization) the kinds of insurance or subdivision or class of risk or part or combination thereof, for which the applicant is authorized to act as a rating organization. Every such application shall be granted or denied in whole or in part by the commissioner within sixty days of the date of its filing with him.

(2) Licenses issued pursuant to this section shall expire on the September 30 next following date of issuance, and shall be subject to annual renewal.

(3) The fee for the license shall be in the amount specified therefor in §624.0300 (filing, license, and miscellaneous fees). This fee when collected shall be deposited to the credit of the license receipts fund provided for under §624.0323.

(4) Licenses issued pursuant to this section may be suspended or revoked by the commissioner, after hearing upon notice, in the event the rating organization ceases to meet the requirements of this section.

History.—§432, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.04, 629.05, 630.04.

627.231 Subscribers to rating organizations.—

(1) Subject to rules and regulations which have been approved by the commissioner as reasonable, each rating organization shall permit any insurer, not a member, to subscribe to its rating services. As to property and marine rating organizations an insurer shall be so permitted to subscribe to rating services for any kind of insurance, subdivision, or class of risk or a part or combination thereof for which the rating organization is authorized so to act. As to casualty and surety rating organizations an insurer shall be so permitted to subscribe to rating services for any kind of insurance or subdivision thereof for which the rating organization is authorized so to act. The rating organization shall give notice to subscribers of proposed changes in such rules and regulations.

(2) The reasonableness of any rule or regulation in its application to subscribers, or the refusal of any rating organization to admit an insurer as a subscriber, shall, at the request of any subscriber or any such insurer, be reviewed by the commissioner at a hearing held upon at least ten days' written notice to such rating organization and to such subscriber or insurer. If the commissioner finds that such rule or regulation is unreasonable in its application to subscribers, he shall order that such rule or regulation shall not be applicable to subscribers. If the rating organization fails to grant or reject an insurer's application for subscribership within thirty days after it was made, the insurer may request a review by the commissioner as if the application had been rejected. If the commissioner finds that the insurer has been refused admittance to the rating organization as a subscriber without justification, he shall order the rating organization to admit the insurer as a subscriber. If he finds that the action of the rating organization was justified, he shall make an order affirming its action.

(3) Each rating organization shall furnish its rating services without discrimination to its members and subscribers.

History.—§433, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.03, 629.05.

627.241 Notice of changes.—Every rating organization shall notify the commissioner promptly of every change in:

(1) Its constitution, its articles of agreement or association, or its certificate of incorporation, and its by-laws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business;

(2) Its list of members and subscribers; and

(3) The name and address of the resident of this state designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting such rating organization may be served.

History.—§434, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.05, 629.16, 630.04.

627.251 Bureau rules not to affect dividends.—No rating organization shall adopt any rule the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members or subscribers.

History.—§435, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §630.04.

627.261 Technical services.—Any rating organization may subscribe for or purchase actuarial, technical or other services, and such services shall be available to all members and subscribers without discrimination.

History.—§436, ch. 59-205.

627.271 Stamping bureau.—Any property insurance rating organization may provide for the examination of policies, daily reports, binders, renewal certificates, endorsements or other evidences of insurance, or the cancellation thereof and may make reasonable rules governing their submission. Such rules shall contain a provision that in the event any insurer does not within sixty days furnish satisfactory evidence to the rating organization of the correction of any error or omission previously called to its attention by the rating organization, it shall be the duty of the rating organization to notify the commissioner thereof. All information so submitted for examination shall be confidential.

History.—§437, ch. 59-205.

627.281 Appeal from rating organization.—

(1) Any member or subscriber to a rating organization may appeal to the commissioner from the action or decision of such rating organization in approving or rejecting any proposed change in or addition to the filings of such rating organization, and the commissioner shall, after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice to the appellant and to such rating organization, issue an order approving the decision of such rating organization, or directing it to give further consideration to such proposal; or, if such appeal is from the action or decision of the rating organization in rejecting a proposed addition to its filings, he may, in the event he finds that such action or decision was unreasonable, issue an order directing the rating organization to make an addition to its filings, on behalf of its members and subscribers, in a manner consistent with his findings, within a reasonable time after the issuance of such order.

(2) As to casualty and surety insurances, if such appeal is based upon the failure of the rating organization to make a filing on behalf of such member or subscriber which is based on a system of expense provisions which differs, in accordance with the right granted in §627.081 (1) (b), from the system of expense provisions included in a filing made by the rating organization, the commissioner shall, if he grants the appeal, order the rating organization to make the requested filing for use by the appellant. In deciding such appeal the commissioner shall apply the standards set forth in §627.081.

History.—§438, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §630.06.

627.291 Information to be furnished insureds; appeal by insureds.—

(1) Every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall, within a reasonable time after receiving written request therefor and upon payment of such reasonable charge as it may make, furnish to any insured affected by a rate made by it, or to the authorized representative of such insured, all pertinent information as to such rate.

(2) Every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall provide within this state reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its rating system may be heard, in person or by his authorized representative, on his written request to review the manner in which such rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded him. If the rating organization or insurer fails to grant or reject such request within thirty days after it is made, the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if his application had been rejected. Any party affected by the action of such rating organization or such insurer on such request may, within thirty days after written notice of such action, appeal to the commissioner, who, after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice to the appellant and to such rating organization or insurer, may affirm or reverse such action.

History.—§439, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.10, 629.11, 630.07.

627.301 Advisory organizations.—

(1) Every group, association or other organization of insurers, whether located within or outside this state, which assists insurers which make their own filings or rating organizations in rate making, by the collection and furnishing of loss or expense statistics, or by the submission of recommendations, but which does not make filings under this chapter, shall be known as an advisory organization.

(2) Every advisory organization shall file with the commissioner:

(a) A copy of its constitution, its articles of agreement or association or its certificate of incorporation and of its by-laws, rules and regulations governing its activities,

(b) A list of its members,

(c) The name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process issued at his direction may be served, and

(d) An agreement that the commissioner may examine such advisory organization in accordance with the provisions of §627.321.

(3) If, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that the furnishing of such information or assistance involves any act or practice which is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of part I of this chapter, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such act or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of part I of this chapter, and requiring the discontinuance of such act or practice.

(4) No insurer which makes its own filing nor any rating organization shall support its filings by statistics or adopt rate making recommendations, furnished to it by an advisory organization which has not complied with this section or with an order of the commissioner involving such statistics or recommendations issued under subsection (3). If the commissioner finds such insurer or rating organization to be in violation of this subsection he may issue an order requiring the discontinuance of such violation.

History.—§440, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.27.

627.311 Joint underwriters and joint reinsurers.—

(1) Every group, association or other organization of insurers which engages in joint underwritings or joint reinsurance, shall be subject to regulation with respect thereto as herein provided, subject, however, with respect to joint underwriting, to all other provisions of this chapter and, with respect to joint reinsurance, to §§624.15 (general penalty) and 627.321 (examinations) of this code.

(2) If, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that any activity or practice of any such group, association or other organization is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice.

History.—§441, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §629.13.

627.321 Examinations.—

(1) The commissioner shall, at least once in five years, make or cause to be made an examination of each rating organization licensed in this state as provided in this chapter and he may, as often as he may deem it expedient, make or cause to be made an examination of each advisory organization referred to in §627.301 and of each group, association or other organization referred to in §627.311. The reasonable costs of any such examination shall be paid by the rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization examined upon presentation to it of a detailed account of such costs. The officers, manager, agents and employees of such rating organization, advisory organization, or group, association or other organization may be examined at any time under oath and shall exhibit all books, records, accounts, documents, or agreements governing its method of operation. In lieu of any such examination the commissioner may accept the report of an examination made by the insurance supervisory official of another state, pursuant to the laws of such state.

(2) The commissioner shall furnish two copies of the examination report to the organization, group or association examined and shall notify such organization, group or association that it may, within twenty days thereafter, request a hearing on the report or on any facts or recommendations therein. Before filing any such report for public inspection, the commissioner shall grant a hearing to the organization, group or association examined if so requested thereby. The report of any such examination, when filed for public inspection, shall be admissible in evidence in any action or proceeding brought by the commissioner against the organization, group or association examined, or its officers or agents, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. The commissioner may withhold the report of any such examination from public inspection for such time as he may deem proper.

History.—§442, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.27, 629.15, 630.04.

627.331 Recording and reporting of loss and expense experience.—

(1) The commissioner shall promulgate reasonable rules and statistical plans, reasonably adapted to each of the rating systems on file with him, which may be modified from time to time and which shall be used thereafter by each insurer in the recording and reporting of its loss and countrywide expense experience, in order that the experience of all insurers may be made available at least annually in such form and detail as may be necessary to aid him in determining whether rating systems comply with the applicable standards set forth in §627.061 as to property insurances, and in §627.081 as to casualty and surety insurances. Such rules and plans may also provide for the recording and reporting of expense experience items which are specially applicable to this state and are not susceptible of determination by a prorating of countrywide expense experience.

(2) In promulgating such rules and plans, the commissioner shall give due consideration to the rating systems on file with him and, in order that such rules and plans may be as uniform as is practicable among the several states, to the rules and to the form of the plans used for such rating systems in other states. No insurer shall be required to record or report its loss experience on a classification basis that is inconsistent with the rating system filed by it.

(3) The commissioner may designate one or more rating organizations or other agencies to assist him in gathering such experience and making compilations thereof, and such compilations shall be made available, subject to reasonable rules promulgated by the commissioner, to insurers and rating organizations.

History.—§443, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.07, 630.08.

627.341 Interchange of rating plan data; consultation, cooperative action in rate making.—

(1) Reasonable rules and plans may be promulgated by the commissioner for the interchange of data necessary for the application of rating plans.

(2) In order to further uniform administration of rate regulatory laws, the commissioner and every insurer and rating organization may exchange information and experience data with insurance supervisory officials, insurers and rating organizations in other states and may consult with them with respect to rate making and the application of rating systems.

(3) Cooperation among rating organizations or among rating organizations and insurers in rate making or in other matters within the scope of part I of this chapter is hereby authorized, provided the filings resulting from such cooperation are subject to all the provisions of this chapter which are applicable to filings generally. The commissioner may review such cooperative activities and practices and if, after a hearing, he finds that any such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of part I of this chapter, he may issue a written order specifying in what respects such activity or practice is unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of part I of this chapter and requiring the discontinuance of such activity or practice.

History.—§444, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §630.08.

627.351 Assigned risk plan; casualty and surety.—Agreements may be made among casualty and surety insurers with respect to the equitable apportionment among them of insurance which may be afforded applicants who are in good faith entitled to but who are unable to procure such insurance through ordinary methods and such insurers may agree among themselves on the use of reasonable rate modification for such insurance, such agreements and rate modifications to be subject to the approval of the commissioner. The commissioner shall, after consultation with the insurers licensed to write automobile liability insurance in this state, adopt a reasonable plan or plans for the equitable apportionment among such insurers of applicants for such automobile liability insurance who are in good faith entitled to but are unable to procure insurance through ordinary methods and, when such plan has been adopted, all such insurers shall subscribe thereto and shall participate therein. Such plan or plans shall include rules for classification of risks and rates therefor. Such plan or plans shall provide for the payment to the producing agent of not less than fifteen per cent of the annual premium on private passenger automobile insurance.

History.—§445, ch. 59-205.

627.361 False or misleading information.—No person shall wilfully withhold information from or knowingly give false or misleading information to the commissioner, any statistical agency designated by the commissioner, any rating organization, or any insurer, which will affect the rates or premiums chargeable under part I of this chapter. A violation of this section shall subject the one guilty of such violation to the penalties provided in §624.15 of this code.

History.—§446, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.19, 630.09.

627.371 Hearings.—

(1) An insurer or rating organization aggrieved by any order or decision of the commissioner made without a hearing, may, within thirty days after notice of the order to the insurer or organization, make written request to the commissioner for a hearing thereon. The commissioner shall hear such party or parties within twenty days after receipt of such request and shall give not less than ten days' written notice of the time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be concluded within fifteen days from the commencement thereof, provided however, that the commissioner upon application with notice to the interested parties and for good cause shown, may grant additional time, not exceeding fifteen days. Within twenty days after the conclusion of such hearing the commissioner shall affirm, reverse or modify his previous action, specifying his reasons therefor, and shall give a copy of such order or decision to all interested parties.

(2) The order shall contain specific findings of fact by the commissioner in relation to the matter before him, such findings to be supported by a preponderance of the evidence. Any party may file with the commissioner proposed findings of fact, to be accepted or rejected by the commissioner.

(3) Pending such hearing and decision thereon the commissioner may suspend or postpone the effective date of his previous action.

(4) Nothing contained in this chapter shall require the observance at any hearing of formal rules of pleading or evidence, except that the right of any person to invoke such rules and the rule of exclusion of witnesses is preserved.

History.—§447, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.21, 630.03.

627.381 Penalty for violations.—

(1) The commissioner may, if he finds that any person or organization has violated any provision of part I of this chapter, impose a penalty of not more than $250 for each such violation, but, if he finds such violation to be wilful, he may impose a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such violation. Such penalties may be in addition to any other penalty provided by law.

(2) The commissioner may suspend the license or authority of any rating organization or insurer which fails to comply with an order of the commissioner within the time limited by such order, or any extension thereof which the commissioner may grant. The commissioner shall not suspend the license or authority of any rating organization or insurer for failure to comply with an order until the time prescribed for an appeal therefrom has expired or, if an appeal has been taken, until such order has been affirmed. The commissioner may determine when a suspension of license or authority shall become effective and it shall remain in effect for the period fixed by him, unless he modifies or rescinds such suspension, or until the order upon which such suspension is based is modified, rescinded or reversed.

(3) No penalty shall be imposed and no license or authority shall be suspended except upon a written order of the commissioner stating his findings, made after a hearing held upon not less than ten days' written notice to such person or organization specifying the alleged violation.

History.—§448, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§629.20, 630.11.

627.391 Appeals from the commissioner.—

(1) All final rulings, orders or decisions of the commissioner under part I of this chapter (§§627.031 through 627.391) shall be subject to review by appeal to the district court of appeal, first district. Such an appeal shall be commenced by filing a notice of appeal within thirty days after the rendition of such ruling, order or decision with such court and a copy of same similarly filed with the commissioner, and if not so commenced the right to appeal shall no longer exist. The commissioner shall be made a party to every such appeal.

(2) Upon the filing of a copy of the notice of appeal with the commissioner he shall prepare or cause to be prepared an official record, which may be in typewritten form, certified by him which shall contain a copy of all proceedings, the findings and order of the commissioner, and any transcript of testimony and exhibits or record thereof. If no hearing was held by the commissioner on the matter which is the subject of appeal, the commissioner shall in like manner prepare and certify a transcript of the files in his office pertaining to such matter. Within forty days after the copy of notice of appeal was filed with the commissioner he shall file the official record with the court in which the appeal is pending.

(3) When any final ruling, order or decision of the commissioner relates to an increase or decrease of premium or rate or to a change in any rating system the filing of the notice of appeal shall, pending the final decision in the appellate proceedings, act as a stay of any such ruling, order or decision, except where such ruling, order or decision approves or permits a filing of an insurer or rating organization.

Any insurer affected by the ruling, order or decision may, pending the decision on appeal:

(a) Where a rate decrease is ordered, continue to charge the rate which obtained prior to such order, ruling or decision; or

(b) Where a filing for rate increase has been proposed and rejected, charge such proposed increased rate; on condition the difference in premium, as collected, shall be deposited in a special account by the insurer in a bank or banks in this state approved by the commissioner, and to be paid to the holders of policies issued after the commissioner's ruling, order or decision should the same be affirmed by the appellate court, together with all interest which may accrue thereon subsequent to such deposit aforesaid, or paid to the insurer in the event such ruling, order or decision is reversed by such appellate court.

(4) The district court of appeal shall affirm, reverse or modify the commissioner's ruling, order or decision appealed from.

(5) If the district court of appeal finds that the commissioner's ruling, order or decision is not supported by the preponderance of the evidence or is not in accordance with law, the court shall reverse or modify the commissioner's ruling, order or decision.

History.—§449, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §630.12.

PART II

THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

627.01001 Scope of part II.
627.01011 Policy defined.
627.01021 Premium defined.
627.01031 Insurable interest; personal insurance.
627.01041 Same; property.
627.01051 Power to contract; purchase of insurance by or for minors.
627.01061 Alteration of application.
627.01071 Application as evidence.
627.01081 Representations in applications.
627.01091 Filing, approval of forms.
627.0110 Grounds for disapproval.
627.0111 Standard provisions, in general.
627.0112 Contents of policies in general; identification.
627.0113 Additional policy contents.

627.01001 Scope of part II.—No provision of part II of this chapter shall apply as to:

(1) Reinsurance.

(2) Policies or contracts not issued for delivery in this state nor delivered in this state, except as provided in §627.01091(6) (approval

627.0114 Charter, by-law provisions.
627.0115 Execution of policies.
627.0116 Underwriters' and combination policies.
627.0117 Validity of noncomplying contracts.
627.0118 Construction of policies.
627.0119 Binders.
627.0120 Delivery of policy.
627.0121 Assignment of policies.
627.0122 Payment discharges insurer.
627.0123 Minor may give acquittance.
627.0124 Forms for proof of loss to be furnished.
627.0125 Claims administration not waiver.
627.0126 Payment of judgment by insurer; penalty for failure.
627.0127 Attorney fee.

of forms for delivery in jurisdictions where local approval not provided for).

(3) Wet marine and transportation insurance.

(4) Title insurance, except as to the following provisions:

- (a) Section 627.01051 (power to contract, etc.),
 - (b) Section 627.0114 (charter, by-law provisions),
 - (c) Section 627.0115 (execution of policies),
 - (d) Section 627.0118 (construction of policies),
 - (e) Section 627.0126 (payment of judgment by insurer; penalty failure), and
 - (f) Section 627.0127 (attorney fee).
- (5) Credit life or credit disability insurance.

History.—§450, ch. 59-205.

627.01011 Policy defined.—

(1) "Policy" means written contract of or written agreement for or effecting insurance, or the certificate thereof, by whatever name called, and includes all clauses, riders, endorsements and papers which are a part thereof.

(2) The word "certificate" as used in this section does not include certificates as to group life or disability insurance or as to group annuities issued to individual insureds.

History.—§451, ch. 59-205.

627.01021 Premium defined.—"Premium" is the consideration for insurance, by whatever name called. Any "assessment," or any "membership," "policy," "survey," "inspection," "service" or similar fee or charge in consideration for an insurance contract is deemed part of the premium.

History.—§452, ch. 59-205.

627.01031 Insurable interest; personal insurance.—An insurer shall be entitled to rely upon all statements, declarations and representations made by an applicant for insurance relative to the insurable interest which such applicant has in the insured; and no insurer shall incur any legal liability except as set forth in the policy, by virtue of any untrue statements, declarations or representations so relied upon in good faith by the insurer.

History.—§453, ch. 59-205.

627.01041 Same; property.—

(1) No contract of insurance of property or of any interest in property or arising from property shall be enforceable as to the insurance except for the benefit of persons having an insurable interest in the things insured as at the time of the loss.

(2) "Insurable interest" as used in this section means any actual, lawful, and substantial economic interest in the safety or preservation of the subject of the insurance free from loss, destruction, or pecuniary damage or impairment.

(3) The measure of an insurable interest in property is the extent to which the insured might be damaged by loss, injury, or impairment thereof.

History.—§454, ch. 59-205.

627.01051 Power to contract; purchase of insurance by or for minors.—

(1) Any person of competent legal capacity may contract for insurance.

(2) Any minor of the age of fifteen years or more, as determined by the nearest birthday, may, notwithstanding his minority, contract for annuities or for insurance upon his own life, body, health, property, liabilities or other interests, or on the person of another in whom the minor has an insurable interest. Such a minor shall, notwithstanding such minority, be deemed competent to exercise all rights and powers with respect to or under:

(a) Any contract for annuity or for insurance upon his own life, body or health, or

(b) Any contract such minor effected upon his own property, liabilities or other interests, or on the person of another, as might be exercised by a person of full legal age, and may at any time surrender his interest in any such contracts and give valid discharge for any benefits accruing or money payable thereunder. Such a minor shall not, by reason of his minority, be entitled to rescind, avoid or repudiate the contract, nor to rescind, avoid or repudiate any exercise of a right or privilege thereunder, except that such a minor, not otherwise emancipated, shall not be bound by any unperformed agreement to pay by promissory note or otherwise, any premium on any such annuity or insurance contract.

(3) If any minor mentioned in subsection (2), is possessed of an estate that is being administered by a guardian or curator, no such contract shall be binding upon such estate as to payment of premiums, except as and when consented to by the guardian or curator and approved by the probate court of the county in which the administration of the estate is pending, and such consent and approval shall be required as to each premium payment.

(4) Any annuity contract or policy of life or disability insurance procured by or for a minor under subsection (2), shall be made payable either to the minor or his estate or to a person having an insurable interest in the life of such minor.

History.—§455, ch. 59-205.

627.01061 Alteration of application.—No alteration of any written application for any life or disability insurance policy shall be made by any person other than the applicant without his written consent, except that insertions may be made by the insurer, for administrative purposes only, in such manner as to indicate clearly that such insertions are not to be ascribed to the applicant.

History.—§456, ch. 59-205.

627.01071 Application as evidence.—

(1) No application for the issuance of any life or disability insurance policy or annuity contract shall be admissible in evidence in any action relative to such policy or contract, unless a true copy of the application was attached to or otherwise made a part of the policy or contract when issued. This provision shall not apply to industrial life insurance policies or to monthly debit life insurance policies.

(2) If any policy of life or disability insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state is reinstated or renewed, and the insured or the beneficiary or assignee of the policy makes written request to the insurer for a copy of the application, if any, for such reinstatement or renewal, the insurer shall, within thirty days after receipt of such request at its home office or at any of its branch offices, deliver or mail to the person making such request a copy of such application, reproduced by any legible means. In the case of such a request from the beneficiary, the time within which the insurer is required to furnish a copy of such application shall not begin to run until after receipt of evidence satisfactory to the insurer of the beneficiary's vested interest in the policy or contract.

History.—§457, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§642.031, 642.08.

627.01081 Representations in applications.—

All statements and descriptions in any application for an insurance policy or annuity contract, or in negotiations therefor, by or in behalf of the insured or annuitant, shall be deemed to be representations and not warranties. Misrepresentations, omissions, concealment of facts, and incorrect statements shall not prevent a recovery under the policy or contract unless either:

(1) Fraudulent; or
(2) Material either to the acceptance of the risk, or to the hazard assumed by the insurer; or

(3) The insurer in good faith would either not have issued the policy or contract, or would not have issued it at the same premium rate, or would not have issued a policy or contract in as large an amount, or would not have provided coverage with respect to the hazard resulting in the loss, if the true facts had been made known to the insurer as required either by the application for the policy or contract or otherwise.

History.—§458, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§642.031, 642.08.

627.01091 Filing, approval of forms.—

(1) No basic insurance policy or annuity contract form, or application form where written application is required and is to be made a part of the policy or contract, or group certificates issued under master contracts delivered in this state, or printed rider or endorsement form or form of renewal certificate, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state, unless the form has been filed with and approved by the commissioner. This provision shall not apply to surety bonds, or to specially rated inland marine risks, nor to policies, riders, endorsements, or forms of unique character designed for and used with relation to insurance upon a particular subject (other than as to disability insurance), or which relate to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under life or disability insurance policies and are used at the request of the individual policyholder, contract holder, or certificate holder. As to group insurance policies effectuated and delivered outside this state but covering persons resident in this state, the group certificates to be delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall be filed with the commissioner for information purposes only at his request.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of any such use or delivery. At the expiration of such thirty days the form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by order of the commissioner. Approval of any such form by the commissioner shall constitute a waiver of any unexpired portion of such waiting period. The commissioner may extend by not more than an additional fifteen days the period within which he may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form, by giving notice of such extension before expiration of the initial thirty day period. At the expiration of any such period as so extended, and in the absence of such prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved.

(3) The commissioner's order disapproving any such form shall state the grounds therefor in such detail as reasonably to inform the insurer thereof. Upon request made by the insurer within thirty days after an order of disapproval, the commissioner shall hold a hearing thereon within thirty days after receipt of the request. The commissioner may for cause, after notice stating the grounds therefor and a hearing, withdraw a previous approval. Within thirty days after any such hearing, the commissioner shall make a written order setting forth his action taken and, if such action is that of disapproval, summarizing his findings in support thereof. No insurer shall issue or use any form disapproved by the commissioner, or as to which the commissioner has withdrawn approval, after the effective date of the commissioner's order.

(4) The commissioner shall mail notice of any hearing provided for in this section by registered mail to the insurer at least twenty days in advance of the hearing. The hearing shall be held in the commissioner's office at Tallahassee.

(5) The commissioner may, by order, exempt from the requirements of this section for so long as he deems proper any insurance document or form or type thereof as specified in such order, to which, in his opinion, this section may not practicably be applied, or the filing and approval of which are, in his opinion, not desirable or necessary for the protection of the public.

(6) This section shall apply also to any such form used by domestic insurers for delivery in a jurisdiction outside this state, if the insurance supervisory official of such jurisdiction informs the commissioner that such form is not subject to approval or disapproval by such official, and upon the commissioner's order requiring the form to be submitted to him for the purpose. The applicable same standards shall apply to such forms as apply to forms for domestic use.

History.—§459, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.16, 635.171, 635.172, 635.173, 635.175, 642.01, 642.02, 642.031.

627.0110 Grounds for disapproval.—The commissioner shall disapprove any form filed under §627.01091, or withdraw any previous approval thereof, only if the form:

(1) Is in any respect in violation of or does not comply with this code.

(2) Contains or incorporates by reference, where such incorporation is otherwise permissible, any inconsistent, ambiguous, or misleading clauses, or exceptions and conditions which deceptively affect the risk purported to be assumed in the general coverage of the contract.

(3) Has any title, heading, or other indication of its provisions which is misleading.

(4) Is printed or otherwise reproduced in such manner as to render any material provision of the form substantially illegible.

(5) If for disability insurance, provides benefits which are unreasonable in relation to the premium charged, or contains provisions which are unfair or inequitable or contrary to the public policy of this state, or which encourage misrepresentation.

History.—§460, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.171, 635.175, 642.01.

627.0111 Standard provisions, in general.—

(1) Insurance contracts shall contain such standard or uniform provisions as are required by the applicable provisions of this code pertaining to contracts of particular kinds of insurance. The commissioner may waive the required use of a particular provision in a particular insurance policy form if:

(a) He finds such provision unnecessary for the protection of the insured and inconsistent with the purposes of the policy, and

(b) The policy is otherwise approved by him.

(2) No policy shall contain any provision inconsistent with or contradictory to any standard or uniform provision used or required to be used, but the commissioner may approve any substitute provision which is, in his opinion, not less favorable in any particular to the insured or beneficiary than the provisions otherwise required.

(3) In lieu of the provisions required by this code for contracts for particular kinds of insurance, substantially similar provisions required by the law of the domicile of a foreign or alien insurer may be used when approved by the commissioner.

History.—§461, ch. 59-205.

627.0112 Contents of policies in general; identification.—

(1) Every policy shall specify:

(a) The names of the parties to the contract.

(b) The subject of the insurance.

(c) The risks insured against.

(d) The time when the insurance thereunder takes effect and the period during which the insurance is to continue.

(e) The premium.

(f) The conditions pertaining to the insurance.

(2) If under the policy the exact amount of premium is determinable only at stated intervals or termination of the contract, a statement of the basis and rates upon which the premium is to be determined and paid shall be included.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply as to surety contracts, or to group insurance policies.

(4) All policies and annuity contracts issued by domestic insurers, and the forms thereof filed with the commissioner, shall have printed thereon an appropriate designating letter or figure, or combination of letters or figures or terms identifying the respective forms of policies or contracts. Whenever any change is made in any such form, the designating letters, figures or terms thereon shall be correspondingly changed.

History.—§462, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.02.

627.0113 Additional policy contents.—A policy may contain additional provisions not inconsistent with this code and which are:

(1) Required to be inserted by the laws of the insurer's domicile;

(2) Necessary, on account of the manner in which the insurer is constituted or operated, in order to state the rights and obligations of the parties to the contract; or

(3) Desired by the insurer and neither prohibited by law nor in conflict with any provisions required to be included therein.

History.—§463, ch. 59-205.

627.0114 Charter, by-law provisions.—No policy shall contain any provision purporting to make any portion of the charter, by-laws or other constituent document of the insurer (other than the subscribers' agreement or power of attorney of a reciprocal insurer) a part of the contract unless such portion is set forth in full in the policy. Any policy provision in violation of this section shall be invalid.

History.—§464, ch. 59-205.

627.0115 Execution of policies.—

(1) Every insurance policy shall be executed in the name of and on behalf of the insurer by its officer, attorney in fact, employee, or representative duly authorized by the insurer.

(2) A facsimile signature of any such executing individual may be used in lieu of an original signature.

(3) No insurance contract heretofore or hereafter issued and which is otherwise valid shall be rendered invalid by reason of the apparent execution thereof on behalf of the insurer by the imprinted facsimile signature of an individual not authorized so to execute as of the date of the policy.

History.—§465, ch. 59-205.

627.0116 Underwriters' and combination policies.—

(1) Two or more authorized insurers may jointly issue, and shall be jointly and severally liable on, an underwriters' policy bearing their names. Any one insurer may issue policies in the name of an underwriter's department and such policy shall plainly show the true name of the insurer.

(2) Two or more authorized insurers may, with the approval of the commissioner, issue a combination policy which shall contain provisions substantially as follows:

(a) That the insurers executing the policy shall be severally liable for the full amount of any loss or damage, according to the terms of the policy, or for specified percentages or amounts thereof, aggregating the full amount of insurance under the policy, and

(b) That service of process, or of any notice or proof of loss required by such policy, upon any of the insurers executing the policy, shall constitute service upon all such insurers.

(3) This section shall not apply to co-surety obligations.

History.—§466, ch. 59-205.

627.0117 Validity of noncomplying contracts.—

(1) Any insurance policy, rider, or endorsement hereafter issued and otherwise valid which contains any condition or provision not in compliance with the requirements of this code, shall not be thereby rendered invalid (except as provided in §627.0114) but shall be construed and applied in accordance with such conditions and provisions as would have applied had such policy, rider, or endorsement been in full compliance with this code.

(2) Any insurance contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state covering a subject or subjects of insurance resident, located or to be performed in this state and which, pursuant to the provisions of this code, the insurer may not lawfully insure under such a contract, shall be cancellable at any time by the insurer, any provision of the contract to the contrary notwithstanding; and the insurer shall promptly cancel the contract in accordance with the commissioner's request therefor. No such illegality or cancellation shall be deemed to relieve the insurer of any liability incurred by it under the contract while in force, or to prohibit the insurer from retaining the pro rata earned premium thereon. This provision does not relieve the insurer from any penalty otherwise incurred by the insurer under this code on account of any such violation.

History.—§467, ch. 59-205.

627.0118 Construction of policies.—Every insurance contract shall be construed according to the entirety of its terms and conditions as set forth in the policy and as amplified, extended, or modified by any application therefor or any rider or endorsement thereto.

History.—§468, ch. 59-205.

627.0119 Binders.—Binders or other contracts for temporary property, marine, casualty or surety insurance may be made orally or in writing, and shall be deemed to include all the usual terms of the policy as to which the binder was given together with such applicable endorsements as are designated in the binder, except as superseded by the clear and express terms of the binder.

History.—§469, ch. 59-205.

627.0120 Delivery of policy.—

(1) Subject to the insurer's requirement as to payment of premium, every policy shall be mailed or delivered to the insured or to the person entitled thereto within a reasonable period of time after its issuance, except where a condition required by the insurer has not been met by the applicant or insured.

(2) In event the original policy is delivered or is so required to be delivered to or for deposit with any vendor, mortgagee, or pledgee of any motor vehicle, and in which policy any interest of the vendee, mortgagor, or pledgor in or with reference to such vehicle is insured, a duplicate of such policy setting forth the name and address of the insurer, insurance classification of vehicle, type of coverage, limits of liability, premiums for the respective coverages, and duration of the policy, or memorandum thereof containing the same such information, shall be delivered by the vendor, mortgagee, or pledgee to each such vendee, mortgagor, or pledgor named in the policy or coming within the group of persons designated in the policy to be so included. If the policy does not provide coverage of legal liability for injury to persons or damage to the property of third parties, a statement of such fact shall be printed, written, or stamped conspicuously on the face of such duplicate policy or memorandum. This subsection does not apply to inland marine floater policies.

History.—§470, ch. 59-205.

627.0121 Assignment of policies.—A policy may be assignable, or not assignable, as provided by its terms. Subject to its terms relating to assignability, any life or disability policy, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, under the terms of which the beneficiary may be changed upon the sole request of the insured, may be assigned either by pledge or transfer of title, by an assignment executed by the insured alone and delivered to the insurer, whether or not the pledgee or assignee is the insurer. Any such assignment shall entitle the insurer to deal with the assignee as the owner or pledgee of the policy in accordance with the terms of the assignment, until the insurer has received at its home office written notice of termination of the assignment or pledge, or written notice by or on behalf of some other person claiming some interest in the policy in conflict with the assignment.

History.—§471, ch. 59-205.

627.0122 Payment discharges insurer.—Whenever the proceeds of or payments under a life or disability insurance policy or annuity contract heretofore or hereafter issued become payable in accordance with the terms of such policy or contract, or the exercise of any right or privilege thereunder, and the insurer makes payment thereof in accordance with the terms of the policy or contract or in accordance with any written assignment thereof, the person then designated in the policy or contract or by such assignment as being entitled thereto shall be entitled to receive such proceeds or payments and to give full acquittance therefor, and such payments shall fully discharge the insurer from all claims under the policy or contract unless, before payment is made, the insurer has received at its home office written notice by or on behalf of some other person that such other person claims to be entitled to such payment or some interest in the policy or contract.

History.—§472, ch. 59-205.

627.0123 Minor may give acquittance.—

(1) Any minor domiciled in this state who has attained the age of sixteen years shall be deemed competent to receive and to give full acquittance and discharge for a payment or payments in aggregate amount not exceeding three thousand dollars in any one year made by a life insurer under the maturity, death or settlement agreement provisions in effect or elected by such minor under a life insurance policy or annuity contract, if such policy, contract or agreement provides for the payment to such minor. No such minor shall be deemed competent to alienate the right to or to anticipate or commute such payments. This section shall not be deemed to restrict the rights of minors set forth in §627.01051 of this chapter.

(2) If a guardian of the property of any such minor is duly appointed and written notice thereof is given to the insurer at its home office, any such payment thereafter falling due shall be paid to the guardian for the account of the minor, unless the policy or contract under which the payment is made expressly provides otherwise.

(3) This section shall not be deemed to require any insurer making any such payment to determine whether any other insurer may be effecting a similar payment to the same minor.

History.—§473, ch. 59-205.

627.0124 Forms for proof of loss to be furnished.—An insurer shall furnish, upon written request of any person claiming to have a loss under an insurance contract issued by such insurer, forms of proof of loss for completion by such person, but such insurer shall not, by reason of the requirement so to furnish forms, have any responsibility for or with reference to the completion of such proof or the manner of any such completion or attempted completion.

History.—§474, ch. 59-205.

627.0125 Claims administration not waiver.—Without limitation of any right or defense of an insurer otherwise, none of the following acts by or on behalf of an insurer shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any provision of a policy or of any defense of the insurer thereunder:

(1) Acknowledgement of the receipt of notice of loss or claim under the policy.

(2) Furnishing forms for reporting a loss or claim, for giving information relative thereto, or for making proof of loss, or receiving or acknowledging receipt of any such forms or proofs completed or uncompleted.

(3) Investigating any loss or claim under any policy or engaging in negotiations looking toward a possible settlement of any such loss or claim.

History.—§475, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0126 Payment of judgment by insurer; penalty for failure.—

(1) Every judgment or decree for the recovery of money, heretofore or hereafter entered in any of the courts of this state against any authorized insurer, shall be fully satisfied within sixty days from and after the entry thereof, or in the case of an appeal from such judgment or decree then within sixty days from and after the affirmance of the same by the appellate court.

(2) If the judgment or decree is not satisfied as required under subsection (1), and proof of such failure to satisfy is made by filing with the commissioner a certified transcript of the docket of the judgment or decree together with a certificate by the clerk of the court wherein the judgment or decree was entered that the judgment or decree remains unsatisfied, in whole or in part, after the time aforesaid, the commissioner shall forthwith revoke the insurer's certificate of authority. The commissioner shall not issue to such insurer any new certificate of authority until the judgment or decree is wholly paid and satisfied and proof thereof filed with the commissioner under the official certificate of the clerk of the court wherein the judgment was recovered, showing that the same is satisfied of record, and until the expenses and fees incurred in the case are also paid by the insurer.

History.—§476, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.09.

627.0127 Attorney fee.—Upon the rendition of a judgment or decree by any of the courts of this state against an insurer in favor of an insured or the named beneficiary under a policy or contract executed by the insurer, the trial judge shall adjudge or decree against the insurer and in favor of the insured or beneficiary, a reasonable sum as fees or compensation for the insured's or beneficiary's attorney prosecuting the suit in which the recovery is had. Except, that without any prejudice or effect whatsoever as to suits relating to other kinds of insurance, no such attorney fee shall be allowed in any such suit based on a claim arising under a life insurance policy or annuity contract if such suit was commenced prior to expiration of sixty days after proof of the claim was duly filed with the insurer. Where so awarded compensation or fees of the attorney shall be included in the judgment or decree rendered in the case.

History.—§477, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.08.

PART III

LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES AND ANNUITY CONTRACTS

627.0200 Scope of part III.
627.0201 Standard provisions required.
627.0202 Grace period.
627.0203 Entire contract.
627.0204 Incontestability.
627.0205 Misstatement of age or sex.
627.0206 Dividends.
627.0207 Policy loan.
627.0208 Reinstatement.
627.0209 Authority to alter contract.
627.0210 Settlement on proof of death.
627.0211 Table of installments.
627.0212 Excluded or restricted coverage.
627.0213 Annuity, pure endowment contracts; standard provisions required.
627.0214 Annuities; grace period.
627.0215 Same; incontestability.

627.0216 Same; entire contract.
627.0217 Same; misstatement of age or sex.
627.0218 Same; dividends.
627.0219 Same; reinstatement.
627.0220 Reversionary annuities; standard provisions.
627.0221 Incontestability after reinstatement.
627.0222 Policy settlements.
627.0223 Policy must contain entire contract.
627.0224 Nonforfeiture benefits; certain interim policies.
627.0225 Standard nonforfeiture law; life insurance.
627.0226 Registered policies; deposit of assets.
627.0227 Same; deficiency of deposit.
627.0228 Prohibited policy plans.

627.0200 Scope of part III.—Part III of this chapter applies to contracts of life insurance and to annuity contracts, other than reinsurance, group life insurance, group annuities, and industrial life insurance; except that §§627.0212 (excluded or restricted coverage), 627.0221 (incontestability after reinstatement), 627.0225 (standard nonforfeiture law), and 627.0228 (prohibited policy plans) part III of this chapter shall also apply to industrial life insurance. Part III of this chapter shall not apply to credit life insurance except as provided in part VIII of chapter 627.

History.—§478, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0201 Standard provisions required.—

(1) No policy of life insurance, except as stated in subsection (3), shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the provisions as required by §§627.0202-627.0211 inclusive, and §§627.0224 and 627.0225 of this chapter, or provisions which in the commissioner's opinion are more favorable to the policyholder.

(2) Any of such provisions or portions thereof not applicable to single premium or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein.

(3) This section does not apply to annuity contracts, or to any provision of a life insurance policy or contract supplemental thereto relating to disability benefits or to additional benefits in the event of death by accident or accidental means.

History.—§479, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0202 Grace period.—There shall be a provision that the insured is entitled to a grace period of not less than thirty days or at the option of the insurer of one month but not less than thirty days, within which payment of any premium after the first may be made, subject at the option of the insurer to an interest charge not in excess of six per cent per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before the payment of the premium, during which period of grace the policy shall continue in force; but in case the policy becomes a claim during the grace period before the overdue premium is paid, or the deferred premiums of the current policy year, if any, are paid, the amount of such premium or premiums with interest not in excess of six per cent per annum thereon may be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

History.—§480, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0203 Entire contract.—There shall be a provision that the policy, or the policy and the application therefor if a copy of such application is endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties, and that all statements contained in the application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

History.—§481, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.02, 635.211.

627.0204 Incontestability.—There shall be a provision that the policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the insured for a period of two years from its date of issue, except for nonpayment of premiums and except, at the option of the insurer, as to provisions relative to benefits in event of disability and as to provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means.

History.—§482, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0205 Misstatement of age or sex.—There shall be a provision that if it is found that the age or sex of the insured (or the age or sex of any other individual considered in determining the premium or benefit) has been misstated, the amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased according to the correct age or sex. Such calculations shall be in accordance with the insurer's rate at date of issue and at the option of the insurer this may be so specified in the policy.

History.—§483, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§630.04, 635.211.

627.0206 Dividends.—

(1) There shall be a provision in participating policies that, beginning not later than the end of the third policy year, the insurer shall annually ascertain and apportion the divisible surplus, if any, that will accrue on the policy anniversary or other dividend date specified in the policy provided the policy is in force and all premiums to that date are paid.

(2) Except as hereinafter provided, any dividend so apportioned shall at the option of the party entitled to elect such option be either payable in cash or applied to any one of such other dividend options as may be provided by the policy. If any such other dividend options are provided, the policy shall further state which option shall be automatically effective if such party shall not have elected some other option. If the policy specifies a period within which such other option may be elected, such period shall be not less than thirty days following the date on which such dividend is due and payable.

(3) The annually apportioned dividend shall be deemed to be payable in cash within the meaning of subsection (2) even though the policy provides that payment of such dividend is to be deferred for a specified period, provided such period does not exceed six years from the date of apportionment and that interest will be added to such dividend at a specified rate.

(4) If a participating policy provides that the benefit under any paid-up nonforfeiture provision is to be participating, it may provide that any divisible surplus apportioned while the insurance is in force under such nonforfeiture provision shall be applied in the manner set forth in the policy.

History.—§484, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0207 Policy loan.—

(1) There shall be a provision that after the policy has a cash surrender value and while no premium is in default, the insurer will advance, on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable in advance, an amount equal to or, at the option of the party entitled thereto, less than the loan value of the policy. The loan value of the policy shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value at the end of the then current policy year, provided that the insurer may deduct, either from such loan value or from the proceeds of the loan, any existing indebtedness not already deducted in determining such cash surrender value including any interest then accrued but not due, any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and interest on the loan to the end of the current policy year.

(2) The policy may also provide that if interest on any indebtedness is not paid when due it shall then be added to the existing indebtedness and shall bear interest at the same rate, and that if and when the total indebtedness on the policy, including interest due or accrued, equals or exceeds the amount of loan value thereof, then the policy shall terminate and become void, but not until at least thirty days notice shall have been mailed by the insurer to the last known address of the insured or policy owner and of any assignee of record at the home office of the insurer.

(3) The policy shall reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of a loan, other than for the payment of any premium to the insurer, for six months after application therefor.

(4) This section shall not apply to term policies nor to term insurance benefits provided by rider or supplemental policy provision.

History.—§485, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0208 Reinstatement.—There shall be a provision that the policy may be reinstated upon written application therefor at any time within three years after the date of default in the payment of any premiums, unless the policy has been surrendered for its cash value or unless the paid-up term insurance, if any, has expired, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer and the payment of all overdue premiums, and payment (or, within the limits permitted by the then cash value of the policy, reinstatement) of any other indebtedness to the insurer upon the policy with interest as to both premium and indebtedness at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded annually.

History.—§486, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0209 Authority to alter contract.—There shall be a provision, at the option of the insurer, that no agent shall have the power or authority to waive, change, or alter any of the terms or conditions of any policy; except that, at the option of the insurer, the terms or conditions may be changed by an endorsement or rider signed by a duly authorized officer of the insurer.

History.—§487, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0210 Settlement on proof of death.—There shall be a provision that when a policy becomes a claim by the death of the insured, settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death and surrender of the policy.

History.—§488, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0211 Table of installments.—If a policy provides for payment of its proceeds in installments, a table showing the amount and period of such installments shall be included in the policy; except, that certain tables may be omitted from the policy if in the commissioner's judgment it is not practical to include them.

History.—§489, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0212 Excluded or restricted coverage.—A clause in any policy of life insurance providing that such policy shall be incontestable after a specified period shall preclude only a contest of the validity of the policy, and shall not preclude the assertion at any time of defenses based upon provisions in the policy which exclude or restrict coverage, whether or not such restrictions or exclusions are excepted in such clause.

History.—§490, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.211, 635.213.

627.0213 Annuity, pure endowment contracts; standard provisions required.—

(1) No fixed dollar annuity, variable annuity or pure endowment contract, other than reversionary annuities, survivorship annuities, or group annuities, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the provisions set forth in §§627.0214-627.0219, inclusive, or provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are more favorable to the policyholder. Any of such provisions not applicable to single premium annuities or single premium pure endowment contracts shall not to that extent be incorporated therein.

(2) This section shall not apply to contracts for annuities included in or upon the lives of beneficiaries under life insurance policies.

History.—§491, ch. 59-205; (1) a. by §10, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0214 Annuities; grace period.—In a fixed dollar annuity, variable annuity or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship or group annuity, there shall be a provision that there shall be a period of grace of one month but not less than thirty days, within which any stipulated payment to the insurer falling due after the first may be made, subject at the option of the insurer, to an interest charge thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per cent per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before such payment, during which period of grace the contract shall continue in full force; but in case a claim arises under the contract on account of death prior to expiration of the period of grace before the overdue payment to the insurer or the deferred payments of the current contract year, if any are made, the amount of such payments, with interest on any overdue payments, may be deducted from any amount payable under the contract in settlement.

History.—§492, ch. 59-205; §11, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0215 Same; incontestability.—If any statements, other than those relating to age, sex and identity are required as a condition to issuing a fixed dollar annuity contract, variable annuity contract or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship or group annuity, and subject to §627.0217, there shall be a provision that the contract shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the person or of each of the persons as to whom such statements are required, for a period of two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of stipulated payments to the insurer; and at the option of the insurer such contract may also except any provisions relative to benefits in the event of disability and any provisions which grant insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means.

History.—§493, ch. 59-205; §12, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0216 Same; entire contract.—In a fixed dollar annuity contract, variable annuity contract or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, there shall be a provision that the contract shall constitute the entire contract between the parties or, if a copy of the application is endorsed upon or attached to the contract when issued, a provision that the contract and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

History.—§494, ch. 59-205; §13, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0217 Same; misstatement of age or sex.—In a fixed dollar annuity contract, variable annuity contract or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, there shall be a provision that if the age or sex of the person or persons upon whose life or lives the contract is made, or of any of them, has been misstated, the amount payable or benefits accruing under the contract shall be such as the stipulated payment or payments to the insurer would have purchased according to the correct age or sex; and that if the insurer shall make or has made any overpayment or overpayments on account of any such misstatement, the amount thereof, with interest at the rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per cent per annum, may be charged against the current or next succeeding payment or payments to be made by the insurer under the contract.

History.—§495, ch. 59-205; §14, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0218 Same; dividends.—If a fixed dollar annuity contract, variable annuity contract or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, is participating, there shall be a provision that, beginning not later than the end of the third contract year, the insurer shall annually ascertain and apportion any divisible surplus accruing on the contract.

History.—§496, ch. 59-205; §15, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0219 Same; reinstatement.—In a fixed dollar annuity contract, variable annuity contract or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, there shall be a provision that the contract may be reinstated upon written application therefor at any time within one year from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the insurer, unless the cash surrender value has been paid, but all overdue stipulated payments and any indebtedness to the insurer on the contract shall be paid or reinstated, with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per cent per annum payable annually; and in cases where applicable the insurer may also include a requirement of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer.

History.—§497, ch. 59-205; §16, ch. 61-441.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.201.

627.0220 Reversionary annuities; standard provisions.—

(1) Except as stated herein, no contract for a reversionary annuity shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the following provisions:

(a) Any such reversionary annuity contract shall contain the provisions specified in §§627.0214 through 627.0218 except that under §627.0214 the insurer may at its option provide for an equitable reduction of the amount of the annuity payments in settlement of an overdue or deferred payment in lieu of providing for deduction of such payments from an amount payable upon settlement under the contract.

(b) In such reversionary annuity contracts there shall be a provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within three years from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the insurer, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer, and upon condition that all overdue payments and any indebtedness to the insurer on account of the contract be paid, or, within the limits permitted by the then cash value of the contract, reinstated, with interest as to both payments and indebtedness at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded annually.

(2) This section shall not apply to group annuities or to annuities included in life insurance policies, and any of such provisions not applicable to single premium annuities shall not to that extent be incorporated therein.

History.—§498, ch. 59-205.

627.0221 Incontestability after reinstatement.—A reinstated policy of life insurance, fixed dollar annuity contract or variable annuity contract may be contested on account of fraud or misrepresentation of facts material to the reinstatement only for the same period following reinstatement and with the same conditions and exceptions as the policy provides with respect to contestability after original issuance.

History.—§499, ch. 59-205; §17, ch. 61-441.

627.0222 Policy settlements.—Any life insurer shall have the power to hold under agreement the proceeds of any policy issued by it, upon such terms and restrictions as to revocation by the policyholder and control by beneficiaries and with such exemptions from the claims of creditors of beneficiaries other than the policyholder as set forth in the policy or as agreed to in writing by the insurer and the policyholder. Upon maturity of a policy, in the event the policyholder has made no such agreement, the insurer shall have the power to hold the proceeds of the policy under an agreement with the beneficiaries. The insurer shall not be required to segregate the funds so held but may hold them as part of its general assets.

History.—§500, ch. 59-205.

627.0223 Policy must contain entire contract.—No life insurer or any agent thereof shall make any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract other than as plainly expressed in the policy issued thereon.

History.—§501, ch. 59-205.

627.0224 Nonforfeiture benefits; certain interim policies.—Each life insurance policy issued between the effective date of this code and the operative date of §627.0225 (standard nonforfeiture law) shall provide:

(1) That, in the event of default in any premium, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy.

(2) That, upon surrender of the policy within sixty days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least three full years, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value at least equal to the minimum cash surrender value herein-after specified. The minimum cash surrender value shall be equal to

(a) The reserve on the date of default of the premium less a sum of not more than two and one-half per cent of the face amount, or

(b) An amount as defined in §627.0225 but on the basis of the commissioners' 1941 standard ordinary mortality table in lieu of the commissioners' 1958 standard ordinary mortality table

therein specified. The policy shall reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of any cash surrender value for six months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(3) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit the present value of which shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, provided, however, that where the mortality table used is the commissioners' 1941 standard ordinary mortality table, the rates of mortality to be assumed in calculating any extended term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, may be not more than one hundred and thirty per cent of the rates of mortality according to such table.

(4) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary either during the first twenty policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter.

(5) This section does not apply to term policies of uniform amount of fifteen years duration or less, to increasing term policies of fifteen years duration or less, nor to decreasing term policies.

History.—§502, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.211.

627.0225 Standard nonforfeiture law; life insurance.—

(1) This section shall be known as the standard nonforfeiture law.

(2) NONFORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—In the case of policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined in subsection (11), no policy of life insurance, except as set forth in subsection (10), shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it shall contain in substance the following provisions, or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder.

(a) That in the event of default in any premium payment, after premiums have been paid for at least one full year in the case of ordinary insurance or three full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy, effective as of such due date, of such value as may be hereinafter specified.

(b) That upon surrender of the policy within sixty days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least three full years in the case of ordinary insurance, and five full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be hereinafter specified.

(c) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default.

(d) That if the policy shall have become paid up by completion of all premium payments, or if it is continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit which became effective on or after the third policy anniversary in the case of ordinary insurance, or the fifth policy anniversary in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay upon surrender of the policy within thirty days after any policy anniversary, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be hereinafter specified.

(e) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary, either during the first twenty policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter, such values and benefits to be calculated upon the assumption that there are no dividends or paid-up additions credited to the policy and that there is no indebtedness to the insurer on the policy.

(f) A statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to the insurance law of this state; an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the insurer on the policy; if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein, a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered; and a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy.

(3) Any of the provisions or portions thereof set forth in paragraphs (a) through (f) of subsection (2) which are not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the policy. The insurer shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of six months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(4) CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Any cash surrender value available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary, whether or not required by subsection (2), shall be an amount not less than the excess, if any, of the present value on such anniversary of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, if there had been no default, over the sum of:

(a) The then present value of the adjusted premiums as defined in subsection (6), corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary, and

(b) The amount of any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

Any cash surrender value available within thirty days after any policy anniversary under any policy paid up by completion of all premium payments, or any policy continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, whether or not required by such subsection (2), shall be an amount not less than the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, decreased by any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(5) PAID-UP NONFORFEITURE BENEFITS.—Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value then provided for by the policy, or, if none is provided for, that cash surrender value which would have been required by this section in the absence of the condition that premiums shall have been paid for at least a specified period.

(6) THE ADJUSTED PREMIUM.—The adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding extra premiums on a substandard policy, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of:

(a) The then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(b) Two per cent of the amount of the insurance if the insurance be uniform in amount, or of the equivalent uniform amount, as hereinafter defined, if the amount of insurance varies with the duration of the policy;

(c) Forty per cent of the adjusted premium for the first policy year;

(d) Twenty-five per cent of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less. Provided, however, that in applying the percentages specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) above, no adjusted premium shall be deemed to exceed four per cent of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto. The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this subsection shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(7) In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with the duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of subsection (6) shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy, provided, however, that in the case of a policy for a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age ten, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age ten were the amount provided by such policy at age ten.

(8) All adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall for all policies of ordinary insurance be calculated on the basis of the commissioners' 1958 standard ordinary mortality table, provided that for any category of such policies issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than three years younger than the actual age of the insured. Such calculations for all policies of industrial insurance shall be made on the basis of the 1941 standard industrial mortality table. All calculations shall be made on the basis of the rate of interest, not exceeding three and one-half per cent per annum, specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, provided, however, that in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioners' 1958 extended term insurance table, for ordinary policies, and, in the case of industrial policies, not more than one hundred thirty per cent of the rates of mortality according to the 1941 standard industrial mortality table. Provided further that for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the insurer and approved by the commissioner.

(9) CALCULATION OF VALUES.—Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond the last preceding policy anniversary. All values referred to in subsections (4)-(8) of this section may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death. The net value of any paid-up additions, other than paid-up term additions, shall be not less than the dividends used to provide such additions. If term insurance benefits are provided by a rider or by a supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this section would apply, additional cash surrender values and additional paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, if any, at least equal to those required if issued as a separate policy, may be provided by the insurer and shall be deemed to be in compliance with this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4), additional benefits payable:

(a) In the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means,

(b) In the event of total and permanent disability,

(c) As reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits,

(d) As term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this section would not apply, and

(e) As term insurance on the life of a child or on the lives of children provided in a policy on the life of a parent of the child, if such term insurance expires before the child's age is twenty-six, is uniform in amount after the child's age is one, and has not become paid-up by reason of the death of a parent of the child, and

(f) As other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits, and premiums for all such additional benefits, shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits required by this section, and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits.

(10) EXCEPTIONS.—This section shall not apply to any re-insurance, group insurance, pure endowment, annuity or reversionary annuity contract, nor to any term policy of uniform amount, or renewal thereof, of, fifteen years or less expiring before age sixty-six, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy, nor to any term policy of decreasing amount on which each adjusted premium calculated as specified in subsections (6)-(8) is less than the adjusted premium so calculated on a policy of uniform amount issued at the same age and for the same initial amount of insurance for a term defined as follows: For ages at issue fifty and under the term shall be fifteen years; thereafter, the term shall decrease one year for each year of age beyond fifty.

(11) OPERATIVE DATE.—After the effective date of this code, any insurer may file with commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1966. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date for such insurer) this section shall become operative with respect to the policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be January 1, 1966.

History.—§503, ch. 59-205; (9) (e) n. and subsequent paragraph. renum. by §3, ch. 61-106.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.211, 635.213.

627.0226 Registered policies; deposit of assets.—

(1) Any life insurer which has outstanding any policies heretofore issued under laws heretofore in force providing for the deposit with the commissioner of assets equal to the legal reserve on such policies in force, less any loans or liens on such policies not in excess of such legal reserve, and providing for a certificate upon the face of such policies in substantially the following words: "This policy is registered, and approved securities equal in value to the legal reserve thereon are held in trust by the insurance commissioner," shall continue to make such deposits as required by such laws and such policies.

(2) No insurer shall hereafter issue any new such policy.

(3) All deposits under this section are subject to the applicable provisions of part III of chapter 625 of this code (administration of deposits).

History.—§504, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.11, 635.13.

627.0227 Same; deficiency of deposit.—

(1) If at any time the value of assets held on deposit as to a particular insurer under §627.0226 is less than the legal reserves currently required to be held as to all the insurer's life insurance policies and annuity contracts, which are subject to §627.0226, then in force, the insurer shall not issue any additional life insurance policies or annuity contracts while such deficiency exists. This provision does not apply as to industrial life insurance.

(2) If the insurer has failed to cure such a deficiency after the commissioner has given the insurer notice thereof by registered mail, within such reasonable time, not exceeding ninety days, as may be allowed therefor by the commissioner and so specified in such notice, the insurer shall be deemed to be insolvent and the commissioner shall revoke its certificate of authority and institute delinquency proceedings against the insurer under chapter 631 of this code.

History.—§505, ch. 59-205.

627.0228 Prohibited policy plans.—

(1) No insurer shall issue policies, certificates or contracts to policyholders or members providing for the grouping of its policyholders or members into groups and divisions, classified according to age, and providing for payment of contingent endowment benefits, by whatever name called, from special funds created for such purpose to the oldest member in seniority of the group or division, or under any other similar plan.

(2) The commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority of any insurer which violates this section. Any officer or agent of an insurer who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as provided in §624.15 of this code.

History.—§506, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.17, 635.18, 635.23, 637.15.

PART IV

INDUSTRIAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES

627.0300 Scope of part IV.
627.0301 Industrial life insurance defined.
627.0302 Required provisions.
627.0303 Grace period.
627.0304 Entire contract; statements in application.
627.0305 Incontestability.
627.0306 Misstatement of age or sex.
627.0307 Dividends.
627.0308 Reinstatement.

627.0309 Settlement.
627.0310 Authority to alter contract.
627.0311 Beneficiary.
627.0312 Facility of payment.
627.0313 Nonforfeiture benefits; certain interim policies.
627.0314 Title.
627.0315 Direct payment of premiums.
627.0316 Conversion.

627.0300 Scope of part IV.—The provisions of part IV of this chapter shall apply only to industrial life insurance policies. Sections 627.0212 (excluded or restricted coverage), 627.0221 (incontestability after reinstatement), 627.0225 (standard nonforfeiture law), and 627.0228 (prohibited policy plans) of part III of chapter 627 shall also apply as to industrial life insurance policies.

History.—§507, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0301 Industrial life insurance defined.—For the purposes of this code "industrial life insurance" is that form of life insurance written under policies under which premiums are payable monthly or more often, bearing the words "industrial policy" or "weekly premium policy" or words of similar import imprinted upon the policy as part of the descriptive matter, and issued by an insurer which, as to such industrial life insurance, is operating under a system of collecting a debit by its agent.

History.—§508, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.212.

627.0302 Required provisions.—

(1) No policy of industrial or weekly premium life insurance shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the provisions as required in §§627.0303 through 627.0314 inclusive, and §627.0225 or provisions which in the commissioner's opinion are more favorable to the policyholder.

(2) Any of such provisions or portions thereof not applicable to single premium or term policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein.

History.—§509, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0303 Grace period.—There shall be a provision that the insured is entitled to a grace period of four weeks within which the payment of any premiums after the first may be made, except that in policies the premiums for which are payable monthly, the period of grace shall be one month, but not less than thirty days; that during the period of grace the policy shall continue in full force, but if during the grace period the policy becomes a claim, then any premiums then due and unpaid may be deducted from any settlement under the policy.

History.—§510, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0304 Entire contract; statements in application.—There shall be a provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties, or, if a copy of the application is endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued, a provision that the policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract. If the application is so made a part of the contract, the policy shall also provide that all statements made by the applicant in such application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed to be representations and not warranties.

History.—§511, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0305 Incontestability.—There shall be a provision that the policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the insured for a period of two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premiums, and except, at the option of the insurer, as to provisions providing benefits for disability or specifically for death by accident or accidental means.

History.—§512, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0306 Misstatement of age or sex.—There shall be a provision that if it is found that the age or sex of the individual insured, or the age or sex of any other individual considered in determining the premium, has been misstated, any amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased according to the correct sex or age. Such calculations shall be in accordance with the insurer's rate at date of issue and at the insurer's option this may be so specified in the policy.

History.—§513, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0307 Dividends.—If a participating policy, there shall be a provision that the insurer shall annually ascertain and apportion any divisible surplus accruing on the policy. This provision shall not prohibit the payment of additional dividends on default of payment of premiums or termination of the policy.

History.—§514, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0308 Reinstatement.—There shall be a provision that the policy may be reinstated at any time within two years after the date of default in the payment of any premium, unless the policy has been surrendered for its cash value or unless the paid-up term insurance, if any, has expired, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer and the payment of all overdue premiums and payment (or, within the limits permitted by the then cash value of the policy, reinstatement) of any other indebtedness to the insurer upon the policy with interest as to both premiums and indebtedness at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded annually.

History.—§515, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0309 Settlement.—There shall be a provision that when the policy becomes a claim by the death of the insured, settlement shall be made upon surrender of the policy and receipt of due proof of death or after a specified period not exceeding sixty days after such surrender and receipt of such proof. At the insurer's option surrender of the premium receipt book may also be required.

History.—§516, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0310 Authority to alter contract.—There shall be a provision that no agent shall have the power or authority to waive, change or alter any of the terms or conditions of any policy; except that at the option of the insurer the terms or conditions may be changed by an endorsement or rider signed by a duly authorized officer of the insurer.

History.—§517, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0311 Beneficiary.—Each such policy shall have a space for the name of the beneficiary designated with a reservation of the right to designate or change the beneficiary after the issuance of the policy. The policy may also provide that no designation or change of beneficiary shall be binding on the insurer until endorsed on the policy by the insurer, and that the insurer may refuse to endorse the name of any proposed beneficiary who does not appear to the insurer to have an insurable interest in the life of the insured.

History.—§518, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0312 Facility of payment.—The policy may also provide that if the beneficiary designated in the policy does not make a claim under the policy or does not surrender the policy with due proof of death within the period stated in the policy, which shall not be less than thirty days after the death of the insured, or if the beneficiary is the estate of the insured or is a minor, or dies before the insured or is not legally competent to give valid release, then the insurer may make payment thereunder to the executor or administrator of the insured, or to any of the insured's relatives by blood or legal adoption or connection by marriage, or to any person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto or to any person who has incurred expense for the maintenance, medical attention or burial of the insured. The policy may also include a similar provision applicable to any other payment due under the policy.

History.—§519, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0313 Nonforfeiture benefits; certain interim policies.—Each industrial life insurance policy issued between the effective date of this code and the operative date of §627.0225 (standard nonforfeiture law) shall provide:

(1) That, in the event of default in any premiums, the insurer will grant upon proper request not later than thirteen weeks or three months after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy.

(2) That upon surrender of the policy within thirteen weeks or three months after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least five full years, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value at least equal to the minimum cash surrender value hereinafter specified. The minimum cash surrender value shall be equal to

(a) The reserve on the date of default of the premium less a sum of not more than two and one-half per cent of the face amount, or

(b) An amount as defined in §627.0225. The policy shall reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of any cash surrender value for six months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

(3) That a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, the present value of which shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value, shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than thirteen weeks or three months after the due date of the premium in default, provided, however, that where the mortality table used is the 1941 standard industrial mortality table, the rates of mortality to be assumed in calculating any extended term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, may be not more than one hundred and thirty per cent of the rates of mortality according to such table.

(4) A statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary either during the first twenty policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter.

(5) This section does not apply to term policies of uniform amount of fifteen years duration or less, to increasing term policies of fifteen years duration or less, nor to decreasing term policies.

History.—§520, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.213.

627.0314 Title.—There shall be a title on the face of each such policy briefly describing its form.

History.—§521, ch. 59-205.

627.0315 Direct payment of premiums.—In the case of weekly premium policies, there may be a provision that upon proper notice to the insurer, while premiums on the policy are not in default beyond the grace period, of the intention to pay future premiums directly to the insurer at its home office or any office designated by the insurer for the purpose, the insurer will at the end of each period of a year from the due date of the first premium so paid, for which period such premiums are so paid continuously without default beyond the grace period, refund a stated percentage of the premiums in an amount which fairly represents the savings in collection expense.

History.—§522, ch. 59-205.

627.0316 Conversion.—There may be a provision in the case of industrial policies granting to the insured, upon proper written request and upon presentation of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer, the privilege of converting any industrial insurance policy to any form of life insurance with less frequent premium payments regularly issued by the insurer, in accordance with terms and conditions agreed upon with the insurer. The privilege of making such conversion need be granted only if the insurer's industrial policies on the life insured, in force as premium paying insurance and on which conversion is requested, grant benefits in event of death, exclusive of additional accidental death benefits and exclusive of any dividend additions, in an amount not less than the minimum amount of such insurance with less frequent premium payments issued by the insurer at the age of the insured on the plan of industrial or ordinary insurance desired.

History.—§523, ch. 59-205.

PART V

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

- 627.0400 Group contracts must meet group requirements.
- 627.0401 Employee groups.
- 627.0402 Debtor groups.
- 627.0403 Labor union groups.
- 627.0404 Trustee groups.
- 627.0405 Credit union groups.
- 627.0406 Limit as to amount.
- 627.0407 Provisions required in group contracts.
- 627.0408 Grace period.
- 627.0409 Incontestability.

627.0400 Group contracts must meet group requirements.—

(1) No life insurance policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state insuring the lives of more than one individual unless to one of the groups as provided for in §§627.0401-627.0405, and unless in compliance with the other applicable provisions of part V of this chapter.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to life insurance policies:

(a) Insuring only individuals related by blood, marriage or legal adoption; or

(b) Insuring only individuals having a common interest through ownership of a business enterprise, or a substantial legal interest or equity therein, and who are actively engaged in the management thereof; or

(c) Insuring only individuals otherwise having an insurable interest in each other's lives.

- 627.0410 Application; statements deemed representations.
- 627.0411 Insurability.
- 627.0412 Misstatement of age.
- 627.0413 Payment of benefits.
- 627.0414 Certificate.
- 627.0415 Conversion on termination of eligibility.
- 627.0416 Conversion on termination of policy.
- 627.0417 Death pending conversion.
- 627.0418 Use of dividends, refunds, fees, etc.
- 627.0419 Premium rates.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the provisions of §§112.08 to 112.14.

History.—§524, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0401 Employee groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an employer, or to the trustees of a fund established by an employer, which employer or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The employees eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the employer, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the employees of one or more subsidiary corporations, and the employees, individual proprietors, and partners of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships if the business of the employer and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director. No individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership. A policy issued to insure the employees of a public body may provide that the term "employees" shall include elected or appointed officials.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the policyholder's funds or funds contributed by the employer, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured employees. No policy may be issued on which the entire gross premium charged for the insurance by the insurer is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees may be placed in force only if at least sixty per cent of the then eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees must insure all eligible employees, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at least ten employees at date of issue.

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or by the employer or trustees.

History.—§525, ch. 59-205; (3) §1, ch. 63-187.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0402 Debtor groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the debtors of the creditor whose indebtedness is repayable in installments, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the indebtedness or to the purchase giving rise to the indebtedness. The policy may provide that the term "debtors" shall include the debtors of one or more subsidiary corporations, and the debtors of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships if the business of the policyholder and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds, or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or from both. A policy on which part or all of the premium is to be derived from the collection from the insured debtors of identifiable charges not required of uninsured debtors shall not include, in the class or classes of debtors eligible for insurance, debtors under obligations outstanding at its date of issue without evidence of individual insurability unless at least seventy-five per cent of the then eligible debtors elect to pay the required charges. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from the collection of such identifiable charges must insure all eligible debtors, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer. The policy may be issued only if the group of eligible debtors is then receiving new entrants at the rate of at least one hundred persons yearly, or may reasonably be expected to receive at least one hundred new entrants during the first policy year, and only if the policy reserves to the insurer the right to require evidence of individual insurability if less than seventy-five per cent of the new entrants become insured. The policy may exclude from the classes eligible for insurance classes of debtors determined by age.

(3) The amount of insurance on the life of any debtor shall at no time exceed the amount owed by him which is repayable in installments to the creditor, or five thousand dollars, whichever is less, except that loans not exceeding one year duration shall not be subject to the five thousand dollars limit; provided further, that on such loans not exceeding one year duration the limit of coverage shall not exceed ten thousand dollars with any one insurer.

(4) The insurance shall be payable to the policyholder. Such payment shall reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness of the debtor to the extent of such payment.

History.—§526, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0403 Labor union groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a labor union, or to the trustees of a fund established in this state by a labor union, which shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure members of such union for the benefit of persons other than the union or any of its officials, representatives or agents, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The members eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the members of the union, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the union, or both. In the case of a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established in this state by a labor union, the policy may provide that the trustees or their employees, or both, may be insured under the policy if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder either wholly from the policyholder's funds or funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the labor union, or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. No policy may be issued on which the entire gross premium charged for the insurance by the insurer is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least sixty per cent of the then eligible members, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible members, or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at least ten members at date of issue.

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the members or by the union.

History.—§527, ch. 59-205; (2) §1, ch. 61-107; (3) §2, ch. 63-187.
Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0404 Trustee groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers in the same industry, or by two or more labor unions, or to the trustees of a fund established by one or more employers in the same industry and one or more labor unions, or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions whose members are in the same or related occupations or trades, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions, subject to the following requirements:

(1) No policy may be issued

(a) To insure employees of any employer whose eligibility to participate in the fund as an employer arises out of considerations directly related to the employer being a commercial correspondent or business client or patron of another employer (regardless of whether such other employer is or is not participating in the fund), or

(b) To insure employees of any employer which is not located in this state, unless the majority of the employers whose employees are to be insured are located in this state, or unless the employer has assumed obligations through a collective bargaining agreement and is participating in the fund either pursuant to those obligations with regard to one or more classes of his employees which are encompassed in the collective bargaining agreement or as a method of providing insurance benefits for other classes of his employees, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more labor unions.

(2) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employees of the employers or all of the members of the unions, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, or to membership in the unions, or to both. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees, and the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director.

Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to retired employees, no individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy as an employee unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership and further that he has five or more full-time employees, other than his parents, spouse or children, who are eligible for the insurance and who elect to be insured under the policy. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(3) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder either wholly from the policyholder's fund or funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons, or by the union or unions, or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured persons. No policy may be issued on which the entire gross premium charged for the insurance by the insurer is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees or members specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least seventy-five per cent of the then eligible persons, excluding any as to whom evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible persons or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(4) The policy must cover at date of issue at least one hundred persons and not less than a minimum of five persons, other than individual proprietors or partners, per employer unit unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by employers which have assumed obligations through a collective bargaining agreement and are participating in the fund either pursuant to those obligations with regard to one or more classes of their employees which are encompassed in the collective bargaining agreement or as a method of providing insurance benefits for other classes of their employees, or unless the employer unit is a subsidiary corporation of an employer in the group or is an affiliated corporation, proprietorship or partnership of an employer in the group whose business and that of such employer is under common control, or unless the policy is issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more labor unions; and in addition to the foregoing requirements if the fund is established by the members of a group of employers the policy may be issued only if either

(a) The participating employers constitute at date of issue at least sixty per cent of those employer members whose employees are not already covered for group life insurance, or

(b) The total number of persons covered at date of issue exceeds six hundred; and the policy shall not require that, if a participating employer discontinues membership in such group of employers, the insurance of his employees shall cease solely by reason of such discontinuance.

(5) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder, or employers or unions.

History.—§528, ch. 59-205; §2, ch. 61-107.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0405 Credit union groups.—The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a credit union, which shall be deemed to be the policyholder for the purpose of this section, the premium on which is to be paid by the credit union or by the credit union and its members jointly, and insuring all of its eligible members for the amounts of insurance, not in excess of the share balance, or two thousand dollars, whichever is less, as to each member, based upon some plan which will preclude individual selection, for the benefit of the share account of the member or some person or persons other than the credit union or its officials, provided, that all eligible members of a credit union may be insured; provided, also, that when the premium is to be paid by the credit union and its members jointly and the benefits are offered to all eligible members, not less than seventy-five per cent of such members may be so insured.

History.—§529, ch. 59-205; §1, ch. 63-6.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0406 Limit as to amount.—

(1) No such policy of group life insurance may be issued to an employer or to a labor union, or to the trustees of a fund established in whole or in part by an employer or a labor union, which provides term insurance on any person which together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to any employer or employers of such person or to any labor union or labor unions of which such person is a member or to the trustees of any fund or funds established in whole or in part by such employer or employers or such labor union or labor unions, exceeds twenty thousand dollars, unless two hundred per cent of the annual compensation of such person from such employer or employers exceeds twenty thousand dollars, in which event all such term insurance shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars or two hundred per cent of such annual compensation, whichever is the lesser.

(2) No policy of group life insurance as described above providing insurance in excess of twenty thousand dollars on any individual shall be delivered in this state unless the eligibility requirements for the life insurance and schedule of amounts of life insurance with respect to individuals insured for more than twenty thousand dollars do not unfairly discriminate in favor of the officers, employees who are directors, partners, or proprietors.

History.—§530, ch. 59-205; §1, ch. 63-201.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.24.

627.0407 Provisions required in group contracts.—No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this state unless it contains in substance the provisions set forth in §§627.0408-627.0417 or provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are more favorable to the persons insured, or at least as favorable to the persons insured and more favorable to the policyholder; except, however, that:

(1) Sections 627.0413-627.0417 inclusive shall not apply to policies issued to a creditor to insure debtors of such creditor;

(2) The standard provisions required for individual life insurance policies shall not apply to group life insurance policies; and

(3) If the group life insurance policy is on a plan of insurance other than the term plan, it shall contain a nonforfeiture provision or provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner is or are equitable to the insured persons and to the policyholder, but nothing herein shall be construed to require that group life insurance policies contain the same nonforfeiture provisions as are required for individual life insurance policies.

History.—§531, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0408 Grace period.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the policyholder is entitled to a grace period of thirty-one days for the payment of any premium due except the first, during which grace period the death benefit coverage shall continue in force, unless the policyholder shall have given the insurer written notice of discontinuance in advance of the date of discontinuance and in accordance with the terms of the policy. The policy may provide that the policyholder shall be liable to the insurer for the payment of a pro rata premium for the time the policy was in force during such grace period.

History.—§532, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0409 Incontestability.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the validity of the policy shall not be contested, except for nonpayment of premium, after it has been in force for two years from its date of issue; and that no statement made by any person insured under the policy relating to his insurability shall be used in contesting the validity of the insurance with respect to which such statement was made after such insurance has been in force prior to the contest for a period of two years during such person's lifetime nor unless it is contained in a written instrument signed by him.

History.—§533, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0410 Application; statements deemed representations.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that a copy of the application, if any, of the policyholder shall be attached to the policy when issued, that all statements made by the policyholder or by the persons insured shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no statement made by any person insured shall be used in any contest unless a copy of the instrument containing the statement is or has been furnished to such person or to his beneficiary.

History.—§534, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0411 Insurability.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision setting forth the conditions, if any, under which the insurer reserves the right to require a person eligible for insurance to furnish evidence of individual insurability satisfactory to the insurer as a condition to part or all of his coverage.

History.—§535, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0412 Misstatement of age.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision specifying an equitable adjustment of premiums or of benefits or of both to be made in the event the age of a person insured has been misstated, such provision to contain a clear statement of the method of adjustment to be used.

History.—§536, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0413 Payment of benefits.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that any sum becoming due by reason of the death of the person insured shall be payable to the beneficiary designated by the person insured, subject to the provisions of the policy in the event there is no designated beneficiary as to all or any part of such sum, living at the death of the person insured, and subject to any right reserved by the insurer in the policy and set forth in the certificate to pay at its option a part of such sum not exceeding five hundred dollars to any person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto by reason of having incurred funeral or other expenses incident to the last illness or death of the person insured.

History.—§537, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0414 Certificate.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the insurer will issue to the policyholder for delivery to each person insured an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which he is entitled, to whom the insurance benefits are payable, and the rights and conditions set forth in §§627.0415, 627.0416, and 627.0417.

History.—§538, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0415 Conversion on termination of eligibility.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that if the insurance, or any portion of it, on a person covered under the policy ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy, such person shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, an individual policy of life insurance without disability or other supplementary benefits, provided application for the individual policy shall be made, and the first premium paid to the insurer, within thirty-one days after such termination, and provided further that:

(1) The individual policy shall, at the option of such person, be on any one of the forms, except term insurance, then customarily issued by the insurer at the age and for the amount applied for;

(2) The individual policy shall be in an amount not in excess of the amount of life insurance which ceases because of such termination, less, in the case of a person whose membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage terminates but who continues in employment in another class, the amount of any life insurance for which such person is or becomes eligible under any other group policy within thirty-one days after such termination, provided that any amount of insurance which shall have matured on or before the date of such termination as an endowment payable to the person insured, whether in one sum or in installments or in the form of an annuity, shall not, for the purposes of this provision, be included in the amount which is considered to cease because of such termination; and

(3) The premium on the individual policy shall be at the insurer's then customary rate applicable to the form and amount of the individual policy, to the class of risk to which such person then belongs, and to his age attained on the effective date of the individual policy.

History.—§539, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0416 Conversion on termination of policy.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that if the group policy terminates or is amended so as to terminate the insurance of any class of insured persons, every person insured thereunder at the date of such termination whose insurance terminates and who has been so insured for at least five years prior to such termination date shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer an individual policy of life insurance, subject to the same conditions and limitations as are provided by §627.0415, except that the group policy may provide that the amount of such individual policy shall not exceed the smaller of:

(1) The amount of the person's life insurance protection ceasing because of the termination or amendment of the group policy, less the amount of any life insurance for which he is or becomes eligible under any group policy issued or reinstated by the same or another insurer within thirty-one days after such termination, and

(2) Two thousand dollars.

History.—§540, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0417 Death pending conversion.—The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that if a person insured under the policy dies during the period within which he would have been entitled to have an individual policy issued to him in accordance with §627.0415 or §627.0416 and before such an individual policy shall have become effective, the amount of life insurance which he would have been entitled to have issued to him under such individual policy shall be payable as a claim under the group policy, whether or not application for the individual policy or the payment of the first premium therefor has been made.

History.—§541, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.25.

627.0418 Use of dividends, refunds, fees, etc.—If a dividend, premium refund, rate reduction, commission or service fee is received by any employer, labor union or association, under any and all group insurance policies heretofore or hereafter delivered in this state, with respect to which they are the policyholder, or an affiliate or subsidiary of a policyholder, covering the employees of one or more employers or the members of one or more labor unions or associations, or any combination thereof to which such employees or members contribute to the cost of the premiums for such insurance, the excess, if any, of the aggregate of such dividends, premium refunds, rate reductions, commissions and service fees over the aggregate expenditure of such employer, labor union or association towards the cost of such insurance, including its administration, for the current and preceding two years to the extent that they were not defrayed by dividends, premium refunds, rate reductions, commissions and service fees, shall be applied by the policyholder for the sole benefit of insured employees or members on a basis which precludes individual selection and unfair discrimination. If the aforesaid dividend, premium refund, rate reduction, commission or service fee is received by a trustee fund, it shall be applied by the trustees for the sole purposes of the trust.

History.—§542, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.251.

627.0419 Premium rates.—A life insurer may issue insurance policies under the provisions of this chapter at premium rates less than the usual rates or premiums for individual insurance policies.

History.—§543, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §635.26.

PART VI

DISABILITY INSURANCE POLICIES

627.0500 Scope of part VI.
627.0501 Scope, format of policy.
627.0502 Death benefits.
627.0503 Nonresident insured.
627.0504 Required provisions; captions, omissions, substitutions.
627.0505 Entire contract; changes.
627.0506 Time limit on certain defenses.
627.0507 Grace period.
627.0508 Reinstatement.
627.0509 Notice of claim.
627.0510 Claim forms.
627.0511 Proofs of loss.
627.0512 Time of payment of claims.
627.0513 Payment of claims.
627.0514 Physical examination, autopsy.
627.0515 Legal actions.
627.0516 Change of beneficiary.

627.0517 Optional policy provisions.
627.0518 Change of occupation.
627.0519 Misstatement of age or sex.
627.0520 Other insurance in this insurer.
627.0521 Insurance with other insurers.
627.0522 Same; other benefits.
627.0523 Relation of earnings to insurance.
627.0524 Unpaid premiums.
627.0525 Cancellation.
627.0526 Conformity with statutes.
627.0527 Illegal occupation.
627.0528 Intoxicants and narcotics.
627.0529 Order of certain provisions.
627.0530 Third party ownership.
627.0531 Requirements of other jurisdictions.
627.0532 Other policy provisions.
627.0533 Age limit.
627.0534 Excess insurance.

627.0535 Industrial disability insurance.
 627.0536 Construction of noncomplying contracts.

627.0500 Scope of part VI.—Nothing in part VI of this chapter shall apply to or affect:

(1) Any policy of liability or workmen's compensation insurance with or without supplementary expense coverage therein.

(2) Any group or blanket policy.

(3) Life insurance, endowment or annuity contracts, or contracts supplemental thereto which contain only such provisions relating to disability insurance as:

(a) Provide additional benefits in case of death or dismemberment or loss of sight by accident or accidental means, or as

(b) Operate to safeguard such contracts against lapse, or to give a special surrender value or special benefit or an annuity in the event that the insured or annuitant becomes totally and permanently disabled, as defined by the contract or supplemental contract.

(4) Reinsurance.

History.—§544, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§642.01, 642.09.

627.0501 Scope, format of policy.—No policy of disability insurance shall be delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state unless it otherwise complies with this code, and complies with the following:

(1) The entire money and other considerations therefor shall be expressed therein;

(2) The time when the insurance takes effect and terminates shall be expressed therein;

(3) It shall purport to insure only one person, except that a policy may insure, originally or by subsequent amendment, upon the application of an adult member of a family who shall be deemed the policyholder, any two or more eligible members of that family, including husband, wife, dependent children or any children under a specified age which shall not exceed twenty-one years and any other person dependent upon the policyholder;

(4) The style, arrangement and overall appearance of the policy shall give no undue prominence to any portion of the text, and every printed portion of the text of the policy and of any endorsements or attached papers shall be plainly printed in lightfaced type of a style in general use, the size of which shall be uniform and not less than ten-point with a lower case unspaced alphabet length not less than one hundred and twenty-point (the "text" shall include all printed matter except the name and address of the insurer, name or title of the policy, the brief description, if any, and captions and subcaptions);

(5) The exceptions and reductions of indemnity shall be set forth in the policy and, other than those contained in §§627.0505-627.0528, inclusive, shall be printed, at the insurer's option, either included with the benefit provisions to which they apply, or under an appropriate caption such as "Exceptions," or "Excep-

627.0537 Direct payment for hospital, medical services.

627.0538 Application signed by agent.

627.0539 Filing of classifications and rates.

tions and Reductions," except that if an exception or reduction specifically applies only to a particular benefit of the policy, a statement of such exception or reduction shall be included with the benefit provision to which it applies;

(6) Each such form, including riders and endorsements, shall be identified by a form number in the lower left-hand corner of the first page thereof; and

(7) The policy shall contain no provision purporting to make any portion of the charter, rules, constitution or by-laws of the insurer a part of the policy unless such portion is set forth in full in the policy, except in the case of the incorporation of, or reference to, a statement of rates or classification of risks, or short-rate table filed with the commissioner.

(8) The commissioner may require any disability insurance policy or certificate containing a provision commonly known as a deductible provision to have printed or stamped on such policy or certificate "this policy or certificate contains a deductible provision," or appropriate words of similar import approved by the commissioner. This legend shall appear on the first page of such policy or certificate in at least eighteen point type and may be either as an overprint or by means of a rubber stamp impression in a contrasting color.

History.—§545, ch. 59-205; (8) n. by §1, ch. 61-423.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§642.01, 642.031.

627.0502 Death benefits.—Any such policy may contain a provision for paying a benefit for death from any cause in an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, which benefit shall not relieve such policy from the requirements of this chapter. This provision shall not limit benefits for death by accident.

History.—§546, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0503 Nonresident insured.—If any policy is issued by an insurer domiciled in this state for delivery to a person residing in another state, and if the official having responsibility for the administration of the insurance laws of such other state shall have advised the commissioner that any such policy is not subject to approval or disapproval by such official, the commissioner may by ruling require that such policy meet the standards set forth in part VI of this chapter.

History.—§547, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0504 Required provisions; captions, omissions, substitutions.—

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), each such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain the provisions specified in §§627.0505-627.0516, inclusive, in the words in which the same appear; except, that the insurer may, at its option, substitute for one or more of such provisions corresponding provisions of different wording approved by the commissioner which are in each instance not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Each such provision shall be preceded individually by the applicable caption shown, or at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the commissioner may approve.

(2) If any such provision is in whole or in part inapplicable to or inconsistent with the coverage provided by a particular form of policy, the insurer, with the approval of the commissioner, shall omit from such policy any inapplicable provision or part of a provision, and shall modify any inconsistent provision or part of a provision in such manner as to make the provision as contained in the policy consistent with the coverage provided by the policy.

History.—§548, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0505 Entire contract; changes.—There shall be a provision as follows:

“Entire Contract; Changes: This policy, including the endorsements and the attached papers, if any, constitutes the entire contract of insurance. No change in this policy shall be valid until approved by an executive officer of the insurer and unless such approval be endorsed hereon or attached hereto. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions.”

History.—§549, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0506 Time limit on certain defenses.—There shall be a provision as follows:

“Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (1) After three years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such three-year period.”

(The foregoing policy provision shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial three-year period, nor to limit the application of §§627.0518-627.0522 in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.)

A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium (a) Until at least age fifty or, (b) In the case of a policy issued after age forty-four, for at least five years from its date of issue, may contain in lieu of the foregoing the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption “Incontestable”:

“After this policy has been in force for a period of three years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application.

“(2) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after three years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.”

(For the purpose of permitting insurers to use a uniform policy in several states, the insurer is permitted to print in the policy form in required provisions (1) and (2), above, the term “three years.” Nevertheless, the provisions of the contract and text of the statute to the contrary notwithstanding, the time limits for such defenses under any contract delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall not exceed two years.)

History.—§550, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0507 Grace period.—There shall be a provision as follows:

“Grace Period: A grace period of . . . (insert a number not less than ‘7’ for the weekly premium policies, ‘10’ for monthly premium policies and ‘31’ for all other policies) days will be granted for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force.”

(A policy which contains a cancellation provision may add, at the end of the above provision:

“subject to the right of the insurer to cancel in accordance with the cancellation provision hereof.”)

A policy in which the insurer reserves the right to refuse any renewal shall have, at the beginning of the above provision:

“Unless not less than five days prior to the premium due date the insurer has delivered to the insured or has mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer written notice of its intention not to renew this policy beyond the period for which the premium has been accepted.”

History.—§551, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0508 Reinstatement.—There shall be a provision as follows:

“Reinstatement: If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment, a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any agent duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium, without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement, shall reinstate the policy; provided, however, that if the insurer or such agent requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered, the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or, lacking such approval, upon the forty-fifth day following the date of such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than ten days after such date. In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than sixty days prior to the date of reinstatement."

(The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums until at least age fifty or, in the case of a policy issued after age forty-four, for at least five years from its date of issue.)

History.—§552, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0509 Notice of claim.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Notice of Claim: Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within twenty days after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible. Notice given by or on behalf of insured or the beneficiary to the insurer at . . . (insert the location of such office as the insurer may designate for the purpose), or to any authorized agent of the insurer, with information sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed notice to the insurer."

In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least two years, an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provision:

"Subject to the qualifications set forth below, if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least two years, he shall, at least once in every six months after having given notice of the claim, give to the insurer notice of continuance of the disability, except in the event of legal incapacity. The period of six months following any filing of proof by the insured or any payment by the insurer on account of such claim or any denial of liability in whole or in part by the insurer shall be excluded in applying this provision. Delay in the giving of such notice shall not impair the insured's right to any indemnity which would otherwise have accrued during the period of six months preceding the date on which such notice is actually given."

History.—§553, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0510 Claim forms.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Claim Forms: The insurer, upon receipt of a notice of claim, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not furnished within fifteen days after the giving of such notice the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, the character and the extent of the loss for which claim is made."

History.—§554, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§642.031, 642.09.

627.0511 Proofs of loss.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Proofs of Loss: Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within ninety days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within ninety days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time, provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible and in no event, except in the absence of legal capacity, later than one year from the time proof is otherwise required."

History.—§555, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0512 Time of payment of claims.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Time of Payment of Claims: Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss. Subject to due written proof of loss, all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid . . . (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly) and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof."

History.—§556, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0513 Payment of claims.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Payment of Claims: Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment. If no such designation or provision is then effective, such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death may, at the option of the insurer, be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured."

The following provisions, or either of them, may be included with the foregoing provision at the option of the insurer:

"If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured, or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, the insurer may pay such indemnity, up to an amount not exceeding $_____ (insert an amount which shall not exceed $1,000), to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment."

"Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical or surgical services may, at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proof of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person."

History.—§557, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0514 Physical examination, autopsy.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Physical Examinations and Autopsy: The insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim hereunder and to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law."

History.—§558, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0515 Legal actions.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Legal Actions: No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of three years after the written proof of loss is required to be furnished."

History.—§559, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0516 Change of beneficiary.—There shall be a provision as follows:

"Change of Beneficiary: Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary, the right to change a beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to any other changes in this policy."

(The first clause of this provision, relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary, may be omitted at the insurer's option.)

History.—§560, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0517 Optional policy provisions.—Except as provided in §627.0504 (2), no such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state shall contain provision respecting the matters set forth in §§627.0518-627.0528, inclusive, unless such provisions are in the words in which the same appear in the applicable section, except that the insurer may, at its option, use in lieu of any such provision a corresponding provision of different wording approved by the commissioner which is not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Any such provision contained in the policy shall be preceded individually by the appropriate caption or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the commissioner may approve.

History.—§561, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0518 Change of occupation.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Change of Occupation: If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy or while doing for compensation anything pertaining to an occupation so classified, the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rates and within the limits fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation. If the insured changes his occupation to one classified by the insurer as less hazardous than that stated in this policy, the insurer, upon receipt of proof of such change of occupation, will reduce the premium rate accordingly, and will return the excess pro rata unearned premium from the date of change of occupation or from the policy anniversary date immediately preceding receipt of such proof, whichever is the more recent. In applying this provision, the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be such as have been last filed by the insurer prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable or prior to date of proof of change in occupation with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided at the time this policy was issued; but if such filing was not required, then the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be those last made effective by the insurer in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss or prior to the date of proof of change in occupation."

History.—§562, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0519 Misstatement of age or sex.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Misstatement of Age or Sex: If the age or sex of the insured has been misstated, all amounts payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased according to the correct age or sex."

History.—§563, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0520 Other insurance in this insurer.—
There may be a provision as follows:

"Other Insurance in This Insurer: If an accident or sickness or accident and sickness policy or policies previously issued by the insurer to the insured be in force concurrently herewith, making the aggregate indemnity for _____ (insert type of coverage or coverages) in excess of $_____ (insert maximum limit of indemnity or indemnities) the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the insured or to his estate."

Or, in lieu thereof:

"Insurance effective at any one time on the insured under a like policy or policies in this insurer is limited to the one such policy elected by the insured, his beneficiary or his estate, as the case may be, and the insurer will return all premiums paid for all other such policies."

History.—§564, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0521 Insurance with other insurers.—
(Provision of service or expense incurred basis).

(1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Insurance with Other Insurers: If there be other valid coverage, not with this insurer, providing benefits for the same loss on a provision of service basis or on an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss, the only liability under any expense incurred coverage of this policy shall be for such proportion of the loss as the amount which would otherwise have been payable hereunder plus the total of the like amounts under all such other valid coverages for the same loss of which this insurer had notice bears to the total like amounts under all valid coverages for such loss, and for the return of such portion of the premiums paid as shall exceed the pro rata portion for the amount so determined. For the purpose of applying this provision when other coverage is on a provision of service basis, the 'like amount' of such other coverage shall be taken as the amount which the services rendered would have cost in the absence of such coverage."

(2) If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the policy provision set out in §627.0522 there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "—Expense Incurred Benefits." The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage," approved as to form by the commissioner, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, and by hospital or medical service organizations, and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include group insurance, automobile medical payments insurance, or coverage provided by hospital or medical service organizations or by union welfare plans or employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured, any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute) whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice. In applying the foregoing policy provision no third party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage."

History.—§565, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0522 Same; other benefits.—

(1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Insurance With Other Insurers: If there be other valid coverage, not with this insurer, providing benefits for the same loss on other than an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss, the only liability for such benefits under this policy shall be for such proportion of the indemnities otherwise provided hereunder for such loss as the like indemnities of which the insurer had notice (including the indemnities under this policy) bear to the total amount of all like indemnities for such loss, and for the return of such portion of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro rata portion for the indemnities thus determined."

(2) If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the policy provision set out in §627.0521, there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "—Other Benefits." The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage," approved as to form by the commissioner, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include group insurance, or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured, any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute) whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice. In applying the foregoing policy provision no third party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage."

History.—§566, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0523 Relation of earnings to insurance.—

(1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Relation of Earnings to Insurance: If the total monthly amount of loss of time benefits promised for the same loss under all valid loss of time coverage upon the insured, whether payable on a weekly or monthly basis, shall exceed the monthly earnings of the insured at the time disability commenced or his average monthly earnings for the period of two years immediately preceding a disability for which claim is made, whichever is the greater, the insurer will be liable only for such proportionate amount of such benefits under this policy as the amount of such monthly earnings or such average monthly earnings of the insured bears to the total amount of monthly benefits for the same loss under all such coverage upon the insured at the time such disability commences and for the return of such part of the premiums paid during such two years as shall exceed the pro rata amount of the premiums for the benefits actually paid hereunder; but this shall not operate to reduce the total monthly amount of benefits payable under all such coverage upon the insured below the sum of $200 or the sum of the monthly benefits specified in such coverages, whichever is the lesser, nor shall it operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time."

(2) The foregoing policy provision may be inserted only in a policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums: (a) Until at least age fifty, or (b) In the case of a policy issued after age forty-four, for at least five years from its date of issue. The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "valid loss of time coverage," approved as to form by the commissioner, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by governmental agencies or by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada, or to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner or any combination of such coverages. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include any coverage provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute (including any workmen's compensation or employer's liability statute), or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations.

History.—§567, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0524 Unpaid premiums.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Unpaid Premium: Upon the payment of a claim under this policy, any premium then due and unpaid or covered by any note or written order may be deducted therefrom."

History.—§568, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0525 Cancellation.—There may be a provision as follows: "Cancellation: The insurer may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured, or mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer, stating when, not less than five days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective; and after the policy has been continued beyond its original term the insured may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered or mailed to the insurer, effective upon receipt or on such later date as may be specified in such notice. In the event of cancellation, the insurer will return promptly the unearned portion of any premium paid. If the insured cancels, the earned premium shall be computed by the use of the short-rate table last filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided when the policy was issued. If the insurer cancels, the earned premium shall be computed pro rata. Cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior to the effective date of cancellation."

History.—§569, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0526 Conformity with statutes.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Conformity with State Statutes: Any provision of this policy which, on its effective date, is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on such date is hereby amended to conform to the minimum requirements of such statutes."

History.—§570, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0527 Illegal occupation.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Illegal Occupation: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss to which a contributing cause was the insured's commission of or attempt to commit a felony or to which a contributing cause was the insured's being engaged in an illegal occupation."

History.—§571, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0528 Intoxicants and narcotics.—There may be a provision as follows:

"Intoxicants and Narcotics: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss sustained or contracted in consequence of the insured's being intoxicated or under the influence of any narcotic unless administered on the advice of a physician."

History.—§572, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0529 Order of certain provisions.—The provisions which are the subject of §§627.0505-627.0528, inclusive, or any corresponding provisions which are used in lieu thereof in accordance with such sections, shall be printed in the consecutive order of the provisions in such sections or, at the option of the insurer, any such provision may appear as a unit in any part of the policy, with other provisions to which it may be logically related, provided that the resulting policy shall not be in whole or in part unintelligible, uncertain, ambiguous, abstruse, or likely to mislead a person to whom the policy is offered, delivered or issued.

History.—§573, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0530 Third party ownership.—The word "Insured," as used in this chapter, shall not be construed as preventing a person other than the insured with a proper insurable interest from making application for and owning a policy covering the insured or from being entitled under such a policy to any indemnities, benefits, and rights provided therein.

History.—§574, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0531 Requirements of other jurisdictions.—

(1) Any policy of a foreign or alien insurer, when delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state, may contain any provision which is not less favorable to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions of this chapter and which is prescribed or required by the law of the state or country under which the insurer is organized.

(2) Any policy of a domestic insurer may, when issued for delivery in any other state or country, contain any provision permitted or required by the laws of such other state or country.

History.—§575, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0532 Other policy provisions.—No policy provision which is not subject to part VI of this chapter shall make a policy, or any portion thereof, less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions thereof which are subject to this chapter.

History.—§576, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0533 Age limit.—If any such policy contains a provision establishing, as an age limit or otherwise, a date after which the coverage provided by the policy will not be effective, and if such date falls within a period for which premium is accepted by the insurer or if the insurer accepts a premium after such date, the coverage provided by the policy will continue in force subject to any right of cancellation until the end of the period for which premium has been accepted. In the event the age of the insured has been misstated and if, according to the correct age of the insured, the coverage provided by the policy would not have become effective, or would have ceased prior to the acceptance of such premium or premiums, then the liability of the insurer shall be limited to the refund, upon request, of all premiums paid for the period not covered by the policy.

History.—§577, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.031.

627.0534 Excess insurance.—

(1) No provision of this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit an insurer from issuing a policy as, or including in a policy a provision providing for, excess insurance; that is, to the effect that the insurer's liability for benefits payable on account of expense incurred for any hospitalization, medical, surgical and other service resulting from covered sickness or injury of the insured, shall be limited to that part of such expense, if any, which is in excess of all benefits payable on account thereof by the same insurer under any other policy or policies covering the same insured and by all other insurers and service organizations by whom benefits are payable as to the same such expense.

(2) Any such policy, or any policy containing any such provision, shall have imprinted or stamped conspicuously upon the face thereof the designation "excess insurance" or appropriate words of similar import approved by the commissioner.

History.—§578, ch. 59-205.

627.0535 Industrial disability insurance.—

Industrial disability insurance is that form of individual disability insurance for which the premium is payable weekly. No such policy of industrial disability insurance may be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it has printed thereon the words "industrial policy" or "weekly premium policy" or words of similar import. Each such policy shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter except that:

(1) Any such policy may contain a provision requiring proof of continuance of disability. If such provision is used it shall be in the following words: "Affirmative proof of continuance of disability must be furnished at the expiration of each period for which a claim is filed."

(2) The insurer may refuse to endorse the name of any proposed beneficiary who does not appear to the insurer to have an insurable interest in the life of the insured.

History.—§579, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.05.

627.0536 Construction of noncomplying contracts.—If any insurer writes or issues in this state any disability insurance contract, as contemplated by this chapter, and the form of such contract is not authorized by or in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, such contract shall nevertheless be a valid and binding contract of the insurer, and shall be construed as though the terms and provisions thereof were in conformity with those required by this chapter, any provision in such contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

History.—§580, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.10.

627.0537 Direct payment for hospital, medical services.—Any disability insurance policy insuring against loss or expense due to hospital confinement or to medical and related services may provide for payment of benefits direct to any recognized hospital, doctor, or other person who provided such services, in accordance with the provisions of the policy. To comply with this section the words "or to the hospital, doctor, or person rendering services covered by this policy," or similar words appropriate to the terms of the policy, shall be added to applicable provisions of the policy.

History.—§581, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.07.

627.0538 Application signed by agent.—If the application for a disability insurance policy is to be made a part of the contract of insurance, the insurer's agent who completed the application shall sign the same in the capacity of soliciting agent.

History.—§582, ch. 59-205.

627.0539 Filing of classifications and rates.—An insurer shall not deliver or issue for delivery in this state any disability insurance policy until it has filed with the commissioner a copy of any classification of risks and premium rates applicable thereto.

History.—§583, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.01.

PART VII

GROUP, BLANKET AND FRANCHISE DISABILITY INSURANCE

- 627.0600 Group contracts must meet group requirements.
- 627.0601 Group disability insurance defined, in general.
- 627.0602 Employee groups.
- 627.0603 Labor union and association groups.
- 627.0604 Debtor groups.
- 627.06041 Additional groups.
- 627.0605 Provisions of group disability policies.

627.0600 Group contracts must meet group requirements.—

(1) No disability insurance policy shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state insuring more than one individual unless to one of the groups as provided for in §§627.0602-627.0604, and unless in compliance with the other applicable provisions of part VII of this chapter.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to disability insurance policies:

(a) Insuring only individuals related by blood, marriage or legal adoption; or

(b) Insuring only individuals having a common interest through ownership of a business enterprise, or a substantial legal interest or equity therein, and who are actively engaged in the management thereof; or

(c) Insuring only individuals otherwise having an insurable interest in each other's lives; or

(d) Issued as blanket insurance pursuant to §627.0607.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the provisions of §§112.08 to 112.14, inclusive.

History.—§584, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

627.0601 Group disability insurance defined, in general.—Group disability insurance is that form of disability insurance covering groups of persons under a master group disability insurance policy issued pursuant to any one of §§627.0602-627.0604.

History.—§585, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

627.0602 Employee groups.—

(1) A group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an employer, or to 627.0606 Use of dividends, refunds, fees, etc.; premium rates.

627.0607 Blanket disability insurance; eligible groups.

627.0608 Conditions and provisions of blanket disability policies.

627.0609 Other provisions applicable.

627.0610 Franchise disability insurance.

the trustees of a fund established by an employer, which employer or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, insuring at least ten employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer. The term employees as used herein may include:

(a) Retired employees,

(b) The individual proprietor or partners if the employer is a proprietor or partnership, and

(c) Elected or appointed officials if the policy is issued to insure employees of a public body. The policy may provide for insuring the employees of one or more subsidiary or affiliated corporations, proprietors and partnerships if the business of the employer and such subsidiary or affiliated corporations, proprietors and partnerships are under common control. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director.

(2) No such policy of insurance as defined in subsection (1) may be issued to any employer, as enumerated therein, unless all employees of such employer, or all of any class or classes thereof, determined by conditions pertaining to their employment, but not determined so as to exclude those in the more hazardous employment solely because of their hazardous employment, are declared eligible and acceptable to the insurer at the time of issuance of the policy, and unless sixty per cent of the eligible employees are so insured.

(3) Any such policy may insure spouse and/or dependent children with or without the employee being insured.

History.—§586, ch. 59-205; (1) §1, ch. 63-218.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

627.0603 Labor union and association groups.—

(1) A group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an association, including a labor union, which association shall have a constitution and by-laws and not less than twenty-five individual members and which has been organized and has been maintained in good faith for a period of one year for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance, or to the trustees of a fund established by such an association, which association or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, insuring at least fifteen individual members of the association for the benefit of persons other than the officers of the association, the association or trustees.

(2) No such policy of insurance as defined in subsection (1) may be issued to any such association, unless all individual members of such association or all of any class or classes thereof, are declared eligible and acceptable to the insurer at the time of issuance of the policy, and unless sixty per cent of the eligible members are so insured.

(3) Any such policy may insure the spouse and/or dependent children with or without the member being insured.

History.—§587, ch. 59-205; (1) a. by §1, ch. 61-368.
Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

627.0604 Debtor groups.—A group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, under which the debtors of such creditor are indemnified in connection with a specific loan or credit transaction against loss of time resulting from bodily injury or sickness. The debtors eligible for such insurance under the policy shall be all of the debtors of the creditor, or all of any class or classes thereof, determined by conditions pertaining to the indebtedness or to the credit transaction giving rise to the indebtedness. The policy may provide that the term "debtors" shall include the debtors of one or more subsidiary or affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships, if the business of the creditor and of such subsidiary or affiliated corporations, proprietors or partnerships is under common control. The policy may be issued only if the group of eligible debtors is then receiving new entrants at the rate of at least one hundred persons yearly, or may reasonably be expected to receive at least one hundred new entrants during the first policy year, and only if the policy reserves to the insurer the right to require evidence of individual insurability if less than seventy-five per cent of the new entrants become insured.

History.—§588, ch. 59-205.
Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

627.06041 Additional groups.—A group of individuals, other than the groups defined in §627.0405, may be insured under a policy issued to any person or organization to which a policy of group life insurance may be issued or delivered in this state to insure any class or classes of individuals for disability insurance that could be insured under such group life policy. Any such policy may insure the spouse and dependent children with or without the "employee" being insured.

History.—§1, ch. 61-377.

627.0605 Provisions of group disability policies.—Each group disability policy shall contain in substance the following provisions:

(1) A provision that, in the absence of fraud, all statements made by applicants or the policyholder or by an insured person shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no statement made for purpose of effecting insurance shall avoid such insurance or reduce benefits unless contained in a written instrument signed by the policyholder or the insured person, a copy of which has been furnished to such policyholder or to such person or his beneficiary.

(2) A provision that the insurer will furnish to the policyholder, for delivery to each employee or member of the insured group, a certificate setting forth the essential features of the insurance coverage of such employee or member and to whom benefits are payable. If dependents are included in the coverage, only one certificate need be issued for each family unit.

(3) A provision that to the group originally insured may be added from time to time eligible new employees or members or dependents, as the case may be, in accordance with the terms of the policy.

(4) The provisions of part VI of chapter 627 shall not apply to group disability insurance policies, but no such policy shall contain any provision relative to notice or proof of loss, or to the time for paying benefits, or to the time within which suit may be brought on the policy, which is less favorable to the individuals insured than would be permitted by the comparable provisions required for individual disability insurance policies.

History.—§589, ch. 59-205.
Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

627.0606 Use of dividends, refunds, fees, etc.; premium rates.—

(1) Section 627.0418 of this code shall apply also as to group disability insurance policies.

(2) An insurer may issue insurance policies under the provisions of this chapter at premium rates less than the usual rates or premiums for individual insurance policies.

History.—§590, ch. 59-205.

627.0607 Blanket disability insurance; eligible groups.—Blanket disability insurance is that form of disability insurance covering special groups of individuals as enumerated in one of the following subsections (1) to (6) inclusive:

(1) Under a policy or contract issued to any common carrier, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering a group defined as all persons who may become passengers on such common carrier.

(2) Under a policy or contract issued to an employer, who shall be deemed the policyholder, covering any group of employees defined by reference to exceptional hazards incident to such employment, or under a policy or contract issued to an employer where all employees are covered under any such policy or contract.

(3) Under a policy or contract issued to a college, school, or other institution of learning or to be the head or principal thereof, who or which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering students or teachers.

(4) Under a policy or contract issued in the name of any volunteer fire department, first aid, or other such volunteer group, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering all of the members of such department or group.

(5) Under a policy or contract issued to an organization, or branch thereof, such as boy scouts of America, future farmers of America, religious, or educational bodies, or similar organizations, or to an individual, firm or corporation, holding or operating meetings such as summer camps or other meetings for religious, instructive or recreational purposes, covering all those attending such camps or meetings, including counselors, instructors and persons in other administrative positions.

(6) Under a policy or contract issued in the name of a newspaper, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering independent contractor newspaper boys.

History.—§591, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.06.

627.0608 Conditions and provisions of blanket disability policies.—

(1) An individual application shall not be required from a person covered under a blanket disability insurance policy or contract, nor shall it be necessary for the insurer to furnish such person a certificate.

(2) Any benefit under a blanket disability policy shall be payable as provided in §627.0513 (payment of claims).

(3) No such policy shall contain any provision relative to notice or proof of loss, or to the time for paying benefits, or to the time within which suit may be brought on the policy, which is less favorable to the individuals insured than would be permitted by the comparable provisions required for individual disability insurance policies.

(4) The provisions of part VI of chapter 627 shall not apply to blanket disability insurance policies, but no such policy shall contain any provision relative to notice or proof of loss, or to the time for paying benefits, or to the time within which suit may be brought on the policy, which is less favorable to the individuals insured than would be permitted by the comparable provisions required for individual disability insurance policies.

(5) Nothing contained in §627.0607 or in this section shall be deemed to affect the legal liability of policyholders for the death or injury to any person insured under a blanket disability policy.

History.—§592, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.06.

627.0609 Other provisions applicable.—The following sections from part VI of chapter 627 (disability insurance policies) shall also apply as to group disability insurance and blanket disability insurance and franchise disability insurance:

(1) Section 627.0534 (excess insurance).

(2) Section 627.0537 (direct payment for hospital, medical services).

(3) Section 627.0539 (filing of classifications and rates).

(4) Section 627.0501 (8) (deductible provisions of policies or certificates).

History.—§593, ch. 59-205; (4) n. by §2, ch. 61-423.

627.0610 Franchise disability insurance.—

(1) "Franchise disability insurance" (also known as "franchise group insurance") is that form of disability insurance issued to:

(a) Five or more employees of any corporation, copartnership, or individual employer or any governmental corporation, agency or department thereof; or

(b) Ten or more individuals who are members of any trade or professional association or of a labor union or any other association having had an active existence for at least two years where such association or union has a constitution or by-laws and is formed in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance; where such persons with or without their dependents, are issued the same form of an individual policy varying only as to amounts and kinds of coverage applied for by such persons, under an arrangement whereby the premiums on such policies may be paid to the insurer periodically by the employer, with or without payroll deductions, or by the association, or by some designated person acting on behalf of such employer or association. Notwithstanding the provisions of any state anti-discriminatory law, such provisions shall not prohibit different rates charged, or benefits payable, or different underwriting procedure for individuals insured under a franchise plan provided rates charged, benefits payable, or underwriting procedure used do not discriminate between franchise plans.

(2) Sections 627.0501-627.0539 of this code shall also apply as to franchise disability insurance.

History.—§594, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §642.04.

PART VIII

CREDIT LIFE AND DISABILITY INSURANCE

- 627.0700 Scope of part VIII.
 627.0701 Definitions.
 627.0702 Rules and regulations.
 627.0703 Amount of insurance; credit life.
 627.0704 Same; credit disability.
 627.0705 Term and evidence of insurance.

- 627.0706 Filing, approval of forms.
 627.0707 Licensed agent required.
 627.0708 Premium not deemed loan or finance charge.
 627.0709 Penalty for violations.

627.0700 Scope of part VIII.—Part VIII of chapter 627 applies only to credit life and credit disability insurances as defined in §627.0701.

History.—§595, ch. 59-205.

627.0701 Definitions.—

(1) Credit life insurance is that form of term life insurance which precludes debtor selection as to beneficiary or assignee under which the life of a borrower of money or a purchaser of goods is insured in connection with a specific loan or credit transaction. The policy, certificate, or statement shall be issued on a plan especially designed for the sole purpose of meeting the requirements of the definition of this section and shall bear the description "creditor-debtor insurance only" or words of similar import on the face of each such policy, certificate or statement. There are three recognized forms:

(a) Group credit life insurance is that form of insurance which is subject to the provisions of §627.0402 (debtor groups).

(b) Franchise credit life insurance is that form of insurance by which a master policy is issued to and in favor of a creditor and under which debtors are insured at the option of the creditor.

(c) Individual credit life insurance is individual insurance upon the life of an individual debtor in favor of a creditor.

(2) Credit disability insurance is that form of insurance under which a borrower of money or a purchaser of goods is insured in connection with a specific loan or credit transaction against loss of time resulting from accident or sickness.

(3) Credit life and credit disability insurance as defined in subsections (1) and (2), shall not include life or disability insurance sold in connection with real estate loans of more than thirty-six months duration.

History.—§596, ch. 59-205; (1) a. by §19, ch. 61-530.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§634.06, 646.01.

627.0702 Rules and regulations.—

(1) For the effective protection of the public interest the commissioner shall have full power and authority to adopt, promulgate and enforce separate rules and regulations pertaining to issuance and use of each type of credit insurance defined in §627.0701.

(2) Rules and regulations made pursuant to this section shall be principally designed, and shall be promulgated with the purpose of protecting the borrower from excessive charges by or collected through the lender for insurance in relation to the amount of the loan, to avoid duplication or overlapping of insurance coverage and to avoid loss of the borrower's funds by short-rate cancellation or termination of such insurance. However, nothing in such rules and regulations shall be construed to authorize the commissioner to prohibit operation of normal dividend distributions under participating insurance contracts.

(3) The commissioner shall, before adopting any rules or regulations under this chapter, hold a public hearing, giving the interested parties not less than fifteen days notice of such hearing together with a copy of the proposed rules and regulations.

(4) The order of the commissioner adopting rules and regulations shall set forth the date such rules and regulations are to become effective, which date shall be not less than fifteen days after such rules and regulations have been adopted and filed in the office of the commissioner and with the secretary of state. Copy of the order, together with a copy of rules and regulations as adopted, shall be furnished interested parties on the same date that the rules and regulations are filed.

History.—§597, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.02.

627.0703 Amount of insurance; credit life.—

(1) The amount of credit life insurance written under one or more policies shall not exceed by more than five dollars the original face amount of the specific contracts of indebtedness in connection with which it is written; except, that where the indebtedness is repayable in substantially equal installments the amount of insurance shall never exceed the approximate unpaid balance of the loan.

(2) The total amount of credit life insurance on the life of any debtor with respect to any loan or loans covered in one or more insurance policies shall at no time exceed five thousand dollars with any one creditor, except that loans not exceeding one year duration shall not be subject to such limits, and provided that on such loans not exceeding one year's duration, the limits of coverage shall not exceed ten thousand dollars with any one insurer.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section credit life insurance in connection with agricultural loans not exceeding one year may be written up to the amount of the loan commitment on the nondecreasing or level term plan.

History.—§598, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.05.

627.0704 Same; credit disability.—

(1) The total indemnities provided under the terms of credit disability coverage shall not exceed by more than five dollars the amount of the initial indebtedness; except, that where the indebtedness is repayable in substantially equal installments the amount of insurance shall never exceed the approximate unpaid balance of the loan.

(2) The total amount of credit disability insurance on the life of any debtor with respect to any loan or loans covered in one or more insurance policies, as defined in §627.0701(2), shall at no time exceed five thousand dollars.

History.—§599, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.05.

627.0705 Term and evidence of insurance.—

(1) The term of credit life insurance or credit disability insurance coverages shall not extend more than fifteen days beyond the term of the indebtedness except where extended without additional cost to the insured borrower or purchaser, and in no event shall the term of the insurance policy exceed five years from the date of issue thereof.

(2) All credit insurance sold shall be evidenced by a policy, certificate or statement of insurance, which shall be delivered to the insured borrower or purchaser. Said policy, certificate, or statement of insurance shall set forth a description of the coverage, including any exceptions, limitations, or restrictions and the amount of the premium in the case of individual or franchise insurance, or the amount of any identifiable charge in the case of group insurance provided that in the case of group insurance in lieu of setting forth the amount of identifiable charge in the certificate or statement of insurance, such identifiable charge may be set forth in an instrument in writing, which shall be delivered to the insured borrower or purchaser.

History.—§600, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.06.

627.0706 Filing, approval of forms.—All forms of policies, certificates of insurance, statements of insurance, applications for insurance, binders, endorsements and riders of credit life or disability insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall be filed with and approved by the commissioner before use as provided in §§627.01091 and 627.0110 of this code. In addition to grounds as specified in §627.0110 the commissioner, upon compliance with the procedures set forth in §627.01091, shall disapprove any such form and may withdraw any previous approval thereof if the benefits provided therein are not reasonable in relation to the premiums charged, or if it contains provisions which are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive or encourage misrepresentation of such policy.

History.—§601, ch. 59-205.

627.0707 Licensed agent required.—All policies to which this chapter applies shall be issued through a licensed agent of the insurer.

History.—§602, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.08.

627.0708 Premium not deemed loan or finance charge.—The premium or cost of credit life or disability insurance, when written by or through any lender or other creditor, its affiliate or associate or subsidiary or a director, officer or employee of any of them shall not be deemed as interest or charges or consideration or an amount in excess of permitted charges in connection with the loan or credit transaction and any gain or advantage to any lender or other creditor, its affiliate, associate or subsidiary or a director, officer or employee of any of them, arising out of the premium or commission or dividend from the sale or provision of such insurance shall not be deemed a violation of any other law general or special, civil or criminal of this state, or of any rule, regulation or order issued by any regulatory authority.

History.—§603, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.08.

627.0709 Penalty for violations.—Any insurer, agent, or other representative of such insurer, who violates the provisions of this chapter or any valid rule or regulation adopted and promulgated pursuant thereto, after having been ordered to cease and desist from such violation following the procedure as outlined in §626.0620, shall be cited to appear before the commissioner upon five days' notice to show cause why an order revoking the license or certificate of authority should not be entered. At such hearing, if the commissioner determines that such violation was committed willfully and knowingly, he may, in his discretion, forthwith revoke the license or certificate of authority of such agent or insurer. Such order or revocation may be reviewed as provided for cease and desist orders in §626.0620. In addition, any person who violates a cease and desist order or an order of revocation after it has become final and while such order is in effect shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction in a court of proper jurisdiction shall be fined a sum not to exceed $1,000 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not to exceed 6 months, or both.

History.—§604, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §646.07.

PART IX

PROPERTY INSURANCE CONTRACTS

- 627.0800 Co-insurance contracts.
 627.0801 Valued policy law.
 627.0802 Same; penalty for violation.

627.0800 Co-insurance contracts.—No property insurer shall issue any policy or contract of fire insurance covering either real or personal property in this state which contains any clause or provision requiring the insured to take out or maintain a larger amount of fire insurance than that expressed in such policy; nor in any way provide that the insured shall be liable as a co-insurer with the insurer issuing the policy for any part of the loss or damage which may be caused by fire to the property described in such policy; and any such clause or provision shall be null and void, and of no effect unless there is printed or stamped on the face of such policy or on a form attached thereto the words: "CO-INSURANCE CONTRACT. The rate charged in this policy is based upon use of a co-insurance clause attached hereto, with the consent of the insured." The rate for the insurance with and without the co-insurance clause shall be furnished the insured upon request.

History.—§605, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.12.

627.0801 Valued policy law.—

(1) In event of total loss by fire or lightning of any building or structure located in this state and insured by any insurer as to such perils, in the absence of any change increasing the risk without the insurer's consent the insurer's liability, if any, under the policy for such total loss shall be in the amount of money for which such property was so insured as specified in the policy and for which premium has been charged and paid.

(2) In the case of partial loss by fire or lightning of any such property the insurer's liability, if any, under the policy shall be for the actual amount of such loss but not to exceed the amount of insurance specified in the policy as to such property and such perils.

(3) Except, however, that the amount of any loss referred to in subsections (1) or (2) shall be subject to any co-insurance clause contained in the policy pursuant to §627.0800.

(4) This section shall not apply as to per-

- 627.0803 Replacement insurance.
 627.0804 Return of unearned premium on overinsured personal property.

sonal property or any interest therein.

History.—§606, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.04.

627.0802 Same; penalty for violation.—If any insurer writes into or attaches to any policy of fire insurance on any building or structure in this state any provision or condition conflicting with the provisions of §627.0801, and complaint thereof is made to the commissioner by the policyholder, the commissioner shall forthwith revoke the insurer's certificate of authority. The commissioner shall withhold any new certificate of authority from the insurer until a new policy has been issued to the complaining policyholder without such conflicting provision or condition.

History.—§607, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.10.

627.0803 Replacement insurance.—In case of total or partial loss of a building or structure insured against fire and lightning the liability of the insurer for such loss shall be as provided in §627.0801; except, that any property insurer may, by appropriate riders or endorsements or otherwise, provide insurance indemnifying the insured for the difference between the insurable value of the insured property at the time any loss or damage occurs, and the amount actually expended to repair, rebuild or replace within this state with new materials of like size, kind and quality, such property as has been damaged or destroyed by fire or lightning.

History.—§608, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.05.

627.0804 Return of unearned premium on overinsured personal property.—In the event of a total loss or destruction of any personal property on which the amount of the appraised or agreed loss is less than the total amount insured thereon, the insurer shall return to the insured the unearned premium for the excess of insurance over the appraised or agreed loss, to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the loss shall be paid; and the unearned premium shall be a just and legal claim against the insurer.

History.—§609, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.13.

PART X

CASUALTY INSURANCE CONTRACTS

- 627.0850 Contracts are subject to general provisions.

627.0850 Contracts are subject to general provisions.—All contracts of casualty insurance covering subjects resident, located, or to be performed in this state shall be subject to the ap-

- 627.0851 Automobile liability insurance; uninsured vehicle coverage; insolvent insurer protection.

plicable provisions of part II of chapter 627, (the insurance contract), and to the other applicable provisions of this code.

History.—§610, ch. 59-205.

627.0851 Automobile liability insurance; uninsured vehicle coverage; insolvent insurer protection.—

(1) No automobile liability insurance, covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state with respect to any motor vehicle registered or principally garaged in this state unless coverage is provided therein or supplemental thereto, in not less than limits described in §324.021 (7), under provisions filed with and approved by the insurance commissioner, for the protection of persons insured thereunder who are legally entitled to recover damages from owners or operators of uninsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom; provided, however, that the coverage required under this section shall not be applicable where any insured named in the policy shall reject the coverage; provided further that, unless the named insured requests such coverage in writing, the coverage need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy where the named insured had rejected the coverage in connection with a policy previously issued to him by the same insurer.

(2) For the purpose of this coverage the term "uninsured motor vehicle" shall, subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, be deemed to include an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency.

(3) An insurer's insolvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's uninsured motorist coverage is in effect where the liability insurer of the tort-feasor becomes insolvent within one year after such an accident. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any insurer from affording insolvency protection under terms and conditions more favorable to its insureds than is provided hereunder.

(4) In the event of payment to any person under the coverage required by this section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making such payment shall, to the extent thereof, be entitled to the proceeds of any settlement or judgment resulting from the exercise of any rights of recovery of such person against any person or organization legally responsible for the bodily injury for which such payment is made, including the proceeds recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer.

History.—§1, ch. 61-175; (1) §1, ch. 63-148.

PART XI

SURETY INSURANCE CONTRACTS

627.0900 Surety on required bonds; release.
 627.0901 Bonds in judicial proceedings.
 627.0902 Bond premium allowable as expense or costs.
 627.0903 Sureties upon official bonds.
 627.0904 Certain official and fiduciary bonds; special approval of surety and forms required.

627.0900 Surety on required bonds; release.—

(1) Subject to other applicable provisions of part XI of chapter 627, any surety insurer having a currently effective certificate of authority to transact such insurance in this state may be accepted as surety on the bond of any person required by the laws of this state to give bond, and may be the only surety necessary to render the bond valid, but other surety may, in the discretion of the official authorized to approve the bond, be required.

(2) Such a surety insurer may be released from its liability on any such bond on the same terms and conditions as are by law prescribed for the release of individuals, and shall be subject to all the rights and liabilities of natural persons.

History.—§611, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.03.

627.0901 Bonds in judicial proceedings.—

(1) In all judicial proceedings, whenever it may become necessary for any party thereto

627.0905 Bonds for construction contracts; attorney fees in case of suit.
 627.0906 Deposit agreements for surety's protection authorized.
 627.0907 Surety on auto club arrest bond; conditions, limit.
 627.0908 Estoppel to deny power.

to give a bond for any purpose, the bond of such party having as surety thereon any surety insurer authorized to do business in this state, may be accepted, by any officer or court whose duty is to approve such bond, without other surety. This section shall apply also to bonds given in connection with any appellate proceeding for the purpose of obtaining supersedeas, or for any other purpose.

(2) Such surety insurer may become surety upon administrators', executors' and guardians' bonds, and in such cases there need only be one surety upon such bonds.

History.—§612, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.04.

627.0902 Bond premium allowable as expense or costs.—Any receiver, assignee, trustee, committee, guardian, executor or administrator, or other fiduciary required by law to give bond as such, may include as part of his lawful expense such reasonable sum paid such an insurer for such suretyship not exceeding one per cent per annum on the amount of the bond, as the head of department, board, court, judge or officer by whom, or the court or body in which, he was appointed allows; and in all actions or proceedings the party entitled to recover costs may include therein such reasonable sum as may have been paid such an insurer executing or guaranteeing any bond or undertaking therein.

History.—§613, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.05.

627.0903 Sureties upon official bonds.—

(1) Subject to §627.0904, a solvent surety insurer authorized to transact such business in this state and having a paid-up capital stock (if a stock insurer) or surplus (if a mutual or reciprocal insurer) of not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, may, upon proper proof thereof and production of evidence of solvency, be accepted as surety upon the bonds of all city, county and state officers.

(2) Subject to §627.0904, the various officers of this state whose duty it is to approve the sureties upon such bonds may accept such insurer as one of the sureties, or as the only surety, upon such bond as the solvency of the insurer may warrant.

(3) No insurer shall be relieved of its liability upon any such bond by reason of the fact that the books and accounts of the principal have been examined and approved as correct by the proper authorities when in fact there has been a breach of the bond and a loss accruing from such breach.

History.—§614, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.08.

627.0904 Certain official and fiduciary bonds; special approval of surety and forms required.—

(1) No surety insurer shall execute a fidelity or surety bond for an officer or employee of this state or of any county, municipality or other subdivision thereof, or for any officer or employee of any bank, trust company or other fiduciary corporation organized under the laws of this state, except upon such assumption of risk and upon forms which have been prescribed or approved by the governor, the comptroller, treasurer and attorney general of the state, or by any three of such officials, and until such insurer shall have procured a special authority from the governor, the comptroller, treasurer and attorney general of the state or of any three of them for the writing of such fidelity or surety bonds.

(2) The governor, comptroller, treasurer and attorney general shall remove from the list of surety insurers whose bonds are acceptable under this section, the names of any such insurers as in their judgment shall fail or refuse to carry out such obligations promptly and in good faith.

History.—§615, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.16.

627.0905 Bonds for construction contracts; attorney fees in case of suit.—

(1) Whenever a surety insurer becomes a surety on a contract bond or bonds for either private or public construction in this state, such bond or bonds shall be either:

(a) A combination bond containing both performance and payment provisions and in an amount of not less than the total or estimated contract price, or

(b) Separate bonds for performance and for payment, but in such instances both bonds shall be issued and each shall be in an amount of not less than fifty per cent of the total or estimated contract price.

(2) Section 627.0127 (attorney fee) shall also apply as to suits brought by owners, subcontractors, laborers and material men against a surety insurer under payment or performance bonds written by the insurer under the laws of Florida to indemnify such owners, subcontractors, laborers and material men against pecuniary loss by breach of a building or construction contract; except, that the amount to be so recovered for fees or compensation of such a plaintiff's attorney shall not be more than twelve and one-half per cent of the amount which the judgment or decree awards such plaintiff under the bond (exclusive of the costs of suit and attorney fees or compensation), nor shall it be less than one hundred dollars where the judgment or decree is for more than five hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars where the judgment or decree is five hundred dollars or less. Such owners, subcontractors, laborers and material men shall be deemed to be "insureds" or "beneficiaries" for the purposes of this section.

History.—§616, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.20.

627.0906 Deposit agreements for surety's protection authorized.—It shall be lawful for any party of whom a bond, undertaking or other obligation is required, to agree with his surety or sureties for the deposit of any or all moneys and assets for which he and his surety or sureties are or may be held responsible, with a bank, savings bank, safe-deposit or trust company, authorized by law to do business as such, or with other depository approved by the court or a judge thereof, if such deposit is otherwise proper, for the safekeeping thereof, and in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such money or assets or any part thereof, without the written consent of such surety or sureties, or an order of court, or a judge thereof made on such notice to such surety or sureties as such court or judge may direct; provided, however, that such agreement shall not in any manner release from or change the liability of the principal or sureties as established by the terms of the bond.

History.—§617, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.18.

627.0907 Surety on auto club arrest bond; conditions, limit.—

(1) Any surety insurer which has qualified to transact surety business in this state may, in any year, become surety in an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars with respect to any guaranteed arrest bond certificates issued in such year by an authorized automobile club or association by filing with the commissioner an undertaking thus to become surety.

(2) Such undertaking shall be in form to be prescribed by the commissioner and shall state the following:

(a) The name and address of the automobile club or clubs or automobile association or associations with respect to the guaranteed arrest bond certificates of which the surety insurer undertakes to be surety.

(b) The unqualified obligation of the surety insurer to pay the fine or forfeiture in an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars of any person who, after posting a guaranteed arrest bond certificate with respect to which the insurer has undertaken to be surety, fails to make the appearance to guarantee which the guaranteed arrest bond certificate was posted.

(3) The term, guaranteed arrest bond certificate, as used herein, means any printed card or other certificate issued by the automobile club or association to any of its members, which card or certificate is signed by such member and contains a printed statement that such automobile club or association and a named surety company guarantee the appearance of the person whose signature appears on the card or certificate and that they will, in the event of failure of such person to appear in court at the time of trial, pay any fine or forfeiture imposed on such person in an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars.

History.—§618, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.19.

627.0908 Estoppel to deny power.—Any surety insurer which executes any bond or undertaking of surety under part XI of this chapter shall be estopped in any proceeding to enforce the liability which it has assumed to incur to deny its corporate or other power to execute such bond or assume such liability.

History.—§619, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §648.06.

PART XII

TITLE INSURANCE CONTRACTS

627.0950 Especially applicable provisions; nonapplicable chapters.

627.0950 Especially applicable provisions; nonapplicable chapters.—

(1) Provisions of this code especially applicable as to title insurers are contained in the following sections:

(a) Section 624.0203(7) (as to "business trust insurer").

(b) Section 624.0205(3) (title insurer must be a stock insurer, except as to existing domestic mutual or business trust insurers).

(c) Section 624.0206 (capital, surplus, net trust fund required of new insurers).

(d) Section 624.0207 (special surplus required, new insurers).

(e) Section 624.0208 (capital funds required, old insurers).

(f) Section 624.0210 (deposit requirement).

(g) Section 624.0407 (definition of "title insurance").

(h) Section 625.031(4) (nonadmitted assets do not include certain properties of title insurers).

(i) Section 625.051(5) (title insurers exempt from usual unearned premium reserve).

(j) Section 625.111 (title insurance reserve).

(k) Section 625.0129 (special investments by title insurer).

(l) Section 626.06131 (rebates prohibited; title insurance).

(m) Section 627.01001(4) (limited applicability of chapter, "the insurance contract," as to title insurance).

(n) Section 628.151 (power of title insurer to engage in related businesses).

(2) None of the provisions of any of the following are applicable as to title insurance:

(a) Part I of chapter 626 (insurance representatives; licensing procedures and general requirements);

(b) Part II of chapter 626 (general lines agents and solicitors qualifications and requirements);

(c) Part III of chapter 626 (life insurance agents);

(d) Part IV of chapter 626 (disability insurance agents);

(e) Part V of chapter 626 (insurance adjusters);

(f) Part I of chapter 627 (rates and rating organizations);

(g) Part III of chapter 627 (life insurance policies and annuity contracts);

(h) Part IV of chapter 627 (industrial life insurance policies);

(i) Part V of chapter 627 (group life insurance);

(j) Part VI of chapter 627 (disability insurance policies);

(k) Part VII of chapter 627 (group, blanket and franchise disability insurance);

(l) Part VIII of chapter 627 (credit life and disability insurance);

(m) Part IX of chapter 627 (property insurance contracts);

(n) Part X of chapter 627 (casualty insurance contracts);

(o) Part XI of chapter 627 (surety insurance contracts);

(p) Chapter 629 (reciprocal insurers); and

(q) Chapter 632 (fraternal benefit societies).

History.—§620, ch. 59-205; (1) (l) n., subsequent para.'s renum. by §2, ch. 61-141.

PART XIII

VARIABLE ANNUITY CONTRACTS

- 627.0975 Application of part XIII.
 627.0976 Establishment and maintenance of separate accounts.
 627.0977 Statement of value of annuity benefits.

627.0975 Application of part XIII.—Part XIII of this chapter applies to annuity contracts with variable benefits and contracts upon the lives of beneficiaries under life insurance contracts with variable benefits as distinguished from fixed dollar annuity contracts and fixed dollar contracts upon the lives of beneficiaries under life insurance contracts, which are set forth in part III of chapter 627.

History.—§1, ch. 61-441.

627.0976 Establishment and maintenance of separate accounts.—Every domestic life insurance company which issues annuity contracts providing for payments or values which vary directly according to investment experience shall establish one or more separate accounts in connection with such contracts, as directed by the commissioner. All amounts received by the company which are required by contract to be applied to provide such variable annuity payments or values shall be added to the appropriate separate account, and the assets of any such separate account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct. Any surplus or deficit from mortality experience which may arise in any such separate account shall be adjusted by withdrawals from, or additions to such account by the company so that the assets of such account are always equal to the assets required to satisfy the company's obligations for such variable payments.

History.—§2, ch. 61-441.

627.0977 Statement of value of annuity benefits.—Any annuity contract on a variable basis delivered or issued for delivery in this state, and any group annuity certificate evidencing variable benefits issued pursuant to any such annuity contract on a group basis, shall contain a statement of the essential features of the procedure to be followed by the insurance company in determining the dollar amount of variable annuity benefits or values thereunder and shall state in clear terms that such amount may decrease or increase according to such procedure. Any such annuity contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state, and any such group annuity certificate, shall contain on its first page, in a prominent position in ten point type or larger, a clear statement that the annuity benefits or values thereunder are on a variable basis.

History.—§3, ch. 61-441.

- 627.0978 Investment of assets.
 627.0979 Commissioner; rules and regulations; qualification of companies to issue annuity contracts.

627.0978 Investment of assets.—

(1) An insurer which issues annuity contracts providing for annuity payments or values which vary directly according to investment experience has established a separate account or accounts in connection with such annuity contract, may invest the assets held by such company in such separate account or accounts without regard to limitations imposed by §625.0104(2)(a), part II.

(2) Where the expense factor for purchase or liquidation of securities would not be increased, any securities purchased or liquidated for any annuity contracts with variable benefits sold in this state by a company, shall whenever possible be executed through a security brokerage office located in this state.

History.—§4, ch. 61-441.

627.0979 Commissioner; rules and regulations; qualification of companies to issue annuity contracts.—

(1) The commissioner shall have the authority to issue such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of chapter 627, part XIII.

(2) No life insurance corporation heretofore or hereafter incorporated pursuant to the provisions of any general or special law of this state shall undertake the issuance of any contract on a variable basis, and no insurance company formed by authority of another state or foreign country and heretofore or hereafter admitted to transact business in this state, shall undertake the issuance or delivery of any contract on a variable basis within this state, until said company has satisfied the commissioner that its condition or methods of operation in connection with the issuance of such contracts on a variable basis will not be such as would render its operation hazardous to the public or its policyholders in this state. In determining the qualification of a company requesting authority to issue or deliver contracts on a variable basis within this state, the commissioner will consider, among other things,

- (a) The history of the company;
- (b) The character, responsibility and general fitness of the officers and directors of the company; and
- (c) The regulation of a foreign company by its state of domicile.

History.—§5, ch. 61-441.

PART XIV

PREMIUM FINANCE COMPANIES

- 627.0990 Premium finance company defined.
- 627.0991 Premium finance agreement defined.
- 627.0992 License required.
- 627.0993 Approval; disapproval of application; and waiting period.
- 627.0994 License provisions and posting.
- 627.0995 Change of location.
- 627.0996 Grounds for refusal, suspension, and revocation of license.
- 627.0997 Administrative fine and probation in lieu of suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew license.
- 627.0998 Investigations, powers; duties.
- 627.0999 Excessive premium finance charge; penalty.
- 627.1000 Licensee's books and records; reports.
- 627.1001 Rebates and inducements prohibited.

627.0990 Premium finance company defined.—

(1) An insurance premium finance company is:

(a) A person engaged, in whole or in part, in the business of entering into premium finance agreements with insureds; or

(b) A person engaged, in whole or in part, in the business of acquiring premium finance agreements from other premium finance companies.

(2) Credit unions, banks, building and loan associations, and other lending institutions as defined under chapters 516, 519, 656, 657, 658, and 665 are exempt from the provisions of part XIV of this chapter.

(3) The inclusion of a charge for insurance on a bona fide sale of goods or services on installments is not subject to the provisions of part XIV of chapter 627.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0991 Premium finance agreement defined.—Premium finance agreement means a promissory note or other written agreement by which an insured promises or agrees to pay to, or to the order of, a premium finance company the amount advanced or to be advanced under the agreement to an insurer or to an insurance agent, in payment of premiums on an insurance contract, together with a service charge as authorized and limited by law.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0992 License required.—

(1) Except as provided in §§627.1020 and 627.1021, no person shall engage in the business of a premium finance company without a license therefor obtained from the commissioner, as provided in part XIV of this chapter.

(2) Application for license required under this law shall be in writing, and in the form prescribed by the commissioner.

(3) When an applicant has more than one office, separate applications for license shall be made for each such office.

- 627.1002 Filing, approval of forms, service charge filing.
- 627.1003 Form and content of premium finance agreements.
- 627.1004 Limitation on service and other charges.
- 627.1005 Delinquency, collection, and cancellation charges; attorney's fees.
- 627.1006 Restrictions on premium finance agreements.
- 627.1007 Delivery of copy of premium finance agreement.
- 627.1008 Notice of assignment; payments.
- 627.1009 Statement of account; receipts.
- 627.1010 Credit upon anticipation of payments.
- 627.1011 Refinancing.
- 627.1012 Cancellation of insurance contract upon default.

(4) At the time of filing an application for a license, the applicant shall pay to the commissioner the license fee and, upon original application or upon application subsequent to denial of application, or revocation, suspension or surrender of a license, an investigation fee.

(a) The license fee for each license year or part thereof shall be one hundred dollars for each office where the business of a premium finance company is conducted, except that if the license is issued after March 31 in any year such fee shall be fifty dollars.

(b) The investigation fee, when required by this section, shall be one hundred dollars per office, except that, when an applicant files application for licenses for three or more offices at the same time, the total investigation fee for all the applications shall be three hundred dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0993 Approval; disapproval of application; and waiting period.—

(1) Within sixty days after the filing of an application for a license accompanied by payment of the fees for license and investigation, the commissioner shall issue the license or refuse to issue the license, if it is found by him that the management of the premium finance company filing the application is lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed operation hazardous to the insurance buying public, or which he has good reason to believe is affiliated directly or indirectly through ownership, control, or in other business relations with any person or persons whose business operations are or have been marked as detrimental to the public, policyholders, stockholders, investors, or creditors by manipulation of assets or of accounts or by bad faith. Such license to engage in business in accordance with the provisions of this law at the location specified in the application shall be executed in duplicate by the commissioner, and he shall transmit one copy thereof to the applicant and file a copy in the office of the insurance department.

(2) If the commissioner refuses to issue a license, he shall notify the applicant of the denial, return to the applicant the sum paid as a license fee, but retain the investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the applicant.

(3) Each license issued hereunder shall remain in full force and effect until the last day of September of the year for which issued unless earlier surrendered, suspended, or revoked pursuant to part XIV, and may be renewed for the ensuing license year upon the filing of an application in conformity with §627.0992 but subject to all of the provisions of this section. If an application for a renewal of a license is filed with the commissioner before October 1 of any year, the license sought to be renewed shall be continued in full force and effect either until the issuance by the commissioner of the renewal license applied for or until five days after the commissioner refuses to issue such renewal license under the provisions of this section.

(4) Only one office may be maintained under each license, but more than one license may be issued to the same licensee pursuant to part XIV.

(5) Any person engaged in the business of a premium finance company on October 1, 1963 may continue in operation in accordance with the provisions of part XIV but must obtain a license for each office at which he engages in the business of a premium finance agency by October 1, 1963.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0994 License provisions and posting.—Such license shall state the name and address of the licensee and shall be kept conspicuously posted in the office of the licensee and shall not be transferable or assignable.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0995 Change of location.—Before any licensee changes any office of his to another location, he shall give written notice thereof to the commissioner who shall without charge issue an endorsement indicating the change and the date thereof, which endorsement shall be attached to the license for such office and be authority for the operation of the business under such license at such new location.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0996 Grounds for refusal, suspension, and revocation of license.—

(1) The commissioner may forthwith deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue any license hereunder, if he shall find that:

(a) The licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee or any sum of money lawfully demanded under authority of any other section of this chapter, or to comply with any demand, ruling, or requirement of the commissioner lawfully made pursuant to and within the authority of part XIV.

(b) The licensee has violated any provision of part XIV or any rule or regulation lawfully made by the commissioner under and within the authority of part XIV.

(c) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for such license, clearly would have warranted the commissioner in refusing originally to issue such license.

(2) The commissioner may revoke or suspend only the particular license with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension may occur or exist; or if he shall find that such grounds for revocation or suspension are of general application to all offices, or to more than one office, operated by such licensee, he shall revoke or suspend all of the licenses issued to such licensee or such number of licenses as such grounds apply to, as the case may be.

(3) Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering to the commissioner written notice that he thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect such licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to such surrender.

(4) No revocation or suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation of any insured under any lawful premium finance agreement previously acquired or held by the licensee.

(5) Every license issued hereunder shall remain in force and effect until the same shall have been surrendered, revoked, suspended, or expires in accordance with the provisions of part XIV; but the commissioner shall have authority to reinstate suspended licenses or to issue new licenses to a licensee whose license or licenses shall have been revoked, if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have warranted the commissioner in refusing originally to issue such license under part XIV.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0997 Administrative fine and probation in lieu of suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew license.—The commissioner may in his discretion in lieu of a suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license, impose on the licensee an administrative penalty or place such licensee on probation pursuant to §§626.681 and 626.691 of this code.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0998 Investigations, powers; duties.—The commissioner may conduct examinations and investigations of premium finance companies under the provisions of §§624.0106 and 626.601 of this code.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.0999 Excessive premium finance charge; penalty.—

(1) Any person, premium finance company, or other legal entity who or which knowingly takes, receives, reserves, or charges a premium finance charge other than that authorized by this law shall thereby forfeit the entire premium finance charge to which such person, premium finance company, or entity would otherwise be entitled and any person who shall have paid such unlawful finance charge may personally or by his legal or personal representative, by suit for recovery thereof brought within two years from the date of such payment, recover from such person, premium finance company, or legal entity twice the entire amount of the premium finance charge so paid.

(2) Section 624.15 shall be applicable to each wilful violation as to which a greater penalty is not provided by another provision of this code or by other applicable laws of this state.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1000 Licensee's books and records; reports.—

(1) The licensee shall keep and use in his business such books, accounts, and records as will enable the commissioner to determine whether such licensee is complying with the provisions of part XIV and with the rules and regulations lawfully made by the commissioner hereunder. Every licensee shall preserve such books, accounts, and records, including cards used in a card system, if any, for at least three years after making the final entry in respect to any premium finance agreement recorded therein; provided, however, the preservation of photographic reproductions thereof or records in photographic form shall constitute compliance with this requirement.

(2) Each licensee shall annually on or before March 1 file a report with the commissioner giving such information as the commissioner may require concerning the business and operations during the preceding calendar year of each licensed place of business conducted by the licensee within the state under the authority of part XIV. Such report shall be made under oath and be in the form prescribed by the commissioner who may make and publish annually an analysis and recapitulation of such reports. In addition to such annual reports, the commissioner may require of licensees under oath and in the form prescribed by him, such additional regular or special reports as he may deem necessary to the proper supervision of licensees under part XIV.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1001 Rebates and inducements prohibited.—

(1) No premium finance company, and no employee of such a company, shall pay, allow, or offer to pay or allow in any manner whatsoever to an insurance agent or any employee of an insurance agent, or to any other person, either as an inducement to the financing of any insurance policy with the premium finance company or after any such policy has been financed, any rebate whatsoever, either from the service charge for financing specified in the premium finance agreement or otherwise, or shall give or offer to give any valuable consideration or inducement of any kind directly or indirectly, other than an article of merchandise not exceeding one dollar in value which shall have thereon the advertisement of the premium finance company; but a premium finance company may purchase or otherwise acquire a premium finance agreement, provided that it conforms to part XIV in all respects, from another premium finance company with recourse against the premium finance company on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon; and

(2) No filing of the assignment or notice thereof to the insured shall be necessary to the validity of the written assignment of a premium finance agreement as against creditors or subsequent purchasers, pledgees, or encumbrancers of the assignor.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1002 Filing, approval of forms, service charge filing.—

(1) No premium finance agreement form or related form shall be used in this state by a premium finance company unless it has been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of issuance or use. At the expiration of thirty days from date of filing, a form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by written order of the commissioner. The commissioner may extend by not more than an additional fifteen days the period within which he may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form by giving notice of such extension before the expiration of the initial thirty day period. At the expiration of any such period as so extended and in the absence of prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved.

(3) In addition each premium finance company shall file with the commissioner the service charge and interest rate plan to be charged in premium financing including all modifications of service charges and interest rate to be paid by the insured or others under a premium finance agreement. Every filing shall state the effective date thereon. Such filing shall be made not less than thirty days prior to its effective date.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1003 Form and content of premium finance agreements.—

(1) A premium finance agreement shall be in writing, dated, and signed by or on behalf of the insured, and the printed portion thereof shall be in at least eight point type.

(2) It shall contain the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the insurance contract, the premiums for which are advanced or to be advanced under it, and:

(a) At its top, the words PREMIUM FINANCE AGREEMENT in at least ten point bold type; and

(b) A notice in at least eight point bold type, reading as follows: NOTICE:

1. Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank space.

2. You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement.

3. Under the law, you have the right to pay off in advance the full amount due and under certain conditions to obtain a partial refund of the service charge.

(3) A premium finance agreement shall:

(a) Contain the name and place of business of the insurance agent negotiating the related insurance contract, the name and residence or the place of business of the insured as specified by him, the name and place of business of the premium finance company to which installment or other payments are to be made, a description of the insurance contract, the premiums for which are advanced or to be advanced under the agreement, and the amount of the premiums for such insurance contract; and

(b) Set forth the following items:

1. The total amount of the premiums;
2. The amount of the down payment;
3. The principal balance, which is the difference between subparagraphs 1. and 2.;
4. The amount of the service charge;
5. The balance, which is the sum of subparagraphs 3. and 4., payable by the insured, the number of installments required, the amount of each installment expressed in dollars and the due date or period thereof;

(4) The items need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth above, inapplicable items may be omitted; additional items may be included to explain the computations made in determining the amount to be paid by the insured.

(5) No premium finance agreement shall be signed by an insured when it contains any blank space to be filled in after it has been signed; however, if the insurance contract, the premiums for which are advanced or to be advanced under the agreement, has not been issued at the time of its signature by the insured and it so provides, the name of the authorized insurer by whom such insurance contract is issued and the policy number and the due date of the first installment may be left blank and later inserted in the original of the agreement after it has been signed by the insured.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1004 Limitation on service and other charges.—

(1) A premium finance company shall not, except as otherwise provided by law, impose, take, receive from, reserve, or charge an insured greater charges than are permitted by part XIV.

(2) A premium finance company may, in a premium finance agreement, contract for, charge, receive, and collect a service charge for financing the premiums under the agreement computed as provided in subsection (3).

(3) (a) The service charge provided for in this section shall be computed on the principal balance of the premium finance agreement from the inception date of the insurance contract, the premiums for which are advanced or to be advanced under the agreement or from the due date of such premiums, disregarding any period of grace or credit allowed for payment thereof, to and including the date when the final installment of the premium finance agreement is payable, at not exceeding ten dollars per one hundred dollars per annum; or if the service charge so computed is less than twelve dollars, a minimum service charge of twelve dollars, provided that when the principal balance is not in excess of one hundred dollars and is:

1. To be repaid in four monthly installments or less, the maximum service charge shall be eight dollars;

2. To be repaid in five or more monthly installments, the maximum service charge shall be ten dollars;

(b) Except as provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of paragraph (a), such service charge shall be computed on the principal balance of a premium finance agreement payable in successive monthly installments substantially equal in amount for a period of one year. On a premium finance agreement providing for installments extending for a period less than or greater than one year, the service charge shall be computed proportionately.

(c) When a premium finance agreement provides for unequal or irregular installments, the service charge shall be computed at the effective rate provided for in paragraph (a), having due regard for the schedule of installments.

(d) Such service charge shall be inclusive of all charges incident to the premium finance agreement and for the extension of credit provided for therein.

(e) The above paragraphs of subsection (3) apply, if the premiums under only one insurance contract are advanced or to be advanced under a premium finance agreement; if premiums under more than one insurance contract are advanced or to be advanced under a premium finance agreement, the service charge shall be computed from the inception date of such insurance contracts, or from due date of such premiums; however, not more than one minimum service charge shall apply to each premium finance agreement.

(f) No insurance agent or premium finance company shall induce an insured to become obligated under more than one premium finance agreement for the purpose of obtaining more than one minimum service charge.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1005 Delinquency, collection, and cancellation charges; attorney's fees.—

(1) A premium finance agreement may provide for the payment by the insured of a delinquency and collection charge on each installment in default for a period of not less than five days in an amount of one dollar to a maximum not to exceed five per cent of such installment or five dollars, whichever is less, provided that only one such delinquency and collection charge may be collected on any such installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default; and if the default results in the cancellation of any insurance contract listed in the agreement, the agreement may provide for the payment by the insured of a cancellation charge equal to the difference between any delinquency and collection charge imposed in respect to the installment in default and five dollars.

(2) A premium finance agreement may, also, provide for the payment of attorney's fees not exceeding twenty per cent of the amount due and payable under the agreement if it is referred for collection to an attorney not a salaried employee of the premium finance company holding the agreement.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a premium finance company shall not take, receive from, or charge an insured any cancellation charge or attorney's fees unless, within ten days after default in the payment of any installment of a premium finance agreement, the premium finance company has mailed a notice of the default to the insured at his address as shown on the agreement and to any insurance agent named therein at his place of business as shown giving the insured at least five days within which to make the payment in default.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1006 Restrictions on premium finance agreements.—

(1) No premium finance agreement shall contain any provision by which:

(a) In the absence of default of the insured, the premium finance company holding the agreement may, arbitrarily and without reasonable cause, accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount owing thereunder;

(b) A power of attorney is given to confess judgment in this state; or

(c) The insured relieves the insurance agent or the premium finance company holding the agreement from liability for any legal rights or remedies which the insured may otherwise have against him.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1007 Delivery of copy of premium finance agreement.—Before the due date of the first installment payable under a premium finance agreement, the premium finance company holding the agreement or the insurance agent shall deliver to the insured, or mail to him at his address as shown in the agreement, a copy thereof or, if the agreement contained any blank space when it was signed and such blank space was subsequently filled in, in accordance with §627.1003(5), a copy of the agreement as so filled in.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1008 Notice of assignment; payments.—Unless the insured has notice of actual or intended assignment of a premium finance agreement, payment thereunder by him to the last known holder of the agreement shall be binding upon all subsequent holders or assignees.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1009 Statement of account; receipts.—

(1) At any time after its execution, but not later than one year after the last payment thereunder, a premium finance company holding a premium finance agreement shall, upon written request of the insured, give or mail to him a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments and the total amount, if any, unpaid thereunder. Such a statement shall be supplied once each year without charge; if any additional statement is requested, the premium finance company shall supply such statement at a charge not exceeding one dollar for each additional statement so supplied. An insured shall be given a receipt for a payment when made in cash.

(2) After the payment of all sums for which an insured is obligated under a premium finance agreement, and upon his written demand, the premium finance company holding the agreement shall deliver, or mail to the insured at his last known address, such one or more good and sufficient instruments as may be necessary to acknowledge payment in full and to release all interest in or rights to the insurance contracts, the premiums for which were advanced or are to be advanced under the agreement.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1010 Credit upon anticipation of payments.—

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any premium finance agreement to the contrary, any insured may pay it in full at any time before the maturity of the final installment of the balance thereof; and, if he does so and the agreement included an amount for service charge, he shall receive and be entitled to receive for such anticipation a refund credit thereon.

(2) The amount of any such refund credit shall represent at least as great proportion of the service charge, if any, as the sum of the periodic balances after the month in which prepayment is made bears to the sum of all periodic balances under the schedule of installments in the agreement. Where the amount of the refund credit for anticipation of payment is less than one dollar, no refund need be made. Where the earned service charge amounts to less than twelve dollars or where the minimum service charge permitted is less than twelve dollars, the refund credit shall be an amount equal to the total service charge less twelve dollars or such minimum service charge. As used in this subsection, the term earned service charge shall mean the total service charge less the refund credit as computed in accordance with the first sentence of this subsection.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1011 Refinancing.—A premium finance company may, upon agreement with the insured, extend the scheduled due date or defer the scheduled payment of all or any part of any installment or installments payable thereunder. The agreement for such extension or deferment must be in writing and signed by the parties thereto. The premium finance company may charge and contract for the payment of an extension or deferral charge by the insured and collect and receive the same; but such charge may not exceed an amount equal to one per cent per month simple interest on the amount of the installment or installments, or part thereof, extended or deferred for the period of extension or deferral. Such period shall not exceed the period from the date when such extended or deferred installment or installments, or part thereof, would have been payable in the absence of such extension or deferral, to the date when such installment or installments, or part thereof, are made payable under the agreement of extension or deferment; except that a minimum charge of one dollar for the period of extension or deferral may be made in any case where the extension or deferral charge, when computed at such rate, amounts to less than one dollar.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

627.1012 Cancellation of insurance contract upon default.—When a premium finance agreement contains a power of attorney or other authority enabling the premium finance company to cancel any insurance contract or contracts listed in the agreement, the insurance contract or contracts shall not be cancelled unless such cancellation is effectuated in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Not less than ten days written notice be served upon the insured or insureds shown on the premium finance agreement of the intent of the premium finance company to cancel his or their insurance contract or contracts unless the defaulted installment payment is received within ten days.

(2) After expiration of such period, the premium finance company shall mail the insurer a request for cancellation, specifying the effective date of such cancellation, mailing a copy to the insured at his last known address as shown on the premium finance agreement.

(3) Every such notice of cancellation shall include, in type or print of which its face shall not be smaller than twelve point, a statement that if the insurance contract or contracts provide motor vehicle liability insurance required by the financial responsibility law proof of financial responsibility is required to be maintained continuously for a period of three years, pursuant to chapter 324 and that the operation of a vehicle without such financial responsibility is unlawful.

(4) Upon receipt of a copy of such cancellation notice by the insurer or insurers, the insurance contract shall be cancelled with the same force and effect as if the aforesaid notice of cancellation had been submitted by the insured himself, without requiring the return of the insurance contract or contracts.

(5) All statutory, regulatory, and contractual restrictions providing that the insured may not cancel his insurance contract unless he or the insurer first satisfies such restrictions by giving a prescribed notice to a governmental agency, the insurance carrier, a mortgagee, an individual, or a person designated to receive such notice for said governmental agency, insurance carrier, or individual shall apply where cancellation is effected under the provisions of this section. The insurer, in accordance with said prescribed notice where it is required to give such notice in behalf of itself or the insured, shall give notice to such governmental agency, person, mortgagee or individual; and it shall determine and calculate the effective date of cancellation from the day it receives the copy of the notice of cancellation from the premium finance company.

(6) Whenever an insurance contract is cancelled in accordance with this section, the insurer shall promptly return whatever gross unearned premiums are due under the contract to the premium finance company effecting the cancellation for the benefit of the insured or insureds.

History.—§1, ch. 63-16.

PART XV

PREMIUM FINANCING

627.1020 Premium financing by an insurance agent or agency.

627.1021 Premium financing by an insurer or subsidiary.

627.1020 Premium financing by an insurance agent or agency.—

(1) A general lines agent as defined in the code and duly licensed thereunder or a general lines insurance agency transacting kinds of insurance as provided in §626.041, may make certain reasonable service charges for financing such insurance premiums on policies issued or business produced by said agent or agency, §§626.0613 and 626.0617 notwithstanding. The service charge for financing such premium or premiums shall not exceed one dollar per installment, nor exceed six dollars total service charge per annum, for any premium balance of one hundred twenty dollars or less. For any premium balance greater than one hundred twenty dollars but not more than two hundred twenty dollars the service charge shall not exceed nine dollars per annum. The maximum service charge of one dollar per install-

627.1022 Premium finance cost specified.

627.1023 Insurers filing; approval of forms; service charge filing.

ment for any premium balance greater than two hundred twenty dollars shall not exceed twelve dollars per annum. An insurance agent or agency in lieu of such service charges may charge a rate of interest not to exceed ten per cent simple interest per annum on the unpaid balance.

(2) Every such agent or agency engaging in premium financing whose service charge or rate of interest is more than as provided in subsection (1) shall be subject to part XIV of this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 63-16.

627.1021 Premium financing by an insurer or subsidiary.—

(1) An insurer as defined in the code and authorized to transact insurance in this state or a subsidiary of such insurer or a corporation under substantially the same management or control as an authorized insurer or group of authorized insurers, may finance property, casualty, surety, and marine insurance premiums on policies issued or business produced by said insurer or insurers in substantial accordance with the service charges or rate of interest as provided in §627.1020.

(2) Any insurer, subsidiary, corporation or group of insurers referred to in subsection (1), whose service charge or rate of interest is substantially more than that provided in §627.1020 shall be subject to part XIV of this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 63-16.

627.1022 Premium finance cost specified.—

(1) Where premium financing service charges or interest is included in the overall price or cost of insurance, the insurer, insurance agent, or agency shall separately state and identify the amount of service charges or interest to be paid for the financing of such premiums.

(2) All service charges or interest shall be separately stated and identified in all invoices issued to the policyholder and in the records or accounts maintained by the insurer or corporation as provided in §627.1021 agent, or agency.

History.—§2, ch. 63-16.

627.1023 Insurers filing; approval of forms; service charge filing.—An insurer or a subsidiary of such insurer or a corporation under substantially the same management or control as an authorized insurer or group of authorized insurers shall file premium finance agreement forms or related forms and service charge or interest rate plan to be charged as provided in §627.1002 separately from rates and filings required under part I of this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 63-16.

CHAPTER 628

INSURANCE CODE; ORGANIZATION AND CORPORATE PROCEDURES OF STOCK AND MUTUAL INSURERS

- 628.011 Scope of chapter.
 628.021 Stock insurer defined.
 628.031 Mutual insurer defined.
 628.041 Applicability of general corporation statutes.
 628.051 Permit required to form insurer; application.
 628.061 Investigation of proposed organization.
 628.071 Granting, denial of permit.
 628.081 Incorporation of domestic insurer.
 628.091 Filing, approval of articles of incorporation.
 628.101 Amendment of certificate of incorporation; stock insurer.
 628.111 Same; mutual insurer.
 628.121 Capital stock; amount; payment.
 628.131 Limitation on organization and stock sales expenses.
 628.141 Underwriters represented on board.
 628.151 Insurance business exclusive.
 628.161 Initial qualifications; domestic mutuals.
 628.171 Formation of mutual insurer; bond.
 628.181 Applications for insurance in formation of mutual insurer.
 628.191 Formation of mutuals; trust deposit of premiums; issuance of policies.
 628.201 Same; failure to qualify.
 628.211 Additional kinds of insurance, mutuals.
 628.221 By-laws of mutual.
 628.231 Directors; number, election.
 628.241 Bonds of mutual officers.
 628.251 Management and exclusive agency contracts.
- 628.261 Notice of change of directors, officers.
 628.271 Home office and records; penalty for unlawful removal of records.
 628.281 Exceptions to requirement that home office, records, assets be maintained in this state.
 628.291 Unauthorized transactions in other states.
 628.301 Membership in mutuals.
 628.311 Contingent liability of mutual members.
 628.321 Levy of contingent liability.
 628.331 Enforcement of contingent liability.
 628.341 Nonassessable policies; mutual insurers.
 628.351 Same; revocation of authority.
 628.361 Participating policies.
 628.371 Dividends to stockholders.
 628.381 Dividends to mutual policyholders.
 628.391 Illegal dividends; penalty.
 628.401 Borrowed surplus.
 628.411 Impairment of capital or assets.
 628.421 Assessment of stockholders or members.
 628.431 Mutualization of stock insurers.
 628.441 Converting mutual insurer.
 628.451 Mergers and consolidations of stock insurers.
 628.461 Acquisition of controlling stock.
 628.471 Mergers and consolidations, mutual insurers.
 628.481 Bulk reinsurance; stock insurers.
 628.491 Same; mutual insurers.
 628.501 Mutual member's share of assets on liquidation.

628.011 Scope of chapter.—This chapter applies only as to domestic stock and mutual insurers, except that §628.341(2) (nonassessable policies, mutual insurers) shall apply also as to foreign and alien insurers.

History.—§621, ch. 59-205.

628.021 Stock insurer defined.—A “stock” insurer is an incorporated insurer with its capital divided into shares and owned by its stockholders.

History.—§622, ch. 59-205.

628.031 Mutual insurer defined.—A “mutual” insurer is an incorporated insurer without permanent capital stock, and the governing body of which is elected in accordance with this chapter.

History.—§623, ch. 59-205.

628.041 Applicability of general corporation statutes.—The applicable statutes of this state relating to the powers and procedures of domestic private corporations formed for profit shall apply to domestic stock insurers and to domestic mutual insurers, except where in conflict with the express provisions of this code.

History.—§624, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §632.10.

628.051 Permit required to form insurer; application.—

(1) No domestic insurer shall hereafter be formed unless the persons so proposing have applied to the commissioner for and have received from the commissioner a permit therefor.

(2) Written application for such permit shall be filed with the commissioner and shall include:

(a) Name, type, and purpose of insurer;

(b) Name, residence address, business background, and qualifications of each person associated or to be associated in the formation or financing of the insurer;

(c) Full disclosure of the terms of all understandings and agreements existing or proposed among persons so associated relative to the insurer, or the formation or financing thereof, accompanied by a copy of each such agreement or understanding;

(d) Full disclosure of the terms of all understandings and agreements existing or proposed for management or exclusive agency contracts;

(e) A copy of each of any or all proposed articles or certificate of incorporation and proposed by laws of the proposed insurer; and

(f) Such other pertinent information as the commissioner may reasonably require.

(3) File with the commissioner:

(a) A copy of each of any and all articles or certificates of incorporation of involved corporations, if a copy of the same is not already on file in the department;

(b) A copy of each of any and all syndicate, association, firm, partnership, organization or other similar agreement, by whatever name called, involved in the formation of the proposed insurer or its financing;

(c) If the insurer or proposed insurer is a reciprocal insurer, a copy of the power of attorney and of other agreements existing or proposed as affecting investors, subscribers, the attorney in fact, the insurer or proposed insurer;

(d) A copy of any security, or of any proposed document evidencing any right or interest, proposed to be offered;

(e) A copy of any other pertinent document as reasonably requested by the commissioner.

(4) The application shall be accompanied by the filing fee specified therefor in §624.0300.

History.—§625, ch. 59-205.

628.061 Investigation of proposed organization.—In connection with any proposal to incorporate a domestic insurer as referred to in §628.051, the commissioner shall make an investigation of:

(1) The character, reputation, financial standing and motives of the organizers, incorporators and subscribers organizing the proposed insurer;

(2) The character, financial responsibility, insurance experience, business qualifications of its proposed officers;

(3) The character, the financial responsibility, business experience and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

History.—§626, ch. 59-205.

628.071 Granting, denial of permit.—

(1) The commissioner shall expeditiously examine and investigate the application for a permit as referred to in §628.051. Subject to subsection (3), if he finds that:

(a) The application is complete, and

(b) The documents therewith filed are in compliance with law, and

(c) The proposed financial structure is adequate, and

(d) The proposed officers and directors have sufficient insurance experience, ability, and standing to assure reasonable promise of successful operation, he shall issue to the applicant a permit to form the proposed insurer.

(2) No permit granted under the provisions of this section shall be valid after one year from date of issue or after extension of such period, not exceeding one year, as may be authorized by the commissioner upon cause shown. The articles of incorporation and all other proceedings thereunder shall become void one year from issue date of such permit or expiration of such extended period, unless the formation of the proposed insurer shall have been completed and a certificate of authority issued by the commissioner.

(3) If the commissioner does not so find, or finds that the insurer if formed or financed would not be able to qualify for or retain a certificate of authority by reason of the provisions of §624.0203 (3), he shall give written notice to the applicant that a permit will not be granted, stating in detail the grounds therefor.

History.—§627, ch. 59-205; §1, ch. 63-18.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.03.

628.081 Incorporation of domestic insurer.—

(1) This section applies to stock and mutual insurers hereafter incorporated in this state.

(2) Five or more individuals, none of whom is less than twenty-one years of age, may incorporate a stock insurer; ten or more individuals, none of whom is less than twenty-one years of age, may incorporate a mutual insurer. At least a majority of the incorporators shall be citizens of the United States.

(3) The incorporators shall execute articles of incorporation in triplicate, and at least three of the incorporators shall acknowledge their execution thereof before an officer authorized to take acknowledgements. The articles of incorporation shall state the purpose for which the corporation is formed, and shall state and show:

(a) The name of the corporation, which shall comply with §624.0204 of this code. If a mutual, the name shall contain "mutual" as part thereof.

(b) The duration of its existence, which may be perpetual.

(c) The kinds of insurance, as defined in this code, which the corporation is formed to transact.

(d) If a stock corporation, its authorized capital stock, number of shares of stock into which divided, and the par value of each such share, which par value shall be at least one dollar but not more than one hundred dollars.

(e) If a mutual corporation, the maximum contingent liability of its members, other than as to nonassessable policies, for payment of losses and expenses incurred; such liability shall be as stated in the articles of incorporation, but shall not be less than one nor more than ten times the premium for the member's policy at the annual premium rate for a term of one year.

(f) The number of directors, not less than five, who shall constitute the board of directors and conduct the affairs of the corporation; also the names, addresses and terms of the members of the initial board of directors. The term of office of initial directors shall be for not more than one year after the date of incorporation.

(g) The name of the county, and the city, town or place within the county, in which its principal office or principal place of business is to be located in this state.

(h) Such other provisions, not inconsistent with law, deemed appropriate by the incorporators.

(i) The name and residence address of each incorporator, and the citizenship of each incorporator who is not a citizen of the United States.

(4) Articles of incorporation shall be filed and be subject to approval as provided in §628.091.

History.—§628, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§625.02, 626.021, 632.01, 632.02, 632.04, 632.05, 632.12.

628.091 Filing, approval of articles of incorporation.—

(1) No domestic stock or mutual insurer shall hereafter be formed in this state unless the articles of incorporation thereof are approved by the commissioner prior to filing the same with and approval by the secretary of state as otherwise provided by law.

(2) The incorporators shall file the triplicate originals of the articles of incorporation with the commissioner, accompanied by the filing fee therefor as specified in §624.0300.

(3) The commissioner shall promptly examine the articles of incorporation. If he finds that the articles of incorporation conform to law, and that a permit has been or will be issued as provided by §628.071, he shall endorse his approval on each of the triplicate originals of the articles of incorporation, retain one copy thereof for his files, and return the two remaining copies to the incorporators for filing with the secretary of state as required by law.

(4) If after examining the articles of incorporation the commissioner does not find as referred to in subsection (3), he shall refuse to approve the articles of incorporation and shall return the triplicate originals thereof to the incorporators together with a statement in writing of the reasons for nonapproval.

(5) Any person aggrieved by any action of the commissioner under this section shall have the right to a hearing and to appeal to the courts therefrom as provided in part II of chapter 624.

History.—§629, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.021, 632.03, 632.06.

628.101 Amendment of certificate of incorporation; stock insurer.—A domestic stock insurer shall not effectuate an amendment to its certificate of incorporation until a copy of the proposed amendment has been filed with and approved by the commissioner. The commissioner shall promptly examine any such proposed amendment and shall approve the same unless he finds that the proposed amendment does not comply with law.

History.—§630, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§625.03, 625.04.

628.111 Same; mutual insurer.—

(1) A domestic mutual insurer heretofore or hereafter formed may amend its articles of incorporation for any lawful purpose by affirmative vote of a majority of those of its members present or represented by proxy at a lawful meeting of its members of which the notice given members included due notice of the proposal to amend.

(2) Upon adoption of the amendment the insurer shall make in triplicate under its corporate seal a certificate thereof, setting forth the amendment and the date and manner of the adoption thereof, which certificate shall be executed by the insurer's president or vice-president and secretary or assistant secretary and acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. The insurer shall deliver the triplicate originals of the certificate to the commissioner together with the filing fee specified therefor in §624.0300.

The commissioner shall promptly examine the certificate of amendment, and if he finds that the certificate and the amendment comply with law he shall endorse his approval upon each of the triplicate originals, place one thereof on file in his office and return the remaining two sets to the insurer. The insurer shall forthwith file such endorsed certificates of amendment with the secretary of state as otherwise required by law. The amendment shall be effective when filed with and approved by the secretary of state.

(3) If the commissioner finds that the proposed amendment or certificate does not comply with the law, he shall not approve the same, and shall return the triplicate certificate of amendment to the insurer together with his written statement of reasons for nonapproval.

History.—§631, ch. 59-205.

628.121 Capital stock; amount; payment.—

(1) The articles of incorporation of a stock insurer shall provide for authorized capital in amount not less than that required under this code as to such insurer for the kind or kinds of insurance to be transacted.

(2) In the sale of the insurer's capital stock an amount not less than the minimum paid-in capital stock required under this code as to the insurer for authority to transact the kind or kinds of insurance to be transacted, shall be paid-in in lawful money of the United States or in equivalent United States government securities; any additional sums paid for stock or any stock sold after the minimum required capital has been so paid-in in money, may be in the form of any type of securities in which the insurer is authorized under part II of chapter 625 of this code to invest its funds, subject to the terms and conditions of such chapter, and subject further to the applicable provisions of law.

History.—§632, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§625.02, 625.05.

628.131 Limitation on organization and stock sales expenses.—

(1) Total expense involved in the incorporation and financing of a new domestic stock insurer shall not exceed fifteen per cent of the funds actually received by or on behalf of the corporation from the sale of its securities, including incorporation fees, underwriting fees and costs, attorneys' fees, printing costs and other services and costs involved in such incorporation and financing.

(2) No president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, director or any other executive officer of any such insurer shall participate in the commissions received or to be received by any person selling or negotiating the sale of any security of such an insurer either directly or indirectly.

History.—§633, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.15.

628.141 Underwriters represented on board.

—In event the financing of a new domestic stock insurer is by public offering of its securities through an underwriter or underwriters of such an offering, such underwriter or underwriters shall be entitled to have not less than one nominee on the insurer's board of directors.

History.—§634, ch. 59-205.

628.151 Insurance business exclusive.—

(1) No domestic insurer heretofore or hereafter formed shall engage in or have corporate power to engage directly or indirectly in any business other than the insurance business and in business activities reasonably and necessarily incidental to such insurance business.

(2) Except that:

(a) Any title insurer heretofore formed under a charter authorizing it to engage also in the trust business, shall have the right to continue to engage in both such businesses.

(b) A title insurer may also engage in business as an escrow agent, and any insurer may also engage in the business of making, acquiring, selling, dealing in, and servicing of real estate mortgage loans and loans incidental thereto.

(3) A business trust whose declaration of trust was filed with the secretary of state of Florida prior to January 1, 1959, and which, at the time of the adoption of this code, held a certificate of authority as a title insurer may qualify as an insurer for lawyers' professional liability insurance by complying with the applicable provisions of this code.

History.—§635, ch. 59-205.

628.161 Initial qualifications; domestic mutuals.—

(1) When newly organized, a domestic mutual insurer may be authorized to transact any one of the kinds of insurance listed in the schedule contained in subsection (2).

(2) When applying for an original certificate of authority, the insurer must be otherwise qualified therefor under this code, and must have received and accepted bona fide applications as to substantial insurable subjects for insurance coverage of a substantial character of the kind of insurance proposed to be transacted, must have collected in cash the full premium therefor at a rate not less than the usual rate charged by stock insurers for comparable coverages, must have deposited surplus funds in the amount shown in column (g), or, in lieu of such applications, premiums and surplus, may deposit surplus in the amount shown in column (h), all in accordance with that part of the following schedule which applies to the one kind of insurance the insurer proposes to transact:

(a) Kind of Insurance	(b) Minimum no. of applicants accepted	(c) Minimum no. of subjects covered	(d) Minimum premium collected	(e) Minimum amount of insurance each subject
Life(i)	500	500	annual	$1000
Disability (ii)	500	500	quarterly	$10 (weekly indem.)
Property (iii)	250	250	annual	$2000
Casualty (iv)	250	500	annual	$2000

(a) Kind of Insurance	(f) Maximum amount of insurance each subject	(g) Deposit of minimum surplus funds (vi)	(h) Deposit of surplus in lieu (vi)
Life(i)	$2500	$100,000	$150,000
Disability (ii)	$25 (weekly indem.)	$100,000	$150,000
Property (iii)	$3000	$150,000	$200,000
Casualty (iv)	$10,000	$150,000	$200,000

The following provisos are respectively applicable to the foregoing schedule and provisions as indicated by like Roman numerals appearing in such schedule:

(i) No group insurance or term policies for terms of less than ten years shall be included.

(ii) No group, blanket or family plans of insurance shall be included. In lieu of weekly indemnity a like premium value in medical, surgical and hospital benefits may be provided. Any accidental death or dismemberment benefit provided shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars.

(iii) Only insurance of the owner's interest in real property may be included.

(iv) Must include insurance of legal liability for bodily injury and property damage, to which the maximum and minimum insured amounts apply.

(v) The maximums provided for in this column (f) are net of applicable reinsurance.

(vi) The deposit of surplus in the amounts specified in columns (g) and (h) must thereafter be maintained unimpaired. The deposit is subject to the provisions of part III of chapter 625 (administration of deposits).

(3) In addition to the surplus deposited as required under subsection (2), the insurer must possess when first so authorized to transact insurance, expendable surplus in amount as required of a like foreign mutual insurer under §624.0207.

History.—§636, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.11, 632.07.

628.171 Formation of mutual insurer; bond.—

(1) Before soliciting any applications for insurance required under §628.161 as qualification for the original certificate of authority, the incorporators of the proposed insurer shall file with the commissioner a corporate surety bond in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars in favor of the state of Florida and for the use and benefit of the state and of applicant members and creditors of the corporation. The bond shall be conditioned as follows:

(a) Upon due accounting for and deposit, as required under §628.191, of funds received as premium upon preliminary applications for insurance;

(b) That in event the corporation fails to complete its organization and secure a certificate of authority issued by the commissioner within one year after the date of its certificate of incorporation, all premiums collected in advance from applicant members will be promptly returned to them, all other indebtedness of the corporation other than any compensation to directors, officers, or solicitors of insurance applications, will be paid, and for payment of costs incurred by the state in event of any legal proceedings for liquidation or dissolution of the corporation.

(2) In lieu of such a bond, the incorporators may deposit with the commissioner twenty thousand dollars in cash, or in United States government bonds at par value, to be held in trust upon the same conditions as required for the bond.

(3) Any such bond filed or deposit or remaining portion thereof held under this section shall be released and discharged upon settlement and termination of all liabilities against it hereunder.

History.—§637, ch. 59-205.

628.181 Applications for insurance in formation of mutual insurer.—

(1) Upon receipt of the commissioner's approval of the bond or deposit as provided in §628.171, the directors and officers of the proposed domestic mutual insurer may commence solicitation of such requisite applications for insurance policies as they may accept, and may receive deposits of premiums thereon.

(2) All such applications shall be in writing signed by the applicant, covering subjects of insurance resident, located or to be performed in this state.

(3) All such applications shall provide that:

(a) Issuance of the policy is contingent upon the insurer qualifying for and receiving a certificate of authority;

(b) No insurance is in effect unless and until the certificate of authority has been issued; and

(c) The prepaid premium or deposit, and membership or policy fee, if any, shall be refunded in full to the applicant if organization is not completed and the certificate of authority is not issued and received by the insurer before a specified reasonable date which date shall be not later than one year after the date of the certificate of incorporation.

(4) All qualifying premiums collected shall be in cash.

(5) Solicitation for such qualifying applications for insurance shall be by licensed agents of the corporation, and the commissioner shall, upon the corporation's application therefor, issue temporary agent's licenses expiring on the date specified pursuant to paragraph (c) to individuals qualified as for a resident agent's license. The commissioner may suspend or revoke any such license for any of the causes and pursuant to the same procedures as are applicable to suspension or revocation of licenses of agents in general under part I of chapter 626.

History.—§638, ch. 59-205.

628.191 Formation of mutuals; trust deposit of premiums; issuance of policies.—

(1) All sums collected by a domestic mutual corporation as premiums or fees on qualifying applications for insurance therein shall be deposited in trust in a bank or trust company in this state under a written trust agreement consistent with this section and with §628.181

(3) (c). The corporation shall file an executed copy of such trust agreement with the commissioner.

(2) Upon issuance to the corporation of a certificate of authority as an insurer for the kind of insurance for which such applications were solicited, all funds so held in trust shall become the funds of the insurer, and the insurer shall thereafter in due course, issue and deliver its policies for which premiums had been paid and accepted. The insurance provided by such policies shall be effective as of the date of the certificate of authority, or thereafter as provided in the respective policies.

History.—§639, ch. 59-205.

628.201 Same; failure to qualify.—If the proposed domestic mutual insurer fails to complete its organization and to secure its original certificate of authority within one year from and after date of its certificate of incorporation, the corporation shall be dissolved by the commissioner, and the commissioner shall return or cause to be returned to the persons entitled thereto all advance deposits or payments of premiums held in trust under §628.191.

History.—§640, ch. 59-205.

628.211 Additional kinds of insurance, mutuals.—A domestic mutual insurer, after being authorized to transact one kind of insurance, may be authorized by the commissioner to transact such additional kinds of insurance as are permitted under §624.0205, while otherwise in compliance with this code and while maintaining unimpaired surplus funds in an amount not less than the amount of paid-in capital stock required of a domestic stock insurer transacting like kinds of insurance, subject further in the case of insurers other than those to which §624.0208 is applicable, to the additional expendable surplus requirements of §624.0207 applicable to such a stock insurer.

History.—§641, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §632.10.

628.221 By-laws of mutual.—

(1) The initial board of directors of a domestic mutual insurer shall adopt original by-laws, subject to the approval of the insurer's members at the next succeeding meeting. The members shall have power to make, modify and revoke by-laws.

(2) The by-laws shall provide:

(a) That each member is entitled to one vote upon each matter coming to a vote at meetings of members, or to more votes in accordance with a reasonable classification of members as set forth in the by-laws and based upon the amount of insurance in force, or upon the amount of the premiums paid by such member, or upon other reasonable factors. A member shall have the right to vote in person or by his written proxy. No such proxy shall be made irrevocable or for longer than a reasonable period of time;

(b) For election of directors by the members, and the number, qualifications, terms of office, and powers of directors;

(c) The time, notice, quorum, and conduct of annual and special meetings of members and voting thereat. The by-laws may provide that the annual meeting shall be held at a place, date and time to be set forth in the policy and without giving other notice of such meeting;

(d) The number, designation, election, terms and powers and duties of the respective corporate officers;

(e) For deposit, custody, disbursement and accounting for corporate funds;

(f) For any other reasonable provisions customary, necessary or convenient for the management or regulation of its corporate affairs and not inconsistent with law.

(3) No provision in the by-laws for determining a quorum of members at any meeting thereof of less than a majority of all the insurer's members shall be effective unless approved by the commissioner. This subsection shall not affect any other provision of law requiring vote of a larger percentage of members for a specified purpose.

(4) The insurer shall promptly file with the commissioner a copy, certified by the insurer's secretary, of its by-laws and of every modification thereof or addition thereto. The commissioner shall disapprove any by-law provision deemed by him to be unlawful, unreasonable, inadequate, unfair or detrimental to the proper interests or protection of the insurer's members or any class thereof. The insurer shall not, after receiving written notice of such disapproval and during the existence thereof, effectuate any by-law provision so disapproved.

History.—§642, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§632.06, 632.10, 632.11.

628.231 Directors; number, election.—

(1) The affairs of every domestic insurer shall be managed by not less than five directors.

(2) Directors must be elected by the members or stockholders of a domestic insurer at the annual meeting of stockholders or members. Directors may be elected for terms of not more than three years each and until their successors are elected and have qualified, and if to be elected for terms of more than one year the insurer's by-laws shall provide for a staggered term system under which the terms of a proportionate part of the members of the board of directors will expire on the date of each annual meeting of stockholders or members.

(3) At least one-fourth of the directors of such insurer must be residents of this state. A majority of the directors must be citizens of the United States.

(4) If so provided in the insurer's by-laws, a director of a stock insurer shall be a stockholder thereof, and a director of a mutual insurer shall be a policyholder thereof.

History.—§643, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §632.10.

628.241 Bonds of mutual officers.—The president, secretary, and treasurer of a domestic mutual insurer, together with such other officers and administrative personnel as may handle the funds thereof, shall be bonded, under a fidelity bond issued by an authorized surety insurer, in such respective amounts, not less than ten thousand dollars in any instance, as may be provided for in the insurer's by-laws or as may reasonably be required by the commissioner. The cost of any such bond shall be paid by the insurer.

History.—§644, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §632.10.

628.251 Management and exclusive agency contracts.—

(1) No domestic mutual insurer or stock insurer, shall make any contract whereby any person is granted or is to enjoy in fact the management of the insurer to the substantial exclusion of its board of directors or to have the controlling or preemptive right to produce substantially all insurance business for the insurer, unless the contract is filed with and approved by the commissioner. The contract shall be deemed approved unless disapproved by the commissioner within twenty days after date of filing, subject to such reasonable extension of time as the commissioner may require by notice given within such twenty days. Any disapproval shall be delivered to the insurer in writing, stating the grounds therefor.

(2) Any such contract shall provide that any such manager or producer of its business shall within ninety days after expiration of each calendar year furnish the insurer's board of directors a written statement of amounts received under or on account of the contract and amounts expended thereunder during such calendar year, including the emoluments received therefrom by the respective directors, officers, and other principal management personnel of the manager or producer, and with such classification of items and further detail as the insurer's board of directors may reasonably require.

(3) The commissioner shall disapprove any such contract if he finds that it:

(a) Subjects the insurer to excessive charges; or

(b) Is to extend for an unreasonable length of time; or

(c) Does not contain fair and adequate standards of performance; or

(d) Contains other inequitable provision or provisions which impair the proper interests of policyholders or members of the insurer.

(4) This section does not apply as to contracts which were lawfully in force as of immediately prior to the effective date of this code.

History.—§645, ch. 59-205.

628.261 Notice of change of directors, officers.—An insurer shall promptly give the commissioner written notice of any change of personnel among the directors or principal officers of the insurer.

History.—§646, ch. 59-205.

628.271 Home office and records; penalty for unlawful removal of records.—

(1) Every domestic insurer shall have and maintain its principal place of business and home office in this state, and shall keep therein complete records of its assets, transactions, and affairs in accordance with such methods and systems as are customary or suitable as to the kind or kinds of insurance transacted.

(2) Every domestic insurer shall have and maintain its assets in this state, except as to:

(a) Real property and personal property appurtenant thereto lawfully owned by the insurer and located outside this state, and

(b) Such property of the insurer as may be customary, necessary, and convenient to enable and facilitate the operation of its branch offices, regional home offices and operations offices, located outside this state as referred to in §628.281.

(3) Removal of all or a material part of the records or assets of a domestic insurer from this state except pursuant to a plan of merger or consolidation approved by the commissioner under this code or for such reasonable purposes and periods of time as may be approved by the commissioner in writing in advance of such removal, or concealment of such records or assets or material part thereof from the commissioner, is prohibited. Any person who removes or attempts to remove such records or assets or such material part thereof from the home office or other place of business or of safekeeping of the insurer in this state with the intent to remove the same from this state, or who conceals or attempts to conceal the same from the commissioner, in violation of this subsection, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a felony, punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than 5 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Upon any removal or attempted removal of such records or assets or upon retention of such records or assets or material part thereof outside this state, beyond the period therefor specified in the commissioner's consent under which the records were so removed thereat, or upon concealment of or attempt to conceal records or assets in violation of this section, the commissioner may institute delinquency proceedings against the insurer pursuant to the provisions of chapter 631 of this code.

(4) This section is subject to the exceptions provided for in §628.281.

History.—§647, ch. 59-205.

628.281 Exceptions to requirement that home office, records, assets be maintained in this state.—

(1) The provisions of §628.271 shall not be deemed to prohibit or prevent an insurer from:

(a) Establishing and maintaining branch offices or regional home offices in other states where necessary or convenient to the transaction of its business and keeping therein the detailed records and assets customary and reasonably necessary for the servicing of its insurance in force and affairs in the territory served by such an office, as long as such records and assets are made readily available at such office for examination by the commissioner at his request.

(b) Having, depositing or transmitting funds and assets of the insurer in or to jurisdictions outside of this state as reasonably and customarily required in the regular course of its business.

(c) Establishing and maintaining its principal operations offices, its usual operations records and such of its assets as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose, in another state in which the insurer is authorized to transact insurance in order that general administration of its affairs may be combined with that of an affiliated insurer or insurers, but subject to the following conditions:

1. That the commissioner consents in writing to such removal of offices, records, and assets from Florida upon evidence satisfactory to him that the same will facilitate and make more economical the operations of the insurer, and will not unreasonably diminish the service or protection thereafter to be given the insurer's policyholders in this state and elsewhere;

2. That the insurer will continue to maintain in this state its principal corporate office or place of business, and maintain therein available to the inspection of the commissioner complete records of its corporate proceedings, and a copy of each financial statement of the insurer current within the preceding five years, including a copy of each interim financial statement prepared for the information of the insurer's officers or directors;

3. That upon the commissioner's written request the insurer will with reasonable promptness produce at its principal corporate offices in this state for examination or for subpoena, its records or copies thereof relative to a particular transaction or transactions of the insurer as designated by the commissioner in his request; and

4. That if at any time, after a hearing of which not less than thirty days' written notice was given the insurer by registered mail, the commissioner finds that the conditions justifying the maintenance of such offices, records, and assets outside of this state no longer exist, or that the insurer has wilfully and knowingly violated any of the conditions hereinabove stated in subparagraphs 2. and 3., the commissioner may order the return of such offices, records, and assets to this state within such reasonable time, not less than six months, as may be specified in the order; and that for failure to comply with such order, as thereafter modified or extended, if any, the commissioner shall suspend or revoke the insurer's certificate of authority.

(2) Section 628.271 does not apply as to domestic insurers which, as of immediately prior to the effective date of this code, had lawfully established, and thereafter maintain, their principal offices, records, and assets in another state.

History.—§648, ch. 59-205.

628.291 Unauthorized transactions in other states.—

(1) No domestic insurer shall enter into a contract of insurance upon the life or person of a resident of a reciprocal state, or covering property or risks located in a reciprocal state, unless the insurer is authorized pursuant to the laws of such reciprocal state to do business therein, subject to the following exceptions:

(a) Contracts entered into where the prospective insured is personally present in the state in which the insurer is authorized to do business when he signs the application;

(b) Issuance of certificates under any lawfully transacted group life or group disability policy, where the master policy is entered into in a state in which the insurer is authorized to do business;

(c) Contracts made pursuant to a pension or retirement plan of an employer when such contracts are applied for in a state where the employer is personally present or doing business and the insurer is authorized to do business;

(d) The renewal, reinstatement, conversion, or continuance in force with or without modification of contracts otherwise lawfully entered into and which were not originally entered into in violation of this section.

(2) The term "reciprocal state" as used in this section means a state, the laws of which prohibit an insurer organized under the laws of that state from insuring the lives or property of persons resident or located in Florida, unless such insurer is authorized pursuant to the laws of this state to do business in this state.

(3) The commissioner shall annually mail to every domestic insurer notice specifying the several reciprocal states.

History.—§649, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§625.38, 625.39, 625.40.

628.301 Membership in mutuals.—

(1) Each policyholder of a domestic mutual insurer, other than of a reinsurance contract, is a member of the insurer with all rights and obligations of such membership, and the policy shall so specify.

(2) Any person, public or private corporation, board, association, firm, estate, trustee or fiduciary may be a member of a domestic mutual insurer. Any officer, stockholder, trustee or legal representative of any such corporation, board, association or estate may be recognized as acting for or on its behalf for the purpose of such membership, and shall not be personally liable upon any contract of insurance for acting in such representative capacity. A mutual insurer may issue policies of insurance covering property of this state, or of any county or municipality of this state, without contingent liability, when such policy contains a provision that the state or any such county or municipality insured under it may not participate in the profits of such insurer.

History.—§650, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§632.09, 632.11, 632.13.

628.311 Contingent liability of mutual members.—

(1) Each member of a domestic mutual insurer shall, except as otherwise hereinafter provided with respect to nonassessable policies, have a contingent liability, pro rata and not one for another, for the discharge of its obligations, which contingent liability shall be expressed in the policy and be in such maximum amount as is specified in the insurer's certificate of incorporation.

(2) Termination of the policy of any such member shall not relieve the member of contingent liability for his proportion, if any, of the obligations of the insurer which accrued while the policy was in force.

(3) Unrealized contingent liability of members does not constitute an asset of the insurer in any determination of its financial condition.

History.—§651, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§632.12, 632.16.

628.321 Levy of contingent liability.—

(1) If at any time the assets of a domestic mutual insurer are less than its liabilities and the minimum amount of surplus required to be maintained by it under this code for authority to transact the kinds of insurance being transacted, and the deficiency is not cured from other sources, its directors shall levy an assessment only upon its members who held policies providing for contingent liability at any time within the twelve months preceding the date notice of such assessment was mailed to them, and such members shall be liable to the insurer for the amount so assessed.

(2) The assessment shall be for such an amount as is required to cure such deficiency and to provide a reasonable amount of working funds above such minimum amount of surplus, but such working funds so provided shall not exceed five per cent of the insurer's liabilities as of the date as of which the amount of such deficiency was determined.

(3) In levying an assessment on policies providing for contingent liability, the assessment shall be computed on a basis of premium earned on such policy.

(4) No member shall have an offset against any assessment for which he is liable, on account of any claim for unearned premium or loss payable.

(5) As to life insurance, any part of such an assessment upon a member which remains unpaid following notice of assessment, demand for payment, and lapse of a reasonable waiting period as specified in such notice, may, if approved by the commissioner as being in the best interests of the insurer and its members, be secured by placing a lien upon the cash surrender values and accumulated dividends held by the insurer to the credit of such member.

History.—§652, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §632.16.

628.331 Enforcement of contingent liability.—

(1) Any assessment made by an insurer under §628.321 is prima facie correct. The amount of such assessment to be paid by each member as determined by the insurer is likewise prima facie correct.

(2) The insurer shall notify each member of the amount of the assessment to be paid by written notice mailed to the address of the member last of record with the insurer. Failure of the member to receive the notice so mailed, within the time specified therein for the payment of the assessment or at all, shall be no defense in any action to collect the assessment.

(3) If a member fails to pay the assessment within the period specified in the notice, which period shall not be less than twenty days after mailing, the insurer may institute suit to collect the same.

History.—§653, ch. 59-205.

628.341 Nonassessable policies; mutual insurers.—

(1) While possessing surplus funds in amount not less than the paid-in capital stock required of a domestic stock insurer transacting like kinds of insurance, a domestic mutual insurer may, upon receipt of the commissioner's order so authorizing, extinguish the contingent liability of its members as to all its policies in force and may omit provisions imposing contingent liability in all its policies currently issued so long as such surplus funds meet such requirement as to amount.

(2) A foreign or alien mutual insurer may issue nonassessable policies to its members in this state pursuant to its articles of incorporation and the laws of its domicile.

History.—§654, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§632.12, 632.13.

628.351 Same; revocation of authority.—The commissioner shall revoke the authority of a domestic mutual insurer to issue policies without contingent liability if at any time the insurer's assets are less than the sum of its liabilities and the surplus required for such authority, or if the insurer, by resolution of its board of directors approved by a majority of its members, requests that the authority be revoked. During the absence of such authority the insurer shall not issue any policy without providing therein for the contingent liability of the policyholder, nor renew any policy which is renewable at the option of the insurer without endorsing the same to provide for such contingent liability. Such renewal or endorsement shall bear conspicuously on its face the provision for contingent liability of the policyholder.

History.—§655, ch. 59-205.

628.361 Participating policies.—

(1) If provided in its certificate of incorporation, a domestic stock or domestic mutual insurer may issue any or all of its policies with or without participation in profits, savings or unabsorbed portions of premiums, may classify policies issued on a participating and nonparticipating basis, and may determine the right to participate and the extent of participation of any class or classes of policies. Any such classification or determination shall be reasonable, and shall not unfairly discriminate as between policyholders within the same such classifications. A life insurer may issue both participating and nonparticipating policies only if the right or absence of right to participate is reasonably related to the premium charged.

(2) No dividend, otherwise earned, shall be made contingent upon the payment of renewal premium on any policy.

History.—§656, ch. 59-205.

628.371 Dividends to stockholders.—

(1) A domestic stock insurer shall not pay any cash dividend to stockholders except out of that part of its available and accumulated surplus funds which is derived from realized net operating profits on its business and realized capital gains.

(2) A stock dividend may be paid out of any available surplus funds in excess of the aggregate amount of surplus advanced to the insurer under §628.401.

(3) A dividend otherwise lawful may be payable out of the insurer's earned surplus even though its total surplus is then less than the aggregate of its past contributed surplus resulting from issuance of its capital stock at a price in excess of the par value thereof.

History.—§657, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.14.

628.381 Dividends to mutual policyholders.—

(1) The directors of a domestic mutual insurer may from time to time apportion and pay or credit to its members dividends only out of that part of its surplus funds which represents net realized savings and net realized earnings in excess of the surplus required by law to be maintained.

(2) A dividend otherwise proper may be payable out of such savings and earnings even though the insurer's total surplus is then less than the aggregate of its contributed surplus.

History.—§658, ch. 59-205.

628.391 Illegal dividends; penalty.—

(1) Any director of a domestic stock or mutual insurer who knowingly votes for or concurs in declaration or payment of a dividend to stockholders or members other than as authorized under §628.371 or §628.381 shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be jointly and severally liable, together with other such directors likewise voting for or concurring, for any loss thereby sustained by creditors of the insurer to the extent of such dividend.

(2) Any stockholder receiving such an illegal dividend shall be liable in the amount thereof to the insurer.

(3) The commissioner may revoke or suspend the certificate of authority of an insurer which has declared or paid such an illegal dividend.

History.—§659, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.14.

628.401 Borrowed surplus.—

(1) A domestic stock or mutual insurer may borrow money to defray the expenses of its organization, provide it with surplus funds, or for any purpose of its business, upon a written agreement that such money is required to be repaid only out of the insurer's surplus in excess of that stipulated in such agreement. The agreement may provide for interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, which interest shall or shall not constitute a liability of the insurer as to its funds other than such excess of surplus, as stipulated in the agreement. No commission or promotion expense shall be paid in connection with any such loan.

(2) Money so borrowed, together with the interest thereon if so stipulated in the agreement, shall not form a part of the insurer's legal liabilities except as to its surplus in excess of the amount thereof stipulated in the agreement, or be the basis of any set-off; but until repaid, financial statements filed or published by the insurer shall show as a footnote thereto the amount thereof then unpaid together with any interest thereon accrued but unpaid.

(3) Any such loan to a mutual insurer shall be subject to the commissioner's approval. The insurer shall, in advance of the loan, file with the commissioner a statement of the purpose of the loan and a copy of the proposed loan agreement. The loan and agreement shall be deemed approved unless within fifteen days after date of such filing the insurer is notified of the commissioner's disapproval and the reasons therefor. The commissioner shall disapprove any proposed loan or agreement if he finds the loan is unnecessary or excessive for the purpose intended, or that the terms of the loan agreement are not fair and equitable to the parties, and to other similar lenders, if any, to the insurer, or that the information so filed by the insurer is inadequate.

(4) Any such loan to a mutual insurer or substantial portion thereof shall be repaid by the insurer when no longer reasonably necessary for the purpose originally intended. No repayment of such a loan shall be made by a mutual insurer unless in advance approved by the commissioner.

(5) This section shall not apply to loans obtained by the insurer in ordinary course of business from banks and other financial institutions, nor to loans secured by pledge or mortgage of assets.

History.—§660, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §632.17.

628.411 Impairment of capital or assets.—

(1) If a domestic stock insurer's capital (as represented by the aggregate par value of its outstanding capital stock) becomes impaired, or the assets of a mutual insurer are less than its liabilities and the minimum amount of surplus required to be maintained by it under this code for authority to transact the kinds of insurance being transacted, the commissioner shall at once determine the amount of deficiency and serve notice upon the insurer to make good the deficiency within ninety days after service of such notice.

(2) The deficiency may be made good in cash or in assets eligible under part II of chapter 625 (investments) for the investment of the insurer's funds; or by amendment of the insurer's certificate of authority to cover only such kind or kinds of insurance thereafter for which the insurer has sufficient paid-in capital (if a stock insurer) or surplus (if a mutual insurer) under this code; or, if a stock insurer, by reduction of the insurer's authorized capital stock through amendment of its certificate of incorporation, to an amount of paid-in capital stock not below the minimum required for the kinds of insurance thereafter to be transacted.

(3) After any such reduction of authorized capital stock the insurer shall have the right to require the return of the original certificate of stock held by each stockholder in exchange for new certificates to be issued in lieu thereof for such number of shares as the stockholder is entitled to in the proportion that the reduced capital bears to the original capital.

(4) If the deficiency is not made good and proof thereof filed with the commissioner within such ninety-day period, the insurer shall be deemed insolvent and the commissioner shall institute delinquency proceedings against it under chapter 631 of this code; except that if such deficiency exists because of increased loss reserves required by the commissioner, or because of disallowance by the commissioner of certain assets or reduction of the value at which carried in the insurer's accounts, the commissioner may, in his discretion and upon application and good cause shown, and if he finds that establishment or maintenance of such inadequate reserves or over-valued assets were not wilful on the part of the insurer, extend for not more than an additional sixty days the period within which such deficiency may be so made good and such proof thereof so filed.

History.—§661, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.03, 625.04, 626.12, 632.16.

628.421 Assessment of stockholders or members.—

(1) Any insurer receiving the commissioner's notice mentioned in §628.411(1):

(a) If a stock insurer, by resolution of its board of directors and subject to any limitations upon assessment contained in its certificate of incorporation, may assess its stockholders for amounts necessary to cure the deficiency and provide the insurer with a reasonable amount of surplus in addition. If any stockholder fails to pay a lawful assessment after notice given to him in person or by advertisement in such time and manner as approved by the commissioner, the insurer may require the return of the original certificate of stock held by the stockholder, and in cancellation and in lieu thereof issue a new certificate for such number of shares as the stockholder may then be entitled to, upon the basis of the stockholder's proportionate interest in the amount of the insurer's capital stock as determined by the commissioner to be remaining at the time of determination of amount of impairment under §628.411, after deducting from such proportionate interest the amount of such unpaid assessment. The insurer may pay for or issue fractional shares under this subsection.

(b) If a mutual insurer, shall levy such an assessment upon members as is provided for under §628.321.

(2) Neither this section nor §628.411 shall be deemed to prohibit the insurer from curing any such deficiency through any lawful means other than those referred to in such sections.

History.—§662, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§625.03, 625.04.

628.431 Mutualization of stock insurers.—

(1) A stock insurer other than a title insurer may become a mutual insurer under such plan and procedure as may be approved by the commissioner after a hearing thereon.

(2) The commissioner shall not approve any such plan, procedure or mutualization unless:

(a) It is equitable to stockholders and policyholders;

(b) It is subject to approval by the holders of not less than three-fourths of the insurer's outstanding capital stock having voting rights and by not less than two-thirds of the insurer's policyholders who vote on such plan in person, by proxy or by mail pursuant to such notice and procedure as may be approved by the commissioner;

(c) If a life insurer, the right to vote thereon is limited to holders of policies other than term or group policies, and whose policies have been in force for more than one year;

(d) Mutualization will result in retirement of shares of the insurer's capital stock at a price not in excess of the fair market value thereof as determined by competent disinterested appraisers;

(e) The plan provides for the purchase of the shares of any nonconsenting stockholder in the same manner and subject to the same applicable conditions as provided by §608.23, as to rights of nonconsenting stockholders, with respect to consolidation or merger of private corporations;

(f) The plan provides for definite conditions to be fulfilled by a designated early date upon which such mutualization will be deemed effective; and

(g) The mutualization leaves the insurer with surplus funds reasonably adequate for the security of its policyholders and to enable it to continue successfully in business in the states in which it is then authorized to transact insurance, and for the kinds of insurance included in its certificates of authority in such states.

(3) This section shall not apply to mutualization under order of court pursuant to rehabilitation or reorganization of an insurer under chapter 631.

History.—§663, ch. 59-205.

628.441 Converting mutual insurer.—

(1) A mutual insurer may become a stock insurer under such plan and procedure as may be approved by the commissioner after a hearing thereon.

(2) The commissioner shall not approve any such plan or procedure unless:

(a) It is equitable to the insurer's members;

(b) It is subject to approval by vote of not less than three-fourths of the insurer's current members voting thereon in person, by proxy, or by mail at a meeting of members called for the purpose pursuant to such reasonable notice and procedure as may be approved by the commissioner; if a life insurer, right to vote may be limited to members who hold policies other than term or group policies, and whose policies have been in force for not less than one year;

(c) The corporate equity of each policyholder in the insurer (other than as to unearned premiums, nonforfeiture rights, and benefit claims under his policy) is determinable under a fair formula approved by the commissioner, which such equity shall be based upon not less than the insurer's entire surplus (after deducting contributed or borrowed surplus funds) plus a reasonable present equity in its reserves and in all nonadmitted assets;

(d) The policyholders entitled to participate in the purchase of stock or distribution of assets shall include all current policyholders and all existing persons who had been a policyholder of the insurer within three years prior to the date such plan was submitted to the commissioner;

(e) The plan gives to each policyholder of the insurer as specified in paragraph (d) a preemptive right to acquire his proportionate part of all of the proposed capital stock of the insurer, within a designated reasonable period, and to apply upon the purchase thereof the amount of his equity in the insurer as determined under paragraph (c);

(g) Shares are so offered to policyholders at a price not greater than to be thereafter offered to others;

(h) The plan provides for payment to each policyholder not electing to apply his equity in the insurer for or upon the purchase price of stock to which preemptively entitled, of cash in the amount of not less than fifty per cent of the amount of his equity not so used for the purchase of stock, and which cash payment together with stock so purchased, if any, shall constitute full payment and discharge of the policyholder's corporate equity in such mutual insurer; and

(i) The plan, when completed, would provide for the converted insurer paid-in capital stock in an amount not less than the minimum paid-in capital required of a domestic stock insurer transacting like kinds of insurance, together with surplus funds in amounts not less than one-half of such required capital.

History.—§664, ch. 59-205.

628.451 Mergers and consolidations of stock insurers.—

(1) A domestic stock insurer may merge or consolidate with one or more domestic or foreign stock insurers authorized to transact insurance in this state, by complying with the applicable provisions of the statutes of this state governing the merger or consolidation of stock corporations formed for profit, but subject to the special provisions of this section:

(a) Mergers or consolidations may be initially proposed at any meeting of the board of directors of a domestic stock insurer by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the total number of directors of the corporation, or at any meeting of the stockholders of the corporation by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of shares of stock outstanding and entitled to vote, provided the notice of such meeting shall set forth such proposal.

(b) The plan of merger or consolidation, proposed as required by paragraph (a) of this subsection, shall be submitted to a duly called meeting of the stockholders of record of each domestic stock insurer, and may become effective only if adopted at such meeting by the affirmative vote of seventy-five per cent of the total number of shares of stock outstanding and entitled to vote. The notice of such meeting shall set forth in full the proposed plan of merger or consolidation.

(2) No such merger or consolidation shall be effectuated unless in advance thereof the plan and agreement therefor have been filed with the commissioner and approved in writing by him after a hearing thereon. The commissioner shall give such approval within a reasonable time after such filing unless he finds such plan or agreement:

(a) Is contrary to law; or

(b) Inequitable to the stockholders of any insurer involved; or

(c) Would substantially reduce the security of and service to be rendered to policyholders of the domestic insurer in this state or elsewhere.

(3) No director, officer, agent or employee of any insurer party to such merger or consolidation shall receive any fee, commission, compensation or other valuable consideration whatsoever for in any manner aiding, promoting or assisting therein except as set forth in such plan or agreement.

(4) If the commissioner does not approve any such plan or agreement he shall so notify the insurer in writing specifying in detail his reasons therefor.

(5) Any plan or proposal through which a stock insurer proposes to acquire a controlling stock interest in another stock insurer through an exchange of stock of the first insurer, issued by the insurer for the purpose, for such controlling stock of the second insurer is deemed to be a plan or proposal of merger of the second insurer into the first insurer for the purposes of this section and is subject to the applicable provisions hereof.

History.—§665, ch. 59-205; (1) a. by §1, ch. 61-5.

628.461 Acquisition of controlling stock.—

(1) In event any person or persons propose to purchase or acquire the controlling capital stock of any domestic stock insurer and thereby to change the control of such insurer, other than as provided for in §628.451(5), such person or persons shall first make application to the commissioner for approval of such proposed change of control. The application shall contain the name and address of the proposed new owner or owners of the controlling stock, and the commissioner shall approve the proposed change of control only after he has become satisfied that the proposed new owner or owners of the controlling stock are qualified by character, experience and financial responsibility to control and operate the insurer in a lawful and proper manner; and that the interest of the insurers, stockholders and policyholders and the interest of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership and management. If the commissioner does not by affirmative action approve or disapprove the proposed change within thirty days after the date such application was so filed with him, the proposed change shall be deemed to be approved at the expiration of such thirty day period.

(2) No such change in the control of a domestic stock insurer shall be effectuated unless approved as provided in subsection (1).

(3) In event he disapproves the proposed change in control the commissioner shall give written notice thereof to the person or persons so applying for approval, setting forth in detail the reasons for disapproval.

History.—§666, ch. 59-205.

628.471 Mergers and consolidations, mutual insurers.—

(1) A domestic mutual insurer shall not merge or consolidate with a stock insurer.

(2) A domestic mutual insurer may merge or consolidate with another mutual insurer under the applicable procedures prescribed by the statutes of this state applying to corporations formed for profit, except as hereinbelow provided.

(3) The plan and agreement for merger or consolidation shall be submitted to and approved by at least two-thirds of the members of each mutual insurer voting thereon at meetings called for the purpose pursuant to such reasonable notice and procedure as has been approved by the commissioner. If a life insurer, right to vote may be limited to members whose policies are other than term and group policies, and have been in effect for more than one year.

(4) No such merger or consolidation shall be effectuated unless in advance thereof the plan and agreement therefor have been filed with the commissioner and approved by him in writing after a hearing thereon. The commissioner shall give such approval within a reasonable time after such filing unless he finds such plan or agreement:

(a) Inequitable to the policyholders of any domestic insurer involved; or

(b) Would substantially reduce the security of and service to be rendered to policyholders of the domestic insurer in this state and elsewhere.

(5) If the commissioner does not approve such plan or agreement he shall so notify the insurers in writing specifying in detail his reasons therefor.

History.—§667, ch. 59-205.

628.481 Bulk reinsurance; stock insurers.—

(1) A domestic stock insurer may reinsure all or substantially all of its insurance in force or a major class thereof, with another insurer by an agreement of bulk reinsurance; but no such agreement shall become effective unless filed with the commissioner and approved by him in writing.

(2) The commissioner shall approve such agreement within a reasonable time after such filing unless he finds that it is inequitable to the stockholders of the domestic insurer or would substantially reduce the protection or service to its policyholders. If the commissioner does not approve the agreement he shall so notify the insurer in writing specifying in detail his reasons therefor.

History.—§668, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.10.

628.491 Same; mutual insurers.—

(1) A domestic mutual insurer may reinsure all or substantially all its business in force, or all or substantially all of a major class thereof, with another insurer, stock or mutual, by an agreement of bulk reinsurance after compliance with this section. No such agreement shall become effective unless filed with the commissioner and approved by him in writing.

(2) The commissioner shall approve such agreement within a reasonable time after filing if he finds it to be fair and equitable to each domestic insurer involved, and that such reinsurance if effectuated would not substantially reduce the protection or service to its policyholders. If the commissioner does not so approve, he shall so notify each insurer involved in writing specifying in detail his reasons therefor.

(3) The plan and agreement for such reinsurance must be approved by vote of not less than two-thirds of each domestic mutual insurer's members voting thereon at meetings of members called for the purpose, pursuant to such reasonable notice and procedure as the commissioner may approve. If a life insurer, right to vote may be limited to members whose policies are other than term or group policies, and have been in effect for more than one year.

(4) If for reinsurance of a mutual insurer in a stock insurer, the agreement must provide for payment in cash to each member of the insurer entitled thereto as upon conversion of such insurer pursuant to §628.441, of his equity in the business reinsured as determined under a fair formula approved by the commissioner, which equity shall be based upon such member's equity in the reserves, assets (whether or not admitted assets) and surplus, if any, of the mutual insurer to be taken over by the stock insurer.

History.—§669, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.10.

628.501 Mutual member's share of assets on liquidation.—

(1) Upon any liquidation of a domestic mutual insurer, its assets remaining after discharge of its indebtedness, policy obligations, repayment of contributed or borrowed surplus, if any, and expenses of administration, shall be distributed to existing persons who were its members at any time within five years next preceding the date such liquidation was authorized or ordered, or date of last termination of the insurer's certificate of authority whichever date is the earlier; except, that if the commissioner has reason to believe that those in charge of the management of the insurer have caused or encouraged the reduction of the number of members of the insurer in anticipation of liquidation and for the purpose of reducing thereby the number of persons who may be entitled to share in distribution of the insurer's assets, he may enlarge the five years qualification period above provided for by such additional period as he may deem to be reasonable.

(2) The distributive share of each such member shall be in the proportion that the aggregate premiums earned by the insurer on the policies of the member during the combined periods of his membership bear to the aggregate of all premiums so earned on the policies of all such members. The insurer may, and if a life insurer shall, make a reasonable classification of its policies so held by such members, and a formula based upon such classification, for determining the equitable distributive share of each such member. Such classification and formula shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner.

History.—§670, ch. 59-205.

CHAPTER 629

INSURANCE CODE; RECIPROCAL INSURERS

- 629.011 Reciprocal insurance defined.
 629.021 Reciprocal insurer defined; authorized.
 629.031 Scope of chapter; existing insurers.
 629.041 Insuring powers of reciprocals.
 629.051 Name; suits.
 629.061 Attorney.
 629.071 Surplus funds required.
 629.081 Organization of reciprocal insurer.
 629.091 Certificate of authority.
 629.101 Power of attorney.
 629.111 Modifications.
 629.121 Attorney's bond.
 629.131 Deposit in lieu of bond.
 629.141 Action on bond.
 629.151 Service of process; judgment.
 629.161 Contributions to insurer.
 629.171 Annual statement.
 629.181 Financial condition; method of determining.
 629.191 Who may be subscribers.
 629.201 Subscribers' advisory committee.
 629.211 Subscribers' liability.
 629.221 Same; on judgment
 629.231 Assessments.
 629.241 Time limit for assessments.
 629.251 Aggregate liability.
 629.261 Nonassessable policies.
 629.271 Distribution of savings.
 629.281 Subscribers' share in assets.
 629.291 Merger or conversion.
 629.301 Impaired reciprocals.

629.011 Reciprocal insurance defined.—"Reciprocal" insurance is that resulting from an interexchange among persons, known as "subscribers," of reciprocal agreements of indemnity, the interexchange being effectuated through an "attorney in fact" common to all such persons.

History.—§671, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§628.01, 628.02.

629.021 Reciprocal insurer defined; authorized.—

(1) A "reciprocal insurer" means an unincorporated aggregation of subscribers operating individually and collectively through an attorney in fact to provide reciprocal insurance among themselves.

(2) A reciprocal insurer may be authorized to transact insurance in this state subject to the applicable provisions of this code.

History.—§672, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§628.01, 628.02.

629.031 Scope of chapter; existing insurers.—

(1) All authorized reciprocal insurers shall be governed by those sections of this chapter not expressly made applicable to domestic reciprocals.

(2) Existing authorized reciprocal insurers shall after the effective date of this code comply with the provisions of this chapter, and shall make such amendments to their subscribers' agreement, power of attorney, policies and other documents and accounts and perform such other acts as may be required for such compliance.

History.—§673, ch. 59-205.

629.041 Insuring powers of reciprocals.—

(1) A reciprocal insurer may, upon qualifying therefor as provided for by this code, transact any kind or kinds of insurance defined by this code, other than life or title insurances.

(2) Such an insurer may purchase reinsurance upon the risk of any subscriber, and may grant reinsurance as to any kind of insurance it is authorized to transact direct.

History.—§674, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.01.

629.051 Name; suits.—A reciprocal insurer shall:

(1) Have and use a business name. The name shall include the word "reciprocal," or "interinsurer," or "interinsurance," or "exchange," or "underwriters," or "underwriting"; but this requirement shall not apply as to any insurer holding a certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state immediately prior to the effective date of this code.

(2) Sue and be sued in its own name.

History.—§675, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.04.

629.061 Attorney.—

(1) "Attorney," as used in this chapter, refers to the attorney in fact of a reciprocal insurer. The attorney may be an individual, firm or corporation.

(2) The attorney of a foreign or alien reciprocal insurer, which insurer is duly authorized to transact insurance in this state, shall not, by virtue of discharge of its duties as such attorney with respect to the insurer's transactions in this state, be thereby deemed to be doing business in this state within the meaning of any laws of this state applying to foreign firms or corporations.

(3) The office of the attorney shall be maintained at such place as is designated by the subscribers in the power of attorney.

History.—§676, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.02.

629.071 Surplus funds required.—

(1) A domestic reciprocal insurer hereunder formed, if it has otherwise complied with the applicable provisions of this code, may be authorized to transact insurance if it has and thereafter maintains surplus funds as follows:

(a) To transact property insurance, surplus funds of not less than two hundred thousand dollars;

(b) To transact casualty insurance, (other than workmen's compensation) surplus funds of not less than two hundred thousand dollars.

(2) In addition to surplus required to be maintained under subsection (1), the insurer shall have, when first so authorized, expendable surplus in amount as required of a like foreign reciprocal insurer under §624.0207.

(3) A domestic reciprocal insurer may be authorized to transact additional kinds of insurance if it has otherwise complied with the provisions of this code therefor and possesses and so maintains surplus funds in amount equal to the minimum paid-in capital stock required of a stock insurer for authority to transact a like combination of kinds of insurance, subject to any special surplus requirements applicable under §624.0207.

History.—§677, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§628.03, 628.06.

629.081 Organization of reciprocal insurer.—

(1) Twenty-five or more persons domiciled in this state may organize a domestic reciprocal insurer and make application to the commissioner for a certificate of authority to transact insurance.

(2) The proposed attorney shall fulfill the requirements of and shall execute and file with the commissioner when applying for a certificate of authority, a declaration setting forth:

- (a) The name of the insurer;
- (b) The location of the insurer's principal office, which shall be the same as that of the attorney and shall be maintained within this state;
- (c) The kinds of insurance proposed to be transacted;
- (d) The names and addresses of the original subscribers;
- (e) The designation and appointment of the proposed attorney and a copy of the power of attorney;
- (f) The names and addresses of the officers and directors of the attorney, if a corporation, or its members, if a firm;
- (g) The powers of the subscribers' advisory committee; and the names and terms of office of the members thereof;
- (h) That all moneys paid to the reciprocal shall, after deducting therefrom any sum payable to the attorney, be held in the name of the insurer and for the purposes specified in the subscribers' agreement;
- (i) A copy of the subscribers' agreement;
- (j) A statement that each of the original subscribers has in good faith applied for insurance of a kind proposed to be transacted, and that the insurer has received from each such subscriber the full premium or premium deposit required for the policy applied for, for a term of not less than six months at an adequate rate theretofore filed with and approved by the commissioner;
- (k) A statement of the financial condition of the insurer, a schedule of its assets, and a statement that the surplus as required by §629.071 of this code is on hand; and
- (l) A copy of each policy, endorsement and application form it then proposes to issue or use.

Such declaration shall be acknowledged by the attorney before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments.

History.—§678, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.03.

629.091 Certificate of authority.—

(1) The certificate of authority of a reciprocal insurer shall be issued to its attorney in the name of the insurer.

(2) The commissioner may refuse, suspend or revoke the certificate of authority in addition to other grounds therefor, for failure of the attorney to comply with any provision of this code.

History.—§679, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§628.10, 628.11.

629.101 Power of attorney.—

(1) The rights and powers of the attorney of a reciprocal insurer shall be as provided in the power of attorney given it by the subscribers.

- (2) The power of attorney must set forth:
 - (a) The powers of the attorney;
 - (b) That the attorney is empowered to accept service of process on behalf of the insurer in actions against the insurer upon contracts exchanged;
 - (c) The general services to be performed by the attorney;
 - (d) The maximum amount to be deducted from advance premiums or deposits to be paid to the attorney and the general items of expense in addition to losses, to be paid by the insurer; and
 - (e) Except as to nonassessable policies, a provision for a contingent several liability of each subscriber in a specified amount which amount shall be not less than one nor more than ten times the premium or premium deposit stated in the policy.
- (3) The power of attorney may:
 - (a) Provide for the right of substitution of the attorney and revocation of the power of attorney and rights thereunder;
 - (b) Impose such restrictions upon the exercise of the power as are agreed upon by the subscribers;
 - (c) Provide for the exercise of any right reserved to the subscribers directly or through their advisory committee; and
 - (d) Contain other lawful provisions deemed advisable.
- (4) The terms of any power of attorney or agreement collateral thereto shall be reasonable and equitable, and no such power or agreement shall be used or be effective in this state unless filed with the commissioner.

History.—§680, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.02.

629.111 Modifications.—Modifications of the terms of the subscribers' agreement or of the power of attorney of a domestic reciprocal insurer shall be made jointly by the attorney and the subscribers' advisory committee. No such modification shall be effective retroactively, nor as to any insurance contract issued prior thereto.

History.—§681, ch. 59-205.

629.121 Attorney's bond.—

(1) Concurrently with the filing of the declaration provided for in §629.081, the attorney of a domestic reciprocal insurer shall file with the commissioner a bond in favor of this state for the benefit of all persons damaged as a result of breach by the attorney of the conditions of his bond as set forth in subsection (2). The bond shall be executed by the attorney and by an authorized corporate surety, and shall be subject to the commissioner's approval.

(2) The bond shall be in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, aggregate in form, conditioned that the attorney will faithfully account for all moneys and other property of the insurer coming into his hands, and that he will not withdraw or appropriate to his own use from the funds of the insurer, any moneys or property to which he is not entitled under the power of attorney.

(3) The bond shall provide that it is not subject to cancellation unless thirty days' advance notice in writing of cancellation is given both the attorney and the commissioner.

History.—§682, ch. 59-205.

629.131 Deposit in lieu of bond.—In lieu of the bond required under §629.121, the attorney may maintain on deposit through the office of the commissioner, a like amount in cash or in value of securities qualified for deposit under §625.0202, and subject to the same conditions as the bond.

History.—§683, ch. 59-205.

629.141 Action on bond.—Action on the attorney's bond or to recover against any such deposit made in lieu thereof may be brought at any time by one or more subscribers suffering loss through a violation of its conditions, or by a receiver or liquidator of the insurer. Amounts recovered on the bond shall be deposited in and become part of the insurer's funds. The total aggregate liability of the surety shall be limited to the amount of the penalty of such bond.

History.—§684, ch. 59-205.

629.151 Service of process; judgment.—

(1) Legal process shall be served upon a domestic reciprocal insurer by serving the commissioner as the insurer's process agent under §§624.0221 and 624.0222.

(2) Any judgment based upon legal process so served shall be binding upon each of the insurer's subscribers as their respective interests may appear, but in an amount not exceeding their respective contingent liabilities, if any, the same as though personal service of process was had upon each such subscriber.

History.—§685, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.04.

629.161 Contributions to insurer.—The attorney or other parties may advance to a domestic reciprocal insurer upon reasonable terms such funds as it may require from time to time in its operations. Sums so advanced shall not be treated as a liability of the insurer, and, except upon liquidation of the insurer, shall not be withdrawn or repaid except out of the insurer's realized earned surplus in excess of its minimum required surplus. No such withdrawal or repayment shall be made without the advance approval of the commissioner. This section does not apply as to bank loans or to loans made upon security.

History.—§686, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.06.

629.171 Annual statement.—

(1) The annual statement of a reciprocal insurer shall be made and filed by its attorney.

(2) The statement shall be supplemented by such information as may be required by the commissioner relative to the affairs and transactions of the attorney insofar as they relate to the reciprocal insurer.

History.—§687, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.07.

629.181 Financial condition; method of determining.—In determining the financial condition of a reciprocal insurer the commissioner shall apply the following rules:

(1) He shall charge as liabilities the same reserves as are required of incorporated insurers issuing nonassessable policies on a reserve basis;

(2) The surplus deposits of subscribers shall be allowed as assets, except that any premium deposits delinquent for ninety days shall first be charged against such surplus deposit;

(3) The surplus deposits of subscribers shall not be charged as a liability;

(4) All premium deposits delinquent less than ninety days shall be allowed as assets;

(5) An assessment levied upon subscribers, and not collected, shall not be allowed as an asset;

(6) The contingent liability of subscribers shall not be allowed as an asset;

(7) The computation of reserves shall be based upon premium deposits other than membership fees and without any deduction for expenses and the compensation of the attorney.

History.—§688, ch. 59-205.

629.191 Who may be subscribers.—Individuals, partnerships, and corporations of this state may make application, enter into agreement for and hold policies or contracts in or with and be a subscriber of any domestic, foreign, or alien reciprocal insurer. Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this state shall, in addition to the rights, powers, and franchises specified in its articles of incorporation, have full power and authority as a subscriber to exchange insurance contracts through such reciprocal insurer. The right to exchange such contracts is hereby declared to be incidental to the purposes for which such corporations are organized and to be as fully granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred upon such corporations. Any officer, representative, trustee, receiver, or legal representative of any such subscriber shall be recognized as acting for or on its behalf for the purpose of such contract but shall not be personally liable upon such contract by reason of acting in such representative capacity.

History.—§689, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.09.

629.201 Subscribers' advisory committee.—

(1) The advisory committee of a domestic reciprocal insurer exercising the subscribers' rights shall be selected under such rules as the subscribers adopt.

(2) Not less than two-thirds of such committee shall be subscribers other than the attorney, or any person employed by, representing, or having a financial interest in the attorney.

(3) The committee shall:

(a) Supervise the finances of the insurer;

(b) Supervise the insurer's operations to such extent as to assure conformity with the subscribers' agreement and power of attorney;

(c) Procure the audit of the accounts and records of the insurer and of the attorney at the expense of the insurer; and

(d) Have such additional powers and functions as may be conferred by the subscribers' agreement.

History.—§690, ch. 59-205.

629.211 Subscribers' liability.—

(1) The liability of each subscriber, other than as to a nonassessable policy, for the obligations of the reciprocal insurer shall be an individual, several and proportionate liability, and not joint.

(2) Except as to a nonassessable policy, each subscriber shall have a contingent assessment liability, in the amount provided for in the power of attorney or in the subscribers' agreement, for payment of actual losses and expenses incurred while his policy was in force. Such contingent liability may be at the rate of not less than one nor more than ten times the premium or premium deposit stated in the policy, and the maximum aggregate thereof shall be computed in the manner set forth in §629.251.

(3) Each assessable policy issued by the insurer shall contain a statement of the contingent liability.

History.—§691, ch. 59-205.

629.221 Same; on judgment.—

(1) No action shall lie against any subscriber upon any obligation claimed against the insurer until a final judgment has been obtained against the insurer and remains unsatisfied for thirty days.

(2) Any such judgment shall be binding upon each subscriber only in such proportion as his interests may appear and in amount not exceeding his contingent liability, if any.

History.—§692, ch. 59-205.

629.231 Assessments.—

(1) Assessments may from time to time be levied upon subscribers of a domestic recipcal insurer liable therefor under the terms of their policies by the attorney upon approval in advance by the subscribers' advisory committee and the commissioner; or by the commissioner in liquidation of the insurer.

(2) Each subscriber's share of a deficiency for which an assessment is made, but not exceeding in any event his aggregate contingent liability as computed in accordance with §629.251, shall be computed by applying to the premium earned on the subscriber's policy or policies during the period to be covered by the assessment, the ratio of the total deficiency to the total premiums earned during such period upon all policies subject to the assessment.

(3) In computing the earned premiums for the purposes of this section, the gross premium received by the insurer for the policy shall be used as a base, deducting therefrom solely charges not recurring upon the renewal or extension of the policy.

(4) No subscriber shall have an offset against any assessment for which he is liable, on account of any claim for unearned premium or losses payable.

History.—§693, ch. 59-205.

629.241 Time limit for assessments.—Every subscriber of a domestic reciprocal insurer having contingent liability shall be liable for, and shall pay his share of any assessment, as computed and limited in accordance with this chapter, if:

(1) While his policy is in force or within one year after its termination, he is notified by either the attorney or the commissioner of his intentions to levy such assessment, or

(2) If an order to show cause why a receiver, conservator, rehabilitator or liquidator of the insurer should not be appointed is issued while his policy is in force or within one year after its termination.

History.—§694, ch. 59-205.

629.251 Aggregate liability.—No one policy or subscriber as to such policy, shall be assessed or charged with an aggregate of contingent liability as to obligations incurred by a domestic reciprocal insurer in any one calendar year, in excess of the amount provided for in the power of attorney or in the subscribers' agreement, computed solely upon premium earned on such policy during that year.

History.—§695, ch. 59-205.

629.261 Nonassessable policies.—

(1) If a reciprocal insurer has a surplus of assets over all liabilities at least equal to the minimum paid-in capital stock required of a domestic stock insurer authorized to transact like kinds of insurance, upon application of the attorney and as approved by the subscribers' advisory committee the commissioner shall issue his certificate authorizing the insurer to extinguish the contingent liability of subscribers under its policies then in force in this state, and to omit provisions imposing contingent liability in all policies delivered or issued for delivery in this state for so long as all such surplus remains unimpaired.

(2) Upon impairment of such surplus, the commissioner shall forthwith revoke the certificate. Such revocation shall not render subject to contingent liability any policy then in force and for the remainder of the period for which the premium has theretofore been paid; but after such revocation no policy shall be issued or renewed without providing for contingent assessment liability of the subscriber.

(3) The commissioner shall not authorize a domestic reciprocal insurer so to extinguish the contingent liability of any of its subscribers or in any of its policies to be issued, unless it qualifies to and does extinguish such liability of all its subscribers and in all such policies for all kinds of insurance transacted by it. Except, that if required by the laws of another state in which the insurer is transacting insurance as an authorized insurer, the insurer may issue policies providing for the contingent liability of such of its subscribers as may acquire such policies in such state, and need not extinguish the contingent liability applicable to policies theretofore in force in such state.

History.—§696, ch. 59-205.

629.271 Distribution of savings.—A reciprocal insurer may from time to time return to its subscribers any unused premiums, savings or credits accruing to their accounts. Any such distribution shall not unfairly discriminate between classes of risks, or policies, or between subscribers, but such distribution may vary as to classes of subscribers based upon the experience of such classes.

History.—§697, ch. 59-205.

629.281 Subscribers' share in assets.—Upon the liquidation of a domestic reciprocal insurer, its assets remaining after discharge of its indebtedness and policy obligations, the return of any contributions of the attorney or other persons to its surplus made as provided in §629.161, and the return of any unused premium, savings, or credits then standing on subscribers' accounts, shall be distributed to its subscribers who were such within the twelve months prior to the last termination of its certificate of authority, according to such reasonable formula as the commissioner may approve.

History.—§698, ch. 59-205.

629.291 Merger or conversion.—

(1) A domestic reciprocal insurer upon affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of its subscribers who vote on such merger pursuant to due notice and the approval of the commissioner of the terms therefor, may merge with another reciprocal insurer or be converted to a stock or mutual insurer.

(2) Such a stock or mutual insurer shall be subject to the same capital or surplus requirements and shall have the same rights as a like domestic insurer transacting like kinds of insurance.

(3) The commissioner shall not approve any plan for such merger or conversion which is inequitable to subscribers, or which, if for conversion to a stock insurer, does not give each subscriber preferential right to acquire stock of the proposed insurer proportionate to his interest in the reciprocal insurer as determined in accordance with §629.281, and a reasonable length of time within which to exercise such right.

(4) Reinsurance of all or substantially all of the insurance in force of a domestic reciprocal insurer in another insurer shall be deemed to be a merger for the purposes of this section.

History.—§699, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.12.

629.301 Impaired reciprocals.—

(1) If the assets of a domestic reciprocal insurer are at any time insufficient to discharge its liabilities, other than any liability on account of funds contributed by the attorney or others, and to maintain the required surplus, its attorney shall forthwith make up the deficiency or levy an assessment upon the subscribers for the amount needed to make up the deficiency; but subject to the limitation set forth in the power of attorney or policy.

(2) If the attorney fails to make up such deficiency or to make the assessment within thirty days after the commissioner orders him to do so, or if the deficiency is not fully made up within sixty days after the date the assessment was made, the insurer shall be deemed insolvent and shall be proceeded against as authorized by this code.

(3) If liquidation of such an insurer is ordered, an assessment shall be levied upon the subscribers for such an amount, subject to limits as provided by this chapter, as the commissioner determines to be necessary to discharge all liabilities of the insurer, exclusive of any funds contributed by the attorney or other persons, but including the reasonable cost of the liquidation.

History.—§700, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §628.06.

CHAPTER 630

INSURANCE CODE; ALIEN INSURERS; TRUSTEED ASSETS, DOMESTICATION

- 630.011 Scope of chapter.
 630.021 Required deposit of assets.
 630.031 Existing trusts.
 630.041 Purpose and duration.
 630.051 Trust agreement; approval; amendment.
 630.061 Authority to execute trust agreement.
 630.071 Requirements and contents of trust agreement.
 630.081 Withdrawal of assets, in general.
 630.091 Statement of trustee.

630.011 Scope of chapter.—This chapter applies only to the trustee assets of an alien insurer using Florida as a state of entry for transaction of insurance in the United States, and to the domestication of alien insurers in accordance with the procedures herein provided.

History.—§701, ch. 59-205.

630.021 Required deposit of assets.—

(1) An alien insurer may use Florida as a state of entry to transact insurance in the United States by making and maintaining in this state a deposit of assets in trust with a solvent bank or trust company approved by the commissioner.

(2) The deposit, together with other trust deposits of the insurer held in the United States for the same purpose, shall be in amount not less than the deposits required of an alien insurer under §624.0211 and shall consist of cash and/or securities eligible for the investment of the funds of domestic insurers under part II of chapter 625.

(3) Such a deposit may be referred to as "trustee assets."

(4) All trustee assets shall be continuously kept within the United States.

History.—§702, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.031 Existing trusts.—All trusts of trustee assets heretofore created and now existing shall be continued under the instruments creating them, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. No amendment of the deed of trust under which such assets are so held shall be effective unless approved by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§703, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.041 Purpose and duration.—The deposit required by §630.021 shall be for the benefit, security and protection of the policyholders, or policyholders and creditors, of the insurer in the United States. It shall be maintained as long as there is outstanding any liability of the insurer arising out of its insurance transactions in the United States.

History.—§704, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.051 Trust agreement; approval; amendment.—

- 630.101 Examination of assets.
 630.111 Canadian insurers.
 630.121 Domestication of alien insurer; definitions.
 630.131 Domestication procedure.
 630.141 Domestication agreement; authorization, execution.
 630.151 Same; approval.
 630.161 Consummation of domestication; transfer of assets and deposits.

(1) The deposit referred to in §630.021 shall be made under a written trust agreement between the insurer and the trustee, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and the agreement and any amendments thereto shall be authenticated in such form and manner as the commissioner may designate or approve.

(2) The agreement shall not be effective until filed with and approved in writing by the commissioner. If the commissioner finds that the trust agreement is sufficient in form and in conformity with law, that the trustee or trustees are eligible as such, and that the trust agreement is adequate to protect the interests of the beneficiaries of the trust, he shall give his written approval thereof. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing of which reasonable notice was given to the insurer, that any of the abovementioned requisites do not exist, he shall refuse to approve the trust agreement and notify the insurer thereof in writing stating the reasons for nonapproval.

(3) If after a trust agreement has become effective the commissioner finds, after a hearing of which reasonable notice was given to the insurer, that the requisites for approval of the agreement no longer exist, he may withdraw his approval by notice thereof in writing to the insurer stating the grounds for such withdrawal.

(4) A trust agreement may be amended, but no amendment shall be effective unless the agreement as so amended is found by the commissioner to be consistent with the provisions of this chapter and the amendment is approved by him.

History.—§705, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.061 Authority to execute trust agreement.—An alien insurer proposing to use Florida as a state of entry to transact business of insurance in the United States, whether or not it is then authorized to transact insurance in this state, is authorized to make and execute any trust agreement required by this chapter.

History.—§706, ch. 59-205.

630.071 Requirements and contents of trust agreement.—Trustee assets of an alien insurer held in this state under this chapter shall be subject to, and the trust agreement shall make provisions consistent with, the following conditions:

(1) Legal title to the trustee assets is vested in the trustee or trustees, and their successors lawfully appointed, in trust for the purposes and duration as stated in §630.041.

(2) Substitution of a new trustee or trustees in case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise may be made, subject to the commissioner's approval.

(3) All trustee assets shall at all times be maintained as a trust fund separate and distinct from all other assets.

(4) The trustee or trustees shall maintain a record at all times sufficient to identify the assets of the trust.

(5) Withdrawal of or from the trustee assets shall be made only as provided in §630.081.

History.—§707, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.081 Withdrawal of assets, in general.—

(1) The trust agreement shall provide, in substance, that no withdrawals of trustee assets shall be made by the insurer or permitted by the trustee or trustees without the written authorization or approval of the commissioner in advance thereof, except as follows:

(a) Any or all income, earnings, dividends or interest accumulations of the trustee assets may be paid over to the United States manager of the insurer upon request of the insurer or the manager.

(b) For substitution, coincidentally with such withdrawal, of other securities or assets of value at least equal in amount to those being withdrawn, if such substituted securities or assets are likewise such as are eligible for investment of the funds of domestic insurers under part II of chapter 625; and if such withdrawal is requested in writing by the insurer's United States manager pursuant to general or specific written authority previously given or delegated by the insurer's board of directors or other similar governing body, and a copy of such authority has been filed with the trustee or trustees.

(c) For the purpose of making deposits required by law in any state in which the insurer is or thereafter becomes an authorized insurer, for the protection of the insurer's policyholders or policyholders and creditors in such state or in the United States, if such withdrawal does not reduce the insurer's deposit in this state to an amount less than the minimum deposit required under §624.0211 (1) (a) and (b) of this code. The trustee or trustees shall transfer any assets so withdrawn and in the amount so required to be deposited in the other state direct to the depository required to receive such deposit in such other state, as certified in writing by the public official having supervision of insurance in the other state.

(d) For the purpose of transferring the trustee assets to an official liquidator, conservator or rehabilitator pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The commissioner shall so authorize or approve withdrawal of only such assets as are in excess of the amount of assets required to be so held in trust under §630.021, or as may otherwise be consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(3) If at any time the insurer becomes insolvent, or if its assets held in the United States are less in amount than as required under §624.0211 (1) of this code, upon determination thereof the commissioner shall in writing order the trustee to suspend the right of the insurer or any other person to withdraw assets as otherwise authorized under (1) (a), (b) and (c) and the trustee shall comply with such order and until the further order of the commissioner.

(4) In the case of withdrawal of trustee assets deposited in another state in which the insurer is authorized to do business, it shall be sufficient if the trust agreement requires similar written approval of the insurance supervisory official of such state in lieu of any required approval of the commissioner. In all such cases the insurer shall notify the commissioner in writing of the nature and extent of such withdrawal.

History.—§708, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.091 Statement of trustee.—

(1) The trustee or trustees of trustee assets shall from time to time file with the commissioner statements, in such form as he may designate and request in writing, certifying the character of such assets and the amounts thereof.

(2) If the trustee or trustees fail to file any such statement after request therefor and expiration of a reasonable time thereafter, the commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of the insurer.

History.—§709, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.101 Examination of assets.—The commissioner may from time to time examine trustee assets of any insurer in accordance with the same conditions and procedures governing the examination of insurers in general under part II of chapter 624.

History.—§710, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.16.

630.111 Canadian insurers.—The provisions of this chapter applicable to a United States manager shall, in the case of insurers domiciled in Canada, be deemed to refer to the president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer of such a Canadian insurer.

History.—§711, ch. 59-205.

630.121 Domestication of alien insurer; definitions.—

(1) "Domestication" as used in §§630.131-630.161 means the reorganization of the United States branch of an alien insurer as the result of which a domestic insurer shall succeed to all the business and assets and assume all the liabilities of the United States branch of the alien insurer.

(2) "United States branch" means the business unit through which business is transacted within the United States by an alien insurer and the assets and liabilities of such insurer within the United States pertaining to such business.

(3) "Domestic insurer" as used in such sections means a stock insurer incorporated under the laws of this state.

History.—§712, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.41.

630.131 Domestication procedure.—

(1) Upon compliance with §§630.131-630.161 any alien insurer now or hereafter authorized to do business in this state which owns beneficially, directly or indirectly, all of the outstanding capital stock of a domestic insurer may, with the prior written approval of the commissioner and subject to the final approval of the commissioner, domesticate its United States branch, if entered through this state, by entering into an agreement in writing with the domestic insurer providing for the acquisition by the domestic insurer of all the liabilities of the United States branch for no consideration other than the assumption of such liabilities; except that the agreement may further provide for additional consideration payable by the insurance by the acquiring domestic insurer of shares of its capital stock.

(2) Such shares of capital stock of the acquiring domestic insurer, or voting trust certificates representing such shares, as are held among the trustee assets of the United States branch of the alien insurer or are held in a trust created by the alien insurer and of which the alien insurer is a beneficiary shall be deemed to be shares held beneficially, but indirectly, by an alien insurer.

(3) The acquisition of assets and assumption of liabilities of the United States branch by the domestic insurer shall be effected by the filing with the commissioner of an instrument of transfer and assumption in form satisfactory to the commissioner and executed by the alien insurer and the domestic insurer.

(4) A domestic insurer may either be authorized to transact insurance in this state prior to entering into such domestication agreement or may, if the commissioner so approves, be authorized effective with the consummation of the domestication agreement in accordance with the provisions of §630.161.

History.—§713, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.42.

630.141 Domestication agreement; authorization, execution.—

(1) The domestication agreement referred to in §630.131 shall be authorized, adopted, approved, signed and acknowledged by the alien insurer in accordance with the laws of the country under which it is organized.

(2) In the case of a domestic insurer the domestication agreement shall be approved, adopted and authorized by its board of directors and executed by its president or any vice-president and attested by its secretary or assistant secretary under its corporate seal.

History.—§714, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.43.

630.151 Same; approval.—An executed counterpart of the domestication agreement, together with certified copies of the corporate proceedings of the domestic insurer and the alien insurer, approving, adopting and authorizing the execution of the domestication agreement, shall be submitted to the commissioner for his approval. The commissioner shall thereupon consider the agreement and if he finds that the same is in accordance with the provisions hereof and that the interest of policyholders and creditors of the United States branch of the alien insurer are not materially adversely affected he may approve the domestication agreement and authorize the consummation thereof in compliance with the provisions of §630.161.

History.—§715, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.44.

630.161 Consummation of domestication; transfer of assets and deposits.—

(1) Upon the filing with the commissioner of a certified copy of the instrument of transfer and assumption pursuant to which a domestic insurer succeeds to the business and assets of the United States branch of an alien insurer and assumes all its liabilities as provided by §§630.131-630.161 the domestication of the United States branch shall be deemed to be effective and thereupon all the rights, franchise and interests of the United States branch in and to every species of property, real, personal and mixed, and things in action thereunto belonging shall be deemed as transferred to and vested in the domestic insurer and simultaneously therewith the domestic insurer shall be deemed to have assumed all of the liabilities of the United States branch.

(2) All deposits of the United States branch held by the commissioner, or state officers or other state regulatory agencies pursuant to requirements of state laws, shall be deemed to be held as security that the domestic insurer will fully perform its assumption as direct liabilities of all the liabilities to policyholders or policyholders and creditors within the United States of the United States branch, and such deposits shall be deemed to be assets of the domestic insurer and shall be reported as such in the annual financial statements and other reports which the domestic insurer may be required to file. Upon the ultimate release by any such state officer or agency of any such deposits, the securities and cash constituting such released deposit shall be delivered and paid over to the domestic insurer as the lawful successor in interest to the United States branch.

(3) Contemporaneously with the consummation of the domestication of the United States branch, notwithstanding any provision of the statutes to the contrary, the commissioner shall transfer to the insurer the securities deposited by the United States branch in compliance with the provisions of this law, and the commissioner shall consent that the trustee of the trustee assets deposited by the United States branch in compliance with the provisions of this law shall withdraw from the trustee assets and transfer and deliver over to the domestic insurer all assets held by such trustee.

History.—§716, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.45

CHAPTER 631

INSURANCE CODE; REHABILITATION AND LIQUIDATION

- 631.011 Definitions.
- 631.021 Jurisdiction of delinquency proceedings; venue; change of venue; exclusiveness of remedy; appeal.
- 631.031 Commencement of delinquency proceedings.
- 631.041 Injunctions.
- 631.051 Grounds for rehabilitation; domestic insurers.
- 631.061 Grounds for liquidation.
- 631.071 Grounds for conservation; foreign insurers.
- 631.081 Same; alien insurers.
- 631.091 Grounds for ancillary liquidation; foreign insurers.
- 631.101 Order of rehabilitation; termination.
- 631.111 Order of liquidation; domestic insurers.
- 631.121 Same; alien insurers.
- 631.131 Order of conservation or ancillary liquidation of foreign or alien insurers.
- 631.141 Conduct of delinquency proceedings; domestic and alien insurers.
- 631.152 Same; foreign insurers.
- 631.161 Claims of nonresidents against domestic insurers.
- 631.171 Claims against foreign insurers.
- 631.181 Form of claim; notice; hearing.
- 631.191 Priority of certain claims.
- 631.201 Attachment and garnishment of assets.
- 631.211 Uniform insurers liquidation act.
- 631.221 Deposit of moneys collected.
- 631.231 Exemption from fees.
- 631.241 Borrowing on pledge of assets.
- 631.251 Date rights fixed on liquidation.
- 631.261 Voidable transfers.
- 631.271 Priority of claims for compensation.
- 631.281 Offsets.
- 631.291 Allowance of certain claims.
- 631.301 Time to file claims.
- 631.311 Report and petition for assessment.
- 631.321 Order and levy of assessment.
- 631.331 Assessment prima facie correct; notice; payment; proceedings to collect.
- 631.341 Notice of insolvency to policyholders by insurer, general agent, or agent.

631.011 Definitions.—For the purpose of this chapter:

(1) "Impairment" or "insolvency" means the capital of a stock insurer or the surplus of a mutual or reciprocal insurer, shall be deemed to be impaired and the insurer shall be deemed to be insolvent, when such insurer is not possessed of assets at least equal to all liabilities and required reserves together with its total issued and outstanding capital stock if a stock insurer, or the minimum surplus if a mutual or reciprocal insurer, required by this code to be maintained for the kind or kinds of insurance it is then authorized to transact.

(2) "Insurer" means any person, firm, corporation, association or aggregation of persons doing an insurance business and subject to the insurance supervisory authority of, or to liquidation, rehabilitation, reorganization or conservation by the commissioner or the equivalent insurance supervisory official of another state.

(3) "Delinquency proceeding" means any proceeding commenced against an insurer pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing or conserving such insurer.

(4) "State" is as defined in §624.08.

(5) "Foreign country" means territory not in any state.

(6) "Domiciliary state" means the state in which an insurer is incorporated or organized, or in the case of an insurer incorporated or organized in a foreign country, the state in which such insurer, having become authorized to do business in such state, has at the commencement of delinquency proceedings, the largest amount of its assets held in trust and assets held on deposit for the benefit of its policyholders or policyholders and creditors in the United States, and any such insurer is deemed to be domiciled in such state.

(7) "Ancillary state" means any state other than a domiciliary state.

(8) "Reciprocal state" means any state other than this state in which in substance and effect the provisions of the uniform insurers liquidation act, as defined in §631.211 are in force, including the provisions requiring that the commissioner of insurance or equivalent insurance supervisory official be the receiver of a delinquent insurer.

(9) "General assets" means all property, real, personal or otherwise, not specifically mortgaged, pledged, deposited or otherwise encumbered for the security or benefit of specified persons or a limited class or classes of persons, and as to such specifically encumbered property the term includes all such property or its proceeds in excess of the amount necessary to discharge the sum or sums secured thereby. Assets held in trust and assets held on deposit for the security or benefit of all policyholders or all policyholders and creditors in the United States shall be deemed general assets.

(10) "Preferred claim" means any claim with respect to which the law of the state or of the United States accords priority of payment from the general assets of the insurer.

(11) "Special deposit claim" means any claim secured by a deposit made pursuant to statute for the security or benefit of a limited class or classes of persons, but not including any general assets.

(12) "Secured claim" means any claim secured by mortgage, trust deed, pledge, deposit as security, escrow or otherwise, but not including special deposit claim or claims against general assets. The term also includes claims which more than four months prior to the commencement of delinquency proceedings in the state of the insurer's domicile have become liens upon specific assets by reason of judicial process.

(13) "Receiver" means receiver, liquidator, rehabilitator or conservator as the context may require.

History.—§717, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.14.

631.021 Jurisdiction of delinquency proceedings; venue; change of venue; exclusiveness of remedy; appeal.—

(1) The circuit court shall have original jurisdiction of delinquency proceedings under this chapter and any court with jurisdiction is authorized to make all necessary or proper orders to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The venue of delinquency proceedings against a domestic insurer shall be in the circuit court in the judicial circuit of the insurer's principal place of business. The venue of such proceedings against foreign and alien insurers shall be in the circuit court of Leon county.

(3) At any time after the commencement of a proceeding under this chapter the commissioner may apply to the court for an order changing the venue of, and removing the proceeding to, Leon county or to any other county of this state in which he deems that such proceeding may be most economically and efficiently conducted.

(4) Delinquency proceedings pursuant to this chapter shall constitute the sole and exclusive method of liquidating, rehabilitating, reorganizing or conserving an insurer, and no court shall entertain a petition for the commencement of such proceedings unless the same has been filed in the name of the state on the relation of the commissioner.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the district court of appeal, first district, from an order granting or refusing rehabilitation, liquidation, or conservation, and from every order in delinquency proceedings having the character of a final order as to the particular portion of the proceedings embraced therein.

History.—§718, ch. 59-205; (5) §29, ch. 63-559.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.12.

631.031 Commencement of delinquency proceedings.—The commissioner shall commence any such proceedings by application to the court for an order directing the insurer to show cause why the commissioner should not have the relief prayed for. On the return of such order to show cause, and after a full hearing, the court shall either deny the application or grant the application, together with such other relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the policyholders, creditors, stockholders, members, subscribers or the public may require.

History.—§719, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.12, 626.14.

631.041 Injunctions.—

(1) Upon application by the commissioner for such an order to show cause, or at any time thereafter, the court may without notice issue an injunction restraining the insurer, its officers, directors, stockholders, members, subscribers, agents and all other persons from the transaction of its business or the waste or disposition of its property until the further order of the court.

(2) The court may at any time during a proceeding under this chapter issue such other injunctions or orders as may be deemed necessary to prevent interference with the commissioner or the proceeding, or waste of the assets of the insurer, or the commencement or prosecution of any actions, or the obtaining of preferences, judgments, attachments or other liens, or the making of any levy against the insurer or against its assets or any part thereof.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no bond shall be required of the commissioner as a prerequisite for the issuance of any injunction or restraining order pursuant to this section.

History.—§720, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.13, 648.12.

631.051 Grounds for rehabilitation; domestic insurers.—The commissioner may apply to the court for an order appointing him as receiver of and directing him to rehabilitate a domestic insurer upon one or more of the following grounds. That the insurer:

(1) Is impaired or insolvent;

(2) Has refused to submit any of its books, records, accounts or affairs to reasonable examination by the commissioner;

(3) Has concealed or removed records or assets or otherwise violated §§628.271 and 628.281;

(4) Has failed to comply with an order of the commissioner to make good an impairment of capital or surplus or both;

(5) Has transferred or attempted to transfer substantially its entire property or business, or has entered into any transaction the effect of which is to merge substantially its entire property or business in that of any other insurer without having first obtained the written approval of the commissioner;

(6) Is found by the commissioner to be in such condition that further transaction of business by it will be hazardous to its policyholder, creditors, or stockholders;

(7) Has wilfully violated its charter or certificate of incorporation or any law of this state;

(8) Has an officer, director or manager who has unlawfully refused to be examined under oath concerning its affairs;

(9) Has been or is the subject of an application for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or sequestrator of the insurer or its property otherwise than pursuant to the provisions of this code, but only if such appointment has been made or is imminent and its effect is or would be to oust the courts of this state of jurisdiction hereunder;

(10) Has consented to such an order through a majority of its directors, stockholders, members or subscribers;

(11) Has failed to pay a final judgment rendered against it in this state upon any insurance contract issued or assumed by it, within thirty days after the judgment became final or within thirty days after the time for taking an appeal has expired, or within thirty days after dismissal of an appeal before final termination, whichever date is the later.

History.—§721, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§625.14, 626.12.

631.061 Grounds for liquidation.—The commissioner may apply to the court for an order appointing him as receiver (if his appointment as receiver shall not be then in effect) and directing him to liquidate the business of a domestic insurer or of the United States branch of an alien insurer having trustee assets in this state, regardless of whether or not there has been a prior order directing him to rehabilitate such insurer, upon any of the grounds specified in §631.051, or if such insurer:

(1) Has ceased transacting business for a period of one year, or

(2) Is an insolvent insurer and has commenced voluntary liquidation or dissolution, or attempts to commence or prosecute any action or proceeding to liquidate its business or affairs, or to dissolve its corporate charter, or to procure the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian or sequestrator under any law except this code.

History.—§722, ch. 59-205.

631.071 Grounds for conservation; foreign insurers.—The commissioner may apply to the court for an order appointing him as receiver or ancillary receiver, and directing him to conserve the assets within this state, of a foreign insurer upon any of the following grounds:

(1) Upon any of the grounds specified in §631.051 or §631.061, or

(2) Upon the ground that its property has been sequestrated in its domiciliary sovereignty or in any other sovereignty.

History.—§723, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.12.

631.081 Same; alien insurers.—The commissioner may apply to the court for an order appointing him as receiver or ancillary receiver, and directing him to conserve the assets within this state, of any alien insurer upon any of the following grounds:

(1) Upon any of the grounds specified in §631.051 or §631.061.

(2) Upon the ground that the insurer has failed to comply, within the time designated by the commissioner, with an order made by him to make good an impairment of its trustee funds, or

(3) Upon the ground that the property of the insurer has been sequestrated in its domiciliary sovereignty or elsewhere.

History.—§724, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.12.

631.091 Grounds for ancillary liquidation; foreign insurers.—The commissioner may apply to the court for an order appointing him as ancillary receiver of and directing him to liquidate the business of a foreign insurer having assets, business or claims in this state upon the appointment in the domiciliary state of such insurer of a receiver, liquidator, conservator, rehabilitator or other officer by whatever name called for the purpose of liquidating the business of such insurer.

History.—§725, ch. 59-205.

631.101 Order of rehabilitation; termination.—

(1) An order to rehabilitate a domestic insurer shall direct the commissioner forthwith to take possession of the property of the insurer and to conduct the business thereof, and to take such steps toward removal of the causes and conditions which have made rehabilitation necessary as the court may direct.

(2) If at any time the commissioner deems that further efforts to rehabilitate the insurer would be useless, he may apply to the court for an order of liquidation.

(3) The commissioner, or any interested person upon due notice to the commissioner, at any time may apply to the court for an order terminating the rehabilitation proceedings and permitting the insurer to resume possession of its property and the conduct of its business, but no such order shall be made or entered except when, after a hearing, the court has determined that the purposes of the proceeding have been fully accomplished.

History.—§726, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.14, 648.12.

631.111 Order of liquidation; domestic insurers.—

(1) An order to liquidate the business of a domestic insurer shall direct the commissioner forthwith to take possession of the property of the insurer, to liquidate its business, to deal with the insurer's property and business in his own name as commissioner of insurance or in the name of the insurer, as the court may direct, and to give notice to all creditors who may have claims against the insurer to present such claims.

(2) The commissioner may apply for and secure an order dissolving the corporate existence of a domestic insurer upon his application for an order of liquidation of such insurer or at any time after such order has been granted.

History.—§727, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.16, 648.12.

631.121 Same; alien insurers.—An order to liquidate the business of a United States branch of an alien insurer having trustee assets in this state shall be in the same terms as those prescribed for domestic insurers, save and except only that the assets of the business of such United States branch shall be the only assets included therein.

History.—§728, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.16.

631.131 Order of conservation or ancillary liquidation of foreign or alien insurers.—

(1) An order to conserve the assets of a foreign or alien insurer shall require the commissioner forthwith to take possession of the property of the insurer within this state and to conserve it, subject to the further direction of the court.

(2) An order to liquidate the assets in this state of a foreign insurer shall require the commissioner forthwith to take possession of the property of the insurer within this state and to liquidate it subject to the orders of the court and with due regard to the rights and powers of the domiciliary receiver, as provided in this chapter.

History.—§729, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.16.

631.141 Conduct of delinquency proceedings; domestic and alien insurers.—

(1) Whenever under this chapter a receiver is to be appointed in delinquency proceedings for a domestic or alien insurer, the court shall appoint the commissioner as such receiver. The court shall order the commissioner forthwith to take possession of the assets of the insurer and to administer the same under the orders of the court.

(2) As a domiciliary receiver, the commissioner shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts and rights of action, and all of the books and records of the insurer, wherever located, as of the date of entry of the order directing him to rehabilitate or liquidate a domestic insurer or to liquidate the United States branch of an alien insurer domiciled in this state, and he shall have the right to recover the same and reduce the same to possession; except that ancillary receivers in reciprocal states shall have, as to assets located in their respective states, the rights and powers which are herein prescribed for ancillary receivers appointed in this state as to assets located in this state.

(3) The filing or recording of the order directing possession to be taken, or a certified copy thereof, in any office where instruments affecting title to property are required to be filed or recorded shall impart the same notice as would be imparted by a deed, bill of sale, or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded.

(4) The commissioner as domiciliary receiver shall be responsible for the proper administration of all assets coming into his possession or control. The court may at any time require a bond from him or his deputies if deemed desirable for the protection of such assets.

(5) Upon taking possession of the assets of an insurer, the domiciliary receiver shall, subject to the direction of the court, immediately proceed to conduct the business of the insurer or to take such steps as are authorized by this chapter for the purpose of rehabilitating, liquidating or conserving the affairs or assets of the insurer.

(6) In connection with delinquency proceedings, the commissioner may appoint one or more special deputy commissioners to act for him and he may employ such counsel, clerks and assistants as he deems necessary. The compensation of the special deputies, counsel, clerks or assistants and all expenses of taking possession of the insurer and of conducting the proceedings shall be fixed by the receiver, subject to the approval of the court, and shall be paid out of the funds or assets of the insurer. Within the limits of duties imposed upon them, special deputies shall possess all the powers given to and, in the exercise of those powers, shall be subject to all duties imposed upon the receiver with respect to such proceedings.

History.—§730, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.16, 626.18, 626.19.

631.152 Same; foreign insurers.—

(1) Whenever under this chapter an ancillary receiver is to be appointed in delinquency proceedings for an insurer not domiciled in this state, the court shall appoint the commissioner as ancillary receiver. The commissioner shall file a petition requesting the appointment on the grounds set forth in §631.091:

(a) If he finds that there are sufficient assets of the insurer located in this state to justify the appointment of an ancillary receiver, or

(b) If ten or more persons resident in this state having claims against such insurer file a petition with the commissioner requesting the appointment of such ancillary receiver.

(2) The domiciliary receiver for the purpose of liquidating an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state shall be vested by operation of law with the title to all of the property, contracts and rights of action, and all of the books and records of the insurer located in this state, and he shall have the immediate right to recover balances due from local agents and to obtain possession of any books and records of the insurer found in this state. He shall also be entitled to recover the other assets of the insurer located in this state, except that upon the appointment of an ancillary receiver in this state, the ancillary receiver shall during the ancillary receivership proceedings have the sole right to recover such other assets. The ancillary receiver shall, as soon as practicable, liquidate from their respective securities those special deposit claims and secured claims which are proved and allowed in the ancillary proceedings in this state, and shall pay the necessary expenses of the proceedings. All remaining assets he shall promptly transfer to the domiciliary receiver. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the ancillary receiver and his deputies shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties with respect to the administration of such assets as a receiver of an insurer domiciled in this state.

(3) The domiciliary receiver of an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state may sue in this state to recover any assets of such insurer to which he may be entitled under the laws of this state.

History.—§731, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.16.

631.161 Claims of nonresidents against domestic insurers.—

(1) In a delinquency proceeding begun in this state against a domestic insurer, claimants residing in reciprocal states may file claims either with the ancillary receivers, if any, in their respective states, or with the domiciliary receiver. All such claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary delinquency proceedings.

(2) Controverted claims belonging to claimants residing in reciprocal states may either:

(a) Be proved in this state, or

(b) If ancillary proceedings have been commenced in such reciprocal states, may be proved in those proceedings. In the event a claimant elects to prove his claim in ancillary proceedings, if notice of the claim and opportunity to appear and be heard is afforded the domiciliary receiver of this state, as provided in §631.171 with respect to ancillary proceedings in this state, the final allowance of such claim by the courts in the ancillary state shall be accepted in this state as conclusive as to its amount and shall also be accepted as conclusive as to its priority, if any, against special deposits or other security located within the ancillary state.

History.—§732, ch. 59-205.

631.171 Claims against foreign insurers.—

(1) In a delinquency proceeding in a reciprocal state against an insurer domiciled in that state, claimants against such insurer who reside within this state may file claims either with the ancillary receiver, if any, appointed in this state, or with the domiciliary receiver. All such claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary delinquency proceedings.

(2) Controverted claims belonging to claimants residing in this state may either:

(a) Be proved in the domiciliary state as provided by the law of that state, or

(b) If ancillary proceedings have been commenced in this state, be proved in those proceedings. In the event that any such claimant elects to prove his claim in this state, he shall file his claim with the ancillary receiver and shall give notice in writing to the receiver in the domiciliary state, either by registered mail or by personal service at least forty days prior to the date set for hearing. The notice shall contain a concise statement of the amount of the claim, the facts on which the claim is based, and the priorities asserted, if any. If the domiciliary receiver within thirty days after the giving of such notice shall give notice in writing to the ancillary receiver and to the claimant, either by registered mail or by personal service, of his intention to contest such claim, he shall be entitled to appear or to be represented in any proceeding in this state involving adjudication of the claim. The final allowance of the claim by the courts of this state shall be accepted as conclusive as to its amount and shall also be accepted as conclusive as to its priority, if any, against special deposits or other security located within this state.

History.—§733, ch. 59-205.

631.181 Form of claim; notice; hearing.—

(1) All claims against an insurer against which delinquency proceedings have been begun shall set forth in reasonable detail the amount of the claim, or the basis upon which such amount can be ascertained, the facts upon which the claim is based, and the priorities asserted, if any. All such claims shall be verified by the affidavit of the claimant, or someone authorized to act on his behalf and having knowledge of the facts, and shall be supported by such documents as may be material thereto.

(2) All claims filed in this state shall be filed with the receiver, whether domiciliary or ancillary, in this state, on or before the last date for filing as specified in this chapter.

(3) Within ten days of the receipt of any claim, or within such further period as the court may, for good cause shown, fix, the receiver shall report the claim to the court, specifying in such report his recommendation with respect to the action to be taken thereon. Upon receipt of such report, the court shall fix a time for hearing the claim and shall direct that the claimant or the receiver, as the court shall specify, shall give such notice as the court shall determine to such persons as shall appear to the court to be interested therein. All such notices shall specify the time and place of the hearing and shall concisely state the amount and nature of the claim, the priorities asserted, if any, and the recommendation of the receiver with reference thereto.

(4) At the hearing, all persons interested shall be entitled to appear and the court shall enter an order allowing, allowing in part, or disallowing the claim. Any such order shall be deemed to be an appealable order.

History.—§734, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.15.

631.191 Priority of certain claims.—

(1) In a delinquency proceeding against an insurer domiciled in this state, claims owing to residents of ancillary states shall be preferred claims if like claims are preferred under the laws of this state. All such claims owing to residents or nonresidents shall be given equal priority of payment from general assets regardless of where such assets are located.

(2) In a delinquency proceeding against an insurer domiciled in a reciprocal state, claims owing to residents of this state shall be preferred if like claims are preferred by the laws of that state.

(3) The owners of special deposit claims against an insurer for which a receiver is appointed in this or any other state shall be given priority against their several special deposits in accordance with the provisions of the statutes governing the creation and maintenance of such deposits. If there is a deficiency in any such deposit so that the claims secured thereby are not fully discharged therefrom, the claimants may share in the general assets, but such sharing shall be deferred until general creditors, and also claimants against other special deposits who have received smaller percentages from their respective special deposits, have been paid percentages of their claims equal to the percentage paid from the special deposit.

(4) The owner of a secured claim against an insurer for which a receiver has been appointed in this or any other state may surrender his security and file his claim as a general creditor, or the claim may be discharged by resort to the security, in which case the deficiency, if any, shall be treated as a claim against the general assets of the insurer on the same basis as claims of unsecured creditors. If the amount of the deficiency has been adjudicated in ancillary proceedings as provided in this chapter, or if it has been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings in which the domiciliary receiver has had notice and opportunity to be heard, such amounts shall be conclusive; otherwise the amount shall be determined in the delinquency proceeding in the domiciliary state.

History.—§735, ch. 59-205.

631.201 Attachment and garnishment of assets.—During the pendency of delinquency proceedings in this or any reciprocal state, no action or proceeding in the nature of an attachment, garnishment or execution shall be commenced or maintained in the courts of this state against the delinquent insurer or its assets. Any lien obtained by any such action or proceeding within four months prior to the commencement of any such delinquency proceeding or at any time thereafter shall be void as against any rights arising in such delinquency proceeding.

History.—§736, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §631.09.

631.211 Uniform insurers liquidation act.—

(1) Subsections (2) to (13) inclusive, of §631.011, together with §§631.031, 631.041 and 631.141-631.211 constitute and may be referred to as the uniform insurers liquidation act.

(2) The uniform insurers liquidation act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it. To the extent that its provisions when applicable conflict with other provisions of this chapter, the provisions of such act shall control.

History.—§737, ch. 59-205.

631.221 Deposit of moneys collected.—The monies collected by the commissioner in a proceeding under this chapter shall be from time to time deposited in one or more state or national banks, savings banks or trust companies, and in the case of the insolvency or voluntary or involuntary liquidation of any such depository which is an institution organized and supervised under the laws of this state, such deposits shall be entitled to priority of payment on an equality with any other priority given by the banking laws of this state. The commissioner may in his discretion deposit such monies or any part thereof in such a bank or trust company as a trust fund.

History.—§738, ch. 59-205.

631.231 Exemption from fees.—The commissioner shall not be required to pay any fee to any public officer in this state for filing, recording, issuing a transcript or certificate or authenticating any paper or instrument pertaining to the exercise by the commissioner of any of the powers or duties conferred upon him under this chapter, whether or not such paper or instrument be executed by the commissioner or his deputies, employees or attorneys of record and whether or not it is connected with the commencement of any action or proceeding by or against the commissioner, or with the subsequent conduct of such action or proceeding.

History.—§739, ch. 59-205.

631.241 Borrowing on pledge of assets.—For the purpose of facilitating the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation or dissolution of an insurer pursuant to this chapter, the commissioner may, subject to the approval of the court, borrow money and execute, acknowledge and deliver notes or other evidences of indebtedness therefor and secure the repayment of the same by the mortgage, pledge, assignment, transfer in trust, or hypothecation of any or all of the property, whether real, personal or mixed, of such insurer, and the commissioner subject to the approval of the court shall have power to take any and all other action necessary and proper to consummate any such loan and to provide for the repayment thereof. The commissioner shall be under no obligation personally or in his official capacity to repay any loan made pursuant to this section.

History.—§740, ch. 59-205.

631.251 Date rights fixed on liquidation.—The rights and liabilities of the insurer and of its creditors, policyholders, stockholders, members, subscribers and all other persons interested in its estate shall, unless otherwise directed by the court, be fixed as of the date on which the order directing the liquidation of the insurer is filed in the office of the clerk of the court which made the order, subject to the provisions of this chapter with respect to the rights of claimants holding contingent claims.

History.—§741, ch. 59-205.

631.261 Voidable transfers.—

(1) Any transfer of, or lien upon, the property of an insurer which is made or created within four months prior to the granting of an order to show cause under this chapter with the intent of giving to any creditor a preference or of enabling him to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other creditor of the same class and which is accepted by such creditor having reasonable cause to believe that such preference will occur, shall be voidable.

(2) Every director, officer, employee, stockholder, member, subscriber and any other person acting on behalf of such insurer who shall be concerned in any such act or deed and every person receiving thereby any property of such insurer or the benefit thereof shall be personally liable therefor and shall be bound to account to the commissioner.

(3) The commissioner as receiver in any proceeding under this chapter may avoid any transfer of or lien upon the property of an insurer which any creditor, stockholder, subscriber or member of such insurer might have avoided and may recover the property so transferred unless such person was a bona fide holder for value prior to the date of the entering of an order to show cause under this chapter. Such property or its value may be recovered from anyone who has received it except a bona fide holder for value as herein specified.

History.—§742, ch. 59-205.

631.271 Priority of claims for compensation.—

(1) Compensation actually owing to employees other than officers of an insurer, for services rendered within three months prior to the commencement of a proceeding against the insurer under this chapter, but not exceeding five hundred dollars for each employee, shall be paid prior to the payment of any other debt or claim, and in the discretion of the commissioner may be paid as soon as practicable after the proceeding has been commenced; except that at all times the commissioner shall reserve such funds as will in his opinion be sufficient for the expenses of administration.

(2) Such priority shall be in lieu of any other similar priority which may be authorized by law as to wages or compensation of such employees.

History.—§743, ch. 59-205.

631.281 Offsets.—

(1) In all cases of mutual debts or mutual credits between the insurer and another person in connection with any action or proceeding under this chapter, such credits and debts shall be set off and the balance only shall be allowed or paid, except as provided in subsection (2).

(2) No offset shall be allowed in favor of any such person where:

(a) The obligation of the insurer to such person would not at the date of the entry of any liquidation order or otherwise, as provided in §631.251, entitle him to share as a claimant in the assets of the insurer, or

(b) The obligation of the insurer to such person was purchased by or transferred to such person with a view of its being used as an offset, or

(c) The obligation of such person is to pay an assessment levied against the members of a mutual insurer, or against the subscribers of a reciprocal insurer, or is to pay a balance upon the subscription to the capital stock of a stock insurer.

History.—§744, ch. 59-205.

631.291 Allowance of certain claims.—

(1) No contingent and unliquidated claim shall share in a distribution of the assets of an insurer which has been adjudicated to be insolvent by an order made pursuant to this chapter, except that such claim shall be considered, if properly presented, and may be allowed to share where:

(a) Such claim becomes absolute against the insurer on or before the last day for filing claims against the assets of such insurer, or

(b) There is a surplus and the liquidation is thereafter conducted upon the basis that such insurer is solvent.

(2) Where an insurer has been so adjudicated to be insolvent any person who has a cause of action against an insured of such insurer under a liability insurance policy issued by such insurer shall have the right to file a claim in the liquidation proceeding, regardless of the fact that such claim may be contingent, and such claim may be allowed:

(a) If it may be reasonably inferred from the proof presented upon such claim that such person would be able to obtain a judgment upon such cause of action against such insured, and

(b) If such person shall furnish suitable proof, unless the court for good cause shown shall otherwise direct, that no further valid claim against such insurers arising out of his cause of action other than those already presented can be made, and

(c) If the total liability of such insurer to all claimants arising out of the same act of its insured shall be no greater than its maximum liability would be were it not in liquidation.

(3) No judgment against such an insured taken after the date of entry of the liquidation order shall be considered in the liquidation proceedings as evidence of liability, or of the amount of damages, and no judgment against an insured taken by default, or by collusion prior to the entry of the liquidation order shall be considered as conclusive evidence in the liquidation proceedings, either of the liability of such insured to such person upon such cause of action or of the amount of damages to which such person is therein entitled.

(4) No claim of any secured claimant shall be allowed at a sum greater than the difference between the value of the claim without security and the value of the security itself as of the date of the entry of the order of liquidation or such other date set by the court for determining rights and liabilities as provided in §631.251 unless the claimant shall surrender his security to the commissioner, in which event the claim shall be allowed in the full amount for which it is valued.

History.—§745, ch. 59-205.

631.301 Time to file claims.—

(1) If upon the entry of an order of liquidation under this chapter or at any time thereafter during liquidation proceedings the insurer shall not be clearly solvent, the court shall, upon hearing after such notice it deems proper, make and enter an order adjudging the insurer to be insolvent.

(2) After the entry of the order of insolvency, regardless of any prior notice that may have been given to creditors, the commissioner shall notify all persons who may have claims against such insurer to file such claims with him, at a place and within the time specified in the notice, or that such claims shall be forever barred. The time specified in the notice shall be as fixed by the court for filing of claims and which shall be not less than six months after the entry of the order of insolvency. The notice shall be given in such manner and for such reasonable period of time as may be ordered by the court.

History.—§746, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §626.15.

631.311 Report and petition for assessment.—Within three years after the date of the entry of an order of rehabilitation or liquidation of a domestic mutual insurer or a domestic reciprocal insurer, the commissioner may make and file his report and petition to the court setting forth:

(1) The reasonable value of the assets of the insurer;

(2) The liabilities of the insurer to the extent thus far ascertained by the commissioner;

(3) The aggregate amount of the assessment, if any, which the commissioner deems reasonably necessary to pay all claims, the costs and expenses of the collection of the assessments and the costs and expenses of the delinquency proceedings in full;

(4) Any other information relative to the affairs or property of the insurer that the commissioner deems material.

History.—§747, ch. 59-205.

631.321 Order and levy of assessment.—

(1) Upon the filing and reading of the report and petition provided for in §631.311, the court, ex parte, may order the commissioner to assess all members or subscribers of the insurer who may be subject to such an assessment, in such an aggregate amount as the court finds reasonably necessary to pay all valid claims as may be timely filed and proved in the delinquency proceedings, together with the costs and expenses of levying and collecting assessments and the costs and expenses of the delinquency proceedings in full. Any such order shall require the commissioner to assess each such member or subscriber for his proportion of the aggregate assessment, according to such reasonable classification of such members or subscribers and formula as may be made by the commissioner and approved by the court.

(2) The court may order additional assessments upon the filing and reading of any amendment or supplement to the report and petition referred to in subsection (1), if such amendment or supplement is filed within three years after the date of the entry of the order of rehabilitation or liquidation.

(3) After the entry of the order to levy an assessment upon members or subscribers of an insurer referred to in subsections (1) or (2), the commissioner shall levy an assessment upon such members or subscribers in accordance with the order.

(4) The total of all assessments against any member or subscriber with respect to any policy, whether levied pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to any other provision of this code, shall be for no greater amount than that specified in the policy or policies of the member or subscriber and as limited under this code; except as to any policy which was issued at a rate of premium below the minimum rate lawfully permitted for the risk insured, in which event the assessment against any such policyholder shall be upon the basis of the minimum rate for such risk.

(5) No assessment shall be levied against any member or subscriber with respect to any nonassessable policy issued in accordance with this code.

History.—§748, ch. 59-205.

631.331 Assessment prima facie correct; notice; payment; proceedings to collect.—

(1) Any assessment of a subscriber or member of an insurer made by the commissioner pursuant to the order of court fixing the aggregate amount of the assessment against all members or subscribers and approving the classification and formula made by the commissioner under §631.321(1) shall be prima facie correct.

(2) Each member or subscriber shall be notified of the amount of assessment to be paid by him by written notice mailed to the address of the member or subscriber last of record with the insurer. Failure of the member or subscriber to receive the notice so mailed, within the time specified therein or at all, shall be no defense in any proceeding to collect the assessment.

(3) If any such member or subscriber fails to pay the assessment within the period specified in the notice, which period shall not be less than twenty days after mailing, the commissioner may obtain an order in the delinquency proceedings requiring the member or subscriber to show cause at a time and place fixed by the court why judgment should not be entered against such member or subscriber for the amount of the assessment together with all costs, and a copy of the order and a copy of the petition therefor shall be served upon the member or subscriber within the time and in the manner designated in the order.

(4) If the subscriber or member after due service of a copy of the order and petition referred to in subsection (3) is made upon him:

(a) Fails to appear at the time and place specified in the order, judgment shall be entered against him as prayed for in the petition; or

(b) Appears in the manner and form required by law in response to the order, the court shall hear and determine the matter and enter a judgment in accordance with its decision.

(5) The commissioner may collect any such assessment through any other lawful means.

History.—§749, ch. 59-205.

631.341 Notice of insolvency to policyholders by insurer, general agent, or agent.—

(1) Any insurer authorized to do business in this state, and its supervising or managing general agent, if any, upon acquiring knowledge or notice of bankruptcy or insolvency of such insurer shall, within seven days of such knowledge or notice, give written notice of such bankruptcy or insolvency to all agents of such insurer, as defined in this code, located within this state. Any such insurer not having agents in this state shall give such notice as aforesaid to all of its existing policyholders in the state.

(2) Unless within fifteen days subsequent to the date of such notice, such agents shall have either replaced or reinsured in a solvent insurer, the insurance underwritten by such bankrupt or insolvent insurer, then such agents shall either personally or by registered mail, send to the last known address of the policyholder, a written notice of bankruptcy or insolvency of such insurer.

(3) The license or certificate of authority of any person, firm, or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to revocation as provided in this code.

History.—§750, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.36.

CHAPTER 632

INSURANCE CODE; FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES

- | | | | |
|---------|---|---------|---|
| 632.011 | Fraternal benefit societies defined. | 632.271 | Benefits not attachable. |
| 632.021 | Lodge system defined. | 632.281 | No personal liability. |
| 632.031 | Representative form of government defined. | 632.291 | Contract. |
| 632.041 | Chapter exclusive; applicability of other laws. | 632.301 | Standard provisions. |
| 632.051 | Exempted societies. | 632.311 | Prohibited provisions. |
| 632.061 | License required; expiration, renewal; fee. | 632.321 | Premiums defined. |
| 632.071 | Foreign or alien society; admission. | 632.331 | Accident and health insurance and total and permanent disability insurance certificates; filing and approval. |
| 632.081 | Suspension, revocation or refusal of license of foreign or alien society. | 632.341 | Reinsurance. |
| 632.091 | Organization; incorporation. | 632.351 | Funds. |
| 632.101 | Filing articles and documents; preliminary certificate. | 632.361 | Investments. |
| 632.111 | Time for completing organization. | 632.371 | Annual statement. |
| 632.121 | Initial solicitations and qualifications. | 632.381 | Annual valuation of certificates. |
| 632.131 | Certificate of compliance; certified copy as evidence. | 632.391 | Annual statement; penalty for failure to file or to comply. |
| 632.141 | Constitution and laws; general powers. | 632.401 | Examination of domestic societies. |
| 632.151 | Corporate powers retained. | 632.411 | Examination of foreign and alien societies. |
| 632.161 | Existing voluntary associations; may incorporate. | 632.421 | No adverse publications. |
| 632.171 | Articles of incorporation, constitution and laws; amendments; synopsis; certified copies as evidence. | 632.431 | Taxation. |
| 632.181 | Waiver. | 632.441 | Licensing of agents. |
| 632.191 | Location of office; place of meeting; records in English language. | 632.442 | Registration. |
| 632.201 | Institutions. | 632.451 | Agent license required. |
| 632.211 | Qualifications for membership. | 632.461 | Agent's qualifications. |
| 632.221 | Member's share of deficiency. | 632.471 | Examination for agent's license. |
| 632.231 | Benefits. | 632.481 | Misrepresentation. |
| 632.241 | Benefits on lives of children. | 632.491 | Discrimination and rebates. |
| 632.251 | Nonforfeiture benefits; cash surrender values; certificate loans and other options. | 632.501 | Service of process. |
| 632.261 | Beneficiaries. | 632.511 | Consolidations and mergers. |
| | | 632.521 | Same; effect. |
| | | 632.531 | Conversion into mutual life insurer. |
| | | 632.541 | Injunction; liquidation; receivership of domestic society. |
| | | 632.551 | Injunction. |
| | | 632.561 | Review. |
| | | 632.571 | Other provisions applicable. |

632.011 Fraternal benefit societies defined.—Any incorporated society, order or supreme lodge, without capital stock, including one exempted under the provisions of §632.051(1)(b) of this chapter whether incorporated or not, conducted solely for the benefit of its members and their beneficiaries and not for profit, operated on a lodge system with ritualistic form of work, having a representative form of government, and which makes provision for the payment of benefits in accordance with this chapter, is hereby declared to be a fraternal benefit society. When used in this chapter the word "society," unless otherwise indicated means fraternal benefit society.

History.—§751, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §625.01.

632.021 Lodge system defined.—A society having a supreme legislative or governing body and subordinate lodges or branches by whatever name known, into which members are elected, initiated or admitted in accordance with its constitution, laws, ritual and rules, which subordinate lodges or branches are required by the laws of the society to hold regular meetings at least once in each month, shall be deemed to be operating on the lodge system.

History.—§752, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.09.

632.031 Representative form of government defined.—A society shall be deemed to have a representative form of government when:

(1) It provides in its constitution or laws for a supreme legislative or governing body, composed of representatives elected either by the members or by delegates elected directly or indirectly by the members, together with such other members of such body as may be prescribed by the society's constitution and laws;

(2) The representatives elected constitute a majority in number and have not less than two-thirds of the votes nor less than the votes required to amend its constitution and laws;

(3) The meetings of the supreme legislative or governing body and the election of officers, representatives or delegates are held as often as once in four calendar years;

(4) Each insured member shall be eligible for election to act or serve as a delegate to such meeting;

(5) The society has a board of directors charged with the responsibility for managing its affairs in the interim between meetings of its supreme legislative or governing body, subject to control by such body and having powers and duties delegated to it in the constitution or laws of the society;

(6) Such board of directors is elected by the supreme legislative or governing body, except in case of filling a vacancy in the interim between meetings of such body;

(7) The officers are elected either by the supreme legislative or governing body or by the board of directors; and

(8) The members, officers, representatives or delegates shall not vote by proxy.

History.—§753, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.10.

632.041 Chapter exclusive; applicability of other laws.—Except as herein provided, societies shall be governed by this chapter and shall be exempt from all other provisions of the insurance laws of this state, not only in governmental relations with the state, but for every other purpose. No law hereafter enacted shall apply to them, unless they be expressly designated therein.

History.—§754, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.11.

632.051 Exempted societies.—

(1) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be so construed as to affect or apply to:

(a) Grand or subordinate lodges of societies, orders or associations now doing business in this state which provide benefits exclusively through local or subordinate lodges;

(b) Orders, societies or associations which admit to membership only persons engaged in one or more crafts or hazardous occupations, in the same or similar lines of business, insuring only their own members, their families and descendants of members, and the ladies' societies or ladies' auxiliaries to such orders, societies or associations;

(c) Domestic societies which limit their membership to employees of a particular city or town, designated firm, business house or corporation and which provide for a death benefit of not more than four hundred dollars or disability benefits of not more than three hundred fifty dollars to any person in any one year, or both; or

(d) Domestic societies or associations of a purely religious, charitable or benevolent description, which provide for a death benefit of not more than four hundred dollars or for disability benefits of not more than three hundred fifty dollars to any one person in any one year, or both.

(2) Any such society or association described in (1) (c) or (d), which provides for death or disability benefits for which benefit certificates are issued, and any such society or association included in (1) (d) which has more than one thousand members, shall not be exempted from the provisions of this chapter but shall comply with all requirements thereof.

(3) No society which, by the provisions of this section, is exempt from the requirements of this chapter, except any society described in (1) (b), shall give or allow, or promise to give or allow to any person any compensation for procuring new members.

(4) Every society which provides for benefits in case of death or disability resulting solely from accident, and which does not obligate itself to pay natural death or sick benefits shall have all of the privileges and be subject to all the applicable provisions and regulations of this chapter except that the provisions thereof relating to medical examination, valuations of benefit certificates, and incontestability, shall not apply to such society.

(5) The commissioner may require from any society or association, by examination or otherwise, such information as will enable him to determine whether such society or association is exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

Societies, exempted under the provisions of this section, shall also be exempt from all other provisions of the insurance laws of this state.

History.—§755, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§626.22, 637.59.

632.061 License required; expiration, renewal; fee.—

(1) No fraternal benefit society shall transact business in this state unless authorized therefor under a subsisting license issued to the society by the commissioner.

(2) Societies authorized to transact business in this state as of immediately prior to the effective date of this code may continue such business until May 31 next succeeding such effective date. The authority of such societies and of all societies hereafter licensed may thereafter be continued annually so long as the society is entitled thereto, upon written request therefor filed with the commissioner on or before June 1, together with payment of the annual license tax provided for in §624.0300 (3) (filing, license and miscellaneous fees). If not so continued by the society, the license shall expire as at midnight of such June 1.

(3) A duly certified copy or duplicate of the license shall be prima facie evidence that the licensee is a fraternal benefit society within the meaning of this chapter.

(4) Section 626.0500 (representing or aiding unauthorized insurer prohibited), §626.0501 (penalty for representing unauthorized insurer), and §626.0502 (suits by unauthorized insurers prohibited) shall apply with respect to fraternal benefit societies not authorized or licensed to transact business in this state as required by this section; and such societies shall be deemed to be "insurers" for the purposes of such sections.

History.—§756, ch. 59-205; (2) §3, ch. 61-105; (2) §4, ch. 63-149.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§205.43, 637.22, 637.23, 637.24.

632.071 Foreign or alien society; admission.—

(1) No foreign or alien society shall transact business in this state without a license issued by the commissioner. Any such society may be licensed to transact business in this state upon filing with the commissioner:

(a) A duly certified copy of its charter or articles of incorporation;

(b) A copy of its constitution and laws, certified by its secretary or corresponding officer;

(c) A power of attorney to the commissioner as prescribed in §632.501;

(d) A statement of its business under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officers in a form prescribed by the commissioner, duly verified by an examination made by the supervising insurance official of its home state or other state, territory, province or country, satisfactory to the commissioner;

(e) A certificate from the proper official of its home state, territory, province or country that the society is legally incorporated and licensed to transact business therein;

(f) Copies of its certificate forms; and

(g) Such other information as he may deem necessary; and upon showing that its assets are invested in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Any foreign or alien society desiring admission to this state shall have the qualifications required of domestic societies organized under this chapter.

History.—§757, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.23, 637.25.

632.081 Suspension, revocation or refusal of license of foreign or alien society.—

(1) When the commissioner upon investigation finds that a foreign or alien society transacting or applying to transact business in this state:

(a) Has exceeded its powers;

(b) Has failed to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter;

(c) Is not fulfilling its contracts in good faith; or

(d) Is conducting its business fraudulently or in a manner hazardous to its members or creditors or the public;

he shall notify the society of his findings, state in writing the reasons for his dissatisfaction and require the society to show cause on a date named why its license should not be suspended, revoked or refused. If on such date the society does not present good and sufficient reason why its authority to do business in this state should not be suspended, revoked or refused, he may suspend or refuse the license of the society to do business in this state until satisfactory evidence is furnished to him that such suspension or refusal should be withdrawn or he may revoke the authority of the society to do business in this state.

(2) Nothing contained in this section shall be taken or construed as preventing any such society from continuing in good faith all contracts made in this state during the time such society was legally authorized to transact business herein.

History.—§758, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.58.

632.091 Organization; incorporation.—Seven or more citizens of the United States, a majority of whom are citizens of this state, who desire to form a fraternal benefit society, may make, sign and acknowledge before some officer, competent to take acknowledgment of deeds, articles of incorporation, in which shall be stated:

(1) The proposed corporate name of the society, which shall not so closely resemble the name of any society or insurance company as to be misleading or confusing;

(2) The purposes for which it is being formed and the mode in which its corporate powers are to be exercised. Such purposes shall not include more liberal powers than are granted by this chapter, provided that any lawful, social, intellectual, educational, charitable, benevolent, moral, fraternal or religious advantages may be set forth among the purposes of the society; and

(3) The names and residences of the incorporators and the names, residences and official titles of all the officers, trustees, directors, or other persons who are to have and exercise the general control of the management of the affairs and funds of the society for the first year or until the ensuing election at which all such officers shall be elected by the supreme legislative or governing body, which election shall be held not later than one year from the date of the issuance of the permanent certificate.

History.—§759, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.01.

632.101 Filing articles and documents; preliminary certificate.—Such articles of incorporation, duly certified copies of the constitution, laws and rules, copies of all proposed forms of certificates, applications therefor, and circulars to be issued by the society and a bond conditioned upon the return to the applicants of the advanced payments if the organization is not completed within one year, shall be filed with the commissioner, who may require such further information as he deems necessary. The bond with sureties approved by the commissioner shall be in such amount, not less than five thousand dollars nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars as required by the commissioner. All documents filed are to be in the English language. If the purposes of the society conform to the requirements of this chapter and all provisions of the law have been complied with, the commissioner shall so certify, retain and file the articles of incorporation and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing the society to solicit members as hereinafter provided.

History.—§760, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.02.

632.111 Time for completing organization.—No preliminary certificate granted under the provisions of this section shall be valid after one year from its date or after such further period, not exceeding one year, as may be authorized by the commissioner upon cause shown, unless the five hundred applicants hereinafter required have been secured and the organization has been completed as herein provided. The articles of incorporation and all other proceedings thereunder shall become null and void in one year from the date of the preliminary certificate, or at the expiration of the extended period, unless the society shall have completed its organization and received a certificate of authority to do business as herein-after provided.

History.—§761, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.06.

632.121 Initial solicitations and qualifications.—Upon receipt of a preliminary certificate from the commissioner, the society may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization, shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one regular monthly premium in accordance with its table of rates as provided by its constitution and laws, and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. No society shall incur any liability other than for the return of such advance premium, nor issue any certificate, nor pay, allow, or offer or promise to pay or allow, any death or disability benefit to any person until:

(1) Actual bona fide applications for death benefits have been secured aggregating at least five hundred thousand dollars on not less than five hundred lives;

(2) All such applicants for death benefits shall have furnished evidence of insurability satisfactory to the society;

(3) Certificates of examinations or acceptable declarations of insurability have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of the society;

(4) Ten subordinate lodges or branches have been established into which the five hundred applicants have been admitted;

(5) There has been submitted to the commissioner, under oath of the president or secretary, or corresponding officer of the society, a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, date each was admitted, name and number of the subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted and premiums therefor, and

(6) It shall have been shown to the commissioner, by sworn statement of the treasurer, or corresponding officer of such society, that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly premium as herein provided, which premiums in the aggregate shall amount to at least twenty-five hundred dollars, all of which shall be credited to the fund or funds from which benefits are to be paid and no part of which may be used for expenses. Such advance premiums shall be held in trust during the period of organization and if the society has not qualified for a certificate of authority within one year, as herein provided, the premiums shall be returned to the applicants.

History.—§762, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.03, 637.04.

632.131 Certificate of compliance; certified copy as evidence.—The commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he deems advisable. Upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the society has complied with all the provisions of law, he shall issue to the society a certificate to that effect and that the society is authorized to transact business pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of the society at the date of such certificate. The commissioner shall cause a record of such certificate to be made. A certified copy of such record may be given in evidence with like effect as the original certificate.

History.—§763, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.05.

632.141 Constitution and laws; general powers.—

(1) Every society shall have the power to adopt a constitution and laws for the government of the society, the admission of its members, the management of its affairs and the fixing and readjusting of the rates of its members from time to time. It shall have the power to change, alter, add to or amend such constitution and laws.

(2) A society shall have such other powers as are necessary and incidental to carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the society.

History.—§764, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.07.

632.151 Corporate powers retained.—Any incorporated society authorized to transact business in this state at the time this chapter becomes effective may thereafter exercise all the rights, powers and privileges prescribed in this chapter and in its charter or articles of incorporation as far as consistent with this chapter. A domestic society shall not be required to reincorporate.

History.—§765, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.08.

632.161 Existing voluntary associations; may incorporate.—

(1) After one year from the effective date of this chapter, no unincorporated or voluntary association shall be permitted to transact business in this state as a fraternal benefit society.

(2) Any domestic voluntary association now authorized to transact business in this state may incorporate and shall receive from the commissioner a permanent certificate of incorporation as a fraternal benefit society when:

(a) It has completed its conversion to an incorporated society not later than one year from the effective date of this chapter;

(b) It has filed its articles of incorporation and has satisfied the other requirements described in §§632.091-632.131; and

(c) The commissioner has made such examination and procured whatever additional information he deems advisable.

(3) Every voluntary association so incorporated shall incur the obligations and enjoy the benefits thereof the same as though originally incorporated, and such corporation shall be deemed a continuation of the original voluntary association. The officers thereof shall serve through their respective terms as provided in its original articles of association, but their successors shall be elected and serve as provided in its articles of incorporation. Incorporation of a voluntary association shall not affect existing suits, claims or contracts.

History.—§766, ch. 59-205.

632.171 Articles of incorporation, constitution and laws; amendments; synopsis; certified copies as evidence.—

(1) A domestic society may amend its articles of incorporation, constitution or laws in accordance with the provisions thereof by action of its supreme legislative or governing body at any regular or special meeting thereof or, if its articles of incorporation, constitution or laws so provide, by referendum. Such referendum may be held in accordance with the provisions of its articles of incorporation, constitution or laws by the vote of the voting members of the society, by the vote of delegates or representatives of voting members or by the vote of local lodges or branches. No amendment submitted for adoption by referendum shall be adopted unless, within six months from the date of submission thereof, a majority of all of the voting members of the society shall have signified their consent to such amendment by one of the methods herein specified.

(2) No amendment to the articles of incorporation, constitution or laws of any domestic society shall take effect unless approved by the commissioner, who shall approve such amendment if he finds that it has been duly adopted and is not inconsistent with any requirement of the laws of this state or with the character, objects and purposes of the society. Unless the commissioner disapproves any such amendment within sixty days after the filing of same, such amendment shall be considered approved. The approval or disapproval of the commissioner shall be in writing and mailed to the secretary or corresponding officer of the society at its principal office. In case he disapproves the amendment, the reasons therefor shall be stated in the written notice.

(3) Within ninety days from the approval thereof by the commissioner, all such amendments, or a synopsis thereof, shall be furnished by the society to all members either by mail or by publication in full in the official organ of the society. The affidavit of any officer of the society or of anyone authorized by it to mail any amendments or synopsis thereof, stating facts which show that same have been duly addressed and mailed, shall be prima facie evidence that such amendments or synopsis thereof, have been furnished the addressee.

(4) Every foreign or alien society authorized to do business in this state shall file with the commissioner a duly certified copy of all amendments of, or additions to, its articles of incorporation, constitution or laws within ninety days after the enactment of same.

(5) Printed copies of the constitution or laws as amended, certified by the secretary or corresponding officer of the society shall be prima facie evidence of the legal adoption thereof.

History.—§767, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.08, 637.32.

632.181 Waiver.—The constitution and laws of the society may provide that no subordinate body, nor any of its subordinate officers or members shall have the power or authority to waive any of the provisions of the laws and constitution of the society. Such provision shall be binding on the society and every member and beneficiary of a member.

History.—§768, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.30.

632.191 Location of office; place of meeting; records in English language.—

(1) The principal office of any domestic society shall be located in this state. The meetings of its supreme legislative or governing body may be held in any state, district, province or territory wherein such society has at least five subordinate branches and all business transacted at such meetings shall be as valid in all respects as if such meetings were held in this state.

(2) Maintenance, treatment and proper attendance of the supreme or governing body and of the board of directors or corresponding body of a society shall be in the English language.

History.—§769, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.28.

632.201 Institutions.—

(1) It shall be lawful for a society to create, maintain and operate charitable, benevolent or educational institutions for the benefit of its members and their families and dependents and for the benefit of children insured by the society. For such purpose it may own, hold or lease personal property or real property located within or without this state, with necessary buildings thereon. Such property shall be reported in every annual statement but shall not be allowed as an admitted asset of such society.

(2) Maintenance, treatment and proper attendance in any such institution may be furnished free or a reasonable charge may be made therefor, but no such institution shall be operated for profit. The society shall maintain a separate accounting of any income and disbursements under this section and report them in its annual statement.

(3) No society shall own or operate funeral homes or undertaking establishments.

History.—§770, ch. 59-205.

632.211 Qualifications for membership.—A society may admit to benefit membership any person not less than fifteen years of age, nearest birthday, who has furnished evidence of insurability acceptable to the society. Any such member who shall apply for additional benefits more than six months after becoming a benefit member shall furnish additional evidence of insurability acceptable to the society.

Any person admitted prior to attaining the full age of twenty-one years shall be bound by the terms of the application and certificate and by all the laws and rules of the society and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership therein to the same extent as though the age of majority had been attained at the time of application. A society may also admit general or social members who shall have no voice or vote in the management of its insurance affairs.

History.—§771, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.15.

632.221 Member's share of deficiency.—A society shall provide in its constitution or laws that if its reserves as to all or any class of certificates become impaired its board of directors or corresponding body may require that there shall be paid by the member to the society the amount of the member's equitable proportion of such deficiency as ascertained by its board, and that if the payment be not made it shall stand as an indebtedness against the member's certificate and draw interest not to exceed five per cent per annum compounded annually.

History.—§772, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.37.

632.231 Benefits.—

(1) A society authorized to do business in this state may provide only for the payment of:

- (a) Death benefits in any form;
- (b) Endowment benefits;
- (c) Annuity benefits;
- (d) Temporary or permanent disability benefits as a result of disease or accident;
- (e) Hospital, medical or nursing benefits due to sickness or bodily infirmity or accident; and
- (f) Monument or tombstone benefits to the memory of deceased members not exceeding in any case the sum of three hundred dollars.

(2) Such benefits may be provided on the lives of members or, upon application of a member, on the lives of a member's family, including the member, the member's spouse and minor children, in the same or separate certificates.

(3) No such benefits shall be provided in the form of group life insurance, group disability insurance, or blanket disability insurance.

(3) No such benefits shall be provided in the form of group life insurance, group disability insurance, or blanket disability insurance.

History.—§773, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.12.

632.241 Benefits on lives of children.—

(1) A society also may provide for benefits on the lives of children under the minimum age for adult membership but not greater than twenty-one years of age at time of application therefor, upon the application of some adult person, as its laws or rules may provide, which benefits shall be in accordance with the provisions of §632.231(1) and (3). A society may, at its option, organize and operate branches for such children. Membership and initiation in local lodges shall not be required of such children, nor shall they have a voice in the management of the society.

(2) A society shall have power to provide for the designation and changing of designation of beneficiaries in the certificates providing for such benefits and to provide in all other respects for the regulation, government and control of such certificates and all rights, obligations and liabilities incident thereto and connected therewith.

History.—§774, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.15.

632.251 Nonforfeiture benefits; cash surrender values; certificate loans and other options.—

(1) A society may grant paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, cash surrender values, certificate loans and such other options as its laws may permit. As to certificates issued on and after the effective date of this chapter, a society shall grant at least one paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, except in the case of pure endowment, annuity or reversionary annuity contracts, reducing term insurance contracts or contracts of term insurance of uniform amount of fifteen years or less expiring before age sixty-six.

(2) In the case of certificates other than those for which reserves are computed on the commissioners 1941 standard ordinary mortality table or the 1941 standard industrial table, the value of every paid-up nonforfeiture benefit and the amount of any cash surrender value, loan or other option granted shall not be less than the excess, if any, of (a) over (b) as follows:

(a) The reserve under the certificate determined on the basis specified in the certificate; and

(b) The sum of any indebtedness to the society on the certificate, including interest due and accrued, and a surrender charge equal to two and one-half per cent of the face amount of the certificate, which, in the case of insurance on the lives of children, shall be the ultimate face amount of the certificate, if death benefits provided therein are graded.

(3) However, in the case of certificates issued on a substandard basis or in the case of certificates, the reserves for which are computed upon the American men ultimate table of mortality, the term of any extended insurance benefit granted including accompanying pure endowment, if any, may be computed upon the rates of mortality not greater than one hundred thirty per cent of those shown by the mortality table specified in the certificate for the computation of the reserve.

(4) In the case of certificates for which reserves are computed on the commissioners 1941 standard ordinary mortality table or the 1941 standard industrial table, every paid-up non-forfeiture benefit and the amount of any cash surrender value, loan or other option granted shall not be less than the corresponding amount ascertained in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state applicable to life insurers issuing policies containing like insurance benefits based upon such tables.

History.—§775, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.13, 637.17, 637.35.

632.261 Beneficiaries.—

(1) The member shall have the right at all times to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries in accordance with the constitution, laws or rules of the society. Every society by its constitution, laws or rules may limit the scope of beneficiaries and shall provide that no beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in the proceeds of any certificate until the certificate has become due and payable in conformity with the provisions of the insurance contract.

(2) A society may make provisions for the payment of funeral benefits to the extent of such portion of any payment under a certificate as might reasonably appear to be due to any person equitably entitled thereto by reason of having incurred expense occasioned by the burial of the member, but the portion so paid shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars.

(3) If, at the death of any member, there is no lawful beneficiary to whom the insurance benefits are payable, the amount of such benefits, except to the extent that funeral benefits may be paid as hereinbefore provided, shall be payable to the personal representative of the deceased member.

History.—§776, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.14.

632.271 Benefits not attachable.—No money or other benefit, charity, relief or aid to be paid, provided or rendered by any society, shall be liable to attachment, garnishment or other process, or to be seized, taken, appropriated or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law to pay any debt or liability of a member or beneficiary, or any other person who may have a right thereunder, either before or after payment by the society.

History.—§777, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.31.

632.281 No personal liability.—The officers and members of the supreme, grand or any subordinate body of a society shall not be personally liable for payment of any benefits provided by a society.

History.—§778, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.29.

632.291 Contract.—

(1) Every society authorized to do business in this state shall issue to each benefit member a certificate specifying the amount of benefits provided thereby. The certificate, together with any riders or endorsements attached thereto, the charter or articles of incorporation, the constitution and laws of the society, the application for membership, and declaration of insurability, if any, signed by the applicant, and all amendments to each thereof, shall constitute the agreement, as of the date of issuance, between the society and the member, and the certificate shall so state. A copy of the application for membership and of the declaration of insurability, if any, shall be endorsed upon or attached to the certificate.

(2) All statements purporting to be made by the member shall be representations and not warranties. Any waiver of this provision shall be void.

(3) Any changes, additions or amendments to the charter or articles of incorporation, constitution or laws duly made or enacted subsequent to the issuance of the certificate, shall bind the member and the beneficiaries, and shall govern and control the agreement in all respects the same as though such changes, additions or amendments had been made prior to and were in force at the time of the application for membership, except that no change, addition, or amendment shall destroy or diminish benefits which the society contracted to give the member as of the date of issuance.

(4) Copies of any of the documents mentioned in this section, certified by the secretary or corresponding officer of the society, shall be received in evidence of the terms and conditions thereof.

History.—§779, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.16.

632.301 Standard provisions.—

(1) After one year from the effective date of this chapter, no life benefit certificate shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless a copy of the form has been filed with the commissioner.

(2) The certificate shall contain in substance the following standard provisions or, in lieu thereof, provisions which are more favorable to the member:

(a) Title on the face and filing page of the certificate clearly and correctly describing its form;

(b) A provision stating the amount of rates, premiums or other required contributions, by whatever name known, which are payable by the insured under the certificate;

(c) A provision that the member is entitled to a grace period of not less than a full month (or thirty days at the option of the society) in which the payment of any premium after the first, may be made. During such grace period the certificate shall continue in full force, but in case the certificate becomes a claim during the grace period before the overdue payment is made, the amount of such overdue payment or payments may be deducted in any settlement under the certificate;

(d) A provision that the member shall be entitled to have the certificate reinstated at any time within three years from the due date of the premium in default, unless the certificate has been completely terminated through the application of a nonforfeiture benefit, cash surrender value or certificate loan, upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the society and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness to the society upon the certificate, together with interest on such premiums and such indebtedness, if any, at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded annually;

(e) Except in the case of pure endowment, annuity or reversionary annuity contracts, reducing term insurance contracts, or contracts of term insurance of uniform amount of fifteen years or less expiring before age sixty-six, a provision that, in the event of default in payment of any premium after three full years' premiums have been paid or after premiums for a lesser period have been paid if the contract so provides, the society will grant, upon proper request not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on the plan stipulated in the certificate, effective as of such due date, of such value as specified in this chapter. The certificate may provide, if the society's laws so specify or if the member shall so elect prior to the expiration of the grace period of any overdue premium, that default shall not occur so long as premiums can be paid under the provisions of an arrangement for automatic premium loan as may be set forth in the certificate;

(f) A provision that one paid-up nonforfeiture benefit as specified in the certificate shall become effective automatically unless the member elects another available paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, not later than sixty days after the due date of the premium in default;

(g) A statement of the mortality table and rate of interest used in determining all paid-up nonforfeiture benefits and cash surrender options available under the certificate, and a brief general statement of the method used in calculating such benefits;

(h) A table showing in figures the value of every paid-up nonforfeiture benefit and cash surrender option available under the certificate for each certificate anniversary either during the first twenty certificate years or during the term of the certificate whichever is shorter;

(i) A provision that the certificate shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the member for a period of two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premiums, violation of the provisions of the certificate relating to military, aviation, or naval service and violation of the provisions relating to suspension or expulsion as substantially set forth in the certificate. At the option of the society, supplemental provisions relating to benefits in the event of temporary or permanent disability or hospitalization and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means, may also be excepted. The certificate shall be incontestable on the ground of suicide after it has been in force during the lifetime of the member for a period of two years from date of issue. The certificate may provide, as to statements made to procure reinstatement, that the society shall have the right to contest a reinstated certificate within a period of two years from date of reinstatement with the same exceptions as herein provided;

(j) A provision that in case the age or sex of the member or of any other person is considered in determining the premium and it is found at any time before final settlement under the certificate that the age or sex has been misstated, and the discrepancy and premium involved have not been adjusted, the amount payable shall be such as the premium would have purchased according to the correct age or sex; but if the correct age or sex was not insurable under the society's charter or laws, only the premiums paid to the society, less any payments previously made to the member, shall be returned or, at the option of the society, the amount payable under the certificate shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age according to the society's promulgated rates and any extension thereof based on actuarial principles;

(k) A provision or provisions which recite fully, or which set forth the substance of, all sections of the charter, constitution, laws, rules or regulations of the society, in force at the time of issuance of the certificate, the violation of which will result in the termination of, or in the reduction of, the benefit or benefits payable under the certificate;

(l) If the constitution or laws of the society provide for expulsion or suspension of a member, any member so expelled or suspended, except for nonpayment of a premium or within the contestable period for material misrepresentations in such member's application for membership shall have the privilege of maintaining his insurance in force by continuing payment of the required premium; and

(m) Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance or because the certificate is an annuity certificate may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the certificate.

History.—§780, ch. 59-205.

632.311 Prohibited provisions.—After one year from the effective date of this chapter, no life benefit certificate shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state containing in substance any of the following provisions:

(1) Any provision limiting the time within which any action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than two years after the cause of action accrues;

(2) Any provision by which the certificate purports to be issued or to take effect more than six months before the original application for the certificate was made, except in case of transfer from one form of certificate to another in connection with which the member is to receive credit for any reserve accumulation under the form of certificate from which the transfer is made; or

(3) Any provision for forfeiture of the certificate for failure to repay any loan thereon or to pay interest on such loan while the total indebtedness, including interest, is less than the loan value of the certificate.

History.—§781, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.45.

632.321 Premiums defined.—As used in this chapter "premiums" means premiums, rates, or other required contributions by whatever name known.

History.—§782, ch. 59-205.

632.331 Accident and health insurance and total and permanent disability insurance certificates; filing and approval.—

(1) No domestic, foreign or alien society authorized to do business in this state shall issue or deliver in this state any certificate or other evidence of any contract of accident insurance or health insurance or of any total and permanent disability insurance contract unless and until the form thereof, together with the form of application and all riders or endorsements for use in connection therewith, shall have been filed with the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner shall have power, from time to time, to make, alter and supersede reasonable regulations prescribing the required, optional and prohibited provisions in such contracts, and such regulations shall conform, as far as practicable, to the provisions of part VI of chapter 627 (disability insurance policies). Where the commissioner deems inapplicable, either in part or in their entirety, the provisions of said part VI, he may prescribe the portions or summary thereof of the contract to be printed on the certificate issued to the member.

(3) Any filing made hereunder shall be deemed approved unless disapproved within sixty days from the date of such filing.

History.—§783, ch. 59-205.

632.341 Reinsurance.—A domestic society may, by a reinsurance agreement, cede any individual risk or risks in whole or in part to an insurer (other than another fraternal benefit society) having the power to make such reinsurance and authorized to do business in this state, or if not so authorized, one which is approved by the commissioner; but no such society may reinsure substantially all of its insurance in force without the written permission of the commissioner. It may take credit for the reserves on such ceded risks to the extent reinsured, but no credit shall be allowed as an admitted asset or as a deduction from liability, to a ceding society for reinsurance made, ceded, renewed, or otherwise becoming effective after the effective date of this chapter, unless the reinsurance is payable by the assuming insurer on the basis of the liability of the ceding society under the contract or contracts reinsured without diminution because of the insolvency of the ceding society.

History.—§784, ch. 59-205.

632.351 Funds.—

(1) All assets shall be held, invested and disbursed for the use and benefit of the society and no member or beneficiary shall have or acquire individual rights therein or become entitled to any apportionment or the surrender of any part thereof, except as provided in the contract.

(2) A society may create, maintain, invest, disburse and apply any special fund or funds necessary to carry out any purpose permitted by the laws of such society.

(3) Every society, the admitted assets of which are less than the sum of its accrued liabilities and reserves under all of its certificates when valued according to standards required for certificates issued after one year from the effective date of this chapter, shall, in every provision of the laws of the society for payments by members of such society, in whatever form made, distinctly state the purpose of the same and the proportion thereof which may be used for expenses, and no part of the money collected for mortuary or disability purposes or the net accretions thereto shall be used for expenses.

History.—§785, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.17, 637.20, 637.36, 637.41, 637.48.

632.361 Investments.—A society shall invest its funds only in such investments as are authorized by the laws of this state for the investment of assets of life insurers and subject to the limitations thereon. Any foreign or alien society permitted or seeking to do business in this state which invests its funds in accordance with the laws of the state, district, territory, country or province in which it is incorporated, shall be held to meet the requirements of this section for the investment of funds.

History.—§786, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.19.

632.371 Annual statement.—Reports shall be filed and synopses of annual statements shall be published in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(1) Every society transacting business in this state shall annually, on or before the first day of March, unless for cause shown such time has been extended by the commissioner, file with the commissioner a true statement of its financial condition, transactions and affairs for the preceding calendar year and pay a fee of ten dollars for filing same, as provided in §624.0300(4). The statement shall be in the general form and context as approved by the national association of insurance commissioners for fraternal benefit societies and as supplemented by additional information required by the commissioner.

(2) A synopsis of its annual statement providing an explanation of the facts concerning the condition of the society thereby disclosed shall be printed and mailed to each benefit member of the society not later than June 1 of each year, or, in lieu thereof, such synopsis may be published in the society's official publication.

(3) The commissioner shall deposit all fees received by him under this section to the credit of the miscellaneous service fund provided for in §624.0324 of this code.

History.—§787, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.33, 637.37.

632.381 Annual valuation of certificates.—

(1) As a part of the annual statement required under §632.371, each society shall, on or before March 1, file with the commissioner a valuation of its certificates in force on December 31 last preceding provided, the commissioner may, in his discretion for cause shown, extend the time for filing such valuation for not more than two calendar months. Such report of valuation shall show, as reserve liabilities, the difference between the present midyear value of the promised benefits provided in the certificates of such society in force and the present midyear value of the future net premiums as the same are in practice actually collected, not including therein any value for the right to make extra assessments and not including any amount by which the present midyear value of future net premiums exceeds the present midyear value of promised benefits on individual certificates. At the option of any society, in lieu of the above, the valuation may show the net tabular value. Such net tabular value as to certificates issued prior to one year after the effective date of this chapter shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of law applicable prior to the effective date of this chapter and as to certificates issued on or after one year from the effective date of this chapter shall not be less than the reserves determined according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method as hereafter defined. If the premium charged is less than the tabular net premium according to the basis of valuation used, an additional reserve equal to the present value of the deficiency in such premiums shall be set up and maintained as a liability. The reserve liabilities shall be properly adjusted in the event that the midyear or tabular values are not appropriate.

(2) Reserves according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method, for life insurance and endowment benefits of certificates providing for a uniform amount of insurance and requiring the payment of uniform premiums shall be the excess, if any, of the present value, at the date of valuation, of such future guaranteed benefits provided for by such certificates, over the then present value of any future modified net premiums therefor. The modified net premiums for any such certificate shall be such uniform percentage of the respective contract premiums for such benefits that the present value, at the date of issue of the certificate, of all such modified net premiums shall be equal to the sum of the then present value of such benefits provided for by the certificate and the excess of (a) over (b), as follows:

(a) A net level premium equal to the present value, at the date of issue, of such benefits provided for after the first certificate year, divided by the present value, at the date of issue, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the first and each subsequent anniversary of such certificate on which a premium falls due; provided however, that such net level annual premium shall not exceed the net level annual premium on the nineteen-year premium whole life plan for insurance of the same amount at an age one year higher than the age at issue of such certificate; and

(b) A net one-year term premium for such benefits provided for in the first certificate year.

(3) Reserves according to the commissioners' reserve valuation method for

(a) Life insurance benefits for varying amounts of benefits or requiring the payment of varying premiums,

(b) Annuity and pure endowment benefits,

(c) Disability and accidental death benefits in all certificates and contracts, and

(d) All other benefits except life insurance and endowment benefits, shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of subsection (2) above.

(4) The present value of deferred payments due under incurred claims or matured certificates shall be deemed a liability of the society and shall be computed upon mortality and interest standards prescribed in the following subsection.

(5) Such valuation and underlying data shall be certified by a competent actuary or, at the expense of the society, verified by the actuary of the department of insurance of the state of domicile of the society.

(6) The minimum standards of valuation for certificates issued prior to one year from the effective date of this chapter shall be those provided by the law applicable immediately prior to the effective date of this chapter but not lower than the standards used in the calculating of rates for such certificates.

(7) The minimum standard of valuation for certificates issued after one year from the effective date of this chapter shall be three and one-half per cent interest and the following tables:

(a) For certificates of life insurance—American men ultimate table of mortality, with Bowerman's or Davis' extension thereof or with the consent of the commissioner, the commissioners' 1941 standard ordinary mortality table or the commissioners' 1941 standard industrial table of mortality;

(b) For annuity certificates, including life annuities provided or available under optional modes of settlement in such certificates—the 1937 standard annuity table;

(c) For disability benefits issued in connection with life benefit certificates—Hunter's disability table, which, for active lives, shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves on life insurance certificates, except that the table known as class III disability table (1926) modified to conform to the contractual waiting period, shall be used in computing reserves for disability benefits under a contract which presumes that total disability shall be considered to be permanent after a specified period;

(d) For accidental death benefits issued in connection with life benefit certificates—the intercompany double indemnity mortality table combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance certificates; and

(e) For noncancellable accident and health benefits—the class III disability table (1926) with conference modifications or, with the consent of the commissioner tables based upon the society's own experience.

(8) The commissioner may, in his discretion, accept other standards for valuation if he finds that the reserves produced thereby will not be less in the aggregate than reserves computed in accordance with the minimum valuation standard herein prescribed. The commissioner may, in his discretion, vary the standards of mortality applicable to all certificates of insurance on substandard lives or other extra hazardous lives by any society authorized to do business in this state. Whenever the mortality experience under all certificates valued on the same mortality table is in excess of the expected mortality according to such table for a period of three consecutive years, the commissioner may require additional reserves when deemed necessary in his judgment on account of such certificates.

(9) Any society, with the consent of the insurance supervisory official of the state of domicile of the society and under such conditions, if any, which he may impose, may establish and maintain reserves on its certificates in excess of the reserves required thereunder, but the contractual rights of any insured member shall not be affected thereby.

History.—§788, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.17, 637.18, 637.34, 637.35.

632.391 Annual statement; penalty for failure to file or to comply.—A society neglecting to file the annual statement in the form and within the time provided by this section shall forfeit $100 for each day during which such neglect continues, and, upon notice by the commissioner to that effect, its authority to do business in this state shall cease while such default continues. The commissioner shall deposit all sums collected by him under this section to the credit of the enforcement fund provided for in §624.0321.

History.—§789, ch. 59-205.

632.401 Examination of domestic societies.—

(1) The commissioner, or any person he may appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any domestic society and he shall make such examination at least once in every three years. He may employ assistants for the purpose of such examination, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society.

(2) In making any such examination the commissioner may summon and qualify as witnesses under oath and examine its officers, agents and employees or other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and condition of the society.

(3) A summary of the report of the commissioner and such recommendations or statements of the commissioner as may accompany such report, shall be read at the first meeting of the board of directors or corresponding body of the society following the receipt thereof, and if directed so to do by the commissioner, shall also be read at the first meeting of the supreme legislative or governing body of the society following the receipt thereof. A copy of the report, recommendations and statements of the commissioner shall be furnished by the society to each member of such board of directors or other governing body.

(4) The expense of each examination and of each valuation, including compensation and actual expense of examiners, shall be paid by the society examined or whose certificates are valued, upon statements furnished by the commissioner.

History.—§790, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.52, 637.53.

632.411 Examination of foreign and alien societies.—The commissioner, or any person whom he may appoint, may examine any foreign or alien society transacting or applying for admission to transact business in this state. He may employ assistants and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society. He may in his discretion accept, in lieu of such examination, the examination of the insurance department of the state, territory, district, province or country where such society is organized. The compensation and actual expenses of the examiners making any examination or general or special valuation shall be paid by the society examined or by the society whose certificate obligations have been valued, upon statements furnished by the commissioner.

History.—§791, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.56.

632.421 No adverse publications.—Pending, during or after an examination or investigation of a society, either domestic, foreign or alien, the commissioner shall make public no financial statement, report or finding, nor shall he permit to become public any financial statement, report or finding affecting the status, standing or rights of any society, until a copy thereof shall have been served upon the society at its principal office and the society shall have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to answer any such financial statement, report or finding and to make such showing in connection therewith as it may desire.

History.—§792, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.57.

632.431 Taxation.—Every society organized or licensed under this chapter is hereby declared to be a charitable and benevolent institution, and all of its funds shall be exempt from all and every state, county, district, municipal and school tax other than taxes on real estate and office equipment, and other than the fees and licenses provided for in this chapter and the annual license tax provided for in §624.0300.

History.—§793, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.60.

632.441 Licensing of agents.—

(1) Agents of societies shall be licensed as for life insurance agents in accordance with the applicable provisions of part I of chapter 626 (licensing procedures law). All sums collected by the commissioner for or in connection with such licensing shall be deposited by him in or to the credit of the same funds provided for in part IV of chapter 624, as apply in the case of similar sums collected by him under part I of chapter 626 for or in connection with the licensing of life insurance agents.

(2) The term "agent" as used in this section means any authorized or acknowledged agent of a society who acts as such in the solicitation, negotiation or procurement or making of a life insurance, accident and health insurance or annuity contract; except that the term "agent" shall not include:

(a) Any regular salaried officer or employee of a licensed society who devotes substantially all of his services to activities other than the solicitation of fraternal insurance contracts from the public, and who receives for the solicitation of such contracts no commission or other compensation directly dependent upon the amount of business obtained; or

(b) Any agent or representative of a society who devotes, or intends to devote, less than fifty per cent of his time to the solicitation and procurement of insurance contracts for such society. Any person who in the preceding calendar year has solicited and procured life insurance contracts on behalf of any society in an amount of insurance in excess of fifty thousand dollars or, in the case of any other kind or kinds of insurance which the society might write, on the persons of more than twenty-five individuals and who has received or will receive a commission or other compensation therefor, shall be presumed to be devoting, or intending to devote, fifty per cent of his time to the solicitation or procurement of insurance contracts for such society.

(3) A fraternal benefit society shall be deemed to be an "insurer" within the intent of such part I of chapter 626 and for the purposes of this section.

History.—§794, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.66.

632.442 Registration.—Every society shall on forms prescribed by the insurance commissioner register on or before March 1 of each year the names of and residence address of each agent or representative who devotes or intends to devote less than fifty per cent of his time to the solicitation and procurement of insurance contracts for such society, as provided in §632.441(2)(b), and shall within thirty days of termination of employment notify the insurance commissioner of such termination. Any such agent employed subsequent to March 1 filing shall be registered with the insurance commissioner within ten days of such employment.

History.—§1, ch. 63-85.

632.451 Agent license required.—

(1) Any person who in this state acts as insurance agent for a society without having authority so to do by virtue of a license issued and in force pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall, except as provided in §632.441(2), be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) No society doing business in this state shall pay any commission or other compensation to any person for any services in obtaining in this state any new contract of life, accident or health insurance, or any new annuity contract, except to a licensed insurance agent of such society and except an agent exempted under §632.441(2).

History.—§795, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.66.

632.461 Agent's qualifications.—The commissioner shall not issue or permit to exist a license as agent of a fraternal benefit society as to an individual not qualified therefor as follows:

(1) Must be a resident of and in this state;
(2) Must be trustworthy;
(3) Must be competent to act as an agent of such a society; and

(4) Must take and successfully pass any written examination required as a prerequisite to such licensing under §632.471 and part I of chapter 626.

History.—§796, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.66.

632.471 Examination for agent's license.—

(1) Any examination for a fraternal agent's license shall include questions relative only to fraternal insurance, the types of certificates, policies, or contracts in general proposed to be solicited under the license, and the laws of this state which relate to the activities of the proposed licensee as a fraternal insurance agent.

(2) No such examination for license shall be required as to any fraternal insurance agent who was duly licensed as such in this state immediately prior to the effective date of this code, and under laws then in force.

History.—§797, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.66.

632.481 Misrepresentation.—No person shall cause or permit to be made, issued or circulated in any form:

(1) Any misrepresentation or false or misleading statement concerning the terms, benefits or advantages of any fraternal insurance contract now issued or to be issued in this state, or the financial condition of any society;

(2) Any false or misleading estimate or statement concerning the dividends or shares of surplus paid or to be paid by any society on any insurance contract; or

(3) Any incomplete comparison of an insurance contract of one society with an insurance contract of another society or insurer for the purpose of inducing the lapse, forfeiture or surrender of any insurance contract. A comparison of insurance contracts is incomplete if it does not compare in detail:

(a) The gross rates, and the gross rates less any dividend or other reduction allowed at the date of the comparison; and

(b) Any increase in cash values, and all the benefits provided by each contract for the possible duration thereof as determined by the life expectancy of the insured;

or if it omits from consideration:

(c) Any benefit or value provided in the contract;

(d) Any differences as to amount or period of rates; or

(e) Any differences in limitations or conditions or provisions which directly or indirectly affect the benefits.

In any determination of the incompleteness or misleading character of any comparison or statement, it shall be presumed that the insured had no knowledge of any of the contents of the contract involved.

(4) Any person who violates any provision of this section or knowingly receives any compensation or commission by or in consequence of such violation, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days, or both fine and imprisonment and shall in addition, be liable for a civil penalty in the amount of 3 times the sum received by such violator as compensation or commission, which penalty may be sued for and recovered by any person or society aggrieved for his or its own use and benefit in accordance with the provisions of civil practice.

History.—§798, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.66.

632.491 Discrimination and rebates.—

(1) No society doing business in this state shall make or permit any unfair discrimination between insured members of the same class and equal expectation of life in the premiums charged for certificates of insurance, in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon or in any other of the terms and conditions of the contracts it makes.

(2) No society, by itself, or any other party, and no agent or solicitor, personally, or by any other party, shall offer, promise, allow, give, set off, or pay, directly or indirectly, any valuable consideration or inducement to, or for insurance, on any risk authorized to be taken by such society, which is not specified in the certificate. No member shall receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any rebate of premium, or part thereof, or agent's or solicitor's commission thereon, payable on any certificate or receive or accept any favor or advantage or share in the dividends or other benefits to accrue on, or any valuable consideration or inducement not specified in the contract of insurance.

History.—§799, ch. 59-205.

632.501 Service of process.—

(1) Every society authorized to do business in this state shall appoint in writing the commissioner and each successor in office to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom all lawful process in any action or proceeding against it shall be served, and shall agree in such writing that any lawful process against it which is served on said attorney shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the society, and that the authority shall continue in force so long as any liability remains outstanding in this state. Copies of such appointment, certified by the commissioner, shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof and shall be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as the original thereof might be admitted.

(2) Service shall only be made upon the commissioner, or if absent, upon the person in charge of his office. It shall be made in duplicate and shall constitute sufficient service upon the society. When legal process against a society is served upon the commissioner, he shall forthwith forward one of the duplicate copies by registered mail, prepaid, directed to the secretary or corresponding officer. No such service shall require a society to file its answer, pleading or defense in less than thirty days from the date of mailing the copy of the service to a society. Legal process shall not be served upon a society except in the manner herein provided.

History.—§800, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.27.

632.511 Consolidations and mergers.—

(1) A domestic society may consolidate or merge with any other society by complying with the provisions of this section. It shall file with the commissioner:

(a) A certified copy of the written contract containing in full the terms and conditions of the consolidation or merger;

(b) A sworn statement by the president and secretary or corresponding officers of each society showing the financial condition thereof on a date fixed by the commissioner but not earlier than December 31, next preceding the date of the contract;

(c) A certificate of such officers, duly verified by their respective oaths, that the consolidation or merger has been approved by a two-thirds vote of the supreme legislative or governing body of each society; and

(d) Evidence that at least sixty days prior to the action of the supreme legislative or governing body of each society, the text of the contract has been furnished to all members of each society either by mail or by publication in full in the official organ of each society.

(2) The affidavit of any officer of the society or of anyone authorized by it to mail any notice or document, stating that such notice or document has been duly addressed and mailed, shall be prima facie evidence that such notice or document has been furnished the addressees.

(3) If the commissioner finds that the contract is in conformity with the provisions of this section, that the financial statements are correct and that the consolidation or merger is just and equitable to the members of each society, he shall approve the contract and issue his certificate to such effect. Upon such approval, the contract shall be in full force and effect unless any society which is a party to the contract is incorporated under the laws of any other state. In such event the consolidation or merger shall not become effective unless and until it has been approved as provided by the laws of such state and a certificate of such approval filed with the commissioner or, if the laws of such state contain no such provision, then the consolidation or merger shall not become effective unless and until it has been approved by the insurance supervisory official of such state and a certificate of such approval filed with the commissioner.

History.—§801, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.21.

632.521 Same; effect.—Upon the consolidation or merger becoming effective as provided in §632.511, all the rights, franchises and interests of the consolidated or merged societies in and to every species of property, real, personal or mixed, and things in action thereunto belonging shall be vested in the society resulting from or remaining after the consolidation or merger without any other instrument; except that conveyances of real property may be evidenced by proper deeds, and the title to any real estate or interest therein, vested under the laws of this state in any of the societies consolidated or merged, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the consolidation or merger, but shall vest absolutely in the society resulting from or remaining after such consolidation or merger.

History.—§802, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.21.

632.531 Conversion into mutual life insurer.—Any domestic fraternal benefit society may be converted and licensed as a mutual life insurer by compliance with the applicable requirements of chapter 628, if such plan of conversion has been approved by the commissioner. Such plan shall be prepared in writing setting forth in full the terms and conditions thereof. The board of directors shall submit the plan to the supreme legislative or governing body of such society at any regular or special meeting thereof, by giving a full, true and complete copy of the plan with the notice of such meeting. The notice shall be given as provided in the laws of the society for the convocation of a regular or special meeting of such body, as the case may be. The affirmative vote of two-thirds of all members of such body shall be necessary for the approval of the agreement. No such conversion shall take effect unless and until approved by the commissioner, who may give such approval if he finds that the proposed change is in conformity with the requirements of law and not prejudicial to the certificate holders of the society.

History.—§803, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.65.

632.541 Injunction; liquidation; receivership of domestic society.—

(1) When the commissioner upon investigation finds that a domestic society:

- (a) Has exceeded its powers;
- (b) Has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter;
- (c) Is not fulfilling its contracts in good faith;
- (d) Has a membership of less than four hundred after an existence of one year or more; or

(e) Is conducting business fraudulently or in a manner hazardous to its members, creditors, the public or the business; he shall notify the society of his findings, state in writing the reasons for his dissatisfaction, and require the society to show cause on a date named why it should not be enjoined from carrying on any business until the violation complained of shall have been corrected, or why an action in quo warranto should not be commenced against the society.

(2) If on such date the society does not present good and sufficient reasons why it should not be so enjoined or why such action should not be commenced, the commissioner may present the facts relating thereto to the attorney general who shall, if he deems the circumstances warrant, commence an action to enjoin the society from transacting business or in quo warranto. The court shall thereupon notify the officers of the society of a hearing. If after a full hearing it appears that the society should be so enjoined or liquidated or a receiver appointed, the court shall enter the necessary order.

(3) No society so enjoined shall have the authority to do business until:

- (a) The commissioner finds that the violation complained of has been corrected;

(b) The costs of such action have been paid by the society if the court finds that the society was in default as charged;

(c) The court has dissolved its injunction; and

(d) The commissioner has reinstated the society's license.

(4) If the court orders the society liquidated, it shall be enjoined from carrying on any further business, whereupon the receiver of the society shall proceed at once to take possession of the books, papers, money and other assets of the society and, under the direction of the court, proceed forthwith to close the affairs of the society and to distribute its funds to those entitled thereto.

(5) No action under this section shall be recognized in any court of this state unless brought by the attorney general upon request of the commissioner. Whenever a receiver is to be appointed for a domestic society, the court shall appoint the commissioner as such receiver.

(6) The provisions of this section relating to hearing by the commissioner, action by the attorney general at the request of the commissioner, hearing by the court, injunction and receivership shall be applicable to a society which voluntarily determines to discontinue business.

History.—§804, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§637.06, 637.54.

632.551 Injunction.—No application or petition for injunction against any domestic, foreign or alien society, or branch thereof, shall be recognized in any court of this state unless made by the attorney general upon request of the commissioner.

History.—§805, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.55.

632.561 Review.—All decisions and findings of the commissioner made under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to review by the court in accordance with the provisions of §624.0128 of this code.

History.—§806, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §637.26.

632.571 Other provisions applicable.—In addition to the provisions heretofore contained or referred to in this chapter, other chapters and provisions of this code shall apply to fraternal benefit societies, to the extent applicable and not in conflict with the express provisions of this chapter and the reasonable implications thereof, as follows:

(1) Part I of chapter 624 (scope of code);

(2) Part II of chapter 624 (insurance commissioner);

(3) The following sections of part III of chapter 624 (authorization of insurers and general requirements);

(a) Section 624.0203 (management and affiliations);

(b) Section 624.0204 (name of insurer);

(4) Section 624.0300 (filing, license, and miscellaneous fees);

(5) Part I of chapter 626 (licensing procedures law);

(6) Part VII of chapter 626 (trade practices and frauds);

(7) Section 627.0123 (minor may give acquittance);

(8) Section 627.0127 (attorney's fee);

(9) Section 627.0228 (prohibited policy plans);

(10) Chapter 631 (rehabilitation and liquidation).

History.—§807, ch. 59-205.

Note.—Similar provisions found in former §§635.17, 635.23, 637.15, 637.58, 637.61, 637.62, 637.63, 637.64.

CHAPTER 633

STATE FIRE MARSHAL

- 633.01 State fire marshal; powers and duties.
- 633.02 Deputy fire marshals; powers and duties; compensation.
- 633.03 Investigation of fire; reports.
- 633.05 Regulations concerning gunpowder, explosives, crude petroleum, etc.
- 633.06 Inspection of buildings and equipment; orders concerning.
- 633.07 Review; circuit court.
- 633.08 Hearings; investigations; taking testimony, etc., by commissioner.
- 633.09 Commissioner to keep records of fires; reports of deputies.

633.01 State fire marshal; powers and duties.—The state treasurer, ex-officio insurance commissioner and hereinafter in this chapter referred to as the "insurance commissioner" shall also be designated as "state fire marshal", and shall enforce all laws and provisions of this chapter relating to:

- (1) Prevention of fires,
- (2) Storage, sale, and use of combustibles and explosives,
- (3) Installation and maintenance of private owned automatic and fire alarm systems and fire extinguishing equipment,
- (4) Construction, maintenance, and regulation of fire escapes,
- (5) The means and adequacy of exits from all buildings in event of fire, and
- (6) Suppression of arson, and the investigation of fires.

History.—§1, ch. 20671, 1941.

633.02 Deputy fire marshals; powers and duties; compensation.—The insurance commissioner shall appoint such assistants as may be necessary to carry out effectively the provisions of this chapter, said assistants to be known as and hereinafter referred to in this chapter as deputies, who shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061, in addition to their salary, when traveling or making investigations in the performance of their duties. Such deputies shall be at all times under the direction and control of the insurance commissioner, who shall fix their compensation and all orders shall be issued in his name and by his authority.

History.—§2, ch. 20671, 1941; §1, ch. 57-102; §19, ch. 63-400.

633.03 Investigation of fire; reports.—The insurance commissioner shall investigate the cause, origin, and circumstances of every fire occurring in this state wherein property has been damaged or destroyed where there is probable cause to believe that the fire was the result of carelessness or design. Report of all such investigations shall be made on approved forms to be furnished by the insurance commissioner.

History.—§3, ch. 20671, 1941.

633.05 Regulations concerning gunpowder, explosives, crude petroleum, etc.—

- (1) The insurance commissioner shall make and promulgate regulations for the keeping,

- 633.11 Fire chiefs, mayor, etc., as deputy fire marshals.
- 633.13 State fire marshal; authority of deputies.
- 633.14 State fire marshal; arrests, summonses, arms, etc.
- 633.15 State fire marshal; rules and regulations; violation.
- 633.16 Penalty for violations of law, rules and regulations.
- 633.17 State fire marshal; hearings, investigations, subpoenas, etc.

storing, use, manufacture, sale, handling, transportation or other disposition of highly flammable materials, gunpowder, explosives, carbide, crude petroleum or any of its products, and may prescribe the material or receptacles and building to be used for such purposes. The term "explosives" as used herein shall be construed to mean any mixture, compound or material capable of producing an explosion and commonly used for that purpose, and shall include but not be limited to dynamite, nitroglycerin, trinitrotoluene, blasting caps and detonators. Said regulations to be made and promulgated by the insurance commissioner shall be such as are reasonably necessary for the protection of the health, welfare and safety of the public and of persons possessing, handling and using said materials and products, and shall be in substantial conformity with generally accepted standards of safety concerning such several subject matters. In the making and promulgation of such regulations, the insurance commissioner shall give consideration to rules and standards of safety of reputable national institutes, organizations or bureaus in relation to any of said materials and products, and which rules and standards have been adopted by such organizations as result of demonstrated credible experience.

Such regulations and any addition to or amendment thereof shall be adopted, only after full public hearing, which shall be adjourned from time to time as may be necessary to permit all interested or affected parties to be heard and to file such briefs as they may desire. At least sixty days prior written notice of the commencement of such hearing shall be published twice in one newspaper of general circulation which has been designated for such purpose by the insurance commissioner. Such notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the hearing and shall set forth in full the code, rule, or regulation to be considered or shall state where and how such full text may be obtained. A copy of such notice shall be sent at the same time to every person, firm, or corporation who shall have registered with the insurance commissioner a request to be so notified, together with the name and address to which such notice or notices shall be sent.

Such regulations or any amendment thereof shall become effective sixty days after they are adopted and filed with the secretary of state and after notice of such filing has been published and distributed in the same manner as required herein for notice of hearings.

(2) The provisions of this section are cumulative and shall not be construed as repealing or affecting any other law of this state particularly relating to the regulation of any of the materials or products described herein.

History.—§5, ch. 20671, 1941; §§1, 2, ch. 29711, 1955.

633.06 Inspection of buildings and equipment; orders concerning.—The insurance commissioner and his deputies shall, when they deem it necessary, inspect at any reasonable hour any and all buildings on premises within their jurisdiction and, if it be found that any building or structure shall for want of repairs, lack of sufficient fire escapes, alarm apparatus, fire extinguishing equipment, dilapidated condition or from any other cause be especially liable to fire, and which is situated so as to endanger life or property or whenever the insurance commissioner or his deputies shall find in any building combustible or explosive matter, or inflammable conditions dangerous to the safety of such building or to property and life, he or they may order the same removed or remedied within a reasonable length of time.

History.—§6, ch. 20671, 1941.

633.07 Review; circuit court.—Any such owner or occupant within five days from date of such order, shall be entitled to validity of the order by suit for declaration decree in the circuit court of the county in which the property is located, but such proceedings shall not operate as a supersedeas save and except for a period of fifteen days from the entry thereof, after which time the said order shall remain in full force and effect and shall be complied with unless the time be extended by order of the circuit court.

History.—§6, ch. 20671, 1941; §26, ch. 63-512.

633.08 Hearings; investigations; taking testimony, etc., by commissioner.—

(1) The insurance commissioner may in his discretion take or cause to be taken the testimony on oath of all persons whom he believes to be cognizant of any facts in relation to matters under investigation.

(2) If he shall be of the opinion that there is sufficient evidence to charge any person with an offense, he shall cause the arrest of such person and shall furnish to the prosecuting officer of any court having jurisdiction of said offense all information obtained by him, including a copy of all pertinent and material testimony taken, together with the names and addresses of all witnesses. In the conduct of such investigations, the insurance commissioner may request such assistance as may reasonably be given by such prosecuting officers and other local officials.

(3) He may summon and compel the attendance of witnesses before him to testify in relation to any matter which is, by the provisions of this chapter, a subject of inquiry and investigation, and he may require the production of any book, paper or document deemed pertinent thereto by him, and may seize furniture and other personal property, to be held for evidence.

(4) All persons so summoned and so testifying shall be entitled to the same witness fees and mileage as provided for witnesses testifying in the circuit courts of this state, and officers serving subpoenas or orders of the insurance commissioner shall be paid in like manner for like services in such courts, from the funds herein provided.

History.—§7, ch. 20671, 1941.

633.09 Commissioner to keep records of fires; reports of deputies.—The insurance commissioner shall keep in his office a record of all fires occurring in this state upon which he had caused an investigation to be made and all facts concerning the same, such as the damage caused thereby, whether such losses were covered by insurance, and to what amount. Such records shall be made daily from the reports furnished him by his deputies, or others.

History.—§8, ch. 20671, 1941.

633.11 Fire chiefs, mayor, etc., as deputy fire marshals.—Chiefs of fire departments (and mayors of municipalities having no organized fire departments) shall be ex-officio deputy fire marshals and shall make similar reports on forms to be furnished by the insurance commissioner.

History.—§9, ch. 20671, 1941.

633.13 State fire marshal; authority of deputies.—The authority given the state fire marshal under this law may be exercised by him or his deputies, either individually or in conjunction with any other state or local official charged with similar responsibilities.

History.—§1, ch. 21847, 1943.

633.14 State fire marshal; arrests, summonses, arms, etc.—The state fire marshal and his deputies shall have the same authority to serve summonses, make arrests, carry firearms and make searches and seizures, as the sheriff or his deputies, in the respective counties where such investigations, hearings or inspections may be held; and affidavits necessary to authorize any such arrests, searches or seizures may be made before any magistrate having authority under the law to issue appropriate processes.

History.—§1, ch. 21847, 1943.

633.15 State fire marshal; rules and regulations; violation.—This law, and all regulations prescribed by the state fire marshal hereunder, shall have the same force and effect in each and every incorporated town or city, as the ordinances of such respective municipalities, and shall be enforceable in the municipal courts in the same manner as such ordinances.

History.—§1, ch. 21847, 1943.

633.16 Penalty for violations of law, rules and regulations.—The violation of any provision of this law or any order or regulation of the state fire marshal issued hereunder, shall constitute a misdemeanor under the laws of Florida or of the municipality in which the offense may be committed, and shall be punishable as such by any state, county or municipal court having jurisdiction to try misdemeanors or other offenses under state or municipal laws or ordinances.

History.—§1, ch. 21847, 1943.

633.17 State fire marshal; hearings, investigations, subpoenas, etc.—The state fire marshal, or any deputy or employee designated by him for such purposes, may hold hearings, sign and issue subpoenas, administer oaths, examine witnesses, receive evidence, and require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such accounts, records, memoranda or other evidence, as may be material for the determination of any complaint or conducting any inquiry or investigation under this law. In case of disobedience to a subpoena the state fire marshal, or any of his deputies or employees, may invoke the aid of any court of competent jurisdiction in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of accounts, records, memoranda or other evidence, and any such court may in case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, issue an order requiring the person to appear before the state fire marshal, or his deputy or employee, or produce accounts, records, memoranda or other evidence, as so ordered, or to give evidence touching any matter pertinent to any complaint or the subject of any inquiry or investigation, and any failure to obey such order of the court shall be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 21847, 1943.

CHAPTER 634

AUTOMOBILE INSPECTION AND WARRANTY ASSOCIATIONS

- 634.011 Definitions.
- 634.021 Powers of commissioner; rules.
- 634.031 License required.
- 634.041 Qualifications for license.
- 634.052 Required deposit or bond.
- 634.061 Application for and issuance of license.
- 634.071 License expiration, renewal.
- 634.081 Suspension, revocation of license for violations and special grounds.
- 634.091 Procedure to suspend or revoke license.
- 634.101 Order, notice of suspension or revocation of license; effect; publication.
- 634.111 Duration of suspension; association's obligations during suspension period; reinstatement.
- 634.121 Filing, approval of forms, rate filings.
- 634.131 Tax on premiums and assessments.
- 634.141 Examination of associations.

634.011 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Automobile inspection and warranty association" or "association" means any corporation or any other organization (other than an authorized insurer) issuing automobile warranties as herein defined.

(2) "Insurer" means any property or casualty insurer duly authorized to transact such business in this state.

(3) "Automobile warranty" or "warranty" means any contract or agreement indemnifying the warranty holder against loss caused by wear, tear, or failure of any mechanical or other component part of the automobile due to the defect in material or workmanship arising out of the ownership, operation, and use of such automobile; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall prohibit or affect the giving of usual performance guarantees by manufacturers or dealers in connection with the sale of automobiles.

(4) "Salesman" means any person employed or otherwise retained by an insurer or an automobile inspection and warranty association for the purpose of selling or issuing automobile warranties.

(5) "Rate" means the unit charge by which the measure of exposure in a warranty is multiplied to determine the premium.

(6) "Premium" means the consideration paid, or to be paid, to an insurer, or automobile inspection and warranty association for the issuance and delivery of any binder or warranty.

(7) "Commissioner" means the duly elected and qualified state treasurer and ex officio insurance commissioner of this state.

History.—§1, ch. 59-110.

634.021 Powers of commissioner; rules.—The commissioner shall administer this act and to that end he may adopt, promulgate and en-

634.151 Service of process; appointment of commissioner as process agent.

634.161 Serving process.

634.171 Salesman to be registered.

634.181 Grounds for compulsory refusal, suspension, or revocation of registration of salesmen.

634.191 Grounds for discretionary refusal, suspension, revocation of registration of salesmen.

634.201 Procedure for refusal, suspension, or revocation of registration of salesmen.

634.211 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension or revocation of registration.

634.221 Automobile warranty administration trust fund.

634.231 Insurance business not authorized.

634.241 Fronting not permitted.

634.251 Penalty for violation.

force rules and regulations necessary and proper to effectuate any provisions of this act.

History.—§2, ch. 59-110.

634.031 License required.—

(1) No automobile inspection and warranty association shall transact, attempt to transact, or in any manner hold itself out as transacting such business in this state unless it is authorized therefor under a subsisting license issued to it by the commissioner. The association shall pay to the commissioner a license tax of one hundred dollars for such license, for each license year or part thereof the license is in force.

(2) An insurer while authorized to transact property or casualty insurance in this state may transact also an automobile inspection and warranty business without additional qualifications or authority, but otherwise subject to the applicable provisions of this act.

History.—§3, ch. 59-110.

634.041 Qualifications for license.—The commissioner shall not issue a license to any such association unless the association is qualified therefor as follows:

(1) Is a solvent corporation formed under the laws of Florida or of another state, district, territory or possession of the United States.

(2) Furnishes the commissioner with evidence satisfactory to him that the management of the association is competent and trustworthy, and can successfully manage its affairs in compliance with law.

(3) Proposes to use and uses in its business a name, together with trade mark or emblem, if any, which is distinctive and not so similar to the name of any other association, corporation, or organization already doing business in this state as likely to mislead or confuse the public.

(4) Makes the deposit or files the bond required under §634.052.

(5) Is otherwise in compliance with this act.

History.—§4, ch. 59-110.

634.052 Required deposit or bond.—

(1) To assure the faithful performance of its obligations to its members or subscribers every automobile inspection and warranty association shall, prior to issuance of its license by the commissioner, deposit with the commissioner securities of the type eligible for deposit by insurers under §625.0202 of the insurance code, and having at all times a market value of not less than fifty thousand dollars; except, that any such association doing such a business in this state on or before April 1, 1959, shall on or before October 1, 1959, so deposit such securities in the value of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and on or before October 1, 1961, so deposit additional such securities having a value of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars, in order to bring its total deposit of securities to a value of not less than fifty thousand dollars not later than October 1, 1961.

(2) In lieu of any deposit of securities required under subsection (1), the association may file with the commissioner a surety bond in like amount. The bond shall be one issued by an authorized surety insurer, shall be for the same purpose as the deposit in lieu of which it is filed, and shall be subject to the commissioner's approval. No such bond shall be cancelled or subject to cancellation unless at least thirty days' advance notice thereof in writing is filed with the commissioner.

(3) The state shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all securities deposited with the commissioner under this act. Such securities shall not, on account of being in this state, be subject to taxation, but shall be held exclusively and solely to guarantee the association's faithful performance of its obligations to its members or subscribers.

(4) The depositing association shall, during its solvency, have the right to exchange or substitute other securities of like quality and value for securities so on deposit, to receive the interest and other income accruing on such securities, and to inspect the deposit at all reasonable times.

(5) Such deposit or bond shall be maintained unimpaired as long as the association continues in business in this state. Whenever the association ceases to do business in this state and furnishes to the commissioner proof satisfactory to him that it has discharged or otherwise adequately provided for all its obligations to its members or subscribers in this state, the commissioner shall release the deposited securities to the parties entitled thereto, on presentation of the commissioner's receipts for such securities, or release any bond filed with him in lieu of such deposit.

History.—§5, ch. 59-110.

634.061 Application for and issuance of license.—

(1) Application for license as an automobile inspection and warranty association shall be made to and filed with the commissioner on printed forms as prescribed and furnished by him.

(2) In addition to information relative to its qualifications as called for under §634.041, the application shall show:

(a) Location of applicant's home office.

(b) Name and residence address of each director or officer of applicant.

(c) Other pertinent information as required by the commissioner.

(3) The application when filed shall be accompanied by:

(a) A copy of the applicant's articles of incorporation, certified by the public official having custody of the original and a copy of its by-laws certified by its secretary.

(b) A copy of the most recent financial statement of applicant, verified under the oath of at least two of its principal officers.

(c) License fee in the amount of one hundred dollars, as required under §634.031.

(4) Upon completion of the application for license the commissioner shall examine the same and make such further investigation of applicant as he deems advisable. If he finds that the applicant is qualified therefor under this act, he shall issue to the applicant a license as an automobile inspection and warranty association. If the commissioner does not so find, he shall refuse to issue the license and shall give the applicant written notice of such refusal, setting forth the grounds therefor. Any such notice of refusal shall be accompanied by refund of the annual license fee theretofore tendered in connection with the application. The commissioner shall act upon any such application within a reasonable period of time after its completion.

History.—§6, ch. 59-110.

634.071 License expiration, renewal.—Each license as an automobile inspection and warranty association issued under this act shall expire on the September 30 next following date of issuance. If the association is then qualified therefor under this act, its license may be renewed annually upon its request therefor and payment to the commissioner of license tax in the amount of one hundred dollars in advance for each such license year.

History.—§7, ch. 59-110.

634.081 Suspension, revocation of license for violations and special grounds.—

(1) The commissioner may, in his discretion, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew the license of any automobile inspection and warranty association if he finds that the association has violated any lawful order of the commissioner or any provision of this act.

(2) The commissioner shall suspend or revoke an automobile inspection and warranty association's license if he finds that such association:

(a) Is in unsound condition, or in such condition, or using such methods and practices in the conduct of its business, as to render its further transaction of warranties in this state hazardous or injurious to its warranty holders or to the public.

(b) Has refused to be examined or to produce its accounts, records and files for examination, or if any of its officers have refused to give information with respect to its affairs or to perform any other legal obligation as to such examination, when required by the commissioner.

(c) Has failed to pay any final judgment rendered against it in this state within ninety days after the judgment became final.

(d) With such frequency as to indicate its general business practice in this state, has without just cause refused to pay proper claims arising under its warranties, or without just cause compels warranty holders to accept less than the amount due them or to employ attorneys or to bring suit against the association to secure full payment or settlement of such claims.

(e) Is affiliated with and under the same general management or interlocking directorate or ownership as another automobile inspection and warranty association which transacts direct warranties in this state without having a license therefor.

(3) The commissioner may, in his discretion and without advance notice or hearing thereon, immediately suspend the license of any automobile inspection and warranty association as to which proceedings for receivership, conservatorship, rehabilitation, or other delinquency proceedings, have been commenced in any state.

(4) Violation of this act by an insurer shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of the insurer's certificate of authority in this state, in accordance with procedures and conditions provided for in part III of chapter 624 of the insurance code.

History.—§8, ch. 59-110.

634.091 Procedure to suspend or revoke license.—

(1) Except where hearing is expressly not required under §634.081, no order of the commissioner suspending or revoking an association's license shall be effective unless made after a hearing of which notice and order directing the association to show cause thereat why its license should not be so suspended or revoked was mailed to the association by registered or certified mail addressed to its home office or principal place of business in the United States not less than thirty days in advance.

(2) The notice shall contain, in addition to a statement of the time and place of the hearing and the order to show cause, a concise statement of the particulars of the grounds for such proposed suspension or revocation in such details as reasonably to inform the association thereof.

(3) Except, that the association may in writing filed with the commissioner within the thirty days' period waive the hearing, and in which case the commissioner may forthwith issue his order of suspension or revocation of the license.

History.—§9, ch. 59-110.

634.101 Order, notice of suspension or revocation of license; effect; publication.—

(1) Suspension or revocation of an association's license shall be by the commissioner's order mailed to the association by registered or certified mail. The commissioner shall promptly also give notice of such suspension or revocation to the association's salesmen in this state of record in the commissioner's office. The association shall not solicit or write any new warranties in this state during the period of any such suspension or revocation, nor after such revocation renew any business previously written.

(2) In his discretion the commissioner may cause notice of any such revocation to be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in this state.

History.—§10, ch. 59-110.

634.111 Duration of suspension; association's obligations during suspension period; reinstatement.—

(1) Suspension of an association's license shall be for such period not to exceed one year, as is fixed by the commissioner in the order of suspension, unless the commissioner shortens or rescinds such suspension or the order upon which the suspension is based is modified, rescinded or reversed.

(2) During the period of suspension the association shall file its annual statement, pay fees, licenses and taxes as required under this chapter as if the license had continued in full force.

(3) Upon expiration of the suspension period (if within such period the license has not otherwise terminated) the association's license shall automatically reinstate unless the commissioner finds that the causes of the suspension have not been removed, or that the association is otherwise not in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and of which the commissioner shall give the association notice not less than thirty days in advance of the expiration of the suspension period. If not so automatically reinstated the license shall be deemed to have expired as of the end of the suspension period or upon failure of the association to continue the license during the suspension period, whichever event first occurs.

(4) Upon reinstatement of the association license, or reinstatement of the certificate of authority of an insurer following suspension, the authority of its salesmen in this state to represent the association or insurer shall likewise reinstate. The commissioner shall promptly notify the association or insurer and its salesmen in this state of record in his office of such reinstatement.

History.—§11, ch. 59-110.

634.121 Filing, approval of forms, rate filings.—

(1) No warranty form nor related form shall be issued or used in this state unless it has been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of issuance or use. At the expiration of thirty days from date of filing a form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by written order of the commissioner. The commissioner may extend by not more than an additional fifteen days the period within which he may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form by giving notice of such extension before the expiration of the initial thirty day period. At the expiration of any such period as so extended and in the absence of prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved.

(3) In addition, each insurer and automobile inspection and warranty association shall file with the commissioner the rate to be charged for each warranty and the premium, including all modifications of rates and premiums, to be paid by the warranty holder. Every filing shall state the proposed effective date thereon. Such filing shall be made not less than thirty days prior to its effective date.

History.—§12, ch. 59-110.

634.131 Tax on premiums and assessments.—

(1) In addition to the license taxes provided for in this act for automobile inspection and warranty associations, and license taxes as provided in the insurance code as to insurers, each such association and insurer shall annually on or before March 1 file with the commissioner its annual statement, in form as prescribed and furnished by the commissioner, showing all warranty premiums or assessments received by it from warranty holders in this state, during the preceding calendar year, and shall pay to the state treasurer a tax in an amount equal to two per cent of the gross amount of such premiums or assessments. Provided that the same exemptions and credits as set forth in §624.0310 and §624.0312 of the insurance code allowed to insurers shall apply to insurers and automobile inspection and warranty associations under this act.

(2) All such taxes when received shall be deposited to the credit of the automobile warranty administration trust fund provided for under §634.221.

(3) Premiums and assessments received by insurers and taxed under this section shall not be subject to any premium tax provided for in the insurance code.

History.—§13, ch. 59-110; (2) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

634.141 Examination of associations.—Automobile inspection and warranty associations licensed under this act shall be subject to periodic examination by the commissioner in the same manner and subject to the same terms and conditions as applies to insurers under part II of chapter 624 of the insurance code.

History.—§14, ch. 59-110.

634.151 Service of process; appointment of commissioner as process agent.—

(1) Each association applying for authority to transact business in this state, whether domestic or foreign, shall file with the commissioner its appointment of the commissioner and his successors in office, on a form as furnished by the commissioner, as its attorney to receive service of all legal process issued against it in any civil action or proceeding in this state, and agreeing that process so served shall be valid and binding upon the association. The appointment shall be irrevocable, shall bind the association and any successor in interest as to the assets or liabilities of the association, and shall remain in effect as long as there is outstanding in this state any obligation or liability of the association resulting from its warranty transactions therein.

(2) At the time of such appointment of the commissioner as its process agent the association shall file with the commissioner designation of the name and address of the person to whom process against it served upon the commissioner is to be forwarded. The association may change the designation at any time by a new filing.

History.—§15, ch. 59-110.

634.161 Serving process.—

(1) Service of process upon the commissioner as process agent of the association shall be made by serving copies in triplicate of the process upon the commissioner or upon his assistant, deputy, or other person in charge of his office. Upon receiving such service the commissioner shall file one copy in his office, return one copy with his admission of service, and promptly forward one copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the person last designated by the association to receive the same, as provided under §634.151.

(2) Process served upon the commissioner and copy thereof forwarded as in this section provided shall for all purposes constitute valid and binding service thereof upon the association.

History.—§16, ch. 59-110.

634.171 Salesman to be registered.—

(1) Every automobile inspection and warranty association or insurer shall on forms prescribed by the commissioner register on or before October 1 of each year, the name and business office address of each salesman employed by it, and shall within thirty days after termination of the employment notify the commissioner of such termination. Any salesman employed subsequent to the October 1 filing date shall be registered with the commissioner within ten days after such employment. No employee or salesman of an automobile inspection and warranty association or insurer shall directly or indirectly solicit or negotiate insurance contracts, or hold himself out in any manner to be an insurance agent or solicitor, unless so qualified and licensed therefor under the insurance code.

History.—§17, ch. 59-110.

634.181 Grounds for compulsory refusal, suspension, or revocation of registration of salesmen.—The commissioner shall deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the registration of any such salesman if he finds after notice and hearing thereon as provided for in §634.201 that as to the salesman, any one or more of the following applicable grounds exist:

(1) Material misstatement, misrepresentation or fraud in registration.

(2) If the registration is willfully used, or to be used, to circumvent any of the requirements or prohibitions of this act.

(3) Willful misrepresentation of any warranty contract or willful deception with regard to any such contract, done either in person or by any form of dissemination of information or advertising.

(4) If in the adjustment of claims arising out of warranties, he has materially misrepresented to a warranty holder or other interested party the terms and coverage of a contract with intent and for the purpose of effecting settlement of such claim on less favorable terms than those provided in and contemplated by the contract.

(5) For demonstrated lack of fitness or trustworthiness to engage in the business of warranty.

(6) For demonstrated lack of adequate knowledge and technical competence to engage in the transactions authorized by the registration.

(7) Fraudulent or dishonest practices in the conduct of business under the registration.

(8) Misappropriation, conversion or unlawful withholding of moneys belonging to an association, insurer, or warranty holder or to others, and received in conduct of business under the registration.

(9) For rebating, or attempt thereat, or for unlawfully dividing or offering to divide his commission with another.

(10) Willful failure to comply with, or willful violation of any proper order, rule or regulation of the commissioner, or willful violation of any provision of this act.

History.—§18, ch. 59-110.

634.191 Grounds for discretionary refusal, suspension, revocation of registration of salesmen.—The commissioner may, in his discretion, deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew or continue the registration of any salesman if he finds after notice and hearing thereon as provided in §634.201 that as to the salesman any one or more of the following applicable grounds exist under circumstances for which such denial, suspension, revocation or refusal is not mandatory under §634.181:

(1) For any cause for which granting of the registration could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner.

(2) Violation of any provision of this act or of any other law applicable to the business of warranties in the course of dealings under the registration.

(3) Has violated any lawful order or rule or regulation of the commissioner.

(4) Failure or refusal, upon demand, to pay over to any association or insurer he represents or has represented any money coming into his hands belonging to the association or insurer.

(5) If in the conduct of business under the registration he has engaged in unfair methods of competition or in unfair or deceptive acts or practices, as such methods, acts, or practices are or may be defined under part VII of chapter 626 of the insurance code, or has otherwise shown himself to be a source of injury or loss to the public or detrimental to the public interest.

(6) Conviction of a felony.

History.—§19, ch. 59-110.

634.201 Procedure for refusal, suspension, or revocation of registration of salesmen.—

(1) If any salesman is convicted by a court of a violation of this act, the registration of such individual shall thereby be deemed to be immediately revoked, without any further procedure relative thereto by the commissioner.

(2) As to a registration denied, suspended or revoked by the commissioner the person aggrieved thereby shall have the right to a hearing thereon before the commissioner, and may have the order reviewed by certiorari by the circuit court in and for Leon county within the time and in the manner provided by the Florida appellate rules.

(3) If after an investigation, or upon other evidence, the commissioner has reason to believe that there may exist any one or more grounds for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue the registration of any salesman, as such grounds are specified in §§634.181 and 634.191, the commissioner shall mail written notice of his intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the registration, as the case may be, accompanied by a copy of the charges against the salesman, to the salesman and to the association or insurer represented by the salesman. Such notice and charges shall be mailed by registered or certified mail, addressed to the salesman at his residence or principal business address last of record with the commissioner, and to the association or insurer addressed to its last address of record with the commissioner. The notice shall be deemed given when so addressed and mailed postage prepaid at a United States post office.

(4) If within twenty days after the date of mailing the notice and charges as provided for in subsection (3), neither the salesman, nor the association or insurer, has filed with the commissioner at his office in Tallahassee a written answer to such charges coupled with a written request for a hearing thereon, the commissioner may proceed to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the registration.

(5) If, within such twenty days an answer and request for hearing is so filed with the commissioner, the commissioner shall hold a hearing with respect to the charges, the hearing to be held within sixty days of the date of the mailing of the notice and charges referred to in subsection (3), unless postponed by mutual consent of the parties. The commissioner shall give the salesman and each association or insurer that has filed with him the answer to the charges and request for hearing as provided in subsection (4), written notice of the hearing and of the matters to be considered thereat not less than ten days in advance of the hearing date.

(6) All such hearings shall be public at such place in this state deemed by the commissioner to be convenient to parties and witnesses.

(7) The commissioner or an assistant, deputy, or examiner designated by him, shall preside at the hearing and shall sit in the capacity of a quasi-judicial officer.

(8) The commissioner's statement of charges, papers, documents, reports or evidence relative to the subject of a hearing under this section shall not be subject to subpoena without his consent until after the same shall have been published at the hearing, unless after notice to the commissioner and hearing, the court determines that the commissioner would not be unnecessarily hindered or embarrassed.

(9) Following the hearing the commissioner shall make his order thereon and mail a copy thereof by registered or certified mail to the address last of record in his office of each party to the hearing. If by his findings made upon the hearing the commissioner finds that one or more of the grounds therefor exist as specified in §§634.181 and 634.191, his order shall incorporate the taking of action relative to suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue the registration as required under §634.181 or as authorized under §634.191.

(10) Whenever it appears that any licensed insurance agent has violated the provisions of this act, the commissioner may take such action relative thereto as is authorized by the insurance code as for a violation of the insurance code by such agent.

History.—§20, ch. 59-110; (2) §27, ch. 63-512.

634.211 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension or revocation of registration.—

(1) If, upon procedures provided for in this act, the commissioner finds that one or more grounds exist for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any registration issued under this act, the commissioner may, in his discretion, in lieu of such suspension, revocation or refusal, on a first offense and except where such suspension, revocation or refusal is mandatory, impose upon the registrant an administrative penalty in the amount of $100, or if the commissioner has found willful misconduct or willful violation on the part of the registrant, an administrative fine of $500. The administrative penalty may, in the commissioner's discretion, be augmented in amount by an amount equal to any commissions received by or accruing to the credit of the registrant in connection with any transaction as to which the grounds for suspension, revocation or refusal related.

(2) The commissioner may allow the registrant a reasonable period, not to exceed thirty days, within which to pay to the commissioner the amount of the penalty so imposed. If the registrant fails to pay the penalty in its entirety to the commissioner at his office at Tallahassee within the period so allowed, the registration of the registrant shall stand suspended, revoked, or renewal or continuation refused, as the case may be, upon expiration of such period and without any further proceedings.

(3) The commissioner shall pay into the "enforcement fund" provided for under §624.0321 of the insurance code all such administrative penalties collected by him under this section.

History.—§21, ch. 59-110.

634.221 Automobile warranty administration trust fund.—

(1) There is created in the state treasury a fund designated the "insurance commissioner's automobile warranty administration trust fund," to which shall be credited all license taxes collected from automobile inspection and warranty associations under §634.031, all taxes on premiums and assessments collected under §634.131, and all registration fees collected under §634.171.

(2) Such fund shall be used for or toward payment of the costs of the commissioner and his office in the administration of this act.

History.—§22, ch. 59-110; (1) a. by §2, ch. 61-119. cf.—§624.0320 Insurance commissioner's clearing account.

634.231 Insurance business not authorized.—Nothing in this act shall be deemed to authorize any automobile inspection and warranty association to transact any business other than that of automobile warranty as herein defined; or otherwise to engage in the business of insurance unless such association is authorized therefor as an insurer under a certificate of authority issued by the commissioner under the insurance code of this state.

History.—§23, ch. 59-110.

634.241 Fronting not permitted.—No authorized insurer or licensed automobile inspection and warranty association shall act as a fronting company for any unauthorized insurer or unlicensed automobile inspection and warranty association. A fronting company is an authorized insurer or licensed automobile inspection and warranty association which by reinsurance or otherwise generally transfers to one or more unauthorized insurer or unlicensed automobile inspection and warranty associations substantially all of the risk of loss under warranties written by it in this state.

History.—§24, ch. 59-110.

634.251 Penalty for violation.—Any individual who knowingly makes a false or otherwise fraudulent application for license or registration under this act, or who knowingly violates any provision thereof, shall upon conviction thereof and in addition to any applicable denial, suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any license or registration, be punishable as for a misdemeanor by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1000, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Each instance of violation shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—§25, ch. 59-110.

CHAPTER 635

REGULATION OF MORTGAGE GUARANTY INSURANCE

635.011 Definitions.

635.021 Authority to transact business.

635.031 Additional limitations.

635.041 Contingency reserve.

635.011 Definitions.—In this act unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

(1) "Mortgage guaranty insurance" means a form of casualty or surety insurance insuring real property mortgage lenders against loss by reason of nonpayment of mortgage indebtedness by the borrower.

(2) "Contingency reserve" means an additional premium reserve established for the protection of policyholders against the effect of adverse economic cycles.

(3) "Commissioner" means the insurance commissioner of this state.

History.—§1, ch. 59-182.

635.021 Authority to transact business.—Mortgage guaranty insurance may be transacted by a stock casualty insurer or a stock surety insurer holding a certificate of authority for the transaction of insurance in this state.

History.—§2, ch. 59-182.

635.031 Additional limitations.—In addition to laws otherwise applicable, mortgage guaranty insurers shall be subject to the following limitations:

(1) No such insurer shall retain risk as to any one subject of insurance in any amount exceeding ten per cent of its surplus as to policyholders, provided; in determining amount of risk retained, applicable reinsurance in any assuming insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state or approved by the commissioner shall be deducted from the total direct risk insured.

(2) Mortgage guaranty insurance shall be written with respect only to mortgages covering dwellings designed for occupancy by not more than four families.

(3) Mortgage guaranty insurance shall be written with respect only to real estate loans originating or handled through a bank, savings and loan association, or an insurance company, which is supervised and regulated by a department of this state or an agency of the federal government.

History.—§3, ch. 59-182; (3) n. §1, ch. 63-428.

635.041 Contingency reserve.—

(1) Each mortgage guaranty insurer shall establish a special contingency reserve out of net premiums (gross premiums less premiums returned to policyholders) remaining after establishment of the unearned premium reserve. To such contingency reserve the insurer shall contribute an amount equal to fifty per cent of such remaining premiums.

(2) Subject to the commissioner's approval, the contingency reserve shall be available for loss payments only when the insurer's incurred

635.051 Licensing of mortgage guaranty insurance agents.

635.061 Premium cost.

635.071 Filings, approval of forms, rate filings.

635.081 Administration and enforcement.

losses in any one calendar year exceed the rate formula expected losses by ten per cent of the corresponding earned premiums.

(3) In event of release of the contingency reserve for payment of losses, as approved by the commissioner, the contributions required under subsection (1), shall be treated on a first-in-first-out basis.

(4) The contingency reserve pertaining to a particular insurance policy shall be maintained (subject to prior payment of losses therefrom as provided in subsection (3)) for the term of the policy.

History.—§4, ch. 59-182.

635.051 Licensing of mortgage guaranty insurance agents.—

(1) Agents of mortgage guaranty insurers shall be licensed, and be subject to the same qualifications and requirements, as apply to general lines agents under the laws of this state, except:

(a) That no particular preliminary specialized education or training shall be required of an applicant for such an agent's license if, as part of the application for license, the insurer guarantees that the applicant will receive the necessary training to enable him properly to hold himself out to the public as a mortgage guaranty insurance agent, and if the commissioner, in his discretion, accepts such guaranty;

(b) The agent's license shall be a limited license, limited to the handling of mortgage guaranty insurance only; and

(c) An examination may be required of an applicant for such a license in the discretion of the insurance commissioner.

(2) Any general lines agent shall qualify to represent a mortgage guaranty insurer without additional examination.

(3) The commissioner shall charge and collect the same applicable license taxes and fees for or in connection with such application and license as apply to general lines agents. The commissioner shall deposit such license taxes and fees in such funds and for such uses as is provided by laws applicable to like license taxes and like fees in the case of general lines agents.

History.—§5, ch. 59-182.

635.061 Premium cost.—The premium cost of mortgage guaranty insurance shall not be deemed for any purpose to constitute a part of the cost of or interest upon any mortgage loan.

History.—§6, ch. 59-182.

635.071 Filings, approval of forms, rate filings.—

(1) No policy form or related form shall be issued or used in this state unless it has been filed with and approved by the commissioner as provided by laws applicable to casualty or surety insurance.

(2) In addition, each insurer shall file with the commissioner the rate to be charged and the premium including all modifications of rates and premiums to be paid by the policyholder.

History.—§7, ch. 59-182.

635.081 Administration and enforcement.—

The commissioner shall have the same powers of administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act, and to make rules and regulations for the effectuation of any provisions of this act, as he has with respect to casualty or surety insurers in general under the insurance laws of this state.

History.—§8, ch. 59-182.

CHAPTER 638

AMBULANCE SERVICE CONTRACTS

- 638.011 Declaration of policy.
- 638.021 Definitions.
- 638.031 Powers of commissioner; rules.
- 638.041 Certificate of authority required.
- 638.051 Certificate of authority; annual statement; renewal.
- 638.061 Capital funds required.
- 638.071 Special surplus requirements.
- 638.081 Required deposit or bond.
- 638.091 Suspension, revocation of certificate of authority for violations and special grounds.
- 638.101 Procedure to suspend or revoke certificate of authority.
- 638.111 Order, notice of suspension or revocation of certificate of authority; effect; publication.
- 638.121 Duration of suspension; association's obligations during suspension period; reinstatement.
- 638.131 Filing, approval of forms, rate filings.
- 638.141 Tax on premiums and assessments.
- 638.151 Examination of associations.
- 638.161 Service of process; appointment of commissioner as process agent.
- 638.171 Serving process.
- 638.181 Salesmen to be registered.
- 638.191 Grounds for compulsory refusal, suspension, or revocation of registration of salesmen.
- 638.201 Grounds for discretionary refusal, suspension, revocation of registration of salesmen.
- 638.211 Procedure for refusal, suspension or revocation of registration of salesmen.
- 638.221 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension or revocation of registration.
- 638.231 Ambulance service contract administration trust fund.
- 638.241 Insurance business not authorized.
- 638.251 Fronting not permitted.
- 638.261 Certain ambulance service associations' relations with funeral directors prohibited.
- 638.271 Penalty for violation.

638.011 Declaration of policy.—It shall be deemed contrary to public policy if any person receives, holds, controls, or manages funds or proceeds received from the sale of or from a contract to sell pre-need ambulance service, whether the payments for same are made outright or on an installment basis, prior to the need of the service by persons so purchasing it, or for whom it is purchased, unless such person holds, controls, or manages such funds, subject to the limitations and regulations prescribed by the following sections.

History.—§1, ch. 61-387.

638.021 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) Ambulance service association or association means any person (other than an authorized insurer) issuing ambulance service contracts as herein defined.

(2) Insurer means any property or casualty insurer duly authorized to transact such business in this state.

(3) Ambulance service contract or pre-need ambulance service contract means any contract or agreement whereby, for an agreed premium or specified consideration paid in advance or by installments, any person undertakes to compensate or indemnify the contract or agreement holder for any type ambulance service or undertakes to provide any type ambulance service on a pre-need basis.

(4) Salesman means any person employed or otherwise retained by an insurer or ambulance service association for the purpose of selling or issuing ambulance service contracts.

(5) Commissioner means the duly elected and qualified state treasurer and ex officio insurance commissioner of this state.

(6) Person includes an individual, insurer, company, association, organization, Lloyds, society, reciprocal insurer or interinsurance, exchange, partnership, syndicate, business trust, corporation, agent, general agent, broker, solicitor, service representative, adjuster and every legal entity.

History.—§2, ch. 61-387.

638.031 Powers of commissioner; rules.—

The commissioner shall administer this act and to that end he may adopt, promulgate, and enforce rules and regulations necessary and proper to effectuate any provisions of this act.

History.—§3, ch. 61-387.

638.041 Certificate of authority required.—

(1) No person shall receive, hold, control, or manage any funds tendered as payment on any ambulance service contract until such person is possessed of a certificate of authority, or renewal thereof, issued by the commissioner under the circumstances hereinafter stated. An original certificate of authority shall expire on March 1 succeeding its issuance, and annually thereafter, or before March 1, a renewal thereof shall be issued under conditions herein set forth.

(2) An insurer while authorized to transact property or casualty insurance in this state may transact an ambulance service contract business without additional qualification or authority, but otherwise subject to the applicable provisions of this act.

History.—§4, ch. 61-387.

638.051 Certificate of authority; annual statement; renewal.—

(1) An application to the commissioner for a certificate of authority shall be accompanied by the statement and other matters described below and by the deposit required by §638.071. Annually thereafter on or before March 1, such person shall file said statement, as of January 1 of the calendar year in which it is filed, and such other information and data which may be required by the commissioner.

(2) Such statement shall be in such form as shall evidence to the commissioner the following:

(a) The types of ambulance service contracts proposed to be written; and if a person is bound upon the effective date of this act by any ambulance service contract, or if the statement accompanies an application for a renewal of a certificate of authority, an itemization of all outstanding ambulance service contracts, the dates upon which such contracts were entered, the names of all parties involved in such contracts or having any right thereunder, the amount paid in on each contract, and if payments are not completed, the amounts intended to be paid on each contract.

(b) Name and address of place of business of person offering to write ambulance service contracts.

(c) That such person offering the statement had sufficient funds available during the calendar year to perform his obligations under his contracts; and that he has complied with this act and any rules and regulations of the commissioner.

(d) Such other information as may be considered necessary by the commissioner in order for him to meet his responsibilities under this act.

(3) Any statement presented shall be certified by an independent certified public accountant, except that any insurer required to file statements under chapter 624 may include therein any statement of business written under this act.

(4) The fee payable to the commissioner for issuance of the original certificate and each annual renewal thereof shall be $100.00, which sum shall accompany each application for original certificate and thereafter each annual statement.

(5) Upon the commissioner's being satisfied that the statement and matters which may accompany it meet the requirements of this act and of his rules and regulations, he shall issue to such person said certificate of authority or renewal thereof.

History.—§5, ch. 61-387.

638.061 Capital funds required.—Any person applying for its original certificate of authority in this state after the effective date of this act or continuing such original certificate of authority, shall possess and thereafter maintain unimpaired paid-in capital or paid-in capital stock (if a stock association) or unimpaired surplus (if a foreign mutual or foreign reciprocal association) or a net trust fund (if a business trust association) in amount not less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and shall possess when first so authorized such additional surplus as is required under §638.071.

History.—§6, ch. 61-387.

638.071 Special surplus requirements.—In addition to the paid-in capital funds required in §638.061, any person hereafter applying for an initial certificate of authority in this state shall possess a surplus of twenty thousand dollars, which after the issuance of its initial certificate of authority such person may use the special surplus required under this section in the normal course of business only.

History.—§7, ch. 61-387.

638.081 Required deposit or bond.—

(1) To assure the faithful performance of its obligations to its members or subscribers every ambulance service association shall prior to issuance of its license by the commissioner, deposit with the commissioner securities of the type eligible for deposit by insurers under §625.0202, of the insurance code, and having at all times a market value of not less than twenty thousand dollars; except that any such association doing such a business in this state on or before April 1, 1961, shall on or before October 1, 1961, so deposit such securities in the value of not less than ten thousand dollars, and on or before October 1, 1962, so deposit additional such securities having a value of not less than ten thousand dollars, in order to bring its total deposit of securities to a value of not less than twenty thousand dollars not later than October 1, 1962.

(2) In lieu of any deposit of securities required under subsection (1), the association may file with the commissioner a surety bond in like amount. The bond shall be one issued by an authorized surety insurer, shall be for the same purpose as the deposit in lieu of which it is filed, and shall be subject to the commissioner's approval. No such bond shall be cancelled or subject to cancellation unless at least thirty days advance notice thereof in writing is filed with the commissioner.

(3) The state shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all securities deposited with the commissioner under this act. Such securities shall not, on account of being in this state, be subject to taxation, but shall be held exclusively and solely to guarantee the association's faithful performance of its obligations to its members or subscribers.

(4) The depositing association shall, during its solvency, have the right to exchange or substitute other securities of like quality and value for securities so on deposit, to receive the interest and other income accruing on such securities, and to inspect the deposit at all reasonable times.

(5) Such deposit or bond shall be maintained unimpaired as long as the association continues in business in this state. Whenever the association ceases to do business in this state and furnishes to the commissioner proof satisfactory to him that it has discharged or otherwise adequately provided for all its obligations to its members or subscribers in this state, the commissioner shall release the deposited securities to the parties entitled thereto, on presentation of the commissioner's receipts for such securities, or release any bond filed with him in lieu of such deposit.

History.—§8, ch. 61-387.

638.091 Suspension, revocation of certificate of authority for violations and special grounds.

(1) The commissioner may, in his discretion, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew the certificate of authority of any ambulance service association if he finds that the association has violated any lawful order of the commissioner or any provision of this act.

(2) The commissioner shall suspend or revoke an ambulance service association's certificate of authority if he finds that such association:

(a) Is in unsound condition, or in such condition, or using such methods and practices in the conduct of its business, as to render its further transaction of contracts in this state hazardous or injurious to the public.

(b) Has refused to be examined or to produce its accounts, records and files for examination, or if any of its officers have refused to give information with respect to its affairs or to perform any other legal obligation as to such examination, when required by the commissioner.

(c) Has failed to pay any final judgment rendered against it in this state within ninety days after the judgment became final.

(d) With such frequency as to indicate its general business practice in this state, has without just cause refused to pay proper claims arising under its contracts, or without just cause compels contract holders to accept less than the amount due them or to employ attorneys or to bring suit against the association to secure full payment or settlement of such claims.

(e) Is affiliated with and under the same general management or interlocking directorate or ownership as another ambulance service association which transacts direct contracts in this state without having a license therefor.

(3) The commissioner may, in his discretion and without advance notice or hearing thereon, immediately suspend the certificate of authority of any ambulance service association as to which proceedings for receivership, conservatorship, rehabilitation, or other delinquency proceedings, have been commenced in any state.

(4) Violation of this act by an insurer shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of the insurer's certificate of authority in this state, in accordance with procedures and conditions provided for in part III of chapter 624 of the insurance code.

History.—§9, ch. 61-387.

638.101 Procedure to suspend or revoke certificate of authority.—

(1) Except where hearing is expressly not required under §638.091, no order of the commissioner suspending or revoking an association's certificate of authority shall be effective unless made after a hearing of which notice and order directing the association to show cause thereat why its certificate of authority should not be so suspended or revoked was mailed to the association by registered or certified mail addressed to its home office or principal place of business in the United States not less than thirty days in advance.

(2) The notice shall contain, in addition to a statement of the time and place of the hearing and the order to show cause, a concise statement of the particulars of the grounds for such proposed suspension or revocation in such details as reasonably to inform the association thereof.

(3) Except, that the association may in writing filed with the commissioner within the thirty days period waive the hearing, and in which case the commissioner may forthwith issue his order of suspension or revocation of the certificate of authority.

History.—§10, ch. 61-387.

638.111 Order, notice of suspension or revocation of certificate of authority; effect; publication.—

(1) Suspension or revocation of association's certificate of authority shall be by the commissioner's order mailed to the association by registered or certified mail. The commissioner shall promptly also give notice of such suspension or revocation to the association's salesmen in this state of record in the commissioner's office. The association shall not solicit or write any new contracts in this state during the period of any such suspension or revocation, nor after such revocation renew any business previously written.

(2) In his discretion the commissioner may cause notice of any such revocation to be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in this state.

History.—§11, ch. 61-387.

638.121 Duration of suspension; association's obligations during suspension period; reinstatement.—

(1) Suspension of an association's certificate of authority shall be for such period not to exceed one year, as is fixed by the commissioner in the order of suspension, unless the commissioner shortens or rescinds such suspension or the order upon which the suspension is based is modified, rescinded or reversed.

(2) During the period of suspension the association shall file its annual statement, pay fees, licenses and taxes as required under this chapter as if the certificate of authority has continued in full force.

(3) Upon expiration of the suspension period (if within such period the certificate of authority has not otherwise terminated) the association's certificate of authority shall automatically reinstate unless the commissioner finds that the causes of the suspension have not been removed, or that the association is otherwise not in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and of which the commissioner shall give the association notice not less than thirty days in advance of the expiration of the suspension period. If not so automatically reinstated the certificate of authority shall be deemed to have expired as of the end of the suspension period or upon failure of the association to continue the certificate of authority during the suspension period, whichever event first occurs.

(4) Upon reinstatement of the certificate of authority of an insurer or association following suspension, the authority of its salesmen in this state to represent the association or insurer shall likewise reinstate. The commissioner shall promptly notify the association or insurer and its salesmen in this state of record in his office of such reinstatement.

History.—§12, ch. 61-387.

638.131 Filing, approval of forms, rate filings.—

(1) No contract form nor related form shall be issued or used in this state unless it has been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(2) Every such filing shall be made not less than thirty days in advance of issuance or use. At the expiration of thirty days from date of filing a form so filed shall be deemed approved unless prior thereto it has been affirmatively approved or disapproved by written order of the commissioner. The commissioner may extend by not more than an additional fifteen days the period within which he may so affirmatively approve or disapprove any such form by giving notice of such extension before the expiration of the initial thirty day period. At the expiration of any such period as so extended and in the absence of prior affirmative approval or disapproval, any such form shall be deemed approved.

(3) In addition, each insurer or ambulance service association shall file with the commissioner the rate to be charged for each contract and the premium, including all modifications of rates and premiums, to be paid by the contract holder. Every filing shall state the proposed effective date thereon. Such filing shall be made not less than thirty days prior to its effective date.

History.—§13, ch. 61-387.

638.141 Tax on premiums and assessments.—

(1) In addition to the taxes provided for in this act for ambulance service associations, and license taxes as provided in the insurance code as to insurers, each such association and insurer shall annually on or before March 1 file with the commissioner its annual statement, in form as prescribed and furnished by the commissioner, showing all premiums or assessments received by it from contract holders in this state, during the preceding calendar year, and shall pay to the state treasurer a tax in an amount equal to two per cent of the gross amount of such premiums or assessments. Provided that the same exemptions and credits as set forth in §§624.0310 and 624.0312 of the insurance code allowed to insurers shall apply to insurers and ambulance service associations under this act.

(2) All such taxes when received shall be deposited to the credit of the ambulance service administration trust fund provided for under §638.231.

(3) Premiums and assessments received by insurers and taxed under this section shall not be subject to any premium tax provided for in the insurance code.

History.—§14, ch. 61-387.

638.151 Examination of associations.—Ambulance service associations licensed under this act shall be subject to periodic examination by the commissioner in the same manner and subject to the same terms and conditions as applies to insurers under part II of chapter 624 of the insurance code.

History.—§15, ch. 61-387.

638.161 Service of process; appointment of commissioner as process agent.—

(1) Each association applying for authority to transact business in this state, whether domestic or foreign, shall file with the commissioner its appointment of the commissioner and his successors in office, on a form as furnished by the commissioner, as its attorney to receive service of legal process issued against it in any civil action or proceeding in this state, and agreeing that process so served shall be valid and binding upon the association. The appointment shall be irrevocable, shall bind the association and any successor in interest as to the assets or liabilities of the association, and shall remain in effect as long as there is outstanding in this state any obligation or liability of the association resulting from its contract transactions therein.

(2) At the time of such appointment of the commissioner as its process agent the association shall file with the commissioner designation of the name and address of the person to whom process against it served upon the commissioner is to be forwarded. The association may change the designation at any time by a new filing.

History.—§16, ch. 61-387.

638.171 Serving process.—

(1) Service of process upon the commissioner as process agent of the association shall be made by serving copies in triplicate of the process upon the commissioner or upon his assistant, deputy, or other person in charge of his office. Upon receiving such service the commissioner shall file one copy in his office, return one copy with his admission of service, and promptly forward one copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the person last designated by the association to receive the same, as provided under §638.161.

(2) Process served upon the commissioner and copy thereof forwarded as in this section provided shall for all purposes constitute valid and binding service thereof upon the association.

History.—§17, ch. 61-387.

638.181 Salesmen to be registered.—

(1) Every ambulance service association or insurer shall on forms prescribed by the commissioner register on or before October 1 of each year, the name and business office address of each salesman employed by it, and shall within thirty days after termination of the employment notify the commissioner of such termination. Any salesman employed subsequent to the October 1 filing date shall be registered with the commissioner within ten days after such employment. No employee or salesman of an ambulance service association or insurer shall directly or indirectly solicit or negotiate insurance contracts, or hold himself out in any manner to be an insurance agent or solicitor, unless so qualified and licensed therefor under the insurance code.

History.—§18, ch. 61-387.

638.191 Grounds for compulsory refusal, suspension, or revocation of registration of salesmen.—The commissioner shall deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the registration of any such salesman if he finds after notice and hearing thereon as provided for in §638.211 that as to the salesman, any one or more of the following applicable grounds exist:

(1) Material misstatement, misrepresentation or fraud in registration.

(2) If the registration is willfully used, or to be used, to circumvent any of the requirements or prohibitions of this act.

(3) Willful misrepresentation or willful deception with regard to any contract, done either in person or by any form of dissemination of information or advertising.

(4) If in the adjustment of claims arising out of any contract, he has materially misrepresented to a contract holder or other interested party the terms and coverage of a contract with intent and for the purpose of effecting settlement of such claim on less favorable terms than those provided in and contemplated by the contract.

(5) For demonstrated lack of fitness or trustworthiness to engage in the business of ambulance service contracts.

(6) For demonstrated lack of adequate knowledge and technical competence to engage in the transactions authorized by the registration.

(7) Fraudulent or dishonest practices in the conduct of business under the registration.

(8) Misappropriation, conversion or unlawful withholding of moneys belonging to an association, insurer, or contract holder or to others, and received in conduct of business under the registration.

(9) For rebating, or attempt thereat, or for unlawfully dividing or offering to divide his commission with another.

(10) Willful failure to comply with, or willful violation of any proper order, rule or regulation of the commissioner, or willful violation of any provision of this act.

History.—§19, ch. 61-387.

638.201 Grounds for discretionary refusal, suspension, revocation of registration of salesmen.—The commissioner may, in his discretion, deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew or continue the registration of any salesman if he finds after notice and hearing thereon as provided in §638.211 that as to the salesman any one or more of the following applicable grounds exist under circumstances for which such denial, suspension, revocation or refusal is not mandatory under §638.191:

(1) For any cause for which granting of the registration could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner.

(2) Violation of any provision of this act or of any other law applicable to the business of ambulance service contracts in the course of dealings under the registration.

(3) Has violated any lawful order or rule or regulation of the commissioner.

(4) Failure or refusal, upon demand, to pay over to any association or insurer he represents or has represented any money coming into his hands belonging to the association or insurer.

(5) If in the conduct of business under the registration he has engaged in unfair methods of competition or in unfair or deceptive acts or practices, as such methods, acts or practices are or may be defined under part VII of chapter 626 of the insurance code, or has otherwise shown himself to be a source of injury or loss to the public or detrimental to the public interest.

(6) Conviction of a felony.

History.—§20, ch. 61-387.

638.211 Procedure for refusal, suspension or revocation of registration of salesmen.—

(1) If any salesman is convicted by a court of a violation of this act, the registration of such individual shall thereby be deemed to be immediately revoked, without any further procedure relative thereto by the commissioner.

(2) As to a registration denied, suspended or revoked by the commissioner the person aggrieved thereby shall have the right to a hearing thereon before the commissioner, and may have the adverse decision of the commissioner reviewed by certiorari by the circuit court in and for Leon county within the time and in the manner provided by the Florida appellate rules.

(3) If after an investigation, or upon other evidence, the commissioner has reason to believe that there may exist any one or more grounds for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue the registration of any salesman, as such grounds are specified in §§638.191 and 638.201, the commissioner shall mail written notice of his intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the registration, as the case may be, accompanied by a copy of the charges against the salesman, to the salesman and the association or insurer represented by the salesman. Such notice and charges shall be mailed by registered or certified mail, addressed to the salesman at his residence or principal business address last of record with the commissioner, and to the association or insurer addressed to its last address of record with the commissioner. The notice shall be deemed given when so addressed and mailed postage prepaid at a United States post office.

(4) If within twenty days after the date of mailing the notice and charges as provided for in subsection (3) above, neither the salesman, nor the association or insurer, has filed with the commissioner at his office in Tallahassee a written answer to such charges coupled with a written request for a hearing thereon, the commissioner may proceed to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the registration.

(5) If, within such twenty days an answer and request for hearing is so filed with the commissioner the commissioner shall hold a hearing with respect to the charges, the hearing to be held within sixty days of the date of the mailing of the notice and charges referred to in subsection (3), above, unless postponed by mutual consent of the parties. The commissioner shall give the salesman and each association or insurer that has filed with him the answer to the charges and request for hearing as provided in subsection (4), written notice of the hearing and of the matters to be considered thereat not less than ten days in advance of the hearing date.

(6) All such hearings shall be public at such place in this state deemed by the commissioner to be convenient to parties and witnesses.

(7) The commissioner or an assistant, deputy, or examiner designated by him, shall preside at the hearing and shall sit in the capacity of a quasi-judicial officer.

(8) The commissioner's statement of charges, papers, documents, reports or evidence relative to the subject of a hearing under this section shall not be subject to subpoena without his consent until after the same shall have been published at the hearing, unless after notice to the commissioner and hearing, the court determines that the commissioner would not be unnecessarily hindered or embarrassed.

(9) Following the hearing the commissioner shall make his order thereon and mail a copy thereof by registered or certified mail to the address last of record in his office of each party to the hearing. If by his findings made upon the hearing the commissioner finds that one or more of the grounds therefor exist as specified in §§638.191 and 638.201, his order shall incorporate the taking of action relative to suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue the registration as required under §638.191 or as authorized under §638.201.

(10) Whenever it appears that any licensed insurance agent has violated the provisions of this act, the commissioner may take such action relative thereto as is authorized by the insurance code as for a violation of the insurance code by such agent.

History.—§21, ch. 61-387; (2) §28, ch. 63-512.

638.221 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension or revocation of registration.—

(1) If, upon procedures provided for in this act, the commissioner finds that one or more grounds exist for the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any registration issued under this act, the commissioner may, in his discretion, in lieu of such suspension, revocation or refusal, on a first offense and except where such suspension, revocation, or refusal is mandatory, impose upon the registrant an administrative penalty in the amount of $100.00, or if the commissioner has found willful misconduct or willful violation on the part of the registrant, an administrative fine of $500.00. The administrative penalty may, in the commissioner's discretion, be augmented in amount by an amount equal to any commissions received by or accruing to the credit of the registrant in connection with any transaction as to which the grounds for suspension, revocation or refusal related.

(2) The commissioner may allow the registrant a reasonable period, not to exceed thirty days, within which to pay to the commissioner the amount of the penalty so imposed. If the registrant fails to pay the penalty in its entirety to the commissioner at his office at Tallahassee within the period so allowed, the registration of the registrant shall stand suspended, revoked, or renewal or continuation refused, as the case may be, upon expiration of such period and without any further proceedings.

(3) The commissioner shall pay into the enforcement trust fund provided for under §624.0321 all such administrative penalties collected by him under this section.

History.—§22, ch. 61-387; (3) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

638.231 Ambulance service contract administration trust fund.—

(1) There is created in the state treasury a fund designated the insurance commissioner's ambulance service contract administration trust fund, to which shall be credited all license fees collected from ambulance service associations under this act, all taxes on premiums, assessments and all registration fees collected under this act.

(2) Such fund shall be used for or toward payments of the costs of the commissioner and his office in the administration of this act.

History.—§23, ch. 61-387.

638.241 Insurance business not authorized.

—Nothing in this act shall be deemed to authorize any ambulance service association to transact any business other than that of ambulance service contracts as herein defined; or otherwise to engage in the business of insurance unless such association is authorized therefor as an insurer under a certificate of authority issued by the commissioner under the insurance code of this state.

History.—§24, ch. 61-387.

638.251 Fronting not permitted.—No authorized insurer or ambulance service association shall act as a fronting company for any unauthorized insurer or ambulance service association. A fronting company is an authorized insurer or ambulance service association which by reinsurance or otherwise generally transfers to one or more unauthorized insurer or ambulance service associations substantially all of the risk of loss under contracts written by it in this state.

History.—§25, ch. 61-387.

638.261 Certain ambulance service associations' relations with funeral directors prohibited.—

(1) No ambulance service association shall permit any funeral director or undertaker, or any member of his immediate family, to directly or indirectly by association or incorporation to act as its representative, adjuster, claim agent, special claim agent, salesman, or agent for such association in soliciting, negotiating, or effecting ambulance service contracts on any plan or of any nature issued by such association or in collecting premiums from holders of any such contracts.

(2) No ambulance service association shall affix, or permit to be affixed, advertising matter of any kind or character of any funeral director or undertaker to any ambulance service contracts or circulate or permit to be circulated any such advertising matter with such contracts, or attempt in any manner or form to influence contract holders of the association to employ the services of any particular funeral director or undertaker.

(3) No ambulance service association shall maintain an office or place of business, or permit its agent to maintain an office or place of business, in the office, establishment or place of business of any funeral director or undertaker in this state.

History.—§26, ch. 61-387.

638.271 Penalty for violation.—Any person who knowingly makes a false or otherwise fraudulent application for certificate of authority or registration under this act, or who knowingly violates any provision of this act, shall upon conviction thereof and in addition to any applicable denial, suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue any certificate or registration, be punishable as for a misdemeanor by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Each instance of violation shall be considered a separate offense.

History.—§27, ch. 61-387.

CHAPTER 639

BURIAL INSURANCE AND CONTRACTS

- 639.06 Declaration of policy.
- 639.07 Definitions.
- 639.08 Forms and regulations.
- 639.09 Certificate of authority required.
- 639.10 Certificate of authority; annual statement; renewal.
- 639.11 Disposition of proceeds received on contracts.

639.06 Declaration of policy.—It shall be deemed contrary to public policy if any person receives, holds, controls, or manages funds or proceeds received from the sale of or from a contract to sell, burial supplies and equipment and funeral services, or any one or combination of them, where payments for same are made either outright or on an installment basis, prior to the demise of the person or persons so purchasing them, or for whom they are purchased, unless such person holds, controls or manages such funds, subject to the limitations and regulations prescribed by § 639.07-639.17.

History.—Comp. § 2, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.07 Definitions.—As used in §§639.06-639.17:

(1) "Person" means and shall include natural persons, partnerships, firms, associations, and corporations residing in or doing business in this state.

(2) "Pre-need burial contract" means any contract, other than a contract of insurance, under which, for a specified consideration paid in advance in a lump sum or by installments, a person promises, upon the death of a beneficiary named or implied in the contract, to furnish funeral services or burial supplies and equipment.

(3) "Commissioner" means the state treasurer and ex officio insurance commissioner.

History.—Comp. § 1, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.08 Forms and regulations.—The administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act are vested in the commissioner who is hereby directed to prepare and furnish all forms necessary under §§639.06-639.17 including forms for applications for certificates of authority, for renewals thereof, for annual statements, for other required reports, and for pre-need burial contracts. He is directed to promulgate such regulations, within the standards of this act, considered by him to be necessary to effectuate the purposes of §§639.06-639.17.

History.—§ 3, ch. 28211, 1953; § 24, ch. 57-1.

639.09 Certificate of authority required.—No person shall receive, hold, control, or manage any funds tendered as payment on any pre-need burial contract until such person is possessed of a certificate of authority, or renewal thereof, issued by the commissioner under the circumstances hereinafter stated. An original certificate of authority shall expire on March 1st succeeding its issuance, and annually

- 639.12 Deposit.
- 639.13 Cancellation of contracts.
- 639.14 Payment of funds upon death of named beneficiary.
- 639.15 Examinations and investigations.
- 639.16 Revocation of certificate and liquidation proceedings.
- 639.17 Penalty.

thereafter, on or before March 1st, a renewal thereof shall be issued under conditions herein set forth.

History.—§ 4, ch. 28211, 1953; § 24, ch. 57-1.

639.10 Certificate of authority; annual statement; renewal.—

(1) An application to the commissioner for a certificate of authority shall be accompanied by the statement and other matters described below and by the deposit required by §639.12. Annually thereafter on or before March 1st, such person shall file said statement, as of January 1st of the calendar year in which it is filed, and such other information and data which may be required by the commissioner.

(2) Such statement shall be in such form as shall evidence to the commissioner the following:

(a) The types of pre-need burial contracts proposed to be written; and, if a person is bound upon the effective date of this act by any pre-need burial contract, or if the statement accompanies an application for a renewal of a certificate of authority, an itemization of all outstanding pre-need burial contracts, the dates upon which such contracts were entered, the names of all parties involved in such contracts or having any right thereunder, the amount paid in on each contract, and if payments are not completed, the amounts intended to be paid on each contract.

(b) Name and address of place of business of person offering to write pre-need burial contracts.

(c) That person offering statement had sufficient funds available during the calendar year to perform his obligations under his contracts; and that he has maintained seventy-five per cent of the funds received under contracts issued by him as hereinafter described; and that he has complied with this act and any rules or regulations of the commissioner.

(d) Such other information as may be considered necessary by the commissioner in order for him to meet his responsibilities under this act.

(3) If such person is an individual, said statement shall be sworn by him; if a firm or association, by all members thereof; and if a corporation by the president and secretary thereof.

(4) The fee payable to the commissioner for issuance of the original certificate and each annual renewal thereof shall be twenty-five dollars, which sum shall accompany each application for original certificate and thereafter each annual statement.

(5) Upon the commissioner's being satisfied that the statement and matters which may accompany it meet the requirements of this act and of his rules and regulations, he shall issue to such person said certificate of authority or renewal thereof.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.11 Disposition of proceeds received on contracts.—

(1) Of any funds received by any person offering and writing pre-need burial contracts, seventy-five per cent of said funds shall be maintained unimpaired and shall be deposited in a state bank, savings bank, trust company, national bank, state savings and loan association, or a federal savings and loan association, or shall be invested in bonds of the United States, or any of the states of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or of the cities or counties of Florida. Such seventy-five per cent, whether invested or deposited, shall only be withdrawn when necessary to satisfy the terms of a pre-need burial contract, the requirements of this act, or the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The remaining twenty-five per cent of said funds may be used for the current operating expenses of the person writing said pre-need burial contracts.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.12 Deposit.—Any application for an original certificate of authority shall be accompanied by a deposit with the commissioner by the person making such application, of bonds of the United States, of any of the states of the United States, of the District of Columbia, or of the cities or counties of Florida, in the aggregate market value of fifty thousand dollars, which securities, if such certificate of authority is issued, shall be receipted for by the commissioner and held by him in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned. Such deposit, in said aggregate value, shall be maintained by any such person entering into pre-need burial contracts. Whenever such person ceases to engage in such business in this state, and has settled all claims arising in connection with such contracts, and has discharged all his obligations under any such contracts, upon proof of such facts to the commissioner, and delivery to the commissioner of the latter's receipt for such securities, the commissioner shall deliver said securities to such person or his assignee. During the period said securities are deposited with the commissioner, the owner of the same shall be entitled to the interest collected thereon. Such bonds so deposited shall be held by the commissioner solely for the purpose of satisfying judgments obtained against the person making the deposit for his failure to perform a pre-need burial contract, or any other contract into which such person may have entered for the furnishing of burial services and equipment to holders of pre-need burial contracts. When such a final judgment has been rendered against any person having made the deposit, he shall pay same within sixty days thereafter, provided he does not prosecute or appeal from said judgment within said period; and if an appeal is so prosecuted and on appeal the judgment is affirmed, such person shall pay same within fifteen days from the date mandate from the appellate court is filed in the cause in the trial court. Should any such person fail to pay such a judgment within the time contemplated by the immediately preceding sentence, the commissioner shall, in pursuance of order entered in the cause in the trial court, sell sufficient of the securities of such person so deposited with him to satisfy said judgment and costs, and shall pay to the person recovering such judgment the amount thereof and costs. In the event that the deposit is not promptly restored in full following a payment made from it by the commissioner, he may follow the procedure outlined in §639.16 for causing the liquidation of the business of the person failing to replenish his deposit.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.13 Cancellation of contracts.—Upon the giving of five days notice any person who has procured a pre-need burial contract from a person certified under this act to have the authority to issue or write such contracts may demand a refund of the entire amount actually paid on such contract.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.14 Payment of funds upon death of named beneficiary.—Upon the death of a beneficiary named in a pre-need burial contract, the person issuing such contract shall immediately release to the person who made the payments on the contract, or to the legal representative of the beneficiary under such contract, the entire amount, in cash, of the funds actually paid on the contract.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.15 Examinations and investigations.—The commissioner shall have the power and is required from time to time as he may deem necessary, but at least once every three years, to examine the business of any person writing pre-need burial contracts in the same manner as is provided for examination of insurance companies. Such examinations, shall be at the expense of the person examined and shall be made by the commissioner or his designated representative or examiner. The written report of all such examinations, when completed, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner, and when so filed shall constitute public records. Any such person being examined shall produce, upon request, all records of the company. The commissioner, or his designated representative, may at any time examine into the records and affairs of any such person, whether in connection with a formal examination or not.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.16 Revocation of certificate and liquidation proceedings.—

(1) Whenever the commissioner shall determine that a person holding a certificate of authority to issue pre-need burial contracts:

(a) Has not maintained seventy-five per cent of the funds received from contracts in the unimpaired state described in §639.11, or

(b) Has failed to cancel a contract upon proper request and refund the entire amount paid on the contract as required by §639.13, or

(c) Has not released upon the death of a beneficiary the entire amount received on a contract as required by §639.14, or

(d) Has refused to produce records in connection with his business, or

(e) Has otherwise failed to comply with the provisions of §§639.06-639.17 or any regulation promulgated by the commissioners in pursuance of §§639.06-639.17;

and if such person shall omit to correct any such failure, refusal, or violation within thirty days after written notice from the commissioner to effect such correction, the commissioner may, the attorney general representing him, file complaint setting forth the relevant facts in the circuit court of the county wherein such person has his principal place of business praying for issuance of an order to show cause why the business and affairs of such person should not be liquidated and a receiver appointed by the court to accomplish such purpose.

(2) Upon application for such rule to show cause, the court may, in its discretion, issue an injunction restraining defendant from transacting further business until further order of the court.

(3) Upon return of such order to show cause, the court shall hear and try the issues forthwith. If the court shall determine that the person so charged as defendant in such proceeding has not been guilty of the omission, failure or violation alleged in the complaint by the commissioner, the court shall dismiss such complaint. On the other hand, if the court shall determine that the charges of the commissioner are supported by the evidence, he may enter an order directing the liquidation of such business of said person and shall appoint a receiver who shall, under such conditions as may be prescribed by the court, take into his possession the assets of said person for the purpose of liquidation.

(4) In any such order of liquidation, or in any order or orders thereafter entered, the court shall provide for notice to creditors, filing of claims, and all other details necessary and essential to an estate in receivership.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 28211, 1953.

639.17 Penalty.—Any person, as defined herein, who shall receive, hold, manage, or control any funds or proceeds realized from the writing and issuing of a pre-need burial contract, as defined herein, or any person who shall disburse such funds or proceeds in any manner other than as required by this act, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not in excess of ten thousand dollars or by imprisonment for a term not in excess of five years.

History.—Comp. §12 ch. 28211, 1953.

CHAPTER 641

HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL SERVICE PLANS

- | | | | |
|--------|---|--------|---|
| 641.01 | Definition or scope. | 641.09 | Investments and funds. |
| 641.02 | Incorporation. | 641.10 | Review of dispute. |
| 641.03 | Contracts. | 641.11 | Dissolution or liquidation. |
| 641.04 | License. | 641.12 | Revocation of license. |
| 641.05 | Charter, by-laws, contracts, rates; amendments, approval by insurance commission. | 641.13 | Licenses and taxes. |
| 641.06 | Annual reports or statements. | 641.14 | Regulation of employers or representatives. |
| 641.07 | Examination. | 641.15 | Pre-existing service plan corporations. |
| 641.08 | Acquisition costs. | 641.16 | Penalties. |

641.01 Definition or scope.—

(1) Any five or more persons wishing to form a corporation for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and operating a nonprofit medical and/or surgical and/or hospital service plan or plans in the state, whereby medical and/or surgical and/or hospital service or care may be provided in whole or in part by the said corporation, or by physicians and/or surgeons and/or hospitals participating in such service plan or plans, to such of the public as become subscribers to said plan or plans under a contract or contracts with such corporation may become incorporated under laws of Florida governing the incorporation of benevolent or charitable associations and similar corporations not for profit, and any such corporation heretofore or hereafter incorporated whose charter or certificate of incorporation has or shall have the consent or approval of the insurance commissioner of the state, shall be governed by this law and subject to regulation and supervision by the insurance commissioner of the state and all provisions of the laws of Florida applicable to health and/or sick or accident insurance, except as otherwise provided by chapter 641. The term "medical and/or surgical service plan" as used in this law, includes the contracting for the payment of fees toward, or furnishing of, professional services authorized or permitted to be furnished by a duly licensed doctor of medicine.

(2) Every corporation licensed under provisions of this law is hereby declared to be a charitable and benevolent institution.

*History.—§1, ch. 22826, 1945.
Am. §1, ch. 25394, 1949.*

641.02 Incorporation.—

(1) Any nonprofit medical and/or surgical and/or hospital service plan corporation shall be incorporated under the provisions of the laws of the state governing the incorporation of benevolent or charitable associations and similar corporations not for profit, except when in conflict with the provisions of this law, and every charter or certificate of such corporation shall have endorsed thereon or annexed thereto the consent of the insurance commissioner of the state.

(2) The directors of every such medical and surgical service and hospital service plan corporation and of every such hospital service plan corporation must at all times include representatives of the following groups: Licensed physicians participating in such medical and/or surgical service plan, directors, trustees, administrators or superintendents of established hospitals or corporations operating hospitals designated in §641.01; the general public, exclusive of physicians and hospital representatives.

(3) At least a majority of the directors of every such medical and surgical service plan corporation must at all times be licensed physicians and/or surgeons.

History.—§2, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.03 Contracts.—

(1) Any corporation subject to the provisions of the law may contract for or secure the rendering of service to any of its subscribers only by hospitals maintained by the state or any of its political subdivisions or by any other regularly operated and recognized hospital or by any hospital approved by the insurance commissioner and/or by licensed physicians and surgeons.

(2) The rates charged by such corporation to the subscribers for medical and/or surgical and/or hospital care shall at all times be subject to the approval of the insurance commissioner of the state.

(3) All rates of payments made by such corporation pursuant to the contracts provided for in subsection (1) of this section shall be approved by the insurance commissioner of the state.

History.—§3, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.04 License.—

(1) No corporation subject to the provisions of this law shall issue contracts to subscribers until the insurance commissioner has, by formal certificate or license, authorized it to do so. Application for such certificate of authority or license shall be made on forms to be supplied by the insurance commissioner, containing such information as he shall deem necessary.

(2) Each application for such certificate of authority or license, as a part thereof, shall be accompanied by copies of the following documents, duly certified to by at least two of the executive officers of such corporation:

(a) Charter or certificate of incorporation, with all amendments thereto.

(b) Bylaws with all amendments thereto.

(c) Proposed contracts between the corporation and any party for the furnishing of or the payment in whole or in part for medical and/or surgical services furnished the subscribers by duly licensed physicians and/or surgeons and for the furnishing of hospital service to the subscribers.

(d) Proposed contracts to be issued to subscribers to the plan showing the benefits to which they are entitled, together with a table of the rates charged, or proposed to be charged, to subscribers for each form of such contract.

(e) Financial statement of the corporation which shall include the amounts of each contribution paid or agreed to be paid to the corporation having working capital, the name or names of each contributor and the terms of each contribution.

(f) The insurance commissioner shall issue a certificate of authority or license to each applicant upon the payment of a fee of ten dollars and upon being satisfied as to the following:

1. That the applicant has been organized bona fide for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and operating a nonprofit medical and/or surgical and/or hospital service plan.

2. That each contract executed or proposed to be executed by the applicant and the physician and/or surgeon and/or hospital obligates, or will when executed, obligate each physician and/or surgeon and/or hospital thereto, to render the service and/or accept payment for the service to which each subscriber may be entitled under the terms of the contract issued to the subscriber.

3. That each contract issued or proposed to be issued to subscribers to the plan, is in a form approved by the insurance commissioner, and that the rates charged or proposed to be charged for each form of such contract and benefits to be provided, are fair and reasonable.

4. That no contributions to the funds of the corporation for working capital are repayable by the corporation except out of earned income over and above operating expenses and medical and/or surgical and/or hospital expenses and such reserve as the insurance commissioner may deem adequate.

5. That the amount of money actually received by the applicant upon the terms specified in subparagraph 4 hereof, for working capital, is sufficient to carry all acquisition costs and operating expenses for a period of at least three months from the date of the issuance of the certificate of authority or license.

6. Such certificate of authority or license shall be effective until revoked by the insurance commissioner as hereinafter provided, and any corporation to which such certificate of authority or license has been issued, until revocation thereof, shall be authorized to issue contracts, in the form or forms filed with the insurance commissioner, to the persons who may become subscribers.

History.—§4, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.05 Charter, by-laws, contracts, rates; amendments, approval by insurance commission.—No corporation subject to the provisions of this law shall amend its charter or certificate of incorporation, its bylaws, the terms and provisions of contracts executed or to be executed with hospitals and/or physicians and/or surgeons, and the terms and provisions of contracts issued or proposed to be issued to subscribers until such proposed amendments have been first submitted to and approved by the insurance commissioner; nor shall any change be made in the table of rates charged or proposed to be charged to subscribers for any form of contract issued or to be issued until such proposed change has been submitted to and approved by the insurance commissioner upon the adoption of any amendment or change, and following its approval by the insurance commissioner such corporation shall file a copy thereof with the insurance commissioner duly certified by at least two of the executive officers of such corporation.

History.—§5, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.06 Annual reports or statements.—Every corporation subject to the provisions of this law shall annually on or before the first day of March, file in the office of the insurance commissioner a statement verified by at least two of the principal officers of said corporation showing its condition on the 31st day of December then next preceding, which shall be in such form and shall contain such matters as the insurance commissioner shall prescribe.

History.—§6, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.07 Examination.—The insurance commissioner or any deputy or examiner of the insurance department or any other person whom the insurance commissioner shall appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any such corporation and free access to all of the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the corporation, and may summon and qualify witnesses under oath and to examine its officers, agents and employees or other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and condition of the corporation. The corporation whose affairs are examined shall pay to the insurance commissioner the traveling and other expenses of examination pursuant to §624.0119.

History.—§7, ch. 22826, 1945; §18, ch. 63-400.

641.08 Acquisition costs.—All acquisition costs in connection with the solicitation of subscribers to such service plan or plans shall at all times be subject to the approval of the insurance commissioner.

History.—§8, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.09 Investments and funds.—The funds of any corporation subject to the provisions of this law shall be invested only in securities permitted by the laws of the state for the investment of assets of life insurance companies.

History.—§9, ch. 22826, 1945.
cf.—§340.21, Relating to investments.

641.10 Review of dispute.—

(1) Any dispute arising between a corporation subject to the provisions of this law and any hospital and/or physician and/or surgeon with whom such corporation has a contract as provided herein, may be submitted to the insurance commissioner of the state for his decision with respect thereto.

(2) All final orders of the insurance commissioner made under the provisions of this law may be appealed to the district court of appeal, first district, in and for Leon county in the manner and within the time provided by the Florida appellate rules.

History.—§10, ch. 22826, 1945; (2) §29, ch. 63-512.

641.11 Dissolution or liquidation.—Any dissolution or liquidation of a corporation subject to the provisions of this law shall be under the supervision of the insurance commissioner, who shall have all powers with respect thereto granted to him under the laws of the state with respect to the dissolution and liquidation of life insurance companies.

History.—§11, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.12 Revocation of license.—Whenever the insurance commissioner shall have reason to believe that any corporation subject to the provisions of this law is being operated for profit or fraudulently conducted, or is not complying with the provisions of this law, he shall be authorized to suspend or revoke the certificate of authority or license theretofore granted, and may at any time thereafter institute or cause to be instituted, after due notice to the corporation, and an opportunity given to the corporation to be heard, the necessary proceedings under the laws of the state, looking to the dissolution of insurance companies, and any dissolution or liquidation of a corporation subject to the provisions of this law shall be under the supervision of the insurance commissioner.

History.—§12, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.13 Licenses and taxes.—

(1) Every corporation licensed under this law, its representatives and all of its properties and funds shall be exempt from all taxes and license fees; provided, such corporation shall be subject to the same license fees and premium receipt taxes imposed by general law upon and against and payable by fraternal benefit societies operating under the provisions of chapter 632, and with respect to the computation of such premium receipt taxes and for the purpose of this provision only, the "rates" paid by subscribers as provided herein shall be construed as "premiums" and the "contract" provided herein shall be construed as "policy."

(2) If the charter or certificate of incorporation specifies among its purposes the establishment, maintenance and operation of a medical and/or surgical and/or hospital service plan, it shall be referred to the insurance commissioner and such charter or certificate shall not be filed until the consent of the insurance commissioner shall be endorsed thereon and annexed thereto.

History.—§13, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.14 Regulation of employers or representatives.—Every representative or employee of any corporation subject to the provisions of this law, who sells or writes certificates for hospital service or contracts with hospitals for said corporation shall be registered by said corporation with the state insurance commissioner of the state. Said registration shall be on forms prescribed by the insurance commissioner and shall show such information as may be requested by the insurance commissioner. Provided, that said registration shall be made on or before the date of employment by said corporation of said representative or employee. In addition to the foregoing described registration, the corporation shall pay to the insurance commissioner a permit fee of six dollars for each such representative or employee and a like amount October 1 of each year thereafter; provided, that said permit fee shall be only three dollars in case the said representative or employee is not employed prior to April 1 of the then current year. No such permit shall be transferable from one person or corporation to another and shall be revocable by the insurance commissioner for cause, after due notice to employee or representative and corporation, followed by a hearing before the insurance commissioner or his deputy.

History.—§14, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.15 Pre-existing service plan corporations.—No nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of this state prior to the effective date of this law, to operate a medical and/or surgical and/or hospital plan or plans in the state or any of the counties thereof, whose charter or certificate of incorporation has, prior to the effective date of this law, been approved or consented to by the insurance commissioner of the state, shall be required to incorporate or reincorporate as provided herein, but every such corporation desiring to operate such a plan or plans state-wide, shall file with the insurance commissioner its acceptance of this law within six months from June 11, 1945, and every such corporation so accepting this law shall continue and shall have all the powers, authority and exemptions of this law, and be subject to all the provisions thereof; provided, however, the provisions of this law shall not apply to organized nonprofit corporations herein defined and heretofore existing whose charter and bylaws have not been filed with, or has not received a certificate of authority or license from the insurance commissioner of the state prior to the effective date of this law, nor to such corporations which are now in operation and have heretofore operated within the confines of a single county.

History.—§15, ch. 22826, 1945.

641.16 Penalties.—

(1) Any person or corporation engaging in the business of operating nonprofit medical and/or surgical and/or hospital service plan without first having procured a license from the insurance commissioner, as required by this law, and any person or corporation violating any of the provisions of this law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail, or by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars, or both in the discretion of the court.

(2) Any person making any willfully false statements in any written documents required by any section of this law to be filed with the insurance commissioner, or any examiner at any investigation or hearing conducted by said insurance commissioner or examiner, shall be guilty of perjury and upon conviction shall be punished as provided by law for the crime of perjury.

History.—§16, ch. 22826, 1945.
cf.—§837.01, Perjury, punishment.

CHAPTER 649

AUTOMOBILE CLUBS

- 649.011 Definitions.
 649.021 License required.
 649.031 Evidence of qualification for licensing.

649.011 Definitions.—

(1) "Automobile club" shall mean a legal entity which, in consideration of dues, assessments, or periodic payments of money, promises its members or subscribers to assist them in matters relating to the ownership, operation, use or maintenance of a motor vehicle; provided, however, that the definition of automobile clubs shall not include persons, associations, or corporations which are organized and operated solely for the purpose of conducting, sponsoring or sanctioning motor vehicle races, exhibitions or contests upon race tracks, or upon race courses established and marked as such for the duration of such particular event. The words "motor vehicles" used herein shall be the same as defined in chapter 320.

(2) "Insurance commissioner" shall mean the duly elected and qualified state treasurer and insurance commissioner of the state.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-65.

649.021 License required.—No automobile club shall do, or offer to do, business in the state unless the same shall be organized as a domestic or foreign corporation and shall be licensed by the insurance commissioner.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 57-65.

649.031 Evidence of qualification for licensing.—

(1) An applicant seeking to do business as or engage in the operation of an automobile club shall be required to furnish the commissioner with evidence of the competency and trustworthiness of its management and their professional ability to perform the services to be offered. The applicant shall pay a license fee of one hundred dollars annually. All licenses shall expire on September 30 of each year and may be renewed on application and payment of the same fee. Nothing in this act shall be construed as authorizing a licensed automobile club to provide or furnish insurance coverage unless such club shall have complied with all the laws and regulations required of insurance companies authorized to do business in this state.

(2) The actual or proposed name by which the automobile club is, or will be known, and the trademark and emblem which it is using, or proposed to use, shall be submitted to the insurance commissioner for his approval, providing such name, emblem or trademark is distinctive and not likely to mislead the public as to the nature or identity of the corporation using it, or interfere with the transactions of any other automobile club already doing busi-

- 649.041 Deposit required or surety bond.
 649.051 Salesmen to be registered.
 649.061 Powers of commissioner; rules.
 649.071 Penalty.

ness in the state, it shall be entitled to be approved.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 57-65.

649.041 Deposit required or surety bond.—

(1) Except as provided by this act, every automobile club, to assure the faithful performance of its obligations to its members or subscribers, shall deposit with the insurance commissioner securities of the type, in which by the laws of this state an insurance company may invest its funds, the sum of fifty thousand dollars before the insurance commissioner may issue it a license to do business; or in lieu thereof such clubs may file with the commissioner a surety bond in the amount of fifty thousand dollars of a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be approved by the commissioner and shall not be cancelled without a thirty-day notice to the commissioner.

(2) Any automobile club doing business in this state on April 1, 1957, shall, on or before October 1, 1957, deposit twenty-five thousand dollars in securities with the commissioner, as set forth in subsection (1), and on or before October 1, 1958, deposit with the commissioner an additional twenty-five thousand dollars in such securities, or in lieu thereof such clubs may file with the commissioner a surety bond in the same amounts, of a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be approved by the commissioner and shall not be cancelled without thirty days notice to the commissioner.

(3) The state shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all securities deposited with the insurance commissioner under this act. Securities deposited with the insurance commissioner under this act shall not, on account of such securities being in the state, be subject to taxation but shall be held exclusively and solely to insure the automobile club's faithful performance of its obligations to its members or subscribers.

(4) Automobile clubs depositing securities as required in this act shall have the right to draw the interest on such securities as the same accrues; and should coupon bonds be deposited under this act, the insurance commissioner, upon demand of the automobile club shall surrender the coupons as the same shall become due from any or all such bonds deposited by the said automobile clubs.

(5) Whenever an automobile club ceases to do business in this state and has satisfactorily satisfied its obligations to its members or subscribers, securities so deposited under this act shall be delivered up to the proper parties on presentation of the commissioner's receipt for said securities.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 57-65.

649.051 Salesmen to be registered.—Every automobile club shall on forms prescribed by the insurance commissioner register, on or before October 1 of each year, the names of, and home office address of each salesman, and shall within thirty days of termination of employment notify the insurance commissioner of such termination. Any salesman employed subsequent to the October 1 filing shall be registered with the insurance commissioner within ten days of such employment. No employee or salesman of an automobile club shall directly or indirectly be licensed to solicit, negotiate, or hold himself out in any manner to be an insurance agent or solicitor, to effect insurance contracts unless it is in accordance with the provisions of the insurance laws.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 57-65.

649.061 Powers of commissioner; rules.—The insurance commissioner shall have full power and authority to administer the provisions of this act and, to that end, he may adopt, promulgate and enforce rules and regulations necessary and proper to effectuate the purpose and provisions of this act.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 57-65.

649.071 Penalty.—Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 6 months, or punished by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 57-65.

CHAPTER 650

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

- | | | | |
|--------|--|--------|--|
| 650.01 | Declaration of policy. | 650.06 | Social security contribution trust fund. |
| 650.02 | Definitions. | 650.07 | Rules and regulations. |
| 650.03 | Federal-state agreement; interstate instrumentalities. | 650.08 | Studies and reports. |
| 650.04 | Contributions by state employees. | 650.09 | Liberal construction. |
| 650.05 | Plans for coverage of employees of political subdivisions. | 650.10 | Referenda and certification. |

650.01 Declaration of policy.—In order to extend to employees of the state and its political subdivisions and to the dependents and survivors of such employees, the basic protection accorded to others by the old-age and survivors insurance system embodied in the social security act, it is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature, subject to the limitations of this chapter, that such steps as are necessary be taken to provide such protection to employees of the state and its political subdivisions on as broad a basis as is permitted under the social security act. It is also the policy of the legislature that the protection afforded employees in positions covered by a retirement system on the date an agreement under this act is made applicable to service performed in such positions, or receiving periodic benefits under such retirement system at such time, will not be impaired as a result of making the agreement so applicable or as a result of legislative enactment in anticipation thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 26841, 1951; §2, ch. 29824, 1955.

650.02 Definitions.—For the purpose of this chapter:

(1) The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment as defined herein, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include that part of such remuneration which, even if it were for "employment" within the meaning of the federal insurance contributions act, would not constitute "wages" within the meaning of that act;

(2) The term "employment" means any services performed by an employee in the employ of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, including hospital or drainage taxing districts, for such employer, except:

(a) Service which in the absence of an agreement entered into under this chapter would constitute "employment" as defined in the social security act.

(b) Service which under the social security act may not be included in an agreement between this state and the secretary of health, education, and welfare entered into under this chapter. Service which under the social security act may be included in an agreement only upon certification by the governor in accordance with §218 (d) (3) of that act shall be included in the term "employment" if and when the governor issues, with respect to such services, a certificate to the secretary of health, education, and welfare, pursuant to said section.

(c) At the option of the employer, and when so provided in its agreement, any one or more of the following:

1. Service of an emergency nature.
2. Service in any class or classes of elective positions.
3. Service in any class or classes of part-time positions.
4. Service in any class or classes of positions the compensation for which is on a fee basis.
5. Service performed by individuals as members of a coverage group (as defined in §218 (b) of the social security act, as amended) in positions covered by a retirement system on the date the federal-state agreement is made applicable to such coverage group, but only in the case of individuals who, on such date (or, if later, the date on which they first occupy such positions), are not eligible to become members of such system and whose services in such positions have not already been included under such agreement.

6. Agricultural labor, as defined in §210 of the social security act, as amended.

7. Service performed by a student for the school in which he is enrolled.

(3) The term "employee" includes an officer of the state or political subdivision thereof;

(4) The term "state agency" means the Florida industrial commission.

(5) The term "secretary of health, education, and welfare" includes any individual to whom the secretary of health, education, and welfare has delegated any of the secretary's functions under the social security act with respect to coverage under such act of employees of states and their political subdivisions, and with respect to any action taken prior to April 11, 1953, includes the federal security administrator and any individual to whom such administrator had delegated any such function.

(6) The term "political subdivision" includes an instrumentality of the state, or of one or more of its political subdivisions, but only if such instrumentality is a juristic entity which is legally separate and distinct from the state or subdivision and only if its employees are not by virtue of their relation to such juristic entity employees of the state or subdivision;

(7) The term "social security act" means the act of congress approved August 14, 1935, Chapter 531, 49 Stat. 620, officially cited as the "Social Security Act," (including regulations and requirements issued pursuant thereto), as such act has been and may from time to time be amended; and

(8) The term "federal insurance contributions act" means subchapter A of chapter 9 of the federal internal revenue code of 1939 and subchapters A and B of chapter 21 of the federal internal revenue code of 1954, as such codes have been and may from time to time be amended; and the term "employee tax" means the tax imposed by §1400 of such code of 1939 and §3101 of such code of 1954.

History.—§2, ch. 26841, 1951; sub. § § (3), (4), (6), am. § § 1-3, ch. 28246, 1953; sub § (2) am. § § 1, 3-5, ch. 29824, 1955.

650.03 Federal-state agreement; interstate instrumentalities.—

(1) The state agency with the approval of the governor, is hereby authorized to enter on behalf of the state into an agreement with the federal security administrator, consistent with the terms and provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of extending the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors insurance system to employees of the state or any political subdivision thereof with respect to services specified in such agreement which constitutes "employment" as defined in §650.02. Such agreement may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration, and other appropriate provisions as the state agency and the secretary of health, education and welfare shall agree upon, but, except as may be otherwise required by or under the social security act as to the services to be covered, such agreement shall provide in effect that:

(a) Benefits will be provided for employees whose services are covered by the agreement (and their dependents and survivors) on the same basis as though such services constituted employment within the meaning of title II of the social security act;

(b) The state will pay to the secretary of the treasury, at such time or times as may be prescribed under the social security act, contributions with respect to wages (as defined in §650.02), equal to the sum of the taxes which would be imposed by the federal insurance contributions act if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment within the meaning of that act.

(c) Such agreement shall be effective with respect to services in employment covered by the agreement performed after January 1, 1951;

(d) All services which constitute employment as defined in §650.02 and are performed in the employ of the state by employees of the state, shall be covered by the agreement.

(e) All services which 1. constitute employment as defined in §650.02, 2. are performed in the employ of a political subdivision of the state, and 3. are covered by a plan which is in conformity with the terms of the agreement and has been approved by the state agency under §650.05, shall be covered by the agreement.

(f) As modified, the agreement shall include all services described in either paragraph (d) or paragraph (e) of this subsection and performed by individuals to whom §218 (c) (3) (C) of the social security act is applicable, and shall provide for election by the employer as to whether the service of any such individual shall continue to be covered by the agreement in case he thereafter becomes eligible to be a member of a retirement system.

(g) As modified, the agreement shall include all services described in either paragraph (d) or paragraph (e) of this subsection and performed by individuals in positions covered by a retirement system with respect to which the governor has issued a certificate to the secretary of health, education, and welfare pursuant to §218 (d) (3) of the social security act, as amended.

(2) Any instrumentality jointly created by this state and any other state or states is hereby authorized, upon the granting of like authority by such other state or states,

(a) to enter into an agreement with the secretary of health, education, and welfare whereby the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors insurance system shall be extended to employees of such instrumentality.

(b) to require its employees to pay (and for that purpose to deduct from their wages) contributions equal to the amounts which they would be required to pay under §650.04 (1) if they were covered by an agreement made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, and

(c) to make payments to the secretary of the treasury in accordance with such agreement, including payments from its own funds, and otherwise to comply with such agreements. Such agreement shall, to the extent practicable, be consistent with the terms and provisions of subsection (1) and other provisions of this chapter.

(3) Where a retirement system established by the state or any political subdivision thereof covers positions of policemen or firemen, or both, and whether or not other positions are covered by such system, there shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to be a separate retirement system with respect to the positions of policemen and a separate retirement system with respect to the positions of firemen.

(4) For the purposes of this chapter any retirement system established by the state or any political subdivision thereof, which, on, before, or after the date of enactment of this subsection is divided into two divisions or parts, one of which is composed of positions of members of such system who desire coverage under an agreement under this chapter and the other of which is composed of positions of members of such system who do not desire such coverage, shall, upon the governor's authorization of a referendum for either division or part, be deemed to be a separate retirement system with respect to each such division or part. The positions of individuals who become members of such system after such coverage is extended shall be included in such division or part composed of members desiring such coverage. The position of any individual which is covered by any retirement system to which the preceding two sentences are applicable shall, if such individual is ineligible to become a member of such system on the date of enactment of this subsection or, if later, the day he first occupies such position, be deemed to be covered by the separate retirement system consisting of the positions of members of the division or part who do not desire coverage under this chapter.

(5) For purposes of this chapter employees of the institutions of higher learning under the board of control who are covered by the teachers retirement system shall be deemed to be covered by a separate retirement system for each institution.

(6) If a retirement system covers positions of employees of a hospital which is an integral part of a municipal political subdivision, then, for the purposes of this chapter, there shall be deemed to be a separate retirement system for the employees of such hospital.

History.—§3, ch. 26841, 1951; sub. §(1)(c) am. §4, ch. 28246, 1953; sub. §(1) am. §§6-9, ch. 29824, 1955; (3), (4) N. by §1, ch. 57-226; (5) n. by §1, ch. 57-780; (6) n. by §1, ch. 61-138.

650.04 Contributions by state employees.—

(1) Every employee of the state whose services are covered by an agreement entered into under §650.03 shall be required to pay for the period of such coverage, into the social security contribution trust fund established by §650.06, contributions, with respect to wages as defined in §650.02, equal to the amount of the employee tax which would be imposed by the federal insurance contributions act if such services constituted employment within the meaning of that act. Such liability shall arise in consideration of the employee's retention in the service of the state, or his entry upon such service, after the enactment of this chapter.

(2) The contribution imposed by this section shall be collected by deducting the amount of the contribution from wages as and when paid, but failure to make such deduction shall not relieve the employee from liability for such contribution.

(3) If more or less than the correct amount of the contribution imposed by this section is paid or deducted with respect to any remuneration, proper adjustments, or refund if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe.

History.—§4, ch. 26841, 1951; sub. §(1) am. §10, ch. 29824, 1955; (1) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

650.05 Plans for coverage of employees of political subdivisions.—

(1) Each political subdivision of the state is hereby authorized to submit for approval by the state agency a plan for extending the benefits of title II of the social security act, in conformity with the applicable provisions of such act, to employees of such political subdivisions. Each such plan and any amendment thereof shall be approved by the state agency if it is found that such plan, or such plan as amended, is in conformity with such requirements as are provided in regulations of the state agency, except that no such plan shall be approved unless;

(a) it is in conformity with the requirements of the social security act and with the agreement entered into under §650.03;

(b) it provides that all services which constitute employment as defined in §650.02 are performed in the employ of the political subdivisions by employees thereof, shall be covered by the plan, except such of those services set forth in §650.02(2)(c) as the political subdivision specifically elects to exclude.

(c) it specifies the source or sources from which the funds necessary to make the payments required by paragraph (a) of subsection (3) and by subsection (4) are expected to be derived and contains reasonable assurance that such sources will be adequate for such purpose;

(d) it provides for such methods of administration of the plan by the political subdivision as are found by the state agency to be necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the plan;

(e) it provides that the political subdivision will make such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the state agency may from time to time require, and comply with such provisions as the state agency or the secretary of health, education, and welfare may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports; and

(f) it authorizes the state agency to terminate the plan in its entirety, in the discretion of the state agency, if it finds that there has been a failure to comply substantially with any provisions contained in such plan, such termination to take effect at the expiration of such notice and on such conditions as may be provided by regulations of the state agency and may be consistent with the provisions of the social security act.

(2) The state agency shall not finally refuse to approve a plan submitted by a political subdivision under subsection (1), and shall not terminate an approved plan, without reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the political subdivision affected thereby. Any final decision of the state agency shall be subject to proper judicial review.

(3) (a) Each political subdivision as to which a plan has been approved under this section shall pay into the social security contribution trust fund, with respect to wages (as defined in §650.02), at such time or times as the state agency may by regulation prescribe, contributions in the amounts and at the rates specified in the applicable agreement entered into by the state agency under §650.03.

(b) Each political subdivision required to make payments under paragraph (a) of this subsection is authorized, in consideration of the employee's retention in, or entry upon, employment after enactment of this chapter, to impose upon each of its employees, as to services which are covered by an approved plan, a contribution with respect to his wages as defined in §650.02 not exceeding the amount of the employee tax which would be imposed by the federal insurance contributions act if such services constituted employment within the meaning of that act, and to deduct the amount of such contribution from his wages as and when paid. Contributions so collected shall be paid into the social security contribution trust fund in partial discharge of the liability of such political subdivision or instrumentality under paragraph (a) of this subsection. Failure to deduct such contribution shall not relieve the employee or employer of liability therefor.

(4) Delinquent payments due under subsection (3)(a) may, with interest of one-half of one percent for each calendar month or part thereof past the due date, be recovered by action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the political subdivision liable therefor or shall, at the request of the state agency, be deducted from any other monies payable to such subdivision by any department or agency of the state.

(5) Each political subdivision as to which a plan has been approved shall be liable to the state agency for a proportionate part of the cost of administering this chapter. Such proportionate cost shall be computed and paid in accordance with such regulations relating thereto as may be adopted by the state agency, and shall be deposited in the social security administration trust fund, and if any such payment be not made when due, the amount thereof, with interest of one-half of one percent for each calendar month or part thereof past the due date, shall, upon request of the state agency, be deducted from any other monies payable to such political subdivision by any officer, department, or agency of the state, and forthwith paid to the state agency. Withdrawals from the social security administration trust fund shall be made solely for the payment of costs of administering this chapter, and the necessary amounts are hereby appropriated from said fund for this purpose.

History.—§5, ch. 26841, 1951; sub. § (1)(b), (4)(5) am. § 5-7, ch. 28246, 1953; sub. § (3)(b) am. §11, ch. 29824, 1955. (3), (5) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

650.06 Social security contribution trust fund.—

(1) There is hereby established a special fund to be known as the social security contribution trust fund. Such fund shall consist of and there shall be deposited in such fund:

(a) all contributions, interest, and penalties collected under §§650.04 and 650.05;

(b) all monies appropriated thereto under this chapter;

(c) any property or securities and earnings thereof acquired through the use of monies belonging to the fund;

(d) interest earned upon any monies in the fund, and

(e) all sums recovered upon the bond of the custodian or otherwise for losses sustained by the fund and all other monies received for the fund from any other source. All monies in the fund shall be mingled and undivided. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state agency is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the fund, including all monies and property or securities belonging thereto, and may perform any and all acts whether or not specifically designated, which are necessary to the administration thereof and are consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The social security contribution trust fund shall be established and held separate and apart from any other funds or monies of the state and shall be used and administered exclusively for the purpose of this chapter. Withdrawals from such fund shall be made for, and solely for

(a) payments of amounts required to be paid to the secretary of the treasury pursuant to an agreement entered into under §650.03;

(b) payments of refunds provided for in §650.04(3); and

(c) refunds of overpayments, not otherwise adjustable, made by a political subdivision or instrumentality.

(3) From the social security contribution trust fund the custodian of the fund shall pay to the secretary of the treasury such amounts and at such time or times as may be directed by the state agency in accordance with any agreement entered into under §650.03 and the social security act.

(4) The treasurer of the state shall be ex-officio treasurer and custodian of the social security contribution trust fund and shall administer such fund in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the directions of the state agency. The treasurer shall pay all warrants drawn by the comptroller and counter-signed by the governor upon the fund in accordance with the provisions of this section and with such regulations as the state agency may prescribe pursuant thereto.

(5) There are hereby authorized to be appropriated to the social security contribution trust fund, out of the general funds of this state not otherwise appropriated, such additional sums as are found to be necessary to make the payments to the secretary of the treasury which the state is required to make pursuant to an agreement entered into under §650.03.

History.—§6, ch. 26841, 1951; §2, ch. 61-119.

650.07 Rules and regulations.—The state agency shall make and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as it finds necessary or appropriate to the efficient administration of the functions with which it is charged under this chapter.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 26841, 1951.

650.08 Studies and reports.—The state agency shall make studies concerning the problem of old-age and survivors insurance protection for employees of the state and local governments and their instrumentalities and concerning the operation of agreements made and plans approved under this chapter and shall submit a report to the legislature at the beginning of each regular session, covering the administration and operation of this chapter during the preceding calendar year, including such recommendations for amendments to this chapter as it considers proper.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 26841, 1951.

650.09 Liberal construction.—The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed in order to effectively carry out the purposes of the chapter as set forth in the declaration of public policy.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 26841, 1951.

650.10 Referenda and certification.—

(1) The governor, or an official of the state designated by him for the purpose, is empowered to authorize and supervise the conduct of employee referenda prescribed by §213(d)(3) of the social security act, on the question of whether service in positions covered by a retirement system established by the state or by a political subdivision thereof should be excluded from or included under an agreement under this chapter. The notice of referendum required by §218 (d) (3) (C) of the social security act to be given to employees shall contain or shall be accompanied by a statement, in such form and such detail as the agency or individual designated to supervise the referendum shall deem necessary and sufficient, to inform the employees of the rights which will accrue to them and their dependents and survivors, and the liabilities to which they will be subject, if their services are included under an agreement under this chapter.

(2) Upon receiving evidence satisfactory to him that with respect to any such referendum the conditions specified in §218 (d) (3) of the social security act have been met, the governor, or an official of the state designated by him for the purpose, shall so certify to the secretary of health, education and welfare.

History.—§12, ch. 29824, 1955; §2, ch. 61-138.

CHAPTER 651

LIFE CARE CONTRACTS

- 651.01 Legislative determination.
- 651.02 Definitions.
- 651.03 Administration; regulations.
- 651.04 Certificate of authority.
- 651.05 Same; application; renewals.
- 651.06 Unearned reserve.

651.01 Legislative determination. — It is hereby determined by the legislature that the execution of care agreements for life or for a term of years and the business of those who engage by contract to furnish such care, are matters charged with a public interest; that heretofore abuses have been practiced in relation to the execution of said agreements, acquisition of property as consideration therefor, and the conduct of such business; that such persons presently engaged in such business in this state and those who may engage in said business, and such businesses, should be regulated, and that this chapter which regulates such persons and businesses is a valid exercise of the police power of Florida in relation thereto.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.02 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Commissioner" means the state treasurer and ex officio insurance commissioner.

(2) "Property", unless otherwise qualified, means real or personal property, including cash.

(3) "Care" means furnishing to an individual, not related by consanguinity or affinity to a person furnishing same, shelter, food, clothing, drugs, medicine, medical attention, entertainment, or other personal advantage or attention, either one or more, for a term of years or for life.

(4) "Person" means the owner or operator, whether a natural person or a firm or corporation, of a private home, institution, building, residence or other place, whether operated for profit or not, who undertakes to provide care for a period of one or more years or for life, for a fixed fee for the period of such care, payable either in a lump sum or in installments; or the owner or operator of an establishment licensed under the provisions of Chapters 400 or 608, who undertakes to provide care for a fixed fee, for the period of such care, payable either in a lump sum or in installments.

(5) "Transferor" means the one who transfers property to a person in consideration of such person furnishing care to the one transferring the property or to another designated to receive such care and referred to herein as the "nominee" of the transferor.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.03 Administration; regulations. — The administration of this chapter is vested in the commissioner, who shall:

(1) Prepare and furnish all forms necessary under the provisions of this chapter in relation to applications for certificates of au-

- 651.07 Agreement provisions.
- 651.08 Conversion of property.
- 651.09 Deposit.
- 651.10 Examinations.
- 651.11 Liquidation proceedings.
- 651.12 Penalties.

thority, renewals thereof, statements, examinations, and other required reports.

(2) Promulgate regulations, within the standards of this chapter, considered by him necessary to effectuate the purposes of this law; and in this connection it is provided that specific enumeration of this chapter with respect to a given phase or subject matter shall not preclude the commissioner from promulgating regulations concerning such phase or subject matter, which regulations are within the standards and purposes of the chapter.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.04 Certificate of authority. — On and after July 1, 1953, no person shall receive transfers of property conditioned upon an agreement to furnish life care or care for a term of years to a transferor or his nominee, nor shall such person enter into any such agreements with a transferor or his nominee for such purpose, nor shall such a person presently engaged in the furnishing of such care continue to engage in such business, unless and until such person is possessed of a certificate of authority, or renewal thereof, issued by the commissioner under the circumstances hereinafter stated. An original certificate of authority shall expire on March 1st succeeding its issuance, and annually thereafter, on or before March 1st, a renewal thereof shall be issued under the conditions set forth, except that this provision shall not apply to any such retirement home presently or hereafter being operated under receivership or under trustees appointed by any circuit court of this state, during the period of such operation.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.05 Same; application; renewals.—

(1) An application for a certificate of authority by any person to the commissioner shall be accompanied by the statement and other matters as provided in this section and by the deposit required by §651.09. Annually thereafter on or before March 1st, such person shall file said statement, as of January 1st of the calendar year in which it is filed, and such other information and data which may be required by the commissioner.

(2) If the applicant is a corporation, the original application for said certificate of authority shall also be accompanied by a copy of the charter. Thereafter, the annual statement as provided in subsection (1), shall be accompanied by a copy of any charter amendments during the period covered by said statement.

(3) Such statement shall be in the form as the commissioner shall elect and shall evidence the following:

(a) The type of agreements for care to be entered into by such person; and if such person on July 1, 1953, is engaged in the business of furnishing care, an itemization of outstanding agreements, dates thereof, transferors or their nominees named in such agreements, consideration with respect to each agreement and conditions thereof.

(b) For use in annual statements after the issuance of an original certificate, an itemization of contracts outstanding, dates thereof, transferors or their nominees named therein, consideration with respect to each agreement and conditions thereof.

(c) Location and description of physical property or properties essential for and proposed to be used or being used, in connection with such person's agreements to furnish care.

(d) Such detailed requirements with respect to assets and liabilities as will evidence to the commissioner, 1. sufficiency of funds available or reasonably available during the calendar year in which such statement is filed for such person to perform his obligations under such agreements; 2. the "unearned reserve", as hereinafter defined; and 3. investments.

(e) Such other information as may be considered essential by the commissioner in meeting his responsibilities under this chapter.

(4) The application for original certificate of authority shall be accompanied by forms of agreements proposed to be used by such person in the furnishing of care. If the commissioner finds that such agreements comply with §651.07, he shall approve same; provided, he shall not be responsible for any other features of said agreements. Thereafter, no other form of agreement shall be used by such person until it has been submitted to and approved by the commissioner.

(5) Upon the commissioner being satisfied that such statement and other accompanying matters meet the requirements of this chapter, that there has been evidenced the information required by said statement, that such person has deposited the securities required by §651.09, and has paid the fee set forth in subsection (6) hereof, he shall issue to such person said certificate of authority; and thereafter, if the annual statement of such person shall evidence such matters, if said deposit is maintained unimpaired, and if said fee is paid, he shall issue to such person a renewal of said certificate.

(6) If such person is an individual, said statement shall be sworn to by him; if a firm or association, by all members thereof; and if a corporation, by the president and secretary thereof.

(7) The fee payable to the commissioner for issuance of the original certificate and each annual renewal thereof shall be five dollars, which sum shall accompany each application for original certificate and thereafter each annual statement.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.06 Unearned reserve.—

(1) The unearned reserve with respect to any such agreement shall be that portion of the consideration paid by any transferor which has not been earned by the person agreeing to furnish care, computed on the following basis:

(a) As to an agreement for care for a term of years: The consideration paid for such agreement shall be pro-rated on an annual basis during its term depending upon the date of execution of the agreement to fix such annual periods. Upon execution of such agreement the pro rata part of such consideration for the first year thereof shall be considered earned by said person agreeing to furnish care and shall be available to said person for such year to apply to the performance of such agreement by him; and thereafter during the term of said agreement on each anniversary date thereof the pro rata amount of such consideration shall be considered earned for each said years by, and shall be available to, such person for application to performance of said agreement during said respective years. The unearned portion of said consideration, or unearned reserve, shall be that part thereof which has not been earned on the basis mentioned.

(b) As to an agreement for life care: Parts of years shall be construed as calendar years. The unearned portion of the consideration for such an agreement shall be that part thereof which at any time has not been earned by the person contracting to furnish care on the basis of the number of years which the agreement has been in force plus the number of years evidenced in the American experience table of mortality as the life expectancy of the transferor or his nominee at the attained age of such transferor or his nominee when such computation is made. Upon execution of such agreement, the pro-rata part of such consideration for that calendar year shall be considered earned by such person agreeing to furnish care and shall be available to said person for such year to apply to the performance of said agreement by him; and on January 1st of each year thereafter during the existence of said agreement, the pro rata amount of such consideration, computed as herein contemplated, shall be considered earned for each said calendar years by, and shall be available to, such person for application to the performance of said agreement during such respective calendar years.

(2) For the purpose of computing the unearned reserve with respect to a care agreement executed prior to July 1, 1953, and which provides for care for more than one transferor or nominee, the consideration set forth in such agreement shall be prorated as follows between such transferors or their nominees:

(a) As to an agreement for care for a term of years: Such consideration shall be prorated on an equal basis.

(b) As to an agreement providing for life care: The consideration named in said agreement shall be pro rated between such transferors or their nominees on the basis of their respective life expectancies at the time of execution of such agreement as evidenced by the American experience table of mortality.

(3) Said unearned reserve with respect to all outstanding agreements for care, shall be maintained unimpaired, either in the form of money in bank, securities of the nature described in §651.09, or other admissible assets, as hereinafter mentioned. The value of the physical property or properties of a person who has agreed to furnish care essential to the performance of such agreements, shall not be considered in relation to funds required and available for the performance of such agreements or for the required unearned reserve.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.07 Agreement provisions.—In addition to such other provisions as may be considered proper to effectuate the purpose of any such care agreement, each such agreement executed on and after July 1, 1953, shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Such agreement shall provide for the care of only one transferor or his nominee and shall state in terms of money the consideration therefor.

(2) If such an agreement is entered into between a transferor or his nominee and any such person, the same shall provide whether, upon cancellation thereof, the unearned reserve with respect thereto shall be paid to the transferor or his nominee.

(3) A provision in such an agreement that the same may be cancelled on any anniversary date thereof by a transferor or his nominee, or any such person, upon the giving of notice of cancellation at least thirty days prior to said anniversary date by such person to a transferor or his nominee, or by a transferor or his nominee to said person. On or before the anniversary date on which such agreement shall stand cancelled, said person shall pay in money to the transferor or his nominee, as the agreement may provide, the unearned reserve with respect to said cancelled agreement.

(4) Such agreement may contain a provision to the effect that upon the death of a transferor or his nominee, the unearned reserve with respect to such agreement shall be considered earned by, and become the property of, the person contracting therein to furnish such care; provided, that at the time of such death, no notice of cancellation of such agreement, as provided in preceding subsection (3) has been given such person, in which latter event such reserve shall be paid to the legal representative of the transferor where the agreement is for the latter's care, or to the transferor where the agreement is for the care of a nominee.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.08 Conversion of property.—When the consideration received by any such person to furnish care in pursuance of an agreement is in a form other than money or securities as described in §651.09, such person shall convert said property into money within one year of the date of such agreement unless an extension is granted by the commissioner; and during such one year period and extension, if any be granted, prior to conversion of said property into money, the value thereof as set forth in such agreement is an admissible asset of such person for the purposes of available funds or unearned reserve in relation to such agreement. Such property not converted into cash within one year, or such extended period, shall not be counted an asset in relation to such agreement for any purpose under this chapter. Provided, that as to any such property received as consideration by a person in connection with such an agreement prior to July 1, 1953, such person shall have one year from said effective date to convert said property into money.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.09 Deposit.—Any application for an original certificate of authority shall be accompanied by a deposit with the commissioner by the person making such application, of bonds or revenue certificates of the United States, of any of the states of the United States, of the District of Columbia, or of the cities or counties of Florida, in the aggregate market value of seventy-five thousand dollars, which securities, if such certificate of authority is issued, shall be receipted for by the commissioner and held by him in the manner and for the purposes herein-after mentioned. Such deposit, in said aggregate value, shall be maintained by any such person entering into care agreements. Whenever such person ceases to engage in such business in this state, and has settled all claims arising in connection with such care agreements or business in connection with performance of such care agreements, and has discharged all his obligations under any such agreements, upon proof of such facts to the commissioner, and delivery to the commissioner of the latter's receipt for such securities, the commissioner shall deliver said securities to such person or his assignee. During the period said securities are deposited with the commissioner, the owner of the same shall be entitled to the interest collected thereon. Such bonds so deposited shall be held by the commissioner solely for the purpose of satisfying judgments obtained by transferors or their nominees for breach of, or amounts adjudged to be due under, said care agreements. When such a final judgment has been rendered against any person party to such a care agreement, he shall pay same within sixty days thereafter, provided he does not prosecute or appeal from said judgment within said period; and if an appeal is so prosecuted and on the appeal the judgment is affirmed, such person shall pay same within fifteen days from the date mandate from the appellate court is filed in the cause in the trial court. Should any such person fail to pay such a judgment within the time contemplated by the immediately preceding sentence, the commissioner shall, in pursuance of order entered in the cause in the trial court, sell sufficient of the securities of such person so deposited with him to satisfy said judgment and costs, and shall pay to the person recovering such judgment the amount thereof and costs.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.10 Examinations.—The commissioner shall have power, and is required from time to time as he may deem necessary, to examine the business of any person engaged in the execution of care agreements or engaged in the performance of obligations under such agreements, in the same manner as is provided for examination by insurance companies. Such examinations shall be made by the commissioner or his designated representative or examiner, whose compensation shall be fixed by the commissioner. The written report of all such examinations, when completed, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner, and when so filed shall constitute public records. Any such person being examined shall produce, upon request, all records of the company. The commissioner, or his designated representative, may at any time examine into the records and affairs and inspect the physical property of any such person, whether in connection with a formal examination or not.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 28190, 1953.

651.11 Liquidation proceedings.—

(1) Whenever the commissioner shall determine that any such person so engaged in the entering into said care agreements and/or the business of the performance of obligations under such agreements so entered into:

(a) Has not the necessary physical property or properties to perform the obligations assumed under such agreement; or

(b) Has not available sufficient current funds to perform the obligations assumed under such agreement; or

(c) Has not maintained the unearned reserve with respect to any such agreements; or

(d) Has failed to maintain with the commissioner the deposit in the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars required by §651.09; or

(e) Has refused to produce papers or other books and records in connection with such person's said business for examination or inspection by the commissioner or his representative; or

(f) Has otherwise failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any regulation promulgated by the commissioner in pursuance of this law; and if any such person shall omit to correct any such failure, refusal or violation within thirty days after written notice from the commissioner to effect such correction, the commissioner may, the attorney general representing him, file complaint setting forth the relevant facts in the circuit court of the county wherein the business of such person is located, praying for issuance of an order directed to such person to show cause why the business and affairs of such person should not be liquidated and a receiver appointed by the court to accomplish such purpose.

(2) Upon application for such rule to show cause, or at any time thereafter, the court may, in its discretion, issue an injunction restraining the defendant from the further transaction of business, or disposition of the defendant's property, until the further order of the court.

(3) Upon return of such order to show cause, the court shall hear and try the issues forthwith. If the court shall determine that the person so charged as defendant in such proceeding has not been guilty of the omission, failure or violation alleged in the complaint by the commissioner, the court shall dismiss such complaint. On the other hand, if the court shall determine that the charges of the commissioner are sufficiently supported by the evidence, he may enter an order directing the liquidation of such business of said person and shall appoint a receiver who shall, under such conditions as may be prescribed by the court, take into his possession the assets of said person for the purpose of liquidation.

(4) In any such order of liquidation, or in order or orders thereafter entered, the court shall provide for notice to creditors, filing of claims and all other details necessary and essential to an estate in receivership. The court shall retain jurisdiction until the receiver is finally discharged.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 28190, 1953; (3) by §24, ch. 57-1.

651.12 Penalties.—Any person who maintains, enters into, or, as manager, officer or in any other administrative capacity, assists in entering into, maintaining or performing any such care agreement provided for in this chapter without doing so in pursuance of a valid certificate of authority, or renewal thereof, as contemplated by or provided in this chapter, or who otherwise violates any provision of this chapter or regulation promulgated in pursuance of this chapter, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year in the state prison, or by fine not in excess of two thousand dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.

History.—Comp. §13, ch. 28190, 1953.

TITLE XXXVI

BANKS AND BANKING

CHAPTER 654

SAVINGS BANKS

- 654.001 Incorporation under general banking laws.
654.01 Limitation of deposits by one individual.
654.02 Notice of withdrawal of deposits.
654.03 Withdrawal of deposit by married woman or infant.
654.04 Withdrawal of deposit of deceased person.

654.001 Incorporation under general banking laws.—Savings banks shall be incorporated in accordance with the general laws of this state prescribing the manner and regulating the incorporation of banks and trust companies.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28012, 1953.
cf.—§659.01 Creation of banking or trust corporation.

654.01 Limitation of deposits by one individual.—Every savings bank may receive deposits from any person until the same amounts to two thousand dollars, and may allow interest upon such deposits, and upon the interest accumulated thereon, until the principal with accrued interest amounts to three thousand dollars, but the limitation contained in this section shall not apply to deposits by religious and charitable associations or corporations.

History.—§40, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2197; §1, ch. 4427, 1895; GS 2729; RGS 4175; CGL 6116.

654.02 Notice of withdrawal of deposits.—No savings bank or institution for savings organized under this chapter shall be required to pay any deposit with such company until the depositor shall have first given it sixty days' notice that he intends to require payment of such deposits.

History.—§45, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2198; GS 2730; RGS 4176; CGL 6117.

654.03 Withdrawal of deposit by married woman or infant.—Every person, not under guardianship, who may make a deposit personally in any savings bank or institution for savings may control, transfer or withdraw the money so deposited and the dividends or interest that have accrued or may accrue thereon, notwithstanding such person at the time of exercising such control or of making transfer or withdrawal may be a married woman or minor.

History.—§47, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2199; GS 2731; RGS 4177; CGL 6118.

654.04 Withdrawal of deposit of deceased person.—Every savings bank or institution for savings organized under this chapter having

- 654.05 Investment of funds.
654.06 Application for loan.
654.07 Certain officers prohibited from borrowing, etc.
654.08 Company or agent not to receive commission for loan; penalty.
654.09 Banking commissioner's supervision and control.

money on deposit belonging to the estate of any deceased person whose residence at the time of his decease was in another state shall pay the same at any time after six months from the decease of the depositor, if within that time administration of his estate shall not have been granted or applied for within this state, to the administrator or executor of such deceased person, duly appointed in the state where such deceased person last resided, and the payment to such executor or administrator shall be a valid discharge for money so deposited.

History.—§46, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2200; GS 2732; RGS 4178; CGL 6119.

654.05 Investment of funds.—The capital and deposits and the income derived therefrom shall be invested only as follows:

(1) On the first mortgages of real estate situated in this state to an amount not to exceed sixty per cent of the valuation of such real estate, but not exceeding seventy-five per cent of the whole amount of deposits shall be so invested; and no loan on mortgage shall be made except upon the report of not less than two members of the board of investment, who shall certify to the value of the premises to be mortgaged, according to their best judgment, and such report shall be filed and preserved with the records of the corporation.

(2) In the public funds of the United States, or bonds of any of the United States, or in the bonds or notes of any city, county or town of the United States whose actual indebtedness does not exceed five per cent of the last preceding valuation of the property therein for the assessment of taxes, or in the notes of any citizen of this state with a pledge of any of the aforesaid securities at no more than the par value thereof.

(3) In the first mortgage bonds of any railroad company incorporated under authority of any of the United States, and whose road is located wholly in the same, and which is in possession of and operating its own road, and has earned and paid regular dividends for the two years next preceding such investment; or in the first mortgage bonds guaranteed by any such railroad company of any railroad company so incorporated whose road is thus located; or in the bonds or notes of any railroad company incorporated under the laws of this state which is unencumbered by mortgage, and which has paid a dividend of not less than five per cent per annum for the two years next preceding such investment; or in the notes of any citizen of this state, with a pledge as collateral of any of the aforesaid securities at no more than eighty per cent of the par value thereof.

(4) In the stock of any bank incorporated under the authority of this state, or the stock of any banking association incorporated under the authority of the United States, or in the notes of any citizen of this state with a pledge as collateral of any of the aforesaid securities at no more than eighty per cent of the market value and not exceeding the par value thereof.

Savings banks may deposit sums not exceeding thirty per cent of the amount of their deposits on call in such banks, banking associations or in any trust company incorporated under the laws of this state or the United States, and may receive interest for the same.

(5) In loans upon the personal notes of the depositors of the company, but not exceeding three-fourths of the amount of his deposit to a depositor, and in each such case the deposit and the book of the depositor shall be held by the company as collateral security for the payment of such loan.

(6) If such deposits and income cannot be conveniently invested in the mode hereinbefore prescribed, not exceeding one-third part thereof may be invested in bonds or other personal security, payable at a time not exceeding one year, with at least two sureties, if the principal and sureties are all citizens of this state and resident therein.

(7) Ten per cent of the deposits of any such corporation, but not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, may be invested in the purchase of a suitable site and the erection or preparation of a suitable building for the convenient transaction of its business.

History.—§41, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2201; GS 2733; RGS 4179; CGL 6120.
cf.—§665.46, Savings banks authorized to invest in stock of federal savings and loan associations.

654.06 Application for loan.—All applications for loans shall be made in writing to the treasurer of the corporation, who shall keep a record thereof, showing date, name of applicant, amount asked for and the security offered, and he shall cause the same to be presented to the board of investment.

History.—§44, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2202; GS 2734; RGS 4180; CGL 6121.

654.07 Certain officers prohibited from borrowing, etc.—No member of a committee or board of investment, or officer of such company, charged with the duty of investing its funds, shall borrow or use any portion thereof, be surety for loans to others, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, be an obligor for money borrowed from the company, and if such member or officer becomes the owner of real estate upon which a mortgage is held by the company, his office shall become vacant at the expiration of sixty days thereafter, unless he has ceased to be the owner thereof or has caused said mortgage to be discharged. Only one of the persons holding offices of president, vice-president and treasurer shall at the time be a member of the investment committee.

History.—§42, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2208; GS 2735; RGS 4181; CGL 6122.

654.08 Company or agent not to receive commission for loan; penalty.—No such company, nor any person acting in its behalf, shall negotiate, take or receive a fee, brokerage commission, gift or other consideration for or on account of a loan made by or on behalf of such corporation, other than appears on the face of the note or contract by which such loan purports to be made; but nothing herein contained shall apply to any reasonable charge for services in the examination of title and preparation of conveyances to such corporation as security for its loans. Whoever violates provisions of this section shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered by the state in any court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—§43, ch. 3864, 1889; RS 2204; GS 2736; RGS 4182; CGL 6123.

654.09 Banking commissioner's supervision and control.—The commissioner of banking shall make examinations at least once each year of each savings bank, at which time he will satisfy himself that the bank is in a solvent condition and is complying with the requirements of this chapter. In order to enforce his actions in this connection, the said commissioner is vested with the same supervision and control in his examination of savings banks as he now has under the statutes of this state regarding the examination and regulation of state banks, and should the commissioner find the capital stock of any such savings bank impaired, he may give notice of such impairment to the directors of such bank, and if such impairment is not made good to the satisfaction of the commissioner within a reasonable period of time, as may be determined by the commissioner, the said commissioner may proceed with the appointment of a liquidator in the same manner as liquidators are provided by state banks.

The cost of examination shall be borne by the bank at the rate which is now charged for the examination of state banks.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28012, 1953.
cf.—§658.08 Examination fees.

CHAPTER 656

INDUSTRIAL SAVINGS BANKS*

- 656.011 Definitions.
- 656.021 Creation of an industrial savings bank.
- 656.031 Application for authority to organize an industrial savings bank.
- 656.041 Investigation by commissioner.
- 656.051 Capital structure.
- 656.061 Authorization to engage in industrial savings banking business.
- 656.071 Place of transacting business; drive-in facilities.
- 656.081 Changes in articles of incorporation.
- 656.091 Shares of stock.
- 656.101 Dividends and surplus.
- 656.111 Changes in capital.
- 656.121 Directors, number, qualifications, oath, officers.
- 656.131 Deposit insurance; membership in federal reserve system.
- 656.141 Liability of stockholders.
- 656.15 Acquisition of majority stock in existing bank.
- 656.16 Cash reserves.
- 656.17 Special powers.
- 656.18 Prohibited powers.
- 656.19 Powers of commissioner.
- 656.20 Liability when acting upon commissioner's order or regulation.
- 656.21 Examinations and reports.
- 656.22 Examination fees.
- 656.23 Destruction of certain bank records.
- 656.24 Investments.
- 656.25 Security of deposits.
- 656.26 Sale of assets in ordinary course.
- 656.27 Borrowing.
- 656.28 Depositories of public moneys and pledge of assets.
- 656.29 Rights of minority stockholders.
- 656.30 Transactions outside of regular banking hours or on holidays.
- 656.31 Permissive legal holidays; Saturdays or Wednesdays.
- 656.32 Deposit of minors.
- 656.33 Deposits in two or more names.
- 656.34 Deposits in trust.
- 656.35 Adverse claim to bank deposit.
- 656.36 Death or incompetency of depositor.
- 656.37 Powers of attorney.
- 656.38 Definitions, §§656.38-656.46.
- 656.39 Authority to engage in leasing safe deposit facilities.
- 656.40 Access by fiduciaries.
- 656.41 Effect of lessee's death or incompetence.
- 656.42 Search procedure on death of lessee.
- 656.43 Lease to minor.
- 656.44 Delivery of safe deposit box contents or property held in safekeeping to personal representative.
- 656.45 Access to safe deposit boxes leased in two or more names.
- 656.46 Adverse claims to contents of safe deposit box.
- 656.47 Special remedies for nonpayment of rent.
- 656.48 Miscellaneous offenses.
- 656.49 Unlawful service as an officer.
- 656.50 Criminal penalties.
- 656.51 Injunction.
- 656.52 Fictitious or fraudulent assets; past due paper.
- 656.53 Applicability of chapter 661.

656.011 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Industrial savings bank" means an industrial savings bank or Morris plan bank or similar plan bank meeting all the requirements of this chapter and operating hereunder provided that the corporate name shall be so qualified and limited that such bank will be distinguished from commercial banks under Florida laws.

(2) "Commissioner" means the state commissioner of banking.

(3) "Community" means a city, town or incorporated village, or, where not within any of the foregoing, a trade area.

(4) "Court" means a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) "Item" means an instrument for the payment of money even though not negotiable, but does not include money.

(6) "Officer" when referring to a bank, means any person designated as such in the by-laws and includes, whether or not so designated, any executive officer, the chairman of the board of directors, the chairman of the executive committee, and any trust officer, assistant vice president, assistant treasurer, assistant cashier, assistant comptroller, or any person who performs the duties appropriate to those offices.

(7) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust estate, business trust, or unincorporated association.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-351.

656.021 Creation of an industrial savings bank.—When authorized by the commissioner, as provided herein, a corporation may be formed under the laws of the state by five or more persons for the purpose of conducting an industrial savings banking business.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 57-351.

656.031 Application for authority to organize an industrial savings bank.—

(1) A written application for authority to establish a corporation, as provided in §656.021, shall be filed with the commissioner, and shall include:

(a) The name, residence and occupation of each incorporator and stock subscriber and the amount of stock subscribed for by each, together with a statement under oath of each subscriber that he subscribes in good faith in his own right and not as agent or attorney for any undisclosed person.

*Chapter 656 was completely revised and 39 new sections added by ch. 57-351.

(b) The proposed name.

(c) The total capital, the number of shares of each class, and the par value of the shares of each class.

(d) The community, including the street and number, if known, and if not known, the area within the community where the proposed bank is to be located.

(2) Said application shall be in such form and contain such additional information as the commissioner shall reasonably require, and shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty dollars.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 57-351.

cf.—§656.011(1) Industrial savings bank defined.

656.041 Investigation by commissioner.—

(1) Upon the filing of an application, the commissioner shall make an investigation of:

(a) The character, reputation, financial standing and motives of the organizers, incorporators and subscribers in organizing the proposed bank.

(b) The need for banking facilities or additional banking facilities, as the case may be, in the community where the proposed bank is to be located, giving particular consideration to the adequacy of existing banking facilities and the need for further banking facilities in the locality.

(c) The present and future ability of the community to support the proposed bank and all other existing banking facilities in the community.

(d) The character, financial responsibility, banking experience and business qualifications of the proposed officers.

(e) The character, financial responsibility, business experience and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

(2) The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the application, in his discretion, but he shall not approve such application until, in his opinion:

(a) Public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed bank.

(b) Local conditions assure reasonable promise of successful operation for the proposed bank and those banks already established in the community.

(c) The proposed capital structure is adequate.

(d) The proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking experience, ability and standing to assure reasonable promise of successful operation.

(e) The name of the proposed bank is not so similar as to cause confusion with the name of an existing bank.

(f) Provision has been made for suitable banking house quarters in the area specified in the application.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 57-351.

656.051 Capital structure.—

(1) The capital stock of an industrial savings bank hereafter organized shall be in such amount as the commissioner shall deem adequate, but not less than the following aggregate amounts, based upon population of the community in which the bank will be located according to the latest official census:

(a) Twenty-five thousand dollars, if the population of the community in which the bank will be located does not exceed five thousand and fifty thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank will be located does not exceed ten thousand.

(b) One hundred thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank will be located exceeds ten thousand, but does not exceed fifty thousand.

(c) Two hundred thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank will be located exceeds fifty thousand, but does not exceed two hundred thousand.

(d) Three hundred thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank will be located exceeds two hundred thousand.

(2) Every bank hereafter organized shall, upon its organization, establish, in addition to the capital required by subsection (1), a paid-in surplus equal in amount to not less than twenty per cent of its paid-up capital, and a fund to be designated as undivided profits equal to five per cent of its paid-up capital.

(3) Each subscriber at the time he subscribes to the stock of a proposed bank shall pay an additional sum at least equal to five per cent of the par value of such stock into a fund to be used to defray the expenses of organization, such additional sum to be paid in cash. No organizational expense shall be paid out of any other funds of the bank. Upon the granting of a charter, any unexpended balance in such fund shall be transferred to undivided profits. If the application has been finally denied during said period, such balance shall be distributed among the contributors in proportion to their respective payments. The commissioner may require an accounting of disbursements from the fund and may order the incorporators to restore any sum which has been expended for other than proper organizational expenses.

(4) No bank shall apply any part of the funds collected under this section for the payment of commissions or fees for obtaining subscriptions or selling shares or to the payment of compensation for services in connection with the organization of a proposed bank, or in connection with securing authority to transact business, other than the payment of fees for legal services and of other usual and ordinary expenses incidental and necessary for the organization of a bank.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 57-351.

656.061 Authorization to engage in industrial savings banking business.—

(1) Upon approval of the application for authority to organize by the commissioner, the proposed articles of incorporation shall be submitted to the commissioner for his written approval before filing pursuant to chapter 608. After such approval and certification by the commissioner, the proposed bank shall:

(a) File with the commissioner a copy of its articles of incorporation duly certified by the secretary of state.

(b) File with the commissioner a statement in such form and with such supporting data and proof as he may require, showing that the entire capital, surplus and undivided profits have been fully paid in lawful money unconditionally and that the funds representing such capital, surplus and undivided profits, less sums spent with the approval of the commissioner for land, building, supplies, fixtures and equipment, are on hand.

(2) If the commissioner finds that the proposed bank has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law, he shall within thirty days after the filing of the statement specified in subsection (1)(b), issue, in duplicate, under his official seal, a certificate of authorization to transact an industrial banking business, transmitting one copy to the bank and placing one copy in the department file. Said certificate shall state that the corporation named therein is authorized to transact an industrial savings banking business, and the bank shall cause said certificate to be published one time in some newspaper of general circulation published in the city or county where the bank is located.

(3) No bank shall, until it has received its certificates of authorization:

(a) Transact any banking business.

(b) Incur any indebtedness except that allowed under subsection (1)(b).

(4) Upon the failure to comply with subsection (1)(a) and (b) within six months after the approval of the application for authority to organize, such right shall automatically terminate and the charter be revoked. The commissioner, however, for good cause, on written application filed before the expiration of said six months period, may extend the time within which the bank may be organized for a period not exceeding six months.

(5) Upon the failure to open for business within thirty days after the issuance of the certificate of authorization, the right to transact business shall automatically terminate and the charter be revoked.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 57-351.

656.071 Place of transacting business; drive-in facilities. —

(1) Any bank shall have only one place of doing business, which shall be located in the community specified in its original articles of incorporation, and the business of the bank shall be transacted at its banking house so located in said community specified, and not elsewhere. A bank may, however, change the location of its banking house within the community shown in its articles of incorporation with the written approval of the commissioner. Application for such approval shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require.

(2) A bank may operate a drive-in facility, providing one or more tellers to serve patrons in motor vehicles in the following manner:

(a) The facility will be a part of or adjacent to the main banking room.

(b) There will be a physical connection of the main banking room and the facility.

(c) There will be a private connecting doorway or private enclosed secure passageway connecting the main banking room and the facility enabling tellers to pass between the facility and main banking room without coming in contact with the public. The operation of any drive-in facility not complying with these requirements shall constitute a violation of subsection (1).

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 57-351.

656.081 Changes in articles of incorporation.—A bank shall not amend its articles of incorporation without the written approval of the commissioner, and if any amendment requests a change in name of the bank, the commissioner shall not approve such change if the new name is so similar as to cause confusion with the name of an existing bank.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 57-351.

656.091 Shares of stock.—

(1) A bank shall issue its capital stock with par value of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars per share.

(2) No bank hereafter shall issue any shares before they are fully paid for.

(3) A bank pursuant to action taken by its board of directors, and after obtaining the written approval of the commissioner and the approval of stockholders holding a majority of the voting stock of the bank evidenced either in a writing signed by the stockholders or by a vote at a stockholders' meeting called for such stated purpose after giving ten days' notice by registered mail, may issue preferred stock of one or more classes in an amount and with a par value as approved by the commissioner and may make amendments to its articles of incorporation which may be necessary to accomplish this purpose. The holders of the preferred stock shall not be held individually responsible as such holders for any debts, contracts, or engagements of the bank and shall not be liable for assessment.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 57-351.

656.101 Dividends and surplus.—The directors of any bank, after charging off bad debts, depreciation and other worthless assets if any, may quarter-annually, semi-annually, or annually, declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the bank as they shall judge expedient, but each bank shall, before the declaration of a dividend on its common stock carry ten per cent of its net profits for such preceding period as is covered by the dividend to its surplus fund, until the same shall at least equal the amount of its common and preferred stock. Whenever the surplus becomes impaired or reduced below the aggregate amount of common and preferred stock, it shall be reimbursed in the manner provided for its accumulation.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 57-351.

656.111 Changes in capital.—

(1) No bank shall reduce its outstanding capital stock without first obtaining the consent of the commissioner, and such consent shall be withheld if the reduction will cause the outstanding capital stock to be less than the minimum required hereunder.

(2) Any bank, may with the approval of the commissioner, provide for an increase in its capital as may be deemed expedient.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 57-351.

656.121 Directors, number, qualifications, oath, officers.—

(1) The board of directors of the bank shall consist of not less than five nor more than twenty-five directors, and shall be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders.

(2) Every director must during his whole term of service be a citizen of the United States, and at least three-fifths of the directors must have resided in this state for at least one year preceding their election, and must be residents therein during their continuance in office. Every director of a bank hereafter chartered must own in his own right, free of lien, encumbrance, option or pledge agreement, voting common stock of the bank of which he is a director of not less than one thousand dollars par value; any director who ceases to be the owner of such amount of voting common stock, or who becomes in any other manner disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place as such director; provided that as to those banks having an authorized capital of twenty-five thousand dollars or less, such director must own in his own right capital stock in such bank of not less than five hundred dollars par value in the manner above provided for other banks.

(3) Each director, upon assuming office, shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such bank and will not knowingly violate, or willfully permit to be violated, any of the provisions of this chapter, and that he is the owner in good faith and in his own right of shares of voting common stock in the amount required by subsection (2) subscribed by him or standing in his name on the books of the bank and that the same is not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt. Such oath shall be immediately filed with the commissioner.

(4) The board of directors of each bank shall manage the affairs of the bank and hold a meeting at least once every two months at the banking house of the bank.

History.—Comp. §12, ch. 57-351.

656.131 Deposit insurance; membership in federal reserve system.—A bank is authorized to do any act necessary to obtain insurance of its deposits by the United States, or any agency thereof, and to acquire and hold membership in the federal reserve system.

History.—Comp. §13, ch. 57-351.

656.141 Liability of stockholders.—Holders of voting common stock of banks shall be held individually responsible equally and ratable and not for one another for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such banks to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such shares. Persons holding stock as executors, administrators, guardians or trustees shall not be personally subject to any liability as stockholders, but the estates and funds in their hands shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator, intestate, ward or person interested in trust funds would be, if living and competent to hold the stock in his own name. Such stockholders who have transferred their shares or registered the transfer thereof within six months next before the date of the failure of such bank to meet its obligations, or with knowledge of such impending failure, shall be liable to the same extent as if they had made no such transfer, to the extent that the subsequent transferee fails to meet such liability; but this provision shall not be construed to affect in any way any recourse which such stockholders might otherwise have against those in whose names such shares are registered at the time of such failure, provided that this section shall not apply to stockholders in a bank which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation, a corporation under the laws of the United States, or which has an unimpaired surplus equalling the amount of its capital stock.

History.—Comp. §14, ch. 57-351.

656.15 Acquisition of majority stock in existing bank.—In any case where a person, a group of persons, or a corporation proposes to purchase or acquire the majority of the outstanding capital stock of any bank and thereby to change the control of said bank, such person, shall first make application to the commissioner for a certificate of approval of such proposed change of control of said bank and said application shall contain the name and address of the proposed new owner or owners of the controlling stock and the said commissioner shall issue said certificate of approval only after he has become satisfied that the proposed new owner or owners of the controlling stock is qualified by character, experience and financial responsibility to control and operate the said bank in a legal and proper manner, and that the interests of the stockholders, depositors and creditors of the bank and the interest of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership and management.

History.—Comp. §15, ch. 57-351.

656.16 Cash reserves.—

(1) Every bank shall at all times have available in cash an amount equal to at least fifteen per cent of the aggregate amount of its deposits. Such portion of said reserve as the bank may desire may be invested in bonds and securities of the United States and bonds and securities guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, owned and unpledged by the bank, or which are in excess of the total deposits which they are pledged to secure, and balances payable on demand, due to the company from banks with whom such company may keep in current account.

(2) Whenever the lawful reserve of any such bank as defined in subsection (1) shall be below the amount of fifteen per cent of its deposits, such bank shall not increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts otherwise than by discounting or purchasing of bills of exchange payable at sight, nor making any dividends of its profits until the required proportion between its deposits and its lawful money of the United States has been restored. The commissioner may notify any bank whose lawful money reserves shall be below the amount above required to be maintained to make good such reserve, and if such bank shall fail in thirty days thereafter so to make good its reserve of lawful money, the commissioner may appoint a liquidator to wind up the business of the bank as provided in §661.10.

History.—Comp. §16, ch. 57-351.

656.17 Special powers.—Industrial savings banks in addition to the general and usual powers incidental to ordinary corporations for profit in this state, which are not specifically restricted in this law, shall have the following special powers, to-wit:

(1) LOANS; SECURITY REQUIRED, INTEREST AND CHARGES.—The right to lend money upon the security of comakers, personal chattels or other property; and to take, receive, reserve and charge for such loans or discounts made or upon any notes, bills of exchange, or other evidences of debt, a discount not to exceed eight per cent per annum plus an additional charge not to exceed two per cent of the principal amount of any loan, which additional charge shall be for investigating the character of the individual applying for the loan, the security submitted and all other costs in connection with the making of such loans, all which charges and discounts may be collected at the time the loan is made. No other charge of any kind or nature whatsoever, by whatsoever purpose or name designated, shall be made; provided, however, that when a loan is of such character as to necessitate the filing or recording of a legal instrument, an additional charge may be made for such filing or recording, providing such charge is actually paid to the proper public officials; also borrower may be required to pay abstract costs, reasonable attorney's fees, documentary stamp taxes, other taxes, premiums on insurance, and other similar charges, if the bank deems the same necessary for the protection and security of said loan.

(2) COLLECTION OF CHARGES.—The right to require payment of the discount and charges permitted in subsection (1) above at the time the loan is made.

(3) ACCEPT DEPOSITS AND ISSUE INVESTMENT CERTIFICATES, CONTRACTS, ETC.—The right to accept deposits and issue as evidence therefor investment certificates, contracts or agreements, under any descriptive name which may bear such interest, if any, as their terms may provide and which may require the payment to the bank of such amounts from time to time as their terms may provide, and permit the withdrawal or cancellation of amounts paid upon the same in whole or in part from time to time and the credit of amounts thereon upon such condition as may be set forth therein.

(4) PLANS ON WHICH LOANS MAY BE MADE.—The right to lend money on any combination of any of the foregoing plans or the elements thereof, including the right to lend money upon the collateral deposits of and the compliance of the borrowers with the terms of any deposit, investment certificate, contract or agreement issued under subsection (3) above.

(5) LATE CHARGES.—To impose a late charge of five cents for each default in the payment of one dollar or a fraction thereof at the time any periodical installment upon a certificate assigned as collateral security for the payment of a loan made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section becomes due; provided, however, that such late charges shall not be cumulative.

History.—Comp. §17, ch. 57-351.

656.18 Prohibited powers.—No industrial savings bank may, however, do any of the following, to-wit:

(1) CARRY COMMERCIAL OR DEMAND ACCOUNTS.—Carry commercial or demand banking accounts.

(2) UNSECURED LOANS, EXCESSIVE AMOUNTS.—

(a) Unsecured loans exceeding ten per cent of the aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus shall not be made to any person; however, when approved by the board of directors, or an authorized committee therefrom, said ten per cent limitation may be increased to twenty-five per cent of the aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus when such loans are amply and entirely secured.

(b) No bank shall lend directly or indirectly an amount exceeding ten per cent of the aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus of said bank to any director or officer of said bank, individually or to any copartnership or incorporated company in which a director or officer may be directly or indirectly interested. No such loans shall be made unless the same shall be first approved by the board of directors of such bank.

(c) No loan or discount shall be made by an industrial savings bank on the security of the shares of its own capital stock.

(3) ACCEPT TRUSTS, ETC.—Accept trusts or act as guardian, administrator or judicial trustee in any form.

(4) DEPOSIT FUNDS IN OTHER BANKS.—Deposit any of its funds in any banking corporation, unless such corporation has been designated by vote of a majority of directors or of the executive committee present at a meeting duly called, at which a quorum was in attendance.

History.—Comp. §18, ch. 57-351.

656.19 Powers of commissioner.—In addition to other powers conferred by this act, the commissioner shall have power to:

(1) Implement by regulation any provision of this chapter. Notice and hearing shall be provided by the commissioner in advance of the effective date of any regulations promulgated under the provisions of this subsection and upon the adoption of any such regulations, same shall be immediately disseminated to all banks and trust companies concerned by such regulations. In matters involving extraordinary circumstances requiring immediate action, the commissioner may take such action, but shall promptly afford a subsequent hearing upon application of any interested bank or party to rescind the action taken.

(2) Restrict the withdrawal of deposits from all or one or more industrial banks where the commissioner finds that extraordinary circumstances make such restriction necessary for the proper protection of depositors in the affected institutions.

(3) The commissioner may from time to time formulate and promulgate reasonable rules and regulations governing the conduct of industrial banks doing business in this state which shall have the force of law and he shall have the power to enforce the same.

History.—Comp. §19, ch. 57-351.

656.20 Liability when acting upon commissioner's order or regulation.—No person shall be subject to any civil or criminal liability for any act or omission to act in good faith in reliance upon a subsisting order or regulation issued by the commissioner notwithstanding a subsequent decision by a court of competent jurisdiction invalidating the order or regulation.

History.—Comp. §20, ch. 57-351.

656.21 Examinations and reports.—The commissioner shall examine the condition of each bank at least twice in each calendar year. The commissioner may accept a federal deposit insurance corporation or federal reserve examination in lieu of one of said bank examinations, and may furnish to the federal deposit insurance corporation or its representatives a copy of all examinations made of such banks. He shall require each bank to submit a report of its condition as of such date as he may fix at least twice in each calendar year, or as often as ordered by the commissioner, verified by the oaths or affirmations of the president, or the vice-president and treasurer, secretary or cashier of such corporation and within ten days after such report shall have been called for, and to publish in a newspaper published in the county in which said bank is located a statement of its assets and liabilities of the date of said report, and a copy of said publication, with an affidavit of the publication shall be filed with the commissioner and a copy of said publication filed also with the county tax assessor. Every such bank which fails to transmit any report required under this section shall be subject to a penalty of $100.00 for each day of delinquency after the due date of the reports.

History.—Comp. §21, ch. 57-351.

656.22 Examination fees.—Each bank shall pay an examination fee computed in accordance with the following schedule:

With resources up to $ 150,000.00	_____	$ 40.00
With resources up to $ 250,000.00	_____	$ 50.00
With resources up to $ 400,000.00	_____	$ 75.00
With resources up to $ 500,000.00	_____	$ 90.00
With resources up to $ 750,000.00	_____	$120.00
With resources up to $1,000,000.00	_____	$150.00

and for additional million dollars, or major part thereof forty dollars per million dollars. Examination fees shall in all cases be paid by the bank direct to the state treasurer to be credited to the general revenue fund.

History.—§22, ch. 57-351; §1, ch. 63-254.

656.23 Destruction of certain bank records.—

(1) Banks shall not be required to preserve or keep their records or files or photographic or microphotographic copies thereof for a longer period than ten years next after the first day of January of the year following the time of the making or filing of such records or files, provided, however, that ledger sheets shall not be destroyed unless photographic copies of such ledger sheets are retained.

(2) No liability shall accrue against any bank destroying any such records after the expiration of the period provided in subsection (1), and any cause or proceedings in which any such records or files may be called in question or be demanded of the bank or any officer or employee thereof, a showing that such records or files have been destroyed in accordance with the terms of this section shall be a sufficient excuse for the failure to produce them.

(3) Any bank may photograph, microphotograph, or reproduce on film in such manner that each page is exposed in its entirety any or all of its journals, ledgers, statements, account books, or other books, or any or all of its internal records of every description, made or received in the regular course of its business, and the photographs, microphotographs, or reproductions on film or in the form of film or prints, or enlarged prints, or any duly certified or authenticated copy or reproduction thereof, duly certified or authenticated by a responsible officer of the bank under whose supervision the records are kept, shall in all cases, and in all courts and places, be admitted and received as evidence with a like force and effect as the original general ledger, voucher, statement, account book, or other record.

History.—Comp. §23, ch. 57-351.

656.24 Investments.—No bank shall, directly or indirectly, invest any of its funds:

(1) In the stock of any incorporated company except the stock of the federal reserve bank of this district, and the stock of the federal national mortgage association, in connection with the sale of the mortgages to said association, or any successor thereof, and except that a bank may purchase shares of stock in small business investment companies as defined in and organized pursuant to public law 85-699 of the act of congress of August 21, 1958 (15 U. S. code, section 681 et seq.) in an aggregate amount not exceeding one per cent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of such bank.

(2) In bonds or securities except as provided in this subsection:

(a) United States obligations, including bonds and securities upon which payment of principal and interest is fully guaranteed by the United States government or any agency hereof.

(b) General obligations of states, counties, municipal or county districts, for schools, roads, hospitals or other public purposes.

(c) Refunding bonds and gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates issued by the state board of administration under §16, Art. IX of the state constitution, or by the Florida development* commission, or

(d) County and municipal warrants, or

(e) Not more than ten per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus in industrial bonds or first mortgage bonds of railroad and public service corporations or any solvent corporation.

(f) Not more than ten per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus in federal intermediate credit bank consolidated trust debentures, federal home loan bank consolidated notes, central bank for cooperatives, or federal land bank bonds.

(g) Not more than twenty-five per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus in any single issue of revenue certificates or revenue bonds of any political subdivision or municipality of any state or the Florida development* commission.

(3) None of the investment securities provided in this paragraph shall be eligible for investment, if they have been in default either as to principal or interest within five years prior to the date of purchase.

(4) In real estate, except:

(a) Such as may be necessary for its accommodation in the transaction of its business provided the amount of such investments does not exceed forty per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus; or, in lieu thereof, and anything elsewhere in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, with prior approval of the commissioner a bank may invest in the stock of an incorporated company organized and operated for the sole purpose of owning and operating such building and premises as may be necessary for the accommodation of such bank in the transaction of its business, provided the investment in such stock shall not exceed forty per cent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of such bank.

(5) A bank may acquire property of any kind to secure, protect or satisfy a loan or investment previously made in good faith and such property shall be held and disposed of subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) Stock shall be sold within six months or such additional period as the commissioner may prescribe, unless the same is charged off.

(b) Real estate may be retained for use in the banking business subject to the conditions prescribed in this section for property purchased for such use, or may be rented. Real estate may be improved to facilitate its sale. Unless used in the banking business, it shall be sold within five years or such longer periods as the commissioner may allow unless it is written down on the books of said bank to one dollar.

(c) Other property, the acquisition of which is not otherwise authorized by this act, shall be sold within six months or such longer period as the commissioner may allow.

(d) Property shall be entered on the books at cost or fair value, whichever is less, and property which the bank is not otherwise authorized to acquire shall be charged off at a rate of not less than ten per cent per annum for real estate and twenty per cent per annum for other property, or at such lower rate not less than five and ten per cent, respectively, as the commissioner may allow.

(6) Any officer or director of any bank willfully violating any of the provisions of this section or §656.16 shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years.

In addition thereto, such officer or director shall in the event of such violation be subject to summary removal from office by the commissioner and shall not be eligible to re-election to such position or to any other official position in any bank doing business in this state for a period of five years from the date of such removal.

History.—§24, ch. 57-351; (1) by §1, ch. 59-86; (4) (a) by §1, ch. 59-85.

*Florida improvement commission changed to Florida development commission, §288.11.

656.25 Security of deposits.—Notwithstanding any provisions of law of this state or any political subdivision thereof requiring security of deposits in the form of collateral, surety bond, or in any other form, security for such deposits shall not be required to the extent that said deposits are insured under the provisions of section 12-B of the federal reserve act as amended, or any amendments thereto.

History.—Comp. §25, ch. 57-351.

656.26 Sale of assets in ordinary course.—A bank may sell any asset in the ordinary course of business or with the approval of the commissioner in any other circumstances.

History.—Comp. §26, ch. 57-351.

656.27 Borrowing.—A bank may borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness for a loan for temporary purposes in the usual course of its business.

History.—Comp. §27, ch. 57-351.

656.28 Depositories of public moneys and pledge of assets.—

(1) Banks shall be depositories of public moneys under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commissioner and they may also be employed as financial agents of the state and they shall perform such reasonable duties as depositories of public moneys and financial agents of the state as may be required of them. The commissioner shall require banks so designated to give satisfactory security by the deposit of bonds of the United States, the state or political subdivisions or other satisfactory security for the safekeeping and prompt payment of the public moneys deposited with them and for the faithful performance of their duties as financial agents of the state. A bank or trust company may also pledge its assets to:

(a) Enable it to act as agent for the sale of obligations of the United States.

(b) Secure borrowed funds.

(c) Secure deposits when the depositor is required to obtain such security by the laws of the United States or the laws of this state.

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions of law of this state or any political subdivision thereof requiring security of deposits in the form of collateral, surety bond or in any other form, security for such deposits shall not be required to the extent that such deposits are insured under the provisions of federal deposit insurance, as amended, or any amendments thereto.

History.—Comp. §28, ch. 57-351.

656.29 Rights of minority stockholders.—No bank and no director, officer or employee thereof, shall permit any stockholder other than a qualified director, officer or employee thereof to have access to or to examine or inspect any of the books or records of such bank other than its general statement book showing its general assets and liabilities.

History.—Comp. §29, ch. 57-351.

656.30 Transactions outside of regular banking hours or on holidays.—

(1) No other law shall affect the validity of, or render void or voidable, the acceptance of deposits, or any other transaction by a bank because done or performed on any holiday, or half-holiday, or during any time other than regular banking hours; provided that nothing herein shall be construed to compel any bank which by law or custom closes at its usual designated time on any Saturday or for the whole, or any part of any legal holiday, to keep open for the transaction of business, or to perform any of the acts or transactions aforesaid on any Saturday after such hour, or on any legal holiday, except at its own option.

(2) Any bank may be closed for a period of not more than forty-eight consecutive hours, excluding other legal holidays, whenever in the judgment of the directors, the president, or other officers in charge, the lives, safety or property of the institution's employees, or the institution itself would be endangered or placed in jeopardy by an impending or existing hurricane, or other catastrophe, including, but not limited to fire and civil disturbances. The period during which a banking institution is closed pursuant to this subsection shall be a legal holiday as regards banking transactions.

History.—Comp. §30, ch. 57-351.

656.31 Permissive legal holidays; Saturdays or Wednesdays.—Any bank lawfully doing business in the state may be closed on any one or more Saturdays or Wednesdays upon the adoption of a resolution to such effect by a majority vote of the board of directors thereof. Any one or more of such Saturdays or Wednesdays shall with respect to any such bank, which shall be closed thereon in accordance with the provisions of this section, constitute a holiday for all purposes whatsoever as regards banking business of whatsoever character.

History.—Comp. §31, ch. 57-351.

656.32 Deposit of minors.—Bank deposits by a minor or made in his name, other than by a court appointed guardian, may be withdrawn by the minor in the absence of an agreement to the contrary made between the bank and the depositor at the time the account is opened, and in case of any such agreement, such moneys, until the minor's disabilities are removed, may be withdrawn by the person or persons designated in such agreement.

History.—Comp. §32, ch. 57-351.

656.33 Deposits in two or more names.—Banks deposits, or any part thereof, or any interest therein made in the names of two or more persons, payable to either, or payable to either or the survivor, may be paid to either of said persons whether the other be living or not; and the receipt or acquittance of the person so paid shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the bank for any payment so made.

History.—Comp. §33, ch. 57-351.

656.34 Deposits in trust.—Bank deposits made by any person describing himself and making such deposit as trustee for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust than such description shall have been given in writing to such bank, in the event of the death of the person so described as trustee, such deposit, or any part thereof, together with the interest thereon may be paid to the person for whom the deposit was thus stated to have been made.

History.—Comp. §34, ch. 57-351.

656.35 Adverse claim to bank deposit.—Notice to any bank of an adverse claim to a deposit standing on its books to the credit of any person shall not be effectual to cause said bank to recognize said adverse claimant unless said adverse claimant shall also either:

(1) Procure a restraining order, injunction or other appropriate process against said bank from a court in a cause therein instituted by him wherein the person to whose credit the deposit stands is made a party and served with process, or

(2) Execute to said bank in form and with sureties acceptable to it, a bond, indemnifying said bank from any and all liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses, for and on account of the payment of such adverse claim or the dishonor of the check or other order of the person to whose credit the deposit stands on the books of said bank.

History.—Comp. §35, ch. 57-351.

656.36 Death or incompetency of depositor.—Any bank may pay any item made, drawn or accepted by a person who has funds on deposit to meet the same, notwithstanding the death or incompetency of the drawer, if presentation is made within thirty days after receipt of notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of said depositor, and at any time if the bank has not received the written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of said depositor. No bank shall be liable for damages, or penalty, by reason of any payment made pursuant to this section.

History.—Comp. §36, ch. 57-351.

656.37 Powers of attorney.—

(1) A bank may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney authorized in writing to operate, in whole or in part, the account of a depositor, until it receives written notice of the revocation of his authority.

(2) Written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of such depositor shall constitute written notice of revocation of the authority of his attorney; provided, however, bank may, until thirty days after receipt of such notice, pay any item made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by such attorney prior to such death or incompetency, provided that such item is otherwise properly payable.

History.—Comp. §37, ch. 57-351.

656.38 Definitions, §§656.38-656.46.—As used in §§656.38 through 656.46:

(1) "Lessee" means a person contracting with a lessor for the use of a safe deposit box.

(2) "Lessor" means a bank renting safe deposit facilities.

(3) "Safe deposit box" means a safe deposit box, vault, or other safe deposit receptacle maintained by a lessor and the rules relating thereto apply to property or documents kept in safekeeping in the bank's vault.

History.—Comp. §38, ch. 57-351.

656.39 Authority to engage in leasing safe deposit facilities.—An industrial savings bank may maintain and lease safe deposit boxes and may accept property or documents for safekeeping if, except in the case of night depositories it issues a receipt therefor.

History.—Comp. §39, ch. 57-351.

656.40 Access by fiduciaries.—Where a safe deposit box is made available by a lessor to one or more persons acting as fiduciaries, the lessor may, except as otherwise expressly provided in the lease or the writings pursuant to which such fiduciaries are acting, allow access thereto as follows:

(1) By any one or more of the persons acting as executors or administrators.

(2) By any one or more of the persons otherwise acting as fiduciaries when authorized in writing signed by all other persons so acting.

(3) By any agent authorized in writing signed by all of the persons acting as fiduciaries.

History.—Comp. §40, ch. 57-351.

656.41 Effect of lessee's death or incompetence.—Where a lessor without knowledge of the death or of an adjudication of legal incompetence of the lessee, deals with his agent pursuant to a written power of attorney signed by such lessee, the transaction binds the lessee's estate and the lessee.

History.—Comp. §41, ch. 57-351.

656.42 Search procedure on death of lessee.—Provided satisfactory proof of the death of the lessee is presented, a lessor shall permit the person named in a court order for the purpose, or if no order has been served upon the lessor, the spouse, a parent, an adult descendant or a person named as an executor in a copy of a purported will procured by him, to open and examine the contents of a safe deposit box leased by a decedent, or any documents delivered by a decedent for safekeeping, in the presence of an officer of the lessor; and the lessor if so requested by such person, must deliver:

(1) Any writing purporting to be a will of the decedent to the court having probate jurisdiction in the county wherein the bank is located.

(2) Any writing purporting to be a deed to a burial plot or to give burial instructions to the person making the request for a search; and

(3) Any document purporting to be an insurance policy on the life of the decedent to contents shall be removed pursuant to this section.

the beneficiary named therein; but no other

History.—Comp. §42, ch. 57-351.

656.43 Lease to minor.—A bank may lease a safe deposit box to and in connection therewith deal with a minor with the same effect as if leasing to and dealing with a person of full legal capacity.

History.—Comp. §43, ch. 57-351.

656.44 Delivery of safe deposit box contents or property held in safekeeping to personal representative.—

(1) The lessor shall immediately deliver to a resident personal representative, upon presentation of a certified copy of his letters of authority, all property deposited with it by the decedent for safekeeping, and shall grant him access to any safe deposit box in the decedent's name and permit him to remove from such box any part or all of the contents thereof.

(2) After three months from the death of a lessee, if a personal foreign representative of such lessee has been appointed by a court of any other state and the lessor has not received written notice of the appointment of a personal representative in this state, a lessor may, in its discretion, deliver to a foreign personal representative all properties deposited with it for safekeeping and the contents of any safe deposit box in the name of the decedent. Such a foreign personal representative shall furnish the lessor with an affidavit setting forth facts showing the domicile of the deceased lessee to be other than this state, and stating that there are no unpaid creditors of the deceased lessee in this state, together with a certified copy of his letters of authority. A lessor making delivery pursuant to this subsection shall maintain in its files a receipt executed by such foreign personal representative which itemizes in detail all property so delivered.

(3) No lessor shall be liable for damages or penalty by reason of any delivery made pursuant to this section.

History.—Comp. §44, ch. 57-351.

656.45 Access to safe deposit boxes leased in two or more names.—

(1) When specifically provided in the lease or rental agreement covering safe deposit boxes heretofore or hereafter rented or leased in the names of two or more persons that access to said safe deposit box shall be granted to either lessee or to either or the survivor, access to said safe deposit box shall be granted by lessor to either of said persons, whether the other person or persons be living or not, and the receipt or acquittance of such person so granted access shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the lessor for granting access thereto.

(2) No lessor shall be liable for damages or penalty by reason of any delivery made pursuant to this section.

History.—Comp. §45, ch. 57-351.

656.46 Adverse claims to contents of safe deposit box.—

(1) An adverse claim to the contents of a safe deposit box, or to property held in safekeeping, is not sufficient to require the lessor to deny access to its lessee unless:

(a) The lessor is directed to do so by a court order issued in an action in which the lessee is served with process and named as a party by a name which identifies him with the name in which the safe deposit box is leased or the property held; or

(b) The safe deposit box is leased or the property is held in the name of a lessee with the addition of words indicating that the contents or property are held in a fiduciary capacity, and the adverse claim is supported by a written statement of facts disclosing that it is made by or on behalf of a beneficiary and that there is reason to know that the fiduciary will misappropriate the trust property.

(2) A claim is also an adverse claim where one of several lessees claims, contrary to the terms of the lease, an exclusive right of access, or where one or more persons claim a right of access as agents or officers of a lessee to the exclusion of others as agents or officers, or where it is claimed that a lessee is the same person as one using another name.

History.—Comp. §46, ch. 57-351.

656.47 Special remedies for nonpayment of rent.—

(1) If the rental due on a safe deposit box has not been paid for six months, the lessor may send a notice by registered mail to the last known address of the lessee stating that the safe deposit box will be opened and its contents stored at the expense of the lessee unless payment of the rental is made within thirty days. If the rental is not paid within thirty days from the mailing of the notice, the box may be opened in the presence of an officer of the lessor and of a notary public who is not a director, officer, employee or stockholder of the lessor. The contents shall be sealed in a package by a notary public who shall write on the outside the name of the lessee and the date of the opening. The notary public shall execute a certificate reciting the name of the lessee, the date of the opening of the box and a list of its contents. The certificate shall be included in the package and a copy of the certificate shall be sent by registered mail to the last known address of the lessee. The package shall then be placed in the general vaults of the lessor at a rental not exceeding the rental previously charged for the box.

(2) If the contents of the safe deposit box have not been claimed within one year of the mailing of the certificate, the lessor may send a further notice to the last known address of the lessee stating that, unless the accumulated charges are paid within thirty days, the contents of the box will be sold at public auction at a specified time and place, or in the case of securities listed on a stock exchange, will be sold upon the exchange on or after a specified date and that unsalable items will be destroyed. The time, place and manner of sale shall also be posted conspicuously on the premises of the lessor and advertised once in a newspaper of general circulation in the community. If the articles are not claimed, they may then be sold in accordance with the notice.

The balance of the proceeds, after deducting accumulated charges, including the expenses of advertising and conducting the sale, shall be deposited to the credit of the lessee in any account maintained by him, or if none, shall be deemed a deposit account with the bank operating the safe deposit facility, and shall be identified on the books of the bank as arising from the sale of contents of a safe deposit box.

(3) Any documents or writings of a private nature, and having little or no apparent value need not be offered for sale, but shall be retained, unless claimed by the owner, for the period specified for unclaimed contents, after which they may be destroyed.

(4) The remedies provided for in this section shall apply to rental accrued or contents of safe deposit boxes held by banks prior to the enactment of chapter 28016 of the laws of 1953, chs. 656-661, Florida Statutes.

History.—Comp. §47, ch. 57-351.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

656.48 Miscellaneous offenses.—

(1) Any director, officer or employee of a bank who asks for or receives, consents or agrees to receive any commission, emolument or gratuity or any money property or things of value for his own personal benefit, or of personal advantage for procuring or endeavoring to procure for any person any loan from such bank or the purchase or discount of any note, draft, check, bill of exchange or other obligation by such bank or for permitting any person to overdraw any account with such bank shall be guilty of a felony.

(2) Any director, officer, agent or employee of any bank who knowingly receives or possesses himself of any of its property otherwise than in payment of a just demand, and with intent to defraud, omits to make or cause to be made a full and true entry thereof in its books and accounts, or concurs in omitting to make any material entry thereof, shall be guilty of a felony.

(3) Any director, officer, agent or employee of a bank who without authority from the board of directors of such bank, (a) makes, draws, issues, puts forth or assigns any certificate of deposit, draft, order, bill of exchange, acceptance, note, debenture, bond or other obligation, or mortgage, judgment or decree, or, (b) makes any false entry in any book, report or statement of such bank with intent to defraud such bank or any other person, firm, or corporation, or to deceive any officer of such bank, or the commissioner or any examiner appointed to examine the affairs of such bank shall be guilty of a felony.

(4) No bank shall purchase any real property or any contract arising from the sale of real property, or any note or bond in which any director, officer, or controlling stockholders of such bank, is personally or financially interested, directly or indirectly for his own account, for himself, or as a partner or agent of others without first obtaining the approval of the majority of the board of directors, excluding his own vote.

(5) No officer or director without prior approval of the board of a bank shall purchase directly or indirectly or be interested in the purchase of any of the bank's assets.

History.—Comp. §48, ch. 57-351.

656.49 Unlawful service as an officer.—It shall be unlawful for any person to serve as an officer or director of a bank who:

(1) Has been convicted of an offense constituting a violation of the banking laws, involving moral turpitude, or a breach of trust.

(2) Is indebted to the bank for more than thirty days upon a judgment that has become final.

(3) Has any interest adverse to the bank unless such interest is promptly and fully disclosed in writing to the board of directors of the bank.

History.—Comp. §49, ch. 57-351.

656.50 Criminal penalties.—Any person responsible for an act or omission expressly declared to be unlawful, or a criminal offense by this chapter upon conviction shall be guilty:

(1) Of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or a fine not exceeding $1,000.00, or both; or

(2) If the act or omission was intended to defraud, of a felony punishable by imprisonment not exceeding 5 years, or a fine not exceeding $10,000.00, or both.

History.—Comp. §50, ch. 57-351.

656.51 Injunction.—Whenever a violation of this chapter is threatened or impending, and will cause substantial injury to a bank or to the depositors, creditors, or stockholders thereof, the circuit court is hereby granted jurisdiction to hear any complaint filed by the commissioner or any interested party, and, upon proper showing, to issue an injunction restraining such violation or granting such other appropriate relief.

History.—Comp. §51, ch. 57-351.

656.52 Fictitious or fraudulent assets; past due paper.—

(1) Any bank shall not carry as an asset of said company any note, obligation or security which it does not own absolutely or which is known by the bank to be fraudulent or otherwise worthless, and no bank shall carry as an asset in any report to the commissioner or any published report any note or other obligation which is past due or upon which no interest has been paid for one year or longer, provided, however, that such past due paper may be carried to the extent of the reasonable value of any lien or other collateral given to secure such obligation; and provided further that if suit has been filed to enforce the collection of any such past due obligation, it may be carried at its reasonable value as determined by the board of directors. The commissioner may after investigation order the revision of any value so determined hereunder.

(2) Any officer of a bank who knowingly places among the assets of said bank any note, obligation or security which it does not own or which to his knowledge is fraudulent or otherwise worthless or who represents to the commissioner or an examiner that any note, obligation or security carried or an asset of such bank is the property of the bank and is genuine when it is known to such officers that such representation is false or that such note, obligation or security is fraudulent or otherwise worthless, such officer shall be guilty of a felony.

History.—Comp. §52, ch. 57-351.

656.53 Applicability of chapter 661.—All provisions of chapter 661 shall be applicable to industrial savings banks operating under this chapter.

History.—Comp. §53, ch. 57-351.

CHAPTER 657
CREDIT UNIONS

- 657.01 Organization and definition.
- 657.02 Amendments.
- 657.03 Use of name "credit union."
- 657.04 Powers.
- 657.05 Membership.
- 657.06 Reports to comptroller; examinations; fees; revocation of certificate of approval.
- 657.07 Fiscal year; meetings.
- 657.08 Board of directors and committees to be elected.
- 657.09 Election of officers; duties of directors.
- 657.10 Credit committee.
- 657.11 Supervisory committee.
- 657.12 Capital.

- 657.13 Minors.
- 657.14 Interest rates.
- 657.15 Borrowing power.
- 657.16 Loans.
- 657.161 Investments.
- 657.17 Reserves.
- 657.18 Dividends.
- 657.19 Expulsion; withdrawal.
- 657.20 Dissolution.
- 657.21 Place of business.
- 657.22 Authority to destroy records or files after ten years; liability.
- 657.23 Conversion of credit unions from state to federal and vice versa.

657.01 Organization and definition.—Any seven resident persons of the state may apply to the comptroller of the state for permission to organize a credit union.

A credit union is a cooperative society, incorporated for the two-fold purpose of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at legitimate rates of interest for provident purposes.

A credit union is organized in the following manner:

(1) The applicants execute in duplicate a certificate of organization by the terms of which they agree to be bound. The certificate shall state:

(a) The name and location of the proposed credit union.

(b) The names and addresses of the subscribers to the certificate and the number of shares subscribed by each.

(c) The par value of the shares of the credit union which shall not exceed ten dollars each.

(2) They next prepare and adopt by-laws for the general governance of the credit union consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and execute the same in duplicate.

(3) The certificate and the by-laws, both executed in duplicate, are forwarded to the comptroller with a filing fee of five dollars and an investigation fee of fifteen dollars for the use of the state.

(4) The comptroller shall, within thirty days of the receipt of the certificate and by-laws, determine whether they conform with the provisions of this chapter, and whether or not the organization of the credit union in question would benefit the members of it and be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Thereupon the comptroller shall notify the applicants of his decision. If it is favorable he shall issue a certificate of approval, attached to the duplicate certificate of organization and return the same, together with the duplicate by-laws, to the applicants.

(6) The applicants shall thereupon file the duplicate of the certificate of organization, with the certificate of approval attached thereto, with the clerk of the circuit court of the county within which the credit union is to do business, who shall make a record of the certificate and return it, with his certificate of record attached thereto, to the comptroller for permanent record.

(7) Thereupon the applicants shall become and be a credit union, incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

In order to simplify the organization of credit unions the comptroller shall cause to be prepared an approved form of certificate of organization and a form of by-laws, consistent with this chapter which may be used by credit union incorporators for their guidance, and on written application of any seven resident persons of the state, shall supply them without charge with a blank certificate of organization and a copy of said form of suggested by-laws.

History.—§1, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(1); (3) by §1, ch. 59-56.

657.02 Amendments.—Any and all amendments to the by-laws must be approved by the comptroller before they become operative.

History.—§2, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(2).

657.03 Use of name "credit union."—It shall be a misdemeanor for any person, association, copartnership or corporation (except corporations organized in accordance with the provisions of this chapter) to use the words "credit union" in their name or title. Associations organized under the provisions of this chapter shall include in its corporate name or title the words "credit union."

History.—§3, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(3), 7977(1).

Cf.—§775.07 Misdemeanors, punishment.

657.04 Powers.—A credit union shall have the following powers:

(1) To receive the savings of its members either as payment on shares or as deposits (including the right to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs and other such thrift organizations within the membership.)

(2) To make loans to members for provident or productive purposes.

(3) To make loans to a cooperative society or other organization having membership in the credit union.

(4) To deposit its funds in state and national banks.

(5) To invest its funds as hereinafter in this chapter provided.

(6) To borrow money as hereinafter in this chapter indicated.

(7) To make contracts, to sue and be sued, to incur and pay such operating expenses as are necessary or incidental to the operation thereof, including such membership fees in organizations of credit unions as may be unanimously approved by the board of directors; such expenses to be borne by the credit union from current earnings and unallocated surplus.

History.—§4, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(4).
Sub §§ (4), (5) Am. §1, ch. 29739, 1955; (7) N. by §2, ch. 59-56, cf.—See §665.48 as to loans insured or guaranteed by the United States.

§664.06 Investment of funds.

657.05 Membership.—Credit union membership shall consist of the incorporators and such other persons as may be elected to membership and subscribe to at least one share, pay the initial installment thereon, and the entrance fee. Organizations (incorporated or otherwise) composed for the most part of the same general group as the credit union membership may be members. Credit union organization shall be limited to groups (of both large and small membership) having a common bond of occupation, or association or to groups within a well-defined neighborhood, community or rural district.

History.—§5, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(5).

657.06 Reports to comptroller; examinations; fees; revocation of certificate of approval.—Credit unions shall be under the supervision of the state comptroller. They shall report to him at least annually on or before January 31 on blanks supplied by the said comptroller for that purpose. Additional reports may be required. For failure to file reports when due, unless excused for cause, the credit union shall pay to the treasurer of the state five dollars for each day of its delinquency. If the said comptroller determines that the credit union is violating the provisions of this chapter, or is insolvent, the said comptroller may suspend the operation of said credit union or may serve notice on the credit union of his intention to revoke the certificate of approval. If, for a period of fifteen days after said notice, said violation continues, the said comptroller may revoke said certificate and take possession of the business and property of said credit union, and maintain possession until such time as he shall permit it to continue business, or its affairs are finally liquidated, in the same manner as state banks are liquidated. He may take similar action if said report remains in arrears for more than fifteen days.

Credit unions shall be examined at least annually by the said comptroller or his agent, except that, if a credit union has assets of less than twenty-five thousand dollars, he may accept the audit of a practicing public accountant in place of such examination. The board of directors and supervisory committee shall review the examination report, and the recommendations to the board to eliminate violations or exceptions noted therein, shall be enforced by the board. An examination fee shall be paid to the comptroller for the use of the state, based on the total amount of resources held by the credit union as follows:

With resources up to $ 10,000	$ 15.00
With resources up to $ 15,000	$ 30.00
With resources up to $ 25,000	$ 45.00
With resources up to $ 50,000	$ 75.00
With resources up to $ 75,000	$115.00
With resources up to $100,000	$140.00
With resources over $100,000	$140.00, plus

$30 for each additional $100,000 or fractional part thereof.

The comptroller shall from time to time formulate and promulgate reasonable rules and regulations governing the conduct of state credit unions doing business in this state.

History.—§6, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 6494(6); §1, ch. 20312, 1941; §1, ch. 23662, 1947; §1, ch. 28232, 1953; §3, ch. 59-56; §1, ch. 63-289.

657.07 Fiscal year; meetings.—The financial year of all credit unions shall end December 31st. Special meetings may be held in the manner indicated in the by-laws. At all meetings a member shall have but a single vote whatever his share holdings. To amend the by-laws, the proposed amendment must be contained in the call for the meeting and it must be approved by three-fourths of the members then present (which number must constitute a quorum) and by the said comptroller. There shall be no voting by proxy, a member other than a natural person casting a single vote through a delegated agent.

History.—§7, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 6494(7); §2, ch. 20312, 1941.

657.08 Board of directors and committees to be elected.—At the annual meeting (the organization meeting shall be the first annual meeting) the credit union shall elect a board of directors of not less than five members, a credit committee of not less than three members and a supervisory committee of three members, all to hold office for such terms respectively as the by-laws provide and until successors qualify. A record of the names and addresses of the members of the board and committees and the officers shall be filed with the comptroller within ten days of their election.

History.—§8, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(8).

657.09 Election of officers; duties of directors.—At their first meeting the directors shall elect from their own number a president, vice president, treasurer and clerk, of whom the last two named may be the same individual. The directors shall have general management of the affairs of the credit union, particularly:

(1) To act upon all applications for membership, except to the extent that it may have authorized the approval of such applications by an executive committee or by a membership officer.

(2) To determine interest rates on loans and on deposits.

(3) To fix the amount of the surety bond which shall be required of all officers, directors, committeemen and employees handling or having access to money, bank accounts or securities owned by or pledged with the credit union, or having power to disburse, or, power to authorize disbursement of funds of the credit union; such bond for each such officer, director, committeeman and employee, or blanket bond for all such officers, directors, committeemen and employees, shall not be less than that shown in the following schedule, based upon the assets of the credit union:

With assets up to $	5,000	bond of $	1,000
" " " "	10,000	" "	2,000
" " " "	20,000	" "	4,000
with assets up to $	35,000	bond of $	7,000
" " " "	50,000	" "	10,000
" " " "	75,000	" "	15,000
" " " "	100,000	" "	20,000
" " " "	150,000	" "	30,000
" " " "	200,000	" "	40,000
" " " "	300,000	" "	60,000
" " " "	500,000	" "	80,000
" " " "	750,000	" "	90,000
" " " "	1,000,000	" "	100,000
" " " "	over 1,000,000	" "	100,000

plus

$10,000 for each additional $100,000 of assets.

(4) To declare dividends, as provided under §657.18, and to transmit to the members recommended amendments to the by-laws.

(5) To fill vacancies in the board and in the credit committee until successors are chosen and qualify.

(6) To determine the maximum individual share holdings and the maximum individual loan which can be made with and without security.

(7) To have charge of investments other than loans to members.

The duties of the officers shall be as determined in the by-laws, except that the treasurer shall be the general manager. No member of the board or of either committee shall, as such, be compensated.

(8) The board may appoint an executive committee of not less than three directors to act for it in the purchase and sale of securities or the making of loans to other credit unions, or both.

History.—§9, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(9); §2, ch. 28232, 1953; (4) §3, ch. 29739, 1955; (3), (4) §4, ch. 59-56; (1) §2, (8) n. §3, ch. 63-289.

657.10 Credit committee.—The credit committee shall have the general supervision of all loans to members. Applications for loans shall be on a form prepared by the credit committee, and all applications shall set forth the purpose for which the loan is desired, the security, if any, offered, and such other data as may be required. Within the meaning of this section an assignment of shares or deposits or the endorsement of a note may be deemed security. At least a majority of the members of the credit committee shall pass on all loans and approval must be unanimous. The credit committee shall meet as often as may be necessary after due notice to each member.

The credit committee may appoint one or more loan officers and delegate to him or them the power to approve loans up to the unsecured limit, or in excess of such limit if excess is fully secured by unpledged shares. Each loan officer shall furnish the credit committee a record of each loan approved or not approved within seven days after the filing of the application therefor. All loans not acted upon by the loan officer shall be acted upon by the credit committee. No individual shall have authority to disburse funds of the credit union for any loan which has been approved by him in his capacity as a loan officer. Not more than one member of the credit committee may be appointed a loan officer.

History.—§10, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(10); §4, ch. 63-289.

657.11 Supervisory committee.—The supervisory committee shall—

(1) Make an examination of the affairs of the credit union at least quarterly, including an audit of its books and, in the event said committee feels such action to be necessary, it shall call the members together thereafter and submit to them its report.

(2) Make an annual audit and report and submit the same at the annual meeting of the members; such audits shall include verification of accounts of members from time to time and not less than every two years.

(3) By unanimous vote, if it deem such action to be necessary to the proper conduct of the credit union, suspend any officer, director or member of the committee and call the members together to act on such suspension. The members at said meeting may sustain such suspension and remove such officer permanently or may reinstate said officer.

By majority vote the supervisory committee may call a special meeting of the members to consider any matter submitted to it by said committee. The said committee shall fill vacancies in its own membership.

History.—§11, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(11); (2) §5, ch. 63-289.

657.12 Capital.—The capital of a credit union shall consist of the payments that have been made to it by several members thereof on shares. The credit union shall have a lien on the shares and deposits of a member for any sum due to the credit union from said member or for any loan endorsed by him. A credit union may charge an entrance fee as may be provided by the by-laws.

History.—§12, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(12).

657.13 Minors.—Shares may be issued and deposits received in the name of a minor or in trust in such manner as the by-laws may provide. The name of the beneficiary must be disclosed to the credit union.

History.—§13, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(13).

657.14 Interest rates.—Interest rates on loans made by a credit union shall not exceed one per cent a month on unpaid balances.

History.—§14, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(14). cf.—§687.01, Interest and usury.

657.15 Borrowing power.—A credit union may borrow from any source in total a sum not exceeding fifty per cent of its unimpaired capital.

History.—§15, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(15); §4, ch. 29737, 1955; §6, ch. 63-289.

657.16 Loans.—A credit union may loan to members. Loans must be for a provident or productive purpose and are made subject to the conditions contained in the by-laws. Liens on unimproved real estate and liens other than first liens on improved real estate shall not be construed as security within the meaning of this section. A borrower may repay his loan in whole or in part any day the office of the credit union is open for business. No director, officer or member of the committee may borrow from the credit union in which he holds office beyond the amount of his holdings in it in shares and deposits, nor may he endorse for borrowers. If a director, officer or member of a committee resigns and subsequently receives a loan exceeding his holdings in shares, he shall not be eligible for re-election pending payment of the loan, or for one year, whichever comes first.

History.—§16, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(16); §7, ch. 63-289.
cf.—See §665.48 as to loans insured or guaranteed by the United States.

657.161 Investments.—A credit union, after taking care of the provident and productive borrowing needs of its members, may invest its surplus funds in only the following:

(1) (a) Obligations of the United States, including bonds and securities upon which payment of principal and interest is fully guaranteed by the United States;

(b) In loans to other credit unions in the state provided that no such loan may exceed twenty-five per cent of the unimpaired capital of the lending credit union nor be made for a period in excess of one year.

(2) General obligations of states and general obligations of counties, municipalities or county road, school, hospital and other public purpose districts of the state; provided, that such securities shall not be eligible for investment if they have been in default either as to principal or interest within five years prior to date of purchase.

(3) First mortgage bonds of railroad and public service corporations; provided, that the investment in bonds of any such corporation shall not exceed ten thousand dollars and provided further that such securities shall not be eligible for investment if they have been in default either as to principal or interest within five years prior to date of purchase.

(4) Shares of building and loan associations, savings and loan associations and other credit unions; provided, that the investment in any credit union shall not exceed ten thousand dollars and that the aggregate of all such investments shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the unimpaired capital of the investing credit union.

(5) Real estate and improvements thereon that may be required for its accommodation in the transaction of its business; provided, that before any such investment is made, the proposal to make it shall be submitted to the comptroller and his approval obtained and, provided further that he shall not grant such approval until he is satisfied that the proposed investment is necessary, that the amount thereof is commensurate with the size and needs of the credit union and that it will be beneficial to the members.

(6) Furniture, fixtures and equipment that may be required in the transaction of its business.

History.—§5, ch. 29739, 1955; (1) (b) n. §1, ch. 57-346; (1) (b), (4) §§8, 9, ch. 63-289.

657.17 Reserves.—All entrance fees, (which may be provided by the by-laws), and each year, before the declaration of a dividend, twenty per cent of the net earnings shall be set aside as a reserve fund, which reservation of earnings shall continue until the reserve fund equals twenty per cent of the total of the capital and deposits of the credit union. Moneys acquired through the building up of this reserve fund may be invested under the terms of §657.04. The reserve fund herein provided for shall be held by the corporation as a reserve against bad debts of any nature owing to it; and said fund shall not be distributed or reduced except in cases of liquidation of the credit union or for the charging out of bad debts, and any such charge to this account must be first approved by the board of directors.

History.—§17, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(17); §3, ch. 20312, 1941; am. §3, ch. 28232, 1953.

657.18 Dividends.—The directors of any credit union, after provision has been made for transfers to the reserve fund in accordance with the provisions of §657.17, may declare an annual or a semi-annual dividend from net earnings not to exceed six per cent for annual dividend or three per cent for semi-annual dividend, which dividend shall be paid on all shares outstanding at the end of the period covered by such dividend; shares which become fully paid up during the period covered by such dividend shall be entitled to a proportional part of such dividend calculated from the first day of the month following such payments in full or, if the by-laws so provide, dividends may be calculated from the first day of the month during which they are paid in full on or before the tenth of such month.

History.—§18, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(18). Am. §4, ch. 28232, 1953; §6, ch. 29739, 1955; §2, ch. 57-346.

657.19 Expulsion; withdrawal.—A member may be expelled by a two-thirds' vote of the members present at a special meeting called to consider the matter but only after a hearing. Any member may withdraw from the credit union at any time but notice of withdrawal may be required. All amounts paid on shares or as deposits of an expelled or withdrawing member, with any dividends or interest accreted thereto, to the date thereof, shall, as funds become available and after deducting all amounts due from the member to the credit union, be paid to him. If funds are not then available, sums due expelled or withdrawing member shall be paid in the order filed out of one-half of receipts. The credit union may require sixty days' notice of intention to withdraw shares and thirty days' notice of intention to withdraw deposits. Withdrawing or expelled members shall have no further rights in the credit union but are not, by such expulsion or withdrawal, released from any remaining liability to the credit union.

History.—§19, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(19).

657.20 Dissolution.—The process of voluntary dissolution shall be as follows:

(1) At a meeting called for the purpose (notice of which purpose must be contained in the call) a majority of the entire membership of the credit union may vote to dissolve the credit union.

(2) Thereupon they file with the comptroller a statement of their consent to dissolution, attested by a majority of the officers and including the names and addresses of the officers and directors.

(3) The comptroller determines whether or not the credit union is solvent. If such is the fact he issues in duplicate a certificate to the effect that this section has been complied with.

(4) The certificate is filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the credit union is located, whereupon the credit union is dissolved and shall cease to carry on business except for the purposes of liquidation.

(5) The credit union shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets and doing all other acts required in order to wind up its business and may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such debts and obligations until its affairs are fully adjusted and wound up, for three years.

History.—§20, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(20); am. §1, ch. 23013, 1945.

657.21 Place of business.—A credit union may change its place of business on written notice to the comptroller.

History.—§21, ch. 14499, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 6494(21).

657.22 Authority to destroy records or files after ten years; liability.—

(1) Credit unions shall not be required to preserve or keep their records or files for a longer period than ten years next after the first day of January of the year following the time of the making or filing of such records or files; provided, however, that all ledger and journal sheets showing unpaid balances in favor of shareholders and depositors of such credit union shall not be destroyed unless photographic copies of such ledger and journal sheets are retained.

(2) No liability shall accrue against any credit union destroying any such records after the expiration of the period provided in subsection (1), and in any cause or proceedings in which any of such records or files may be called in question or be demanded of the credit union, or any officer or employee thereof, a showing that such records or files have been destroyed in accordance with the terms of this act shall be sufficient excuse for the failure to produce them.

(3) This section shall, so far as applicable, apply to the records of federal credit unions operating in this state.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 28232, 1953.

657.23 Conversion of credit unions from state to federal and vice versa.—Any state chartered credit union operating in the state may convert into a federal chartered credit union and any federal chartered credit union may convert into a state chartered credit union upon approval of the authority under whose supervision the converted credit union will operate and upon compliance with applicable federal laws as to a converted federal credit union, and upon compliance with applicable state laws as to a converted state credit union. The procedure for obtaining such approval and effecting the conversion shall be as follows:

(1) A meeting of the board of directors, either regular or special, shall be called for the purpose of voting on converting from a federal credit union to a state credit union, or from a state credit union to a federal credit union.

A majority of the board of directors shall adopt a resolution approving the contemplated conversion.

(2) A meeting either regular, or special, of the shareholders shall then be called for voting on the proposed conversion. Notice of said meeting shall be given in the manner prescribed in the by-laws, and it shall be given not more than thirty days nor less than ten days prior to the date of the meeting. Proof of giving of the notice shall be by the affidavit of the president of the credit union. A majority of the members present at this meeting shall then approve the proposed conversion.

(3) The credit union shall then obtain, in writing, the approval of a majority of the shareholders on record as of the date of the resolution by the board of directors.

(4) Within ten days after the approval of the conversion by the majority of the shareholders, as provided in subsection (3), the president or vice-president and treasurer shall file a verified copy of the resolution adopted by the board of directors with the state or federal authority, under whose supervision the converting credit union is to operate.

(5) Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation with the proper state or federal authorities; and with the written approval of the state authorities for credit unions applying for conversion to state credit unions; and with the written approval of the federal authorities for credit unions applying for conversion to federal credit unions, the converting credit union shall, upon compliance with all other applicable state or federal laws, become a credit union under the laws of this state or the United States, as the case may be; and thereupon all assets shall become the property of the new state or federal credit union, as the case may be, subject to all existing liabilities against the credit union, and every person who was a shareholder, or member of the converting credit union, shall be a shareholder in the new state or federal chartered credit union in like amount.

(6) In consummation of the conversion, the old credit union may execute, acknowledge and deliver to the newly chartered credit union, instruments of transfer necessary to accomplish the transfer of any property and all right, title or interest therein.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-413.

CHAPTER 658

BANKING CODE, FIRST PART

- 658.01 Short title.
- 658.02 Definitions.
- 658.03 Effect on existing banks.
- 658.04 Banking department; establishment.
- 658.05 Powers of commissioner.
- 658.06 Liability when acting upon commissioner's order or regulation.

658.01 Short title.—Chapters 658-661 may be cited as the "Florida banking code".

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953.

658.02 Definitions.—As used in chapters 658-661:

(1) "Bank" means any person doing a banking business whether subject to the laws of this or any other jurisdiction other than industrial or Morris plan banks operating under the provisions of chapter 656, and savings banks operating under the provisions of chapter 654.

(2) "State bank" means any state bank chartered by this state.

(3) "Commercial bank" means any state bank chartered to do a general commercial banking business.

(4) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes, but is not limited to, recoupment, counter-claim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(5) "Commissioner" means the state commissioner of banking.

(6) "Community" means a city, town or incorporated village, or, where not within any of the foregoing, a trade area.

(7) "Court" means a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) "Department" means the state department of banking.

(9) "Fiduciary" means trustee, agent, executor, administrator, committee, guardian or conservator for a minor or other incompetent person, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee for creditors or any holder of a similar position of trust.

(10) "Item" means any instrument for the payment of money even though not negotiable, but does not include money.

(11) "Officer", when referring to a bank, means any person designated as such in the by-laws and includes, whether or not so designated, any executive officer, the chairman of the board of directors, the chairman of the executive committee, and any trust officer, assistant vice president, assistant treasurer, assistant cashier, assistant comptroller, or any person who performs the duties appropriate to those offices.

(12) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust estate, business trust, or unincorporated association.

(13) "Trust business" means the business of acting as executor, administrator, guardian

658.07 Examinations and reports.

658.08 Examination fees.

658.09 Annual report to governor.

658.10 Department records.

658.11 Destruction of certain bank and trust company records.

of estates, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee under the appointment of any court, or by authority of any law of this or any other state or of the United States, or as trustee for any purpose permitted by law.

(14) "Trust company" means a corporation or the trust department of a bank which is authorized to engage in the trust business.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions contained herein formerly §652.27.

658.03 Effect on existing banks.—The charters of state banks and trust companies existing at the time of the adoption of chapters 658-661 shall continue in full force and effect, but all state banks and trust companies and, to the extent applicable, all banks, shall hereafter be operated in accordance with the provisions of chapters 658-661.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions contained herein formerly §652.23.

658.04 Banking department; establishment.

(1) There is hereby established a state department of banking which shall be a separate department charged with supervision of the activities in this state of banks and trust companies as provided in this code and in other legislation conferring jurisdiction upon the department.

(2) The comptroller shall be ex officio the state commissioner of banking, who shall receive no additional compensation for the performance of the duties as said commissioner.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953.

658.05 Powers of commissioner.—In addition to other powers conferred by this act, the commissioner shall have power to:

(1) Implement by regulation any provision of this code. Notice and hearing shall be provided by the commissioner in advance of the effective date of any regulations promulgated under the provisions of this subsection and upon the adoption of any such regulations, same shall be immediately disseminated to all banks and trust companies concerned by such regulations. In matters involving extraordinary circumstances requiring immediate action, the commissioner may take such action, but shall promptly afford a subsequent hearing upon application of any interested bank or party to rescind the action taken.

(2) Restrict the withdrawal of deposits from all or one or more state banks where the commissioner finds that extraordinary circumstances make such restriction necessary for the proper protection of depositors in the affected institution.

(3) Employ a chief deputy commissioner and such deputy commissioners, examiners or other employees necessary to operate the department and fix their compensation.

(4) The commissioner may from time to time formulate and promulgate reasonable rules and regulations governing the conduct of state banks and trust companies doing business in this state which shall have the force of law and he shall have the power to enforce the same.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953; parts of the material contained herein were formerly covered by §§ 653.35, 653.36 and 653.42.

658.06 Liability when acting upon commissioner's order or regulation.—No person shall be subject to any civil or criminal liability for any act or omission to act in good faith in reliance upon a subsisting order or regulation issued by the commissioner notwithstanding a subsequent decision by a court of competent jurisdiction invalidating the order or regulation.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953.

658.07 Examinations and reports.—The commissioner shall examine the condition of each state bank at least two times in each calendar year and each trust company at least once in each calendar year. The commissioner may accept a federal deposit insurance corporation or federal reserve examination in lieu of one of said bank examinations, and may furnish to the federal deposit insurance corporation or its representatives a copy of all examinations made of such banks. He shall require each bank or trust company to submit a report of its condition as of such date as he may fix at least twice in each calendar year, or as often as ordered by the commissioner, verified by the oaths or affirmations of the president or the vice-president and treasurer, secretary or cashier of such corporation and within ten days after such report shall have been called for, shall publish in a newspaper published in the county in which said bank is located a statement of its assets and liabilities of the date of said report, and a copy of said publication, with an affidavit of the publication shall be filed with the commissioner, and a copy of said publication filed also with the county tax assessor. Every such bank or trust company which fails to transmit any report required under this section shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each day of delinquency after the due date of the reports. The provisions of this section shall not apply to national banks and trust departments of national banks.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953; material contained herein formerly covered by §§653.28, 653.44 and 655.19.

658.08 Examination fees.—Each state bank or trust company shall pay an examination fee computed in accordance with the following schedule:

With resources up to $ 150,000.00	_____ $ 40.00
With resources up to $ 250,000.00	_____ $ 50.00

With resources up to $ 400,000.00	_____ $ 75.00
With resources up to $ 500,000.00	_____ $ 90.00
With resources up to $ 750,000.00	_____ $120.00
With resources up to $1,000,000.00	_____ $150.00

and for additional million dollars, or major part thereof forty dollars per million dollars. Examination fees shall in all cases be paid by the bank or trust company direct to the state treasurer to be credited to the general revenue fund.

History.—§1, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 63-182.

Note.—Formerly §653.44.

cf.—§654.09 Savings banks.

658.09 Annual report to governor.—The commissioner shall submit an annual report to the governor, which shall include:

(1) The text of all regulations of the department of general application adopted or altered since his last previous report.

(2) A statement of the general condition and affairs of existing state banks.

(3) A statement of the status and remaining assets and liabilities of all banking or trust organizations in the possession of the commissioner for liquidation.

(4) A summary of all changes occurring since his last previous report by reason of the opening of new state banks or trust companies, mergers and conversions, increases and decreases in capital, and the like.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953.

658.10 Department records.—

(1) Information from the records of the department shall be revealed only with the consent of the commissioner, but shall be subject to subpoena.

(2) Reports of examinations made by the department or a photographic copy shall be retained for a period of ten years.

(3) A copy of any document on file with the department which is certified by the commissioner, as being a true copy, may be introduced in evidence as if it were the original. The commissioner shall establish a schedule of fees for preparing copies of documents.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953.

658.11 Destruction of certain bank and trust company records.—

(1) Banks or trust companies shall not be required to preserve or keep their records of files or photographic or microphotographic copies thereof for a longer period than ten years next after the first day of January of the year following the time of the making or filing of such records or files, provided, however, that ledger sheets shall not be destroyed unless photographic copies of such ledger sheets are retained.

(2) No liability shall accrue against any bank or trust company destroying any such records after the expiration of the period provided in subsection (1), and any cause or proceedings in which any such records or files may be called in question or be demanded of the bank or trust company or any officer or employee thereof, a showing that such records or files have been destroyed in accordance with the terms of this section shall be a sufficient excuse for the failure to produce them.

(3) Any bank, or trust company, may photograph, microphotograph, or reproduce on film in such manner that each page is exposed in its entirety any or all of its journals, ledgers, statements, account books, or other books, or any or all of its internal records of every description, made or received in the regular course of its business, and the photographs, micro-photographs, or reproductions on film in the form of film or prints, or enlarged prints, or any duly certified or authenticated copy or reproduction thereof, duly certified or authenticated by a responsible officer of the bank under whose supervision the records are kept, shall in all cases, and in all courts and places, be admitted and received as evidence with a like force and effect as the original general ledger, voucher, statement, account book, or other record.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions contained herein formerly § § 653.90 and 92.34.

CHAPTER 659

BANKING CODE, SECOND PART

- 659.01 Creation of banking or trust corporation.
- 659.02 Application for authority to organize bank.
- 659.03 Investigation by commissioner.
- 659.04 Capital structure.
- 659.05 Authorization to engage in banking or trust business.
- 659.06 Place of transacting business; school savings; drive-in facilities.
- 659.07 Changes in articles of incorporation.
- 659.08 Shares of stock.
- 659.09 Dividends and surplus.
- 659.10 Changes in capital.
- 659.11 Directors, number, qualifications, oath, officers.
- 659.12 Deposit insurance; membership in federal reserve system.
- 659.13 Liability of stockholders.
- 659.14 Acquisition of majority stock in existing bank or trust company.
- 659.15 Filing fees.
- 659.16 Cash reserves.
- 659.17 Loans.
- 659.18 Loans by banks where not in excess of $5,000.00.
- 659.19 Banks authorized to make commodity loans.
- 659.20 Investments.
- 659.21 Security of deposits.
- 659.22 Sale of assets in ordinary course.
- 659.23 Borrowing.
- 659.24 Depositories of public moneys and pledge of assets.
- 659.25 Rights of minority stockholders.
- 659.26 Payment of items.
- 659.27 Transactions outside of regular banking hours or on holidays.
- 659.271 Permissive legal holidays; Wednesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays.
- 659.28 Deposit of minors.
- 659.29 Deposits in two or more names.
- 659.30 Deposits in trust.
- 659.31 Payment of stale check.
- 659.32 Revocation, countermand or stop-payment orders.
- 659.33 Non-payment of check through error.
- 659.34 Rights on improper payment of item.
- 659.35 Limitations; statements as correct.
- 659.36 Issuance of post-dated checks.
- 659.37 Liability of bank for amount paid on forged or raised checks or endorsements.
- 659.38 Adverse claim to bank or trust company deposit.
- 659.39 Death or incompetency of depositor.
- 659.40 Powers of attorney.
- 659.41 Transmitting money; foreign exchange.
- 659.411 Exchange rates.
- 659.412 Exchange collection not ground for protest.
- 659.42 Definitions for §§659.43-659.51.
- 659.43 Authority to engage in leasing safe deposit facilities.
- 659.44 Access by fiduciaries.
- 659.45 Effect of lessee's death or incompetence.
- 659.46 Search procedure on death of lessee.
- 659.47 Lease to minor.
- 659.48 Delivery of safe deposit box contents or property held in safekeeping to personal representative.
- 659.49 Access to safe deposit boxes leased in two or more names.
- 659.50 Adverse claims to contents of safe deposit box.
- 659.51 Special remedies for nonpayment of rent.
- 659.52 Banking business by unauthorized persons.
- 659.53 Miscellaneous offenses.
- 659.54 Unlawful service as an officer.
- 659.55 Criminal penalties.
- 659.56 Injunction.
- 659.57 Transaction of business by out-of-state banking corporations; exempt transactions in banking code.
- 659.58 Fictitious or fraudulent assets; past due paper.
- 659.59 Short title.
- 659.60 Definitions.
- 659.61 Banks authorized to invest.
- 659.62 Banks authorized to use services.
- 659.63 Requirement to furnish services.
- 659.64 Prohibited activities.
- 659.65 Retention of supervision by commissioner.
- 659.66 Legislative intent.

659.01 Creation of banking or trust corporation.—When authorized by the commissioner, as provided herein, a corporation may be formed under the laws of the state by five or more persons for the purpose of conducting a general banking or trust business.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions hereof formerly § § 652.01, 655.01, 655.02.

659.02 Application for authority to organize bank.—

(1) A written application for authority to establish a corporation, as provided in §659.01, shall be filed with the commissioner, and shall include:

(a) The name, residence and occupation of each incorporator and stock subscriber and the amount of stock subscribed for by each, together with a statement under oath of each subscriber that he subscribes in good faith in his own right and not as agent or attorney for any undisclosed person.

(b) The proposed name.

(c) The total capital, the number of shares of each class, and the par value of the shares of each class.

(d) The community, including the street and number, if known, and if not known, the area within the community where the proposed bank or trust company is to be located.

(e) Request for trust powers, if desired.

(2) Said application shall be in such form and contain such additional information as the commissioner shall reasonably require, and shall be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; (2) §1, ch. 63-181.
Note.—Formerly §§652.13, 652.15, 655.02.
 cf.—§661.08 Conversion from state bank to national bank and reverse.

659.03 Investigation by commissioner.—

(1) Upon the filing of an application, the commissioner shall make an investigation of:

(a) The character, reputation, financial standing and motives of the organizers, incorporators and subscribers in organizing the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) The need for banking or trust facilities or additional banking or trust facilities, as the case may be, in the community where the proposed bank is to be located, giving particular consideration to the adequacy of existing banking or trust facilities and the need for further banking or trust facilities in the locality.

(c) The present and future ability of the community to support the proposed bank or trust company and all other existing banking or trust facilities in the community.

(d) The character, financial responsibility, banking experience and business qualifications of the proposed officers.

(e) The character, financial responsibility, business experience and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

(2) The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the application, in his discretion, but he shall not approve such application until, in his opinion:

(a) Public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) Local conditions assure reasonable promise of successful operation for the proposed bank or trust company and those banks or trust companies already established in the community.

(c) The proposed capital structure is adequate.

(d) The proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking or trust experience, ability and standing to assure reasonable promise of successful operation.

(e) The name of the proposed bank or trust company is not so similar as to cause confusion with the name of an existing bank.

(f) Provision has been made for suitable banking house quarters in the area specified in the application.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions hereof formerly covered by §§652.05, 652.06, 652.15, 655.02. cf.—§661.08 Conversion from state banks to national bank and reverse.

659.04 Capital structure.—

(1) The capital stock of a state bank or trust company shall be in such amount as the commissioner shall deem adequate, but not less than the following aggregate amounts, based upon population of the community in which the bank or trust company will be located according to the latest official census:

(a) Twenty-five thousand dollars, if the population of the community in which the bank or trust company will be located does not exceed five thousand and fifty thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank will be located does not exceed ten thousand.

(b) One hundred thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank or trust company will be located exceeds ten thousand, but does not exceed fifty thousand.

(c) Two hundred thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank or trust company will be located exceeds fifty thousand, but does not exceed two hundred thousand.

(d) Three hundred thousand dollars if the population of the community in which the bank or trust company will be located exceeds two hundred thousand.

(2) Every state bank or trust company hereafter organized shall, upon its organization, establish, in addition to the capital required by subsection (1), a paid-in surplus equal in amount to not less than twenty per cent of its paid-up capital, and a fund to be designated as undivided profits equal to five per cent of its paid-up capital.

(3) Each subscriber at the time he subscribes to the stock of a proposed state bank or trust company shall pay an additional sum at least equal to five per cent of the par value of such stock into a fund to be used to defray the expenses of organization, such additional sum to be paid in cash. No organizational expense shall be paid out of any other funds of the bank. Upon the granting of a charter, any unexpended balance in such fund shall be transferred to undivided profits. If the application has been finally denied during said period, such balance shall be distributed among the contributors in proportion to their respective payments. The commissioner may require an accounting of disbursements from the fund and may order the incorporators to restore any sum which has been expended for other than proper organizational expenses.

(4) No bank or trust company shall apply any part of the funds collected under this section for the payment of commissions or fees for obtaining subscriptions or selling shares or to the payment of compensation for services in connection with the organization of a proposed bank, or in connection with securing authority to transact business, other than the payment of fees for legal services and of other usual and ordinary expenses incidental and necessary for the organization of a bank or trust company.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §§ 652.06, 653.05, 655.01, 655.14.

659.05 Authorization to engage in banking or trust business.—

(1) Upon approval of the application for authority to organize by the commissioner, the proposed articles of incorporation shall be submitted to the commissioner for his written approval before filing pursuant to chapter 608. After such approval and certification by the commissioner, the proposed bank or trust company shall:

(a) File with the commissioner a copy of its articles of incorporation duly certified by the secretary of state.

(b) File with the commissioner a statement in such form and with such supporting data and proof as he may require, showing that the entire capital, surplus and undivided profits have been fully paid in lawful money unconditionally, and that the funds representing such capital, surplus and undivided profits, less sums spent with the approval of the commissioner for land, building, supplies, fixtures and equipment, are on hand.

(2) If the commissioner finds that the proposed bank or trust company has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law, he shall within thirty days after the filing of the statement specified in subsection (1)(b), issue, in duplicate, under his official seal, a certificate of authorization to transact a general banking or trust business, transmitting one copy to the bank or trust company and placing one copy in the department file. Said certificate shall state that the corporation named therein is authorized to transact a general banking or trust business, and the bank or trust company shall cause said certificate to be published one time in some newspaper of general circulation published in the city or county where the bank or trust company is located.

(3) No bank or trust company shall, until it has received its certificates of authorization:

(a) Transact any banking or trust business.
(b) Incur any indebtedness except that allowed under subsection (1)(b).

(4) Upon the failure to comply with subsection (1)(a) and (b) within six months after the approval of the application for authority to organize, such right shall automatically terminate and the charter be revoked. The commissioner, however, for good cause, on written application filed before the expiration of said six months' period, may extend the time within which the bank may be organized for a period not exceeding six months.

(5) Upon the failure to open for business within thirty days after the issuance of the certificate of authorization, the right to transact business shall automatically terminate and the charter be revoked.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §§552.04, 652.07, 652.13-652.16.

659.06 Place of transacting business; school savings; drive in facilities.—

(1) (a) Any bank or trust company shall have only one place of doing business, which shall be located in the community specified in its original articles of incorporation, and the business of the bank or trust company shall be transacted at its banking house so located in said community specified, and not elsewhere. A bank or trust company may, however, change the location of its banking house within the community shown in its articles of incorporation with the written approval of the commissioner. Application for such approval shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require.

(b) A bank may contract with proper authorities of any elementary or secondary school or institution caring for minors for the participation by the bank in any school or institutional thrift or savings plan, and it may accept deposits at such school or institution, either by its own collector or by any representative of the school or institution who becomes the agent of the bank for such purposes. Withdrawal from any account carried with the bank by any such school or institution shall be made only at the banking house of said bank.

(2) A bank may operate a drive-in facility, providing one or more tellers to serve patrons in motor vehicles in the following manner:

(a) The facilities will be a part of or adjacent to the main banking room.

(b) There will be a physical connection of the main banking room and the facility.

(c) There will be a private connecting doorway or private enclosed secure passageway connecting the main banking room and the facility enabling tellers to pass between the facility and main banking room without coming in contact with the public.

The operation of any drive-in facility not complying with these requirements shall constitute a violation of subsection (1); provided however, subsection (2) shall not apply to drive-in facilities existing on or prior to May 25, 1950.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; (1) (b) N. by §1, ch. 57-77.

Note: See former §653.01, comptroller's rule No. 9.

659.07 Changes in articles of incorporation.

—A bank or trust company shall not amend its articles of incorporation without the written approval of the commissioner, and if any amendment requests a change in name of the bank or trust company, the commissioner shall not approve such change if the new name is so similar as to cause confusion with the name of an existing bank.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions contained here-in formerly §653.05.

659.08 Shares of stock.—

(1) A state bank or trust company shall issue its capital stock with par value of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars per share.

(2) No bank or trust company hereafter shall issue any shares before they are fully paid for.

(3) A bank or trust company pursuant to action taken by its board of directors, and after obtaining the written approval of the commissioner and the approval of stockholders holding a majority of the voting stock of the bank or trust company evidenced either in a writing signed by the stockholders or by a vote at a stockholders' meeting called for such stated purpose after giving ten days' notice by registered mail, may issue preferred stock of one or more classes in an amount and with a par value as approved by the commissioner and may make amendments to its articles of incorporation which may be necessary to accomplish this purpose. The holders of the preferred stock shall not be held individually responsible as such holders for any debts, contracts, or engagements of the bank or trust company, and shall not be liable for assessment.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former § § 652.06, 652.07, 652.09, 652.10.

659.09 Dividends and surplus.—The directors of any bank or trust company, after charging off bad debts, depreciation and other worthless assets if any, may quarter-annually, semi-annually, or annually, declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the company as they shall judge expedient, but each company shall, before the declaration of a dividend on its common stock carry twenty per cent of its net profits for such preceding period as is covered by the dividend to its surplus fund, until the same shall at least equal the amount of its common and preferred stock. Whenever the surplus becomes impaired or reduced below the aggregate amount of common and preferred stock, it shall be reimbursed in the manner provided for its accumulation.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former § § 653.05, 655.14.

659.10 Changes in capital.—

(1) No state bank or trust company shall reduce its outstanding capital stock without first obtaining the consent of the commissioner, and such consent shall be withheld if the reduction will cause the outstanding capital stock to be less than the minimum required hereunder.

(2) Any state bank or trust company, may with the approval of the commissioner, provide for an increase in its capital as may be deemed expedient.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §652.22.

659.11 Directors, number, qualifications, oath, officers.—

(1) The board of directors of the state bank or trust company shall consist of not less than five nor more than twenty-five directors, and shall be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders.

(2) Every director must during his whole term of service be a citizen of the United States, and at least three-fifths of the directors must have resided in this state for at least one year preceding their election, and must be residents therein during their continuance in office. Every director of a bank or trust company hereafter chartered must own in his own right, free of lien, encumbrance, option or pledge agreement, voting common stock of the bank of which he is a director of not less than one thousand dollars par value; any director who ceases to be the owner of such amount of voting common stock, or who becomes in any other manner disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place as such director; provided that as to those banks having an authorized capital of twenty-five thousand dollars or less, such directors must own in his own right capital stock in such bank of not less than five hundred dollars par value in the manner above provided for other banks.

(3) Each director, upon assuming office, shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such bank or trust company and will not knowingly violate, or willfully permit to be violated, any of the provisions of this chapter, and that he is the owner in good faith and in his own right of shares of voting common stock in the amount required by subsection (2) subscribed by him or standing in his name on the books of the bank or trust company and that the same is not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt. Such oath shall be immediately filed with the commissioner.

(4) The board of directors of each state bank or trust company shall manage the affairs of the bank or trust company and hold a meeting at least once every two months at the banking house of the bank or trust company.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former § § 652.03, 652.17-652.19, 655.13.

659.12 Deposit insurance; membership in federal reserve system.—A state bank or trust company is authorized to do any act necessary to obtain insurance of its deposits by the United States, or any agency thereof, and to acquire and hold membership in the federal reserve system.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.13.

659.13 Liability of stockholders.—Holders of voting common stock of state banks or trust companies shall be held individually responsible equally and ratable and not for one another for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such banks or trust companies to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such shares. Persons holding stock as executors, administrators, guardians or trustees shall not be personally subject to any liability as stockholders, but the estates and funds in their hands shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator, intestate, ward or person interested in trust funds would be, if living and competent to hold the stock in his own name. Such stockholders who have transferred their shares or registered the transfer thereof within six months next before the date of the failure of such bank or trust company to meet its obligations, or with knowledge of such impending failure, shall be liable to the same extent as if they had made no such transfer, to the extent that the subsequent transferee fails to meet such liability; but this provision shall not be construed to affect in any way any recourse which such stockholders might otherwise have against those in whose names such shares are registered at the time of such failure, provided that this section shall not apply to stockholders in a banking, savings or trust company which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation, a corporation under the laws of the United States, or which has an unimpaired surplus equalling the amount of its capital stock.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former § § 652.08, 655.12.

659.14 Acquisition of majority stock in existing bank or trust company.—In any case where a person, a group of persons, or a corporation proposes to purchase or acquire the majority of the outstanding capital stock of any state bank or trust company and thereby to change the control of said bank or trust company, such person, shall first make application to the commissioner for a certificate of approval of such proposed change of control of said bank or trust company and said application shall contain the name and address of the proposed new owner or owners of the controlling stock and the said commissioner shall issue said certificate or approval only after he has become satisfied that the proposed new owner or owners of the controlling stock is qualified by character, experience and financial responsibility to control and operate the said bank or trust company in a legal and proper manner, and that the interests of the stockholders, depositors and creditors of the bank or trust company and the interests of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership and management.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See comptroller's former Rule No. 8.

659.15 Filing fees.—On filing any charters or other papers relative to banks or trust companies with the secretary of state, fees as prescribed in §608.05 shall be paid to the secretary of state for the use of the state.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 57-23.

Note: See former §555.25.

659.16 Cash reserves.—

(1) Every bank shall at all times have available in cash an amount equal to at least twenty per cent of the aggregate amount of its deposits. Such portion of said reserve as the bank may desire may be invested in bonds and securities of the United States and bonds and securities guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, owned and unpledged by the bank, or which are in excess of the total deposits which they are pledged to secure, and balances payable on demand, due to the company from banks with whom such company may keep its current account.

(2) Whenever the lawful reserve of any such bank as defined in subsection (1) shall be below the amount of twenty per cent of its deposits, such bank shall not increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts otherwise than by discounting or purchasing of bills of exchange payable at sight, nor making any dividends of its profits until the required proportion between its deposits and its lawful money of the United States has been restored. The commissioner may notify any bank whose lawful money reserves shall be below the amount above required to be maintained to make good such reserve, and if such bank shall fail in thirty days thereafter so to make good its reserve of lawful money, the commissioner may appoint a liquidator to wind up the business of the bank as provided in §661.10.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former § § 653.02, 655.22.

659.17 Loans.—A state bank may make loans with or without security subject to the following limitations:

(1) No bank shall lend directly or indirectly an amount exceeding ten per cent of the aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus of said bank to any director or officer of said bank, individually or to any copartnership or incorporated company in which a director or officer may be directly or indirectly interested. No such loans shall be made unless the same shall be first approved by the board of directors of such bank or unless the same shall be made pursuant to a line or lines of credit theretofore approved by the board of directors of such bank and if made pursuant to such line or lines of credit, each such line of credit must be approved by said board of directors not less often than once each year; provided, however, that nothing contained in this sentence shall be construed as enlarging the limitations of this section on amounts of loans.

(2) (a) Unsecured loans exceeding ten per cent of the aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus shall not be made to any person; however, when approved by the board of directors, or an authorized committee therefrom, said ten per cent limitation may be increased to twenty-five per cent of the aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus, provided all loans of said person are amply and entirely secured.

(b) The limitations contained in this subsection shall not apply to trust companies which do not accept deposits, nor to loans made by banks or trust companies to county boards of public instruction when said loans are secured by the assignment of revenues reasonably expected to be received from the state and evidenced by a certificate of estimation executed by the state superintendent of public instruction, as provided for in §237.26; nor to any loan or loans, or portions thereof, to the extent that they are secured or covered by guarantees, or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same, made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the United States; nor loans fully secured by bonds, certificates or other evidences of indebtedness issued by or fully guaranteed by the United States government, or loans secured by assignment or a savings pass book or certificate of deposit of the lending bank.

(c) In computing the total liabilities of any individual to a bank or trust company, there shall be included all liabilities to the bank of any copartnership or any unincorporated association of which he is a member, any loans made for his benefit or for the benefit of such copartnership or unincorporated association, and any loans made to, or for the benefit of, a corporation of which he owns fifty per cent or more of the capital.

(d) In computing the total liabilities of any co-partnership or unincorporated association to a bank or trust company, there shall be included all liabilities of its individual members to such bank or trust company, loans made for the benefit of such co-partnership or unincorporated association; or any member thereof, and any loan made to, or for the benefit of, any corporation of which any member owns fifty per cent or more of the capital.

(e) In computing the total liabilities of any corporation to a bank or trust company, there shall be included all loans made for the benefit of the corporation, and all loans to, or for the benefit of, any copartnership or unincorporated association, or any member thereof, who owns fifty per cent or more of the capital of such corporation.

(3) Officers and directors shall be personally liable, jointly or severally, for any loss that may be occasioned by any wilful violation of this §659.17.

(4) (a) No loan or discount shall be made by a bank or trust company on the security of the shares of its own capital stock nor may a bank or trust company be the purchaser of any of such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith, and stock so purchased or acquired shall within six months from the time of its purchase be sold or disposed of at public or private sale.

(b) No bank or trust company shall lend in excess of ten per cent of its aggregate unimpaired capital and surplus upon the security of the capital stock of another bank or trust company and no such loan may be made in any amount unless such bank or trust company has been in existence at least two years and has earned and paid a dividend on its capital stock nor shall it make a loan on the security of the capital stock of another bank if by the making of such loan the capital stock of such other bank owned or held as collateral by all departments of the lending bank will exceed in the aggregate twenty-five per cent of the stock of such other bank.

(c) Loans made by a bank or trust company on the security of the shares of stock, bonds or other obligations of a corporation together with all loans made by the bank or trust company on the direct obligation of said corporation shall not exceed in the aggregate at any one time twenty-five per cent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the bank or trust company granting the loan or discount unless such securities are dealt in on a recognized stock exchange.

(5) No bank or trust company shall carry in its assets real estate mortgages other than first mortgages on real property except that secondary liens may be so taken and carried to further secure any debt previously contracted in good faith and owing to said bank or trust company, or as additional security to loans made under the provisions of title I of the federal housing administration. Secondary liens made under the provisions of the servicemen's readjustment act of 1944, as amended, when fully guaranteed under the provisions of and meeting the requirements of said act, will not be considered secondary liens subject to the prohibitions of this section, but as acceptable assets for banks and trust companies. Secondary liens may also be taken at any time to further secure a loan if the loan is otherwise adequately secured.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; (1) (b) §1, ch. 57-42; (1) §1, ch. 63-322.

Note.—See former §§653.04, 653.18, 655.17, 655.20, comptroller's Rule No. 7.

659.18 Loans by banks where not in excess of $5,000.00.—

(1) Any bank shall have power in addition to such other powers as it may have to make loans to any person, firm or corporation in an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, and to deduct in advance from the proceeds of such loan interest or discount computed at a rate of not exceeding six per cent per annum upon the total amount of the loan from the date thereof until the maturity of the final installment, notwithstanding that the principal amount of such loan is required to be repaid in installments, or notwithstanding the loan is secured by mortgage, pledge, or other collateral or secured by a deposit account opened by the maker or makers concurrently with the making of the loan and assigned as collateral security therefor, which deposit account may evidence deposits made, or require deposits substantially uniform in amount, to be made periodically, with or without interest, throughout the term for which the note evidencing such loans runs. If such loan be payable in periodic installments the interest or discount thereon for the entire term of the loan may be added to the principal and the aggregate amount divided into installments as nearly equal as may be done during the term of such loan.

(2) No further interest or discount charge, nor any other charge whatsoever, shall be made directly or indirectly on any such loan or discount of such note by such bank, trust company or national bank in addition to the charges herein expressly provided for, except that there may be charged to the borrower

(a) A penalty not exceeding five per cent of the amount of any principal payment or payments in default.

(b) The premium on any group insurance policy on the life of the borrower, in an amount not to exceed the full amount of the loan, in case such bank, trust company or national bank insures the life of the borrower under a group insurance policy, and

(c) The actual cost of reasonable and necessary credit investigation or appraisal of the security offered as collateral, provided such cost shall not exceed two per cent of the principal amount of the loan.

(d) Provided, however, that such banks may make a minimum interest or discount charge of three dollars on any single payment loan, or five dollars on any installment loan, notwithstanding such sum shall exceed the contract rate otherwise fixed by law.

(e) The rates, penalties, premiums, costs, charges and minimum charge, authorized under this section, shall be construed as exceptions to the laws of Florida governing interest and usury and the penalties of such laws shall apply in all cases where the limitations or requirements of this section are exceeded or violated.

(f) The privileges conferred by subsection (1) shall not extend to any lending institution which, either 1. refuses or neglects to rebate to the borrower any unearned interest or discount when the borrower shall repay the loan in full before the due date of the last and final installment, or 2. misrepresents the interest or discount rates or charges or the conditions of making loans in any form of advertisement or notice to the public or to potential customers.

(g) It shall be the duty of the commissioner to enforce the provisions of this section and to make such investigations and initiate such actions in court, or otherwise, as may insure its enforcements.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; (1) by §1, ch. 57-132.
Note: See former §653.81.

659.19 Banks authorized to make commodity loans.—Banks may make loans known and described as "commodity loans" on the obligations of any person, firm, co-partnership, association or corporation, in the form of notes or drafts secured by shipping documents, warehouse receipts or other such documents transferring or securing title covering readily marketable non-perishable staples when such property is fully covered by insurance if it is customary to insure such staples in the following percentages of the bank's capital and surplus:

(1) Twenty-five per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligation is not at any time less than one hundred fifteen per cent of the face amount of such obligation.

(2) Thirty per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligation is not at any time less than one hundred twenty per cent of the face amount of such obligation.

(3) Thirty-five per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligation is not at any time less than one hundred twenty-five per cent of the face amount of such obligation.

(4) Forty per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligation is not at any time less than one hundred thirty per cent of the face amount of such obligation.

(5) Forty-five per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligation is not at any time less than one hundred thirty-five per cent of the face amount of such obligation.

(6) Fifty per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligation is not at any time less than one hundred forty per cent of the face amount of such obligation.

The increased loan limitation provided by this section shall not apply to obligations of any one person, firm, copartnership, association or corporation arising from the same transaction and/or secured upon the identical staples for more than ten months.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §653.87.

659.20 Investments.—

(1) No bank or trust company shall, directly or indirectly, invest any of its funds in the stock of any incorporated company except the stock of the federal reserve bank of this district, and the stock of the federal national mortgage association, in connection with the sale of the mortgages to said association, or any successor thereof, and except that a bank or trust company may purchase shares of stock in small business investment companies as defined in and organized pursuant to public law 85-699 of the act of congress of August 21, 1958 (15 U. S. code, section 681 et seq.) in an aggregate amount not exceeding one per cent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of such bank or trust company.

(2) A bank or trust company may invest without limitation in marketable bonds or securities with investment characteristics as defined by the commissioner as follows:

(a) United States obligations, including bonds and securities upon which the payment of principal and interest is fully guaranteed by the United States government.

(b) New public housing authority obligations.

(c) General obligations of states, counties, and of political subdivisions thereof.

(d) Refunding bonds and gasoline or fuel tax anticipation certificates issued by the state board of administration, under §16, Art. IX of the state constitution, or by the Florida improvement commission.

(e) Tax anticipation certificates or warrants of counties or municipalities with maturities not exceeding one year.

(3) A bank or trust company may invest in other marketable bonds or securities with investment characteristics as defined by the commissioner as follows:

(a) Not more than twenty-five per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus in obligations issued by the following United States government agencies:

1. Commodity credit corporation;

2. Federal intermediate credit banks, or any of such banks;

3. Federal land banks, or any of said banks;

4. Central banks for cooperatives and regional banks for cooperatives, or any of such banks;

5. Federal home loan banks or any of said banks;

6. Federal national mortgage association.

(b) Not more than twenty-five per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus in any single issue of revenue certificates or revenue bonds of any political subdivision or municipality of any state, or the Florida improvement commission.

(c) Not more than ten per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus in corporate obligations of any one obligor or maker.

(4) None of the investment securities provided in this subsection shall be eligible for investment, if they have been in default either as to principal or interest within five years prior to the date of purchase.

(5) In real estate, except:

(a) Such as may be necessary for its accommodation in the transaction of its business provided the amount of such investments does not exceed forty per cent of its unimpaired capital and surplus; or, in lieu thereof, and anything elsewhere in this section to the contrary notwithstanding, with prior approval of the commissioner a bank may invest in the stock of an incorporated company organized and operated for the sole purpose of owning and operating such building and premises as may be necessary for the accommodation of such bank in the transaction of its business, provided the investment in such stock shall not exceed forty per cent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of such bank.

(6) A bank or trust company may acquire property of any kind to secure, protect or satisfy a loan or investment previously made in good faith and such property shall be held and disposed of subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) Stock shall be sold within six months or such additional period as the commissioner may prescribe, unless the same is charged off.

(b) Real estate may be retained for use in the banking business subject to the conditions prescribed in this section for property purchased for such use, or may be rented. Real estate may be improved to facilitate its sale. Unless used in the banking business, it shall be sold within five years or such longer periods as the commissioner may allow unless it is written down on the books of said bank or trust company to one dollar.

(c) Other property, the acquisition of which is not otherwise authorized by this act, shall be sold within six months or such longer period as the commissioner may allow.

(d) Property shall be entered on the books at cost or fair value, whichever is less, and property which the bank is not otherwise authorized to acquire shall be charged off at a rate of not less than ten per cent per annum for real estate and twenty per cent per annum for other property, or at such lower rate not less than five and ten per cent, respectively, as the commissioner may allow.

(7) Any officer or director of any bank or trust company willfully violating any of the provisions of this section or §659.17 shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years.

In addition thereto, such officer or director shall in the event of such violation be subject to summary removal from office by the commissioner and shall not be eligible to re-election to such position or to any other official position in any bank or trust company doing business in this state for a period of five years from the date of such removal.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 57-24; (1) by §1, ch. 59-24; (5) (a) by §1, ch. 59-22.
cf.—§288.11, abolition of Florida state improvement commission.
§665.45 Authorized investment in federal and Florida savings and loan assn.

Note: See former §§652.21, 653.21, 653.19, 653.27, 655.03.

659.21 Security of deposits.—Notwithstanding any provisions of law of this state or any political subdivision thereof requiring security of deposits in the form of collateral, surety bond, or in any other form, security for such deposit shall not be required to the extent that said deposits are insured under the provisions of §12-B of the federal reserve act as amended, or any amendments thereto.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions contained herein formerly §655.03.
cf.—§136.02 Banks qualification as depositories.

659.22 Sale of assets in ordinary course.—A bank or trust company may sell any asset in the ordinary course of business or with the approval of the commissioner in any other circumstances.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.23 Borrowing.—A bank or trust company may borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness for a loan for temporary purposes in the usual course of its business.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.03.

659.24 Depositories of public moneys and pledge of assets.—

(1) Banks shall be depositories of public moneys under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commissioner and they may also be employed as financial agents of the state and they shall perform such reasonable duties as depositories of public moneys and financial agents of the state as may be required of them. The commissioner shall require banks so designated to give satisfactory security by the deposit of bonds of the United States, the state or political subdivisions or other satisfactory security for the safekeeping and prompt payment of the public moneys deposited with them and for the faithful performance of their duties as financial agents of the state. A bank or trust company may also pledge its assets to:

(a) Enable it to act as agent for the sale of obligations of the United States.

(b) Secure borrowed funds.

(c) Secure deposits when the depositor is required to obtain such security by the laws of the United States or the laws of this state.

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions of law of this state or any political subdivision thereof requiring security of deposits in the form of collateral surety bond or in any other form, security for such deposits shall not be required to the extent that such deposits are insured under the provisions of federal deposit insurance, as amended, or any amendments thereto.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

cf.—§659.21 Security of deposits.

Note: See former § § 653.10, 653.12.

659.25 Rights of minority stockholders.—

No bank or trust company and no director, officer or employee thereof, shall permit any stockholder other than a qualified director, officer or employee thereof to have access to or to examine or inspect any of the books or records of such bank or trust company other than its general statement book showing its general assets and liabilities.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.26 Payment of items.—So long as the balance in any account subject to withdrawal by or upon the order of a depositor shall equal or exceed the amount of any one item presented for payment, a bank may select from items which in the aggregate exceed the balance, the item or items to be paid in any order convenient to the bank.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.27 Transactions outside of regular banking hours or on holidays.—

(1) No other law shall affect the validity of, or render void or voidable, the acceptance of deposits, the payment, certification, or acceptance of a check or other negotiable instrument, or any other transaction by a bank or trust company because done or performed on any holiday, or half-holiday, or during any time other than regular banking hours; provided that nothing herein shall be construed to compel any bank or trust company which by law or custom closes at its usual designated time on any Saturday or for the whole, or any part of any legal holiday, to keep open for the transaction of business, or to perform any of the acts or transactions aforesaid on any Saturday after such hour, or on any legal holiday, except at its own option.

(2) Any bank or trust company may be closed for a period of not more than forty-eight consecutive hours, excluding other legal holidays, whenever in the judgment of the directors, the president, or other officers in charge, the lives, safety or property of the institution's employees, or the institution itself would be endangered or placed in jeopardy by an impending or existing hurricane, or other catastrophe, including, but not limited to fire and civil disturbances. The period during which a banking or trust institution is closed pursuant to this subsection shall be a legal holiday as regards banking transactions.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former § § 653.83, 653.89.

659.271 Permissive legal holidays; Wednesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays.—

(1) Any bank or trust company lawfully doing business in the state may be closed on any one or more Wednesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays upon the adoption of a resolution to such effect by a majority vote of the board of directors, or the board of trustees thereof. Any one or more of such Wednesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays shall with respect to any such bank or trust company, which shall be closed thereon in accordance with the provisions of this section, constitute a holiday for all purposes whatsoever, as regards the time payable, the presenting for payment, or acceptance, and of the protesting and giving notice of a protest and notice of dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks and promissory notes drawn on and payable at such bank or trust company, so closed and any other banking business of whatsoever character. All such bills of exchange, checks and notes otherwise presentable for acceptance or payment at any such bank on any Wednesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays when such bank shall in accordance with the provisions hereof be closed, shall be deemed to be payable and presentable for acceptance or payment on the next succeeding business day.

(2) For the purpose of this section the term "bank" shall include any banking organization as defined in the banking law whether chartered under state or federal statutes, any national bank or federal reserve bank. The term "trust company" shall mean any company authorized by federal or state law to carry on a trust business as defined in the statutes of the state.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 29847, 1955; (1) by §1, ch. 57-394.

659.28 Deposit of minors.—Bank or trust company deposits by a minor or made in his name, other than by a court appointed guardian, may be withdrawn by the minor in the absence of an agreement to the contrary made between the bank and the depositor at the time the account is opened, and in case of any such agreement, such moneys, until the minor's disabilities are removed, may be withdrawn by the person or persons designated in such agreement.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 29939, 1955.

Note: See former § § 653.171, 655.21.

659.29 Deposits in two or more names.—Bank or trust company deposits, or any part thereof, or any interest therein made in the names of two or more persons, payable to either, or payable to either or the survivor, and deposits made to an account standing in the names of two or more persons payable as hereinabove mentioned, may be paid to, or pursuant to the order of, either or any of said persons or to, or pursuant to the order of, the guardian of the property of any such person who is incompetent, whether the other or others be living or not and whether the other or others be competent or not; and the check or other order for payment of any such person, or the receipt or acquittance of the person so paid, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the bank or trust company for any payment so made.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §2, ch. 29939, 1955; §1, ch. 63-472.

Note: See former § § 653.16, 655.21.

659.30 Deposits in trust.—Bank or trust company deposits made by any person describing himself and making such deposit as trustee for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust than such description shall have been given in writing to such bank, in the event of the death of the person so described as trustee, such deposit, or any part thereof, together with the dividends or interest thereon may be paid to the person for whom the deposit was thus stated to have been made.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.17.

659.31 Payment of stale check.—Where a check or other instrument payable on demand at any bank or trust company is presented for payment more than six months from its date, such bank or trust company may, at its option, unless expressly instructed in writing by the drawer or maker to pay the same, refuse payment thereof and no liability shall thereby be incurred to the drawer or maker for dishonoring the instrument by nonpayment.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §676.54.

659.32 Revocation, countermand or stop-payment orders.—No revocation, countermand or stop-payment order relating to the payment of any check or draft against a bank account shall be effective unless given in writing and served upon and received by an officer of the bank at the banking house during regular banking hours. No bank or trust company shall be responsible or liable for failure to comply with any such revocation, countermand or stop-payment order on the day the same is served upon or received by such bank or trust company or officer thereof unless such omission or failure of such bank or trust company to comply with the same on the day received result from the willful and intentional disregard of such revocation, countermand or stop-payment order. Said revocation, countermand or stop-payment order shall not be effective for more than six months after the date of service thereof on the bank unless the same be renewed in writing which renewals may be made from time to time for additional six months periods. None of the provisions of this section shall be construed as creating or imposing any liability which otherwise would not have been imposed or existed.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 61-287.

Note.—See former §653.41.

659.33 Non-payment of check through error.

—No bank or trust company shall be liable to a depositor because of the non-payment through mistake or error and without malice of an item which should have been paid unless the depositor shall allege and prove actual damage by reason of such non-payment and in such event the liability shall not exceed the amount of damage so proved.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.34 Rights on improper payment of item.

(1) To prevent unjust enrichment, a bank or trust company which has paid an item which it may not charge to a depositor's account may in an action

(a) against the drawer, maker or acceptor, recover any part of the payment which would have been due from him had the payment been refused; and

(b) against a prior holder receiving the payment, recover any part thereof due the drawer, maker or acceptor or any other prior party in respect of the transaction in which the item was issued or sold.

(2) The bank or trust company shall have no right to charge the costs of such action to the depositor. The bank or trust company may maintain either or both such actions, but may have only one satisfaction, and any right to consequential or punitive damages remains with the depositor or holder.

(3) In any case in which a bank or trust company has paid an item which may be charged to a depositor's account, a bank or trust company may waive such right and proceed in accordance with this section.

(4) A defense of change of position in reliance upon receipt of payment shall not be effective against the bank or trust company unless it would be effective in a suit between the original parties.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.35 Limitations; statements as correct.

(1) Unless written objection thereto shall have been theretofore delivered by the depositor to the bank, a statement of account rendered by any bank or trust company in this state to a depositor, accompanied by vouchers which are the basis of debit entries in such account, shall, after the expiration of three years from the date rendered, be conclusively presumed to be correct and the depositor shall thereafter be barred from questioning same.

(2) In the absence of written contract between a bank and a depositor providing otherwise, a statement of account of a depositor, with accompanying vouchers, shall be deemed to have been rendered to the depositor within the meaning of this section when prepared and lodged by the bank at its statement window or other customary place for delivery to the depositor. Any such statement and vouchers, either or both, which are not demanded by the depositor within three years may be destroyed by the bank without accountability or liability therefor to anyone.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve a depositor from any duty or obligation imposed by law or by contract heretofore or hereafter made to examine such account and vouchers and to report any errors or irregularities within a shorter period of time than herein mentioned, nor from the legal consequences of the depositor's failure to perform any such duty or obligation.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note.—See former §653.85.

659.36 Issuance of post-dated checks.—It shall be the duty of the person drawing a post-dated check to notify, in writing, the bank or trust company upon which such check is drawn, giving a complete description thereof, including the name of the payee, the date, the number and amount thereof, otherwise the bank or trust company shall not be liable for erroneously paying such check.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note.—See former §653.88.

659.37 Liability of bank for amount paid on forged or raised checks or endorsements.—No bank or trust company, which has paid and charged to the account of a depositor any money on a forged or raised check issued in the name of said depositor, or on a check issued by said depositor bearing a forged endorsement, shall be liable to said depositor for the amount paid thereon, unless said depositor shall notify the bank or trust company that the check so paid is forged or raised, or that the endorsement thereon is forged, either:

(1) Within one year after notice to said depositor that the vouchers representing payments charged to his account for the period during which such payment was made, are ready for delivery, or

(2) If no such notice has been given to the depositor, then within one year after the return to said depositor of the voucher representing such payment, or

(3) Within six months after the next succeeding date upon which interest shall have been paid by the bank on said depositor's account, in the case of a savings account.

The notice to the depositor hereinabove referred to, shall be given by registered or certified mail with return receipt demanded, to said depositor at his last known address, with postage prepaid.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 61-144.
Note.—See former §674.26.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

659.38 Adverse claim to bank or trust company deposit.—Notice to any bank or trust company of an adverse claim to a deposit standing on its books to the credit of any person shall not be effectual to cause said bank or trust company to recognize said adverse claimant unless said adverse claimant shall also either:

(1) Procure a restraining order, injunction or other appropriate process against said bank or trust company from a court in a cause therein instituted by him wherein the person to whose credit the deposit stands is made a party and served with process, or

(2) Execute to said bank or trust company in form and with sureties acceptable to it, a bond, indemnifying said bank or trust company from any and all liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses, for and on account of the payment of such adverse claim or the dishonor of the check or other order of the person to whose credit the deposit stands on the books of said bank or trust company.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.39 Death or incompetency of depositor.—Any bank or trust company may pay any item made, drawn or accepted by a person who has funds on deposit to meet the same, notwithstanding the death or incompetency of the drawer, if presentation is made within thirty days after receipt of notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of said depositor, and at any time if the bank or trust company has not received the written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of said depositor. No bank or trust company shall be liable for damages, or penalty, by reason of any payment made pursuant to this section.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953; provisions contained herein formerly §676.53.

659.40 Powers of attorney.—

(1) A bank or trust company may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney authorized in writing to operate, in whole or in part, the account of a depositor, until it receives written notice of the revocation of his authority.

(2) Written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of such depositor shall constitute written notice of revocation of the authority of his attorney; provided, however, bank or trust company may, until thirty days after receipt of such notice, pay any item made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by such attorney prior to such death or incompetency, provided that such item is otherwise properly payable.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note.—See former §676.53.

659.41 Transmitting money; foreign exchange.—

(1) A bank may accept money for transmission and may transmit money.

(2) A bank may buy and sell foreign exchange to the extent necessary to meet the needs of customers.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.411 Exchange rates.—Banks may charge for exchange not exceeding one-eighth of one per cent when paying or remitting for checks drawn upon them; whenever a check or checks are forwarded or presented to a bank for a payment, except when presented by the payee in person, the paying bank or remitting bank may pay or remit the same, at its option, either in money, or in exchange drawn on its reserve agent or agents in the city of New York or in any reserve city within the sixth federal reserve district; and, at its option, it may charge for such exchange not exceeding one-eighth of one per cent of the aggregate amount of the checks so presented and paid; provided, that a minimum charge of twenty-five cents may be made; provided further, that the provisions of this section and §659.412 shall not apply to foreign bills of exchange.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §3, ch. 29939, 1955.

Note: See former §653.32.

659.412 Exchange collection not ground for protest.—It is unlawful for any person or notary public, or other official in this state, knowingly, to protest any check for nonpayment, when payment is declined solely on the ground that the paying bank exercises its option to collect exchange on such check, not exceeding one-eighth of one per cent of the amount of such check, or the minimum charge of not less than ten cents, as set forth in §659.411 and any person, notary public, or other official knowingly violating this section shall be responsible for all damages to all interested persons or corporations and his official bond shall be liable therefor.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.33.

659.42 Definitions for §§659.43-659.51.—As used in §§659.43 through 659.51:

(1) "Lessee" means a person contracting with a lessor for the use of a safe deposit box.

(2) "Lessor" means a bank or trust company, renting safe deposit facilities.

(3) "Safe deposit box" means a safe deposit box, vault, or other safe deposit receptacle maintained by a lessor and the rules relating thereto apply to property or documents kept in safekeeping in the bank's vault.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.43 Authority to engage in leasing safe deposit facilities.—A state bank or trust company may maintain and lease safe deposit boxes and may accept property or documents for safekeeping if, except in the case of night depositories, it issues a receipt therefor.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.44 Access by fiduciaries.—Where a safe deposit box is made available by a lessor to one or more persons acting as fiduciaries, the lessor may, except as otherwise expressly provided in the lease or the writings pursuant to which such fiduciaries are acting, allow access thereto as follows:

(1) By any one or more of the persons acting as executors or administrators.

(2) By any one or more of the persons otherwise acting as fiduciaries when authorized in writing signed by all other persons so acting.

(3) By any agent authorized in writing signed by all of the persons acting as fiduciaries.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.45 Effect of lessee's death or incompetence.—Where a lessor without knowledge of the death or of an adjudication of legal incompetence of the lessee, deals with his agent pursuant to a written power of attorney signed by such lessee, the transaction binds the lessee's estate and the lessee.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.46 Search procedure on death of lessee.—Provided satisfactory proof of the death of the lessee is presented, a lessor shall permit the person named in a court order for the purpose, or if no order has been served upon the lessor, the spouse, a parent, an adult descendant or a person named as an executor in a copy of a purported will produced by him, to open and examine the contents of a safe deposit box leased by a decedent, or any documents delivered by a decedent for safekeeping, in the presence of an officer of the lessor; and the lessor, if so requested by such person, must deliver:

(1) Any writing purporting to be a will of the decedent to the court having probate jurisdiction in the county wherein the bank is located.

(2) Any writing purporting to be a deed to a burial plot or to give burial instructions to the person making the request for a search; and

(3) Any document purporting to be an insurance policy on the life of the decedent to the beneficiary named therein; but no other contents shall be removed pursuant to this section.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.47 Lease to minor.—A bank may lease a safe deposit box to and in connection therewith deal with a minor with the same effect as if leasing to and dealing with a person of full legal capacity.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.48 Delivery of safe deposit box contents or property held in safekeeping to personal representative.—

(1) The lessor shall immediately deliver to a resident personal representative, upon presentation of a certified copy of his letters of authority, all property deposited with it by the decedent for safekeeping, and shall grant him access to any safe deposit box in the decedent's name and permit him to remove from such box any part or all of the contents thereof.

(2) After three months from the death of a lessee, if a personal foreign representative of such lessee has been appointed by a court of any other state and the lessor has not received written notice of the appointment of a personal representative in this state, a lessor may, in its discretion, deliver to a foreign personal representative all properties deposited with it for safekeeping and the contents of any safe deposit box in the name of the decedent. Such a foreign personal representative shall furnish the lessor with an affidavit setting forth facts showing the domicile of the deceased lessee to be other than this state, and stating that there are no unpaid creditors of the deceased lessee in this state, together with a certified copy of his letters of authority. A lessor making delivery pursuant to this subsection shall maintain in its files a receipt executed by such foreign personal representative which itemizes in detail all property so delivered.

(3) No lessor shall be liable for damages or penalty by reason of any delivery made pursuant to this section.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.49 Access to safe deposit boxes leased in two or more names.—

(1) When specifically provided in the lease or rental agreement covering safe deposit boxes heretofore or hereafter rented or leased in the names of two or more lessees, that access to said safe deposit box shall be granted to either lessee, or to either or the survivor, access to said safe deposit box shall be granted to:

(a) Either or any of said lessees, regardless of whether or not the other lessee or lessees or any of them be living or be competent, or

(b) The executor or administrator of the estate of either or any of said lessees who is deceased, or the guardian of the property of either or any of said lessees who is incompetent, and in either such case, the provisions of §659.44, shall apply, and the signature on the safe deposit entry or access record (or the receipt or acquittance, in the case of property or documents otherwise held for safekeeping) shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the lessor for granting access to such safe deposit box, or for the delivery of such property or documents otherwise held for safekeeping.

(2) No lessor shall be held liable for damages or penalty by reason of any access granted or delivery made pursuant to this section.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 63-110.

Note: See former §653.82.

659.50 Adverse claims to contents of safe deposit box.—

(1) An adverse claim to the contents of a safe deposit box, or to property held in safekeeping, is not sufficient to require the lessor to deny access to its lessee unless:

(a) The lessor is directed to do so by a court order issued in an action in which the lessee is served with process and named as a party by a name which identifies him with the name in which the safe deposit box is leased or the property held; or

(b) The safe deposit box is leased or the property is held in the name of a lessee with the addition of words indicating that the contents or property are held in a fiduciary capacity, and the adverse claim is supported by a written statement of facts disclosing that it is made by or on behalf of a beneficiary and that there is reason to know that the fiduciary will misappropriate the trust property.

(2) A claim is also an adverse claim where one of several lessees claims, contrary to the terms of the lease, an exclusive right of access, or where one or more persons claim a right of access as agents or officers of a lessee to the exclusion of others as agents or officers, or where it is claimed that a lessee is the same person as one using another name.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.51 Special remedies for nonpayment of rent.—

(1) If the rental due on a safe deposit box has not been paid for six months, the lessor may send a notice by registered mail to the last known address of the lessee stating that the safe deposit box will be opened and its contents stored at the expense of the lessee unless payment of the rental is made within thirty days. If the rental is not paid within thirty days from the mailing of the notice, the box may be opened in the presence of an officer of the lessor and of a notary public who is not a director, officer, employee or stockholder of the lessor. The contents shall be sealed in a package by a notary public who shall write on the outside the name of the lessee and the date of the opening. The notary public shall execute a certificate reciting the name of the lessee, the date of the opening of the box and a list of its contents. The certificate shall be included in the package and a copy of the certificate shall be sent by registered mail to the last known address of the lessee. The package shall then be placed in the general vaults of the lessor at a rental not exceeding the rental previously charged for the box.

(2) If the contents of the safe deposit box have not been claimed within one year of the mailing of the certificate, the lessor may send a further notice to the last known address of the lessee stating that, unless the accumulated charges are paid within thirty days, the contents of the box will be sold at public auction at a specified time and place, or, in the case of securities listed on a stock exchange, will be sold upon the exchange on or after a specified date and that unsalable items will be destroyed. The time, place and manner of sale shall also be posted conspicuously on the premises of the lessor and advertised once in a newspaper of general circulation in the community. If the articles are not claimed, they may then be sold in accordance with the notice.

The balance of the proceeds, after reducing accumulated charges, including the expenses of advertising and conducting the sale, shall be deposited to the credit of the lessee in any account maintained by him, or if none, shall be deemed a deposit account with the bank or trust company operating the safe deposit facility, and shall be identified on the books of the bank as arising from the sale of contents of a safe deposit box.

(3) Any documents or writings of a private nature, and having little or no apparent value need not be offered for sale, but shall be retained, unless claimed by the owner, for the period specified for unclaimed contents, after which they may be destroyed.

(4) The remedies provided for in this section shall apply to rental accrued or contents of safe deposit boxes held by banks prior to the enactment of chapter 28016 of the laws of 1953, chs. 658-661, Florida Statutes.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; sub. §(4) comp. §4, ch. 29939, 1955.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

659.52 Banking business by unauthorized persons.—

(1) No person other than banks shall:

(a) Solicit or receive deposits, issue certificates of deposit, with or without provision for interest, make payments on check, issue or sell travelers checks, or money orders, or transact business in the way or manner of a commercial bank or trust company; provided, however, that the provisions of this paragraph prohibiting persons other than banks from issuing or selling travelers checks and money orders shall not apply to the travelers checks or money orders issued by any person who, for five or more years prior to the passage of this act has been continually engaged in the state in the business of issuing and selling travelers checks and money orders, provided further that such issuing person can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that its assets exceed all of its liabilities by at least one million dollars, and upon such satisfactory showing by such issuing person the travelers checks and money orders of such issuing person may be sold by the issuer or persons other than the issuer without other limitation hereunder.

(b) Advertise that it is accepting deposits and issuing notes or certificates therefor, or making use of any office sign at the place where its business is transacted having thereon any artificial or corporate name or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a bank or trust company, that deposits are received there or payments made on checks or any other form of banking business transacted, nor shall any such persons make use of or circulate any letterheads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates or circulars, or any written or printed paper whatever having thereon any article or corporate name or other words indicating that such business is the business of a bank, commercial bank or trust company, or transact business in such a way or manner as to lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank or trust company, except to the extent expressly authorized by this code.

(c) Transact business under any name or title which contains the word "bank", "banker", "banking" or "trust company", or which indicates that such business is the business of a bank or trust company. Any building and loan association, or savings and loan association, having in its corporate name words not clearly indicating the nature of its business shall state in or on all signs, letterheads and advertising, "This is a building and loan association", or "This is a savings and loan association", or words to that effect. This paragraph as amended by ch. 61-164 shall not apply to any corporation or business presently using such words as herein defined.

(d) This subsection shall in nowise restrict or impair any right, authority or power granted savings banks, morris plan or industrial banks or credit unions organized and operated under the laws of the state.

(2) Any building and loan association may issue shares and investment certificates and do such other business as may be authorized by the laws of the state relating to building and loan associations, but no building and loan association shall advertise or hold itself out to the public as a bank.

(3) Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be liable for a fine in the amount of one hundred dollars per day, or part thereof, during which such violation continues. Any court, in a proceeding brought by the commissioner or any interested person affected thereby, may enjoin any person from using words in violation of the provisions of this section, or from transacting business in violation of this code, or in such a way or manner as to lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank, commercial bank or trust company.

History.—§2, ch. 28016, 1953; (1) (a) by §1, ch. 59-129; (1) (c) a. by §§1, 2, ch. 61-164.

Note: See former §652.24.

659.53 Miscellaneous offenses.—

(1) Any director, officer or employee of a bank or trust company who asks for or receives, consents or agrees to receive any commission, emolument or gratuity or any money, property or things of value for his own personal benefit, or of personal advantage for procuring or endeavoring to procure for any person any loan from such bank or trust company or the purchase or discount of any note, draft, check, bill of exchange or other obligation by such bank or trust company, or for permitting any person to overdraw any account with such bank shall be guilty of a felony.

(2) Any director, officer, agent or employee of any bank or trust company who knowingly receives or possesses himself of any of its property otherwise than in payment of a just demand, and with intent to defraud, omits to make or cause to be made a full and true entry thereof in its books and accounts, or concurs in omitting to make any material entry thereof, shall be guilty of a felony.

(3) Any director, officer, agent or employee of a bank or trust company who without authority from the board of directors of such bank, (a) makes, draws, issues, puts forth or assigns any certificate of deposit, draft, order, bill of exchange, acceptance, note, debenture, bond or other obligation, or mortgage, judgment or decree, or, (b) makes any false entry in any book, report or statement of such bank or trust company with intent to defraud such bank, or any other person, firm, or corporation, or to deceive any officer of such bank, or the commissioner or any examiner appointed to examine the affairs of such bank or trust company, shall be guilty of a felony.

(4) No bank or trust company shall purchase any real property or any contract arising from the sale of real property, or any note or bond in which any director, officer, or controlling stockholders of such bank, is personally or financially interested, directly or indirectly for his own account, for himself, or as a partner or agent of others without first obtaining the approval of the majority of the board of directors, excluding his own vote.

(5) No officer or director without prior approval of the board of a bank or trust company shall purchase directly or indirectly or be interested in the purchase of any of the bank's assets.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.54 Unlawful service as an officer.—It shall be unlawful for any person to serve as an officer or director of a bank who:

(1) Has been convicted of an offense constituting a violation of the banking laws, involving moral turpitude, or a breach of trust.

(2) Is indebted to the bank for more than thirty days upon a judgment that has become final.

(3) Has any interest adverse to the bank unless such interest is promptly and fully disclosed in writing to the board of directors of the bank.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.55 Criminal penalties.—Any person responsible for an act or omission expressly declared to be unlawful, or a criminal offense by this code upon conviction shall be guilty:

(1) Of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both; or

(2) If the act or omission was intended to defraud, of a felony punishable by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or both.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.56 Injunction.—Whenever a violation of this code is threatened or impending, and will cause substantial injury to a bank or trust company or to the depositors, creditors, or stockholders thereof, the circuit court is hereby granted jurisdiction to hear any complaint filed by the commissioner or any interested party, and, upon proper showing, to issue an injunction restraining such violation or granting such other appropriate relief.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.57 Transaction of business by out-of-state banking corporations; exempt transactions in banking code.—Nothing in this code shall be construed to prohibit a foreign bank from (1) contracting in this state with any person to acquire from such person a part or the entire interest in a loan which such person proposes to make, has heretofore made or hereafter makes, together with a like interest in any security instrument covering real or personal property in the state proposed to be given or hereafter or heretofore given to such person to secure or evidence such loan; (2) servicing directly or entering into servicing contracts with persons, and enforcing in this state the obligations heretofore or hereafter acquired by it in the transaction of business outside of this state or in the transaction of any business authorized by this section; (3) acquiring, holding, leasing, mortgaging, contracting with respect to, or otherwise, protecting, managing, or conveying property in this state which has heretofore or may hereafter be assigned, transferred, mortgaged or conveyed to it as security for, or in whole or in part in satisfaction of, a loan or loans made by it or obligations acquired by it in the transaction of any business authorized by this section. No such foreign bank shall be deemed to be transacting business in this state, or be required to qualify so to do, solely by reason of the performance of any of the acts or business hereinbefore authorized in this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing or permitting any foreign bank to maintain an office within the state.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

659.58 Fictitious or fraudulent assets; past due paper.—

(1) Any bank or trust company shall not carry as an asset of said company any note, obligation or security which it does not own absolutely or which is known by the bank or trust company to be fraudulent or otherwise worthless, and no bank or trust company shall carry as an asset in any report to the commissioner or any published report any note or other obligation which is past due or upon which no interest has been paid for one year or longer, provided, however, that such past due paper may be carried to the extent of the reasonable value of any lien or other collateral given to secure such obligation; and provided further that if suit has been filed to enforce the collection of any such past due obligation, it may be carried at its reasonable value as determined by the board of directors. The commissioner may after investigation order the revision of any value so determined hereunder.

(2) Any officer of a bank or trust company who knowingly places among the assets of said bank or trust company any note, obligation or security which it does not own or which to his knowledge is fraudulent or otherwise worthless or who represents to the commissioner or an examiner that any note, obligation or security carried or an asset of such bank or trust company is the property of the bank and is genuine when it is known to such officer that such representation is false or that such note, obligation or security is fraudulent or otherwise worthless, such officer shall be guilty of a felony.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.26.

659.59 Short title.—This law may be cited as the Florida bank service corporation act.

History.—§1, ch. 63-113.

659.60 Definitions.—As used in §§659.59-659.66:

(1) Bank means any person, whether subject to the laws of this or any other jurisdiction, authorized to engage in the business of banking, or authorized to engage in the trust business, including the trust department of a bank.

(2) Bank services means services such as check and deposit sorting and posting, computation and posting of interest and other credits and charges, preparation and mailing of checks, statements, notices, and similar items, or any other clerical, bookkeeping, accounting, statistical, or similar functions performed for a bank.

(3) Bank service corporation means a corporation organized to perform bank services for two or more banks, each of which owns part of the capital stock of such corporation.

(4) The words and terms commissioner, person, and trust business, shall have the meaning ascribed to said words and terms, respectively, in §658.02.

(5) Invest includes any advance of funds to a bank service corporation, whether by the purchase of stock, the making of a loan, or otherwise, except a payment for rent earned, goods sold and delivered, or services rendered prior to the making of such payment.

(6) State bank means a bank, as defined in subsection (1), chartered by this state.

History.—§2, ch. 63-113.

659.61 Banks authorized to invest.—

(1) No limitation or prohibition otherwise imposed by any provision of the laws of this state exclusively relating to banks or any kind or class of banks shall prevent any two or more banks from investing not more than ten per cent of the paid-in and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus of each of them in a bank service corporation; and each of any two or more banks may invest not more than ten per cent of its paid-in and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus in a bank service corporation.

(2) If stock in a bank service corporation has been held by two or more banks, and one or more banks ceases to utilize the services of the bank service corporation and ceases to hold stock in it, and leaves only one bank as the sole stockholding bank, the bank service corporation may nevertheless continue to function as such and the sole remaining stockholding bank may continue to hold stock in it.

History.—§2, ch. 63-113.

659.62 Banks authorized to use services.—No limitation or prohibition otherwise imposed by any provision of the laws of this state, other than §§659.59-659.66, exclusively relating to banks or any kind or class of banks or exclusively relating to persons performing services for banks or any kind or class of banks, shall prevent:

(1) Any bank from causing bank services to be performed for itself at or away from its banking house or on or off its premises; and a bank may cause to be performed, by contract or otherwise, any bank services for itself, either at or away from its banking house or on or off its premises;

(2) Any bank from providing space and facilities, or either, in its banking house or on its premises for a bank service corporation or for a person performing bank services for such bank.

History.—§3, ch. 63-113.

659.63. Requirement to furnish services.—

Whenever a state bank, referred to in this section as an applying bank, applies for a type of bank services for itself from a bank service corporation which supplies the same type of bank services to another bank, and the applying bank is competitive with any bank, referred to in this section as a stockholding bank, which holds stock in such corporation, the bank service corporation must offer to supply such services by either:

(1) Issuing stock to the applying bank and furnishing bank services to it on the same basis as to the other banks holding stock in the bank service corporation, or

(2) Furnishing bank services to the applying bank at rates no higher than necessary to fairly reflect the cost of such services, including the reasonable cost of the capital provided to the bank service corporation by its stockholders, at the option of the bank service corporation, unless comparable services at competitive overall cost are available to the applying bank from another source, or unless the furnishing of the services sought by the applying bank would be beyond the practical capacity of the bank service corporation. In any action or proceeding to enforce the duty imposed by this section, or for damages for the breach thereof, the burden shall be upon the bank service corporation to show such availability.

History.—§4, ch. 63-113.

659.64 Prohibited activities.—No bank service corporation may engage in any activity other than the performance of bank services for banks and the furnishing of goods and materials incidental thereto.

History.—§5, ch. 63-113.

659.65 Retention of supervision by commissioner.—No state bank may cause to be performed, by contract or otherwise, any bank services for itself, whether at or away from its banking house or on or off its premises, unless assurances satisfactory to the commissioner are furnished to the commissioner by both the state bank and the person performing such services that the performance thereof will be subject to regulation and examination by the commissioner to the same extent as if such services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises.

History.—§6, ch. 63-113.

659.66 Legislative intent.—In enacting §§659.59-659.66, the legislature of Florida takes cognizance of the enactment by the congress of the United States of public law 87-856, 87th congress, H.R. 8874, approved October 23, 1962

(76 Stat. 1132), entitled "An act to authorize certain banks to invest in corporations whose purpose is to provide clerical services for them, and for other purposes," and the legislature takes cognizance of the legislative history of said act of congress (house report 2062, 87th congress on H.R. 8874, July 30, 1962; senate report 2105, 87th congress on H.R. 8874, September 18, 1962), and it is intended that banks in this state shall have the authority to enjoy the benefits made available by said act of congress; and by the enactment of §§659.59-659.66

it is not intended to regulate services performed for state banks such as legal services, services of independent accountants, public relations and advertising, armored car and other transportation services, guard services, mechanical services in connection with the operation of equipment in buildings, or other services of similar nature, the bank services to which the regulatory requirements of §§659.59-659.66 relate being intended to be limited to banking functions as such.

History.—§7, ch. 63-113.

CHAPTER 660

BANKING CODE, THIRD PART

- 660.01 Trust powers enumerated.
 660.02 Securities described for investment of trust funds.
 660.03 Trust funds separate and not liable.
 660.04 Security required before trust company may deposit uninvested trust funds in its banking department or any other bank.
 660.05 Disposition of security required for trust funds.
 660.06 Penalty for violation of §§660.04 and 660.05.

660.01 Trust powers enumerated. — Trust companies or banks heretofore or hereafter granted trust powers shall have power:

(1) To act as the fiscal or transfer agent of any state, municipality, body politic or corporation, and in such capacity to receive and disburse money.

(2) To transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness, and to act as agent of any corporation, foreign or domestic, for any purpose now or hereafter required by statute or otherwise.

(3) To receive deposits of trust moneys, securities or other personal property from any person or corporation.

(4) To act as trustee under any mortgage or bond issued by any municipality, body politic or corporation, and to accept and execute any other municipal or corporate trust not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

(5) To accept trusts from and execute trusts for married women in respect to their separate equitable property, and to be their agent in the management of such property, or to transact any business in relation thereto.

(6) To act under the order or appointment of any court of record, as guardian, receiver or trustee of the estate of any minor, and as depository of any moneys paid into court, whether for the benefit of any such minor or other person, corporation or party.

(7) To take, accept and execute any and all such legal trusts, duties and powers in regard to the holding, management and disposition of any estate, real or personal, and the rents and profits thereof, or the sale thereof, as may be granted or confided to it by any court of record, or by any person, corporation, municipal or other authority, and it shall be accountable to all parties in interest for the faithful discharge of every such trust, duty or power which it may so accept.

(8) To take, accept and execute any and all trusts and powers of whatever nature or description that may be conferred upon or intrusted or committed to it by any person or persons, or any body politic, corporation or other authority by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest, or otherwise, or which may be intrusted or committed or transferred to it or vested in it by order of any court of record, or 660.07 Trust company not required to give security as trustee, etc.

660.08 Deposit of securities with state treasurer.

660.09 Corporation officers authorized to make oath as trustee, etc.

660.10 Trust powers and duties.

660.11 Establishment of common trust funds.

660.12 Common trust fund investments.

660.13 Common trust fund to be audited annually.

660.14 Common trust fund court accountings.

any probate court, and to receive, take and hold any property or estate, real or personal, which may be the subject of any such trust.

(9) To be appointed and accept the appointment of assignee or trustee under any assignment for the benefit of creditors of any debtor made pursuant to any statute or otherwise.

(10) To act under the order of the appointment of any court or otherwise as receiver or trustee of the estate or property of any person, firm, association or corporation.

(11) To be appointed and to accept the appointment of executor of or trustee under the last will and testament, or administrator, with or without the will annexed, of the estate of any deceased person, and to be appointed and to act as the curator or guardian of the property of any minor, habitual drunkard, or person judicially declared physically or mentally incompetent.

(12) To collect coupons on or interest upon all manner of securities when authorized so to do by the parties depositing the same.

(13) To receive and manage any sinking fund of any corporation upon such terms as may be agreed upon between said corporations and those dealing with it.

(14) Generally to execute trusts of every description and to act and serve in any and all fiduciary capacities not inconsistent with the laws of this state or of the United States.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.03.

660.02 Securities described for investment of trust funds.—No trust company shall have power to invest funds derived under subsections (5), (6) and (11) of §660.01, except only as provided by chapter 518 and chapter 691.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.04.

660.03 Trust funds separate and not liable.—No money, property or securities held or received by any trust company, in its capacity as assignee, receiver, executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall be mingled with the investments of the capital stock or other moneys or property belonging to or deposited with such corporation or shall be liable for the debts or obligations of such corporations.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.05.

660.04 Security required before trust company may deposit uninvested trust funds in its banking department or any other bank.—It is unlawful for any officer, director or employee of any trust company doing business in this state to deposit the uninvested funds belonging to any particular trust, for which said trust company shall be trustee, in the banking department of the trust company itself, or with any other bank or trust company, without first taking full and adequate security therefor in one or more of the securities which are at that time legal investments of funds held by executors, administrators, trustees and guardians. No security shall be required, however, to the extent that any such deposit is insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation.

History.—§3, ch. 28016, 1953; §1, ch. 29871, 1955.

Note: See former §655.06.

660.05 Disposition of security required for trust funds.—When the uninvested funds of a particular trust are deposited in the banking side of the trust company acting as trustee, such trust company shall set aside, under proper resolution of the board of directors, securities of the class mentioned in §660.04, and hold the same in trust as security for the benefit of the uninvested funds mentioned. Security to be given as aforesaid, for uninvested funds of trusts that may be deposited in the banking side of the trust company acting as trustee, need not be segregated as to each particular trust for which uninvested funds are deposited but may be held in bulk for all of the trust funds so deposited.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.07.

660.06 Penalty for violation of §§660.04 and 660.05.—Any officer, director or employee of any trust company violating the provisions of § 660.04 and 660.05 shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to not more than twelve months in the state prison or fined in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.08.

660.07 Trust company not required to give security as trustee, etc.—No trust company of this state having deposited securities with the state treasurer as provided in §660.08, and authorized to act as assignee, receiver, administrator, guardian or trustee, shall be required by any officer or court of this state to give security upon appointment to, or acceptance of, any office of trust which it is by law authorized to execute.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.09.

660.08 Deposit of securities with state treasurer.—Every trust company shall deposit with the state treasurer a sum equal to twenty-five per cent of its paid-in capital stock; provided, that in no event shall such deposit be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, such deposits to be in cash or bonds, stocks or other securities of equal market value, which shall include approved mortgages or deeds of trust of real estate to be kept by the state treasurer in trust for said company, and for which he shall issue his official receipt or receipts, which receipt or receipts shall show the par value of securities so deposited, and the treasurer shall not be required to embrace in one receipt all of such securities so deposited by a trust company; provided, the values of such securities shall be fixed by the treasurer, attorney general, and comptroller at the time such securities are so deposited; and provided, further, that in lieu of the actual depositing of such securities with the state treasurer by any such trust company, the state treasurer may accept a safekeeping receipt or safekeeping receipts therefor, issued by any federal reserve bank or national or state bank; provided, such national or state bank shall have been previously approved for such purposes by the attorney general, comptroller and treasurer, such safekeeping receipt to substantially comply with the form and provisions of the safekeeping receipt provided for and set forth in §18.11. Said securities shall be held subject to the payment of any judgment or decree which may be rendered against said company. Should the aggregate market value of the securities so held, at any time, exceed in value the said sum required to be deposited, said company may withdraw with the consent of the commissioner such excess, and should the aggregate market value of such securities fall below said sum required to be deposited, said company shall within thirty days thereafter, deliver to the state treasurer additional securities sufficient to make good said sum. The state treasurer shall at all times keep prepared and ready for inspection a record of securities so held by him, and he shall allow said records to be, at all reasonable times, inspected by any person to whom said company is liable absolutely or conditionally, or by any court or officer who shall have appointed said company to any still existing obligation upon which said company is surety. Said company may at any time withdraw any part of the securities in the hands of the state treasurer, but before doing so must, except in cases of excess, as hereinbefore provided, deliver to said state treasurer other securities of equal market value to those to be withdrawn. The comptroller, treasurer and attorney general shall determine the value of all such substituted securities.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.10.

660.09 Corporation officers authorized to make oath as trustee, etc.—In all cases where any corporation of this state authorized by its charter to act as trustee, executor, administrator or guardian, shall be appointed executor, administrator or trustee of any estate or guardian of any infant, the president, or vice president, or trust officer, or assistant trust officer or cashier, or secretary or treasurer, of such corporation shall make and subscribe, for such corporation any and all oaths or affirmations required to be taken or subscribed by such executor, administrator, trustee or guardian.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.11.

660.10 Trust powers and duties.—All corporations except banks and trust companies incorporated under the laws of this state and having trust powers and except national banking associations located in this state and having trust powers, are prohibited from exercising any of the powers or duties and from acting in any of the capacities, within this state, as follows:

(1) As executor or administrator of the estate of any decedent, whether such decedent was a resident of this state or not, and whether the administration of the estate of such decedent be original or ancillary; provided, that if the executor or administrator of the estate of a nonresident decedent be a corporation duly authorized, qualified and acting as such executor or administrator in the jurisdiction of the domicile of the decedent, it may, as a foreign executor or administrator perform such duties and exercise such powers and privileges as are required, authorized or permitted by §734.30.

(2) As guardian of any infant, insane person or person physically or mentally incompetent whether domiciled in this state or not.

(3) As trustee under any will or other testamentary instrument, provided that any corporation which is authorized to act as such trustee under the laws of the place where it has its principal place of business may receive bequests to it as trustee of money or intangible personal property.

(4) As trustee of any real estate in this state or any interest therein under any agreement whereby the beneficial interest in such property is vested in others.

(5) As trustee under any deed of trust or other instrument executed after June 10, 1937, conveying or encumbering any real or tangible personal property in this state given to secure bonds or other evidence of indebtedness unless in such deed of trust or other instrument a trust company or bank having trust powers and located in this state or an individual residing in this state shall be named as cotrustee; and no suit shall be brought to foreclose any such deed of trust or other instrument unless such cotrustee or successor cotrustees of like qualifications be a party plaintiff.

(6) As receiver or trustee under appointment of any court in this state.

(7) As assignee, receiver or trustee of any insolvent person or corporation or under any assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(8) As fiscal agent, transfer agent or registrar of any municipal or private corporation, provided that this prohibition shall not be so construed as to prevent banks and trust companies not located in this state from acting within the state where located as fiscal agent, transfer agent or registrar of municipal or private corporations of this state; provided further, however, that nothing herein shall prevent any Florida corporation not a bank or trust company and not having trust powers from being its own fiscal agent, transfer agent or registrar concerning its own affairs, stock or securities. Provided, however, that nothing in this section or in any other law of this state shall be construed to prohibit a foreign bank or foreign trust company as trustee of any charitable foundation or endowment, employees' pension, retirement or profit-sharing trust, alone or together with a co-trustee from: (a) Contracting in this state or elsewhere with any person to acquire from such person a part or the entire interest in a loan which such person proposes to make, has heretofore made or hereafter makes, together with a like interest in any security instrument covering real or personal property in the state proposed to be given or hereafter or heretofore given to such person to secure or evidence such loan; (b) servicing directly or entering into servicing contracts with persons, and enforcing in this state the obligations heretofore or hereafter acquired by it in the transaction of business outside of this state or in the transaction of any business authorized or permitted hereby; (c) acquiring, holding, leasing, mortgaging, contracting with respect to, or otherwise, protecting, managing, or conveying property in this state which has heretofore or may hereafter be assigned, transferred, mortgaged or conveyed to it as security for, or in whole or in part in satisfaction of, a loan or loans made by it or obligations acquired by it in the transaction of any business authorized or permitted hereby; provided, further, that no such foreign bank or trust company shall be deemed to be transacting business in this state, or be required to qualify so to do, or to be unlawfully exercising powers or duties or acting in an unlawful or prohibited capacity or to be violating any of the provisions of this section or of any other law of this state, solely by reason of the performance of any of the acts or business hereinbefore permitted or authorized hereby; and provided, further, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing or permitting any foreign bank or trust company to maintain an office within this state.

History.—§3, ch. 28016, 1953; (8) by §1, ch. 57-409.

Note: See former §655.27.

660.11 Establishment of common trust funds.—Any bank or trust company qualified to act as fiduciary in this state may establish one or more common trust funds for the exclusive purpose of furnishing investments to itself as fiduciary, including estates, guardianships and all other fiduciary relationships, now in existence or hereafter created, requiring or authorizing investment of trust funds, or to itself and others, as cofiduciaries; and may, as such fiduciary or cofiduciary, invest funds which it lawfully holds for investment in interests in such common trust funds, if such investment is not prohibited by the instrument, judgment, decree, or order creating such fiduciary relationship, and if, in the case of co-fiduciaries, the bank or trust company procures the consent of its co-fiduciary or co-fiduciaries to such investment, which consent such co-fiduciary is hereby authorized to grant; but the full management of the fund shall at all times be in full charge of such bank and trust company, and any co-fiduciary or cotrustee shall not have any right to interfere in the management of such common trust funds.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.29.

660.12 Common trust fund investments.—No investment of a common trust fund shall be made in mortgages, the bank or trust company shall not mingle its own funds with such common trust funds, and every investment of a common trust fund shall, at all times, be such as would be a proper investment for each trust, estate or account owning an interest in such common trust fund.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.30.

660.13 Common trust fund to be audited annually.—A bank administering a common trust fund shall keep proper records, which in addition to all other necessary and proper matters shall show at all times the proportionate interest of each trust in the common trust fund, and at least once during each period of twelve months, cause an audit to be made of the common trust fund by auditors responsible only to the board of directors of the bank. The report of such audit shall include a list of the investments comprising the common trust fund at the time of the audit, which shall show the valuation placed on each item on such list by the trust investment committee of the bank as of the date of the audit, a statement of purchases, sales and any other investment changes, and of income and disbursements since the last audit, and appropriate comments as to any investment in default as to payment of principal or interest. The reasonable expenses or any such audit made by independent public accountants may be charged to the common trust fund. The bank shall manage such common trust funds without charge, save necessary expenses, and shall send a copy of the latest report of such audit annually to each person to whom a regular periodic accounting of the trusts participating in the common trust fund ordinarily would be rendered or shall send advice to each such person annually that the report is available and that a copy will be furnished without charge upon request.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.31.

660.14 Common trust fund court accountings.—Unless ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the bank or trust company operating such common trust funds is not required to render a court accounting with regard to such funds; but it may, by application to the circuit court, secure approval of such an accounting after such notice, and on such conditions as the court may establish.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §655.32.

CHAPTER 661

BANKING CODE, FOURTH PART

- 661.01 Definitions for §§661.01-661.09.
- 661.02 Merger; with resulting state or national bank.
- 661.03 Merger agreement.
- 661.04 Approval by commissioner; valuation of assets.
- 661.05 Approval by stockholders; rights of dissenters.
- 661.06 Effective date of merger; filing of approved agreement; certificate of merger as evidence.
- 661.07 Continuation of corporate entity; use of old names.
- 661.08 Conversion from state bank to national bank and the reverse.
- 661.09 Non-conforming assets of business.
- 661.10 Insolvency; appointment of liquidator.
- 661.11 Liquidation procedure.
- 661.12 General liquidator.
- 661.13 Federal deposit insurance corporation, as liquidator.
- 661.14 Federal deposit insurance corporation, subrogated.
- 661.15 Commissioner's procedure as to unsound banks.
- 661.16 Transfer of non-liquid assets.
- 661.17 Issue of stock certificates for pro rata share in frozen assets.
- 661.18 Notice of publication of commissioner's approval of segregation and settlement plan, and date set for court confirmation.
- 661.19 Liability after transfer of certificates of deposit.
- 661.20 Transfers, etc., void after act of insolvency.
- 661.21 Notice to present claims.
- 661.22 Claims, unclaimed dividends and undistributed funds.
- 661.23 Disposition of unclaimed dividend checks.
- 661.24 Expenses and compensation of liquidators; disposition of remainder of proceeds after payment of all claims.
- 661.25 Purchase of property by commissioner to protect liquidator's trust.
- 661.26 Receivers under supervision of commissioner.
- 661.27 Liquidator may borrow money and pledge securities with the approval of commissioner; fees.
- 661.28 Commissioner may conserve assets by appointment of conservator; duties, rights, powers, expenses and salary.
- 661.29 Examiner's report to commissioner.
- 661.30 Termination of conservatorship.
- 661.31 Banking business of bank in hands of a conservator.
- 661.32 Reorganization.
- 661.33 Notice of publication of conservator's return of banking business to board of directors.
- 661.34 Penalty for embezzlement of funds by conservator; removal.
- 661.35 Powers of commissioner unimpaired.
- 661.36 Preservation of records of insolvent banks.
- 661.37 Destruction of records of insolvent bank by liquidator.
- 661.38 Prima facie evidence.
- 661.39 Voluntary liquidation.
- 661.40 Procedure in voluntary liquidation.
- 661.41 Commissioner may direct examination.
- 661.42 Disposition of unclaimed funds of bank in voluntary liquidation.
- 661.43 County, municipality, board of public instruction, drainage district, etc., authorized to settle, compromise or adjust frozen deposits.
- 661.44 Unclaimed dividends; disposition.

661.01 Definitions for §§661.01-661.09.—As used in §§ 661.01-661.09:

(1) "Constituent bank" means a party to a merger.

(2) "Converting bank" means a bank converting from a state to a national bank, or the reverse.

(3) "Converted bank" means the same bank after the conversion.

(4) "Merger" includes consolidation.

(5) "Resulting bank" means the combined banks and trust companies carrying on business upon completion of a merger.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §§652.27, 653.27.

661.02 Merger; with resulting state or national bank.—

(1) Upon approval of the commissioner banks may be merged with a resulting state bank as hereafter prescribed, except that the action by a constituent national bank shall be taken in the manner prescribed by and shall be subject to any limitations or requirements imposed by any law of the United States which shall also govern the rights of its dissenting shareholders.

(2) Nothing in the law of this state shall restrict the right of a state bank to merge with a resulting national bank. The action to be taken by a constituent state bank and its rights and liabilities and those of its shareholders shall be the same as those prescribed for national banks at the time of the action by the applicable law of the United States and not by the law of this state.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §652.28.

cf.—§659.02 Application to organize bank.
§659.03 Investigation by commissioner.
§659.15 Filing fees.

661.03 Merger agreement.—Where there is to be a resulting state bank, the board of directors of each constituent state bank shall, by a majority of the entire board, approve a merger agreement which shall contain:

(1) The name of each constituent bank and the location of each office.

(2) With respect to the resulting bank: (a) the name and the location of the proposed office; (b) the name and residence of each director to serve until the next annual meeting of the stockholders; (c) the name and residence of each officer; (d) the amount of capital, the number of shares and the par value of each share; (e) whether preferred stock is to be issued and the amount, terms and preferences; (f) the amendments to the charter and by-laws.

(3) The terms for the exchange of shares of the constituent banks for those of the resulting bank.

(4) A statement that the agreement is subject to approval by the commissioner and by the stockholders of each constituent bank.

(5) Provisions governing the manner of disposing of the shares of the resulting state bank not taken by dissenting shareholders of constituent banks.

(6) Such other provisions as the commissioner requires to enable it to discharge its duties with respect to the merger.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §652.29.

661.04 Approval by commissioner; valuation of assets.—

(1) After approval by the board of directors of each constituent bank, the merger agreement shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval, together with certified copies of the authorizing resolutions of the several boards of directors showing approval by a majority of the entire board and evidence of proper action by the board of directors of any constituent national bank.

(2) Without approval by the commissioner no asset shall be carried on the books of the resulting bank at a valuation higher than that on the books of the constituent bank at the time of the last examination by a state or national bank examiner before the effective date of the merger.

(3) Within thirty days after receipt by the commissioner of the papers specified in subsection (1), the commissioner shall approve or disapprove the merger agreement. The commissioner shall approve the agreement if it appears that:

(a) The resulting state bank meets all the requirements of state law as to the formation of a new state bank.

(b) The agreement provides an adequate capital structure including surplus in relation to the deposit liabilities of the resulting state bank and its other activities which are to continue or are to be undertaken.

(c) The agreement is fair.

(d) The merger is not contrary to the public interest. If the commissioner disapproves an agreement, he shall state his objections and give an opportunity to the constituent banks to amend the merger agreement to obviate such objections.

(4) Where the resulting state bank is not to exercise trust powers, the commissioner shall not approve a merger until satisfied that adequate provision has been made for successors to fiduciary positions held by constituent banks.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §652.30.

661.05 Approval by stockholders; rights of dissenters.—

(1) To be effective, a merger must be approved by the stockholders of each constituent state bank by a vote of two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock at a meeting called to consider such action, which vote shall constitute the adoption of the charter and by-laws of the resulting state bank, including the amendments set forth in the merger agreement.

(2) The notice of the meeting of the stockholders shall state that dissenting stockholders will be entitled to a payment of the value of only those shares which are voted against approval of the plan.

(3) The owner of shares which were voted against the approval of the merger shall be entitled to receive their value in cash, if and when the merger becomes effective, upon written demand, made to the resulting state bank at any time within thirty days after the effective date of the merger, accompanied by the surrender of the stock certificates. The value of such shares shall be determined as of the date of the shareholders' meeting approving the merger by three appraisers, one to be selected by the owners of two-thirds of the shares involved, one by the board of directors of the resulting state bank, and the third by the two so chosen. The valuation agreed upon by any two appraisers shall govern. If the appraisal is not completed within ninety days after the merger becomes effective, the commissioner shall cause an appraisal to be made.

(4) The expenses of appraisal shall be paid by the resulting state bank.

(5) The resulting state bank may fix an amount which it considers to be not more than the fair market value of the shares of a constituent bank at the time of the stockholders' meeting approving the merger, which it will pay dissenting shareholders of that constituent bank entitled to payment in cash. The amount due under such accepted offer or under the appraisal shall constitute a debt of the resulting state bank.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §652.31.

661.06 Effective date of merger; filing of approved agreement; certificate of merger as evidence.—

(1) A merger shall, unless a later date is specified in the agreement, become effective upon the filing with the commissioner of the executed agreement together with copies of the resolutions of the stockholders of each constituent bank approving it, certified by such bank's president or vice-president and a secretary. The charters of the constituent banks, other than the resulting bank shall thereupon be deemed surrendered.

(2) The commissioner shall thereupon issue to the resulting bank a certificate of merger setting forth the name of each constituent bank and the name of the resulting state bank. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the merger and of the correctness of all proceedings therefor in all courts and places, and may be recorded in any office for the recording of deeds to evidence the new name in which the property of the constituent bank is held.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §652.32.

661.07 Continuation of corporate entity; use of old names.—

(1) The resulting state bank shall be considered the same business and corporate entity as each constituent bank with all of the rights, powers, and duties of each constituent bank except as limited by the charter and by-laws of the resulting state bank.

(2) The resulting state bank shall have the right to use the name of any constituent bank whenever it can do any act under such name more conveniently.

(3) Any reference to any constituent bank in any writing, whether executed or taking effect before or after the merger, shall be deemed a reference to the resulting state bank if not inconsistent with the other provisions of such writing.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.
Note: See former §652.33.

661.08 Conversion from state bank to national bank and the reverse.—

(1) Nothing in the law of this state shall restrict the right of a state bank to convert into a national bank upon compliance with the laws of the United States, and upon completion of such conversion it shall surrender its charter as a state bank.

(2) A national bank located in this state which follows the procedure prescribed by federal law to convert into a state bank, may be granted a state charter if it meets the requirements for the incorporation of a state bank. Any requirement of state law that shares must be paid for in cash may be satisfied by the exchange of shares of the converted state bank for those of the converting national bank, which may be valued at not more than their fair cash market value. The procedure for incorporation of a state bank may be modified to the extent made necessary by the difference between an ordinary incorporation and a conversion.

(3) The converted bank shall be considered the same business and corporate entity as the converting bank with all of the rights, powers and duties of the converting bank except as limited by the charter and by-laws of the resulting bank. It may use the name of the converting bank whenever it can do any act under such name more conveniently.

(4) Any reference to the converting bank in any writing, whether executed or taking effect before or after the conversion, shall be deemed a reference to the converted bank if not inconsistent with the other provisions of such writing.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §652.34.

661.09 Non-conforming assets of business.— If a constituent bank has assets which do not conform to the requirements of state law for the resulting bank or if a converting national bank has assets which do not conform to the requirements of state law for the converted state bank, or in either case there are business activities which are not permitted for the resulting or converted state bank, the commissioner may permit a reasonable time to conform with state law.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §652.35.

661.10 Insolvency; appointment of liquidator.— On becoming satisfied from the reports furnished to him by a state bank examiner, or upon other satisfactory evidence thereof, that any state bank or trust company has become insolvent and is in default, or that the affairs of any bank or trust company chartered under the laws of this state are in an unsound condition, or threatened with insolvency because of illegal or unsafe investments, or that its liabilities exceed its assets, or that it is transacting business without authority of law, or in violation of law, or if the directors of any bank or trust company chartered under the laws of this state shall knowingly violate or knowingly permit any of its officers, agents or servants to violate any of the provisions of law relative to such bank or trust company, the rights, privileges and franchises shall be subject to be forfeited, and the commissioner may, in his discretion, forthwith designate and appoint a liquidator to take charge of the assets and affairs of such bank, and require of him such bond and security as the commissioner deems proper, not exceeding double the amount that may come into his hands, and such liquidator shall be subject to dismissal by the commissioner whenever in his judgment such dismissal is deemed necessary or advisable. When one liquidator is dismissed, another may be duly designated and appointed.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.45.

661.11 Liquidation procedure.— Such liquidator, under the direction and supervision of the commissioner, shall take possession of the books, records and assets of every description of such bank or trust company, and in his name shall sue for and collect all debts, dues and claims belonging to it, and upon the order of a court may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts and, on a like order, may sell all the real and personal property of such bank or trust company on such terms as the court shall direct, and may, if necessary to pay the debts of such bank or trust company, sue for and enforce the individual liability of the stockholders. Such liquidator shall pay all money received by him to the state treasurer to be held as a special deposit for the use and benefit of the creditors subject to the order of the commissioner, and shall also make quarterly reports, or when called upon, to the commissioner of all of his acts and proceedings. The commissioner immediately, upon appointing such liquidator, shall serve notice upon the president, or upon any vice president or cashier, or upon any director, or other person having the charge or management of any such bank or trust company, informing him or them in such notice of his action in appointing such liquidator, and notifying him or them, or it, that he would apply on a date therein named not to exceed ten days from the date of service of such notice to some circuit judge having jurisdiction over the same for an order confirming his action, and the appointment of a liquidator for such banking institution or trust company; and such bank or trust company, at such hearing, may contest before such circuit judge the rightfulness and legality of such action of the commissioner in appointing such liquidator; provided that this section shall not apply to stockholders in a bank or trust company which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation, a corporation under the laws of the United States, or which has an unimpaired surplus equalling the amount of its capital stock.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.45.

661.12 General liquidator. — The commissioner may provide for the administration of the affairs of institutions under §§ 661.11 and 661.12 by one general liquidator, who shall be designated by the commissioner as a general liquidator for the administration of the affairs of several or all of the institutions in liquidation, whose compensation shall be paid by the commissioner to be paid in such proportions out of the assets of the institution whose affairs are being administered as the commissioner may determine, not exceeding in the aggregate seven thousand five hundred dollars per annum. The commissioner may provide for the transfer at any time to the general liquidator of the affairs of any institution for which a particular liquidator, or receiver, has been heretofore, or shall hereafter, be designated, and the general liquidator shall thereupon be vested with all the rights conferred by law on such general liquidator as if he had been designated in the first instance to act as such.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.46.

661.13 Federal deposit insurance corporation, as liquidator.—The federal deposit insurance corporation, created under the federal deposit insurance act, upon appointment by the commissioner, may be and act without bond as receiver or liquidator of any banking institution, the deposits in which are to any extent insured by said corporation, and which shall have been closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors. The commissioner may, in his discretion, in the event of such closing, tender to said corporation the appointment as receiver or liquidator of such banking institution, and if the corporation accepts said appointment, the corporation shall have and possess all the powers and privileges provided by the laws of this state with respect to a receiver or liquidator respectively, of a banking institution, its depositors and other creditors.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.47.

661.14 Federal deposit insurance corporation, subrogated.—Whenever any bank or trust company shall have been closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors and said federal deposit insurance corporation shall pay, or make available for payment, the insured deposit liabilities of such closed institution, said corporation, whether or not it shall have become receiver or liquidator of such closed bank or trust company, as provided in §661.13, shall be and become subrogated by operation of law to all rights against such closed bank or trust company, of each owner of a claim for deposit to the extent now or hereafter necessary to enable the said federal deposit insurance corporation, under federal law, to make insurance payments available to depositors of closed insured banks or trust companies.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.48.

661.15 Commissioner's procedure as to unsound banks.—If, from any examination made by the commissioner or any state bank examiner acting under his authority, of any bank or trust company, the commissioner shall have reason to conclude that any such bank or trust company is in an unsound or unsafe condition, he shall forthwith take possession of the property and business of such bank or trust company, and retain such possession until its affairs are placed in a sound and safe condition, or until a receiver or liquidator is appointed, as provided by law, and pending such possession by the commissioner, all the remedies at law or in equity of any creditor or stockholder against any such bank or trust company shall be suspended; provided, however, that the commissioner may, upon conditions as may be approved by him, surrender possession of such bank or trust company for the purpose of permitting such bank or trust company to resume business, and the commissioner shall have authority to authorize a reduction of capital in such suspended bank or trust company if found necessary for the resumption of business, and provided further, that upon consent in writing of the representatives of an amount of the deposits of any such bank or trust company, aggregating seventy-five per cent or more, of the total deposits of such bank or trust company the commissioner shall by order, freeze all deposits of such bank or trust company upon such reasonable terms and conditions as he may fix, as one of the terms of such resumption of business, and that the public officers of any town, city, county, state, special road and bridge district, special school district, or other municipal corporation of the state having control over any unsecured public moneys on deposit with any such bank or trust company, may sign and execute such consent to the freezing of such deposits of public money for the purpose herein contemplated, for and in behalf of the municipality, state, county, special road and bridge district, or special school district represented. Provided further, that before such freezing order shall become effective, the commissioner shall give ten days' notice by publication of his intention to apply to the circuit court where the bank is located, or of Leon county, to have such order confirmed, at which time any person interested may appear and present objections why such order should not be confirmed.

History.—§4, ch. 28016, 1953; §24, ch. 57-1.

Note: See former §653.55.

661.16 Transfer of non-liquid assets.—In all cases where any bank or trust company has resumed or continued business under the provisions of §661.15 and a "freezing" order obtained as to all deposits, such bank or trust company may set aside, transfer and convey to a trustee, corporation or liquidating agent, by and with the consent of the commissioner, a part or all of the non-liquidating assets of said bank or trust company and held by such bank or trust company at the time of such "freezing" order, and responsible for the payment of all deposits included within such "freezing" order, for and in consideration of the surrender to such bank or trust company of all of the special certificates of deposit issued pursuant to the freezing order theretofore obtained; provided, however, that the consent in writing of the representatives of an amount of such frozen deposits representing seventy-five per cent or more of the total unpaid frozen deposits shall first be had and obtained.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.56.

661.17 Issue of stock certificates for pro rata share in frozen assets.—When the representatives of an amount of the frozen or unpaid deposits representing seventy-five per cent, or more, of the total unpaid or frozen deposits, shall have agreed in writing to the setting aside, transferring or conveying to a trustee, corporation or other liquidating agent selected by the creditors, the frozen assets of such bank, or trust company, then such trustee, corporation or other liquidating agent may issue to the holder or holders of such certificates of deposit, or other evidence of indebtedness, who have not consented in writing to such transfer, a stock certificate or other evidence showing the pro rata interest of the holder of such certificate of deposit or other evidence of indebtedness in the frozen assets so set aside, transferred or conveyed, as above set out, and such trustee, corporation or other liquidating agent so selected by seventy-five per cent, or more, of the creditors shall be responsible for the pro rata and equal distribution of such unpaid or frozen assets among all holders of such certificates of deposit or other evidence of indebtedness; provided that any such plan of settlement with the frozen certificate of deposit holders shall be confirmed by the circuit court.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.57.

661.18 Notice of publication of commissioner's approval of segregation and settlement plan, and date set for court confirmation.—Upon becoming satisfied that the plan of segregation is just and fair, and for the best interest of the bank and creditors, the commissioner may give his approval to the plan and shall give ten days' notice by publication in a newspaper located in the county in which the bank is located, and if there is no newspaper published in the county, said notice shall be caused to appear in a newspaper published in an adjoining county, and said publication shall give notice of the commissioner's action in approving the plan of segregation, and shall designate a certain date for appearing before the court to ask for confirmation of his action in approving the said plan of segregation and settlement.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.58.

661.19 Liability after transfer of certificates of deposit.—Any bank or trust company, upon the setting aside, transferring and conveying of the assets of such bank or trust company, as provided herein, and upon the surrender to such bank or trust company, or other liquidating agent, of the certificates of deposit, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by such bank or trust company, or liquidating agent, aggregating seventy-five per cent, or more, of the total unpaid deposits, such bank or trust company, or liquidating agent, shall thereupon cancel all such certificates of deposit, or other evidences of indebtedness, and such bank or trust company, or liquidating agent, appointed by, acting under the authority of the commissioner, shall thereafter be relieved and discharged from any and all liability for the payment of any money to the holder of such certificates of deposit or other evidences of indebtedness.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.59.

661.20 Transfers, etc., void after act of insolvency.—Any and all transfers of the notes, bonds, bills of exchange, or other evidences of debt owing to any bank or trust company, or of deposits to its credit, all assignments of mortgages, securities or real estate, or of any judgments or decrees in its favor, all deposits of money, bullion or other valuable thing for its use, or for the use of any of its stockholders or creditors, and all payments of money to either, made after the commission of an act of insolvency or in contemplation thereof made with a view to the preference of one creditor to another, shall be utterly null and void.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.60.

661.21 Notice to present claims.—The commissioner shall, upon appointing a liquidator, cause notice to be given by advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the bank is located once each week for nine consecutive weeks, calling on all persons, firms, or corporations who may have claims against such bank or trust company, to present the same and to make legal proof thereof.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.49.

661.22 Claims, unclaimed dividends and undistributed funds.—All claims of every kind and nature against a state bank or trust company which has been placed in the hands of a liquidator must be properly sworn to and filed with the liquidator thereof within one year from the date of the qualification of the liquidator thereof of the bank or trust company, and no claim not so filed within one year from the date of the qualification of the liquidator thereof or prior to the expiration of any additional period for which the time for filing claims may be extended by the commissioner shall be included by the liquidator or commissioner in the distribution of the assets. The commissioner may, in his discretion, extend the time for filing claims for an additional period not exceeding one year, and may, for good cause shown, permit a claim to be filed after the time for filing same has elapsed. Any secured claim filed within the said one year or such time as the time for the filing of claims has been extended, may be amended at any time prior to the final distribution of the assets in the hands of the liquidator. The liquidator, with the approval of the commissioner and the circuit court, may value any security held by a claimant and allow as a common claim any balance of the claim remaining beyond such value of the security, and it shall not be necessary for such claimant to liquidate such security prior to such valuation, nor shall such valuation in anywise affect or impair the right of such claimant to liquidate such security. Any dividend check not called for within two years after the same is issued shall be cancelled, and the money represented thereby shall be put back into the general account for distribution to depositors and creditors who may have claimed their dividends; provided, however, that before the cancellation of any such dividend warrant the commissioner shall give notice of his intention so to do in a newspaper published in the county in which the insolvent bank is located and if no newspaper is located within said county, then the notice shall be run in a newspaper of general circulation in an adjoining county, and for good cause shown the commissioner may issue to a claimant a dividend check representing any prior dividend checks cancelled. Whenever the depositors and other creditors of any such bank or trust company have been paid dividends representing one hundred per cent of all claims which have been duly proved against any such bank or trust company, the undistributed funds then on hand for the account of such bank or trust company not represented by dividend warrants shall be paid to such bank or trust company at the expiration of a period of two years from the time of the closing out of any such receivership.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.50.

661.23 Disposition of unclaimed dividend checks.—Whenever dividends representing one hundred per cent of all claims which have been duly proved against any state bank or trust company which has heretofore been placed or will hereafter be placed in the hands of a receiver or liquidator, or the liquidation of the assets of which has been handled under the supervision of the commissioner have been declared and there is any dividend check or warrant not called for within two years after the final dividend, making the total of one hundred per cent of dividends, is declared, any such dividend check or warrant, final or otherwise, shall be cancelled and the moneys represented thereby shall be paid to the state bank or trust company upon whose account such dividend check or warrant was issued. Undistributed funds on hand at the time of closing out any such receivership or liquidation not represented by dividend checks or warrants shall be paid to such state bank or trust company at the expiration of a period of two years from the time of such closing out of any such receivership or liquidation.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.51.

661.24 Expenses and compensation of liquidators; disposition of remainder of proceeds after payment of all claims.—All expenses of any liquidator shall be paid out of the assets of such bank, or trust company, before distribution of the proceeds thereof. The compensation of the liquidator shall be fixed by the commissioner, and shall be based upon the amount of work actually necessary and performed, and shall in no case exceed five per cent of the cash collections. From time to time, after full provisions having first been made for the expenses of the liquidating agency, and the payment of liens for taxes and preferred claims, the commissioner shall make ratable dividend of the money in the hands of the state treasurer on all such claims as may have been proved to his satisfaction or adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction, and as the proceeds of the assets of such bank, or trust company, are paid over to the liquidator, shall make further dividends on all claims previously proved or adjudicated; and the remainder of the proceeds, if any, after all claims have been paid, shall be paid over to the shareholders of such bank, or trust company, or their legal representatives, in proportion to the stock by them respectively held, or their interest therein as appearing.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.52.

661.25 Purchase of property by commissioner to protect liquidator's trust.—Whenever any liquidator, duly appointed by the commissioner, and who shall have qualified and entered upon the discharge of his trust, shall find it in his opinion necessary to fully protect and benefit his said trust, to the extent that said trust may have in any property, real or personal, by reason of any bond, mortgage, lien, assignment, equity or other proper legal claim attaching thereto, and which said property is to be sold under execution, decree of foreclosure, or any proper order of any court of competent jurisdiction, or reclaimed or repossessed by any person having title opposed to such equity of his trust, he may certify the facts in the case, together with his opinion as to the value of the property, and the value of the equity his trust may have in same, and the amount that may be necessary to purchase such property, to the commissioner, and if the commissioner shall, in his judgment, deem it to the best interest of the said trust, he may draw upon the funds to the credit of said trust in the hands of the state treasurer to the amount necessary for the purchase of said property for the said trust.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.53.

661.26 Receivers under supervision of commissioner.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all receivers of any bank, or trust company, heretofore appointed by the order of any circuit court, and all such receivers, both those hereunder and those hereafter appointed by the circuit court, shall at all times be under the supervision and control of the commissioner, and subject at all times to summary discharge and dismissal by him, and any vacancy in such receivership may be filled by the commissioner at any time.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.54.

661.27 Liquidator may borrow money and pledge securities with the approval of commissioner; fees.—Any liquidator or receiver of an insolvent bank or trust company and any conservator appointed for any bank or trust company may borrow money from any person, and pledge or mortgage any part or all of the assets of such insolvent bank or trust company in conservatorship to secure the payment of such moneys borrowed, upon such terms and conditions as the commissioner may approve, and such conditions may, in addition to any other terms and conditions, also include restriction, either in whole or in part, of the payment of any money to depositors or other creditors of insolvent banks and trust companies until the money so borrowed shall have been repaid in full, provided that any such pledge or mortgage shall be confirmed by the circuit court. The holder of any such pledge or mortgage shall have the right to enforce such pledge or mortgage as any other pledgee or mortgagee, and may exercise any rights given by such agreement or pledge or mortgage, providing further that a conservator may renew and extend notes or other obligations held by the bank in his custody from time to time, and may offer as substitution to the pledgee such renewed obligations. No commissions or fees shall be paid to any liquidator or receiver on account of any money received by him through the pledge of any assets of any bank or trust company provided for herein.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.64.

661.28 Commissioner may conserve assets by appointment of conservator; duties, rights, powers, expenses and salary.—Whenever the commissioner shall deem it necessary, in order to conserve the assets of any bank for the benefit of the depositors and other creditors thereof, he may appoint a conservator for such bank or trust company, and require of him such bond and security as the commissioner deems proper. The conservator, under the directions of the commissioner, shall take possession of the books, records and assets of every description of such bank and take such action as may be necessary to conserve the assets of such bank pending further disposition of its business, as provided by law. Such conservator shall have all the rights, powers and privileges now possessed by or hereafter given receivers or liquidators of insolvent state banks, and shall be subject to the obligations and penalties not inconsistent with the provisions of this article, to which the receivers or liquidators are now and may hereafter become subject. During the time that such conservator remains in possession of such bank, the rights of all parties with respect thereto shall, subject to the other provisions of this article, be the same as if a receiver or liquidator had been appointed therefor. All expenses of any such conservator shall be paid out of the assets of such bank and shall be a lien thereon which shall be prior to any other liens provided by this law, or otherwise. The conservator shall receive as salary an amount to be fixed by the state commissioner, but in no case greater than that paid to liquidators performing a similar service.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.65.

661.29 Examiner's report to commissioner.—The commissioner shall cause to be made such examinations of the affairs of such bank or trust company as shall be necessary to inform him as to the financial condition of such bank or trust company, and the examiner designated for this purpose shall make a report thereon to the commissioner at the earliest practicable date.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.66.

661.30 Termination of conservatorship.

After the commissioner becomes satisfied that it may be safely done and that it would be in the public interest, he may, in his discretion, terminate the conservatorship and permit such bank to resume the transaction of its business subject to such terms and conditions, restrictions and limitations as he may prescribe.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.67.

661.31 Banking business of bank in hands of a conservator.—While a bank is in the hands of a conservator appointed by the commissioner, the commissioner may require the conservator to set aside and make available for withdrawal by depositors in payment to such other creditors, on a ratable basis, such amounts as in the opinion of the said commissioner may safely be used for the purpose and the commissioner may, in his discretion, permit the conservator to receive deposits but deposits received by the bank in the hands of the conservator shall not be subject to any limitations as to payment or withdrawal, and such deposits shall be segregated and shall not be used to liquidate any indebtedness of such bank or trust company existing at the time that a conservator was appointed for it, or any subsequent indebtedness incurred for the purpose of liquidating any indebtedness existing at the time such conservator was appointed. Such deposits received while the bank is in the hands of the conservator shall be kept on hand, in cash, invested in the direct obligations of the United States or deposited with the correspondent bank to be selected by the conservator and subject to his withdrawal.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.68.

661.32 Reorganization.—Any reorganization of any bank or trust company shall be effective only after "creditors", which term shall include depositors representing seventy-five per cent or more of the institution's debts in aggregate amount, have agreed to such plan of reorganization, only after such plan has been approved by the commissioner and confirmed by a judge of a circuit court within whose jurisdiction said bank is located. When the required number of creditors have signified their willingness to enter into the plan of reorganization, said fact shall be made known to the commissioner who shall thereupon give ten days' notice by publication in a newspaper located in the city or county in which the institution to be reorganized is situated, and if there is no newspaper within said city or county, publication may be made in such newspaper as shall be designated by the commissioner; such notice of publication to state the exact date that the matter will be presented to the court for confirmation. When such confirmation has been given by a court, all depositors and creditors not a party to said agreement shall be bound by and made a party to the said plan of reorganization, and shall be treated in all respects as though they had joined in said agreement; provided, however, that claims of depositors or other creditors which will be satisfied in full under the provisions of the plan of reorganization shall not be included among the total deposits and other liabilities of the bank or trust company in determining the seventy-five per cent thereof, as hereinabove provided. When such reorganization becomes effective by confirmation of the court, as provided herein, the affairs of the bank or trust company shall be conducted by its board of directors in the manner provided by the plan under the conditions, restrictions and limitations which may have been prescribed by the commissioner.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.69.

661.33 Notice of publication of conservator's return of banking business to board of directors.—Within fifteen days after the date that such bank or trust company has been turned back to its board of directors by the conservator, such bank or trust company shall give notice, by registered letter, to each such depositor having made deposits under the provisions of §661.31, and such conservator, upon the termination of his conservatorship and turning the affairs of such bank or trust company back to its board of directors shall cause to be published in a newspaper in the city or town or county in which such bank is located, and if no newspaper is published in such city, town or county, then in a newspaper in an adjoining county to be selected by the commissioner, the notice to be in form approved by the commissioner stating the date on which the affairs of the bank were returned to its board of directors, and that the said provisions of §661.31 will not be effective after fifteen days from the date of such notice.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.70.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

661.34 Penalty for embezzlement of funds by conservator; removal.—Any conservator appointed under the provisions of this law for any bank or trust company who embezzles, abstracts or willfully misapplies any moneys, funds or credits coming into his hands as such conservator shall be guilty of a felony and upon such conviction shall be imprisoned in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years at the discretion of the court. Any person selected as conservator by the commissioner shall be subject to removal at any time. Any vacancy in such conservatorship by removal or resignation may be filled by the commissioner, as provided for the appointment of a conservator in the first instance.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.71.

661.35 Powers of commissioner unimpaired.—Nothing in §§ 661.28 to 661.34 shall be construed to impair in any manner any powers now vested in the commissioner in the supervision of banking institutions operating under a state charter.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.72.

661.36 Preservation of records of insolvent banks.—The general ledger of any insolvent bank in use at the time of its failure, any subsequent general ledger used in the course of its liquidation, and the records of claims as filed with the liquidator, shall be preserved by the commissioner.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.74.

661.37 Destruction of records of insolvent bank by liquidator.—The liquidator of any insolvent state bank in liquidation under the laws of the state, with the consent of the commissioner, in writing, and upon court order, may destroy or cause to be destroyed such records other than those mentioned in §661.39 of any solvent state bank in liquidation or which may hereafter be in liquidation under the laws of the state, as in the judgment of the commissioner and the court are not necessary to the liquidation of said insolvent state bank.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.75.

661.38 Prima facie evidence.—The general ledger, list of claimants, examiner's final report made at the time of the failure of the bank and such other records of the commissioner's office relating to any closed bank, or any duly authenticated copy thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of the subject matter therein set forth.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.77.

661.39 Voluntary liquidation.—Any bank or trust company may go into liquidation and be closed by a vote of its stockholders owning two-thirds of its stock. Whenever a vote is taken to go into liquidation, the board of directors shall cause this fact to be certified to the commissioner and publication thereof to be made for a period of two months in a newspaper of general circulation located in the county in which the bank is closing up its affairs and notifying its creditors to present their claims against the bank for payment.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.61.

661.40 Procedure in voluntary liquidation.—When a bank or trust company decides to go into voluntary liquidation, the president and cashier, or other appropriate officers, shall, before beginning publication of the notice required by law furnish the commissioner with a full and complete detailed statement of the affairs of the bank or trust company, and shall thereafter forward to the commissioner on the first Monday in each month a like detailed statement until all of the liabilities of the bank or trust company shall have been settled in full, provided that if the commissioner is not satisfied with the report of any bank or trust company intending to go into voluntary liquidation, or if at any time he is not satisfied with the progress of such liquidation, he shall have full authority to proceed under §661.29, or otherwise, as the law directs.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.62.

661.41 Commissioner may direct examination.—When it shall appear to the commissioner that it is necessary or advisable to do so, he shall direct the person employed under this act to make a thorough examination, reporting to him the condition of the business of the bank or trust company, and the directors shall make good any losses or irregularities to the satisfaction of the commissioner, and if not done at once, a liquidator may be appointed.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.63.

661.42 Disposition of unclaimed funds of bank in voluntary liquidation.—In all cases of voluntary liquidation of any bank or trust company, when after three years from the notice of liquidation duly given or published, there are any unclaimed funds due to the depositors of said bank or trust company that cannot be distributed by reason of the inability to find claimants, or by reason of there being no claimants, and after all other depositors who have filed claims or presented demands for payment have been fully paid, then such funds shall inure to and for the benefit of the stockholders of said bank or trust company. Said bank or trust company shall certify to the commissioner of the state in a list of such unclaimed funds showing the amount of same and the name or names of the person or persons in which said deposits were made, or for whose benefit said funds appear, as shown by the books and records of said bank or trust company. The commissioner, if he shall be satisfied that the matters so certified are true and correct and that the requirements of this section have been complied with, shall thereupon certify his approval for the distribution of such unclaimed funds for the benefit of the stockholders of said bank or trust company, and thereafter all such claims shall be forever barred.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.78.

661.43 County, municipality, board of public instruction, drainage district, etc., authorized to settle, compromise or adjust frozen deposits.

—Any county, municipality, board of public instruction, drainage district, or other taxing district or public body corporate, or any division of same, existing under the laws of the state having deposits of money which said deposits are frozen in any banking institution in the state, or having deposits in any banking institution in said state, which banking institution is in the hands of a liquidator, conservator or receiver, may compromise, settle and adjust such deposits by accepting as satisfaction thereof any real or personal property or monetary consideration, provided that such settlement, compromise or adjustment shall be approved in writing by the judge of the circuit court having jurisdiction. The compromise settlement or adjustment of deposits shall be made by the governing board as constituted under the laws of Florida having custody and control of such deposits, and upon the making of such settlement, compromise or adjustment, the governing board making the same shall be authorized to surrender to the banking institution having such deposit, or to the person in charge thereof, any certificate of deposit or other evidence of such deposit. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any deposits which are liquid and subject to withdrawal or which are fully secured by collateral.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.79.

661.44 Unclaimed dividends; disposition.—

(1) Whenever there are any dividend checks or warrants which have been issued under the provisions of §§ 661.15 to 661.17, inclusive, and which have not been called for or delivered within two years from the date such dividend distribution, such dividend checks or warrants shall be cancelled and the moneys represented thereby shall be put back into the general account and redistributed to those depositors and claimants who have claimed their dividends; provided, that where dividends or distribution to depositors or claimants have equaled one hundred per cent of their original claim, or will by this distribution equal one hundred per cent of their original claim, then all funds in excess of one hundred per cent of the original claim shall be paid to the bank or trust company; provided, further, that before the cancellation of any such dividend checks or warrants, thirty days' notice of intention so to do shall be published in the county in which the bank or trust company is or was located, and if no newspaper is located within said county, then the notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in an adjoining county, and before such cancellation an order from the circuit court shall be obtained approving the disposition of the unclaimed dividends.

(2) Whenever there are any redistributed dividend checks or warrants which have been issued under subsection (1) hereof, and which have not been called for or delivered within two years from such redistribution, such redistributed dividend checks or warrants shall be cancelled, and the moneys represented thereby shall be paid into the general revenue fund of the state, provided that before the cancellation of any such redistributed dividend checks or warrants thirty days' notice of intention so to do shall be published in the county in which the bank or trust company is or was located, and if no newspaper is located within said county, then the notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in an adjoining county and before such cancellation an order from the circuit court shall be obtained approving the disposition of the unclaimed redistributed dividends.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 28016, 1953.

Note: See former §653.84.

TITLE XXXVII

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

CHAPTER 665

INCORPORATION AND OPERATION OF DOMESTIC BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

- | | | | |
|---------|---|---------|---|
| 665.01 | Associations affected; "domestic" and "foreign" associations. | 665.213 | Exemption of out of state savings and loan associations. |
| 665.02 | Organization requirements for "domestic" association. | 665.22 | Payment of loan and withdrawal of holder of pledged stock. |
| 665.03 | Publication of notice of intention to apply for letters patent on proposed charter. | 665.23 | Regulation of real estate holdings, etc. |
| 665.04 | Minimum capital. | 665.24 | Borrowing power. |
| 665.05 | Conditions under which the comptroller shall issue authority to commence business. | 665.25 | Borrowing from federal or reserve corporations; evidences of indebtedness made by members nonnegotiable. |
| 665.06 | Prohibited from beginning business before authorized by comptroller; stockholders personally liable for violation. | 665.26 | Minors and married women as stockholders. |
| 665.07 | Prohibited from beginning business before complying fully with state laws. | 665.261 | Minors; savings share accounts. |
| 665.071 | Place of doing business; branch offices prohibited. | 665.27 | Procedures in default of borrowers. |
| 665.072 | Saturday closing. | 665.28 | Reserve. |
| 665.08 | Procedure before authority issues to begin business. | 665.29 | Dividends. |
| 665.09 | Publication of comptroller's certificate. | 665.30 | Books of accounts; semiannual statement. |
| 665.10 | Recording of letters patent and certified copy of charter; secretary of state's fee for filing articles of incorporation and certificate of increase of stock; may amend articles of incorporation. | 665.31 | Examination by comptroller; examiners, powers, duties, compensation and traveling expenses; examination fees. |
| 665.11 | Board of directors; by-laws; voting in stockholders' meeting. | 665.32 | Losses; procedure for reduction of liability to stockholders to distribute losses on pro rata basis. |
| 665.12 | Surety bonds required of certain officers. | 665.33 | Procedure for reincorporation under this chapter; amendment of certificate of incorporation. |
| 665.13 | Directors and officers continue in office until successors qualified. | 665.34 | Penalty for violation of provisions of this chapter. |
| 665.14 | Capital stock. | 665.35 | Associations in process of liquidation on June 1, 1933. |
| 665.15 | Accounts in the names of two or more persons. | 665.36 | Converting into federal savings and loan association. |
| 665.16 | Bidding for loans. | 665.37 | Stockholders may declare by resolution determination to convert. |
| 665.161 | Collection of fines, interest or premiums on loans made by building and loan associations. | 666.38 | Minutes of shareholders' meeting filed with comptroller; presumptive evidence; immediate consideration. |
| 665.17 | Expenses; premium on stock; disbursement of all moneys received. | 665.39 | Certified copy of federal charter filed with comptroller. |
| 665.18 | Fees, fines, premiums and interest charged members. | 665.40 | Conversion effective; rights and responsibilities under new name; tax exemptions. |
| 665.19 | Withdrawing stockholder procedure. | 665.41 | Conversions prior to May 25, 1935, validated. |
| 665.20 | Withdrawal fee prohibited on stock not pledged for loan. | 665.42 | Shareholder opposing conversion allowed ten days to file demand for purchase of his shares; procedure. |
| 665.21 | Regulation of loans to stockholders, etc. | 665.43 | Cities and towns authorized to invest in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which |
| 665.211 | Participation loans; limitation. | | |
| 665.212 | Unsecured loans; limitations. | | |

- are members of federal home loan bank system.
- 665.44 Political subdivisions authorized to invest in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank systems.
- 665.45 Insurance companies authorized to invest in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank system.
- 665.46 Banks authorized to invest ten per cent of capital and surplus in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank system.

- 665.47 Investments otherwise authorized by law for cities and towns, political subdivisions, insurance companies and banks.
- 665.48 Building and loan associations and savings and loan associations authorized to make loans insured or guaranteed by the United States.
- 665.49 Building and loan associations authorized to provide for retirement, disability, and death benefits.
- 665.50 Reduction in amount of payments on principal.
- 665.51 Savings and loan associations authorized to microphotograph records.
- 665.52 Trusts; payment.

665.01 Associations affected; "domestic" and "foreign" associations.—Every association heretofore or hereafter incorporated under any law providing for the incorporation of building, loan fund and saving associations, and every association heretofore or hereafter incorporated under any law for the purpose of accumulating funds for the use and benefit of its members, and of assisting them to accumulate money and to invest their funds and savings by cash or periodical payments on its stock or otherwise, to be loaned among its members, shall be known in this chapter as a building and loan association, and shall be subject to the provision of this chapter, except as stipulated in §665.33. Associations organized under the laws of this state shall be known as "domestic" associations, and those organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or nation, shall be known as "foreign" associations. Such "domestic" associations may carry out their purposes, and may be organized in part or wholly under the general laws of Florida relating to corporations, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

History.—§1, ch. 10028, 1925; §1, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6151.

cf.—Ch. 668, Foreign building and loan associations.

665.02 Organization requirements for "domestic" association.—Any number of persons, not less than nine, nor more than twenty-one, three-fourths of whom shall be residents of this state, may associate themselves together for the purpose of organizing a domestic building and loan association, and for that purpose they shall make, sign and acknowledge, before some person authorized by the laws of this state to take acknowledgments of deeds, articles of incorporation which shall state:

(1) The corporate name adopted by said association which shall not be the same as, nor similar to the name of any other association incorporated in this state, may be any name desired ending with "building and loan association" or "savings and loan association," but shall not contain any of the words "bank," "banking," or "trust." Unless organized under the provisions of the law relating to building and loan associations, no corporation hereafter organized shall be entitled to use, as a part of its title or name; the word "savings"; the word "association" or "society" in any combination with either of the words "building" or "loan"; the word "company" or "association" or "society" in any combination with both of the words "building" and "loan"; provided, however, that the foregoing restrictions shall not prohibit the use of the word "savings" by a corporation organized under the laws relating to banks and banking.

(2) The general nature of the business to be transacted, and its place of business.

(3) The amount of capital stock authorized, the number and par value of the shares into which it shall be divided and in general, the terms and conditions on which it shall be paid in.

(4) The term for which it is to exist.

(5) By what officers it is to be conducted, the times at which they are to be elected, and the names of the officers who are to conduct the business until those elected at the first election shall be qualified.

(6) The names and residences of the subscribers, the amount of stock subscribed by each, the total amount subscribed.

History.—§2, ch. 10028, 1925; §2, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6152; (1) by §1, ch. 69-51.

cf.—§90.01 Acknowledgment.

§117.03 Notary publics may administer oaths.

§118.01 Commissioner of deeds acknowledgments.

665.03 Publication of notice of intention to apply for letters patent on proposed charter.—When made and executed as aforesaid, said articles of incorporation, being the charter proposed for the association, together with notice of intention to apply to the governor for letters patent thereon, shall be published one time in a newspaper published in the county where the place of business is to be located, which notice shall be signed with the names of at least five of the subscribers. The proposed charter shall be on file in the secretary of state's office during publication.

History.—§3, ch. 10028, 1925; §3, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6153.

665.04 Minimum capital.—No building and loan association shall be organized with an authorized capital of less than one hundred thousand dollars.

History.—§4, ch. 10028, 1925; CGL 6154.

665.05 Conditions under which the comptroller shall issue authority to commence business.—At least ten per cent of the authorized capital stock of each building and loan association must be paid in lawful money of the United States before the comptroller shall issue authority to such association to commence business; provided, however, that this section shall not apply in cases where the principal place of business of the association is located or to be located in cities having a population of less than twenty-five thousand according to the last federal census.

History.—§5, ch. 10028, 1925; CGL 6155, §2, ch. 15908, 1933.

665.06 Prohibited from beginning business before authorized by comptroller; stockholders personally liable for violation.—No building and loan association shall transact any business, except such as is incidental and necessarily preliminary to its organization, until it has been authorized by the comptroller to begin the business of a building and loan association, and if such company shall begin business in violation of this section, its stockholders shall be personally liable for all its debts as if they were members of a general partnership, and not stockholders of a corporation.

History.—§6, ch. 10028, 1925; CGL 6156.

665.07 Prohibited from beginning business before complying fully with state laws.—No corporation organized to conduct the business of a building and loan association, or any part of such business, shall engage in the business of a building and loan association, or any part thereof unless and until such corporation shall have complied fully with the laws of this state pertaining to building and loan associations, and shall have been authorized by the comptroller of the state in the manner provided by law to engage in such business in this state.

History.—§7, ch. 10028, 1925; §4, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6157.

665.071 Place of doing business; branch offices prohibited.—

(1) (a) Any building and loan association incorporated under and operating pursuant to chapter 665, shall have only one place of doing business, which shall be located in the community specified in its articles of incorporation, and the business of the association shall be transacted at such place of business so located in said community specified and not elsewhere, and such associations are prohibited from establishing and operating branches or branch offices of any kind. Any association may, however, apply to the comptroller for permission to change the location of its place of business within the community shown in its articles of incorporation and the comptroller may for cause, refuse such application; provided, that prior to such refusal the comptroller shall give the applicant a written statement for such cause for refusal and a fair hearing, if the applicant demands, in writing, such hearing within ten days after receipt of said written statement from the comptroller. Application for such approval shall be in such form and contain such information as the comptroller may require. Nothing contained herein shall be construed in any wise to apply to any association holding a charter under the laws of the United States.

(b) Any association operating under the provisions of this section shall have power to contract with the proper authorities of any elementary or secondary school or institution caring for minors for the participation and implementation by the association in any school or institutional thrift or savings plan, and it may accept savings accounts at such a school or institution, either by its own collector or any representative of the school or institution which becomes the agent of the association for such purposes. Withdrawal from any account created under the provisions of this section shall be made only at the office of such association.

History.—§1, ch. 28308, 1953; §1, ch. 59-47.

665.072 Saturday closing.—Any building and loan association or savings and loan association lawfully doing business in the state, whether chartered under state or federal statutes, may be closed on any one or more Saturdays upon the adoption of a resolution to such effect by a majority vote of the board of directors. Any one or more of such Saturdays shall, with respect to any such building and loan association or savings and loan association which shall be closed thereon in accordance with the provisions of this section, constitute a legal holiday for all purposes whatsoever.

History.—§1, ch. 59-49.

665.08 Procedure before authority issues to begin business.—Before applying for letters patent for or receiving subscriptions to the stock of any building and loan association with the intention of doing business in the state, notice of intention to form or establish such building and loan association must be given to the state comptroller and a copy of the proposed charter filed with said comptroller and certificate of approval received from him, which said certificate shall only be issued when in the judgment of the comptroller the conditions warrant the establishment of a building and loan association in the place and at the time it is proposed to establish such building and loan association; and whenever any building and loan association notifies the comptroller that ten per cent of its authorized stock has been duly paid in cash, and that it has complied with all the provisions which the law requires before a building and loan association can be authorized to begin business, the comptroller shall examine into the condition of such association, ascertain that ten per cent of its stock has been fully paid in lawful money of the United States, the name and place of residence of each of its directors and the amount of capital stock of which each is the owner in good faith, and, generally, whether such association has complied with all of the provisions of law required to entitle it to engage in the business of a building and loan association, shall cause to be made and attested by the oaths of a majority of the directors, by the president, secretary or treasurer of the association, a statement of all the facts necessary to enable the comptroller to determine whether the association is lawfully entitled to begin the business of a building and loan association.

If upon a careful examination of the facts so reported, and of any other facts which may come to the knowledge of the comptroller, whether by means of a special commissioner appointed by him for the purpose of such inquiring into the condition of the association or otherwise, it appears that such association is lawfully entitled to begin the business of a building and loan association, the comptroller shall give to such association a certificate under his hand and official seal that it has complied with the provisions required to be complied with before beginning the business of a building and loan association, and that it is authorized to commence such business; provided, that the comptroller may withhold from an association the said certificate whenever it shall be satisfactorily shown to him by proof that the stockholders have formed the same for any other than the legitimate object contemplated by the law relative to building and loan associations, or when, in his judgment, the conditions do not warrant the issue of such authority.

History.—§8, ch. 10028, 1925; §5, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6158.

665.09 Publication of comptroller's certificate.—The association shall cause the certificate issued under §665.08 to be published one time in a newspaper published in the city or county where the association is located.

History.—§9, ch. 10028, 1925; §6, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6159.

665.10 Recording of letters patent and certified copy of charter; secretary of state's fee for filing articles of incorporation and certificate of increase of stock; may amend articles of incorporation.—Upon the issuing of the letters patent thereon, the association so chartered shall at once have its letters patent, together with a certified copy of its charter, recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein its place of business is to be located. Domestic building and loan associations upon the payment to the secretary of state of the fees hereinafter named, and upon the recording of such certified copy of its charter as aforesaid, the persons named in the articles of incorporation, their associates and successors, shall be and become a body corporate, and in their corporate name, may contract, sue, and be sued, and shall have and exercise such powers as are herein granted, and such others as are necessary and proper to enable such association to carry out the purposes of their organization not inconsistent with the provisions of law, and may enter upon the transactions of all their business as such corporations. The secretary of state shall collect for the benefit of the state, in lieu of all other charter fees, for filing the articles of incorporation of any such association, or any certificate of increase of stock, the sum of five dollars for each fifty thousand dollars of capital stock or fractional parts thereof. And any such association may amend its articles of incorporation as provided by law.

History.—§10, ch. 10028, 1925; §7, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6160.

665.11 Board of directors; by-laws; voting in stockholders' meeting.—The business of the association shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than nine members, who shall be stockholders, and a majority of them residents of the county wherein is located its place of business, and shall be elected by the stockholders. Notice of such election shall be given at least ten days previous thereto, by publication in some newspaper of general circulation published in the town or city where such association is located, or if no such newspaper is published, then in some newspaper within the county, or the one nearest said location. Directors shall be elected for terms not exceeding three years, and in case the term is longer than one year, then an equal number, as near as may be, shall be elected each year after the first election. Each association shall adopt by-laws for the regulation and management of its business, which shall include provisions for periodical meetings of the stockholders and directors, the number, function and qualifications of the officers of any such association, their terms of office and time and mode of their election, and of the election of directors, the manner of voting and qualifications of the electors, the number of shares to be voted by each member in person or by proxy, the kind of stock to be issued, the terms and conditions on which stock shall be issued and paid for, loans made and repaid, withdrawals allowed, and the manner of conducting the business of such association, all of which shall be determined by the by-laws, subject to its charter and the laws of the state; provided, that at any stockholder's meeting, no stockholder shall vote more than twenty-five shares of stock in his own right.

History.—§11, ch. 10028, 1925; §8, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6161.

665.12 Surety bonds required of certain officers.—The secretary and treasurer and any other officer or agent having custody or charge of money or securities belonging to the association, before entering upon their duties, shall give bonds in suitable amounts issued by a good, solvent surety company, to be approved by the board of directors and filed with the state comptroller; said board shall annually pass on the sufficiency of the same, and may require new or additional bonds at any time.

History.—§12, ch. 10028, 1925; §9, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6162.

665.13 Directors and officers continue in office until successors qualified.—No building and loan association shall cease or expire from neglect on the part of the corporation to elect directors or officers at the time mentioned in the by-laws, and all directors and officers, elected by such corporation shall continue in office until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

History.—§13, ch. 10028, 1925; CGL 6163.

665.14 Capital stock.—The capital stock of any association may be fixed originally in any sum not less than one hundred thousand dollars but any association may at any time issue shares in addition to those originally authorized without action of its stockholders or without approval by any governmental agency and without the payment of any fees or other charges on account of such increase but same shall be approved by resolution of the board of directors. The capital stock shall be divided into shares of such denomination, not exceeding five hundred dollars each, as the by-laws shall prescribe, and may be issued in series, if the by-laws so provide, or otherwise, and may be fully or partially paid in advance, or may be paid in installments, either or both, as the by-laws may provide except that no stock may be authorized or issued which is preferred as to dividends or principal or both. No periodical payment of installments of stock shall be required exceeding fifty cents per week on each one hundred dollars of stock. Every share of stock shall be subject to a lien for the payment of unpaid installments and other charges incurred therein under the constitution and by-laws, and the by-laws shall prescribe the manner of enforcing such lien. New shares may be issued in lieu of any shares withdrawn, redeemed or canceled.

History.—§14, ch. 10028, 1925; §10, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6164; §1, ch. 20253, 1941.

665.15 Accounts in the names of two or more persons.—When a stock account, savings share account, or investment share account has been made, or shall hereafter be made, in any building and loan association or federal savings and loan association transacting business in the state, in the name of two or more persons, payable to either or both, or payable to either or the survivor, such account, or any part thereof, or any dividend thereon, may be paid to either of said persons whether the other or others be living or not, or in the event of a declaration by a court of competent jurisdiction that one or more of the cotenants of such account is incompetent, either to the guardian of the property of such incompetent or incompetents, or the remaining cotenant or cotenants and the release or quittance of the persons so paid shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the building and loan association or federal savings and loan association for any payment so made.

History.—§11, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(10); §1, ch. 19098, 1939; §19, ch. 57-1; §1, ch. 61-136.

665.16 Bidding for loans.—Any association may provide in its by-laws for loans to its members who shall bid the highest premiums for priority in loans, or a given premium may be agreed upon in writing with the borrower, without bidding, in addition to interest, which premium may be payable at one time or part in installments and part in advance, or as shall be provided for in the by-laws.

History.—§15, ch. 10028, 1925; §11, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6165.

665.161 Collection of fines, interest or premiums on loans made by building and loan associations.—No fines, interest or premiums paid on loans made by any building and loan association shall be deemed usurious, and the same may be collected as debts of like amount are now collected by law in this state, and according to the terms and stipulations of the agreement between the association and the borrower.

History.—§8, ch. 4158, 1893; GS 2755; RGS 4242; CGL 6192; §2, ch. 63-318.

Note.—Tr. from §668.09.

cf.—Ch. 687, Interest and usury.

665.17 Expenses; premium on stock; disbursement of all moneys received.—The expenses of all building and loan associations shall be paid from the earnings only. Stock may be issued upon which a premium in addition to or above the par value of the stock may be charged, provided, when stock is sold at a premium all such premium shall be placed in a surplus fund of the association and used toward payment of the expenses of the association, including the sale of stock. No premium or fee in excess of one dollar may be charged for each one hundred dollars of stock. The premium on stock shall not be withdrawable.

All money received from whatever source shall be paid into the treasury of the association and disbursed by the proper officers, as provided by the by-laws.

History.—§16, ch. 10028, 1925; §12, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6166.

665.18 Fees, fines, premiums and interest charged members.—The by-laws may also provide for fines or interest for nonpayment of dues, premiums or interest, which shall not exceed five cents per share for each weekly delinquency, or ten cents per share for each monthly delinquency. It is, however, unlawful for any association doing business in this state to charge or collect from any of its members, on any stocks or shares of stock therein, any money or moneys other than loan fees, dues on stock, premiums, interest and fines. All such fees, fines, premiums and interest shall be provided for in the by-laws, and shall be credited to earnings, out of which expenses and dividends shall be paid, and no such charges or payments shall be deemed usurious, even if in some cases exceeding the legal rate of interest, and the same may be collected by law as other debts of like amount are now collected in this state, or as provided by the by-laws.

History.—§17, ch. 10028, 1925; §13, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6167.

665.19 Withdrawing stockholder procedure.

(1) Any investing stockholder in any building and loan association or the legal representative of any deceased investing stockholder, whose stock is not pledged for a loan, wishing to withdraw from the association shall be entitled to receive the full amount of dues paid in upon the stock so withdrawn, together with all declared unpaid dividends thereon, less all fines and other charges including a pro rata share of the losses, if any, real or contingent, provided;

(a) The withdrawing stockholder shall give ninety days' notice in writing to the association of his intention to withdraw, unless such notice is expressly waived in the by-laws or by resolution of the board of directors. If the stock certificate of any stockholder provides a specified date for withdrawal then the said notice of withdrawal shall be deemed given the ninetieth day preceding such fixed time; in all other respects such stockholder shall be held to be a withdrawing stockholder.

(b) In the event any association is not able to pay all withdrawing stockholders at the expiration of said ninety day period, then such association shall make no further payment to any withdrawing stockholder regardless of priority of notice, except upon the following conditions and in the following manner, to-wit: Such association shall first pay the matured claims of all its general creditors and set aside sufficient funds to completely finance all loans approved at the time the applications of withdrawing stockholders could no longer be met, and thereafter such association shall impound one-half of all money received by it from the following sources: Payments on shares of stock, payments of principal on loans made to its members, net income received by it from the lease or rental of its property or other assets after paying all fixed charges and expenses, and money derived by it as principal from the sale of assets; and such money so impounded shall be distributed ratably at the beginning of each quarter of the calendar year to those stockholders who have given notice of their intention to withdraw, and whose notices were received by the association not less than ten days previous to such distribution; provided, however, that no distribution except final payment shall be made unless the sum accumulated is sufficient to pay at least one per cent of the amount due each withdrawing stockholder, and provided further that all accounts which do not exceed five dollars may in the discretion of the board of directors be paid to the respective stockholders in full in order to save clerical and other expenses, and, provided, further, that the provisions of this subsection (b) shall not apply to mortgages or securities now pledged or which may hereafter be pledged to any Federal home loan bank.

(2) All money received by the association and not impounded as hereinbefore provided may in the discretion of the board of directors be used by the association for the payment of its operating or other expenses and for the protection and conservation of its assets by payment of taxes and other assessments levied thereon, insuring the same, making repairs or otherwise, and for the making of new loans as allowed by law.

(3) In the event the money which may be retained by the association is not sufficient to pay its operating and other expenses and protect and conserve its assets, then no new loans shall be contracted or made, and before making any payment or distribution to withdrawing stockholders the association shall deduct from the funds impounded such sum or sums as may be necessary to pay its operating and other expenses, and to pay all taxes, liens, assessments, insurance premiums, costs of repairs and other expenses necessary for the protection and conservation of its assets and shall pay the same or set aside a cash reserve for such purposes.

(4) Whenever the capital of any association is impaired to the extent of thirty per cent, it shall allow no withdrawing stockholder or stockholders any priority in cash withdrawals over the remaining stockholders, but shall make a quarterly distribution of the net cash received by it after payment of expenses and charges as provided in the preceding paragraph to all stockholders on the same percentage basis as if each stockholder had filed a written notice of intention to withdraw and such distribution shall be continued until the association is finally liquidated, or until the losses are adjusted by a pro rata charge to the account of each stockholder, or until the earnings restore the stock to par. After obtaining the consent and approval of the comptroller, losses may be adjusted pro rata by the segregation of the assets into groups represented by different series of stock.

Previous stock may be canceled and new stock in various series issued in its place for each group of assets of old stock or for new investment. When assets are segregated to it, each series shall hold and own such assets independently of other series and have no interest in nor obligation for the assets, debts, burdens, nor obligations of other series. Mutuality of like interests shall be maintained.

(5) Any payments, credits, dividends or earnings upon any shares of stock of a building and loan association, which shares have been pledged or assigned to it as security, for loans made by it, at the option of such association, may be applied by it directly to and credited upon the mortgage indebtedness or loan, or the interest thereon, or to any charges, costs or expenses which may accrue under the terms of any pledge of such shares or any mortgage securing such indebtedness or loan; and such payments, credits, dividends or earnings may be so applied as and when they may be made or may have accrued, or at other times, or from time to time at the discretion of such association; and the time of reducing the amount of the principal of such mortgage indebtedness or loan by reason of such application or payments, credits, dividends or earnings, for the purpose of calculating interest thereon, shall be fixed by the by-laws of the association, or by resolution of the board of directors.

(6) In the event any association is compelled to or does reduce the dividends upon its stock below three per cent per annum, then all payments on and all dividends or earnings credited to stock pledged in connection with loans shall be applied directly upon the respective loan for which such stock was pledged, provided, however, that the association shall not be required to make such application unless and until the credits upon all of the stock pledged to secure the particular loan equal the sum of one hundred dollars, or such other sum less than one hundred dollars, as fixed by the by-laws or the contract with the borrower; and provided, also, that the time of reducing the amount of the principal of such loan, by reason of such application of payments, for the purpose of calculating interest thereon, shall be fixed by the by-laws of the association, or by resolution of the board of directors. In the event of liquidation of any association, whether voluntary or involuntary, all credits on stock pledged as security for loans shall be applied upon the particular loan for which such stock was pledged, and all further payments on loans shall be applied in direct reduction of the unpaid principal with interest at the rate fixed by law where no special contract exists.

History.—§18, ch. 10028, 1925; §14, ch. 11865, 1927; §5, ch. 15605, 1931; §1, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(1); §1, ch. 19119, 1939.

665.20 Withdrawal fee prohibited on stock not pledged for loan.—It is unlawful for any building and loan association to charge any withdrawal fee on stock not pledged for any loan.

History.—§19, ch. 10028, 1925; CGL 6169.

665.21 Regulation of loans to stockholders, etc.—

(1) Any association shall have power to loan or advance to stockholders or members thereof money of the association, including money paid for capital stock as provided in §665.05, and to secure payment of such money and the performance of all of the conditions upon which the loans are made by pledge of shares in said association, or by note, or bond, and mortgage on real estate situated in the state, owned in fee or leased for a period extending or renewable automatically for at least ten years beyond the date specified for the final principal payment of the loan obligation, by the borrower, which mortgage shall be a first lien thereon, except taxes and special assessments,

and except the prior liens held and owned by said association, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit any association from accepting additional collateral of any character as additional security for the payment of a loan previously consummated; to loan funds of the association (except that portion of its authorized capital stock specified in §665.05), upon the pledge of the shares only of such association, provided, that loans on stock shall not exceed one hundred per cent of the withdrawal value of stock at the time it is pledged. All notes, bonds and other obligations bearing date prior to January 1, 1942, which are held by savings, building and loan associations having their principal place of business in the state, and which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other lien upon real property situated in Florida shall be exempt from the provisions of chapters 199 and 201, and any law superseding same or amendatory thereof.

(2) The by-laws of each association shall prescribe the manner of awarding loans, the rate of interest and the premium to be charged and the time and manner in which the interest and premium, if any, shall be paid. No such association is required to maintain uniformity among loans made by it with respect to rates of interest, maturity of principal, plan of repayment, amount and time of payment of installments upon principal, and other terms, provisions and conditions of such loans and the contract evidencing them, but may, when authorized by its by-laws, make loans with differences between them with respect to rates of interest, maturity of principal, plan of repayment, amount and time of payment of installments upon principal, and other terms, provisions and conditions of such loans and the contracts evidencing them, and is authorized to make loans at such rate of interest and with such maturity of principal, such plan of repayment, such amount and time of payment of installments upon principal, and such other terms, provisions and conditions of such loans and the contracts evidencing them, as its by-laws may prescribe, provided, all loans shall conform to all requirements of law with respect to the character, extent and value of the security therefor.

(3) No building and loan association shall make any loan either directly or indirectly to any of its officers, directors or employees, provided, however, that loans may be made to an officer, director or employee if secured by a mortgage upon his home or by an assignment of the stock owned by him in the association. Loans made to officers, directors or employees, secured by assignment of stock, shall not exceed ninety per cent of the withdrawal value of the stock at the time the loan is made.

(4) Building and loan associations shall lend their funds only on the security of their own shares or on the security of first liens upon homes or combination homes and business property in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the comptroller, except that not exceeding twenty per cent of the assets of such association may be loaned on other improved real estate without regard to said ninety per cent limit, but secured by first lien thereon.

(5) In case there is not sufficient demand for loans on the part of stockholders on real estate mortgages or the stock of the association, which are acceptable to the board of directors, any association shall have the power to lend its funds upon or purchase first mortgages upon improved real estate, provided, the loans secured by the mortgage purchased or accepted as collateral does not exceed seventy per cent of the fair value of the real estate mortgaged, and also to lend its funds upon or invest in the obligations of the United States, Florida, any county or municipality of the state, any federal home loan bank or the home owners loan corporation, and also to lend its funds upon or purchase the stock or promissory notes of any other domestic building and loan association, or invest in the savings shares or investment shares of federal savings and loan association, doing business in the state.

(6) Upon the approval of the state comptroller any building and loan association may subscribe and pay for shares of stock in any federal home loan bank or other federal or reserve corporation, created or authorized by the laws of the United States or this state, to lend money to building and loan association or any federal savings and loan association and may purchase, sell or hypothecate the securities, bonds, notes or debentures issued by any such federal home loan bank or other federal or reserve corporation or federal savings and loan association and payment for such stock, securities, bonds, notes, or debentures may be made from any funds which the association may have on hand or by the transfer of any other assets. All subscriptions to or purchase of any stock, securities, bonds, notes or debentures heretofore made by an association are hereby validated, confirmed and made legal.

(7) The provisions of §665.25(3) prohibiting the assignment or transfer of evidences of indebtedness or mortgages securing the same taken by any building and loan association for the payment of any loan shall not apply to:

(a) The investments permitted by this section, or to notes and mortgages received by the association to evidence and secure the balance of the sale price of any real estate sold by it, provided such latter notes are not secured by the assignment of shares of stock in the association; or,

(b) The sale of any loan by a domestic association at any time if the total dollar amount of loans sold, including such sale, within the calendar year beginning January 1 immediately preceding the date of such sale, does not exceed a sum equivalent to twenty per cent of the dollar amount of all loans held by such domestic association at the beginning of such calendar year. The limitation upon the sale of loans may be adjusted in the case of any domestic association upon application to and approval by the state comptroller. All loans sold shall be sold without recourse, and if under a contract to service the same, then on a basis to provide sufficient compensation to the domestic association to reimburse it for expenses incurred under its service contract.

(8) Without regard to any other provision of this section any domestic association whose general reserves, surplus and undivided profits aggregate a sum in excess five per cent of its withdrawable accounts is authorized to invest an amount not exceeding at any one time five per cent of such withdrawable accounts in loans to finance the development of land or the acquisition and development of land for primarily residential usage, subject to such rules and regulations as the comptroller may prescribe; provided, however, that no such loan shall exceed sixty per cent of the appraised value of the property to be developed.

History.—§20, ch. 10028, 1925; §15, ch. 11865, 1927; §8, ch. 15908, 1933; §1, ch. 16842, 1935; §1, ch. 16844, 1935; §1, ch. 19110, 1939; CGL 1936 Supp. 6188(2); §1, ch. 20981, 1941; §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §1, ch. 23949, 1947; (7) §1, ch. 59-241; (1), (8) n. §1, ch. 61-137; (4) §1, ch. 63-206.

665.211 Participation loans; limitation.—

(1) Any domestic association may participate with other lenders in making loans of any type that such an association may otherwise make, provided that:

(a) The real estate security is located within such association's regular lending area;

(b) Each of the other participants is either an instrumentality of the United States government or is insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or by the federal deposit insurance corporation, or has the exemption from taxation provided by §501(a) of the internal revenue code of the United States as now or hereafter in effect or if there is, with respect to any of the shares, deposits, or investments in the purchaser, any insurance or guarantee by an institution which has said exemption.

(2) In addition to its authority under subsection (1) and without regard to any other limitations of §665.21 any domestic association may participate in making a loan secured by first lien on real property located beyond the association's regular lending area provided:

(a) Each of the other lenders is an institution the accounts of which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or by the federal deposit insurance corporation or has the exemption from taxation provided by §501(a) of the internal revenue code of the United States as now or hereafter in effect or if there is, with respect to any of the shares, deposits, or investments in the purchaser, any insurance or guarantee by an institution which has said exemption.

(b) The property securing the loan is located within fifty miles from the principal office of the other participating lender; and

(c) No domestic association shall participate in the making of a loan or purchase a participation in a loan under the provisions of this paragraph unless another lender participates to the extent of at least twenty-five per cent in the making of such loan or retains at least a twenty-five per cent interest in such loan at the close of the sale. Any domestic association may sell to any such institution without regard to the provision of §665.21(7) or §665.25(3), a participating interest in any loan and such sale shall not be regarded as a sale of a loan within the meaning of §665.21(7) or §665.25(3).

History.—§2, ch. 59-241; §1, ch. 61-126.

665.212 Unsecured loans; limitations.—

(1) Without regard to the provisions of §665.21(4), any domestic association may, upon the adoption of such a plan by its board of directors, make or purchase:

(a) Any unsecured loan at least twenty per cent of which is guaranteed under the provisions of the servicemen's readjustment act of 1944, as now or hereafter amended:

(b) Simple-interest, discount, or gross-charge loans for property alterations, repair, or improvement without the security of a lien upon such property provided that:

1. The net proceeds of any such loan do not exceed three thousand five hundred dollars;

2. The property is located in such association's regular lending area;

3. Each such loan is evidenced by one or more negotiable notes, bonds, or other written evidences of debt;

4. The resulting aggregate amount of all such loans does not exceed an amount equal to fifteen per cent of such association's assets;

5. Each such loan is repayable in regular monthly installments within a period of five years.

Provided further, that any such loan for property alteration, repair, or improvement that is accepted for insurance under the provisions of the national housing act, as now or hereafter amended, or for insurance or guarantee under the provisions of the servicemen's readjustment act of 1944, as now or hereafter amended, may be made for such amount and repayable upon such terms and within such periods as are acceptable to the insuring or guaranteeing agency; provided, that no domestic association may make any unsecured loan to a director, officer, or employee of the association, or to any person or firm regularly serving the association in the capacity of attorney at law, except for the alteration, repair, or improvement of the home or combination of home and business property owned and occupied by such borrowing director, officer, employee, attorney, or firm.

History.—§3, ch. 59-241.

665.213 Exemption of out of state savings and loan associations.—An out of state savings and loan association shall not be prohibited from:

(1) Contracting in this state with any person to acquire from such person a part or the entire interest in a loan which such person proposes to make, has heretofore made or hereafter makes, together with a like interest in any security instrument covering real or personal property in the state proposed to be given or hereafter or heretofore given to such person to secure or evidence such loan;

(2) Servicing directly or entering into servicing contracts with persons, and enforcing in this state the obligations heretofore or hereafter acquired by it in the transaction of business outside of this state or in the transaction of any business authorized by this section;

(3) Acquiring, holding, leasing, mortgaging, contracting with respect to, or otherwise, protecting, managing, or conveying property in this state which has heretofore or may hereafter be assigned, transferred, mortgaged or conveyed to it as security for, or in whole or in part in satisfaction of, a loan or loans made by it or obligations acquired by it in the transaction of any business authorized by this section.

No such out of state savings and loan association shall be deemed to be transacting business in this state, or be required to qualify so to do, solely by reason of the performance of any of the acts or business hereinbefore authorized in this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing or permitting any out of state savings and loan association to maintain an office within the state.

History.—§1, ch. 59-48; §3, ch. 63-318.

Note. Tr. from §668.11.

665.22 Payment of loan and withdrawal of holder of pledged stock.—Any borrower may repay his loan at any time, and may at the same time withdraw from the association, and for that purpose, he shall pay to the association the full face amount of principal of his loan, with all interest, fines, penalty for prepayment and other charges accrued thereon under the by-laws or the terms of any note, bond, mortgage or other evidence of indebtedness given for said loan, deducting therefrom the withdrawal value of his stock pledged to secure such loan, as provided in the case of withdrawals of unpledged stock; provided, however, no borrower shall be required to pay any penalty for prepayment (a) in an amount in excess of an amount equivalent to six months interest on the original principal of the loan nor (b) where any service charge has been paid for making the loan nor (c) unless such prepayment is made within eighteen months from the date the loan was made. On such payment being made the stock held by such person upon which his loan was made, shall be surrendered to the association and cancelled, and thereupon the association shall deliver to such borrower his note, or bond and mortgage, or other evidence of loan, and shall execute and deliver to him a full satisfaction of such mortgage.

History.—§21, ch. 10028, 1925; §16, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6171; am. §1, ch. 23947, 1947.

665.23 Regulation of real estate holdings, etc.—(1) Any association may purchase at any sale, public or private, any real estate, or interest therein, upon which it may have or hold a mortgage, lien or other encumbrance, or in which it has an interest; it may also acquire and own real estate for the purpose of occupying the same with its own business building, and the real estate so purchased and any other real estate that such association may hold or hereafter acquire, it may sell, convey, exchange, lease or mortgage at pleasure, to any person or persons whomsoever. No association shall invest more than one-half of its reserve for contingencies in the building it occupies as its offices except with the consent of the comptroller.

(2) Real estate or other assets owned by building and loan associations which are subject to sale, assignment or transfer, may be sold, assigned or transferred and, at the option of the board of directors, the purchase price may be paid in whole or in part by the surrender and cancellation of shares of stock in such association. Such real estate or other assets shall be sold, assigned or transferred at the fair value thereof as fixed by the board of directors. In all cases where the association is willing to sell or exchange real estate or other assets for the withdrawal value of shares of stock, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution authorizing the sale or exchange and fixing the valuation at which shares will be accepted, which valuation shall not exceed the withdrawal value of the shares, and such resolution shall describe the real estate or other assets so to be sold and shall set forth the day on which the sale is to be held. Notice of such resolution and sale shall be given by posting a copy of the resolution in a conspicuous place in the principal office of the association during a period of not less than ten days prior to the date of such sale; on or after the day of sale the highest and best offer made may be accepted by the association in payment or part payment, of the real estate or other assets, or any part thereof, described in the resolution without regard to the priority, maturity or listing of the notice of intention to withdraw the stock offered, and regardless of whether or not any notice of intention to withdraw has been given or listed; provided, however, that the board of directors may in its discretion refuse any and all bids offered; and provided further, that if any particular real estate or other assets have been included and described in one resolution of the board of directors which resolution has been posted as herein provided, it shall not be necessary to adopt or post any further or other resolution or notice concerning the sale of such real estate or other assets, but such real estate and assets may be sold at any time after the expiration of said ten day period. After the expiration of said ten day period such resolution may be removed but the association shall post in its stead a list of the assets covered by the resolution and any prior resolutions. The recital, in any deed, assignment or transfer by the association that this section has been complied with, shall be conclusive in favor of the grantee or purchaser against all persons.

History.—§22, ch. 10028, 1925; §17, ch. 11865, 1927; §4, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(3); am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

665.24 Borrowing power.—Any association may borrow money for any of its corporate purposes and issue its evidences of indebtedness therefor, to an amount not exceeding twenty-five per cent of its share capital provided that upon application to and approval by the state comptroller any association which is a member of the federal home loan bank system may borrow money under the provisions of this section up to an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of its total share capital.

History.—§23, ch. 10028, 1925; §18, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6173; §4, ch. 59-241.

665.25 Borrowing from federal or reserve corporations; evidences of indebtedness made by members nonnegotiable.—

(1) Any building and loan association shall have the right and power to borrow money from any federal home loan bank or other federal or reserve corporation created under the laws of the United States or this state, for the purpose of lending money to building and loan associations or any federal savings and loan association and in order to secure such loans or advances shall have the power to mortgage, pledge, assign, deposit, transfer or hypothecate as collateral, its real estate, mortgages, securities, or other assets or any part thereof, to or with the lending agency. The right to pledge shall include the right to repledge the shares of stock held by the association as collateral, without securing the consent of the owner thereof. All loans heretofore obtained by any association from any federal savings and loan association are validated, confirmed and made legal.

(2) The provisions of §665.24, or any other law limiting the amount of money which building and loan associations may borrow shall not be applicable to loans made or obtained hereunder.

(3) Evidences of indebtedness taken by any building and loan association for any loan made by it to its members shall not be negotiable in form, and whatever be its form such indebtedness shall be non-negotiable in law and no such debt or evidences shall be assignable or transferable in any manner, except as otherwise provided in this section; and except that the provisions of this subsection (3) with respect to negotiability of loans made by building and loan associations and to the form of evidences of indebtedness taken for such loans and to the assignability and transferability of such debts and evidences of indebtedness shall not apply to any loan made by any such association, secured or unsecured, which is insured or guaranteed in any manner, in part or in full, by the United States or any instrumentality thereof or for which there is a commitment to so insure or guarantee or for which a conditional guarantee has been issued and every such loan and the evidence thereof and any mortgage or other lien securing it shall be transferable or assignable.

History.—§6, ch. 15908, 1933; §4, ch. 16842, §2, ch. 16844, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(5); am. §1, ch. 23946, 1947.

665.26 Minors and married women as stockholders.—Minors and married women may become stockholders in any association the same as others, and as such stockholders shall be subject to the same duties and liabilities as respects their stock as other members. Any receipt, release, acquittance, or discharge given to the association by such stockholders shall be binding upon them to the same extent as upon other stockholders. Married women may procure loans upon the security of their separate real estate by uniting with their husbands in executing mortgages thereon to secure their loans.

History.—§24, ch. 10028, 1925; §19, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6174; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

665.261 Minors; savings share accounts.—Any federal savings and loan association and any state building and loan association transacting business in the state may issue savings share accounts to any minor as the sole and absolute owner of such account and pay the withdrawal value of such to a minor. Any payment or delivery of rights to a minor or a release or acquittance signed by a minor, who holds a savings share account, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of such association for any payment so made. The receipt, acquittance or other action required by the association to be taken by the minor shall be binding upon such minor with like effect as if he were of full age and legal capacity. In the event of the death of such minor the receipt or acquittance of either parent or of a person standing in loco parentis to such minor shall be a valid and sufficient discharge of such association unless the minor shall have given written notice to the association not to accept the signature of such parent or person.

History.—§1, ch. 59-52.

665.27 Procedures in default of borrowers.

(1) In case any borrower shall fail or neglect to pay dues on stock, interest, premiums or fines as provided by the by-laws or the terms of his note, bond or mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness for the period of thirty days, or shall be in default in the performance of any of the obligations imposed on him thereby, and such default shall continue for the period of thirty days, then the whole of said indebtedness shall become and be immediately due and payable at the option of the association, and payment thereof may be enforced by proceeding against his securities according to law. Should the security for any mortgage loan deteriorate or lessen in value, any association, at the option of the board of directors, may accept any of its unpledged shares of stock at not exceeding par to reduce such mortgage loan to a fair amount based on the value of the security at the time in lieu of foreclosing or requiring additional collateral, or if any mortgage loan in the opinion of the board of directors be uncollectible and the value of the security less than the amount of the loan, then the association, may, in lieu of foreclosing, accept in payment of said mortgage, stock at its withdrawal value in an amount equal to the fair value of the security, or compromise such mortgage loan by reducing the unpaid balance to the fair value of the security as determined by the board of directors and a certified list of such compromised mortgages with full details shall be furnished quarterly to the comptroller of the state.

(2) The association shall have the option of settling any loan by accepting a conveyance of the security for the loan, provided, however, that the options and powers conferred by this section shall be exercised by the board of directors of the association solely in its discretion.

History.—§25, ch. 10028, 1925; §20, ch. 11865, 1927; §5, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(4); am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

665.28 Reserve.—Every association shall set aside from its gross profits at least four per cent thereof each year after the second as a reserve for contingencies against which losses may be charged, whether resulting from depreciation or otherwise, until the total amount of such fund shall equal ten per cent of the assets of such association, and such reserve may be loaned as provided for other loans under this chapter. Any association which is an insured institution under title IV of the national housing act shall be required to set aside annually as a reserve for contingencies under this section only the excess of said four per cent of its gross profits over the amount credited by it during such year to its federal insurance reserve account in accordance with the rules and regulations for insurance of accounts under said title IV; and as to any such association the total amount required to be set aside under this section shall be only the excess of said ten per cent of its assets over the total credit to said federal insurance reserve account. Any excess of undivided profits, over four per cent after the declaration of dividends and deduction of all expenses, shall also be carried to such reserve until the ten per cent reserve for contingencies herein provided for is accumulated; but the requirements of this sentence shall not be applicable to any association which is an insured institution under title IV of the national housing act.

History.—§27, ch. 10028, 1925; §21, ch. 11865, 1927; §7, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183 (6); am. §1, ch. 23945, 1947.

665.29 Dividends. — Dividends declared shall be ratably credited or paid on the stock at such intervals not longer than one year as the by-laws may provide, but no dividends shall be declared, credited or paid after the second year by any association except out of net profits, after deducting from the earnings all expenses of operations including losses (after exhaustion of all accumulated surplus). Members or stockholders who have given written notices of withdrawal shall receive no dividends nor shall they participate in the management of the association after filing such notice; provided, however, that where a member's stock certificate fixes a definite time of withdrawal the provisions of this sentence shall not apply until the maturity date fixed by such stock certificate.

History.—§28, ch. 10028, 1925; §22, ch. 11865, 1927; §8, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(7).

665.30 Books of accounts; semiannual statement.—Every association shall keep full and correct books of accounts showing its operations, from which its secretary shall prepare a semiannual statement, showing the financial condition of the association on the last days of June and December in each year, or semiannually at such other times as the by-laws shall provide, which statements shall show separately the amounts received and paid out during each six months' period, on the different classes of stocks and loans, expenses, dividends, cash on hand, and such other items as may seem pertinent, which shall include a statement of the assets and liabilities of the association on the above named dates. Such statements shall be prepared within thirty days after said dates and thereafter a copy thereof, written or printed, shall be filed with the state comptroller and shall be furnished to every shareholder applying therefor at the office of the association.

History.—§29, ch. 10028, 1925; §23, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6179.

665.31 Examination by comptroller; examiners, powers, duties, compensation and traveling expenses; examination fees.—The state comptroller in the supervision of building and loan associations may employ not more than two discreet and competent persons to examine into the affairs of every building and loan association doing business in the state, and the persons so employed shall have power to make a thorough examination into all the affairs of each and every building and loan association at any time, and in doing so shall have access to all the books, papers, records, securities and assets of all kinds, and shall be authorized to examine any of the officers, directors, agents or employees of any building and loan association under oath, and such examiners shall make a full and detailed report to the comptroller of the condition of each building and loan association so examined; provided that no person connected with any building and loan association either as an officer, director, agent or employee shall be so employed.

Such building and loan association examiners shall each receive the same compensation as bank examiners of the state and shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061 while engaged in the performance of their duties, which sums shall be included in the biennial appropriations act.

Every building and loan association doing business in the state shall be examined at least once each year by the state comptroller or his representative, and more often if necessary, and the fees for examination shall be the same as those provided by statute for the examination of banks, except where the fees are based upon the amount of capital stock the same shall be charged on the amount of capital stock actually paid in, and not on the amount of capital stock authorized.

History.—§30, ch. 10028, 1925; §24, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6180; §143, ch. 26869, 1951; §19, ch. 63-400. cf.—§658.08 Examination fees.

665.32 Losses; procedure for reduction of liability to stockholders to distribute losses on pro rata basis.—Whenever the losses of any association resulting from a depreciation in the value of its assets or otherwise, reduces the value of its assets so they are worth less than its obligations to creditors and stockholders, then at the option of the board of directors and with the written consent of the state comptroller, which consent shall be attached to and made a part of the petition hereinafter referred to, the association may present to the circuit court of the circuit in which the association is located a petition setting forth a true and complete statement of its condition and such circuit court may order a reduction of its liability to stockholders in such manner as to distribute the loss on a pro rata basis, among the stockholders and create a reserve for contingencies in such amount as the comptroller may recommend, not to exceed an amount equal to ten per cent of the assets of the association, based upon an appraisal of such assets, made not more than three months previous to the presentation of said petition. The order of reduction may be based upon the statement of the condition of the association as set forth in the petition without regard to any change that may have occurred in such condition. The order of court shall be binding upon all stockholders in the association. If, thereafter, such association shall realize from the assets owned by it at the time of the entry of said order a greater amount than was fixed in the order, such excess shall be distributed ratably among the holders of outstanding stock which was so reduced, but to the extent of such reduction only; provided, however, no such distribution shall be made if it reduces the reserve for contingencies to less than ten per cent of the assets. Whenever the losses reduce the value of the assets of any association so that they are worth less than seventy per cent of the association's obligations to creditors and stockholders, then the board of directors must present such petition to the circuit court and invoke the provisions of this section.

History.—§9, ch. 15908, 1933; §5, ch. 16842, 1935; §8, ch. 16844, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(8).

665.33 Procedure for reincorporation under this chapter; amendment of certificate of incorporation.—Any building and loan association organized and existing under the laws of this state on May 7, 1927, may reincorporate under this chapter either under the same or a different name by filing with the secretary of state a certificate executed by its president and attested by its secretary under the corporate seal and duly authorized by a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose, setting forth the statements required in an original certificate by §665.02, and in addition surrendering the existing charter or certificate of incorporation of the corporation. Upon filing thereof said corporation shall be deemed to be incorporated hereunder and shall be entitled to and be possessed of all the privileges, franchises and powers as if originally incorporated under this chapter; and all the properties, rights and privileges theretofore belonging to said corporation, which were acquired by gift, grant, conveyance, assignment or otherwise shall be and the same are hereby ratified, approved and confirmed and assured to said corporation with like effect and to all intents and purposes as if the same had been originally acquired through incorporation under this chapter; provided, however, that any corporation thus reincorporated hereunder shall be subject to all the contracts, duties and obligations heretofore resting upon the corporation whose charter or certificate of incorporation is thus surrendered or to which said corporation shall then be in any way liable but shall not be subject to the payment of an additional charter tax for such reincorporation.

Any building and loan association may from time to time when and as desired amend its certificate of incorporation in any respect, provided that only such provisions shall be inserted by amendment as it would be lawful and proper to insert in an original certificate of incorporation made at the time of making such amendment.

History.—§32, ch. 10023, 1925; §26, ch. 11865, 1927; CGL 6182; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.
cf.—§665.01, Associations affected.

665.34 Penalty for violation of provisions of this chapter.—Should any director, officer or employee in charge of the management and affairs of any building and loan association operating under the provisions of this chapter, make any loan of the funds or assets of the building and loan association for which they are acting, in a sum greater than fifty per cent of the withdrawal value of the stock at the time of making said loan to any director, officer, or employee; or should any director, officer, or employee in any other manner operate or use the association, its funds or assets in such a manner as to profit or benefit such officer, director or employee to the injury of said association and to the advantage of such officer, director, or employee other than as otherwise contemplated in the terms of employment of such officer, director, or employee, any and all such officers, directors, or employees thus violating the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not in excess of five thousand dollars or imprisoned in the penitentiary of the state for a period of not greater than two years—either the fine or the imprisonment to be imposed at the discretion of the trial court.

History.—§11-A, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7977(5).
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

665.35 Associations in process of liquidation on June 1, 1933.—Building and loan associations which were, on June 1, 1933, in the hands of the comptroller or a liquidator or receiver appointed by the comptroller or any circuit court, shall be governed by the provisions of the law applicable at that time, provided that should any such association be reorganized at the sole discretion of and by the state comptroller such association shall thereafter be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§12-A, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(11).

665.36 Converting into federal savings and loan association.—Any building and loan association eligible to become a federal savings and loan association, after first having obtained approval of the state comptroller, may convert itself into a federal savings and loan association by following the procedure outlined in §§665.37-665.39.

History.—§1, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(16).

665.37 Stockholders may declare by resolution determination to convert.—At any regular meeting of the shareholders of such association or at any special meeting of the stockholders of such association, in either case called to consider such action, and held in accordance with the laws and by-laws governing such association, the shareholders by affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding stock may declare by resolution the determination to convert said association into a federal savings and loan association. At such meeting each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him and any limitation now imposed by law, charter or by-laws upon the amount of stock that may be voted by any one stockholder, shall not apply to action hereunder.

History.—§2, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(17).

665.38 Minutes of shareholders' meeting filed with comptroller; presumptive evidence; immediate consideration.—A copy of the minutes of such meeting of the shareholders, verified by the affidavit of the president or vice-president and secretary of the association, shall be filed in the office of the comptroller of the state within ten days after such meeting; such copy of the minutes of the meeting when so filed, shall be presumptive evidence of the lawful holding of the meeting and the legality of the action taken thereat. The comptroller shall give immediate consideration to such minutes and approve or disapprove the conversion as determined by said resolution.

History.—§3, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(18).

665.39 Certified copy of federal charter filed with comptroller.—Within a reasonable time, and without any unnecessary delay after the adjournment of such meeting and the comptroller's approval the association shall take such action as may be necessary to become a federal savings and loan association and within ten days after receipt of the federal charter, a copy of such charter certified by the proper officer of the issuing authority shall be filed in the office of the comptroller of the state. Upon the filing of such copy the association shall cease to be a state association or corporation under the laws of Florida and shall thereafter be a federal savings and loan association.

History.—§4, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(19).

665.40 Conversion effective; rights and responsibilities under new name; tax exemptions.—At the time such conversion becomes effective, the association shall cease to be supervised by this state and immediately all of the property of the association of every nature whatsoever shall become vested in said association under its new name and style, as a federal savings and loan association by operation of law, without any conveyance or transfer whatsoever, and without any further action, and said federal savings and loan association shall have, hold and enjoy such property in its own right as fully and to the same extent as was possessed, held and enjoyed by it as a state association and such federal savings and loan association at the time the conversion becomes effective, shall become and continue to be responsible for all of the obligations of the state association to the same extent as though no conversion had taken place, it being expressly declared that such federal savings and loan association shall be merely a continuation of the state association under the new name, charter and jurisdiction. Federal savings and loan associations and stockholders therein shall be entitled to the same exemptions from taxation or otherwise that are now provided by law or which may hereafter be provided by law for Florida building and loan associations and all laws now existing, providing any such exemptions are hereby made applicable to federal savings and loan associations and stockholders therein.

History.—§5, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(20).

665.41 Conversions prior to May 25, 1935, validated.—All conversions of building and loan associations into federal savings and loan associations which may have occurred prior to May 25, 1935, are validated and made legal, as if the conversion of the same had in all respects complied with the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§6, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(21).

665.42 Shareholder opposing conversion allowed ten days to file demand for purchase of his shares; procedure.—Any shareholder who voted against such conversion may within ten days after such conversion has been voted, file with the secretary of the association his written demand for the purchase of his shares and the association thereupon shall become legally liable to purchase and shall purchase and pay for the shares of such shareholder the full amount of all dues paid in thereon, together with any declared and unpaid dividends, less all fines and other indebtedness to the association and payment shall be made in the method or manner provided by the federal charter for the repurchase of shares.

After said ten-day period has expired the shareholders not having filed such demand shall be bound by such decision to convert into a federal savings and loan association.

History.—§7, ch. 16843, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(22).

665.43 Cities and towns authorized to invest in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank system.—Any and all officials by whatever name known of any city, town or municipality in the state whether created under the general or special act or acts, having the custody, control, supervision, management, or authority to invest any fund or funds of any such city, town or municipality, is hereby authorized and empowered to invest said fund or funds in investment share accounts of any federal savings and loan association chartered under the laws of the United States, and doing business in the state, and in the shares of any Florida building and loan association, which is a member of the federal home loan bank system, provided that the investments authorized in this section are limited to the extent that the same are insured by the federal government or an instrumentality thereof.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 17905, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(5); §1, ch. 63-163.

665.44 Political subdivisions authorized to invest in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank systems.—Any and all boards of county commissioners, trustees for county bonds, trustees of county bonds, county boards of public instruction, road trustees for special tax road districts, bond trustees for special road and bridge districts, bond trustees for special road, bridge and ferry districts, bond trustees for superspecial road and bridge districts, bond trustees for special drainage districts, boards of supervisors for drainage districts, boards of trustees for public hospitals and all other county and other taxing unit officers and officials, by whatever name known, having the custody, control, supervision, management or authority to invest any fund or funds, of any county, school district, special tax school district, special tax road district, special road and bridge district, special road, bridge and ferry district, superspecial road and bridge district, special drainage district, drainage district, county commissioners district, other taxing unit, by whatever name known, may invest any such fund or funds in investment share accounts of any federal savings and loan association chartered under the laws of the United States, and doing business in the state, and in the shares of any Florida building and loan association, which is a member of the federal home loan bank system, provided that the investments authorized in this section are limited to the extent that the same are insured by the federal government or an instrumentality thereof.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 17906, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(6); §1, ch. 63-162.

665.45 Insurance companies authorized to invest in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank system.—Any and all life insurance companies, assessment life associations, fraternal benefit societies, fraternal benefit associations, sick and funeral benefit insurance associations, fire insurance companies, corporations or associations, surety companies, casualty companies, accident insurance companies and all other insurance companies, corporations or associations organized under the laws of the state, whether under the general laws or by special act are hereby authorized and empowered to invest its funds in investment share accounts of any federal savings and loan association chartered under the laws of the United States, and doing business in the state, and in the shares of any Florida building and loan association, which is a member of the federal home loan bank system.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 17907, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(7).

665.46 Banks authorized to invest ten per cent of capital and surplus in share accounts of federal savings and loan associations and Florida building and loan associations which are members of federal home loan bank system.—Any and all banks, savings banks, Morris plan banks, trust companies, or other financial institutions now or hereafter chartered under the laws of the state, whether under the general laws or special act, may invest its funds in investment share accounts of any federal savings and loan association chartered under the laws of the United States, and doing business in the state and in the shares of any Florida building and loan association, which is a member of the federal home loan bank system, provided, that the total investment by any one bank, savings bank, Morris plan bank or trust company shall not exceed ten per cent of the capital and surplus of the investing or purchasing institution.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 17908, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(8).
Am. §1, ch. 57-328.
cf.—§659.20, Loans by banks.

665.47 Investments otherwise authorized by law for cities and towns, political subdivisions, insurance companies and banks.—The investments authorized in §§665.43-665.46 shall in no way limit the investments otherwise authorized by law, but shall be cumulative of and in addition to said investments.

History.—§2, ch. 17905, 1937; §2, ch. 17906, 1937; §2, 17907, 1937; §2, ch. 17908, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7100(8).

665.48 Building and loan associations and savings and loan associations authorized to make loans insured or guaranteed by the United States.—Without regard to any other provision of law, savings and loan associations and building and loan associations of this state are authorized to make, or buy and sell, any loan secured or unsecured, which is insured or guaranteed in any manner, in part or in full, by the United States or any instrumentality thereof, or for which there is a commitment to so insure or guarantee or for which a conditional guarantee has been issued.

History.—§1, ch. 22981, 1945.

665.49 Building and loan associations authorized to provide for retirement, disability, and death benefits.—Building and loan associations of this state are authorized to contribute to a fund or funds to provide pensions, retirement benefits, disability benefits and death benefits for their officers and employees and to participate in and become a member institution of the retirement fund of the federal home loan bank system and to assent to the agreement and declaration of trust of said retirement fund and to assent to and become a party to the rules and regulations for the establishment and administration of said retirement fund and from time to time to make the contributions required by such rules and regulations or as may be determined by the board of directors of the association. All such contributions shall be paid from the earnings of the association as an expense of its operation or from undivided profits as the board of directors may determine.

History.—§1, ch. 23944, 1947.

665.50 Reduction in amount of payments on principal.—Any building and loan association may, when authorized by its by-laws, reduce the amount of the installment payments on the principal of any loan by an agreement in writing with the borrower and such reduction shall not affect the validity or the priority of the lien of the mortgage securing such loan.

History.—§1, ch. 23948, 1947.

665.51 Savings and loan associations authorized to microphotograph records.—Any savings and loan association organized under the laws of this state, or under the laws of the United States, may photograph, microphotograph or reproduce on film in such manner that each page is exposed in its entirety, any or all of its journals, ledgers, statements, account books, or other books, or any or all of its internal records of every kind, nature and description, made or received in the regular course of its business, including promissory notes and mortgages upon real property, and the photographs, microphotographs or reproductions on film in the form of film or prints, or enlarged prints, or any duly certified or authenticated copy or reproduction thereof, duly certified or authenticated by a responsible officer of the association under whose supervision the records are kept, shall in all cases, and in all courts, and places be admitted and received as evidence with a like force and effect as the original general ledger, voucher, statement, account book, document or other record.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28108, 1953.

665.52 Trusts; payment.—Any investment or interest in a savings and loan association holding a state or federal charter acquired by a person describing himself as trustee for another, in the absence of further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust, the said investment or interest, or any part thereof, together with dividends or returns thereupon may be paid, in the event of the death of the person so described as trustee, to the person for whom the investment was originally stated to have been made.

History.—§1, ch. 29775, 1955; transferred from §654.041, 1959.

CHAPTER 666

VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION OF BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

- 666.01 Procedure required in voluntary dissolution.
- 666.02 Stockholders may take voluntary dissolution action at regular or special meeting.
- 666.03 Liquidation by trustees.
- 666.04 Process against association in voluntary dissolution may be served upon chairman of trustees.
- 666.05 Assets may be sold, released or compromised upon approval of comptroller and signatures of all three trustees.
- 666.06 Requirements of associations liquidating under other state law to continue under this chapter.

666.01 Procedure required in voluntary dissolution.—Whenever the holders of the majority of the outstanding stock of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state and doing business in this state, shall determine at a meeting duly called for such purpose to discontinue business and settle the affairs of the association, it is lawful for the board of directors to file with the state comptroller a certificate in writing, setting forth such determination, and containing a complete statement of assets and liabilities of the association. The comptroller shall be furnished with a certified copy of the resolution of the stockholders consenting to such voluntary dissolution. The comptroller, after determining the status of the association and the equity of the proposed plan of voluntary liquidation as it relates to the outstanding obligations to creditors and stockholders, may give his consent and approval in writing to such voluntary dissolution, and upon the approval of the state comptroller the association shall be deemed to have surrendered to the state its corporate franchise, privileges and powers, and shall be deemed and taken to be dissolved, except for the purpose of distributing its assets and otherwise settling its affairs, but nevertheless, after the surrender of its corporate franchise, privileges and powers, such association shall be continued a body corporate for the entire period of time necessary to distribute its assets and otherwise settle its affairs and for the purpose of prosecuting and defending suits by or against it and for the purpose of holding title to all assets of said association, but for no other purposes whatsoever.

History.—§1, ch. 16841, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(13); §1, ch. 19545, 1939.

666.02 Stockholders may take voluntary dissolution action at regular or special meeting.—The action of the stockholders as provided for in §666.01 may be taken at any regular or special meeting. If such action be taken at a regular meeting the meeting shall be called and held in accordance with the by-laws of the association, and if the action be taken at a special meeting of the stockholders, the meeting shall not be held until two weeks' written notice of such meeting has been mailed by the association to the last known address of each stockholder except that special meetings may be held and the business of such special meetings will be lawful in every respect if eighty per cent or more of the shares outstanding are represented in person, or by proxy, at the meeting and sign a written waiver of notice for the calling and holding of such special meeting, and such written waiver shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting.

History.—§2, ch. 16841, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(14); §2, ch. 19545, 1939.

666.03 Liquidation by trustees.—When any association goes into voluntary dissolution, the board of directors shall appoint a committee of three of its members to act as trustees for the purpose of closing out the affairs of the association, and the trustees shall elect a chairman and a secretary to hold office until their successors are named and the secretary shall certify the results of such election to the comptroller, and the trustees shall furnish the comptroller with a written statement of the resources and liabilities of the association properly attested by a majority of the trustees, on the second Monday in each month, or oftener upon call by the state comptroller, until such time as the affairs of the association have been completely settled, and should the state comptroller not be satisfied with the report of any such association in voluntary liquidation, he shall have full authority to proceed to the appointment of a liquidator as provided for by the building and loan statutes of the state. In the event any trustee shall die or otherwise become incapable of discharging the duties of a trustee under this act the two remaining trustees shall, by written resolution, appoint a suitable person as successor trustee. A certified copy of such resolution shall be transmitted to the comptroller for his written approval, which shall be necessary to duly qualify such person as such successor trustee. The association on receiving notice from the state comptroller that it may go into voluntary dissolution shall publish a statement once each week for eight consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the town or county in which the association is located, and such notice shall set forth the fact that the association plans to voluntarily close out its affairs, and call on all creditors and stockholders to present their claims. All claims of every nature whatsoever, including claims of stockholders, must be properly sworn to and filed with the trustees within one year from the date of the first publication of such notice. Any creditor or stockholder may file his claim after the expiration of such period upon making satisfactory showing to the trustees that he received no actual notice of the liquidation of the association within said twelve month period; provided, however, that any claim filed after the expiration of such period shall be entitled to share only in such assets as remain at the time the claim is filed and shall have no right, title, interest or claim to, in or upon assets previously distributed.

History.—§3, ch. 16841, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183(15); §3, ch. 19545, 1939.

666.04 Process against association in voluntary dissolution may be served upon chairman of trustees.—In all actions against an association operating under this law, it shall be sufficient to issue a summons to the proper officer, commanding him to summons the association by its corporate name to appear and answer the action on the proper return day, which summons shall be returnable in the manner and subject to the same rules and regulations as other process. Process against such association may be served upon the chairman of the trustees, or in his absence upon any other trustee.

History.—§4, ch. 19545, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6183(15a).

666.05 Assets may be sold, released or compromised upon approval of comptroller and signatures of all three trustees.—The association may divest itself of title to any of its assets by the signatures of all three trustees. If all three trustees shall resolve that any asset of the association should be sold, released or compromised for a lesser sum of money than is due upon same a copy of such resolution shall be certified to the comptroller together with the reasons for such decision and if the comptroller, in writing, shall approve such decision the trustees may thereupon sell, release or compromise such asset in accordance with such resolution and they shall not be personally liable for such action unless they have fraudulently certified untrue information to the comptroller.

History.—§5, ch. 19545, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6183(15b).

666.06 Requirements of associations liquidating under other state law to continue under this chapter.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to associations that shall hereafter avail themselves of such provisions and to associations which were liquidating under chapter 16841, acts of 1935, on June 12, 1939, providing the trustees of such an association shall resolve to continue the liquidation of such association under the provisions of this chapter, in which event a copy of such resolution shall be published in the town or county in which the association is located once a week for four consecutive weeks and a certified copy of such resolution, together with proof of publication thereof, shall be filed with the comptroller. Upon the filing thereof and upon certificate by the comptroller that the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, which certificate shall declare that by virtue of such compliance and the issuance of the certificate the provisions of this law have become effective, such association shall be deemed to be liquidating and dissolving hereunder and shall be entitled to and be possessed of all the privileges, franchises and powers set forth herein.

History.—§6, ch. 19545, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6183(15c).

CHAPTER 667

INSOLVENCY OF BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

- 667.081 When insolvent.
 667.082 When conservator may be appointed to take charge of assets; removal.
 667.083 Officers may seek removal of conservator.
 667.084 Conservator to possess all powers of directors, officers, and members.
 667.085 Conservator, with approval of comptroller, may remove any officer or director.
 667.086 Under conservator, association may be operated as a "going concern."
 667.087 Compensation of conservator; expenses of conservatorship.
 667.088 End of conservatorship; return of association to its officers; appointment of liquidator.
- 667.089 Voluntary liquidation.
 667.09 Publication of notice calling for proof of claims against association.
 667.10 Claims filed with liquidator.
 667.11 Liquidator's expenses and compensation; comptroller makes ratable dividend on claims proved or adjudicated.
 667.12 Purchase of property for protection and benefit of liquidator's trust.
 667.13 Federal savings and loan insurance corporation as liquidator.
 667.14 Federal savings and loan insurance corporation subrogated to rights against closed association.

667.081 When insolvent.—Any building and loan association shall be deemed to be insolvent when the aggregate of its assets shall be insufficient to pay all legal claims against it other than to its own shareholders, who shall not be considered creditors in their membership relation to the association.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.082 When conservator may be appointed to take charge of assets; removal.—

(1) Upon determining that any building and loan association: (a) is insolvent; or (b) is pursuing a course which threatens to result in insolvency; or (c) is substantially violating any valid and applicable law, regulation, or order; or (d) is concealing any of its assets, books, or records; or (e) is in such financial condition that its liabilities, including shareholders' accounts, exceed its assets, the comptroller of the state (hereinafter called the comptroller) may appoint a conservator for such building and loan association (hereinafter called the association), for a period of six months, which time may be extended to twelve months, if in the opinion of the comptroller such extension is to the best interest of the association and its creditors, or upon the written agreement of the officers of the association or upon the written agreement of the majority of the shareholders of the association and upon approval of such extension of time by the circuit court. The comptroller shall require the conservator to give bond in an amount as may be determined necessary to protect the assets of the association. The conservator, under the direction of the comptroller, shall immediately take possession of the books, records, and assets of every kind and description of such association, and he shall take such action as may be necessary to conserve the assets of the association, pending further disposition thereof as provided by law.

(2) The comptroller, immediately upon appointing such conservator, shall serve notice upon the president or upon any vice-president, manager, or cashier, or upon any director, or other person having charge of the management of such association, informing him or them in such notice of his action in appointing such conservator and notify him or them that he will apply on a date therein named, not to exceed fifteen days from the date of service of such notice, to a circuit judge having jurisdiction over the same, for an order confirming his action in appointing the conservator for such association. At such hearing the association, its officers, or directors may contest before the circuit judge the rightfulness and legality of the action of the comptroller in appointing the conservator.

(3) The comptroller may remove a conservator of an association and a conservator so removed shall forthwith deliver to the comptroller or to the successor conservator, as the comptroller may direct, all assets of the association. A successor conservator shall give such bond as may be required by the comptroller and he shall have the same powers and duties as the conservator, whom he succeeds, had except that it shall not be necessary for the court to confirm his appointment.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.083 Officers may seek removal of conservator.—The officers of such association shall have the right at all times to apply to the circuit court for an order removing the conservator and requiring him to return the books, records, and assets of the association to its officers. The court, upon reasonable notice to the conservator, shall herein determine such application.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.084 Conservator to possess all powers of directors, officers, and members.—Any conservator appointed shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges possessed by the officers, board of directors, and members of the association. He shall have full power and authority to execute and deliver in the name of and on behalf of the association all deeds, contracts, satisfactions of mortgages and judgments, assignments, and other legal documents which may be necessary in conducting and carrying on the business of the association and in performing his duties as conservator.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.085 Conservator, with approval of comptroller, may remove any officer or director.—The directors and officers shall remain in office and the employees shall remain in their respective positions, but the conservator may remove any director, officer, or employee, provided the order of removal of a director or officer shall be approved in writing by the comptroller.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.086 Under conservator, association may be operated as a "going concern."—The conservator may, upon order of the comptroller, operate such association as a going concern and in the absence of such an order from the comptroller, he shall confine his activities to that of conserving the assets of the association. While the association is in the hands of a conservator, members of such association shall continue to make payments to the association in accordance with the terms and conditions of their contracts, and the conservator, in his discretion, may permit shareholders to withdraw their accounts from the association pursuant to the provisions of §§667.081-667.089 or under and subject to such rules and regulations as the comptroller may prescribe. The conservator shall have power to accept payments on accounts, but any payments upon such accounts received by the conservator may be segregated if the comptroller shall so order in writing; if so ordered, such payments shall not be subject to offset and shall not be used to liquidate any indebtedness of such association existing at the time the conservator was appointed for it or any subsequent indebtedness incurred for the purposes of liquidating the indebtedness of any such association existing at the time such conservator was appointed.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.087 Compensation of conservator; expenses of conservatorship.—The conservator shall receive reasonable compensation for his services, which shall be fixed by the comptroller and shall be based upon the work actually necessary and performed. All expenses of the conservatorship shall be paid out of the assets of the association and shall be a first lien, prior in dignity to all other liens, upon the assets of the association.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.088 End of conservatorship; return of association to its officers; appointment of liquidator.—At the conclusion of the conservatorship, the conservator shall, upon order of the comptroller, return the books, records, and assets of the association to its officers or deliver the same to the liquidator, if one be appointed.

If at the end of the six-months period for which the conservator was appointed, or at the end of any extension of such time, as herein provided, the comptroller deems it to the best interest of the creditors and shareholders of the association, he may appoint a liquidator to take charge of the assets and affairs of such association, and require of him such bond and security as the comptroller deems proper, not exceeding double the amount that may come into his hands, and such liquidator shall be subject to dismissal by the comptroller whenever in his judgment such dismissal is deemed necessary or advisable; when one liquidator is dismissed, another may be duly designated and appointed. Such liquidator under the direction and supervision of the comptroller, shall take possession of the books, records and assets of every description belonging to the association, and in his name shall sue for and collect all debts, dues and claims belonging to it, and upon the order of the circuit court of the circuit in which the association is located may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts, and, on a like order, may sell all the real and personal property of such association on such terms as the court shall direct. Such liquidator shall pay all money received by him to the state treasurer to be held as a special deposit for the use and benefit of the creditors, subject to the order of the comptroller, and shall also make reports quarterly, or when called upon, to the comptroller of all of his acts and proceedings. The comptroller, immediately upon appointing such liquidator, shall serve notice upon the president, any vice-president, secretary, director or other person having charge or management of such association, informing him or them in such notice of his action in appointing such liquidator, and notifying him or them or it that he will apply on a date therein named, not exceeding ten days from the date of service of such notice, to the judge of the circuit court of the circuit in which the association is located, for an order confirming his action and the appointment of such liquidator and the association may, at such hearing, contest before such circuit judge the rightfulness and legality of the action of the comptroller in appointing such liquidator.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.089 Voluntary liquidation.—The provisions of §§667.081-667.089 shall apply to all building and loan associations now or hereafter in voluntary liquidation.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 25247, 1949.

667.09 Publication of notice calling for proof of claims against association.—The comptroller shall, after the confirmation of the appointment of such liquidator, cause notice to be given by advertisement in a newspaper in the county where the association is located, once each week for nine consecutive weeks, calling on all persons who may have claims against such association to present the same and to make legal proof thereof.

History.—§10, sub-§9, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183 (9).

667.10 Claims filed with liquidator.—All claims of every kind and nature, including claims of stockholders, must be properly sworn to and filed with the liquidator within one year from the date of the qualification of the liquidator and no claims not so filed within one year from the date of the qualification of the liquidator shall be included in the distribution of the assets which have already been distributed, but any claim which may be filed thereafter with a showing satisfactory to the liquidator that the claimant received no notice provided for in §667.09 prior to the expiration of the twelve months' period, he shall be entitled to share in such disbursement or distribution of assets as may be made after due proof of his claim. The claims of stockholders, based on their stock, shall in all respects be inferior to the claims of creditors.

History.—§10, sub-§10, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183 (9).

667.11 Liquidator's expenses and compensation; comptroller makes ratable dividend on claims proved or adjudicated.—All expenses of the liquidator shall be paid out of the assets of the association before distribution of the proceeds of liquidation. The compensation of the liquidator shall be fixed by the comptroller, and shall be based upon the amount of work actually necessary and performed, and shall in no case exceed five per cent of the cash collections. From time to time, after full provisions having first been made for the expenses of the liquidation, and the payment of liens for taxes and preferred claims, the comptroller shall make ratable dividend of the money in the hands of the state treasurer on all claims as may have been proved to his satisfaction or adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction and as the proceeds of the assets of such association are paid over to the liquidator, shall make further dividends on all claims previously proved or adjudicated.

History.—§10, sub-§11, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183 (9).

667.12 Purchase of property for protection and benefit of liquidator's trust.—Whenever any liquidator, duly appointed by the comptroller, and who shall have qualified and entered upon the discharge of his trust, shall find it in his opinion necessary to fully protect and benefit his said trust, to the extent that said trust may have in any property, real or personal, by reason of any bond, mortgage, lien, assignment, equity or other proper legal claim attaching thereto, which said property is to be sold under execution, decree or foreclosure, or any proper order of any court of competent jurisdiction, or reclaimed or repossessed by any person having title opposed to such equity of his trust, he may certify the facts in the case, together with his opinion as to the value of the property, and the value of the equity his trust may have in same, and the amount that may be necessary to purchase such property, to the comptroller, and if the comptroller shall in his judgment deem it to the best interest of the trust, he may draw upon the funds to the credit of said trust in the hands of the state treasurer to the amount necessary for the purchase of said property for the said trust.

History.—§10, sub-§12, ch. 15908, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 6183 (9).

667.13 Federal savings and loan insurance corporation as liquidator.—The Federal savings and loan insurance corporation, created by title IV by an act of congress entitled "National housing act," approved June 27, 1934, as now or hereafter amended, upon appointment of the comptroller may be and act without bond as receiver or liquidator of any building and loan association or federal savings and loan association, the shares, saving shares or investment shares which are to any extent insured by said corporation, and which shall have been closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its members or shareholders. The state comptroller may in his discretion, in the event of such closing, tender to said corporation the appointment as receiver or liquidator of such building and loan association or federal savings and loan association, and if the corporation accepts such appointment, the corporation shall have and possess all the powers and privileges provided by the laws of this state with respect to a receiver or liquidator respectively of a building and loan association or federal savings and loan association, its members, shareholders and other creditors.

History.—§1, ch. 19111, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6183 (23).

667.14 Federal savings and loan insurance corporation subrogated to rights against closed association.—Whenever any building and loan association or federal savings and loan association shall have been closed as aforesaid, and said federal savings and loan insurance corporation shall pay or make available for payment the insured shares, saving shares or investment shares, said corporation, whether or not it shall become receiver or liquidator of such closed building and loan association or federal savings and loan association, as provided in §667.13, shall be and become subrogated by operation of law to all rights against such closed building and loan association or federal savings and loan association of each owner of the claim for shares, saving shares or investment shares to the extent now or hereafter necessary to enable the said federal savings and loan insurance corporation, under federal law to make insurance payments available to the members or shareholders of a closed insured building and loan association or federal savings and loan association.

History.—§2, ch. 19111, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 6183 (24).

TITLE XXXVIII

COMMERCIAL RELATIONS

CHAPTER 673

UNIFORM TRUST RECEIPTS LAW

- | | | | |
|--------|--|--------|--|
| 673.01 | Definitions. | 673.10 | Entruster's right to proceeds. |
| 673.02 | What constitutes trust receipt transaction and trust receipt. | 673.11 | Liens in course of business good against entruster. |
| 673.03 | Attempted creation or continuance of pledge without delivery or retention of possession. | 673.12 | Entruster not responsible on sale by trustee. |
| 673.04 | Contract to give trust receipt. | 673.13 | Filing and refiling concerning trust receipt transactions covering documents or goods. |
| 673.05 | Validity between the parties. | 673.14 | Limitations on extent of obligations secured. |
| 673.06 | Repossession and entruster's rights on default. | 673.15 | Act not applicable to certain transactions. |
| 673.07 | General effect of entruster's filing or taking possession. | 673.16 | Election among filing statutes. |
| 673.08 | Validity against creditors. | 673.17 | Cases not provided for. |
| 673.09 | Limitations on entruster's protection against purchasers. | 673.18 | Short title. |

673.01 Definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

(1) "Buyer in the ordinary course of trade" means a person to whom goods are sold and delivered for new value and who acts in good faith and without actual knowledge of any limitation on the trustee's liberty of sale, including one who takes by conditional sale or under a pre-existing mercantile contract with the trustee to buy the goods delivered, or like goods, for cash or on credit. "Buyer in the ordinary course of trade" does not include a pledgee, or mortgagee, a lienor, or a transferee in bulk.

(2) "Document" means any document of title to goods.

(3) "Entruster" means the person who has or directly or by agent takes a security interest in goods, documents or instruments under a trust receipt transaction, and any successor in interest of such person. A person in the business of selling goods or instruments for profit, who at the outset of the transaction has, as against the buyer, general property in such goods or instruments, and who sells the same to the buyer on credit, retaining title or other security interest under a purchase money mortgage or conditional sales contract or otherwise, is excluded.

(4) "Goods" means any personal chattels other than: money, things in action, or things so affixed to land as to become a part thereof.

(5) "Instrument" means:

(a) Any negotiable instrument as defined in the uniform negotiable instruments law and amendments thereto, or,

(b) Any certificate of stock, or bond or debenture for the payment of money issued by a public or private corporation as part of a series, or

(c) Any interim, deposit, or participation certificate or receipt, or other credit or investment instrument of a sort marketed in the ordinary course of business or finance, of which the trustee, after the trust receipt transaction, appears by virtue of possession and the face of the instrument to be the owner. "Instrument" does not include any document of title to goods.

(6) "Lien creditor" means any creditor who has acquired a specific lien on the goods, documents or instruments by attachment, levy, or by any other similar operation of law or judicial process, including a distraining landlord.

(7) "New value" includes new advances or loans made, or new obligation incurred, or the release or surrender of a valid and existing security interest, or the release of a claim to proceeds under §673.10; but "new value" shall not be construed to include extensions or renewals of existing obligations of the trustee, nor obligations substituted for such existing obligations.

(8) "Person" means, as the case may be, an individual, trustee, receiver or other fiduciary, partnership, corporation, business trust, or other association, and two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

(9) "Possession," as used in this chapter with reference to possession taken or retained by the entruster, means actual possession of goods, documents or instruments, or, in the case of goods, such constructive possession as, by means of tags or signs or other outward marks placed and remaining in conspicuous places, may reasonably be expected in fact to indicate to the third party in question that the entruster has control over or interest in the goods.

(10) "Purchase" means taking by sale, conditional sale, lease, mortgage, or pledge, legal or equitable.

(11) "Purchaser" means any person taking by purchase. A pledgee, mortgagee or other claimant of a security interest created by contract is, insofar as concerns his specific security, a purchaser and not a creditor.

(12) "Security interest" means a property interest in goods, documents or instruments, limited in extent to securing performance of some obligation of the trustee or of some third person to the entruster, and includes the interest of a pledgee, and title, whether or not expressed to be absolute, whenever such title is in substance taken or retained for security only.

(13) "Transferee in bulk" means a mortgagee or a pledgee or a buyer of the trustee's business substantially as a whole.

(14) "Trustee" means the person having or taking possession of goods, documents or instruments under a trust receipt transaction, and any successor in interest of such person. The use of the word "trustee" herein shall not be interpreted or construed to imply the existence of a trust or any right or duty of a trustee in the sense of equity jurisprudence other than as provided by this chapter.

(15) "Value" means any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or preexisting claim, whether for money or not, and whether against the transferor or against another person, constitutes value where goods, documents or instruments are taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.02 What constitutes trust receipt transaction and trust receipt.—

(1) A trust receipt transaction within the meaning of this chapter is any transaction to which an entruster and a trustee are parties for one of the purposes set forth in subsection (3), whereby

(a) The entruster or any third person delivers to the trustee goods, documents or instruments in which the entruster 1. prior to the transaction has, or for new value 2. by the transaction acquires or 3. as the result thereof is to acquire promptly, a security interest; or

(b) The entruster gives new value in reliance upon the transfer by the trustee to such entruster of a security interest in instruments which are actually exhibited to such entruster, or to his agent in that behalf, at a place of business of either entruster or agent, but, possession of which is retained by the trustee; or

(c) The entruster gives new value in reliance upon the transfer by the trustee to such entruster of a security interest in goods or documents whether or not such goods or documents are owned or possessed by the trustee prior or subsequent to the execution of the trust receipt and whether or not such goods are thereafter retained in the trustee's possession;

provided, that the delivery under paragraph (a) or the giving of new value under paragraph (b) or (c) either:

1. Be against the signing and delivery by the trustee of a writing designating the goods, documents or instruments concerned, and reciting that a security interest therein remains in or will remain in, or has passed to or will pass to, the entruster, or

2. Be pursuant to a prior or concurrent written and signed agreement of the trustee to give such a writing. The security interest of the entruster may be derived from the trustee or from any other person, and by pledge or by transfer of title or otherwise.

If the trustee's rights in the goods, documents or instruments are subject to a prior trust receipt transaction or to a prior equitable pledge, §§673.09 and 673.03, respectively, determine the priorities.

(2) A writing such as is described in Subsection (1), paragraph 1., signed by the trustee, and given in or pursuant to such a transaction, is designated in this chapter as a "trust receipt." No further formality of execution or authentication shall be necessary to the validity of a trust receipt.

(3) A transaction shall not be deemed a trust receipt transaction unless the possession of the trustee thereunder is for a purpose substantially equivalent to any one of the following:

(a) In the case of goods, documents or instruments, for the purpose of selling or exchanging them or of procuring their sale or exchange; or

(b) In the case of goods or documents, for the purpose of manufacturing or processing the goods delivered or covered by the documents, with the purpose of ultimate sale, or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to or necessary to their sale; or

(c) In the case of instruments, for the purpose of delivering them to a principal, under whom the trustee is holding them, or for consummation of some transaction involving delivery to a depositary or registrar, or for their presentation, collection, or renewal.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.03 Attempted creation or continuance of pledge without delivery or retention of possession.—

(1) An attempted pledge or agreement to pledge not accompanied by delivery of possession, which does not fulfill the requirements of a trust receipt transaction, shall be valid as against creditors of the pledgor only as follows:

(a) To the extent that new value is given by the pledgee in reliance thereon, such pledge or agreement to pledge shall be valid as against all creditors with or without notice, for ten days from the time the new value is given;

(b) To the extent that the value given by the pledgee is not new value, and in the case of new value after the lapse of ten days from the giving thereof, the pledge shall have validity as against lien creditors without notice, who become such as prescribed in §673.08, only as of the time the pledgee takes possession, and without relation back.

(2) Purchasers (including entrusters) for value and without notice of the pledgee's interest shall take free of any such pledge or agreement to pledge unless, prior to the purchase, it has been perfected by possession taken.

(3) Where, under circumstances not constituting a trust receipt transaction, a person, for a temporary and limited purpose, delivers goods, documents, or instruments, in which he holds a pledgee's or other security interest, to the person holding the beneficial interest therein, the transaction has like effect with a purported pledge for new value under this section.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.04 Contract to give trust receipt.—

(1) A contract to give a trust receipt, if in writing and signed by the trustee, shall, with reference to goods, documents or instruments thereafter delivered by the entruster to the trustee in reliance on such contract, be equivalent in all respects to a trust receipt.

(2) Such a contract shall as to such goods, documents, or instruments be specifically enforceable against the trustee; but this subsection shall not enlarge the scope of the entruster's rights against creditors of the trustee as limited by this chapter.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.05 Validity between the parties.—Between the entruster and the trustee the terms of the trust receipt shall, save as otherwise provided by this chapter, be valid and enforceable. But no provision for forfeiture of the trustee's interest shall be valid except as provided in Subsection (5) of §673.06.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.06 Repossession and entruster's rights on default.—

(1) The entruster shall be entitled as against the trustee to possession of the goods, documents or instruments on default, and as may be otherwise specified in the trust receipt.

(2) An entruster entitled to possession under the terms of the trust receipt or of Subsection (1) may take such possession without legal process, whenever that is possible without breach of the peace.

(3) (a) After possession is taken, the entruster shall, subject to paragraph (b) and subsection (5), hold such goods, documents or instruments with the rights and duties of a pledgee.

(b) An entruster in possession may, on or after default, give notice to the trustee of intention to sell, and may, not less than ten days after the serving or sending of such notice, sell the goods, documents or instruments for the trustee's account, at public or private sale, and may at a public sale himself become a purchaser. The proceeds of any such sale, whether public or private, shall be applied 1. to the payment of the expenses thereof 2. to the payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping and storing the goods, documents, or instruments, 3. to the satisfaction of the trustee's indebtedness. The trustee shall receive any surplus and shall be liable to the entruster for any deficiency. Notice of sale shall be deemed sufficiently given if in writing, and either 1. personally served on the trustee, or 2. sent by postpaid ordinary mail to the trustee's last known business address.

(c) A purchaser in good faith and for value from an entruster in possession takes free of the trustee's interest, even in a case in which the entruster is liable to the trustee for conversion.

(4) Surrender of the trustee's interest to the entruster shall be valid, on any terms upon which the trustee and the entruster may, after default, agree.

(5) As to articles manufactured by style or model, the terms of the trust receipt may provide for forfeiture of the trustee's interest, at the election of the entruster, in the event of the trustee's default, against cancellation of the trustee's then remaining indebtedness; provided that in the case of the original maturity of such an indebtedness there must be cancelled not less than eighty percent of the purchase price to the trustee, or of the original indebtedness, whichever is greater; or, in the case of a first renewal, not less than seventy percent, or, in the case of a second or further renewal, not less than sixty percent.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.07 General effect of entruster's filing or taking possession.—

(1) (a) If the entruster within the period of thirty days specified in Subsection (1) of §673.08 files as in this chapter provided, such filing shall be effective to preserve his security interest in documents or goods against all persons, save as otherwise provided by §§673.08-673.11, 673.14 and 673.15.

(b) Filing after the lapse of the said period shall be valid; but in such event, save as provided in subsection (2) (b) of §673.09, the entruster's security interest shall be deemed to be created by the trustee as of the time of such filing, without relation back, as against all persons not having notice of such interest.

(2) The taking of possession by the entruster shall, so long as such possession is retained, have the effect of filing, in the case of goods or documents; and of notice of the entruster's security interest to all persons, in the case of instruments.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.08 Validity against creditors.—

(1) The entruster's security interest in goods, documents or instruments under the written terms of a trust receipt transaction, shall without any filing be valid as against all creditors of the trustee, with or without notice, for thirty days after delivery of the goods, documents or instruments to the trustee, and thereafter except as in this chapter otherwise provided.

But where the trustee at the time of the trust receipt transaction has and retains instruments, the thirty days shall be reckoned from the time such instruments are actually shown to the entruster, or from the time that the entruster gives new value under the transaction, whichever is prior.

(2) Save as provided in Subsection (1), the entruster's security interest shall be void as against lien creditors who become such after such thirty day period and without notice of such interest and before filing.

(a) Where a creditor secures the issuance of process which within a reasonable time after such issuance results in attachment of or levy on the goods, he is deemed to have become a lien creditor as of the date of the issuance of the process.

(b) Unless prior to the acquisition of notice by all creditors filing has occurred or possession has been taken by the entruster, 1. an assignee for the benefit of creditors, from the time of assignment, or 2. a receiver in equity from the time of his appointment, or 3. a trustee in bankruptcy or judicial insolvency proceedings from the time of filing of the petition in bankruptcy or judicial insolvency by or against the trustee, shall, on behalf of all creditors, stand in the position of a lien creditor without notice, without reference to whether he personally has or has not, in fact, notice of the entruster's interest.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.09 Limitations on entruster's protection against purchasers.—

(1) (a) Nothing in this chapter shall limit the rights of purchasers in good faith and for value from the trustee of negotiable instruments or negotiable documents, and purchasers taking from the trustee for value, in good faith, and by transfer in the customary manner instruments in such form as are by common practice purchased and sold as if negotiable, shall hold such instruments free of the entruster's interest; and filing under this chapter shall not be deemed to constitute notice of the entruster's interest to purchasers in good faith and for value of such documents or instruments, other than transferees in bulk.

(b) The entrusting (directly, by agent, or through the intervention of a third person) of goods, documents or instruments by an entruster to a trustee, under a trust receipt transaction or a transaction falling within §673.03 of this chapter, shall be equivalent to the like entrusting of any documents or instruments which the trustee may procure in substitution, or which represent the same goods or instruments or the proceeds thereof, and which the trustee negotiates to a purchaser in good faith and for value.

(2) Where a purchaser from the trustee is not protected under subsection (1) hereof, the following rules shall govern:

(a) Sales by trustee in the ordinary course of trade.

1. Where the trustee, under the trust receipt transaction, has liberty of sale and sells to a buyer in the ordinary course of trade, whether before or after the expiration of the thirty day period specified in subsection 1 of §673.08, and whether or not filing has taken place, such buyer takes free of the entruster's security interest in the goods so sold, and no filing shall constitute notice of the entruster's security interest to such a buyer.

2. No limitation placed by the entruster on the liberty of sale granted to the trustee shall effect a buyer in the ordinary course of trade, unless the limitation is actually known to the buyer.

(b) Purchasers other than buyers in the ordinary course of trade. In the absence of filing, the entruster's security interest in goods shall be valid, as against purchasers, save as provided in this section; but any purchaser, not a buyer in the ordinary course of trade, who, in good faith and without notice of the entruster's security interest and before filing, either 1. gives new value before the expiration of the thirty day period specified in subsection (1) of §673.08, or 2. gives value after said period, and who in either event before filing also obtains delivery of goods from a trustee shall hold the subject matter of his purchase free of the entruster's security interest; but a transferee in bulk can take only under 2. of this paragraph (b).

(c) Liberty of sale.

If the entruster consents to the placing of goods subject to a trust receipt transaction in the trustee's stock in trade or in his sales or exhibition rooms, or allows such goods to be so placed or kept, such consent or allowance shall have like effect as granting the trustee liberty of sale.

(3) As to all cases covered by this section the purchase of goods, documents or instruments on credit shall constitute a purchase for new value, but the entruster shall be entitled to any debt owing to the trustee and any security therefor, by reason of such purchase; except that the entruster's right shall be subject to any set-off or defense valid against the trustee and accruing before the purchaser has actual notice of the entruster's interest.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.10 Entruster's right to proceeds.—Where, under the terms of the trust receipt transaction, the trustee has no liberty of sale or other disposition, or, having liberty of sale or other disposition, is to account to the entruster for the proceeds of any disposition of the goods, documents or instruments, the entruster shall be entitled, to the extent to which and as against all classes of persons as to whom his security interest was valid at the time of disposition by the trustee, as follows:

(a) To the debts described in §673.09 (3); and also

(b) To any proceeds or the value of any proceeds (whether such proceeds are identifiable or not) of the goods, documents or instruments, if said proceeds were received by the trustee within ten days prior to either application for appointment of a receiver of the trustee, or the filing of a petition in bankruptcy or judicial insolvency proceedings by or against the trustee, or demand made by the entruster for prompt accounting; and to a priority to the amount of such proceeds or value; and also

(c) To any other proceeds of the goods, documents or instruments which are identifiable, unless the provision for accounting has been waived by the entruster by words or conduct; and knowledge by the entruster of the existence of proceeds, without demand for accounting made within ten days from such knowledge, shall be deemed such a waiver.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.11 Liens in course of business good against entruster.—Specific liens arising out of contractual acts of the trustee with reference to the processing, warehousing, shipping or otherwise dealing with specific goods in the usual course of the trustee's business preparatory to their sale shall attach against the interest of the entruster in said goods as well as against the interest of the trustee, whether or not filing has occurred under this chapter; but this section shall not obligate the entruster personally for any debt secured by such lien; nor shall it be construed to include the lien of a landlord.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.12 Entruster not responsible on sale by trustee.—An entruster holding a security interest shall not, merely by virtue of such interest or of his having given the trustee liberty of sale or other disposition, be responsible as principal or as vendor under any sale or contract to sell made by the trustee.

History.—Comp. §12, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.13 Filing and refiling concerning trust receipt transactions covering documents or goods.—

(1) Any entruster undertaking or contemplating trust receipt transactions with reference to documents or goods is entitled to file with the secretary of state a statement, signed by the entruster and the trustee, containing:

(a) A designation of the entruster and the trustee, and of the chief place of business of each within this state, if any; and if the entruster has no place of business within the state, a designation of his chief place of business outside the state; and

(b) A statement that the entruster is engaged, or expects to be engaged, in financing under trust receipt transactions the acquisition of goods by the trustee; and

(c) A description of the kind or kinds of goods covered or to be covered by such financing.

(2) The following form of statement (or any other form of statement containing substantially the same information) shall suffice for the purpose of this chapter:

"Statement of Trust Receipt Financing

"The entruster, _____, whose chief place of business within this state is at _____ (or who has no place of business within this state and whose chief place of business outside this state is at _____), is or expects to be engaged in financing under trust receipt transactions the acquisition by the trustee, _____, whose chief place of business within this state is at _____ of goods of the following description: (coffee, silk, automobiles, or the like)

(Signed) _____ Entruster

(Signed) _____ Trustee."

(3) It shall be the duty of the filing officer to mark each statement filed with a consecutive file number, and with the date and hour of filing, and to keep such statement in a separate file; and to note and index the filing in a suitable index, indexed according to the name of the trustee and containing a notation of the trustee's chief place of business as given in the statement. The fee for such filing shall be two dollars.

(4) Presentation for filing of the statement described in subsection (1), and payment of the filing fee, shall constitute filing under this chapter in favor of the entruster, as to any documents or goods falling within the description in the statement which are within one year from the date of such filing, or have been, within thirty days previous to such filing, the subject-matter of a trust receipt transaction between the entruster and the trustee.

(5) At any time before expiration of the validity of the filing, as specified in subsection (4), a like statement, or an affidavit by the entruster alone, setting out the information required by subsection (1), may be filed in like manner as the original filing. Any filing of such further statement or affidavit shall be valid in like manner and for like period as an original filing, and shall also continue the rank of the entruster's existing security interest as against all junior interests. It shall be the duty of the filing officer to mark, file and index the further statement or affidavit in like manner as the original.

History.—§13, ch. 26730, 1951; (3) by §1, ch. 57-11.

673.14 Limitations on extent of obligation secured.—As against purchasers and creditors, the entruster's security interest may extend to any obligation for which the goods, documents or instruments were security before the trust receipt transaction; but not, otherwise, to secure past indebtedness of the trustee; nor shall the obligation secured under any trust receipt transaction extend to obligations of the trustee to be subsequently created.

History.—Comp. §14, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.15 Act not applicable to certain transactions.—This chapter shall not apply to single transactions of legal or equitable pledge, not constituting a course of business, whether such transactions be unaccompanied by delivery of possession, or involve constructive delivery, or delivery and redelivery, actual or constructive, so far as such transactions involve only an entruster who is an individual natural person, and a trustee entrusted as a fiduciary with handling investments or finances of the entruster; nor shall it apply to transactions of bailment or consignment in which the title of the bailor or consignor is not retained to secure an indebtedness to him of the bailee or consignee.

History.—Comp. §15, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.16 Election among filing statutes.—As to any transaction falling within the provision both of this chapter and of any other law requiring filing or recording, the entruster shall not be required to comply with both, but by complying with the provisions of either at his election may have the protection given by the law complied with; except that buyers in the ordinary course of trade as described in subsection (2) of §673.09, and lienors as described in §673.11, shall be protected as therein provided, although the compliance of the entruster be with the filing or recording requirements of another law.

History.—Comp. §16, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.17 Cases not provided for.—In any case not provided for in this chapter the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, shall continue to apply to trust receipt transactions and purported pledge transactions not accompanied by delivery of possession.

History.—Comp. §17, ch. 26730, 1951.

673.18 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the uniform trust receipts act.

History.—Comp. §19, ch. 26730, 1951.

CHAPTER 674

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS; FORM AND INTERPRETATION, ETC.

- 674.01 General provisions.
- 674.02 Form.
- 674.03 Sum certain.
- 674.04 Unconditional order or promise.
- 674.05 Determinable future time.
- 674.06 Effect of certain provisions on negotiability.
- 674.07 Matters which do not affect validity and negotiability.
- 674.08 Provisions for attorneys' fees.
- 674.09 When payable on demand.
- 674.10 When payable to order.
- 674.11 When payable to bearer.
- 674.12 Not required to follow language of the law.
- 674.13 Date of instrument.
- 674.14 Antedated or postdated instrument.
- 674.15 Undated instruments.
- 674.16 Uncompleted instruments.
- 674.17 Incomplete instrument not valid.
- 674.18 When incomplete and revocable.
- 674.19 Ambiguous language and omissions.
- 674.20 Who not liable.
- 674.21 Signature of agent.
- 674.22 Signing in behalf of principal.
- 674.23 Signature by procuration.
- 674.24 Indorsement by corporation or infant.
- 674.25 Forged signature.
- 674.27 Consideration presumed.
- 674.28 What constitutes value.
- 674.29 Where value has been given.
- 674.30 Lien on instrument.
- 674.31 Failure of consideration.
- 674.32 Accommodation party.
- 674.33 When negotiated.
- 674.34 Indorsement.
- 674.35 Indorsement must be of entire instrument.
- 674.36 Special, restrictive or qualified indorsements.
- 674.37 What is special indorsement and blank indorsement.
- 674.38 Converting blank into special indorsement.
- 674.39 Restrictive indorsements.
- 674.40 Rights of restrictive indorsee.
- 674.41 Qualified indorsement.
- 674.42 Conditional indorsement.
- 674.43 Specially indorsed "bearer" instruments.
- 674.44 Payable to order of two or more.
- 674.45 Indorsed to "cashier," etc.
- 674.46 Wrong name of indorsee.
- 674.47 Indorsing in representative capacity.
- 674.48 Certain things presumed.
- 674.49 Continuation of negotiability.
- 674.50 Striking out indorsements by holder.
- 674.51 Transferring instrument.
- 674.52 Negotiating instrument back to prior party.
- 674.53 Holder may sue in his own name.
- 674.54 Who is holder in due course.
- 674.55 Who is not holder in due course.
- 674.56 Effect of part payment before notice.
- 674.57 What constitutes defective title.
- 674.58 What constitutes notice of defect or infirmity.
- 674.59 Holder in due course may enforce payment.
- 674.60 Instrument held by other than holder in due course.
- 674.61 Holder presumed to be holder in due course.
- 674.62 Admission of maker.
- 674.63 Admission of drawer.
- 674.64 Admission of acceptor.
- 674.65 Who deemed an indorser.
- 674.66 Placing signature in blank.
- 674.67 Negotiating an instrument.
- 674.68 Indorsing without qualification.
- 674.69 Liabilities of indorser.
- 674.70 Order of liability of indorsers.
- 674.71 Negotiation without indorsement by broker or agent.
- 674.72 When presentment for payment necessary.
- 674.73 Time of presentment for payment.
- 674.74 "Due diligence" by bank.
- 674.75 What is sufficient presentment.
- 674.76 Place of presentment.
- 674.77 Exhibit and delivery of instrument.
- 674.78 Instruments payable at a bank.
- 674.79 Presentment to representative of deceased.
- 674.80 Presentment where persons liable are partners.
- 674.81 Where several persons, not partners, are liable.
- 674.82 When presentment not required.
- 674.83 Delay in making presentment.
- 674.84 When presentment dispensed with.

674.01 General provisions. — Chapters 674-676 shall be known as the negotiable instruments law.

In chapters 674-676, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Acceptance" means an acceptance completed by delivery or notification.

"Action" includes counter claim and set-off.

"Bank" includes any person or association of persons carrying on the business of banking, whether incorporated or not.

"Bearer" means the person in possession of a bill or note which is payable to bearer.

"Bill" means bill of exchange, and "note" means negotiable promissory note.

"Delivery" means transfer of possession, actual or constructive, from one person to another.

"Holder," means the payee or indorsee of a bill or note, who is in possession of it, or the bearer thereof.

"Indorsement" means an indorsement completed by delivery.

"Instrument" means negotiable instrument.

"Issue" means the first delivery of the instrument, complete in form to a person who takes it as a holder.

"Person" includes a body of persons whether incorporated or not.

"Value" means valuable consideration.

"Written" includes printed and "writing" includes print.

The person "primarily" liable on an instrument is the person who by the terms of the instrument is absolutely required to pay the same. All other parties are "secondarily" liable.

In determining what is a "reasonable time" or an "unreasonable time" regard is to be had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade or business (if any) with respect to such instrument, and the facts of the particular case.

Where a day or the last day for doing any act herein required or permitted to be done falls on Sunday or on a holiday, the act may be done on the next succeeding secular or business day.

In any case not provided for in chapters 674-676, inclusive, the rules of the law merchant shall govern.

History.—Ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2934; RGS 4674; CGL 6760. cf.—§1.01 for general definitions.

674.02 Form.—An instrument to be negotiable must conform to the following requirements:

(1) It must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer.

(2) Must contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a certain sum in money.

(3) Must be payable on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time.

(4) Must be payable to order or to bearer; and,

(5) Where the instrument is addressed to a drawee, he must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

History.—§1, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2935; RGS 4675; CGL 6761.

674.03 Sum certain.—The sum payable is a sum certain within the meaning of this law, although it is to be paid:

(1) With interest; or

(2) By stated installments; or

(3) By stated installments, with a provision that upon default in payment of any installment or of interest, the whole shall become due; or

(4) With exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or

(5) With costs of collection or an attorney's fee, in case payment shall not be made at maturity.

History.—§2, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2936; RGS 4676; CGL 6762.

674.04 Unconditional order or promise.—An unqualified order or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of this law, though coupled with:

(1) An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbursement is to be made, or a particular account to be debited with the amount; or

(2) A statement of the transaction which gives rise to the instrument.

But an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is not unconditional.

History.—§3, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2937; RGS 4677; CGL 6763.

674.05 Determinable future time.—An instrument is payable at a determinable future time, within the meaning of this law, which is expressed to be payable:

(1) At a fixed period after date, or sight; or

(2) On or before a fixed or determinable future time specified therein; or

(3) On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified event which is certain to happen though the time of happening be uncertain.

History.—§4, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2938; RGS 4678; CGL 6764; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

674.06 Effect of certain provisions on negotiability.—An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and the happening of the event does not cure the defect.

An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which:

(1) Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or

(2) Authorize a confession of judgment if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or

(3) Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of the obligor; or

(4) Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

But nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

History.—§§4, 5, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2939; RGS 4679; CGL 6765.

674.07 Matters which do not affect validity and negotiability.—The validity and negotiable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact that:

(1) It is not dated; or

(2) Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been given, therefor; or

(3) Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place where it is payable; or

(4) Bears a seal; or

(5) Designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made.

But nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute requiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be stated in the instrument.

History.—§6, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2940; RGS 4680; CGL 6766.

674.08 Provisions for attorneys' fees.—No provision for the payment of attorneys' fees, or similar charges, or charges for exchange in any instrument otherwise valid and negotiable shall affect the validity or negotiability of such instrument, but the same shall in all respects be as valid and negotiable as if such provisions were not therein contained.

History.—§1, ch. 4374, 1895; GS 3099; RGS 4843; CGL 6929.

674.09 When payable on demand.—An instrument is payable on demand:

- (1) Where it is expressed to be payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation; or
- (2) In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted or indorsed when overdue, it is, as regards the person so issuing, accepting or indorsing it, payable on demand.

History.—§7, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2941; RGS 4681; CGL 6767.

674.10 When payable to order.—The instrument is payable to order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified person or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order of:

- (1) A payee who is not maker, drawer or drawee; or,
- (2) The drawer or maker; or
- (3) The drawee; or
- (4) Two or more payees jointly; or
- (5) One or some of several payees; or
- (6) The holder of an office for the time being.

Where the instrument is payable to order the payee must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

History.—§8, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2942; RGS 4682; CGL 6768.

674.11 When payable to bearer.—The instrument is payable to bearer:

- (1) When it is expressed to be so payable; or
- (2) When it is payable to a person named therein or bearer; or
- (3) When it is payable to the order of a fictitious or nonexistent person, and such fact was known to the person making it so payable or known to his employee, or other agent who supplies a name of such payee; or
- (4) When the name of the payee does not purport to be the name of any person; or
- (5) When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

History.—§9, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2943; RGS 4683; CGL 6769; §1, ch. 29875, 1955.

674.12 Not required to follow language of the law.—The instrument need not follow the language of this law, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirements hereof.

History.—§10, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2944; RGS 4684; CGL 6770.

674.13 Date of instrument.—Where the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated, such date is deemed prima facie to be the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance or indorsement as the case may be.

History.—§11, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2945; RGS 4685; CGL 6771.

674.14 Antedated or postdated instrument.

—The instrument is not invalid for the reason only that it is antedated or postdated, provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

History.—§12, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2946; RGS 4686; CGL 6772; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

674.15 Undated instruments.—Where an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to him, the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

History.—§13, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2947; RGS 4687; CGL 6773.

674.16 Uncompleted instruments.—Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular, the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed, may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time.

History.—§14, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2948; RGS 4688; CGL 6774.

674.17 Incomplete instrument not valid.—

Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated, without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

History.—§15, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2949; RGS 4689; CGL 6775.

674.18 When incomplete and revocable.—

Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties, and as regards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery in order to be effectual must be made either by or under the authority of the party making, drawing, accepting or indorsing, as the case may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been conditional, or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the hands of a holder in due course a valid delivery thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him is conclusively presumed. And where the instrument is no longer in the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon, a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is proved.

History.—§16, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2950; RGS 4690; CGL 6776.

674.19 Ambiguous language and omissions.—Where the language of the instrument is ambiguous, or there are omissions therein, the following rules of construction apply:

(1) Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in figures and there is a discrepancy between the two, the sum denoted by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambiguous or uncertain, references may be had to the figures to fix the amount.

(2) Where the instrument provides for the payment of interest, without specifying the date from which interest is to run, the interest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrument is undated, from the issue thereof.

(3) Where the instrument is not dated, it will be considered to be dated as of the time it was issued.

(4) Where there is a conflict between the written and printed provisions of the instrument, the written provisions prevail.

(5) Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is doubt whether it is a bill or note, the holder may treat it as either at his election.

(6) Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument that it is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intended to sign, he is to be deemed an indorser.

(7) Where an instrument containing the words, "I promise to pay" is signed by two or more persons, they are deemed to be jointly and severally liable thereon.

History.—§17, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2951; RGS 4691; CGL 6777; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

674.20 Who not liable.—No person is liable on the instrument whose signature does not appear thereon, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. But one who signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the same extent as if he had signed in his own name.

History.—§18, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2952; RGS 4692; CGL 6778.

674.21 Signature of agent.—The signature of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No particular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose; and the authority of the agent may be established as in other cases of agency.

History.—§19, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2953; RGS 4693; CGL 6779.

674.22 Signing in behalf of principal.—Where the instrument contains or a person adds to his signature words indicating that he signs for or on behalf of a principal, or in a representative capacity, he is not liable on the instrument if he was duly authorized; but the mere addition of words describing him as an agent, or as filling a representative character, without disclosing his principal does not exempt him from personal liability.

History.—§20, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2954; RGS 4694; CGL 6780.

674.23 Signature by procuration.—A signature by "procuration" operates as notice that the agent has but a limited authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the agent in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authority.

History.—§21, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2955; RGS 4695; CGL 6781.

674.24 Indorsement by corporation or infant.—The indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or by an infant passes the property therein, notwithstanding that from want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liability thereon.

History.—§22, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2956; RGS 4696; CGL 6782.

674.25 Forged signature.—Where a signature is forged or made without the authority of the person whose signature it purports to be, it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain the instrument, or to give a discharge therefor, or to enforce payment thereof against any party thereto, can be acquired through or under such signature, unless the party, against whom it is sought to enforce such right, is precluded from setting up the forgery or want of authority.

History.—§23, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2957; RGS 4697; CGL 6783.

674.27 Consideration presumed.—Every negotiable instrument is deemed prima facie to have been issued for a valuable consideration; and every person whose signature appears thereon to have become a party thereto for value.

History.—§24, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2958; RGS 4698; CGL 6784.

674.28 What constitutes value.—Value is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing debt constitutes value; and is deemed such whether the instrument is payable on demand or at a future time.

History.—§25, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2959; RGS 4699; CGL 6785.

674.29 Where value has been given.—Where value has at any time been given for the instrument, the holder is deemed a holder for value in respect to all parties who became such prior to that time.

History.—§26, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2960; RGS 4700; CGL 6786.

674.30 Lien on instrument.—Where the holder has a lien on the instrument, arising either from contract or by implication of law, he is deemed a holder for value to the extent of his lien.

History.—§27, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2961; RGS 4701; CGL 6787.

674.31 Failure of consideration.—Absence or failure of consideration is matter of defense as against any person not a holder in due course; and partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether the failure is an ascertained and liquidated amount or otherwise.

History.—§28, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2962; RGS 4702; CGL 6788.

674.32 Accommodation party.—An accommodation party is one who has signed the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor or indorser, without receiving value therefor, and for the purpose of lending his name to some other person. Such person is liable on the instrument to a holder for value, notwithstanding such holder at the time of taking the instrument knew him to be only an accommodation party.

History.—§29, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2963; RGS 4703; CGL 6789.

674.33 When negotiated.—An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred from one person to another in such manner as to constitute the transferee the holder thereof. If payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery; if payable to order it is negotiated by the indorsement of the holder completed by delivery.

History.—§30, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2964; RGS 4704; CGL 6790.

674.34 Indorsement.—The indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of the indorser, without additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.

History.—§31, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2965; RGS 4705; CGL 6791.

674.35 Indorsement must be of entire instrument.—The indorsement must be an indorsement of the entire instrument. An indorsement, which purports to transfer to the indorsee a part only of the amount payable, or which purports to transfer the instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does not operate as a negotiation of the instrument. But where the instrument has been paid in part, it may be indorsed as to the residue.

History.—§32, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2966; RGS 4706; CGL 6792.

674.36 Special, restrictive or qualified indorsements.—An indorsement may be either special or in blank; and it may also be either restrictive or qualified, or conditional.

History.—§33, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2967; RGS 4707; CGL 6793.

674.37 What is special indorsement and blank indorsement.—A special indorsement specifies the person to whom, or to whose order, the instrument is to be payable; and the indorsement of such indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument. An indorsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument so indorsed is payable to bearer, and may be negotiated by delivery.

History.—§34, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2968; RGS 4708; CGL 6794.

674.38 Converting blank into special indorsement.—The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.

History.—§35, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2969; RGS 4709; CGL 6795.

674.39 Restrictive indorsements.—An indorsement is restrictive, which either:

(1) Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or

(2) Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or

(3) Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of some other person.

But the mere absence of words implying power to negotiate does not make an indorsement restrictive.

History.—§36, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2970; RGS 4710; CGL 6796.

674.40 Rights of restrictive indorsee.—A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the right:

(1) To receive payment of the instrument;

(2) To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring;

(3) To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.

But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.

History.—§37, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2971; RGS 4711; CGL 6797.

674.41 Qualified indorsement.—A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the word "without recourse" or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.

History.—§38, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2972; RGS 4712; CGL 6798.

674.42 Conditional indorsement.—Where an indorsement is conditional, a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated, will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof, subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.

History.—§39, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2973; RGS 4713; CGL 6799.

674.43 Specially indorsed "bearer" instruments.—Where an instrument, payable to bearer, is indorsed specially, it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery; but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make title through his indorsement.

History.—§40, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2974; RGS 4714; CGL 6800.

674.44 Payable to order of two or more.—When an instrument is payable to the order of two or more payees or indorsees who are not partners, all must indorse, unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.

History.—§41, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2975; RGS 4715; CGL 6801.

674.45 Indorsed to "cashier," etc.—Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to a person as "cashier" or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation, it is deemed prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of which he is such officer; and may be negotiated by either the indorsement of the bank or corporation or the indorsement of the officer.

History.—§42, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2976; RGS 4716; CGL 6802.

674.46 Wrong name of indorsee.—Where the name of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled, he may indorse the instrument as therein described, adding, if he think fit, his proper signature.

History.—§43, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2977; RGS 4717; CGL 6803; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

674.47 Indorsing in representative capacity.—Where any person is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity, he may indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability.

History.—§44, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2978; RGS 4718; CGL 6804.

674.48 Certain things presumed.—Except where an indorsement bears date after the maturity of the instrument, every negotiation is deemed prima facie to have been effected before the instrument was overdue.

Except where the contrary appears every indorsement is presumed prima facie to have been made at the place where the instrument is dated.

History.—§45, 46, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2979; RGS 4719; CGL 6805.

674.49 Continuation of negotiability.—An instrument negotiable in its origin continues to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed, or discharged by payment or otherwise.

History.—§47, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2890; RGS 4720; CGL 6806.

674.50 Striking out indorsements by holder.—The holder may at any time strike out any indorsement which is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose indorsement is struck out, and all indorsers subsequent to him, are thereby relieved from liability on the instrument.

History.—§48, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2981; RGS 4721; CGL 6807.

674.51 Transferring instrument.—Where the holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers it for value without indorsing it, the transfer vests in the transferee such title as the transferer had therein, and the transferee acquires, in addition, the right to have the indorsement of the transferer. But for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a holder in due course the negotiation takes effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

History.—§49, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2982; RGS 4722; CGL 6808.

674.52 Negotiating instrument back to prior party.—Where an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party, such party may, subject to the provisions of this law, reissue and further negotiate the same. But he is not entitled to enforce payment thereof against any intervening party to whom he was personally liable.

History.—§50, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2983; RGS 4723; CGL 6809.

674.53 Holder may sue in his own name.—The holder of a negotiable instrument may sue thereon in his own name; and payment to him in due course discharges the instrument.

History.—§51, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2984; RGS 4724; CGL 6810.

674.54 Who is holder in due course.—A holder in due course is a holder who has taken the instrument under the following conditions:

- (1) That it is complete and regular upon its face;
- (2) That he became the holder of it before it was overdue, and without notice that it had been previously dishonored, if such was the fact;
- (3) That he took it in good faith and for value;
- (4) That at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating it.

History.—§52, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2985; RGS 4725; CGL 6811.

674.55 Who is not holder in due course.—Where an instrument payable on demand is negotiated an unreasonable length of time after its issue the holder is not deemed a holder in due course.

History.—§53, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2986; RGS 4726; CGL 6812.

674.56 Effect of part payment before notice.—Where the transferee receives notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same before he has paid the full amount agreed to be paid therefor, he will be deemed a holder in due course only to the extent of the amount theretofore paid by him.

History.—§54, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2987; RGS 4727; CGL 6813.

674.57 What constitutes defective title.—The title of a person who negotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of this law when he obtained the instrument, or any signature thereto, by fraud, duress, or force and fear, or other unlawful means, or for an illegal consideration, or when he negotiates it in breach of faith, or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud.

History.—§55, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2988; RGS 4728; CGL 6814.

674.58 What constitutes notice of defect or infirmity.—To constitute notice of an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

History.—§56, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2989; RGS 4729; CGL 6815.

674.59 Holder in due course may enforce payment.—A holder in due course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of prior parties, and free from defenses available to prior parties among themselves, and may enforce payment of the instrument for the full amount thereof against all parties liable thereon.

History.—§57, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2990; RGS 4730; CGL 6816.

674.60 Instrument held by other than holder in due course.—In the hands of any holder other than a holder in due course, a negotiable instrument is subject to the same defenses as if it were nonnegotiable. But a holder who derives his title through a holder in due course, and who is not himself a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument, has all the rights of such former holder in respect of all parties prior to the latter.

History.—§58, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2991; RGS 4731; CGL 6817.

674.61 Holder presumed to be holder in due course.—Every holder is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course; but when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the instrument was defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as a holder in due course. But the last mentioned rule does not apply in favor of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to the acquisition of such defective title.

History.—§59, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2992; RGS 4732; CGL 6818.

674.62 Admission of maker.—The maker of a negotiable instrument by making it engages that he will pay it according to its tenor; and admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

History.—§60, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2993; RGS 4733; CGL 6822.

674.63 Admission of drawer.—The drawer by drawing the instrument admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse; and engages that on due presentment the instrument will be accepted or paid, or both, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the drawer may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negating or limiting his own liability to the holder.

History.—§61, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2994; RGS 4737; CGL 6823.

674.64 Admission of acceptor.—The acceptor by accepting the instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor of his acceptance; and admits:

(1) The existence of the drawer, the genuineness of his signature, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrument; and

(2) The existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

History.—§62, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2995; RGS 4738; CGL 6824.

674.65 Who deemed an indorser.—A person placing his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer or acceptor is deemed to be an indorser, unless he clearly indicates by appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other capacity.

History.—§63, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2996; RGS 4739; CGL 6825.

674.66 Placing signature in blank.—Where a person, not otherwise a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in blank before delivery, he is liable as indorser in accordance with the following rules:

(1) If the instrument is payable to the order of a third person, he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent parties.

(2) If the instrument is payable to the order of the maker or drawer, or is payable to bearer, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the maker or drawer.

(3) If he signs for the accommodation of payee, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the payee.

History.—§64, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2997; RGS 4740; CGL 6826.

674.67 Negotiating an instrument.—Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement, warrants:

(1) That the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it purports to be;

(2) That he has a good title to it;

(3) That all prior parties had capacity to contract;

(4) That he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless.

But when the negotiation is by delivery only, the warranty extends in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee.

The provisions of subdivision three of this section do not apply to persons negotiating public or corporate securities, other than bills and notes.

History.—§65, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2998; RGS 4741; CGL 6827.

674.68 Indorsing without qualification.—Every indorser who indorses without qualification, warrants to all subsequent holders in due course:

(1) The matters and things mentioned in subdivisions one, two and three of the next preceding section; and

(2) That the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid and subsisting.

And, in addition, he engages that on due presentment, it shall be accepted or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its tenor and that if it be dishonored and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it.

History.—§66, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 2999; RGS 4742; CGL 6828.

674.69 Liabilities of indorser.—Where a person places his indorsement on an instrument negotiable by delivery he incurs all the liabilities of an indorser.

History.—§67, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3000; RGS 4743; CGL 6829.

674.70 Order of liability of indorsers.—As respects one another, indorsers are liable prima facie in the order in which they indorse, but evidence is admissible to show that as between or among themselves they have agreed otherwise. Joint payees or joint indorsers who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and severally.

History.—§68, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3001; RGS 4744; CGL 6830.

674.71 Negotiation without indorsement by broker or agent.—Where a broker or other agent negotiates an instrument without indorsement, he incurs all the liabilities prescribed for a person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement, unless he discloses the name of his principal and the fact that he is acting only as agent.

History.—§69, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3002; RGS 4745; CGL 6831.

674.72 When presentment for payment necessary.—Presentment for payment is not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on the instrument; but if the instrument is, by its terms, payable at a special place, and he is able and willing to pay it thereat maturity, such ability and willingness are equivalent to a tender of payment upon his part. But except as herein otherwise provided, presentment for payment is necessary in order to charge the drawer and indorsers.

History.—§70, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3003; RGS 4746; CGL 6832.

674.73 Time of presentment for payment.—Where the instrument is not payable on demand, presentment must be made on the day it falls due. Where it is payable on demand, presentment must be made within a reasonable time after its issue, except that in the case of a bill of exchange, presentment for payment will be sufficient if made within a reasonable time after the last negotiation thereof.

History.—§71, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3004; RGS 4747; CGL 6833.

674.74 "Due diligence" by bank.—When a check, draft, note or other negotiable instrument is deposited in a bank for credit, or for collection, it shall be considered due diligence on the part of the bank in the collection of any check, draft, note or other negotiable instrument so deposited, to forward en route the same without delay in the usual commercial way in use according to the regular course of business of banks, and the maker, endorser, guarantor or surety of any check, draft, note or other negotiable instrument, so deposited, shall be liable to the bank until actual final payment is received. When a bank receives for collection any check, draft, note or other negotiable instrument and forwards the same for collection, as herein provided, it shall only be liable after actual final payment is received by it, except in case of want of due diligence on its part as aforesaid.

History.—§1, ch. 5951, 1909; RGS 4748; CGL 6834.

674.75 What is sufficient presentment.—Presentment for payment, to be sufficient, must be made:

- (1) By the holder, or by some person authorized to receive payment on his behalf.
- (2) At a reasonable hour on a business day.
- (3) At a proper place as herein defined.
- (4) To the person primarily liable on the instrument, or if he is absent or inaccessible, to any person found at the place where the presentment is made.

History.—§72, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3005; RGS 4749; CGL 6835.
cf.—Ch. 683, Legal holidays.

674.76 Place of presentment.—Presentment for payment is made at the proper place:

- (1) Where a place of payment is specified in the instrument and it is there presented;
- (2) Where no place of payment is specified but the address of the person to make payment is given in the instrument and it is there presented;
- (3) Where no place of payment is specified and no address is given and the instrument is presented at the usual place of business or residence of the person to make payment;
- (4) Where the instrument is drawn upon or payable at a bank which is a member of a clearing house in the same city where said bank is located and the instrument is presented by another bank at such clearing house;
- (5) Where the instrument is drawn upon or payable at a bank and the instrument is presented by another bank at a place specified or requested by the drawee or payor bank;
- (6) In any other case if presented to the person to make payment wherever he can be found, or if presented at his last known place of business or residence.

History.—§73, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3006; RGS 4750; CGL 6836; §1, ch. 63-109.

cf.—§46.05, Venue of action upon promissory notes, etc.

674.77 Exhibit and delivery of instrument.—The instrument must be exhibited to the person from whom payment is demanded, and when it is paid must be delivered up to the party paying it.

History.—§74, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3007; RGS 4751; CGL 6837.

674.78 Instruments payable at a bank.—Where the instrument is payable at a bank, presentment for payment must be made during banking hours, unless the person to make payment has no funds there to meet it at any time during the day, in which case presentment at any hour before the bank closed on that day is sufficient.

History.—§75, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3008; RGS 4752; CGL 6838.

674.79 Presentment to representative of deceased.—Where the person primarily liable on the instrument is dead, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment must be made to his personal representative if such there be, and if with the exercise of reasonable diligence, he can be found.

History.—§76, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3009; RGS 4753; CGL 6839.

674.80 Presentment where persons liable are partners.—Where the persons primarily liable on the instrument are liable as partners, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment may be made to any one of them, even though there has been a dissolution of the firm.

History.—§77, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3010; RGS 4754; CGL 6840.

674.81 Where several persons, not partners, are liable.—Where there are several persons, not partners, primarily liable on the instrument, and no place of payment is specified, presentment must be made to them all.

History.—§78, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3011; RGS 4755; CGL 6841.

674.82 When presentment not required.—Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge the drawer where he has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will pay the instrument.

Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge an indorser where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation, and he has no reason to expect that the instrument will be paid if presented.

History.—§§79, 80, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3012; RGS 4756; CGL 6842.

674.83 Delay in making presentment.—Delay in making presentment for payment is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, presentment must be made with reasonable diligence.

History.—§81, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3013; RGS 4757; CGL 6843.

674.84 When presentment dispensed with.—Presentment for payment is dispensed with:

(1) Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presentment as required by this law cannot be made.

(2) Where the drawee is a fictitious person.

(3) By waiver of presentment, express or implied.

History.—§82, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3014; RGS 4758; CGL 6844.

CHAPTER 675

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS; DISHONOR AND DISCHARGE

- 675.01 Dishonored for nonpayment.
- 675.02 Recourse to parties secondarily liable.
- 675.03 Time instrument is payable.
- 675.04 Instruments payable at bank.
- 675.05 When payment is made in due course.
- 675.06 Notice of dishonor must be given.
- 675.07 How notice given.
- 675.08 May be given by agent.
- 675.09 Notice given on behalf of holder.
- 675.10 Notice given on behalf of party entitled to give notice.
- 675.11 Dishonored in hands of agent.
- 675.12 Written notice.
- 675.13 May be oral and to either party or his agent.
- 675.14 Notice where party is dead.
- 675.15 Notice to partners and joint parties who are not partners.
- 675.16 Notice to bankrupts.

675.01 Dishonored for nonpayment.—The instrument is dishonored by nonpayment when:
 (1) It is duly presented for payment and payment is refused or cannot be obtained; or
 (2) Presentment is excused and the instrument is overdue and unpaid.

History.—§83, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3015; RGS 4759; CGL 6845.

675.02 Recourse to parties secondarily liable.—Subject to the provisions of this law, when the instrument is dishonored by nonpayment, an immediate right of recourse to all parties secondarily liable thereon accrues to the holder.

History.—§84, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3016; RGS 4760; CGL 6846.

675.03 Time instrument is payable.—Every negotiable instrument is payable at the time fixed therein, without grace. When the day of maturity falls upon Sunday, or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day. Instruments falling due on Saturday are to be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day, except that instruments payable on demand may, at the option of the holder, be presented for payment before 12 o'clock noon on Saturday when that entire day is not a holiday.

Where the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date, after sight, or after the happening of a specified event, the time of payment is determined by excluding the day from which the time is to begin to run, and by including the date of payment.

History.—§85, 86, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3017; RGS 4761; CGL 6847.

675.04 Instruments payable at bank.—Where the instrument is made payable at a bank, it is equivalent to an order to the bank to pay the same for the account of the principal debtor thereon.

History.—§87, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3018; RGS 4762; CGL 6848.

675.05 When payment is made in due course.—Payment is made in due course when it is

- 675.17 Time notice may be given.
- 675.18 Time of notice where persons residing in different places.
- 675.19 Giving notice by mail.
- 675.20 Giving notice to antecedent parties.
- 675.21 Where notice of dishonor to be sent.
- 675.22 Notice of dishonor waived.
- 675.23 When dispensed with.
- 675.24 When delay excused.
- 675.25 Where notice of dishonor not required.
- 675.26 Omission to give notice of dishonor by nonacceptance.
- 675.27 Protesting for nonacceptance.
- 675.28 How negotiable instruments discharged.
- 675.29 When not discharged.
- 675.30 Renouncing rights.
- 675.31 Unintentional cancellation.
- 675.32 Materially altering instrument.

made at or after the maturity of the instrument to the holder thereof in good faith and without notice that his title is defective.

History.—§88, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3019; RGS 4763; CGL 6849.

675.06 Notice of dishonor must be given.—Except as herein otherwise provided, when a negotiable instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment, notice of dishonor must be given to the drawer and to each indorser, and any drawer or indorser to whom such notice is not given is discharged.

History.—§89, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3020; RGS 4764; CGL 6850.

675.07 How notice given.—The notice may be given by or on behalf of the holder, or by or on behalf of any party to the instrument who might be compelled to pay it to the holder, and who upon taking it up would have a right to reimbursement from the party to whom the notice is given.

History.—§90, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3021; RGS 4765; CGL 6851.

675.08 May be given by agent.—Notice of dishonor may be given by an agent, either in his own name or in the name of any party entitled to give notice, whether that party be his principal or not.

History.—§91, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3022; RGS 4766; CGL 6852.

675.09 Notice given on behalf of holder.—Where notice is given by or on behalf of the holder, it enures for the benefit of all subsequent holders and all prior parties who have a right of recourse against the party to whom it is given.

History.—§92, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3023; RGS 4767; CGL 6853.

675.10 Notice given on behalf of party entitled to give notice.—Where notice is given by or on behalf of a party entitled to give notice, it enures for the benefit of the holder and all parties subsequent to the party to whom notice is given.

History.—§93, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3024; RGS 4768; CGL 6854.

675.11 Dishonored in hands of agent.—Where an instrument has been dishonored in the hands of an agent, he may either himself give notice to the parties liable thereon, or he may give notice to his principal. If he gives notice to his principal, he must do so within the same time as if he were the holder, and the principal, upon the receipt of such notice, has himself the same time for giving notice as if the agent had been an independent holder.

History.—§94, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3025; RGS 4769; CGL 6855.

675.12 Written notice.—A written notice need not be signed, and an insufficient written notice may be supplemented and validated by verbal communication. A misdescription of the instrument does not vitiate the notice unless the party to whom the notice is given is in fact misled thereby.

History.—§95, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3026; RGS 4770; CGL 6856.

675.13 May be oral and to either party or his agent.—The notice may be in writing or merely oral, and may be given in any terms which sufficiently identify the instrument and indicate that it has been dishonored by non-acceptance or nonpayment. It may in all cases be given by delivering it personally or through the mails.

Notice of dishonor may be given either to the party himself or to his agent in that behalf.

History.—§96, 97, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3027; RGS 4771; CGL 6857.

675.14 Notice where party is dead.—When any party is dead, and his death is known to the party giving notice, the notice must be given to a personal representative, if there be one, and if with reasonable diligence he can be found. If there be no personal representative, notice may be sent to the last residence or last place of business of the deceased.

History.—§98, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3028; RGS 4772; CGL 6858.

675.15 Notice to partners and joint parties who are not partners.—Where the parties to be notified are partners, notice to any one partner is notice to the firm, even though there has been a dissolution.

Notice to joint parties who are not partners must be given to each of them, unless one of them has authority to receive such notice for the others.

History.—§99, 100, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3029; RGS 4773; CGL 6859.

675.16 Notice to bankrupts.—Where a party has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, notice must be given either to the party himself or to his trustee or assignee.

History.—§101, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3030; RGS 4774; CGL 6860.

675.17 Time notice may be given.—Notice may be given as soon as the instrument is dishonored; and unless delay is excused as herein provided, must be given within the times fixed by this law.

Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in the same place, notice must be given within the following times:

(1) If given at the place of business of the person to receive notice, it must be given before the close of business hours on the day following.

(2) If given at his residence, it must be given before the usual hours of rest on the day following.

(3) If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to reach him in usual course on the day following.

History.—§§102, 103, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3031; RGS 4775; CGL 6861.

cf.—Ch. 683, Legal holidays.

675.18 Time of notice where persons residing in different places.—Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in different places, the notice must be given within the following times:

(1) If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to go by mail the day following the day of dishonor, or if there be no mail at a convenient hour on that day, by the next mail thereafter.

(2) If given otherwise than through the post office, then within the time that notice would have been received in due course of mail, if it had been deposited in the post office within the time specified in the last subdivision.

History.—§104, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3032; RGS 4776; CGL 6862.

675.19 Giving notice by mail.—Where notice of dishonor is duly addressed and deposited in the post office, the sender is deemed to have given due notice, notwithstanding any miscarriage in the mails.

Notice is deemed to have been deposited in the post office when deposited in any branch post office or in any letter box under the control of the post office department.

History.—§§105, 106, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3033; RGS 4777; CGL 6863.

675.20 Giving notice to antecedent parties.—Where a party receives notice of dishonor, he has, after the receipt of such notice, the same time for giving notice to antecedent parties that the holder has after the dishonor.

History.—§107, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3034; RGS 4778; CGL 6864.

675.21 Where notice of dishonor to be sent.—Where a party has added an address to his signature, notice of dishonor must be sent to that address; but if he has not given such address, then the notice must be sent as follows:

(1) Either to the post office nearest to his place of residence or to the post office where he is accustomed to receive his letters; or

(2) If he lives in one place and has his place of business in another, notice may be sent to either place; or

(3) If he is sojourning in another place, notice may be sent to the place where he is sojourning.

But where the notice is actually received by the party within the time specified in this law, it will be sufficient, though not sent in accordance with the requirements of this section.

History.—§108, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3035; RGS 4779; CGL 6865.

675.22 Notice of dishonor waived.—Notice of dishonor may be waived, either before the time of giving notice has arrived, or after the omission to give due notice, and the waiver may be express or implied.

Where the waiver is embodied in the instrument itself, it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an indorser, it binds him only.

A waiver of protest, whether in the case of a foreign bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument, is deemed to be a waiver, not only of a formal protest but also of presentment and notice of dishonor.

History.—§§109-111, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3036; RGS 4780; CGL 6866.

675.23 When dispensed with.—Notice of dishonor is dispensed with when after the exercise of reasonable diligence it cannot be given to or does not reach the parties sought to be charged.

History.—§112, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3037; RGS 4781; CGL 6867.

675.24 When delay excused.—Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, notice must be given with reasonable diligence.

History.—§113, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3038; RGS 4782; CGL 6868.

675.25 Where notice of dishonor not required.—(1) Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to the drawer in either of the following cases:

(a) Where the drawer and drawee are the same person.

(b) Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract.

(c) Where the drawer is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment.

(d) Where the drawer has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will honor the instrument.

(e) Where the drawer has countermanded payment.

(2) Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to an indorser in either of the following cases:

(a) Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract, and the indorser was aware of the fact at the time he indorsed the instrument.

(b) Where the indorser is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment.

(c) Where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation.

Where due notice of dishonor by nonacceptance has been given, notice of a subsequent dishonor by nonpayment is not necessary, unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted.

History.—§§114-116, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3039; RGS 4783; CGL 6869.

675.26 Omission to give notice of dishonor by nonacceptance.—An omission to give notice of dishonor by nonacceptance does not prejudice the rights of a holder in due course subsequent to the omission.

History.—§117, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3040; RGS 4784; CGL 6870; §1, ch. 19162, 1939.

675.27 Protesting for nonacceptance.—Where any negotiable instrument has been dishonored, it may be protested for nonacceptance or nonpayment, as the case may be; but protest is not required except in the case of foreign bills of exchange.

History.—§118, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3041; RGS 4785; CGL 6871.

675.28 How negotiable instruments discharged.—(1) A negotiable instrument is discharged:

(a) By payment in due course by or on behalf of the principal debtor.

(b) By payment in due course by the party accommodated, where the instrument is made or accepted for accommodation.

(c) By the intentional cancellation thereof by the holder.

(d) By any other act which will discharge a simple contract for the payment of money.

(e) When the principal debtor becomes the holder of the instrument at or after maturity, in his own right.

(2) A person secondarily liable on the instrument is discharged:

(a) By any act which discharges the instrument.

(b) By the intentional cancellation of his signature by the holder.

(c) By the discharge of a prior party.

(d) By a valid tender of payment made by a prior party.

(e) By a release of the principal debtor, unless the holder's right of recourse against the party secondarily liable is expressly reserved.

(f) By any agreement binding upon the holder to extend the time of payment, or to postpone the holder's right to enforce the instrument, unless made with the assent of the party secondarily liable, or unless the right of recourse against such party is expressly reserved.

History.—§§119, 120, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3042; RGS 4786; CGL 6872; §2, ch. 19162, 1939.

675.29 When not discharged.—When the instrument is paid by a party secondarily liable thereon, it is not discharged; but the party so paying it is remitted to his former rights as regards all prior parties, and he may strike out his own and all subsequent indorsements, and again negotiate the instrument, except:

(1) Where it is payable to the order of a third person, and has been paid by the drawer; and

(2) Where it was made or accepted for accommodation, and has been paid by the party accommodated.

History.—§121, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3045; RGS 4787; CGL 6873.

675.30 Renouncing rights.—The holder may expressly renounce his rights against any party to the instrument, before, at or after its maturity. An absolute and unconditional renunciation of his rights against the principal debtor, made at or after the maturity of the instrument, discharges the instrument. But a renunciation does not affect the rights of a holder in due course without notice. A renunciation must be in writing, unless the instrument is delivered up to the person primarily liable thereon.

History.—§122, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3044; RGS 4788; CGL 6874.

675.31 Unintentional cancellation.—A cancellation made unintentionally, or under a mistake, or without the authority of the holder, is inoperative; but where an instrument, or any signature thereon, appears to have been canceled, the burden of proof lies on the party who alleges that the cancellation was made unintentionally, or under a mistake or without authority.

History.—§123, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3045; RGS 4789; CGL 6875.

675.32 Materially altering instrument.—Where a negotiable instrument is materially altered without the assent of all parties liable thereto, it is voided, except as against a party who has himself made, authorized or assented to the alteration, and subsequent indorsers.

But when an instrument has been materially altered and is in the hands of a holder in due course, not a party to the alteration, he may enforce payment thereof according to its original tenor.

Any alteration which changes:

- (1) The date;
- (2) The sum payable, either for principal or interest;
- (3) The time or place of payment;
- (4) The number or the relations of the parties;
- (5) The medium or currency in which payment is to be made;

Or which adds a place of payment where no place of payment is specified, or any other change or addition which alters the effect of the instrument in any respect, is a material alteration.

History.—§§124, 125, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3046; RGS 4790; CGL 6876.

CHAPTER 676

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS; BILLS, NOTES, CHECKS, ACCEPTANCE, PROTEST, PAYMENT

- | | |
|--|---|
| 676.01 Bills of exchange. | 676.27 Acceptance for honor. |
| 676.02 Inland and foreign bills of exchange. | 676.28 Must be in writing. |
| 676.03 Drawer and drawee same person. | 676.29 Presumed for honor of drawer. |
| 676.04 Referee. | 676.30 Acceptor for honor liable to holder. |
| 676.05 Acceptance of bill. | 676.31 Date of maturity. |
| 676.06 Unconditional promise is acceptance. | 676.32 Acceptance of dishonored bill. |
| 676.07 Time allowed to accept. | 676.33 Presentment for payment. |
| 676.08 Drawee destroying bill. | 676.34 When delay in presentment excused. |
| 676.09 When bill may be accepted. | 676.35 Acceptor for honor. |
| 676.10 General and qualified acceptance. | 676.36 Payment for honor supra protest. |
| 676.11 Effect of qualified acceptance. | 676.37 Notarial act of honor. |
| 676.12 When presentment for acceptance must be made. | 676.38 Preference between parties offering to pay. |
| 676.13 When drawer and indorser discharged. | 676.39 When parties are discharged. |
| 676.14 When and to whom presentment must be made. | 676.40 When holder refuses to receive payment. |
| 676.15 When bill may be presented for acceptance. | 676.41 Whole of parts constitute one bill. |
| 676.16 When presentment excused. | 676.42 True owner of bill. |
| 676.17 When bill dishonored for nonacceptance. | 676.43 Liability of indorsers. |
| 676.18 Recourse to drawers and indorsers of dishonored bill. | 676.44 Acceptance. |
| 676.19 Protesting dishonored bill. | 676.45 Liability of acceptor. |
| 676.20 Manner of protest. | 676.46 When bill is discharged. |
| 676.21 When and where protested. | 676.47 Negotiable promissory note. |
| 676.22 Protest for nonpayment. | 676.48 Check. |
| 676.23 Acceptor adjudged bankrupt. | 676.49 When check must be presented for payment. |
| 676.24 When protest dispensed with. | 676.50 Certified check. |
| 676.25 Lost or destroyed bill. | 676.51 Holder of check. |
| 676.26 Damages. | 676.52 When bank becomes liable. |
| | 676.55 Checks and drafts; when deemed paid or accepted. |

676.01 Bills of exchange.—A bill of exchange is an unconditional order in writing addressed by one person to another, signed by the person giving it, requiring the person to whom it is addressed to pay, on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time, a sum certain in money to order or to bearer.

A bill of itself does not operate as an assignment of the funds in the hands of the drawee available for the payment thereof, and the drawee is not liable on the bill unless and until he accepts the same.

A bill may be addressed to two or more drawees jointly, whether they are partners or not; but not to two or more drawees in the alternative or in succession.

History.—§§126-128, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3047; RGS 4791; CGL 6877.

676.02 Inland and foreign bills of exchange.—

(1) An inland bill of exchange is a bill which is, or on its face purports to be, both drawn and payable within the United States. Any other bill is a foreign bill.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), "United States" means the states, territories, dependencies and possessions of the United States, the district of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

(3) Unless the contrary appears on the face of the bill, the holder may treat it as an inland bill.

History.—§129, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3048; RGS 4792; CGL 6878; §1, ch. 61-73.

676.03 Drawer and drawee same person.—Where in a bill drawer and drawee are the same person, or where the drawee is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity to contract, the holder may treat the instrument, at his option, either as a bill of exchange or a promissory note.

History.—§130, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3049; RGS 4793; CGL 6879.

676.04 Referee.—The drawer of a bill and any indorser may insert thereon the name of a person to whom the holder may resort in case of need—that is to say, in case the bill is dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. Such person is called the referee in case of need. It is in the option of the holder to resort to the referee in case of need or not, as he may see fit.

History.—§131, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3050; RGS 4794; CGL 6880.

676.05 Acceptance of bill.—The acceptance of a bill is the signification by the drawee or his assent to the order of the drawer. The acceptance must be in writing and signed by the drawee. It must not express that the drawee will perform his promise by any other means than the payment of money.

The holder of a bill presenting the same for acceptance may require that the acceptance be written on the bill, and if such request is refused, may treat the bill as dishonored.

Where an acceptance is written on a paper other than the bill itself, it does not bind the acceptor, except in favor of a person to whom it is shown, and who, on the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

History.—§§132-134, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3051; RGS 4795; CGL 6881.

676.06 Unconditional promise is acceptance.

—An unconditional promise in writing to accept a bill before it is drawn is deemed an actual acceptance in favor of every person who, upon the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

History.—§135, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3052; RGS 4796; CGL 6882.

676.07 Time allowed to accept.—The drawee is allowed twenty-four hours after presentment in which to decide whether or not he will accept the bill; but the acceptance, if given, dates as of the day of presentation.

History.—§136, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3053; RGS 4797; CGL 6883.

676.08 Drawee destroying bill.—Where a drawee to whom a bill is delivered for acceptance destroys the same, or refuses within twenty-four hours after such delivery, or within such other period as the holder may allow, to return the bill, accepted or nonaccepted, to the holder, he will be deemed to have accepted the same.

History.—§137, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3054; RGS 4798; CGL 6884.

676.09 When bill may be accepted.—A bill may be accepted before it has been signed by the drawer, or while otherwise incomplete, or when it is overdue, or after it has been dishonored by a previous refusal to accept, or by nonpayment. But when a bill payable after sight is dishonored by nonacceptance and the drawee subsequently accepts it, the holder, in the absence of any different agreement, is entitled to have the bill accepted as of the date of the first presentment.

History.—§138, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3055; RGS 4799; CGL 6885.

676.10 General and qualified acceptance.—An acceptance is either general or qualified. A general acceptance assents without qualification to the order of the drawer. A qualified acceptance in express terms varies the effect of the bill as drawn.

An acceptance to pay at a particular place is a general acceptance, unless it expressly states that the bill is to be paid there only and not elsewhere.

An acceptance is qualified which is:

(1) Conditional—that is to say, which makes payment by the acceptor dependent on the fulfillment of a condition therein stated.

(2) Partial—that is to say, an acceptance to pay part only of the amount for which the bill is drawn.

(3) Local—that is to say, an acceptance to pay only at a particular place.

(4) Qualified as to time.

(5) The acceptance of some one or more of the drawees, but not of all.

History.—§§139-141, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3056; RGS 4800; CGL 6886.

676.11 Effect of qualified acceptance.—The holder may refuse to take a qualified acceptance; and if he does not obtain an unqualified acceptance, he may treat the bill as dishonored by nonacceptance. Where a qualified acceptance is taken, the drawer and indorsers are discharged from liability on the bill, unless they have expressly or impliedly authorized the holder to take a qualified acceptance, or subsequently assent thereto. When the drawer or an indorser receives notice of a qualified acceptance, he must within a reasonable time express his dissent to the holder, or he will be deemed to have assented thereto.

History.—§142, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3057; RGS 4801; CGL 6887.

676.12 When presentment for acceptance must be made.—Presentment for acceptance must be made:

(1) Where the bill is payable after sight, or in any other case where presentment for acceptance is necessary in order to fix the maturity of the instrument; or

(2) Where the bill expressly stipulates that it shall be presented for acceptance; or

(3) Where the bill is drawn payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee.

In no other case is presentment for acceptance necessary in order to render any party to the bill liable.

History.—§143, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3058; RGS 4802; CGL 6888.

676.13 When drawer and indorser discharged.—Except as herein otherwise provided, the holder of a bill which is required by the next preceding section to be presented for acceptance must either present it for acceptance or negotiate it within a reasonable time. If he fails to do so, the drawer and all indorsers are discharged.

History.—§144, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3059; RGS 4803; CGL 6889.

676.14 When and to whom presentment must be made.—Presentment for acceptance must be made by or on behalf of the holder at a reasonable hour, on a business day and before the bill is overdue, to the drawee or some person authorized to accept or refuse acceptance on his behalf; and:

(1) Where a bill is addressed to two or more drawees who are not partners, presentment must be made to them all, unless one has authority to accept or refuse acceptance for all, in which case presentment may be made to him only;

(2) Where the drawee is dead, presentment may be made to his personal representative;

(3) Where the drawee has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, presentment may be made to him or his trustee or assignee.

History.—§145, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8060; RGS 4804; CGL 6890.

676.15 When bill may be presented for acceptance.—A bill may be presented for acceptance on any day on which negotiable instruments may be presented for payment under the provisions of §§674.75 and 675.03. When Saturday is not otherwise a holiday presentment for acceptance may be made before 12 o'clock noon that day.

History.—§146, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8061; RGS 4805; CGL 6891.
cf.—Ch. 683, Legal holidays.

676.16 When presentment excused.—Where the holder of a bill drawn payable elsewhere than at the place of business or the residence of the drawee has not time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to present the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment on the day that it falls due, the delay caused by presenting the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment is excused, and does not discharge the drawers and indorsers.

Presentment for acceptance is excused and a bill may be treated as dishonored by nonacceptance in either of the following cases:

(1) Where the drawee is dead, or has absconded, or is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity to contract by bill.

(2) Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presentment cannot be made.

(3) Where, although presentment has been irregular, acceptance has been refused on some other ground.

History.—§§147, 148, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8062; RGS 4806; CGL 6892.

676.17 When bill dishonored for nonacceptance.—A bill is dishonored by nonacceptance:

(1) When it is duly presented for acceptance and such an acceptance as is prescribed by this law is refused or cannot be obtained; or

(2) When presentment for acceptance is excused and the bill is not accepted.

Where a bill is duly presented for acceptance and is not accepted within the prescribed time, the person presenting it must treat the bill as dishonored by nonacceptance, or he loses the right of recourse against the drawer and indorsers.

History.—§§149, 150, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8063; RGS 4807; CGL 6893.

676.18 Recourse to drawers and indorsers of dishonored bill.—When a bill is dishonored by nonacceptance, an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and indorsers accrues to the holder, and no presentment for payment is necessary.

History.—§151, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8064; RGS 4808; CGL 6894.

676.19 Protesting dishonored bill.—Where a foreign bill appearing on its face to be such is dishonored by nonacceptance, it must be duly protested for nonacceptance, and where such a bill which has not previously been dishonored by nonacceptance is dishonored by nonpayment, it must be duly protested for nonpayment. If it is not so protested, the drawer and indorsers are discharged. Where a bill does not appear on its face to be a foreign bill, protest thereof in case of dishonor is unnecessary.

History.—§152, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8065; RGS 4809; CGL 6895.

676.20 Manner of protest.—(1) The protest must be annexed to the bill, or must contain a copy thereof, and must be under the hand and seal of the notary making it, and must specify:

(a) The time and place of presentment.

(b) The fact that presentment was made, and the manner thereof.

(c) The cause or reason for protesting the bill.

(d) The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found.

(2) Protest may be made by:

(a) A notary public; or

(b) By any respectable resident of the place where the bill is dishonored, in the presence of two or more credible witnesses.

History.—§§153, 154, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8066; RGS 4810; CGL 6896.

676.21 When and where protested.—When a bill is protested, such protest must be made on the day of its dishonor, unless delay is excused as herein provided. When a bill has been duly noted, the protest may be subsequently extended as of the date of the noting.

A bill must be protested at the place where it is dishonored, except that when a bill drawn payable at the place of business or residence of some person other than the drawee has been dishonored by nonacceptance, it must be protested for nonpayment at the place where it is expressed to be payable, and no further presentment for payment to, or demand on, the drawee is necessary.

History.—§§155, 156, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8067; RGS 4811; CGL 6897.

676.22 Protest for nonpayment.—A bill which has been protested for nonacceptance may be subsequently protested for nonpayment.

History.—§157, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8068; RGS 4812; CGL 6898.

676.23 Acceptor adjudged bankrupt.—Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors before the bill matures, the holder may cause the bill to be protested for better security against the drawer and indorsers.

History.—§158, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 8069; RGS 4813; CGL 6899.

676.24 When protest dispensed with.—Protest is dispensed with by any circumstances which would dispense with notice of dishonor. Delay in noting or protesting is excused when delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, the bill must be noted or protested with reasonable diligence.

History.—§159, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 6070; RGS 4814; CGL 6900.

676.25 Lost or destroyed bill.—Where a bill is lost or destroyed, or is wrongfully detained from the person entitled to hold it, protest may be made on a copy or written particulars thereof.

History.—§160, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 6071; RGS 4815; CGL 6901.

676.26 Damages.—Damages on foreign protested bills of exchange shall be at the rate of five per cent.

History.—Feb. 17, 1833; RS 2317; GS 3072; RGS 4816; CGL 6902.

676.27 Acceptance for honor.—Where a bill of exchange has been protested for dishonor by nonacceptance, or protested for better security, and is not overdue, any person not being a party already liable thereon may, with the consent of the holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the honor of any party liable thereon, or for the honor of the person for whose account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be for part only of the sum for which the bill is drawn; and where there has been an acceptance for honor for one party, there may be a further acceptance by a different person for the honor of another party.

History.—§161, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3073; RGS 4817; CGL 6903.

676.28 Must be in writing.—An acceptance for honor supra protest must be in writing, and indicate that it is an acceptance for honor, and must be signed by the acceptor for honor.

History.—§162, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3074; RGS 4818; CGL 6904.

676.29 Presumed for honor of drawer.—Where an acceptance for honor does not expressly state for whose honor it is made, it is deemed to be an acceptance for the honor of the drawer.

History.—§163, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3075; RGS 4819; CGL 6905.

676.30 Acceptor for honor liable to holder.—The acceptor for honor is liable to the holder and to all parties to the bill subsequent to the party for whose honor he has accepted.

The acceptor for honor by such acceptance engages that he will on due presentment pay the bill, according to the terms of its acceptance, provided it shall not have been paid by the drawee, and provided, also, that it shall have been duly presented for payment and protested for nonpayment and notice of dishonor given to him.

History.—§§164, 165, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3076; RGS 4820; CGL 6906.

676.31 Date of maturity.—Where a bill payable after sight is accepted for honor, its maturity is calculated from the date of the noting for nonacceptance, and not from the date of the acceptance for honor.

History.—§166, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3077; RGS 4821; CGL 6907.

676.32 Acceptance of dishonored bill.—Where a dishonored bill has been accepted for honor supra protest, or contains a reference in case of need, it must be protested for nonpayment before it is presented for payment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need.

History.—§167, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3078; RGS 4822; CGL 6908.

676.33 Presentment for payment.—Presentment for payment to the acceptor for honor must be made as follows:

(1) If it is to be presented in the place where the protest for nonpayment was made, it must be presented not later than the day following its maturity.

(2) If it is to be presented in some other place than the place where it was protested, then it must be forwarded within the time specified in §675.18.

History.—§168, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3079; RGS 4823; CGL 6909.

676.34 When delay in presentment excused.—Delay in making presentment for payment is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence.

History.—§169, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3080; RGS 4824; CGL 6910.

676.35 Acceptor for honor.—When the bill is dishonored by the acceptor for honor, it must be protested for nonpayment by him.

History.—§170, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3081; RGS 4825; CGL 6911.

676.36 Payment for honor supra protest.—Where a bill has been protested for nonpayment, any person may intervene and pay it supra protest for the honor of any person liable thereon or for the honor of the person for whose account it was drawn.

The payment for honor supra protest, in order to operate as such and not as a mere voluntary payment, must be attested by a notarial act of honor, which may be appended to the protest or form an extension to it.

History.—§§171, 172, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3082; RGS 4826; CGL 6912.

676.37 Notarial act of honor.—The notarial act of honor must be founded on a declaration made by the payer for honor, or by his agent in that behalf, declaring his intention to pay the bill for honor and for whose honor he pays.

History.—§173, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3083; RGS 4827; CGL 6913.

676.38 Preference between parties offering to pay.—Where two or more persons offer to pay a bill for the honor of different parties, the person whose payment will discharge most parties to the bill is to be given the preference.

History.—§174, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3084; RGS 4828; CGL 6914.

676.39 When parties are discharged.—Where a bill has been paid for honor, all parties subsequent to the party for whose honor it is paid are discharged; but the payer for honor is subrogated for and succeeds to both the rights and duties of the holder as regards the party for whose honor he pays and all parties liable to the latter.

History.—§175, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3085; RGS 4829; CGL 6915.

676.40 When holder refuses to receive payment.—Where the holder of a bill refuses to receive payment supra protest, he loses his right of recourse against any party who would have been discharged by such payment.

The payer for honor on paying to the holder the amount of the bill and the notarial expenses incidental to its dishonor is entitled to receive both the bill itself and the protest.

History.—§§176, 177, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3086; RGS 4830; CGL 6916.

676.41 Whole of parts constitute one bill.—Where a bill is drawn in a set, each part of the set being numbered and containing a reference to the other parts, the whole of the parts constitute one bill.

History.—§178, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3087; RGS 4831; CGL 6917.

676.42 True owner of bill.—Where two or more parts of a set are negotiated to different holders in due course the holder whose title first accrues is as between such holders the true owner of the bill. But nothing in this section affects the rights of a person who in due course accepts or pays the part first presented to him.

History.—§179, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3088; RGS 4832; CGL 6918.

676.43 Liability of indorsers.—Where the holder of a set indorses two or more parts to different persons, he is liable on every such part, and every indorser subsequent to him is liable on the part he has himself indorsed as if such parts were separate bills.

History.—§180, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3089; RGS 4833; CGL 6919.

676.44 Acceptance.—The acceptance may be written on any part, and it must be written on one part only. If the drawee accepts more than one part, and such accepted parts are negotiated to different holders in due course, he is liable on every such part as if it were a separate bill.

History.—§181, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3090; RGS 4834; CGL 6920.

676.45 Liability of acceptor.—When the acceptor of a bill drawn in a set pays it without requiring the part bearing his acceptance to be delivered up to him, and that part at maturity is outstanding in the hands of a holder in due course, he is liable to the holder thereon.

History.—§182, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3091; RGS 4835; CGL 6921.

676.46 When bill is discharged.—Except as herein otherwise provided, where any one part of a bill drawn in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise, the whole bill is discharged.

History.—§183, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3092; RGS 4836; CGL 6922.

676.47 Negotiable promissory note.—A negotiable promissory note within the meaning of this law is an unconditional promise in writing made by one person to another signed by the maker, engaging to pay on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time a sum certain in money to order or to bearer. Where a note is drawn to the maker's own order, it is not complete until indorsed by him.

History.—§184, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3093; RGS 4837; CGL 6923.

676.48 Check.—A check is a bill of exchange drawn on a bank payable on demand. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of this law applicable to a bill of exchange payable on demand apply to a check.

History.—§185, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3094; RGS 4838; CGL 6924.

676.49 When check must be presented for payment.—A check must be presented for payment within a reasonable time after its issue or the drawer will be discharged from liability thereon to the extent of the loss caused by the delay.

History.—§186, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3095; RGS 4839; CGL 6925.

676.50 Certified check.—Where a check is certified by the bank on which it is drawn, the certification is equivalent to an acceptance.

History.—§187, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3096; RGS 4840; CGL 6926.

676.51 Holder of check.—Where the holder of a check procures it to be accepted or certified, the drawer and all indorsers are discharged from liability thereon.

History.—§188, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3097; RGS 4841; CGL 6927.

676.52 When bank becomes liable.—A check of itself does not operate as an assignment of any part of the funds to the credit of the drawer with the bank; and the bank is not liable to the holder, unless and until it accepts or certifies the check.

History.—§189, ch. 4524, 1897; GS 3098; RGS 4842; CGL 6928.

676.55 Checks and drafts; when deemed paid or accepted.—A check or draft received for deposit or collection by a solvent payor or drawee bank shall not be deemed paid or accepted until the amount is charged to the account of the maker or drawer unless, though not so charged, such item is retained by the drawee or payor bank longer than the end of the business day following its receipt; provided, however, that even though charged to the account of the maker or drawer, the drawee or payor bank shall have the same right to return the item without payment by the end of the business day following the business day of its receipt as the bank would have had to return the item had the item not been so charged, and any item so returned shall be deemed dishonored and unpaid notwithstanding markings or notations thereon to the contrary, and the books of the bank may thereafter be corrected in due course; but this provision shall not of itself create or impose any obligation or requirement on any such bank to reverse any such charge at the instance of the maker, drawer, or any other person or party.

History.—§1, ch. 22609, 1945; §1, ch. 63-323.

CHAPTER 678

WAREHOUSEMEN AND WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

- 678.01 Persons who may issue receipts.
- 678.02 Form of receipts; essential terms.
- 678.03 Form of receipts; what terms may be inserted.
- 678.04 Definition of nonnegotiable receipts.
- 678.05 Definition of negotiable receipt.
- 678.06 Duplicate receipts must be so marked.
- 678.07 Failure to mark "not negotiable."
- 678.08 Obligation of warehouseman to deliver.
- 678.09 Justification of warehouseman in delivery.
- 678.10 Warehouseman's liability for misdelivery.
- 678.11 Negotiable receipts must be canceled when goods delivered.
- 678.12 Negotiable receipts must be canceled or marked when part of goods delivered.
- 678.13 Altered receipts.
- 678.14 Lost or destroyed receipts.
- 678.15 Effect of duplicate receipts.
- 678.16 Warehouseman cannot set up title in himself.
- 678.17 Interpleader of adverse claimants.
- 678.18 Warehouseman has reasonable time to determine validity of claims.
- 678.19 Adverse title is no defense except as above provided.
- 678.20 Liability for nonexistence or misdescription of goods.
- 678.21 Liability for care of goods.
- 678.22 Goods must be kept separate.
- 678.23 Fungible goods may be commingled, if warehouseman authorized.
- 678.24 Liability of warehouseman to depositors of commingled goods.
- 678.25 Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable receipt has been issued.
- 678.26 Creditors' remedies to reach negotiable receipts.
- 678.27 What claims are included in the warehouseman's lien.
- 678.28 Against what property the lien may be enforced.
- 678.29 How the lien may be lost.
- 678.29 How the lien may be lost.
- 678.30 Negotiable receipt must state charges for which lien is claimed.
- 678.31 Warehouseman need not deliver until lien is satisfied.
- 678.32 Warehouseman's lien does not preclude other remedies.
- 678.33 Satisfaction of lien by sale.
- 678.34 Perishable and hazardous goods.
- 678.35 Other methods of enforcing liens.
- 678.36 Effect of sale.
- 678.37 Sale of goods under specified circumstances.
- 678.38 Disposition of surplus.
- 678.39 Negotiation of negotiable receipts by delivery.
- 678.40 Negotiation of negotiable receipts by indorsement.
- 678.41 Transfer of receipts.
- 678.42 Who may negotiate a receipt.
- 678.43 Rights of person to whom a receipt has been negotiated.
- 678.44 Rights of person to whom a receipt has been transferred.
- 678.45 Transfer of negotiable receipt without indorsement.
- 678.46 Warranties on sale of receipt.
- 678.47 Indorser not a guarantor.
- 678.48 No warranty implied from accepting payment of a debt.
- 678.49 When negotiation not impaired by fraud, mistake or duress.
- 678.50 Subsequent negotiation.
- 678.51 Negotiation defeats vendor's lien.
- 678.52 When rules of common law still applicable.
- 678.53 Interpretation shall give effect to purpose of uniformity.
- 678.54 Definition.
- 678.55 Issuance and transfer of warehouse receipts for goods not in warehouse.
- 678.551 Issuance and transfer of receipt by custodian of field warehouse; penalty.
- 678.56 Issue of receipt containing false statement.
- 678.57 Issue of duplicate receipt not so marked.
- 678.58 Issue for warehouseman's goods of receipts which do not state that fact.
- 678.59 Delivery of goods without obtaining negotiable receipt.
- 678.60 Negotiation of receipt for mortgaged goods.

678.01 Persons who may issue receipts.—Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman.

History.—§1, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4833; CGL 6970.

678.02 Form of receipts; essential terms.—

(1) Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms—

(a) The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored.

(b) The date of the issue of the receipt.

(c) The consecutive number of the receipt.

(d) A statement where the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or a specified person or his order.

(e) The rate of storage charges.

(f) A description of the goods or of the packages containing them.

(g) The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent.

(h) If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and

(i) A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

(2) A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damage caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required.

History.—§2, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4884; CGL 6971.

678.03 Form of receipts; what terms may be inserted.—A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not—

(1) Be contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) In any wise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safekeeping of the goods intrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

History.—§3, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4885; CGL 6972.

678.04 Definition of nonnegotiable receipts.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a nonnegotiable receipt.

History.—§4, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4886; CGL 6973.

678.05 Definition of negotiable receipt.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such receipt, is a negotiable receipt.

No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is nonnegotiable. Such provision, if inserted, shall be void.

History.—§5, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4887; CGL 6974.

678.06 Duplicate receipts must be so marked.—When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do, to any one who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt.

History.—§6, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4888; CGL 6975.

678.07 Failure to mark "not negotiable."—A nonnegotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it, "nonnegotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable.

This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character.

History.—§7, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4889; CGL 6976.

678.08 Obligation of warehouseman to deliver.—

(1) A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this chapter, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with—

(a) An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien.

(b) An offer to surrender the receipt, if negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt, and

(c) A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the warehouseman.

(2) In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal.

History.—§8, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4890; CGL 6977.

678.09 Justification of warehouseman in delivery.—

A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods, subject to the provisions of the three following sections, to one who is—

(1) The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent.

(2) A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a nonnegotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has written authority from the person so entitled, either indorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper, or

(3) A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate or immediate indorsee.

History.—§9, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4891; CGL 6978.

678.10 Warehouseman's liability for misdelivery.—

Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subsections (1) and (2) of §678.09, and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subsections he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either—

(1) Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or

(2) Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.

History.—§10, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4892; CGL 6979.

678.11 Negotiable receipts must be canceled when goods delivered.—Except as provided in §678.36, when a warehouseman delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman.

History.—§11, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4893; CGL 6980.

678.12 Negotiable receipts must be canceled or marked when part of goods delivered.—Except as provided in §678.36, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman.

History.—§12, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4894; CGL 6981.

678.13 Altered receipts.—

(1) The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was—

- (a) Immaterial,
- (b) Authorized, or
- (c) Made without fraudulent intent.

(2) If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as they were before alteration.

(3) Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase.

History.—§13, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4895; CGL 6982.

678.14 Lost or destroyed receipts.—Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction, and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also, in its discretion, order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

The delivery of the goods under an order of the court, as provided in this section, shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

History.—§14, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4896; CGL 6983.

678.15 Effect of duplicate receipts.—A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability.

History.—§15, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4897; CGL 6984.

678.16 Warehouseman cannot set up title in himself.—No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

History.—§16, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4898; CGL 6985.

678.17 Interpleader of adverse claimants.—If more than one person claim the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

History.—§17, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4899; CGL 6986.

678.18 Warehouseman has reasonable time to determine validity of claims.—If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him, or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead.

History.—§18, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4900; CGL 6987.

678.19 Adverse title is no defense except as above provided.—Except as provided in §§678.09, 678.17, 678.18 and 678.36, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

History.—§19, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4901; CGL 6988.

678.20 Liability for nonexistence or misdescription of goods.—A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt, issued by him or on his behalf by an agent or employee the scope of whose actual or apparent authority includes the issuing of warehouse receipts, for damages caused by the nonexistence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that the packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor.

History.—§20, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4902; CGL 6989; am. §1, ch. 23967, 1947.

678.21 Liability for care of goods.—A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

History.—§21, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4903; CGL 6990.

678.22 Goods must be kept separate.—Except as provided in the following section, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the goods deposited.

History.—§22, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4904; CGL 6991.

678.23 Fungible goods may be commingled, if warehouseman authorized.—If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common, and each depositor shall be entitled to such proportion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole.

History.—§23, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4905; CGL 6992.

678.24 Liability of warehouseman to depositors of commingled goods.—The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and redelivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate.

History.—§24, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4906; CGL 6993.

678.25 Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable receipt has been issued.—If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they cannot thereafter, while in the possession of the warehouseman, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouseman, or its negotiation enjoined. The warehouseman shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to him or impounded by the court.

History.—§25, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4907; CGL 6994.

678.26 Creditors' remedies to reach negotiable receipts.—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction and otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

History.—§26, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4908; CGL 6995.

678.27 What claims are included in the warehouseman's lien.—Subject to the provisions of §678.30, a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the proceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, cooperating, and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all reasonable charges and expenses for notice and advertisements of sale, and for sale of the goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien.

History.—§27, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4909; CGL 6996.

678.28 Against what property the lien may be enforced.—Subject to the provisions of §678.30, a warehouseman's lien may be enforced—

(1) Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, and

(2) Against all goods belonging to others which have been deposited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, if such person had been so entrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same by him at the time of the deposit, to one who took the goods in good faith for value, would have been valid.

History.—§28, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4910; CGL 6997.

678.29 How the lien may be lost.—A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods—

(1) By surrendering possession thereof, or

(2) By refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§29, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4911; CGL 6998.

678.30 Negotiable receipt must state charges for which lien is claimed.—If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of §678.27, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt.

History.—§30, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4912; CGL 6999.

678.31 Warehouseman need not deliver until lien is satisfied.—A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied.

History.—§31, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4913; CGL 7000.

678.32 Warehouseman's lien does not preclude other remedies.—Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay.

History.—§32, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4914; CGL 7001.

678.33 Satisfaction of lien by sale.—

A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows:

The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified. The notice shall contain:

(1) An itemized statement of the warehouseman's claim, showing the sum due at the time of the notice, and the date or dates when it became due.

(2) A brief description of the goods against which the lien exists.

(3) A demand that the amount of the claim as stated in the notice, and of such further claim as shall accrue, shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than ten days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination, according to the due course of post, if the notice is sent by mail, and

(4) A statement that unless the claim is paid within the time specified, the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

In accordance with the term of a notice so given, a sale of the goods by auction may be had to satisfy any valid claim of the warehouseman for which he has a lien on the goods. The sale shall be had in the place where the lien was acquired, or if such place is manifestly unsuitable for the purpose, at the nearest suitable place. After the time for the payment of the claim specified in the notice to the depositor has elapsed, an advertisement of the sale, describing the goods to be sold, and stating the name of the owner or person on whose account the goods are held, and the time and place of the sale, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the place where such sale is to be held. The sale shall not be held less than fifteen days from the time of the first publication. If there is no newspaper published in such place, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before such sale in not less than six conspicuous places therein.

From the proceeds of such sale the warehouseman shall satisfy his lien including the reasonable charges of notice, advertisement and sale. The balance, if any, of such proceeds shall be held by the warehouseman, and delivered on demand to the person to whom he would have been bound to deliver or justified in delivering the goods.

At any time before the goods are so sold any person claiming a right of property or possession therein may pay the warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien and to pay the reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred in serving notices and advertising and preparing for the sale up to the time of such payment. The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making such payment if he is a person entitled, under the provisions of this chapter, to the possession of the goods on payment of charges thereon. Otherwise the warehouse shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the original contract of deposit.

History.—§33, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4915; CGL 7002.
cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

678.34 Perishable and hazardous goods.—

If goods are of a perishable nature, or by keeping will deteriorate greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or explosive nature, will be liable to injure other property, the warehouseman may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods, and to remove them from the warehouse, and in the event of the failure of such person to satisfy the lien and to remove the goods within the time so specified, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertising. If the warehouseman, after a reasonable effort, is unable to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner, and shall incur no liability by reason thereof.

The proceeds of any sale made under the terms of this section shall be disposed of in the same way as the proceeds of sale made under the terms of §678.33.

History.—§34, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4916; CGL 7003.

678.35 Other methods of enforcing liens.—The remedy for enforcing a lien herein provided does not preclude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of the warehouseman's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the sale of the property.

History.—§35, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4917; CGL 7004.

678.36 Effect of sale.—After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature the warehouseman shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or owner of the goods, or to the holder of the receipt given for the goods when they were deposited, even if such receipt be negotiable.

History.—§36, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4918; CGL 7005.

678.37 Sale of goods under specified circumstances.—Warehousemen and wharfingers may sell at public auction all goods, wares and merchandise or other articles commonly designated as "perishable," such as fruits, vegetables, meats and so forth, that shall have been received by them, remaining on hand unclaimed for the space of not less than ten days, and all goods, wares and merchandise, or other articles not perishable, that shall have been received by them and remaining on hand unclaimed for the space of not less than ninety days, but such sale shall, in no instance, take place without previous notice having been first given for at least two days after the expiration of said ten days, or more, in the case of perishable goods, wares and merchandise or other articles, or for at least thirty days after the expiration of ninety days, or more, in the case of goods, wares and merchandise, or other articles that are not perishable, said previous notice to be given in one newspaper published at the place of sale, designating the time and place of sale. If there is no newspaper published at the place of said sale, wherein the legal notice can be given, then public notice may be given by five written notices posted in conspicuous places near the place of sale. The owner or consignee of such goods, wares and merchandise or other articles, may at any time prior to such sale come forward and claim the same, and after paying all charges be entitled to restitution.

History.—§1, ch. 1943, 1873; RS 2339; GS 3127; RGS 4919; CGL 7006.

678.38 Disposition of surplus.—After all charges upon said goods and merchandise or other articles are paid (not exceeding the ordinary mercantile charges for such locality), should there remain a surplus, the same shall be placed in the county treasury subject to the claim of the owner of said goods, wares and merchandise, or other articles. After the lapse of one year from the time of placing said surplus in the county treasury, should no person come forward to claim and receive the same, it shall be applied by the county commissioners of the county for the relief of the poor of such county.

History.—§52, 3, ch. 1943, 1873; RS 2340; GS 3128; RGS 4920; CGL 7007.

678.39 Negotiation of negotiable receipts by delivery.—

A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by delivery—

(1) Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or

(2) Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the receipt has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

(3) Where, by the terms of a negotiable receipt, the goods are deliverable to bearer or where a negotiable receipt has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the receipt shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee.

History.—§37, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4921; CGL 7008.

678.40 Negotiation of negotiable receipts by indorsement.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are, by the terms of the receipt, deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer, or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiations may be made in like manner.

History.—§38, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4922; CGL 7009.

678.41 Transfer of receipts.—A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee.

A nonnegotiable receipt cannot be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a receipt gives the transferee no additional right.

History.—§39, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4923; CGL 7010.

678.42 Who may negotiate a receipt.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated—

(1) By the owner thereof, or

(2) By any person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been entrusted by the owner, if by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been entrusted or if at the time of such entrusting the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

History.—§40, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4924; CGL 7011.

678.43 Rights of person to whom a receipt has been negotiated.—A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby—

(1) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

(2) The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him.

History.—§41, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4925; CGL 7012.

678.44 Rights of person to whom a receipt has been transferred.—A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated acquires thereby, as against the transferer, the title of the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferer.

If the receipt is nonnegotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt.

Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferer or transferee of a non-negotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferer, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferer or a subsequent purchaser from the transferer of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferer.

History.—§42, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4926; CGL 7013; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

678.45 Transfer of negotiable receipt without indorsement.—Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferer is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferer to compel him to indorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

History.—§43, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4927; CGL 7014.

678.46 Warranties on sale of receipt.—A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

- (1) That the receipt is genuine.
- (2) That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it.
- (3) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and
- (4) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby.

History.—§44, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4928; CGL 7015.

678.47 Indorser not a guarantor.—The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfill their respective obligations.

History.—§45, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4929; CGL 7016.

678.48 No warranty implied from accepting payment of a debt.—A mortgagee, pledgee, or holder for security of a receipt, who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described.

History.—§46, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4930; CGL 7017.

678.49 When negotiation not impaired by fraud, mistake or duress.—The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the receipt was induced by fraud, mistake or duress to entrust the possession or custody of the receipt to such person, if the person to whom the receipt was negotiated or a person to whom the receipt was subsequently negotiated, paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake or duress.

History.—§47, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4931; CGL 7018.
Am. §24, ch. 57-1.

678.50 Subsequent negotiation.—Where a person having sold, mortgaged or pledged goods which are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged or pledged the negotiable receipt representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage or pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation.

History.—§48, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4932; CGL 7019.

678.51 Negotiation defeats vendor's lien.—Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the right of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the warehouseman be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation.

History.—§49, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4933; CGL 7020.

678.52 When rules of common law still applicable.—In any case not provided for in this chapter, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall govern.

History.—§56, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4934; CGL 7021.

678.53 Interpretation shall give effect to purpose of uniformity.—This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—§57, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4935; CGL 7022.

678.54 Definition.—In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

"Action" includes counter claim, setoff, and suit in equity.

"Delivery" means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another.

"Fungible goods" means goods of which any unit is, from its nature or by mercantile custom, treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

"Goods" means chattels or merchandise in storage, or which has been or is about to be stored.

"Holder" of a receipt means a person who has both actual possession of such receipt and a right of property therein.

"Order" means an order by indorsement on the receipt.

"Owner" does not include mortgagee or pledgee.

"Person" includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

To "purchase" includes to take as mortgagee or as pledgee.

"Purchaser" includes mortgagee and pledgee.

"Receipt" means a warehouse receipt.

"Value" is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing obligation, whether for money or not, constitutes value where a receipt is taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

"Warehouseman" means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods for profit.

A thing is done "in good faith" within the meaning of this chapter when it is in fact done honestly, whether it be done negligently or not.

History.—§58, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 4936; CGL 7023.
cf.—§1.01, General definitions.

678.55 Issuance and transfer of warehouse receipts for goods not in warehouse.—No warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, shall issue, or aid in the issuance of a warehouse receipt, and no person shall sell, assign, transfer, or pledge any warehouse receipt, except recognized lending agencies, unless he personally knows of his own knowledge that the goods for which such receipt is issued have been actually received and stored in such warehouse, and are under the actual control of such warehouseman at the time of the issuance of such receipt, or at the time such warehouse receipt is sold, assigned, transferred, or pledged. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction, shall be punished for each such offense by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—§50, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 5673; CGL 7883.
Am. §1, ch. 28237, 1953.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

678.551 Issuance and transfer of receipt by custodian of field warehouse; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for the custodian of a field warehouse to issue a custodian's certificate or receipt, and it shall be unlawful for a processor, owner of goods, or any other person to procure the issuance of such custodian's certificate or receipt, unless the goods for which such certificate is issued, are actually in existence and have been delivered to such custodian, and are in his physical possession and under his control. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction, shall be punished for each such offense by imprisonment in the state prison for a period not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 28237, 1953.

678.56 Issue of receipt containing false statement.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who fraudulently issues or aids in fraudulently issuing a receipt for goods knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§51, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 5674; CGL 7884.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

678.57 Issue of duplicate receipt not so marked.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods, knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word "duplicate," except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt, after proceedings as provided for in §678.14, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—§52, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 5675; CGL 7885.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

678.58 Issue for warehouseman's goods of receipts which do not state that fact.—Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouseman goods of which he is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, such warehouseman, or any of his officers, agents, or servants, who, knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods which does not state such ownership, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§53, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 5676; CGL 7886.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

678.59 Delivery of goods without obtaining negotiable receipt.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouseman, knowing that a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of such goods, is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining the possession of such receipt at or before the time of such delivery, shall, except in the cases provided for in §§678.14 and 678.36, be found guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§54, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 5677; CGL 7887.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

678.60 Negotiation of receipt for mortgaged goods.—Any person who deposits goods to which he has not title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable receipt which he afterwards negotiates for value and with intent to deceive, and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§55, ch. 7403, 1917; RGS 5678; CGL 7888.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

CHAPTER 683

LEGAL HOLIDAYS

683.01 Legal holidays designated.

683.02 Meaning of term "legal holidays" as used in contracts.

683.03 Veterans' day.

683.04 Arbor day.

683.01 Legal holidays designated.—

(1) The legal holidays are: the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday; the first day of January, New year's day; January 19, birthday of Robert E. Lee; February 22, Washington's birthday; April 26, Confederate memorial day; May 30, Memorial day for veterans of all wars; June 3, birthday of Jefferson Davis; July 4, Independence day; first Monday in September, Labor day; general election day; the day set apart each year by congress or the president of the United States, or, in the absence of the designation of a day by either congress or the president, the day set apart each year by the governor of Florida, Thanksgiving day; December 25, Christmas day; Good Friday; October 12, Columbus day and Farmers' day; November 11, Veterans' day; and in cities or towns where carnival associations are organized for the purpose of celebrating the same, the day in each year known as Shrove Tuesday, shall for all purposes whatsoever as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance and of the protesting and giving notice of dishonor of negotiable instruments, be treated and considered as public holidays.

(2) Whenever any legal holiday shall fall upon a Sunday, the Monday next following shall be deemed a public holiday for all and any of the purposes aforesaid.

History.—RS 2315, 2316; §1, ch. 4198, 1893; §1, ch. 4487, 1895; §1, ch. 4488, 1895; §1, ch. 5275, 1903; §1, ch. 5392, 1905; GS 3102; §1, ch. 6872, 1915; RGS 4846; CGL 6932; §1, ch. 16067, 1933; §1, ch. 20250, 1941; §1, ch. 20525, 1941; am. §1, ch. 22610, 1945; §1, ch. 29926, 1955.

683.02 Meaning of term "legal holidays" as used in contracts.—Wherever in contracts to be performed in the state, reference is made to "legal holidays," legal holidays shall be understood to be the following:

The first day of the week, Sunday; January 1, New year's day; January 19, birthday of Robert E. Lee; February 22, Washington's birthday; April 26, Memorial day; June 3, birthday of Jefferson Davis; July 4, Independence day; first Monday in September, Labor day; general election days; Thanksgiving day; December 25, Christmas day; Good Friday; October 12, Columbus day and Farmers' day; November 11, Veterans' day; and also the day known as Shrove Tuesday, commonly known as Mardi Gras in counties where there may be a carnival association.

History.—§1, ch. 5392, 1905; ch. 6872, 1915; RGS 4847; CGL 6933; §2, ch. 16067, 1933; §2, ch. 29926, 1955.

683.03 Veterans' day.—The eleventh day of November each year shall be known as Veterans' day, and shall be a legal holiday. All public 683.05 Pan-American day.

683.06 Pascua Florida day.

683.07 Memorial day, state legal holiday.

683.08 Gasparilla day, legal holiday in Hillsborough County.

schools, city, county, and state offices may remain closed on Veterans' day, and the governor of this state shall each year issue a proclamation calling upon the citizens of this state to set aside all business and to rejoice with the free peoples of the earth.

History.—§1, ch. 7754, 1918; RGS 4848; §1, ch. 9326, 1923; CGL 6934; §3, ch. 29926, 1955.

683.04 Arbor day.—The third Friday in January of each year be and is hereby designated as Arbor Day in the state.

History.—§1, ch. 22538, 1945.

683.05 Pan-American day.—

(1) The governor shall proclaim the fourteenth day of April of each year to be "Pan-American Day," which day shall be suitably observed in the public schools of the state as a day honoring the republics of Latin America, and which day shall otherwise be suitably observed by such public exercises in the state capitol and elsewhere as the governor may designate. If the fourteenth day of April shall fall on a day which is not a school day, "Pan-American Day" shall be observed in the schools on the school day next preceding or on such preceding day as may be designated by local school authorities.

(2) The purpose of the law is to establish a day on which the mutually, friendly relationship between the state and the Pan-American Republics will be recognized and perpetuated.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 22975, 1945.

683.06 Pascua Florida day.—

(1) April 2 of each year is hereby designated as Florida state day. The day to be known as "Pascua Florida Day."

(2) The governor may annually issue a proclamation designating April 2 as said state day and designating the week of March 27 to April 2 as "Pascua Florida" week at the suggestion of Mary A. Harrell, and calling upon public schools and citizens of Florida to observe the same as a patriotic occasion. Said day will be observed on April 2 unless the day fall on Saturday or Sunday, in which event the governor may declare the preceding Friday or following Monday as state day.

History.—Comp. § § 1, 2, ch. 28063, 1953.

683.07 Memorial day, state legal holiday.—

(1) The governor shall proclaim May 30 of each year to be Memorial day which day shall be suitably observed by the schools of the state as a day honoring the American soldiers of all wars who have given their last full measure of devotion to their country.

(2) The governor shall issue a proclamation each year on May 30 calling upon the people of Florida to set aside all business for the proper observance of this day.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 29682, 1955.

683.08 Gasparilla day, legal holiday in Hillsborough county.—The day known and designated as Gasparilla day in Hillsborough county shall be a legal holiday within said county, and all city, county, and state offices, and banking institutions may remain closed on Gasparilla day.

History.—§1, ch. 63-419.

CHAPTER 685

COLLATERAL SECURITIES

685.01 Collaterals attached to bills of lading, etc.

685.02 Sale of collateral securities.

685.01 Collaterals attached to bills of lading, etc.—Whenever any goods, wares or merchandise shall be shipped into or out of this state, or between points within the limits of the state, and the bill of lading or other evidence of shipment thereof shall be attached to, or transmitted with, any commercial paper, for the price or purchase money of such goods, or any part thereof, the collector or holder of such commercial paper shall not, under any circumstances, except by express contract in writing, be held to be the warrantor of the quality or quantity or title of the goods, wares or merchandise represented by the bill of lading, or other evidence of shipment.

History.—§1, ch. 4760, 1899; GS 3100; RGS 4844; CGL 6930.

685.02 Sale of collateral securities.—In all cases in which any stock in a corporation, contract, obligations, security or evidence of indebtedness, shall be pledged or deposited as security for the payment of any indebtedness, the person or corporation to whom the same may be pledged, hypothecated or transferred, and their assigns, may sell the same in such manner and on such terms as may be agreed upon in writing by the parties at the time of making the pledge, or thereafter, and such sale shall vest in the purchaser or purchasers the title in and to said pledges, collaterals or securities; provided ten days' notice of said sale be given to the pledgor or his legal representative by personal delivery or by registered mail addressed to the pledgor at the address given by him to the pledgee for that purpose, such period of notice to begin to run from the date of such personal delivery or from the date of posting if such notice is given by registered mail; and provided further that whenever such notice has been waived by the written agreement of the pledgor incorporated in said pledge, or in a separate written instrument executed at the time of or at any time after the making of such pledge, any stocks, bonds or other securities which are listed upon the New York stock exchange, the New York curb exchange, the Boston stock exchange, the Chicago stock exchange, the Philadelphia stock exchange, the Pittsburgh stock exchange, or the San Francisco stock exchange, may be sold by the pledgee without notice at a price not less than the lowest market price of such securities on the date of such sale.

History.—§1, ch. 4376, 1895; GS 3101; §1, ch. 5905, 1909; RGS 4845; CGL 6931; §1, ch. 19013, 1939; am. §1, ch. 23761, 1947.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

CHAPTER 687

INTEREST AND USURY

- 687.01 Rate of interest.
 687.02 Usurious contracts defined.
 687.03 Unlawful rates of interest defined; proviso.
 687.031 Construction, §§687.02 and 687.03.
 687.04 Penalty for usury; not to apply to transferee of negotiable paper unless usury appears on face.
 687.05 Provisions for payment of attorney's fees.
 687.06 Attorney's fee in enforcing nonusurious contracts; proviso; insurance premiums; attorney's fee provided in note.

- 687.07 Forfeiture and penalty in case of excessive interest or charges.
 687.08 Persons lending money to give borrower receipt for payments; contents of receipt; penalty for violation.
 687.09 Persons accepting chattel mortgage as security for loans under one hundred dollars to cause amount as principal, etc., to be inserted.
 687.10 Not applicable to chartered banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, or insurance companies.

687.01 Rate of interest.—In all cases where interest shall accrue without a special contract for the rate thereof, the rate shall be six per cent per annum, but parties may contract for a lesser or greater rate by contract in writing.

History.—§1, ch. 1483, 1866; §1, 2, ch. 1562, 1886; RS 2320; GS 3103; RGS 4849; CGL 6936; am. §1, ch. 22745, 1945. cf.—§§55.03, 55.04 Judgments.

687.02 Usurious contracts defined.—All contracts, other than of a corporation, for the payment of interest upon loan, advance of money, or forbearance to enforce the collection of any debt, or upon any contract whatever at a higher rate of interest than ten per cent per annum, are hereby declared usurious; and any such contract whereby a corporation undertakes to pay an interest rate higher than fifteen per cent per annum is hereby declared usurious.

History.—§1, ch. 4022, 1891; GS 3104; §1, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4850; CGL 6937; §1, ch. 29705, 1955.
cf.—Ch. 516, Small Loan Business.

§665.161, Collection of fines, interest or premium on loans made by building and loan associations.

687.03 Unlawful rates of interest defined; proviso.—It shall be usury and unlawful for any person, or for any agent, officer or other representative of any person, to reserve, charge or take for any loan, or for any advance of money, or for forbearance to enforce the collection of any sum of money, except upon an obligation of a corporation, a rate of interest greater than ten per cent per annum, either directly or indirectly, by way of commission for advances, discounts, exchange, or by any contract, contrivance or device whatever, whereby the debtor is required or obligated to pay a sum of money greater than the actual principal sum received, together with interest at the rate of ten per cent; and such transactions with a corporation shall, whereby the corporation pays interest, be usury and unlawful if for a rate of interest greater than fifteen per cent per annum. The provisions of this section shall not apply to sales of bonds in excess of one hundred dollars and mortgages securing the same, or money loaned on bonds.

History.—§2, ch. 4022, 1891; GS 3105; §2, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4851; CGL 6938. §2, ch. 29705, 1955.
cf.—§1.01(3), "Person" defined.

687.031 Construction, §§687.02 and 687.03.—Sections 687.02 and 687.03 shall not be construed to repeal, modify or limit any or either of the special provisions of existing statutory law creating exceptions to the general law governing interest and usury (chapter 687) and specifying the interest rates and charges which may be made pursuant to such exceptions, including but not limited to those exceptions which relate to banks, Morris plan banks, discount consumer financing, small loan companies and domestic building and loan associations.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 29705, 1955.

687.04 Penalty for usury; not to apply to transferee of negotiable paper unless usury appears on face.—Any person, or any agent, officer or other representative of any person, willfully violating the provisions of §687.03 shall forfeit the entire interest so charged, or contracted to be charged or reserved, and only the actual principal sum of such usurious contract can be enforced in any court in this state, either at law or in equity; and when said usurious interest is taken or reserved, or has been paid, then and in that event the person, who has taken or reserved, or has been paid, either directly or indirectly, such usurious interest, shall forfeit to the party from whom such usurious interest has been reserved, taken or exacted in any way, double the amount of interest so reserved, taken or exacted; provided, however, that this shall not apply to a bona fide endorsee or transferee of negotiable paper purchased before maturity, unless the usurious character should appear upon its face, or that the said endorsee or transferee shall have had actual notice of the same before the purchase of such paper, but in such event double the amount of such usurious interest may be recovered after payment, by action against the party originally exacting the same, in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state, together with an attorney's fee, as provided in §687.06.

History.—§3, ch. 4022, 1891; GS 3106; §3, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4852; CGL 6939.

687.05 Provisions for payment of attorney's fees.—No provision for the payment of attorney's fees, or charge for exchange or similar charge shall render such instrument subject to the terms of any statute of this state, limiting the amount of interest which shall be charged on such instrument.

History.—§2, ch. 4374, 1895; GS 3107; RGS 4853; CGL 6940.

687.06 Attorney's fee in enforcing non-usurious contracts; proviso; insurance premiums; attorney's fee provided in note.—This chapter shall not be so construed as to prevent provision for the payment of such attorney's fees as the court may determine in cases brought before the court to be reasonable and just for legal services rendered in enforcing nonusurious contracts, either at law or in equity; provided, that no attorney's fees shall be allowed in any court of the justice of the peace for a sum to exceed five dollars; provided further, that this chapter shall not be construed so as to prohibit mortgagees from contracting for or collecting premiums for insurance actually issued on the property mortgaged, with the usual loss payable or mortgage clause attached thereto; provided further, that it shall not be necessary for the court to adjudge an attorney's fee, provided in any note or other instrument of writing, to be reasonable and just, when such fee does not exceed ten per cent of the principal sum named in said note, or other instrument in writing.

History.—§4, ch. 5960, 1909; §1, ch. 6870, 1915; RGS 4854; CGL 6941.

687.07 Forfeiture and penalty in case of excessive interest or charges.—Any person, or the agent, officer or other representative of any person, lending money in this state who shall willfully and knowingly charge or accept any sum of money greater than the sum of money loaned, and an additional sum of money equal to twenty-five per cent per annum upon the principal sum loaned, by any contract, contrivance or device whatever, directly or indirectly, by way of commissions, discount, exchange, interest, pretended sale of any article, assignment of salary or wages, inspection fees or other fees or otherwise, or for forbearing to enforce the collection of such moneys or otherwise, shall forfeit the entire sum, both the principal and interest, to the party charged such usurious interest, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than ninety days.

History.—§5, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4855, 5689; CGL 6942, 7903.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

687.08 Persons lending money to give borrower receipt for payments; contents of receipt; penalty for violation.—Every person, or the agent, officer, or other representative of any person, lending money in this state upon security shall, whenever the borrower of such money makes payment of any money, either principal or interest, immediately upon such payment being made, give to said borrower, a receipt, dated of the date of such payment, which receipt shall state the amount paid and for what such payments is made. If such payment is for interest on the sum borrowed, the receipt shall so state. If the sum so paid is to be applied to the payment of the principal sum borrowed, the receipt shall so state. All such receipts shall be duly and properly signed by the person, or the agent, officer or other representative of the person, to whom such money is paid. Whoever refuses, upon demand, to give a receipt complying with the requirements of this section shall forfeit the entire interest upon said principal sum to the borrower.

History.—§6, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4856; CGL 6943.

cf.—§1.01(3) "Person" defined.

687.09 Persons accepting chattel mortgage as security for loans under one hundred dollars to cause amount as principal, etc., to be inserted.—Every mortgagee accepting a mortgage on personal property as security for the repayment of a loan of money less than one hundred dollars shall cause to be stated in such mortgage, separately and distinctly, the several amounts secured as principal, interest and fees, and any mortgagee willfully violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit all interest and fees secured by such mortgage, and be entitled to recover only the principal sum.

History.—§7, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4857; CGL 6944.

687.10 Not applicable to chartered banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, or insurance companies.—The provisions of §§687.08 and 687.09 shall not apply to chartered banks, state or national, trust companies, building and loan associations or to savings and loan associations, whether chartered under state or federal statutes, or insurance companies.

History.—§8, ch. 5960, 1909; RGS 4858; CGL 6945; §1, ch. 59-50.

TITLE XXXIX

REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

CHAPTER 689

CONVEYANCES OF LAND AND DECLARATIONS OF TRUST

- 689.01 How real estate conveyed.
- 689.02 Form of warranty deed prescribed.
- 689.03 Effect of such deed.
- 689.04 How executed.
- 689.05 How declarations of trust proved.
- 689.06 How trust estate conveyed.
- 689.07 "Trustee" or "as trustee" added to name of grantee, transferee, assignee or mortgagee transfers interest or creates lien as if additional word or words not used.
- 689.071 Land trusts transferring interests in real estate; ownership vests in trustee.
- 689.08 Fines and common recoveries.
- 689.09 Deeds under statute of uses.
- 689.10 Words of limitation and the words "fee simple" dispensed with.
- 689.11 Conveyances between husband and wife direct.
- 689.12 How state lands conveyed for educational purposes.
- 689.13 Rule against perpetuities not applicable to dispositions of property for private cemeteries, etc.
- 689.14 Entailed estates.
- 689.15 Estates by survivorship.
- 689.17 Rule in Shelley's case abolished.
- 689.18 Reverter or forfeiture provisions, limitations; exceptions.
- 689.19 Variances of names in recorded instruments.
- 689.20 Limitation on use of word "minerals."

689.01 How real estate conveyed.—No estate or interest of freehold, or for a term of more than one year, or any uncertain interest of, in or out of any messuages, lands, tenements or hereditaments shall be created, made, granted, transferred or released in any other manner than by instrument in writing, signed in the presence of two subscribing witnesses by the party creating, making, granting, conveying, transferring or releasing such estate, interest, or term of more than one year, or by his agent thereunto lawfully authorized, unless by will and testament, or other testamentary appointment, duly made according to law; and no estate or interest, either of freehold, or of term of more than one year, or any uncertain interest of, in, to or out of any messuages, lands, tenements or hereditaments, shall be assigned or surrendered unless it be by instrument signed in the presence of two subscribing witnesses by the party so assigning or surrendering, or by his agent thereunto lawfully authorized, or by the act and operation of law. No seal shall be necessary to give validity to any instrument executed in conformity with this section. Corporations may convey in accordance with the provisions of this section or in accordance with the provisions of §§692.01 and 692.02.

History.—§1, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1950; GS 2448; RGS 3787; CGL 5660; §4, ch. 20954, 1941.

cf.—§194.01 et seq., Tax sale certificates and tax deeds.

§692.01 et seq., Conveyances by corporations to be sealed.

§693.01 et seq., Conveyances of married women's interest in real estate.

§695.01, Recordation of conveyances.

§695.03, Acknowledgment and proof.

§695.031, Affidavits and acknowledgments by members of armed service.

§725.01 Fraudulent sales.

§727.01 et seq., General assignment.

689.02 Form of warranty deed prescribed.—Warranty deeds of conveyance to land may be in the following form, viz.:

"This indenture, made this _____ day of _____ A. D. _____, between _____, of the county of _____ in the State of _____, party of the first part, and _____, of the county of _____, in the State of _____, party of the second part, witnesseth: That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of _____ dollars, to him in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, bargained and sold to the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, the following described land, to-wit: _____

And the said party of the first part does hereby fully warrant the title to said land, and will defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever."

History.—§1, ch. 4038, 1891; GS 2449; RGS 3788; CGL 5661.

689.03 Effect of such deed.—A conveyance executed substantially in the foregoing form shall be held to be a warranty deed with full common law covenants, and shall just as effectually bind the grantor, and his heirs, as if said covenants were specifically set out therein. And this form of conveyance when signed by a married woman shall be held to convey whatever interest in the property conveyed which she may possess.

History.—§2, ch. 4038, 1891; GS 2450; RGS 3789; CGL 5662; §5, ch. 20954, 1941.

689.04 How executed.—Such deeds shall be executed and acknowledged as is now or may hereafter be provided by the law regulating conveyances of realty by deed.

History.—§3, ch. 4038, 1891; GS 2451; RGS 3790; CGL 5663.

cf.—§693.03, Married women's acknowledgments.

§695.03, Acknowledgment.

§695.031, Acknowledgments by members of armed forces.

689.05 How declarations of trust proved.—All declarations and creations of trust and confidence of or in any messuages, lands, tenements or hereditaments shall be manifested and proved by some writing, signed by the party authorized by law to declare or create such trust or confidence, or by his last will and testament, or else they shall be utterly void and of none effect; provided, always, that where any conveyance shall be made of any lands, messuages or tenements by which a trust or confidence shall or may arise or result by the implication or construction of law, or be transferred or extinguished by the act and operation of law, then, and in every such case, such trust or confidence shall be of the like force and effect as the same would have been if this section had not been made, anything herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

History.—§2, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1951; GS 2452; RGS 3791; CGL 5664.

689.06 How trust estate conveyed.—All grants, conveyances or assignments of trust or confidence of or in any lands, tenements or hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, shall be by deed signed, sealed and delivered, in the presence of two subscribing witnesses, by the party granting, conveying or assigning, or by his attorney or agent thereunto lawfully authorized, or by last will and testament duly made and executed, or else the same shall be void and of none effect.

History.—§3, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1952; GS 2453; RGS 3792; CGL 5665.

689.07 "Trustee" or "as trustee" added to name of grantee, transferee, assignee or mortgagee transfers interest or creates lien as if additional word or words not used.—

(1) Every deed or conveyance of real estate heretofore or hereafter made or executed, in which the words "trustee" or "as trustee" are added to the name of the grantee, and in which no beneficiaries are named nor the nature and purposes of the trust, if any, are set forth, shall grant and is hereby declared to have granted a fee simple estate with full power and authority in and to the grantee in such deed to sell, convey and grant and encumber both the legal and beneficial interest in the real estate conveyed, unless a contrary intention shall appear in the deed or conveyance; provided, that there shall not appear of record among the public records of the county in which the real property is situate at the time of recording of such deed or conveyance, a declaration of trust by the grantee so described declaring the purposes of such trust, if any, declaring that the real estate is held other than for the benefit of the grantee.

(2) Every instrument heretofore or hereafter made or executed transferring or assigning an interest in real property in which the words "trustee" or "as trustee" are added to the name of the transferee or assignee, and in which no beneficiaries are named nor the nature and purposes of the trust, if any, are set forth, shall transfer and assign and is hereby declared to have transferred and assigned the interest of the transferor or assignor to the transferee or assignee with full power and authority to transfer, assign and encumber such interest, unless a contrary intention shall appear in the instrument; provided that there shall not appear of record among the public records of the county in which the real property is situate at the time of the recording of such instrument, a declaration of trust by the assignee or transferee so described declaring the purposes of such trust, if any, or declaring that the interest in real property is held other than for the benefit of the transferee or assignee.

(3) Every mortgage of any interest in real estate or assignment thereof heretofore or hereafter made or executed in which the words "trustee" or "as trustee" are added to the name of the mortgagee or assignee and in which no beneficiaries are named nor the nature and purposes of the trust, if any, are set forth, shall vest and is hereby declared to have vested full rights of ownership to such mortgage or assignment and the lien created thereby with full power in such mortgagee or assignee to assign, hypothecate, release, satisfy or foreclose such mortgage unless a contrary intention shall appear in the mortgage or assignment; provided that there shall not appear of record among the public records of the county in which the property constituting security is situate at the time of recording of such mortgage or assignment, a declaration of trust by such mortgagee or assignee declaring the purposes of such trust, if any, or declaring that such mortgage is held other than for the benefit of the mortgagee or assignee.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from causing any declaration of trust to be recorded before or after the recordation of the instrument evidencing title or ownership of property in a trustee; nor shall this section be construed as preventing any beneficiary under an unrecorded declaration of trust from enforcing the terms thereof against the trustee; provided, however, that any grantee, transferee, assignee or mortgagee, or person obtaining a release or satisfaction of mortgage from such trustee for value prior to the placing of record of such declaration of trust among the public records of the county in which such real property is situate, shall take such interest or hold such previously mortgaged property free and clear of the claims of the beneficiaries of such declaration of trust and of anyone claiming by, through or under such beneficiaries, and such person need not see to the application of funds furnished to obtain such transfer of interest in property or assignment or release or satisfaction of mortgage thereon.

(5) In all cases in which tangible personal property is or has been sold, transferred or mortgaged in a transaction in conjunction with and subordinate to the transfer or mortgage of real property, and the personal property so transferred or mortgaged is physically located on and used in conjunction with such real property, the prior provisions of this section are applicable to the transfer or mortgage of such personal property, and, where the prior provisions of this section in fact apply to a transfer or mortgage of personal property, then any transferee or mortgagee of such tangible personal property shall take such personal property free and clear of the claims of the beneficiaries under such declaration of trust (if any), and of the claims of anyone claiming by, through or under such beneficiaries, and the release or satisfaction of a mortgage on such personal property by such trustee shall release or satisfy such personal property from the claims of the beneficiaries under such declaration of trust (if any) and from the claims of anyone claiming by, through or under such beneficiaries.

History.—§1, ch. 6925, 1915; §10, sub-§11, ch. 7838, 1919; RGS 3793; CGL 5666; (1), (2)-(5) N. by §1, ch. 59-251.

Note.—§2, ch. 59-251 provides that subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) do not apply to pending litigation.

689.071 Land trusts transferring interests in real estate; ownership vests in trustee.—

(1) Every conveyance, deed, mortgage, lease assignment or other instrument heretofore or hereafter made, hereinafter referred to as the recorded instrument, transferring any interests in real property in this state including but not limited to leasehold and mortgagee interests to any person, corporation, bank, or trust company, qualified to act as a fiduciary in this state, in which said recorded instrument said person, corporation, bank, or trust company is designated trustee, or, as trustee, without therein naming the beneficiaries of such trust, whether or not reference is made in said recorded instrument to any separate collateral unrecorded declarations or agreements, shall be effective to vest and is hereby declared to have vested in such trustee full rights of ownership over said real property or interest therein, with full power and authority as granted and provided in said recorded instrument to deal in and with said property or interest therein or any part thereof: provided, said recorded instrument shall confer on the trustee the power and authority either to protect, conserve and to sell, or to lease, or to encumber, or otherwise to manage and dispose of the real property described in said recorded instrument.

(2) Any grantee, mortgagee, lessee, transferee, assignee, or person obtaining satisfactions, releases, or otherwise in any way dealing with the trustee with respect to said real properties held in trust under said recorded instrument, as hereinabove provided for, shall not be obligated to inquire into the identification or status of any named or unnamed beneficiaries, or their heirs or assigns to whom a trustee may be accountable under the terms of said recorded instrument, or under any unrecorded separate declarations or agreements collateral to said recorded instrument whether or not such declarations or agreements are referred to therein, nor to inquire into or ascertain the authority of such trustee to act within and exercise the powers granted under said recorded instrument, nor to inquire into the adequacy or disposition of any consideration, if any is paid or delivered to such trustee in connection with any interest so acquired from such trustee, nor to inquire into any of the provisions of any said unrecorded declarations or agreements.

(3) All persons dealing with the trustee under said recorded instrument as hereinabove provided shall take any interest transferred by the trustee thereunder within the power and authority as granted and provided therein, free and clear of the claims of all the named or unnamed beneficiaries of such trust, and of any unrecorded declarations or agreements collateral thereto whether referred to in said recorded instrument or not, and of anyone claiming by, through or under said beneficiaries including and without limiting the foregoing to any claim arising out of any dower or courtesy interest of the spouse of any beneficiary thereof; provided, nothing herein contained shall prevent a beneficiary of any said unrecorded collateral declarations or agreements from enforcing the terms thereof against the trustee.

(4) In all cases where said recorded instrument, as hereinabove provided, contains a provision defining and declaring the interests of beneficiaries thereunder to be personal property only, such provision shall be controlling for all purposes where such determination shall become an issue under the laws or in the courts of this state.

(5) This act is remedial in nature and shall be given a liberal interpretation to effectuate the intent and purposes hereinabove expressed.

(6) This act shall not apply to any deed, mortgage or other instrument to which §689.07, applies.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 63-468.

689.08 Fines and common recoveries.— Conveyance by fine or by common recovery shall never be used in this state.

History.—§2, Feb. 4, 1835; RS 1953; GS 2454; RGS 3794; CGL 5667.

689.09 Deeds under statute of uses.—By deed of bargain and sale, or by deed of lease and release, or of covenant to stand seized to the use of any other person, or by deed operating by way of covenant to stand seized to the use of another person, or in any lands or tenements in this state, the possession of the bargainor, releasor or covenantor shall be deemed and adjudged to be transferred to the bargainee, releasee or person entitled to the use as perfectly as if such bargainee, releasee or person entitled to the use had been enfeoffed by livery of seizin of the land conveyed by such deed of bargain and sale, release or covenant to stand seized; provided, that livery of seizin can be lawfully made of the lands or tenements at the time of the execution of the said deeds or any of them.

History.—§12, Nov. 15, 1823; RS 1954; GS 2455; RGS 3795; CGL 5668.

689.10 Words of limitation and the words "fee simple" dispensed with.—Where any real estate has heretofore been conveyed or granted or shall hereafter be conveyed or granted without there being used in the said deed or conveyance or grant any words of limitation, such as heirs or successors, or similar words, such conveyance or grant, whether heretofore made or hereafter made, shall be construed to vest the fee simple title or other whole estate or interest which the grantor had power to dispose of at that time in the real estate conveyed or granted, unless a contrary intention shall appear in the deed, conveyance or grant.

History.—§1, ch. 5145, 1903; GS 2456; RGS 3796; §1, ch. 10170, 1925; CGL 5669.

689.11 Conveyances between husband and wife direct.—

(1) A conveyance of real estate, made by a husband direct to his wife, or by a wife direct to her husband, shall be effectual to convey the legal title to such wife, or husband, as the case may be, in all cases in which it would be effectual if the parties were not married, and the grantee need not join in the execution of such conveyances. An estate by the entirety may be created by the spouse holding fee simple title conveying to the other by a deed in which the purpose to create such estate is stated.

(2) All deeds heretofore made by a husband direct to his wife or by a wife direct to her husband are hereby validated and made as effectual to convey the title as they would have been were the parties not married;

(3) Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as validating any deed made for the purpose, or that operates to defraud any creditor or to avoid payment of any legal debt or claim; and

(4) Provided further, that this section shall not apply to any conveyance heretofore made, the validity of which shall be contested by suit commenced within one year of the effective date of this law.

History.—§1, ch. 5147, 1903; GS 2457; RGS 3797; CGL 5670; §6, ch. 20954, 1941; §1, ch. 23964, 1947.

689.12 How state lands conveyed for educational purposes.—The title to all lands granted to or held by the state for educational purposes shall be conveyed by deed executed by the members of the state board of education, with an impression of the seal of the department of agriculture of the state thereon, attested by the commissioner of agriculture, and no other witnesses to the execution thereof shall be required to entitle the same to record and to be received in evidence in all courts and judicial proceedings.

History.—§1, ch. 4999, 1901; GS 2458; RGS 3798; CGL 5671.

689.13 Rule against perpetuities not applicable to dispositions of property for private cemeteries, etc.—No disposition of property, or the income thereof, hereafter made for the maintenance or care of any public or private burying ground, churchyard, or other place for the burial of the dead, or any portion thereof, or grave therein, or monument or other erection in or about the same, shall fail by reason of such disposition having been made in perpetuity; but such disposition shall be held to be made for a charitable purpose or purposes.

History.—§1, ch. 14655, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5671(1).

689.14 Entailed estates.—No property, real or personal, shall be entailed in this state. Any instrument purporting to create an estate tail, express or implied, shall be deemed to create an estate for life in the first taker with remainder per stirpes to the lineal descendants of the first taker in being at the time of his death. If the remainder fails for want of such remainderman, then it shall vest in any other remaindermen designated in such instrument, or, if there is no such designation, then it shall revert to the original donor or to his heirs.

History.—§20, Nov. 17, 1829; RS 1818; GS 2293; RGS 3616; CGL 5481; §2, ch. 20954, 1941; a.m. §1, ch. 23126, 1945. cf.—§689.17, Rule in Shelley's Case abolished.

689.15 Estates by survivorship.—The doctrine of the right of survivorship in cases of real estate and personal property held by joint tenants shall not prevail in this state; that is to say, except in cases of estates by entirety, a devise, transfer or conveyance heretofore or hereafter made to two or more shall create a tenancy in common, unless the instrument creating the estate shall expressly provide for the right of survivorship; and in cases of estates by entirety, the tenants, upon divorce, shall become tenants in common.

History.—§20, Nov. 17, 1829; RS 1819; GS 2294; RGS 3617; CGL 5482; §8, ch. 20954, 1941.

689.17 Rule in Shelley's case abolished.—The rule in Shelley's case is hereby abolished. Any instrument purporting to create an estate for life in a person with remainder to his heirs, lawful heirs, heirs of his body or to his heirs described by words of similar import, shall be deemed to create an estate for life with remainder per stirpes to the life tenant's lineal descendants in being at the time said life estate commences, but said remainder shall be subject to open and to take in per stirpes other lineal descendants of the life tenant who come into being during the continuance of said life estate.

History.—§2, ch. 23126, 1945. cf.—§689.14, Entailed estates.

689.18 Reverter or forfeiture provisions, limitations; exceptions.—

(1) It is hereby declared by the legislature of the state that reverter or forfeiture provisions of unlimited duration in the conveyance of real estate or any interest therein in the state constitute an unreasonable restraint on alienation and are contrary to the public policy of the state.

(2) All reverter or forfeiture provisions of unlimited duration embodied in any plat or deed executed more than twenty-one years prior to the passage of this law conveying real estate or any interest therein in the state, be and the same are hereby cancelled and annulled and declared to be of no further force and effect.

(3) All reverter provisions in any conveyance of real estate of any interest therein in the state, now in force, shall cease and terminate and become null, void and unenforceable twenty-one years from the date of the conveyance embodying such reverter or forfeiture provision.

(4) No reverter or forfeiture provision contained in any deed conveying real estate or any interest therein in the state, executed on and after July 1, 1951, shall be valid and binding more than twenty-one years from the date of such deed, and upon the expiration of such period of twenty-one years, the reverter or forfeiture provision shall become null, void and unenforceable.

(5) Any and all conveyances of real property in this state heretofore or hereafter made to any governmental, educational, literary, scientific, religious, public utility, public transportation, charitable or non-profit corporation or association are hereby excepted from the provisions of this section.

(6) Any holder of a possibility of reverter who claims title to any real property in the state, or any interest therein by reason of a reversion or forfeiture under the terms or provisions of any deed heretofore executed and delivered containing such reverter or forfeiture provision shall have one year from July 1, 1951, to institute suit in a court of competent jurisdiction in this state to establish or enforce such right, and failure to institute such action within said time shall be conclusive evidence of the abandonment of any such right, title or interest, and all right of forfeiture or reversion shall thereupon cease and determine, and become null, void and unenforceable.

(7) This section shall not vary, alter or terminate the restrictions placed upon said real estate, contained either in restrictive covenants or reverter or forfeiture clauses, and all said restrictions may be enforced and violations thereof restrained by a court of competent jurisdiction whenever any one of said restrictions or conditions shall be violated, or threat to violate the same be made by owners or parties in possession or control of said real estate, by an injunction which may be issued upon petition of any person adversely affected, mandatorily requiring the abatement of such violations or threatened violation and restraining any future violation of said restrictions and conditions.

History.—Comp. §§1-7, ch. 26927, 1951.

689.19 Variances of names in recorded instruments.—

(1) The word "instrument" as used in this section shall be construed to mean and include not only instruments voluntarily executed but also papers filed or issued in or in connection with actions and other proceedings in court and orders, judgments and decrees entered therein and transcripts of such judgments and proceedings in foreclosure of mortgage or other liens.

(2) Variances between any two instruments affecting the title to the same real property both of which shall have been spread on the record for the period of more than ten years among the public records of the county in which such real property is situated, with respect to the names of persons named in the respective instruments or in acknowledgments thereto arising from the full christian name appearing in one and only the initial letter of that christian name appearing in the other or from a full middle name appearing in one and only the initial letter of that middle name appearing in the other or from the initial letter of a middle name appearing in one and not appearing in the other, irrespective of which one of the two instruments in which any such variance occurred was prior in point of time to the other and irrespective of whether the instruments were executed or originated before or after August 5, 1953, shall not destroy or impair the presumption that the person so named in one of said instruments was the same person as the one so named in the other of said instruments which would exist if the names in the two instruments were identical; and, in spite of any such variance, the person so named in one of said instruments shall be presumed to be the same person as the one so named in the other until such time as the contrary appears and, until such time, either or both of such instruments or the record thereof or certified copy or copies of the record thereof shall be admissible in evidence in the same manner as though the names in the two instruments were identical.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28208, 1953.

689.20 Limitation on use of word "minerals."—Whenever the word "minerals" is hereafter used in any deed, lease or other contract in writing, said word or term shall not include any of the following: topsoil, muck, peat, humus, sand and common clay, unless expressly provided in said deed, lease or other contract in writing.

History.—§1, ch. 59-375.

CHAPTER 690

UNIFORM PRINCIPAL AND INCOME LAW

- 690.01 Short title.
- 690.02 Definition of terms.
- 690.03 Application of chapter; powers of settlor.
- 690.04 Income and principal; disposition.
- 690.05 Apportionment of income.
- 690.06 Corporate dividends and share rights.
- 690.07 Premium and discount bonds.

690.01 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the "Uniform Principal and Income Law."

History.—§15, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(2).

690.02 Definition of terms.—"Principal" as used in this chapter means any realty or personalty which has been so set aside or limited by the owner thereof or a person thereto empowered that it and any substitutions for it are eventually to be conveyed, delivered or paid to a person, while the return therefrom or use thereof or any part of such return or use is in the meantime to be taken or received by or held for the same or another person.

"Income" as used in this chapter means the return derived from a principal.

"Tenant" as used in this chapter means the person to whom income is presently or currently payable, or for whom it is accumulated or who is entitled to the beneficial use of the principal presently and for the time prior to its distribution.

"Remainderman" as used in this chapter means the person ultimately entitled to the principal, whether named or designated by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established or determined by operation of law.

"Trustee" as used in this chapter includes the original trustee of any trust to which the principal may be subject and also any succeeding or added trustee.

History.—§1, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(2-a); am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.
cf.—§1.01, General definitions.

690.03 Application of chapter; powers of settlor.—This chapter shall govern the ascertainment of income and principal, and the apportionment of receipts and expenses between tenants and remaindermen, in all cases where a principal has been established with or, unless otherwise stated hereinafter, without the interposition of a trust; except that in the establishment of the principal provision may be made touching all matters covered by this chapter, and the person establishing the principal may himself direct the manner of ascertainment of income and principal and the apportionment of receipts and expenses or grant discretion to the trustee or other person to do so, and such provision and direction, where not otherwise contrary to law, shall control notwithstanding this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(3).

- 690.08 Principal used in business.
- 690.09 Principal comprising animals.
- 690.10 Disposition of natural resources.
- 690.11 Principal subject to depletion.
- 690.12 Unproductive estate.
- 690.13 Expenses; trust estates.
- 690.14 Expenses; nontrust estates.
- 690.15 Uniformity of interpretation.

690.04 Income and principal; disposition.—

(1) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered as rent of realty or hire of personalty or dividends on corporate shares payable other than in shares of the corporation itself, or interest on money loaned, or interest on or the rental or use value of property wrongfully withheld or tortiously damaged, or otherwise in return for the use of principal, shall be deemed income unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter.

(2) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered as the consideration for the sale or other transfer, not a leasing or letting, of property forming a part of the principal, or as a repayment of loans, or in liquidation of the assets of a corporation, or as the proceeds of property taken on eminent domain proceedings where separate awards to tenant and remainderman are not made, or as proceeds of insurance upon property forming a part of the principal except where such insurance has been issued for the benefit of either tenant or remainderman alone, or otherwise as a refund or replacement or change in form of principal, shall be deemed principal unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter. Any profit or loss resulting upon any change in form of principal shall enure to or fall upon principal.

(3) All income after payment of expenses properly chargeable to it shall be paid and delivered to the tenant or retained by him if already in his possession; or held for accumulation where legally so directed by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established; while the principal shall be held for ultimate distribution as determined by the terms of the transaction by which it was established or by law.

History.—§3, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(4).

690.05 Apportionment of income.—Whenever a tenant shall have the right to income from periodic payments, which shall include rent, interest on loans, and annuities, but shall not include dividends on corporate shares, and such right shall cease and determine by death or in any other manner at a time other than the date when such periodic payments should be paid, he or his personal representative shall be entitled to that portion of any such income next payable which amounts to the same percentage thereof as the time elapsed from the last due date of such periodic payments to and including the day of the determination of his right is of the total period during which such income would normally accrue. The remaining income shall be paid to the person next entitled to income by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established. But no action shall be brought by the trustee or tenant to recover such apportioned income or any portion thereof until the day on which it would have become due to the tenant but for the determination of the right of the tenant entitled thereto. The provisions of this section shall apply whether an ultimate remainderman is specifically named or not. Likewise when the right of the first tenant accrues at a time other than the payment dates of such periodic payments, he shall only receive that portion of such income which amounts to the same percentage thereof as the time during which he has been so entitled is of the total period during which such income would normally accrue; the balance shall be a part of the principal.

History.—§4, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(5).
Am. §10, ch. 27991, 1953.

690.06 Corporate dividends and share rights.

—(1) All dividends on shares of a corporation which form a part of the principal and are payable in the shares of the corporation, or in shares or other securities or obligations of corporations other than the declaring corporation, shall be deemed principal. Subject to the provision of this section, all dividends payable otherwise than in the shares of the declaring corporation, and otherwise than in the shares or other securities or obligations of corporations other than the declaring corporation, shall be deemed income. Where the trustee shall have the option of receiving a dividend either in cash or in the shares of the declaring corporation, it shall be considered as a cash dividend and deemed income, irrespective of the choice made by the trustee, provided however, that all distributions of capital of mutual investment trusts shall be deemed principal irrespective of the choice made by the trustee.

(2) All rights to subscribe to the shares or other securities or obligations of a corporation accruing on account of the ownership of shares or other securities in such corporation, and the proceeds of any sale of such rights, shall be deemed principal. All rights to subscribe to the shares or other securities or obligations of a corporation accruing on account of the ownership of shares or other securities in another corporation, and the proceeds of the sale of such rights, shall likewise be deemed principal.

(3) Where the assets of a corporation are liquidated, amounts paid upon corporate shares as cash dividends declared before such liquidation occurred or as arrears of preferred or guaranteed dividends shall be deemed income; all other amounts paid upon corporate shares on disbursement of the corporate assets to the stockholders shall be deemed principal. All disbursements of corporate assets to the stockholders, whenever made, which are designated by the corporation as a return of capital or division of corporate property shall be deemed principal.

(4) Where a corporation succeeds another by merger, consolidation or reorganization or otherwise acquires its assets, and the corporate shares of the succeeding corporation are issued in substitution for those of the original corporation, the two corporations shall be considered a single corporation in applying the provisions of this section. But two corporations shall not be considered a single corporation under this section merely because one owns corporate shares of or otherwise controls or directs the other.

(5) In applying this section the date when a dividend accrues to the person who is entitled to it shall be held to be the date specified by the corporation as the one on which the stockholders entitled thereto are determined, or in default thereof the date of declaration of the dividend.

History.—§5, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(6); (1), (2) a. by §1, ch. 61-72.

690.07 Premium and discount bonds.—

Where any part of the principal consists of bonds or other obligations for the payment of money, they shall be deemed principal at their inventory value or in default thereof at their market value at the time the principal was established, or at their cost where purchased later, regardless of their par or maturity value; and upon their respective maturities or upon their sale any loss or gain realized thereon shall fall upon or enure to the principal.

History.—§6, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(7).

690.08 Principal used in business.—(1)

Whenever a trustee or a tenant is authorized by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established, or by law, to use any part of the principal in the continuance of a business which the original owner of the property comprising the principal had been carrying on, the net profits of such business attributable to such principal shall be deemed income.

(2) Where such business consists of buying and selling property the net profits for any period shall be ascertained by deducting from the gross returns during and the inventory value of the property at the end of such period, the expenses during and the inventory value of the property at the beginning of such period.

(3) Where such business does not consist of buying and selling property, the net income shall be computed in accordance with the customary practice of such business, but not in such way as to decrease the principal.

(4) Any increase in the value of the principal used in such business shall be deemed principal, and all losses, after the income from such business has been exhausted, shall fall upon principal.

History.—§7, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(8).

690.09 Principal comprising animals.—

Where any part of the principal consists of animals employed in business, the provisions of §690.08 shall apply; and in other cases where the animals are held as a part of the principal partly or wholly because of the offspring or increase which they are expected to produce, all offspring or increase shall be deemed principal to the extent necessary to maintain the original number of such animals and the remainder shall be deemed income; and in all other cases such offspring or increase shall be deemed income.

History.—§8, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(9).

690.10 Disposition of natural resources.—

Where any part of the principal consists of lands from which may be taken timber, minerals, oils, gas or other natural resources and the trustee or tenant is authorized by law or by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established to sell or dispose of such natural resources, and no provision is made for the disposition of the proceeds thereof, such proceeds shall be considered principal. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate or extend any right which a tenant may otherwise have by law to exploit or develop such natural resources for his own benefit.

History.—§9, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(10).

690.11 Principal subject to depletion.—

Where any part of the principal consists of property subject to depletion, such as leaseholds, patents, copyrights and royalty rights, and the trustee or tenant in possession is not under a duty to change the form of the investment of the principal, the full amount of rents, royalties or return from the property shall be income to the tenant; but where the trustee or tenant is under a duty, arising either by law or by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established, to change the form of the investment, either at once or as soon as it may be done without loss, then the return from such property not in excess of five per cent per annum of its inventory value or in default thereof its market value at the time the principal was established, or at its cost where purchased later, shall be deemed income and the remainder principal.

History.—§10, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(11).

690.12 Unproductive estate.—(1) Where any part of the principal in the possession of a trustee consists of realty or personalty which, for more than a year and until disposed of as hereinafter stated, has not produced an average net income of at least one per cent per annum of its inventory value or in default thereof its market value at the time the principal was established or of its cost where purchased later, and the trustee is under a duty to change the form of the investment as soon as it may be done without sacrifice of value and such change is delayed, but is made before the principal is finally distributed, then the tenant, or in case of his death his personal representative, shall be entitled to share in the net proceeds received from the property as delayed income to the extent hereinafter stated.

(2) Such income shall be the difference between the net proceeds received from the property and the amount which, had it been placed at simple interest at the rate of five per cent per annum for the period during which the change was delayed, would have produced the net proceeds at the time of change, but in no event shall such income be more than the amount by which the net proceeds exceed the inventory value of the property or in default thereof its market value at the time the principal was established or its cost where purchased later. The net proceeds shall consist of the gross proceeds received from the property less any expenses incurred in disposing of it and less all carrying charges which have been paid out of principal during the period while it has been unproductive.

(3) The change shall be taken to have been delayed from the time when the duty to make it first arose, which shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be one year after the trustee first received the property if then unproductive, otherwise one year after it became unproductive.

(4) If the tenant has received any income from the property or has had any beneficial use thereof during the period while the change has been delayed, his share of the delayed income shall be reduced by the amount of such income received or the value of the use had.

(5) In the case of successive tenants the delayed income shall be divided among them or their representatives according to the length of the periods for which each was entitled to income.

History.—§11, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(12).

690.13 Expenses; trust estates.—(1) All ordinary expenses incurred in connection with the trust estate or with its administration and management, including regularly recurring taxes assessed against any portion of the principal, water rates, premiums on insurance taken upon the estates of both tenant and remainderman, interest on mortgages on the principal, ordinary repairs, trustees, compensation except commissions computed on principal, compensation of assistants, and court and other fees on regular accountings, shall be paid out of income. But such expenses where incurred in connection with unproductive estate as defined in §690.12 shall be paid out of principal, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of §690.12.

(2) All other expenses, including trustee's commissions computed upon principal, cost of investing or reinvesting principal, attorney's fees and other costs incurred in maintaining or defending any action to protect the property or assure the title thereof, unless due to the fault or cause of the tenant, and costs of, or assessments for, improvements to property forming part of the principal, shall be paid out of principal. Any tax levied by any authority, federal, state or foreign, upon profit or gain defined as principal under the terms of subsection (2) of §690.04 shall be paid out of principal, notwithstanding said tax may be denominated a tax upon income by the taxing authority.

(3) Expenses paid out of income according to subsection (1) hereof which represent regularly recurring charges shall be considered to have accrued from day to day, and shall be apportioned on that basis whenever the right of the tenant begins or ends at some date other than the payment date of the expenses. Where the expenses to be paid out of income are of unusual amount, the trustee may distribute them throughout an entire year or part thereof, or throughout a series of years. After such distribution, where the right of the tenant begins or ends during the period, the expenses shall be apportioned between tenant and remainderman on the basis of such distribution.

(4) Where the costs of, or special taxes or assessments for, an improvement representing an addition of value to property held by the trustee as part of principal are paid out of principal, as provided in subsection (2) hereof, the trustee shall reserve out of income and add to the principal each year a sum equal to the cost of the improvement divided by the number of years of the reasonably expected duration of the improvement.

History.—§12, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(13).

690.14 Expenses; nontrust estates.—(1) The provisions of §690.13, so far as applicable and excepting those dealing with costs of, or assessments for improvements to property, shall govern the apportionment of expenses between tenants and remaindermen where no trust has been created, subject, however, to any legal agreement of the parties or any specific direction of the taxing or other statutes; but where either tenant or remainderman has incurred an expense for the benefit of his own estate and without the consent or agreement of the other, he shall pay such expense in full.

(2) Subject to the exceptions stated in subsection (1) the cost of, or special taxes or assessments for, an improvement representing an addition of value to property forming part of the principal shall be paid by the tenant, where such improvement is not reasonably expected to outlast the estate of the tenant. In all other cases a portion thereof only shall be paid by the tenant, while the remainder shall be paid by the remainderman. Such portion shall be ascertained by taking that percentage of the total which is found by dividing the present value of the tenant's estate by the present value of an estate of the same form as that of the tenant except that it is limited for a period corresponding to the reasonably expected duration of the improvement. The computation of present values of the estates shall be made on the expectancy basis set forth in the official mortality tables and no other evidence of duration or expectancy shall be considered.

History.—§13, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(14).

690.15 Uniformity of interpretation.—This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—§14, ch. 18392, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(15).

CHAPTER 691

UNIFORM TRUST ADMINISTRATION LAW

691.01 Short title.

691.02 Definitions.

691.03 Powers of trustees.

691.01 Short title.—This chapter may be cited or referred to as the "Uniform Trust Administration Law."

History.—§5, ch. 18397, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(16).

691.02 Definitions.—The term "trust" as used in this chapter includes any express trust, except trust deeds in the nature of a mortgage to secure the payment of money due on notes, bonds or other like obligations, and also excepting what are commonly known as voting trusts. "Trust instrument" includes any writing which legally creates, limits, declares, manifests or otherwise evidences the existence of a trust. "Trustee" includes corporations, individuals and any other legal entity authorized to act and that is acting as a trustee.

History.—§1, ch. 18397, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(17).
cf.—§1.01, General definitions.

691.03 Powers of trustees.—In the absence of contrary or limiting provisions in the trust instrument or a subsequent order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, the trustee of an express trust is authorized:

(1) To exchange, re-exchange, subdivide, develop, improve, dedicate to public use, make or obtain the vacation of public plats, adjust boundaries, partition real property and on exchange or partition to adjust differences in valuation by giving or receiving money or money's worth. Easements may be dedicated to public use without consideration if deemed by the trustee to be for the best interests of the trust.

(2) To grant options and to sell real property at public auction or at private sale for cash or upon credit, secured by lien upon the property sold or upon other property deemed to be adequate security. Where a trustee is authorized to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of land, such authority shall include the right to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of part thereof whether the division is horizontal, vertical, or made in any other way.

(3) To grant leases of real property of which the trustee is the fee owner, to begin at once or within three years from the date thereof, and to grant leases of all rights and privileges above or below the surface of such real property for any term of years not exceeding ninety-nine years, with or without option of purchase and with or without covenants as to erection of buildings, or as to renewals, thereof, though the term of the lease or renewals thereof or of such options extends beyond the term of the trust.

(4) To raze existing party walls or buildings and erect new party walls or buildings,

691.04 Investments; mortgages, etc.; survivor and successor trustees; action of less than all; notice to trustee.

691.05 Provisions not deemed exclusive.

alone or jointly with owners of adjacent property.

(5) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures.

(6) To effect and keep in force, fire, rent, title, liability, casualty or other insurance of any nature, in any form and in any amount, for the proper protection of the property and the ownership thereof.

(7) To hold without liability, other than that involved in holding property legal for investment of trust funds, any and all property, whether or not permissible for investment of funds of that particular trust, received from or through the settlor of the trust, and any property lawfully coming into the hands of the trustees in lieu of or in substitution therefor. This provision shall not be construed to cover reinvestments of cash made by the trustee.

(8) To make division, allotment and distribution of principal to legatees, beneficiaries, distributees, and remaindermen, wholly or partly in property in kind.

(9) To compromise, contest, submit to arbitration or otherwise settle any and all claims in favor of or against the trust estate or the trustee.

(10) To vote at corporate meetings in person or by proxy.

(11) To pay calls, assessments, and any other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of shares of stocks, bonds, debentures or other corporate securities in the hands of the trustee, where such payment may be legally enforceable against the trustee or any property of the trust, or the trustee deems payment expedient and for the best interests of the trust. To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights, participate in foreclosures, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers, liquidations, pooling agreements and voting trusts; and to assent to corporate sales, leases and encumbrances. In the exercise of the powers named in this subsection, the trustee shall be authorized, where he deems such course expedient, to deposit stocks, bonds or other securities with any protective or other similar committee, under such terms and conditions respecting the deposit thereof as the trustee may approve.

(12) To dispose of, call in or change and make new investments legal for such trust. An authority in general terms to invest in such securities or in such manner as the trustee may deem or think best or fit or to the advantage of the estate or in good safe securities, or in other terms conferring a discretion not expressly limited to property legal for investment of trust funds, shall be construed as not so limited.

(13) To hold any corporate stock in his own name or in the name of a nominee, with or without disclosing any fiduciary relationship, but the trustee, however, shall be responsible for all acts and omissions of such nominee relating to such property.

(14) To create reserves out of income for depreciation, obsolescence, amortization or to insure prompt payment of taxes or assessments, general or special and other obligations, and to restore to income such reserves as may be unused.

(15) To make payments of income directly to minor beneficiaries over the age of eighteen years as though they were of full age; and when income is directed to be paid to minors, to apply and expend the same for their benefit either with or without the intervention of a guardian.

(16) To borrow money and to mortgage or otherwise encumber or pledge trust property or future income or principal as security for its repayment.

(17) To advance income to or for the use of the beneficiaries for which advance such trustee shall have a lien on the future benefits of such beneficiary.

(18) To advance money for the protection of the trust or its property and for all expenses, losses and liabilities incurred in or about the execution or protection of the trust or because of the holding or ownership of any property subject thereto. For all such advances, the trustee shall have a lien on the trust property and may reimburse himself with interest therefor out of the trust property.

History.—§2, ch. 18397, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(18).
Sub. § (6) am. §1, ch. 29876, 1955; (1) by §24, ch. 57-1.

691.04 Investments; mortgages, etc.; survivor and successor trustees; action of less than all; notice to trustee.—The following provisions shall apply to all trusts but shall not be exclusive of others imposed by law unless contrary thereto:

(1) A trustee in making investments of trust funds may rely upon information and opinions deemed by him reliable concerning facts necessary or proper to be taken into consideration in determining whether such investment conforms to the requirements of such trust.

(2) The trustee shall not be liable for breach of trust by reason only of his continuing to hold an investment, which because of changing conditions has ceased to be an investment authorized by the trust instrument or the law applicable thereto.

(3) A trustee shall not be responsible for the genuineness or validity of execution of any instrument representing an investment made by him in good faith and without negligence.

(4) Where a trustee is authorized by the trust instrument or by law to pay or apply capital money subject to the trust for any purpose or in any manner, he shall have power to raise the money required by sale, conversion, mortgage, calling in, or by otherwise encumbering all or any part of the trust property for the time being in his possession.

(5) Where a power or trust is given to or imposed on two or more trustees jointly, the same may be exercised or performed by the survivors or survivor of them for the time being.

(6) A successor trustee shall succeed to all of the powers, duties and discretionary authority of an original trustee.

(7) Where there are three or more trustees of a trust, the action of a majority shall be sufficient unless the trust instrument provides otherwise.

(8) A trustee shall be answerable and accountable only for his own acts, receipts, neglects, or defaults, and not for those of any co-trustee, nor for any banker, broker or other person with whom any trust money or securities may be lawfully deposited, nor for any loss unless the same occurs through his own default or negligence. Whenever the trust instrument reserves unto the trustor, or vests in an advisory or investment committee or in any other person or persons, including a co-trustee, to the exclusion of the trustee or to the exclusion of one or more of several trustees, authority to direct the making or retention of investments or of any investment, the excluded trustee or co-trustee shall be liable, if at all, only as a ministerial agent and shall not be liable as trustee or co-trustee for any loss resulting from the making or retention of any investment pursuant to such authorized direction.

(9) A trustee, acting for more than one trust, shall not, in the absence of fraud, be affected by notice of any instrument, matter, fact or thing in relation to any particular trust if he has obtained notice thereof merely by reason of his acting or having acted for another trust or in some other fiduciary capacity.

History.—§3, ch. 18397, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(19); (8) a. by §1, ch. 61-74.

cf.—§518.01 et seq., Investment of fiduciary funds.

691.05 Provisions not deemed exclusive.—The powers, duties and liabilities stated in this chapter shall not be deemed to exclude other powers, duties and liabilities not inconsistent herewith.

History.—§4, ch. 18397, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5671(20).

CHAPTER 692

CONVEYANCES BY CORPORATIONS

692.01 Conveyances by corporations.

692.02 Validation of conveyances.

692.03 Validity of conveyances by certain foreign corporations recorded for seven years; limitation.

692.01 Conveyances by corporations.—Any corporation may convey lands by deed sealed with the common or corporate seal and signed in its name by its president or any vice-president or chief executive officer.

History.—RS 1955; GS 2459; §1, ch. 6183, 1911; RGS 3799; CGL 5672.

692.02 Validation of conveyances.—Conveyances by corporations of lands in this state, heretofore executed, which have been sealed with the common or corporate seal of such corporation and signed in its name by a vice-president or the chief executive officer thereof, shall be as valid and effective and shall bear the same presumptions as if signed in the name of such corporation by its president.

History.—§2, ch. 6183, 1911; RGS 3800; CGL 5673.
cf.—§608.48, Misnomer of corporation in deeds and instruments.

692.03 Validity of conveyances by certain foreign corporations recorded for seven years; limitation.—

(1) Whenever any conveyance, by the surviving directors or trustees of a foreign corporation, which has been dissolved for any cause, or which has had its permit to transact business in the state cancelled for failure to pay fees due the secretary of state, or which has failed to comply with the provisions of laws of this state, has been executed and delivered to any grantee or grantees, and has for a period of seven years or more been spread upon the records of a county wherein the land therein described is situated, the same shall be taken and held by all the courts of this state in the absence of any showing of fraud, adverse possession, or pending litigation, to have authorized the conveyance of, or to have conveyed, the fee simple title, or any interest therein, of the corporation on whose behalf said instrument has been executed to the land therein described.

692.04 Validation of deeds, etc., executed by corporations.

(2) This section shall not apply to any conveyance, the validity of which shall be contested or shall have been contested by suit commenced heretofore or prior to July 1, 1954.

History.—Comp. § § 1, 2, ch. 28078, 1953.

692.04 Validation of deeds, etc., executed by corporations.—All deeds and other instruments relating to the conveyance, transfer, lease, assignment, release, subordination, encumbrance or satisfaction of any right, title, interest, claim, lien or demand in, to or upon real property, heretofore made or hereafter made, and in all other respects executed in due form, by a corporation, not dissolved or expired, but delinquent for six months or more as to payment of capital stock taxes at the time of the making or executing of such deed or other instrument, are, notwithstanding said delinquency, hereby validated.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-264.

CHAPTER 693

CONVEYANCES OF MARRIED WOMEN'S INTEREST IN REAL ESTATE

- 693.01 Married women may convey.
 693.02 Release of dower.
 693.03 Married women's acknowledgments.
 693.04 Relinquishment of dower by minor.

693.01 Married women may convey.—Any married woman owning real property may sell, convey or mortgage it as she might do if she were not married, provided her husband join in such sale, conveyance or mortgage.

History.—§1, Feb. 4, 1835; RS 1956; GS 2460; RGS 3801; CGL 5674.

cf.—§708.01 et seq., Married women's property.

§708.04, Husband must join in transfer.

§708.07, Specific performance against married woman.

693.02 Release of dower.—Any married woman having a right of dower in any real property may relinquish it by joining in the conveyance or mortgage thereof, or by a separate instrument without the joinder of her husband, executed in like manner as other conveyances.

History.—§7, Nov. 15, 1828; §1, ch. 3011, 1877; RS 1957; GS 2461; RGS 3802; CGL 5675; §7, ch. 20954, 1941.

693.03 Married women's acknowledgments.

(1) The acknowledgment by a married woman of deeds, conveyances, mortgages, relinquishments of dower, contracts for the sale of lands, powers of attorney and other instruments shall be necessary to entitle any such instrument to be recorded, but no private examination separate from the husband of such married woman shall be necessary for any purpose, and the acknowledgment of any such instrument by a married woman shall not constitute any part of the execution of any such instrument. Any form of certificate of acknowledgment which is sufficient in the case of an acknowledgment by a single person shall be sufficient in the case of an acknowledgment by a married woman.

(2) A certificate of acknowledgment in substantially the following form shall be sufficient as a certificate of acknowledgment, by any individual, of any of the instruments mentioned in §693.03, as hereby amended, to wit:

"STATE OF _____ COUNTY OF _____

"I HEREBY CERTIFY, that on this day, before me, an officer duly authorized in the state aforesaid and in the county aforesaid to take acknowledgments, personally appeared _____, to me known to be the person described in and who executed the foregoing instrument and _____ acknowledged before me that he executed the same.

"WITNESS my hand and official seal in the county and state last aforesaid this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____.

Notary Public,

My commission expires: _____"

(3) All acknowledgments by a married woman in accordance with §693.03, as hereby amended, made before May 13, 1943, are hereby validated, unless the same shall be questioned

- 693.05 Execution of deeds by minor.
 693.13 Married women's covenants.
 693.14 Powers of attorney by married woman.

in a court of competent jurisdiction within one year after May 13, 1943.

History.—§1, Feb. 4, 1835; §1, ch. 3011, 1877; RS 1958; GS 2462; RGS 3803; CGL 5676; §§1-3, ch. 21746, 1948.

cf.—§694.04, Conveyances of married women defective in acknowledgment validated.

§708.07, Specific performance against married women regardless of acknowledgment.

693.04 Relinquishment of dower by minor.

—A relinquishment of dower executed and acknowledged by a wife shall be valid notwithstanding her minority at the time of such execution and acknowledgment.

History.—RS 1959; GS 2463; RGS 3804; CGL 5677.

693.05 Execution of deeds by minor.—The execution of a deed by a married woman conveying real estate belonging to her, joined in said deed by her husband, and duly acknowledged, shall be valid notwithstanding her minority at the time of such execution and acknowledgment.

History.—§1, ch. 4954, 1901; GS 2464; RGS 3805; CGL 5678.

693.13 Married women's covenants.—A married woman who joins with her husband in executing a conveyance or mortgage of real property, or of any estate therein, may enter into any covenants as to the title or against encumbrances or of warranty, but such covenants shall have no other effect than to estop her and all persons claiming as her heirs, or by or through her, in the same manner as if she were not married; except that her covenants and warranties which have been or may be made with respect to her separate statutory property shall bind her to the amount of the purchase price received by her for such property, as if she were not married.

History.—RS 1966; GS 2472; RGS 3813; §1, ch. 12083, 1927; CGL 5686.

693.14 Powers of attorney by married woman.—Any deed, conveyance, mortgage, lease or other transfer of real property, or of any interest therein, being the separate property of a married woman, and every relinquishment of dower executed by virtue of a power of attorney from such married woman, shall have the same force and effect as if executed by her in person, if her husband join with her in the execution of such power of attorney, except that if such power of attorney is by a married woman to her husband, the husband need not join with her in the execution thereof, and if she execute and acknowledge the same in the form and manner prescribed for the execution and acknowledgment of the conveyance of her separate real estate or relinquishment of dower, as the case may be, provided such power of attorney be recorded as other powers of attorney are recorded.

History.—§1, ch. 2069, 1875; RS 1967; GS 2473; RGS 3814; CGL 5687; §1, ch. 57-99.

CHAPTER 694

CERTAIN CONVEYANCES MADE VALID

- 694.01 Those executed between 1817 and 1822.
 694.02 Married women's conveyances validated.
 694.03 Married women's conveyances by attorney validated.
 694.04 Conveyances of married women defective in acknowledgment validated.
 694.05 Certain other conveyances validated.
 694.06 Deeds executed by state board of education.
 694.07 Certain grant of lands confirmed.
 694.08 Certain instruments validated, notwithstanding lack of seals or witnesses, or defect in acknowledgment, etc.
- 694.09 Certified copies admissible in evidence.
 694.10 Certain titles not affected.
 694.11 Certain deeds of county commissioners validated.
 694.12 Validation of instruments in which name of corporation is incorrectly set out.
 694.13 Ratifying, validating and confirming conveyances of real estate by county commissioners, etc.
 694.14 Validation of deeds executed by guardians appointed under uniform veterans' guardianship law.

694.01 Those executed between 1817 and 1822.—All deeds of conveyance, bills of sale, mortgages or other transfers of property, either real or personal, within the limits of this state, made and received bona fide and upon good consideration at any time between the seventeenth day of January, 1817, and the first day of October, 1822, shall be as good and efficient in law and equity as if the same had been made and executed according to the formalities of the Spanish law as against the maker or makers thereof, and every person or persons claiming by, through or under him, her or them; provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be so construed as to affect the interest of persons not parties to any of the contracts aforesaid; and provided, also, that the said deeds of conveyance, bills of sale, mortgages and other transfers were recorded agreeably to the laws of the state within six months from the twenty-fourth day of June, 1823.

History.—June 21, 1823; RS 1968; GS 2474; RGS 3815; CGL 5688.

694.02 Married women's conveyances validated.—All sales, conveyances, transfers or mortgages made prior to February 14th, 1835, by married women of their real estate of inheritance where the husbands of such married women have joined therein shall be as valid as if the same had been conveyed by fine as at common law.

History.—§2, Feb. 4, 1835; RS 1969; GS 2475; RGS 3816; CGL 5689.

694.03 Married women's conveyances by attorney validated.—Any deed, release or conveyance executed and acknowledged before the passage of the act approved February 20th, 1875, entitled, "An act to authorize married women to convey their separate estate and release dower by attorney," yet in the manner therein provided, shall have the same force and effect and be as valid as if the same had been executed and acknowledged after the passage of the said act.

History.—§1970 RS 1892; GS 2476; RGS 3817; CGL 5690.

694.04 Conveyances of married women defective in acknowledgment validated.—All deeds of conveyance, bills of sale, mortgages or other instruments of transfer of real or personal property within the limits of this state made and received bona fide and for a valuable consideration, when a consideration is essential or required by law, free from fraud, executed by any married woman whether for the purpose of conveying her separate estate or of relinquishing her dower or right of dower at any time prior to the 1st day of July, 1941, and which may be defective only in such married woman's acknowledgment, or in the officer's certificate of acknowledgment, by a defective statement or the omission of a statement relating to acknowledging separate and apart from her husband, or by an omission of either or all of the words, "freely, voluntarily, compulsion, constraint, apprehension or fear" shall be deemed and held good and sufficient in law or equity to convey the right or interest of any such married woman attempted or intended to be conveyed under any such instrument as if the same had been made and executed according to statutory requirements, as against the maker or makers thereof and every person or persons claiming by, through or under such married woman;

Provided, there appears in such acknowledgment either one or more of said words or any words of similar import;

Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any instrument heretofore made, the validity of which shall be contested by suit commenced within one year of the effective date of this law.

History.—Ch. 5412, 1905; §1, ch. 6217, 1911; RGS 3818; CGL 5691; §9, ch. 20954, 1941.

694.05 Certain other conveyances validated.—Any deed or conveyance heretofore executed and acknowledged in accordance with the provisions of the act approved February 24, 1873, entitled "An act providing for the acknowledgment of deeds and other conveyances of lands," shall be held good and valid.

History.—§2, ch. 2069, 1875; RS 1971; GS 2477; RGS 3819; CGL 5692.

694.06 Deeds executed by state board of education.—All deeds conveying lands granted to or held by the state for educational purposes heretofore executed by the members of the state board of education are hereby confirmed and declared to be valid and binding as conveyances of the title to such lands.

History.—§2, ch. 4999, 1901; GS 2478; RGS 3820; CGL 5693.

694.07 Certain grant of lands confirmed.—

The state does hereby grant and confirm to purchasers, grantees and assigns of the several railroad companies which accepted the provisions of the act entitled, "An act to provide for and encourage a liberal system of internal improvements in this state," approved January 6, 1855, and their assigns, the lands and titles thereto which were granted to the state by the United States to aid in the construction of certain railroads in the state, by act of congress, approved May 17, 1856, which said land has been selected and located for the several railroad companies accepting the provisions of said act along the line of their respective roads, to the extent and proportion to which they severally became entitled under said act to provide for and encourage a liberal system of internal improvements in this state and the act of congress granting the same above referred to. And to confirm and convey the title to any lands which may hereafter be selected and approved to the state for the use of the several railroads as aforesaid, to the purchasers, grantees and assigns of said railroads.

History.—§1, ch. 4707, 1899; GS 2479; RGS 3821; CGL 5694.

694.08 Certain instruments validated, notwithstanding lack of seals or witnesses, or defect in acknowledgment, etc.—Whenever any power of attorney has been executed and delivered, or any conveyance has been executed and delivered to any grantee by the person owning the land therein described, or conveying the same in an official or representative capacity, and has, for a period of seven years or more been spread upon the records of the county wherein the land therein described has been or was at the time situated, and one or more subsequent conveyances of said land or parts thereof have been made, executed, delivered and recorded by parties claiming under such instrument or instruments, and such power of attorney or conveyance, or the public record thereof, shows upon its face a clear purpose and intent of the person executing the same to authorize the conveyance of said land or to convey the said land, the same shall be taken and held by all the courts of this state, in the absence of any showing of fraud, adverse possession, or pending litigation, to have authorized the conveyance of, or to have conveyed, the fee simple title, or any interest therein, of the person signing such instruments, or the person in behalf of whom the same was conveyed by a person in an official or representative capacity, to the land therein described as effectively as if there had been no defect in the acknowledgment or the certificate of acknowledgment, if acknowledged, or the relinquishment of dower, and as if there had been no lack of the word "as" preceding the title of the person conveying in an official or representative capacity, of any seal or seals, or of any witness or witnesses, and shall likewise be taken and held by all the courts of this state to have been duly recorded so as to be admissible in evidence under section 21, article XVI of the constitution;

Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any conveyance the validity of which shall be contested or have been contested by suit commenced heretofore or within one year of the effective date of this law.

History.—§1, ch. 10169, 1925; CGL 5695; §15, ch. 20954, 1941; §1, ch. 25277, 1949; am. §1, ch. 26957, 1951.

cf.—§§95.23-95.26, Limitations where deed or will of record for ten years or more.

694.09 Certified copies admissible in evidence.—A copy of any of the instruments referred to in §694.08 duly certified, under the hand and seal of office of the officer in whose office the same may be recorded, to be a true and correct copy of the original, on file or of record in his office, shall in all cases and in all courts be admitted and received in evidence with the like effect and force as the original thereof might be.

History.—§2, ch. 10169, 1925; CGL 5696.

694.10 Certain titles not affected.—Nothing in §694.08 contained shall be taken or held to validate or perfect any title to any land as against one or more in adverse possession thereof or holding or claiming title under a different or adverse chain of title from either a common or different source.

History.—§3, ch. 10169, 1925; CGL 5697.

694.11 Certain deeds of county commissioners validated.—All deeds of conveyance of lands in this state heretofore made and executed prior to the year 1915 by the board of county commissioners of any county in this state of lands lying and being within such county, or that were made and executed by some one acting by or under the authority of any such board of county commissioners, of any such lands, be and the same are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed, and declared to convey such title, right or interest therein as such county may have had or held at the time of the conveyance, and as was expressed in any such deed of conveyance, and intended to be conveyed thereby. Provided, that nothing in this section shall validate any deed that was fraudulently obtained or that is now in litigation.

History.—§1, ch. 1362, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 5697(1).

694.12 Validation of instruments in which name of corporation is incorrectly set out.—All deeds of conveyance, bills of sale, mortgages, or other transfers of real or personal property within the limits of this state, heretofore made and received bona fide and upon good consideration by any corporation, or to any corporation, in which the name of said corporation shall be incorrectly set out in such deed, bill of sale, mortgage or other instrument by omitting a word from the corporate name, or by adding a word thereto, or by misspelling any part of the name of said corporation, and the identity of said corporation shall plainly appear from the contents of said instrument, or otherwise, such deed, bill of sale, mortgage or other instrument, shall be taken and deemed valid and effectual as though the name of said corporation were correctly set out in said deed, bill of sale, mortgage or other instrument, and the same shall, notwithstanding such irregularity or defect, be deemed and taken as properly executed.

History.—§1, ch. 14838, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5673(1); am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

694.13 Ratifying, validating and confirming conveyances of real estate by county commissioners, etc.—

(1) All conveyances of real estate heretofore made by any of the several counties of the state or the county commissioners thereof, or any county school board, or any board of bond trustees or commissioners or supervisors of a drainage or other special improvement district, be and the same are hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed; provided, however, that this section shall not ratify, validate, or confirm any such conveyances which are the subject of litigation on June 16, 1947, or any tax deed, or title acquired by failure of the owner of lands to pay taxes or assessments.

(2) The several counties of the state by a majority of the county commissioners thereof or any county school board or any board of bond trustees or commissioners or supervisors of a drainage or other special improvement district, are hereby authorized to execute and deliver deed to real property in which any such county, county school board, board of bond trustees or commissioners or supervisors of a drainage or other special improvement district may have been interested.

History.—§§1-2, ch. 24307, 1947.

Am. §11, ch. 25085, 1949.

694.14 Validation of deeds executed by guardians appointed under uniform veterans' guardianship law.—

(1) Any deed of conveyance, executed bona fide and for a valuable consideration authorized and approved by order of the probate court, by any limited guardian, who was appointed as guardian under the uniform veterans' guardianship law of Florida (of A.D. 1929) and who acted under that law and the order of the probate court in the execution of the deed of conveyance, the said deed is hereby cured and it shall be deemed and taken as if properly executed notwithstanding the fact said deed was executed to property that said mentally incompetent veteran did not directly or otherwise acquire with money received by the veteran from the veterans bureau and notwithstanding the fact the conveyance is to property acquired by the mentally incompetent veteran before he or she became a veteran or was declared insane; and notwithstanding the fact that some of the information required by said uniform veterans' guardianship law was not set out in the petition for appointment of the guardian; and notwithstanding the fact the guardian did not publish the notice of application for an order of sale as required by §294.10; and notwithstanding any other defect in any part of the said guardianship proceeding that resulted in said court-authorized and court-approved proceeding that resulted in the execution of such guardians' deed as aforesaid.

(2) Any person, firm or corporation having an interest in land affected by this section shall have until July 1, 1958, to institute proceedings to enforce any such rights. After July 1, 1958, no such action shall be instituted.

History.—Comp §§1, 2, ch. 57-341.

CHAPTER 695

RECORD OF CONVEYANCES OF REAL ESTATE

- 695.01 Conveyances to be recorded.
- 695.02 Blank or master form of instruments may be recorded.
- 695.03 Acknowledgment and proof; validation of certain acknowledgments.
- 695.031 Affidavits and acknowledgments by members of armed forces and their spouses.
- 695.04 Requirements of certificate.
- 695.05 Certain defects cured as to acknowledgments and witnesses.
- 695.06 Certain irregularities as to venue validated.
- 695.07 Use of scrawl as seal.
- 695.08 Prior use of scrawl as seal.
- 695.09 Identity of grantor.
- 695.10 Proof by others.
- 695.11 Instruments deemed to be recorded from time of filing.
- 695.12 Imperfect record.
- 695.13 Want of certificate of record.
- 695.14 Unsigned certificate of record.
- 695.15 Recording conveyances lost by fire.
- 695.16 When mortgage or lien is destroyed.
- 695.17 United States deeds and patents may be recorded.
- 695.18 Indorsement by clerk.
- 695.19 Certified copies of recorded instruments may be recorded.
- 695.20 Unperformed contracts of record.
- 695.21 Instruments relating to real estate to contain post-office address of grantee; exceptions.
- 695.22 Same; duties of clerks.

695.01 Conveyances to be recorded.—No conveyance, transfer or mortgage of real property, or of any interest therein, nor any lease for a term of one year or longer, shall be good and effectual in law or equity against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice, unless the same be recorded according to law; nor shall any such instrument made or executed by virtue of any power of attorney be good or effectual in law or in equity against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice unless the power of attorney be recorded before the accruing of the right of such creditor or subsequent purchaser.

Grantees by quit-claim, heretofore or hereafter made, shall be deemed and held to be bona fide purchasers without notice within the meaning of the recording acts;

Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to quit-claims heretofore made, the priority of which shall be contested by suit commenced within one year of the effective date of this law.

History.—§§4, 9, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1972; GS 2480; RGS 3822; CGL 5698; §10, ch. 20954, 1941.

695.02 Blank or master form of instruments may be recorded.—Any person may have a blank or master form of mortgage or other instrument conveying, transferring or reserving an interest in, or creating a lien on, real or personal property, filed, indexed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court.

When any such blank or master form is filed with the clerk of the circuit court, he shall record and index the same in the manner provided by law for recording and indexing mortgages and such other instruments respectively, except that the name of the person whose name appears on such blank or master form shall be inserted in the indexes as grantor and also as grantee.

When any instrument conveying, transferring or reserving an interest in, or creating a lien on, real or personal property, incorporates by reference the provisions, terms, covenants, conditions, obligations, powers and other contents, or any of them, set forth in any such recorded blank or master form, such incorporation by reference, for all purposes, shall be equivalent to setting forth in extenso in such instrument that which is incorporated by reference.

The fee for filing, recording and indexing such blank or master form shall be five dollars; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as otherwise affecting existing provisions relating to fees for filing, recording and indexing instruments mentioned in this section.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 17109, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5698(1). cf.—§1.01(2), "Person" defined.

695.03 Acknowledgment and proof; validation of certain acknowledgments.—In order to entitle any of the instruments named in §§695.01 and 695.02, or any other instrument concerning real property to such record, the execution thereof must be acknowledged by the party executing the same; or the execution thereof by the said party must be proved by a subscribing witness thereto before the officers and in the form and manner following:

(1) IN THIS STATE.—If such acknowledgment or proof be made within this state, it may be made before any judge, clerk or deputy clerk of any court of record, or a United States commissioner, or a notary public, or justice of the peace, or judge of a small claims court of this state, and the certificate of acknowledgment or proof shall be under the seal of the court or of the officer, as the case may be. All affidavits and acknowledgments heretofore made or taken in the manner set forth above are hereby validated.

(2) WITHOUT THIS STATE BUT WITHIN THE UNITED STATES.—If the acknowledgment or proof be made out of this state but within the United States, it may be made before a commissioner of deeds appointed by the governor of this state, or before a judge or clerk of any court of the United States or of any state, territory or district, having a seal, or before a notary public, justice of the peace, master in chancery, register or recorder of deeds, of such state, territory or district having an official seal, and the certificate of acknowledgment or proof shall be under the seal of the court or officer, as the case may be.

(3) IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.—If the acknowledgment or proof be made in any foreign country, it may be made before any commissioner of deeds appointed by the governor of this state to reside in such country, or before any notary public of such foreign country having an official seal, or before any ambassador, envoy extraordinary, minister plenipotentiary, minister, commissioner, charge d'affaires, consul general, consul, vice-consul, consular agent, or any other diplomatic or consular officer of the United States appointed to reside in such country, military or naval officer authorized by the laws or articles of war of the United States to perform the duties of notary public, and the certificate of acknowledgment or proof shall be under the seal of the officer.

All affidavits and acknowledgments heretofore made or taken in the manner set forth above are hereby validated.

History.—RS 1973; ch. 5404, 1905; GS 2481; ch. 7849, 1919; RGS 3823; CGL 5699; §7, ch. 22858, 1945; sub. §(1) am. §1, ch. 28225, 1953. cf.—§117.07, Duty of notary public to state time of expiration of commission.

695.031 Affidavits and acknowledgments by members of armed forces and their spouses.—

(1) In addition to the manner, form and proof of acknowledgment of instruments as now provided by law, any person serving in or with the armed forces of the United States, including the army, navy, marine corps, coast guard, or any component or any arm or service of any thereof, including any female auxiliary of any thereof, and any person whose duties require his or her presence with the armed forces of the United States, as herein designated, or otherwise designated by law or military or naval command, may acknowledge any instrument, wherever located, either within or without the state, or without the United States, before any commissioned officer in active service of the armed forces of the United States, as herein designated, or otherwise designated by law, or military or naval command, or order, with the rank of second lieutenant or higher in the army or marine corps, or of any component or any arm or service of either thereof, including any female auxiliary of any thereof, or ensign or higher in the navy or United States Coast Guard, or of any component or any arm or service of either thereof, including any female auxiliary of any thereof.

(2) The instrument shall not be rendered invalid by the failure to state therein the place of execution or acknowledgment. No authentication of the officer's certificate of acknowledgment or otherwise shall be required, and no seal shall be necessary, but the officer taking the acknowledgment shall endorse thereon or attach thereto a certificate substantially in the following form:

On this _____ day of _____, 19____, before me _____, the undersigned officer, personally appeared _____, known to me (or satisfactorily proven) to be serving in or with, or whose duties require his presence with the armed forces of the United States, and to be the person whose name is subscribed to the within instrument, and acknowledged that he executed the same for the purposes therein contained, and the undersigned does further certify that he is at the date of this certificate a commissioned officer of the rank stated below and is in the active service of the armed forces of the United States.

Signature of commissioned officer.

Rank of commissioned officer and command or branch of service to which officer is attached.

(3) Such acknowledgments by a married woman, who is a member of the armed forces of the United States, shall be sufficient in all respects to bar the dower, homestead rights or separate property rights of such married woman in any real estate described in the instrument thus acknowledged by her, as fully and completely as though such married woman had acknowledged such instrument as now required by other statutes.

(4) An acknowledgment by the spouse of a member of the armed forces of the United States shall be sufficient in all respects if it is acknowledged in the manner and form herein provided and shall have the same force and effect as though the instrument had been acknowledged as now required by other statutes and such acknowledgment by a married woman who is a spouse of a member of the armed forces of the United States shall be sufficient in all respects to bar the dower, homestead rights or separate property rights of such married woman in any real estate described in the instrument thus acknowledged by her as fully and completely as though such married woman had acknowledged such instrument as now required by other statutes.

(5) Any instrument or document acknowledged in the manner and form herein provided shall be entitled to be recorded and shall be recorded as in the case of other instruments or documents properly acknowledged.

(6) This section is to be liberally construed in favor of the validity of any such acknowledgments by any such member of the armed forces of the United States and any acknowledgments heretofore taken, containing words of similar import, are hereby confirmed and declared to be valid and binding. This section shall be construed as an enabling act and as an exception to existing laws rather than, inferentially or otherwise, as a repeal of the same or any part of the same.

History.—Transferred from §120.08 by §7, ch. 22858, 1945; (4) N and renumbering subsequent subsections by §1, ch. 57-40.

695.04 Requirements of certificate.—The certificate of the officer before whom the acknowledgment or proof shall be taken shall contain and set forth substantially the matter required to be done or proved to make such acknowledgment or proof effectual.

History.—§1974 RS 1892; GS 2482; RGS 3824; CGL 5700.

695.05 Certain defects cured as to acknowledgments and witnesses.—All deeds, conveyances, bills of sale, mortgages or other transfers of real or personal property within the limits of this state, heretofore or hereafter made and received bona fide and upon good consideration by any corporation, and acknowledged for record before some officer, stockholder or other person interested in the corporation, grantee, or mortgagee as a notary public or other officer authorized to take acknowledgments of instruments for record within this state, shall be held, deemed and taken as valid as if acknowledged by the proper notary public or other officer authorized to take acknowledgments of instruments for record in this state not so interested in said corporation, grantee or mortgagee; and said instrument whenever recorded shall be deemed notice to all persons;

Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any instrument heretofore made, the validity of which shall be contested by suit commenced within one year of the effective date of this law.

History.—§1, ch. 4953, 1901; GS 2483; RGS 3825; §1, ch. 11991, 1927; CGL 5701, 5702; §1, ch. 14706, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5702(1).

695.06 Certain irregularities as to venue validated.—Whenever, in the acknowledgment to any deed or other instrument relating to real estate, heretofore recorded in this state, it shall appear, either from the recitals in such acknowledgment, or following the signature of the officer taking the same, or from the seal of such officer that the said acknowledgment was not taken, or may not have been taken, in the place as stated in the caption or venue thereof, said deed or other instrument shall, notwithstanding such irregularity or defect, be deemed and taken as properly acknowledged and of record.

History.—§1, ch. 11990, 1927; CGL 5703.

695.07 Use of scrawl as seal.—A scrawl or scroll, printed or written, affixed as a seal to any written instrument shall be as effectual as a seal.

History.—§1, ch. 4148, 1893; GS 2484; RGS 3826; CGL 5704.

695.08 Prior use of scrawl as seal.—All written instruments heretofore or hereafter made with a scrawl or scroll, printed or written, affixed as a seal are declared to be sealed instruments, and shall be construed and received in evidence as such in all the courts of this state.

History.—§2, ch. 4148, 1893; GS 2485; RGS 3827; CGL 5705.

695.09 Identity of grantor.—No acknowledgment or proof shall be taken by any officer within or without the United States unless he shall know, or have satisfactory proof, that the person making the acknowledgment is the individual described in and who executed such instrument, or that the person offering to make proof is one of the subscribing witnesses to such instrument.

History.—§1975 RS 1892; GS 2486; RGS 3828; CGL 5706.

695.10 Proof by others.—Where the grantors and witnesses of any instrument which may be recorded are dead, or cannot be had, the judge of the circuit court, or the county judge for the county wherein the real property is situated, may take the examination of any competent witness or witnesses, on oath, to prove the handwriting of the witness or witnesses, or where such proof cannot be had, then to prove the handwriting of the grantor or grantors, which shall be certified by the judge, and the instrument being thus proved may be recorded.

History.—§1976 RS 1892; GS 2487; RGS 3829; CGL 5707.

695.11 Instruments deemed to be recorded from time of filing.—All instruments relating to real and personal property which are authorized or required to be recorded shall be deemed to be recorded from time the same are filed with the officer whose duty it is to record the same and as so recorded and transcribed upon the record shall be notice to all persons.

History.—§1, ch. 3592, 1885; RS 1977; GS 2488; RGS 3830; CGL 5708; §1, ch. 17217, 1935.

695.12 Imperfect record.—Whenever any instrument authorized or required by law to be recorded in any county either has been or may be so imperfectly or erroneously recorded as to require a new record thereof, if the officer who so recorded the same be still in office, he shall, upon demand of the owner of such instrument, or person controlling the same, record it anew free of any charge or fee than the fee allowed by law for one perfect record thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 3896, 1889; RS 1978; GS 2489; RGS 3831; CGL 5709.

695.13 Want of certificate of record.—Whenever any instrument authorized or required by law to be recorded shall appear to be recorded in the appropriate record book in the proper office, whether the record shall be in the handwriting of the officer whose duty it was to record such instrument, or in the handwriting of any other person, the record shall be presumed to have been made by the officer whose duty it was to make it, and the absence of a certificate of such officer that such instrument was recorded by him shall in no wise affect the validity of the record.

History.—§1, ch. 3894, 1889; RS 1979; GS 2490; RGS 3832; CGL 5710.

695.14 Unsigned certificate of record.—Whenever any unsigned certificate on such record of the instruments mentioned in §695.13 shall contain the date of filing or of recording such instrument, it shall be prima facie evidence of the time of filing or of recording such instrument.

History.—§2, ch. 3894, 1889; RS 1980; GS 2491; RGS 3833; CGL 5711.

695.15 Recording conveyances lost by fire.—Whenever the record in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of any county in this state of any deed, conveyance, contract, mortgage, deed of trust, map or plat or other instrument in writing affecting real estate in such county has been heretofore destroyed by fire, any such instrument, or a copy thereof from such former record duly certified, may be re-recorded in such county, and in re-recording the same the officer shall record the certificate of the previous record, and the date of filing for record appearing in said original certificate so recorded shall be deemed and taken as the date of the record thereof. And copies of such record so authorized to be made hereunder, duly certified by said officer, under the seal of said court, shall be received in evidence under the same circumstances and conditions under which a certified copy of the original record would be so received, and shall have the same force and effect as a certified copy of the original record.

History.—§1, ch. 4950, 1901; GS 2492; RGS 8834; CGL 5712; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

695.16 When mortgage or lien is destroyed.—Whenever any mortgage or other lien required by law to be recorded, to be good and effectual against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice, has been heretofore recorded, and the record thereof has been destroyed by fire prior to May 30th, 1901, such mortgage or other lien or a certified copy thereof, as aforesaid, shall be re-recorded within nine months from said date, or such mortgage or other lien shall not be good or effectual in law or equity against a creditor or subsequent purchaser for valuable consideration and without notice; provided, however, that if the original instrument of mortgage or other lien has been lost or destroyed, the foregoing provision of this section shall not apply thereto, but such mortgage or other lien shall not be good or effectual in law or equity against creditors, or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice, unless legal proceedings to reestablish the same were begun in the proper court prior to March 3rd, 1902.

History.—§2, ch. 4950, 1901; GS 2493; RGS 8835; CGL 5713.

695.17 United States deeds and patents may be recorded.—Deeds and patents issued by the United States government and photographic copies made by authority of said government from its records thereof in the general land office, embracing lands within the state, shall be admitted to record in this state in the county or counties where the land lies, when presented to the clerk of the court of the county where same is to be recorded, and when said deeds, patents or photographic copies shall appear to him to be genuine.

History.—§1, ch. 8565, 1921; CGL 5714.

695.18 Indorsement by clerk.—Upon recording said deed, patent or certified copy, the clerk of the court shall indorse thereon and also upon the record made by him the following:

"This deed and patent (or certified copy as the case may be) having been presented to me on the _____ day of _____ for record, and same appearing to me to be genuine and to have been made and issued by the authority of the United States government, I have duly recorded same in _____ on page _____ of the public records of my office.

Witness my hand and official seal at _____ Florida, this _____ day of _____

Clerk."

History.—§2, ch. 8565, 1921; CGL 5715.

695.19 Certified copies of recorded instruments may be recorded.—Certified copies of deeds, mortgages, powers of attorney and all other instruments of any kind which have been or may hereafter be duly recorded or filed among the public records of any county in this state, may be recorded or re-recorded among the public records of any other county of this state as fully and in the same manner and with like effect as if such certified copy were the original instrument.

History.—§1, ch. 11989, 1927; CGL 5717.

695.20 Unperformed contracts of record.—Whenever anyone shall have contracted to purchase real estate in the state, prior to January 1, 1930, by written agreement requiring all payments to be made within ten years from the date of the contract, or has accepted an assignment of such an agreement, and the fact of the existence of such a contract of purchase, or assignment, appears of record from the instrument itself or by reference in some other recorded instrument, and shall not have obtained and placed of record a deed to the property or a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction recognizing his rights thereunto, and is not in actual possession of the property covered by the contract or by the assignment, as defined in §95.17 he, his widow, heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, shall have no further interest in the property described in the contract, or the assignment, by virtue thereof, and the record of such contract, assignment or other record reference thereto, shall no longer constitute either actual or constructive notice to a purchaser, mortgagee, or other person acquiring an interest in the property, unless within six months after this law shall take effect, (approved April 26, 1941) he or some one claiming under him shall:

(1) Place on record a deed or other conveyance of the property from the holder of the record title; or

(2) Place on record a written instrument executed by the holder of the record title evidencing an extension or modification of the original contract and showing that the original contract remains in force and effect; or

(3) Institute, or have pending, in a court of competent jurisdiction a suit for the enforcement of his rights under such contract.

History.—§1, ch. 20235, 1941.

695.21 Instruments relating to real estate to contain post-office address of grantee; exceptions.—After October 1, 1945, it shall be the duty of the several clerks of the circuit courts to ascertain of all persons presenting for public record any instrument other than mortgages conveying or purporting to convey any interest in real estate the correct post-office address of the grantee or grantees named in such instrument, and it shall be the duty of the person presenting such instrument for recordation to furnish such information to said official.

History.—§1, ch. 23114, 1945.

695.22 Same; duties of clerks.—After October 1, 1945, the several clerks of the circuit courts shall keep and furnish to the respective county tax assessors in the counties where such instruments are recorded a daily schedule of the aforesaid deeds and conveyances so filed for recordation, in which schedule shall be set forth the name of the grantor or grantors, the names and addresses of each grantee and a description of the land as specified in each instrument so filed.

History.—§2, ch. 23114, 1945.

CHAPTER 696

RECORD OF CONTRACTS; PHOTOGRAPHIC RECORDING

- 696.01 Contracts for sale of realty must be acknowledged in order to be recorded.
- 696.02 Assignments of contracts for sale of realty not entitled to record unless original is recorded or entitled to record.

696.01 Contracts for sale of realty must be acknowledged in order to be recorded.—No contract, agreement, or other instrument purporting to contain an agreement to purchase or sell real estate shall be recorded in the public records of any county in the state, unless such contract, agreement or other instrument is acknowledged by the vendor in the manner provided by law for the acknowledgment of deeds; and where there is no acknowledgment on the part of the vendor, the recording officers in the various counties of this state shall refuse to accept such instrument for record.

History.—§1, ch. 11813, 1927; CGL 5719.

696.02 Assignments of contracts for sale of realty not entitled to record unless original is recorded or entitled to record.—No assignment of any contract, agreement, or other instrument purporting to contain an agreement to purchase or sell real estate shall be recorded in any of the public records of this state, unless the contract, agreement or other instrument sought to be assigned shall have been recorded, or is entitled to be recorded under the provisions of §§696.01-696.04.

History.—§2, ch. 11813, 1927; CGL 5720.

696.03 When agreement executed by agent or attorney may be recorded.—No contract or agreement or other instrument purporting to contain an agreement to sell or purchase real estate, which has been executed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be recorded in any of the public records of this state, unless the authority of such agent or attorney in fact to execute the instrument sought to be recorded is produced and recorded by the recording officer, or is already recorded in the county where such instrument is sought to be recorded; and for the purposes of §§696.01-696.04 no authority for the execution of instruments by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accepted which is not executed in the manner provided by law for the execution of deeds.

History.—§3, ch. 11813, 1927; CGL 5721.

696.04 What instruments affected by §§696.01-696.03.—§§696.01-696.03 shall apply to all contracts and instruments, which had not been recorded on June 6, 1927; but nothing therein contained shall enlarge, impair, alter, or diminish the obligation of any such contract or agreement affected thereby as between the parties privy thereto, or as to those who have actual notice thereof.

History.—§4, ch. 11813, 1927; CGL 5722.

696.05 Photographic recording authorized; clerk circuit court.—

(1) In every county in the state, the clerk of the circuit court may record any and all

- 696.03 When agreement executed by agent or attorney may be recorded.
- 696.04 What instruments affected by §§696.01-696.03.
- 696.05 Photographic recording authorized; clerk circuit court.
- 696.06 Same; county judges.

instruments filed for record by photographic process, this phrase being used in its most general sense and including miniature photographic, microfilming or microphotographic processes or any other photographic, mechanical or other process heretofore or hereafter devised, however designated, such as may be recommended by the clerk from time to time and approved by the board of county commissioners. The board of county commissioners shall provide out of the general revenue fund adequate equipment and supplies for making and preserving such records in accordance with the process so recommended and approved, and shall also provide adequate equipment for reproduction, and for viewing where said recording process is miniature photographic, microfilming or microphotographic, it being the intent hereof that such records shall be readily available for public inspection and copying. The clerk of the circuit court may note on the index to the photographic record of a mortgage or lien a note of assignment or a note of satisfaction of the mortgage or lien.

(2) All instruments heretofore recorded and all action of the boards of county commissioners and clerks of the circuit courts heretofore performed in the purchase of photographic equipment and its use in accordance with the provisions of this act are hereby validated and shall be held good and valid. All fees heretofore charged by the clerks of the circuit courts in accordance with the provisions of this act are hereby approved and confirmed.

History.—§1, ch. 10300, 1925; CGL 1936 Supp. 5722(1); am. §§1-4, ch. 22051, 1943; (2) and (3) R. by §8, ch. 29749, 1955, remaining subsection renum.; (1) by §1, ch. 59-429; (1) a. by §1, ch. 61-186.

696.06 Same; county judges.—

(1) In every county in the state, the county judge may record any and all instruments filed for record by photographic process, this phrase being used in its most general sense not excluding any photographic process heretofore or hereafter devised, however designated, such as may be recommended by the county judge from time to time and approved by the board of county commissioners, and the board of county commissioners shall provide out of the general revenue fund adequate equipment and supplies for making and preserving such records in accordance with the process so recommended and approved.

(2) Any instrument heretofore recorded and any action of the boards of county commissioners or county judges heretofore performed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be held good and valid.

History.—§1, ch. 11382, 1925; CGL 5723; am. §§1, 2, ch. 21785, 1943.

CHAPTER 697

INSTRUMENTS DEEMED MORTGAGES AND THE NATURE OF A MORTGAGE

- 697.01 Instruments deemed mortgages.
 697.02 Nature of a mortgage.
 697.03 Cooperative association mortgages.
 697.04 Future advances may be secured.

697.01 Instruments deemed mortgages.—All conveyances, obligations conditioned or defeasible, bills of sale or other instruments of writing conveying or selling property, either real or personal, for the purpose or with the intention of securing the payment of money, whether such instrument be from the debtor to the creditor or from the debtor to some third person in trust for the creditor, shall be deemed and held mortgages, and shall be subject to the same rules of foreclosure and to the same regulations, restraints and forms as are prescribed in relation to mortgages.

Provided, however, that no such conveyance shall be deemed or held to be a mortgage, as against a bona fide purchaser or mortgagee, for value without notice, holding under the grantee.

History.—§1, Jan. 30, 1838; §1, ch. 525, 1853; RS 1981; GS 2494; RGS 3836; CGL 5724; §12, ch. 20954, 1941.

697.02 Nature of a mortgage.—A mortgage shall be held to be a specific lien on the property therein described, and not a conveyance of the legal title or of the right of possession.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 525, 1853; RS 1982; GS 2495; RGS 3837; CGL 5725.

697.03 Cooperative association mortgages.—

(1) Hereafter, any mortgage or other instrument given by a cooperative association for the purpose of creating a lien on real or personal property, or both, may secure not only existing indebtedness, but also such future advances, whether obligatory or otherwise, as are made within ten years from the date thereof. Such lien, as to third persons without actual notice thereof, shall be valid as to all such indebtedness and future advances from the time the mortgage or other instrument is filed for record as provided by law. The total amount of indebtedness that may be so secured may decrease or increase from time to time, but the total unpaid balance so secured at any one time shall not exceed a maximum principal amount which must be specified therein, plus interest thereon, and any disbursements made for the payment of taxes, levies, or insurance on the property covered by the lien, with interest on such disbursements.

(2) A "Cooperative association" within the meaning of this section means any corporation formed, reorganized or brought under any general or special law of this or any other state as a cooperative association.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 20248, 1941.

697.04 Future advances may be secured.—

(1) Hereafter, any mortgage or other instrument given for the purpose of creating a lien on real or personal property, or both, including, but not limited to, livestock and agricultural, horticultural, or fruit crops, planted,

- 697.05 Balloon mortgages; scope of law; definition; requirements as to contents; penalties for violations; exemptions.

growing or to be planted, grown or raised, to secure agricultural, horticultural, or livestock loans, or loans of any other type or character, may, and when so expressed therein shall, secure not only existing indebtedness, but also such future advances, whether such advances are obligatory or to be made at the option of the lender, or otherwise, as are made within twenty years from the date thereof, to the same extent as if such future advances were made on the date of the execution of such mortgage or other instrument, although there may be no advance made at the time of the execution of such mortgage or other instrument, and although there may be no indebtedness outstanding at the time any advance is made. Such lien, as to third persons without actual notice thereof, shall be valid as to all such indebtedness and future advances from the time the mortgage or other instrument is filed for record as provided by law. The total amount of indebtedness that may be so secured may decrease or increase from time to time, but the total unpaid balance so secured at any one time shall not exceed a maximum principal amount which must be specified in such mortgage or other instrument, plus interest thereon, and any disbursements made for the payment of taxes, levies, or insurance on the property covered by the lien, with interest on such disbursements. This section shall not apply to any mortgages, shipping contracts, or other instruments made and given by naval stores operators and producers to secure existing loans and future advances by naval stores factors.

(2) As against the rights of creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration, actual notice or record notice of advances to be made at the option of the lender, under the terms of such mortgage or other instrument, shall be valid only as to such advances as are to be made within twenty years from the date of such mortgage or other instrument; provided that this section shall not apply to any mortgages, shipping contracts, or other instruments made and given by naval stores operators and producers to secure existing loans and future advances by naval stores factors.

(3) Any such mortgage or other instrument shall be prior in dignity to all subsequent encumbrances, including statutory liens, except landlords' liens.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 20846, 1941; §1, ch. 28116, 1953; (1), (2) §§1, 2, ch. 61-135; (1) §3, ch. 63-212.

697.05 Balloon mortgages; scope of law; definition; requirements as to contents; penalties for violations; exemptions.—

(1) Any conveyance, obligation conditioned or defeasible, bill of sale or other instrument of writing conveying or selling real property for the purpose or with the intention of securing the payment of money, whether such instrument be from the debtor to the creditor or from the debtor to some third person in trust for the creditor, shall be deemed and held to be a mortgage, and shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) Every mortgage in which the final payment or the balance due and payable upon maturity is greater than twice the amount of the regular monthly or periodic payment of the said mortgage shall be deemed a balloon mortgage, and shall have printed or clearly stamped on such mortgage: THIS IS A BALLOON MORTGAGE AND THE FINAL PAYMENT OR THE BALANCE DUE UPON MATURITY IS, TOGETHER WITH ACCRUED INTEREST, IF ANY, AND ALL ADVANCEMENTS MADE BY THE MORTGAGEE UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS MORTGAGE.

This legend including the total amount due upon maturity shall appear at the top of the first page or face sheet of the mortgage and also immediately above the place for signature of the mortgagor. The legend shall be conspicuously printed or stamped in type as large as the largest type used in the text of the instrument, either as an over-print or by a rubber stamp impression.

(3) Failure of a mortgagee, creditor or a third party in trust for a mortgagee or creditor to comply with the provisions of this section shall automatically extend the maturity date of such mortgage in the following manner:

The final payment or the balance due and payable is to be divided by the regular monthly or periodic payment and the quotient so secured is to be the number of months or periods the maturity date of the mortgage is extended. The mortgagor shall continue to make such monthly or periodic payments until the principal of the mortgage is paid. All such payments shall be credited to the principal only.

(4) Any mortgagee, creditor, bona fide holder, assignee, transferee, endorsee, or any agent, officer, or other representative of any such person violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit the entire interest charged, contracted to be charged or reserved under any such mortgage written in violation of this section, and only the principal sum of such mortgage can be enforced in any court in this state, either at law or in equity. Any interest, collection charge or attorney fee that has been paid or reserved or contracted for, either directly or indirectly, shall be forfeited to the person or mortgagor presently obligated under such mortgage.

(5) This section does not apply to the following:

(a) Any mortgage in effect prior to January 1, 1960;

(b) Any first mortgage;

(c) Any mortgage created for a term of more than five years;

(d) Any mortgage, the periodic payments on which are to consist of interest payments only, with the entire original principal sum to be payable upon maturity.

History.—§§1-5, ch. 59-356; (2), (5) a. by §1, ch. 61-472.

CHAPTER 698

CHATTEL MORTGAGES

- 698.01 To be recorded.
- 698.02 Acknowledgment.
- 698.03 Power of sale may be included in certain mortgages; exercise of power.
- 698.04 Sale under power.
- 698.05 Remedy concurrent.

698.01 To be recorded.—No chattel mortgage shall be valid or effectual against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice unless it be recorded, or unless the property included in it be delivered to the mortgagee and continue to remain truly and bona fide in his possession.

History.—§1983 RS 1892; GS 2496; RGS 3833; CGL 5726. cf.—§695.03, Acknowledgment.

698.02 Acknowledgment.—To entitle such mortgage to record, its execution must be acknowledged or proved in the manner provided for mortgages of real property.

History.—§1984 RS 1892; GS 2497; RGS 3839; CGL 5727.

698.03 Power of sale may be included in certain mortgages; exercise of power.—In all mortgages to or in favor of the government of the United States or any agencies thereunder making agricultural loans, or to secure principal indebtedness not exceeding five hundred dollars, bearing interest not in excess of the general legal rate, on farm machinery and equipment, and agricultural, horticultural or fruit crops in being, it may be provided or covenanted that the mortgagee, his legal representatives or assigns, shall have the power to sell the mortgaged property upon any breach or default by the mortgagor of the terms, covenants, conditions or stipulations of such mortgage or of the obligation thereby secured or upon nonpayment of the indebtedness secured by such mortgage or interest thereon, when due and payable in such manner and on such terms as may be provided in such mortgage, and all such provisions and covenants shall be valid, effectual and enforceable, and every such sale thereunder shall vest in the purchaser, or purchasers, the title in and to the property mortgaged and described in such mortgage.

In case of the exercise of such power of sale, written notice of such sale shall be given to the mortgagor and all persons claiming by, through or under him by instrument duly recorded, not less than fifteen days prior to such sale. Such notice may be served in the same manner as summons ad respondendum are served pursuant to the laws of Florida, and a copy of such notice shall be published at least twice, the first publication of which shall be not less than twenty days prior to such sale, in a newspaper published in the county where such sale shall occur, and another copy of such notice shall be served upon any person in charge or having or taking part in the supervision or care of such mortgaged property, or any part thereof. If there be no newspaper published in such

- 698.08 Notice given by filing for record of chattel mortgages generally, to extend seven years.
- 698.09 Extension of period of notice.
- 698.10 Effect on certain existing instruments.
- 698.11 Duties of clerk in connection with extension.

county, then such publication may be made in a newspaper published in any county adjoining that wherein such sale is to be made. Such notice may be served upon any of said parties wherever they may be within the state. If any person to whom notice is required to be given under this statute shall not reside in the state, or his residence be unknown to the mortgagee, his legal representatives or assigns, then it shall not be necessary to make personal service of such notice upon him, and in such case, the publication of such notice as above provided shall be sufficient; provided, that where the address of such nonresident be known to the mortgagee, his legal representative or assigns, a copy of such notice shall be mailed to him at such address, by registered mail.

Every such sale shall occur upon a rule day of the circuit court, during the hours prescribed for sheriff's sales at the courthouse of the county where such property is situate at the time of the sale, and if the property is situate in more than one county, the sale may occur in any county where any part of such property is located. The actual possession of such mortgaged property, or its presence, at the place of sale shall be unnecessary to the validity of any such sale.

Every such notice of sale shall describe the mortgaged property to be sold and state the time and place of sale, the name of the person who will conduct the sale and the amount claimed to be due and secured by such mortgage and for the payment of which such sale is being held.

The proceeds of every such sale shall be applied first to the payment of the costs and expenses of such sale, including the cost of advertising and serving notices and of the person conducting such sale (which shall be the same as the fees prescribed by law to be paid sheriffs for conducting sales and executing sheriff's deeds under executions) and attorney's fees of ten per cent of the principal and accrued interest of the obligation secured by such mortgage, for the services of the attorney for the mortgagee or his assigns, and then to the payment of the obligation secured by such property mortgage, including unpaid interest, if any, and the balance or excess, if any, shall be paid to the owner of such mortgaged property if he be known; otherwise, such excess shall be paid by the person conducting such sale into the registry of the circuit court for such county to be there held for the benefit of the person lawfully entitled to the same.

History.—§1, ch. 17108, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(1).

698.04 Sale under power.—In case of any sale of property under a power of sale as provided in §698.03, the sale may be conducted by the mortgagee or assignee, or by any person appointed by the mortgagee or as assignee, and the person conducting such sale shall execute a bill of sale to the purchaser or purchasers, which shall effectively transfer title to the property so sold. The mortgagee or assignee may bid and become the purchaser at any such sale. All rights and remedies of the mortgagee provided in §§698.03-698.05 shall extend to the mortgagee's legal representatives and assigns.

History.—§2, ch. 17108, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(2).

698.05 Remedy concurrent.—Nothing in §§698.03 and 698.04 shall prevent the holder of any such mortgage from foreclosing such mortgage in equity; the remedy by power of sale given in said sections being intended to be cumulative and concurrent, but not exclusive. In all other respects, the laws relating to chattel mortgages shall be applicable to such mortgages.

History.—§3, ch. 17108, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(3).

698.08 Notice given by filing for record of chattel mortgages generally, to extend seven years.—

(1) The notice given to third persons by the filing for record of any mortgage or other security instrument, except mortgages or other instruments given to secure future advances, creating a lien on or conveying or reserving an interest in, personal property, or agricultural, horticultural or fruit crops planted, growing or to be planted, grown or raised, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, expire at the end of seven years from the date of the filing thereof for record.

(2) The notice given to third persons by the filing for record of any mortgage or other security instrument given to secure future advances, creating a lien on, or conveying or reserving an interest in, personal property or agricultural, horticultural or fruit crops planted, growing or to be planted, grown or raised, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, expire at the end of:

(a) Seven years from the date of maturity of the debts or obligations last maturing thereunder and secured by such mortgages or other security instruments, or

(b) Seven years from the last date an advance could validly be made thereunder so as to be secured thereby, whichever of said dates is later.

(3) Provided, however, that this law shall not apply to any mortgage or other security instrument creating a lien on, or conveying or reserving an interest in, or in respect of property owned by, or sold or leased to, or agreed to be sold or leased to, any railroad corporation, where such mortgage has been or shall be recorded in the county in the state in which the mortgaged property is situated or, in the case of such other instrument, where such other instrument has been or shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state. Provided further, however, that this law shall not apply to any mortgage or other security instrument given to secure any indebtedness to the United States, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, incurred under the rural electrification act of 1939, as amended.

History.—§1, ch. 17112, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(7); §1, ch. 20921, 1941; §1, ch. 26889, 1951; §4, ch. 63-212. cf.—§95.11 Limitation of actions on sealed instruments.

698.09 Extension of period of notice.—The effect as to third persons of the filing of any such instrument for record, may, in all respects, including the preservation of priority thereof, be extended for successive additional periods, each not exceeding seven years from the date of the filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, wherein any such instrument is recorded, upon the filing by the owner or holder thereof, of an affidavit identifying such instrument, stating his interest therein and the nature and amount unpaid on the obligation still secured thereby. Provided, however, that where a mortgage or other security instrument has been amended or supplemented one or more times and an identifying affidavit is so filed for record by the owner or holder thereof with respect to the original mortgage or other security instrument and mention is made in such affidavit of any instrument or instruments amendatory or supplemental thereto such identifying affidavit need not be filed with respect to such amendatory or supplemental instrument or instruments so mentioned therein and the effect of such amendatory or supplemental instrument or instruments and the preservation of any lien or priority thereof shall be extended along with the original mortgage or other security instrument as to which affidavit or affidavits have been filed in accordance with the requirements of this §698.09.

History.—§2, ch. 17112, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(8).

Am. §1, ch. 28083, 1953.

Note: §614.17 is expressly not modified, repealed or otherwise affected by the 1953 amendment of this section.

698.10 Effect on certain existing instruments.—The notice given by the filing of any mortgage, or other security instrument creating a lien on, or conveying or reserving an interest in, personal property, or agricultural, horticultural or fruit crops planted, growing or to be planted, grown or raised, filed or recorded, prior to May 1, 1935, shall not extend more than seven years from said date, unless within seven years therefrom such an affidavit is so filed.

History.—§3, ch. 17112, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(9).

698.11 Duties of clerk in connection with extension.—The clerk of the circuit court shall file such affidavit, reindex the instrument mentioned therein, and enter on the margin of the record of such instrument a reference to the filing of such affidavit, stating thereon the date of filing of such affidavit and the amount unpaid on the obligation secured by such instrument, for which services the clerk of the circuit court shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents.

History.—§4, ch. 17112, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5727(10).

CHAPTER 699

LIVESTOCK MORTGAGES AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS

- 699.01 Definitions.
- 699.02 Power of sale may be included in livestock mortgages; exercise of power.
- 699.03 Form of livestock mortgages.
- 699.04 Livestock mortgages to cover progeny, and to secure extensions of indebtedness.
- 699.05 Lien of mortgage attaches to future-acquired livestock.
- 699.06 Record of livestock mortgages.
- 699.07 Where instruments relating to livestock must be recorded in order to constitute notice.
- 699.08 What description sufficient.
- 699.09 Mortgaged livestock not to be removed from county or otherwise disposed of; remedies of mortgagee.
- 699.10 Limitation on enforcement of livestock mortgages.
- 699.11 Provisions of this chapter to be cumulative.
- 699.12 Powers of circuit courts in aid of rights of mortgagee.
- 699.13 Sale under power contained in mortgage.
- 699.14 Penalty for disposing of property under lien.

699.01 Definitions.—For the purpose of this chapter the word “livestock” shall include horses, mules, asses, cows, bulls, steers, calves and all kinds of cattle, goats, sheep, hogs and livestock of all kinds without limitation. The word “obligation” as herein used shall include promissory notes, bonds, debts and evidences of indebtedness of all kinds.

History.—§1, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5728.

699.02 Power of sale may be included in livestock mortgages; exercise of power.—In all mortgages on livestock it may be provided or covenanted that the mortgagee, his legal representatives or assigns, shall have the power to sell the mortgaged property upon any breach or default by the mortgagor of the terms, covenants, conditions or stipulations of such mortgage or of the obligation thereby secured or upon nonpayment of any indebtedness secured by such mortgage or interest thereon, when due and payable in such manner and on such terms as may be provided in such mortgage, and all such provisions and covenants shall be valid, effectual and enforceable, and every such sale thereunder shall vest in the purchaser or purchasers the title in and to the livestock mortgaged and described in such mortgage. In case of the exercise of such power of sale, written notice of such sale shall be given to the mortgagor and all persons claiming by, through or under him by instrument duly recorded, not less than ten days prior to such sale. Such notice may be served in the same manner as summons are served pursuant to the laws of Florida, and a copy of such notice shall be published at least twice, the first publication of which shall be not less than fifteen days prior to such sale, in a newspaper published in the county where such sale shall occur, and another copy of such notice shall be served upon any person in charge or having or taking part in the supervision or care of such mortgaged livestock, or any part thereof. If there be no newspaper published in such county, then such publication may be made in a newspaper published in any county adjoining that wherein such sale is to be made. If any person to whom notice is required to be given under this statute shall not reside in the state, then it shall not be necessary to make personal service of such notice upon him, and in such case, the publication of such notice as above provided and mailing copy of such notice to such nonresident by registered mail shall be sufficient. Such notice may be served upon any of said parties wherever they may be within the state. Every such sale shall occur during the hours prescribed for sheriff's sales at the courthouse of the county where such livestock are situate at the time of the sale, and if the livestock are situate in more than one county, the sale may occur in any county where any part of such livestock is located. The actual possession of such mortgaged livestock, or its presence, at the place of sale shall be unnecessary to validity of any such sale. Every such notice of sale shall describe the mortgaged property to be sold and state the time and place of sale, the name of the person who will conduct the sale and the amount claimed to be due and secured by such mortgage and for the payment of which such sale is being held. The proceeds of every such sale shall be applied first to the payment of the costs and expenses of such sale, including the cost of advertising and serving notices and of the person conducting such sale, (which shall be the same as the fees prescribed by law to be paid sheriffs for conducting sales and executing sheriff's deeds under executions) and attorney's fees of ten per cent of the principal and accrued interest of the obligation secured by such mortgage, for the services of the attorney for the mortgagee or his assigns, and then to the payment of the obligation secured by such livestock mortgage, including unpaid interest, if any, and the balance or excess, if any, shall be paid to the owner of such mortgaged livestock if he be known; otherwise, such excess shall be paid by the person conducting such sale into the registry of the circuit court for such county to be there held for the benefit of the person lawfully entitled to the same.

History.—§2, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5729; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

cf.—§699.13, Sale under power contained in the mortgage.
 §702.01 et seq., Foreclosure in general.
 §1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

699.03 Form of livestock mortgages.—Mortgages on livestock may be in substantially the following form:

This mortgage made the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, by _____, mortgagor, to _____, mortgagee:

WITNESS: That the mortgagor does hereby mortgage, bargain, sell and convey to the mortgagee the following livestock now situated in _____ county, Florida, (here describe the property to be mortgaged) as security for the payment of (here describe the indebtedness, note or obligation to be secured).

And the mortgagor agrees to pay said obligation when due, with interest as stated therein, and to comply with all the terms of said obligation, and to pay all expenses of collection thereof including an attorney's fee of ten per cent of the unpaid principal and interest of said obligation.

In the event of the failure or refusal of the mortgagor or _____ heirs, legal representatives or assigns to pay this mortgage and the obligation secured thereby, principal and interest, or of the breach or nonperformance of any of the covenants or provisions of this mortgage, then the mortgagee _____ legal representatives or assigns may and is hereby authorized to take immediate possession of said above described livestock and sell the same at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, at the courthouse in _____ county, Florida, after giving fifteen days notice thereof, as provided by law, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied, first to the cost of making such sale and then to the payment of the amount of principal, interest and attorney's fees due upon said obligation and the remainder of the proceeds, if any, shall be paid to the mortgagor or _____ legal representatives or assigns.

(Here insert any additional covenants, conditions, stipulations or agreements agreed upon by the parties, including such covenants, stipulations and provisions relating to power of sale without judicial foreclosure as may be desired).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the mortgagor has subscribed this instrument the day and year first above written.

History.—§3, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5730.

699.04 Livestock mortgages to cover progeny, and to secure extensions of indebtedness.—The lien of all mortgages on livestock shall, unless otherwise expressly provided therein, include and extend to all progeny or offspring of such mortgaged livestock; and every such mortgage shall secure all extensions and renewals in whole or in part of the obligation or indebtedness, or evidences of indebtedness mentioned or referred to in such mortgage as fully and to the same extent as the original obligation or indebtedness is secured by such mortgage.

History.—§4, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5731.

699.05 Lien of mortgage attaches to future-acquired livestock.—All mortgages upon livestock shall constitute a lien upon the livestock mentioned, described or referred to therein, whether at the time of the execution of such mortgage, such livestock shall be in the county or state where the same shall be stated to be or not, and whether actually in the possession of the mortgagor or not, provided that the mortgagor is or at any time before the payment of such mortgage shall become the owner of such property.

History.—§5, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5732; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

699.06 Record of livestock mortgages.—All livestock mortgages shall be entitled to record in like manner and under the same circumstances as other mortgages on personal property.

History.—§6, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5733.

699.07 Where instruments relating to livestock must be recorded in order to constitute notice.—All bills of sale, conditional bills of sale, retain title contracts, contracts, mortgages, liens and leases upon livestock to be of any force and effect against any bona fide purchaser or party acquiring an interest in or a lien upon said livestock, without actual knowledge of outstanding claims against same, must be recorded and indexed in the county where said livestock is located or in the county from which said livestock has just recently been removed.

History.—§1, ch. 16073, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5733(1).

699.08 What description sufficient.—Mortgages on livestock may cover or include specified numbers of animals constituting a part or all of a stock, flock or herd and having the same mark or marks and brand or brands, and in such cases all such mortgages shall be valid and effectual without any other or more specific description.

History.—§7, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5734.

699.09 Mortgaged livestock not to be removed from county or otherwise disposed of; remedies of mortgagee.—No person who shall give or execute any mortgage on livestock nor any person who shall buy, hold, possess or acquire or have any interest or lien in such livestock subordinate or inferior to any mortgages thereon shall remove or permit the removal of said livestock from the county, or otherwise sell or dispose of the same, without the written consent of the mortgagee; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this section the obligation secured by such mortgage shall at the option of holder of such mortgage become immediately due and the mortgagee shall have the right to enforce forthwith all of his rights and remedies for the payment and collection of such mortgage and of the obligation thereby secured, whether at such time by its terms due and payable or not, and the mortgagee shall be entitled to take immediate possession of such mortgaged livestock.

History.—§8, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5735; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

cf.—§599.14, Penalty for disposing of property under lien.

699.10 Limitation on enforcement of livestock mortgages.—

(1) Mortgages on livestock, other than mortgages or other instruments given to secure future advances, filed and recorded in any county in this state, shall be presumed to have been paid and shall not be enforceable or collectible after the expiration of seven years from the date of maturity of the debts or obligations secured by such mortgages, unless the owner or holder of such livestock mortgage, his agent or attorney, shall, prior to the expiration of the said period of seven years, file and cause to be recorded in the record of mortgages in the county where such livestock mortgage was recorded an affidavit stating that such debt or obligation has not been paid and the amount still due thereon.

(2) Mortgages on livestock, given to secure future advances, filed and recorded in any county in this state, shall be presumed to have been paid and shall not be enforceable or collectible after the expiration of:

(a) Seven years from the date of maturity of the debts or obligations last maturing thereunder and secured by such mortgages, or

(b) Seven years from the last date an advance could validly be made thereunder so as to be secured thereby, whichever of said dates is later, unless the owner or holder of such livestock mortgage to secure future advances, his agent or attorney, shall, prior to the expiration of said period, file and cause to be recorded in the record of mortgages in the county where such livestock mortgage to secure future advances was recorded, an affidavit stating that such debt or obligation has not been paid and the amount still due thereon.

History.—§9, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5736; §5, ch. 63-212. cf.—§95.11, Limitation of actions on sealed instruments.

699.11 Provisions of this chapter to be cumulative.—Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the use of any other form or forms of livestock mortgages than that set forth in §699.03, or render invalid any special provision, condition, agreements or covenants in any mortgage of livestock (including the form set forth in said §699.03) which would be valid or enforceable in any mortgage of other kinds of personal property or under this chapter; nor shall anything in this chapter prevent the holder of any such mortgage on livestock from foreclosing such mortgage in equity as in other cases of mortgages on other classes of property, the remedy by power of sale given in this chapter being intended to be cumulative and concurrent, but not exclusive.

History.—§10, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5737.

699.12 Powers of circuit courts in aid of rights of mortgagee.—The circuit courts of this state in equity shall have full power to issue writs of injunction to prevent the removal of mortgaged livestock from the county in which they were situate when mortgaged, or the unlawful disposition thereof, and to appoint receivers for such mortgaged livestock whenever in the discretion of such court any such remedy shall be necessary for the preservation of the lien of the mortgage, or for the protection and preservation of such livestock or to prevent the security from being impaired, or depreciated. Such courts may also order such mortgaged livestock to be sold pending any such suit, when livestock is returned to the county where mortgaged, and the proceeds held in court to abide the result of such suit. Such remedies may be granted either on complaint or in connection with any suit to foreclose any such mortgage or the exercise of any power of sale under such mortgage. For the exercise of any such remedies it shall not be necessary to allege or prove that the mortgagor is insolvent, or that the mortgaged property is insufficient to pay the mortgaged indebtedness.

History.—§11, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5738; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

699.13 Sale under power contained in mortgage.—In case of any sale of livestock under a power of sale, provided for by such livestock mortgage and hereunder, the sale may be conducted by any person appointed by the mortgagee, and the person conducting such sale shall execute a bill of sale to the purchaser or purchasers which shall effectually transfer title to the property so sold. The mortgagee or his assigns may bid and become the purchaser at any such sale. All the rights and remedies of the mortgagee provided in this chapter shall extend to the mortgagee's legal representatives and assigns.

History.—§12, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 5739. cf.—§702.01 et seq., Foreclosure of mortgage.

699.14 Penalty for disposing of property under lien.—Whoever shall pledge, mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of any livestock to him belonging, or which shall be in his possession and which shall be subject to any mortgage upon such livestock or to any written lien or to any statutory lien whether written or not, without the written consent of the person holding such livestock mortgage or lien, or whoever shall remove or cause to be removed beyond the limits of the county any such livestock without the consent aforesaid, and whoever shall willfully conceal such livestock or willfully obstruct, delay or hinder the holder of such mortgage thereon in the prosecution of his rights or remedies against such livestock shall, if the value of the property shall be less than one hundred dollars be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months; if the value of the property shall be more than one hundred dollars, the offender shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison for not exceeding five years.

History.—§13, ch. 7936, 1919; CGL 7322. cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

CHAPTER 700
CROP MORTGAGES

700.01 Crop mortgages authorized.
700.02 Necessity for recording.

700.01 Crop mortgages authorized.—Valid mortgage liens may be created upon agricultural, horticultural or fruit crops, then planted, growing, or to be thereafter planted, grown or raised; provided that the lands upon which said crops are grown or raised, or are to be thereafter grown or raised, are fully described in said mortgage.

History.—§1, ch. 10279, 1925; CGL 5741.
cf.—§85.22, Liens for loans and advances.

700.02 Necessity for recording.—In order to be valid, however, against subsequent encumbrances, or subsequent purchasers in good faith, all such mortgages shall be executed, acknowledged and recorded, as is now, or may be hereafter provided by law, upon mortgages upon real estate.

History.—§2, ch. 10279, 1925; CGL 5742.
cf.—§695.01 et seq., Recordation of conveyances and mortgages of real estate.

700.03 Fee for recording certain instruments in favor of United States or its agencies, etc.; copy may be used in recording.—The fee which shall be charged for the filing, indexing and recording of any mortgage, or other instrument creating a lien on or conveying or reserving an interest in personal property, or agricultural, horticultural, or fruit crops planted, growing or to be planted, grown or raised, or any transfer or assignment thereof, to or in favor of the government of the United States, or any department, agency, or officer thereof, the reconstruction finance corporation, the land bank commissioner, the federal farm mortgage corporation, any corporation organized under the act of congress known as the farm credit act of 1933, and amendments thereto, any corporation organized under the act of congress known as the federal farm loan act, and amendments thereto, or any corporation which rediscounts notes or other obligations with, or procures loans from a federal intermediate credit bank, shall be not more than fifty cents, provided, that a copy or duplicate of such instrument be furnished to the recording officer.

700.03 Fee for recording certain instruments in favor of United States or its agencies, etc.; copy may be used in recording.

When a copy of any such mortgage, or such other instrument, or any transfer or assignment thereof, shall be presented with the original thereof for record, the pasting or otherwise securely fastening of such copy in the book or books provided for the recording of such instrument shall be a good and sufficient record thereof.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 17106, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5723(5).

CHAPTER 701

ASSIGNMENT AND CANCELLATION OF MORTGAGES

701.01 Assignment.

701.02 Assignment not effectual against creditors unless recorded.

701.03 Cancellation.

701.04 Cancellation of mortgages, liens and judgments.

701.05 Failing or refusing to satisfy lien; punishment for.

701.06 Certain cancellations and satisfactions of mortgages validated.

701.01 Assignment.—Any mortgagee may assign and transfer any mortgage made to him, and the person to whom any mortgage may be assigned or transferred may also assign and transfer it, and he or his assigns or subsequent assignees may lawfully have, take and pursue the same means and remedies which the mortgagee may lawfully have, take or pursue for the foreclosure of a mortgage and for the recovery of the money secured thereby.

History.—§1, Dec. 11, 1834; RS 1985; GS 2498; RGS 3840; CGL 5743.

701.02 Assignment not effectual against creditors unless recorded.—No assignment of a mortgage upon real property or of any interest therein, shall be good or effectual in law or equity, against creditors or subsequent purchasers, for a valuable consideration, and without notice, unless the same be recorded according to law.

The provisions of this section shall also extend to assignments of mortgages resulting from transfers of all or any part or parts of the debt, note or notes secured by mortgage, and none of same shall be effectual in law or in equity against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration without notice, unless a duly executed assignment be recorded according to law.

Any assignment of a mortgage, duly executed and recorded according to law, purporting to assign the principal of the mortgage debt or the unpaid balance of such principal, shall, as against subsequent purchasers and creditors for value and without notice, be held and deemed to assign any and all accrued and unpaid interest secured by such mortgage, unless such interest shall be specifically and affirmatively reserved in such assignment by the assignor, and no reservation of such interest or any part thereof shall be implied.

History.—§1, ch. 6909, 1915; RGS 3841; CGL 5744; §13, ch. 20954, 1941.
cf.—§695.01 et seq., Recordation of conveyances and mortgages of real estate.

701.03 Cancellation.—Whenever the amount of money due on any mortgage shall be fully paid, the mortgagee or assignee shall within sixty days thereafter cancel the same in the manner provided by §28.22.

History.—RS 1986; GS 2499; RGS 3842; CGL 5745.

701.04 Cancellation of mortgages, liens and judgments.—Whenever the amount of money due on any mortgage, lien or judgment shall be fully paid to the person or party entitled to the payment thereof, the mortgagee, creditor or assignee, or the attorney of record in the case of a judgment, to whom such payment shall have been made, shall enter on the margin of the record of such mortgage, notice of lien or judgment, in the presence of the custodian of such record, to be attested by said custodian, satisfaction of said mortgage, notice of lien or judgment, and sign the same with his, her or their hand; or shall execute in writing an instrument acknowledging satisfaction of said mortgage, lien or judgment, and have the same acknowledged or proven, and duly entered of record in the book provided by law for such purposes in the proper county.

History.—§1, ch. 4138, 1893; §1, ch. 4918, 1901; GS 2500; RGS 3843; CGL 5746.

701.05 Failing or refusing to satisfy lien; punishment for.—Any person entitled to and receiving the payment of the amount of money due upon any mortgage, lien or judgment, who shall fail for thirty days after written demand made by the person paying the same, to cancel and satisfy of record, as provided by law, any such mortgage, lien or judgment so paid, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months.

History.—§2, ch. 4918, 1901; GS 3712; RGS 5663; CGL 7866.

cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

701.06 Certain cancellations and satisfactions of mortgages validated.—All cancellations or satisfactions of mortgages made prior to the enactment of chapter 4138, acts of 1893, by the mortgagee or assignee of record of such mortgage entering same on the margin of the record of such mortgage in the presence of the custodian of such record and attested by the said custodian and signed by said mortgagee or assignee of record of such mortgage, shall be valid and effectual for every purpose as if the same had been done subsequent to the enactment of chapter 4138, acts of 1893.

History.—§1, ch. 14763, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5746(1).

CHAPTER 702

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES

- 702.01 Chancery.
 702.02 Foreclosure procedure.
 702.021 Alternative foreclosure procedure.
 702.03 Certain foreclosures validated.
 702.04 Mortgaged lands in different counties.
 702.05 Mortgaged lands sold for taxes.
 702.06 Deficiency decree; common law suit to recover deficiency.

702.01 Chancery.—All mortgages shall be foreclosed in chancery, unless otherwise provided by statute.

History.—§1987 RS 1892; GS 2501; RGS 8844; CGL 5747; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.
 cf. §§37.01(i) and 81.25, Foreclosure of certain mortgages in courts of justice of the peace.
 §699.02, Foreclosure of certain mortgages under power of sale.

702.02 Foreclosure procedure.—

(1) COMPLAINT.—In foreclosure, the original or a copy of the mortgage note and mortgage shall be attached to the complaint as a part thereof, and such attachment shall constitute averments of all of the contents of each instrument to the same extent as if fully set forth in the body of the complaint. If a copy of the mortgage note be contained in the mortgage, attachment of the mortgage alone shall be sufficient.

(2) SALE BY CLERK.—In any final decree of foreclosure, the court shall direct its clerk to sell the mortgaged property at public sale on the day specified in such final decree, which day shall be not less than ten nor more than thirty days after the date of such final decree, and upon the terms and conditions as provided in such final decree. Notice of such sale shall be published once only at least seven days prior to the sale in a newspaper circulated in the county where the sale is to be held. Such notice shall be concise and shall contain:

- (a) A description of the property to be sold;
- (b) The time and place of sale;
- (c) A statement that the sale will be made pursuant to a final decree of foreclosure, and specifying the court in which the cause be pending and the docket number of the case; and
- (d) The name of the clerk making the sale. For his services in making such sale, the clerk shall receive a fee of ten dollars, to be assessed as cost.

(3) CERTIFICATION OF SALE.—After a sale of the mortgaged property, the clerk shall promptly complete and file in the proceeding a certificate of sale, which shall be substantially in the following form:

(Style of case) (Designation of court)
CERTIFICATE OF SALE

I, _____, Clerk of the above entitled Court, do hereby certify that pursuant to the directions of the Court in its Final Decree of Foreclosure entered herein, I gave notice of public sale of the mortgaged property described in said decree, by publishing same in _____, a newspaper circulated in _____ County,

- 702.07 Power of courts and judges to set aside foreclosure decrees at any time before sale.
 702.08 Effect of setting aside foreclosure decree.
 702.09 Definitions.

Florida, in the manner evidenced by Proof of Publication hereto attached, and on the _____ day of _____, 19____, offered said mortgaged property for sale at public outcry to the highest and best bidder for cash, and at such sale the highest and best bid received for said property was that submitted by _____, being a bid in the amount of $_____, and I thereupon accepted such bid and sold said property to the said _____, and have retained the proceeds of such sale for distribution in accordance with the directions of said decree.

I have received my fee of ten dollars for making the sale, same being paid by _____.

WITNESS my hand and the official seal of this Honorable Court, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(SEAL) _____, Clerk
 By _____
 Deputy Clerk

If no objections to such sale be filed in the proceeding within ten days after the filing of such certificate of sale, the clerk shall thereupon complete and file in the proceeding a further certificate of title which shall be substantially in the following form:

(Style of case) (Designation of court)

CERTIFICATE OF TITLE

I, _____, Clerk of the above entitled Court, do hereby certify that heretofore, on the _____ day of _____, 19____, I executed and filed herein my Certificate of Sale of the mortgaged property, and that no objections to such sale have been filed herein on or before the date hereof, and that 10 days have elapsed since the filing of said Certificate of Sale.

That, as recited in said Certificate of Sale, the mortgaged property described as follows, to wit:

(Description)

was sold by me to _____, who now has title thereto.

WITNESS my hand and the official seal of this Honorable Court, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(SEAL) _____, Clerk
 By _____
 Deputy Clerk

Upon the filing of the certificate of title, the sale shall stand confirmed as certified by the clerk and title to the mortgaged property shall pass fully and completely to the purchaser named in such certificate, without the necessity of any further proceedings or instruments. The certificates of the clerk provided herein shall be by him duly recorded in the chancery order book maintained by the clerk, and shall be duly indexed in the general index of the county under the name of the purchaser named in such certificate.

(4) DISBURSEMENT OF PROCEEDS OF SALE.—Upon the filing of a certificate of title, the clerk shall disburse the proceeds of the sale in accordance with the provisions of the final decree of foreclosure, and shall thereupon file in the proceeding a report of such disbursements, which report shall be substantially in the following form:

(Style of case) (Designation of court)

CERTIFICATE OF DISBURSEMENTS

I, _____, Clerk of the above entitled Court, do hereby certify that I have disbursed the proceeds received by me from the sale of the mortgaged property, as provided in the Final Decree of Foreclosure entered herein, to the persons and in the amounts, as follows:

Name	Total	Amount
------	-------	--------

WITNESS my hand and the official seal of this Honorable Court, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(SEAL) _____, Clerk

By _____ Deputy Clerk

If no objections to such report of disbursements be filed in the proceeding within ten days after the filing of the report, the disbursements by the clerk shall stand approved as reported. If any objections to the report of disbursements be filed within such ten day period, such objections shall be considered by the court; provided, however, that the filing of objections to the report of disbursements shall not in any manner affect or cloud the title of the purchaser at the sale to the mortgaged property.

(5) VALUE OF PROPERTY.—The value of the property sold by the clerk shall be conclusively presumed to be the amount bid therefor and for which the property was sold at the sale, unless objection thereto shall be filed in the cause within ten days after the filing of the clerk's certificate of sale. If any objections to said value be filed within such ten day period, such objections shall be considered by the court; provided, however, that the filing of objections to the value of the mortgaged property shall not in any manner affect or cloud the title of the purchaser at the sale to the mortgaged property. If no such objections be filed, the value as fixed herein shall have the same force and effect as if the court had decreed that the value of the said property was the amount bid and for which the property was sold at the foreclosure sale.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any suits pending at the time this act becomes a law.

History.—§1, ch. 2004, 1874; RS 1988; GS 2502; RGS 3845; §1, ch. 12095, 1927; CGL 5748; §1, ch. 28093, 1953; (2), (3), §§1, 2, ch. 63-46.

702.021 Alternative foreclosure procedure.—

(1) The foreclosure procedure set forth under §702.02, is declared to be an alternative method of foreclosure procedure and all foreclosure procedure in existence prior to the effective date of §702.02, is declared to be likewise an alternative foreclosure procedure. The plaintiff may adopt either method and the method so adopted shall exclusively govern.

(2) This section shall not affect suits pending on its effective date.

(3) All mortgage foreclosures, completed subsequent to June 2, 1953, whether they were completed in accordance with the procedure outlined in chapter 28093, acts of 1953, or in accordance with the procedure under the law as it existed prior to June 2, 1953, are hereby validated and confirmed insofar as relate to the procedure used.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2 and 4, ch. 29700, 1955.

702.03 Certain foreclosures validated.—All mortgage foreclosures heretofore made, or now pending, wherein there has been annexed to the bill of complaint in such cause, an uncertified copy of the mortgage, as provided by chapter 12095, acts of 1927, entitled: "An act to amend section 3845 RGS relating to complaint in foreclosure of mortgages" be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed insofar as relates to the copy of the mortgage attached to such complaint, to the same extent and effect as if section 3117, RGS, had been expressly repealed by chapter 12095, acts of 1927, entitled: "An act to amend section 3845 RGS relating to complaint in foreclosure of mortgages."

History.—§1, ch. 13642, 1929; CGL 5748(1).

702.04 Mortgaged lands in different counties.—When a mortgage includes lands, or railroad track, or right-of-way, or terminal facilities and station grounds, lying in two or more counties, it may be foreclosed in any one of said counties, and all proceedings shall be had in that county as if all the mortgaged land, or railroad track, or right-of-way, or terminal facilities and station grounds lay therein, except that notice of the sale must be published in every county wherein any of the lands, or railroad track, or right-of-way, or terminal facilities and station grounds to be sold lie. After final disposition of the suit, the clerk of the circuit court shall prepare and forward a certified copy of the decree of foreclosure and sale and of the decree of confirmation of sale to the clerk of the circuit court of every county wherein any of the mortgaged lands, or railroad tracks, or right-of-way, or terminal facilities and station grounds lie, to be recorded in the foreign judgment book of each such county, and the costs of such copies and of the record thereof shall be taxed as costs in the cause.

History.—RS 1989; §1, ch. 4420, 1895; GS 2503; §1, ch. 7339, 1917; RGS 3846; CGL 5749.

702.05 Mortgaged lands sold for taxes.—

Any person who has a lien by mortgage or otherwise upon lands sold for taxes may, within the time allowed by law for redemption, redeem such lands, and the receipt of the officer authorized to receive the amount paid for redemption money shall entitle the lien holder to collect the said amount, with interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum, as a part of and in the same manner as the amount secured by his original lien.

History.—§1, ch. 3903, 1889; RS 1990; GS 2504; RGS 3847; CGL 5750.

702.06 Deficiency decree; common law suit to recover deficiency.—In all suits for the foreclosure of mortgages heretofore or hereafter executed the entry of a deficiency decree for any portion of a deficiency, should one exist, shall be within the sound judicial discretion of the court, but the complainant shall also have the right to sue at common law to recover such deficiency, provided no suit at law to recover such deficiency shall be maintained against the original mortgagor in cases where the mortgage is for the purchase price of the property involved and where the original mortgagee becomes the purchaser thereof at foreclosure sale and also is granted a deficiency decree against the original mortgagor.

History.—§1, ch. 11993, 1927; CGL 5751; §1, ch. 13625, 1929.

702.07 Power of courts and judges to set aside foreclosure decrees at any time before sale.—The circuit courts of this state, and the judges thereof at chambers, shall have jurisdiction, power and authority to rescind, vacate and set aside a decree of foreclosure of a mortgage of property at any time before the sale thereof has been actually made pursuant to the terms of such decree, and to dismiss the foreclosure proceeding upon the payment of all court costs.

History.—§1, ch. 11881, 1927; CGL 5752.

702.08 Effect of setting aside foreclosure decree.—Whenever a decree of foreclosure has been so rescinded, vacated and set aside and the foreclosure proceedings dismissed as provided in §702.07, the mortgage together with its lien and the debt thereby secured shall be, both in law and equity, completely relieved of all effects of any kind whatsoever resulting from or on account of the foreclosure proceedings and the decree of foreclosure and fully restored in all respects to the original status of the same as it existed prior to the foreclosure proceedings and the decree of foreclosure, and thereafter the same shall be for all purposes whatsoever legally of force and effect just as if foreclosure proceeding had never been instituted and a decree of foreclosure had never been made.

History.—§2, ch. 11881, 1927; CGL 5753.

702.09 Definitions.—For the purposes of §§702.07 and 702.08 the words "decree of foreclosure" shall include a judgment or order rendered or passed in the foreclosure proceedings in which the decree of foreclosure shall be rescinded, vacated and set aside; the word "mortgage" shall mean any written instrument securing the payment of money or advances; the word "debt" shall include promissory notes, bonds and all other written obligations given for the payment of money; the words "foreclosure proceedings" shall embrace every action in the circuit courts of this state wherein it is sought to foreclose a mortgage and sell the property covered by the same; and the word "property" shall mean and include both real and personal property.

History.—§3, ch. 11881, 1927; CGL 5754.

CHAPTER 703

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE

- 703.01 County commissioners authorized to require clerk to make abstracts.
- 703.02 Abstracts of real estate upon petition; fees of clerk.
- 703.03 What abstract to show.
- 703.04 Abstracting tax sales.
- 703.05 Fees of clerk for furnishing abstract.
- 703.06 Board may purchase abstract books.
- 703.07 Abstracts of records destroyed by fire; purchase of abstract books by county; proceedings for.
- 703.08 Copies of abstracts as evidence.
- 703.09 Condemnation of abstracts, maps, etc., by county where records have been destroyed.
- 703.10 Order to show cause; enjoining owners from removing abstracts, etc., beyond jurisdiction of court.
- 703.11 Order granting petition; jury to assess compensation; copies of original abstracts, etc.
- 703.13 Payment of compensation and delivery of abstracts, etc.; petitioner to pay cost.
- 703.14 Penalty for failure to deliver abstracts, etc.
- 703.15 Abstracts, etc., acquired by condemnation.
- 703.17 Alteration of abstracts condemned by county for use of the public.
- 703.18 Refusing to make abstract.
- 703.19 Filing untrue copies of abstracts ordered filed for use of public.

703.01 County commissioners authorized to require clerk to make abstracts.—The county commissioners in and for any county of this state, whenever the said board deems it advisable, may require the clerk of the circuit court in and for said county to abstract any or all instruments of writing affecting any real estate situated in the county as the same is recorded. For such services the clerk may charge and collect a fee not to exceed 30¢ for each piece of property so abstracted, provided there are not more than two descriptions. In instruments to be recorded, where there are more than two descriptions, the fee of the clerk shall not exceed 30¢ for each of the first two descriptions, and an additional fee of 10¢ for each of the others. In cases where instruments are to be recorded and real estate is described by reference only, a search fee not to exceed 25¢ may be collected. These fees shall be taxed as a part of the recording fee of said instruments.

History.—§1, ch. 5173, 1903; GS 2505; RGS 3348; CGL 5755; §1, ch. 61-386.

703.02 Abstracts of real estate upon petition; fees of clerk.—Upon a petition of a majority of the registered voters of any county of this state, the board of county commissioners of said county, if they deem it advisable, shall have abstracted, under the supervision of said clerk, any or all instruments of record relating to real estate situated in said county. For such services the clerk shall receive a compensation not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month for himself or each deputy employed in the actual performance of such service.

History.—§2, ch. 5173, 1903; GS 2506; RGS 3349; CGL 5756.

703.03 What abstract to show.—The said abstract books shall be so ruled and headed as to show the description of the property, the names of the grantors and grantees, mortgages and mortgagees, nature of the instrument, consideration, date, release of dower, number of witnesses, number of book and page of record, and such other information, and arranged in such order, as the said board of commissioners may deem advisable.

History.—§3, ch. 5173, 1903; GS 2507; RGS 3350; CGL 5757.

703.04 Abstracting tax sales.—Whenever the said board of county commissioners deem it advisable, they shall have abstracted any or all of the tax sales relating to any real estate situated in the county. This shall be done under the supervision of the clerk, who shall receive a monthly compensation for himself or deputy, or deputies, not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month during the performance of such services. The said abstract books shall be so ruled and headed as to show number of certificate, date of sale, the year for which taxes were unpaid, number and page of book where recorded, date of redemption or cancellation, date of deed, number and page of book where recorded, and such other information and in such order as may be deemed advisable.

History.—§4, ch. 5173, 1903; GS 2508; RGS 3351; CGL 5758.

703.05 Fees of clerk for furnishing abstract.—When the records of the county have been abstracted, the fee of the clerk for making an abstract shall be fifty cents for the first transfer and twenty-five cents for every other record affecting the same.

History.—§5, ch. 5173, 1903; GS 2509; RGS 3352; CGL 5759.

703.06 Board may purchase abstract books.—Upon a petition of a majority of the registered voters of any county in this state, the board of county commissioners of said county, if the said board deems it advisable, may purchase a set of abstract books, for whatever price and on whatever terms the board may deem expedient. The clerk of the court shall have custody of said books, and they shall be open to examination free of charge.

History.—§6, ch. 5173, 1903; GS 2510; RGS 3353; CGL 5760.

703.07 Abstracts of records destroyed by fire; purchase of abstract books by county; proceedings for.—When the records, or any material part thereof, in any county in this state, concerning the title to property have been heretofore destroyed by fire, so that a connected chain of title cannot be taken therefrom, the judge of the circuit court of such county, if requested by the board of county commissioners of such county by resolution of such board, shall appoint three competent and trustworthy persons as commissioners to examine into the state of the records in such county, and in case they find any abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats from such records, existing after such destruction as aforesaid, and find that such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats were fairly made before such destruction of the records by any person or persons in the ordinary course of business, and that they contain a material and substantial part of such records, they shall certify the facts found by them in respect to such copies, abstracts, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, and also (if they are of that opinion) that such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats tend to show a connected chain of title to the lands in said county, and shall file such certificates with the county clerk of the proper county, and the board of county commissioners thereof may, with the approval of the judge of the circuit court of the county, purchase from the owners thereof such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, or such parts thereof as may tend to constitute a connected chain of title to the lands in said county, including all judgments and decrees that form part of such chain of title, paying therefor such reasonable price as may be agreed upon between them and such owners; provided, that such price shall be approved by said board of three commissioners appointed by such circuit judge as aforesaid, and also by said circuit judge; or such board of county commissioners may, with such approval and upon such conditions, procure a copy of said abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, instead of the originals, to be paid for in like manner, upon approval of the price thereof by said circuit judge and said board of three commissioners as aforesaid.

The compensation of said three commissioners to be appointed by said circuit judge as aforesaid shall be fixed and allowed by the board of county commissioners, and shall be paid by the county.

History.—§2, ch. 4951, 1901; GS 2511; RGS 3854; CGL 5761.

703.08 Copies of abstracts as evidence.—The abstracts, copies, minutes, maps and plats of said county purchased under the provisions of §703.07 shall thereupon be placed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of said county, to be copied or arranged in such form as the board of county commissioners shall deem best for the public interest. And in case the originals have been lost or destroyed, and no certified copy from the records of the original papers shall be in the power, custody or control of the party asking to use the same on any trial or other proceedings, copies of the same, or any part thereof, duly certified by the clerk of the circuit court of said county, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts of law and equity in this state. Such clerk shall furnish to any and all parties requesting it, upon being paid his proper fees, certified copies of the same, or parts thereof.

History.—§3, ch. 4951, 1901; GS 2512; RGS 3855; CGL 5762.

703.09 Condemnation of abstracts, maps, etc., by county where records have been destroyed.—When the records, or any material part thereof, in any county in this state, concerning the title to property, have been destroyed by fire or other causes, so that a connected chain of title cannot be taken therefrom, and any person or corporation is possessed of any abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, made from said records before such destruction, the board of county commissioners of any such county may acquire such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats in whole or in part, as the board may determine, or copies thereof, to be placed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the use of the public as part of the public records, in the following manner: (1) first, the said board shall determine, by an entry in their minutes, what abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats so owned by any person or corporation they desire to acquire for the use of the public; (2) second, the said board of county commissioners shall thereupon cause a petition in the name of such county, to be presented to the judge of the circuit court of the circuit in which such county is situated, setting forth what abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, so made from such burned records, are required, and giving the name of any person, persons or corporation owning the same or in possession thereof, and praying that the said abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, or copies thereof sworn to by the custodian thereof to be correct copies of the same, may be condemned and placed in the clerk's office for the use of the public as part of the public records.

History.—§1, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 3856; CGL 5763.

703.10 Order to show cause; enjoining owners from removing abstracts, etc., beyond jurisdiction of court.—Upon the presentation of such petition to such judge, he shall make an order requiring the owner or custodian of such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats to appear before him at a day by him fixed, not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the date of such order, and show cause why the petition should not be granted, and the said judge shall at the time make an order enjoining the owners or persons in charge of such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats from removing the same beyond the jurisdiction of the court pending the litigation.

History.—§2, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 3857; CGL 5764.

703.11 Order granting petition; jury to assess compensation; copies of original abstracts, etc.—Upon the day fixed, or any day to which the hearing may be adjourned, if no person shall appear, or if no sufficient cause be shown why the prayer of the petition should not be granted, then the said judge shall make an order granting the prayer of the petition and issue an order to the sheriff to empanel a jury of twelve men to try what shall be just compensation for the said abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, or copies thereof, sought to be taken for the county. If the defendant so appearing shall, in his return to such order, elect that the condemnation sought by the petitioner shall, if any such condemnation be allowed, be of copies of such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats and not of the originals thereof, no condemnation shall be allowed of such originals, and the petition, in case it shall have sought a condemnation of such originals, shall thereupon be amended so as to seek only a condemnation of a copy of said abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats.

History.—§3, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 3858; CGL 5765.

703.13 Payment of compensation and delivery of abstracts, etc.; petitioner to pay cost.—Upon the rendition of the verdict, the said judge shall make an order that, upon the payment into court for the use of the defendant, within ten days, unless further time be allowed by the court, of the compensation ascertained by the jury, the prayer of the petition is granted, or else the proceedings shall be null and void, and the said judge shall fix a time within which, after such payment into court, the defendant shall place in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county, for the use of the public, such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, or copies thereof, sworn to by the custodian of the said abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, in accordance with the prayer of said petition, and said judge shall render judgment against the petitioner for the cost.

History.—§5, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 3860; CGL 5767.

703.14 Penalty for failure to deliver abstracts, etc.—Any person or the officers of any corporation in possession of, or having under their control such abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats who shall fail or refuse to comply with such order, shall be guilty of a contempt of court and may be imprisoned until such order is obeyed.

History.—§6, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 3861; CGL 5768.

703.15 Abstracts, etc., acquired by condemnation.—Upon the filing of such abstracts, copies, minutes, maps or plats, or such copies thereof, in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for such county, they shall have the same force and effect as is now provided in §§703.07 and 703.08 for those obtained and filed in such clerk's office under the provisions of said sections.

History.—§8, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 3862; CGL 5769.

703.17 Alteration of abstracts condemned by county for use of the public.—Any person or persons making any erasure, alteration, interpolation or interpolation in any abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, or in any copies thereof filed in the clerk's office under the provisions of §§703.09-703.11 and 703.13-703.15 shall be guilty of the crime of forgery and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding five years.

History.—§9, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 5207; CGL 7325.

703.18 Refusing to make abstract.—Any person or any employee thereof, who may be engaged in such business of making abstracts, writing, entries or maps in any county in which the records have been destroyed, shall furnish such abstract or copy, or any portion thereof and a certificate and affidavit of the correctness thereof to any person from time to time applying therefor in the order of application, and without unnecessary delay, and for a reasonable consideration to be allowed therefor, which in no case shall exceed the sum of sixty cents for each deed, mortgage or other instrument for which such abstract is furnished, and five dollars for the certificate and affidavit, and only one certificate and affidavit shall be necessary or shall be charged to or for all the entries, instruments or items of the abstract of any chain of title, and any and all persons so engaged, whose business is hereby declared to stand upon a like footing with that of common carriers, who shall refuse so to do, if tender or payment be made to him or them of the amount demanded for such abstract or copy, and not exceeding the amount aforesaid, as soon as such amount is made known and ascertained, or of a sum adequate to cover such amount before it is ascertained, shall be guilty of the crime of extortion, and shall be punished by fine not less than one hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars therefor; and shall also be liable in any action for any and all damages, loss or injury which any person applying therefor may suffer or incur by reason of such failure to furnish such abstract or copy, as aforesaid, and shall also be subject to be compelled to furnish such abstract by mandamus or other legal proceedings.

History.—§7, ch. 4951, 1901; GS 3484; RGS 5358; CGL 7493.

cf.—§1.01(3), "Person" defined.

703.19 Filing untrue copies of abstracts ordered filed for use of public.—Any person making copies of abstracts, copies, minutes, extracts, maps or plats, where copies are prayed for under the provisions of §§703.09-703.11 and 703.13-703.15 and ordered filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the use of the public, who shall not make the same truly and without alteration or interpolation, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than two nor more than five years.

History.—§7, ch. 5414, 1905; RGS 5359; CGL 7494.

CHAPTER 704

EASEMENTS

- 704.01 Common law, statutory easements defined and determined.
- 704.02 When lands enclosed person using easement to maintain gates.

- 704.03 The term "practicable," as used in chapter, defined.
- 704.04 Judicial remedy and compensation to servient owner.

704.01 Common law, statutory easements defined and determined.—

(1) IMPLIED GRANT OF WAY OF NECESSITY.—The common law rule of an implied grant of a way of necessity is hereby recognized, specifically adopted and clarified. Such an implied grant exists where a person has heretofore or hereafter grants lands to which there is no accessible right-of-way except over his land, or has heretofore or hereafter retains land which is inaccessible except over the land which he conveys. In such instances a right-of-way is presumed to have been granted or reserved. Such an implied grant or easement in lands or estates exists where there is no other reasonable and practicable way of egress or ingress and same is reasonably necessary for the beneficial use or enjoyment of the part granted or reserved. An implied grant arises only where a unity of title exists from a common source other than the original grant from the state or United States; provided, however, that where there is a common source of title subsequent to the original grant from the state or United States, the right of the dominant tenement shall not be terminated if title of either the dominant or servient tenement has been or should be transferred for nonpayment of taxes either by foreclosure, reversion or otherwise.

(2) STATUTORY WAY OF NECESSITY EXCLUSIVE OF COMMON LAW RIGHT.—Based on public policy, convenience and necessity, a statutory way of necessity exclusive of any common law right exists when any land or portion thereof outside any municipality which is being used or desired to be used as a dwelling or for agricultural or for timber raising or cutting or stockraising purposes shall be shut off or hemmed in by lands, fencing or other improvements of other persons so that no practicable route of egress or ingress shall be available therefrom to the nearest practicable public or private road. The owner or tenant thereof or anyone in their behalf lawfully may use and maintain an easement for persons, vehicles, stock and electricity and telephone service over and upon the lands which lie between the said shut-off or hemmed-in lands and such public or private road by means of the nearest practical route, considering the use to which said lands are being put; and the use thereof, as aforesaid, shall not constitute a trespass; nor shall the party thus using the same be liable in damages for the use thereof; provided, that such easement shall be used only in an orderly and proper manner.

History.—§1, ch. 7326, 1917; RGS 4999; CGL 7088. Am. §1, ch. 28070, 1953.

704.02 When lands enclosed person using easement to maintain gates.—When the land on which the statutory easement referred to in §704.01(2) shall be in use, or afterwards put to the use of enclosing farm or grove products, or livestock, the owner or tenant of the dominant tenement using the easement of the same shall, if no compensation is paid under §704.04, when requested by the owner of the servient tenement, erect and maintain either a cattle guard or a gate at each place where said easement intersects a fence. Any such gate is to be kept closed when not opened for passage, and any such cattle guard or gate so erected and maintained shall be in substantial conformity with the character of the fence at such intersection.

History.—§2, ch. 7326, 1917; RGS 5000; CGL 7089. Am. §2, ch. 28070, 1953.

704.03 The term "practicable," as used in chapter, defined.—That for the purposes of this chapter the word "practicable," as used in §704.01, shall be held and construed to mean "without the use of bridge, ferry, turnpike road, embankment or substantial fill".

History.—§3, ch. 7326, 1917; RGS 5001; CGL 7090. Am. §3, ch. 28070, 1953.

704.04 Judicial remedy and compensation to servient owner.—When the owner or owners of such lands across which a statutory way of necessity under §704.01(2) is claimed, exclusive of the common law right, objects or refuses to permit the use of such way under the conditions set forth herein, or until he receives compensation therefor, then either party or the board of county commissioners of such county may file suit in the circuit court of the county wherein the land is located in order to determine if the claim for said easement exists, and the amount of compensation to which said party is entitled for use of such easement. Where said easement is awarded to the owner of the dominant tenement, it shall be temporary and exist so long as such easement is reasonably necessary for the purposes stated herein. The court, in its discretion, shall determine all questions including the type, extent and location of the easement and the amount of compensation, provided that if either of said parties so request in his original pleadings the amount of compensation may be determined by a jury trial. The easement shall date from the time the award is paid.

History.—Comp. §4 ch. 28070, 1953.

CHAPTER 705

WRECKED AND DERELICT PROPERTY, GENERALLY

- 705.01 County judge to order sale.
- 705.02 Mode of ascertaining salvage.
- 705.03 Disposition of proceeds of sale.
- 705.05 Sheriff to report to county judge.
- 705.06 Recovery from person wrongfully in possession.
- 705.07 Finder of derelict goods failing to report.
- 705.08 Finder appropriating derelict goods.
- 705.09 Disposition and appraisal of property seized by the sheriff or by any other officer.

705.01 County judge to order sale.—Whenever any wrecked derelict goods, abandoned motor vehicle or other personal property shall be found in any county in this state, the county judge shall ascertain the amount and situation of the same, and by his written order shall cause the sheriff to take charge thereof and sell the same at public outcry, after giving a reasonable public notice of the time and place of such sale.

(2) Whenever any confiscated or contraband personal property of any description shall come into the possession or custody of the sheriff by seizure in the performance of his duty or otherwise which is subject to forfeiture and sale under any provision of the state constitution or statutes, such property shall be disposed of as hereinafter provided.

History.—§1, ch. 1005, 1859; RS 2010; GS 2532; RGS 3887; CGL 5794; §1, ch. 22031, 1943; §1, ch. 63-267.

705.02 Mode of ascertaining salvage.—In order to ascertain the quantum of salvage to be paid to the person finding and reporting such wrecked derelict goods, abandoned motor vehicle or other personal property, the county judge shall appoint two disinterested citizens of the county as arbitrators (who shall be authorized in case of disagreement to select an umpire), who shall determine the quantum of salvage, not to exceed one-half the proceeds of such goods, to be paid to the salvors or persons finding and reporting such goods, and the county judge shall draw his order upon the sheriff, who shall pay the same for the amount so awarded in favor of the salvors or persons finding and reporting.

History.—§2, ch. 1005, 1859; RS 2011; GS 2533; RGS 3888; CGL 5795; am. §2, ch. 22031, 1943.

705.03 Disposition of proceeds of sale.—The sheriff shall pay the balance of the proceeds of such sale, after paying to the county judge one per cent of the balance for his services, into the state treasury for the benefit of the state school fund and unless the same shall be claimed and proceedings initiated to validate said claim within one year and a day, the said proceeds shall be forever forfeited to the state school fund.

History.—§3, ch. 1005, 1859; RS 2012; GS 2534; RGS 3889; CGL 5796; §2, ch. 63-267.

705.05 Sheriff to report to county judge.—The sheriff shall place in the hands of the county judge within one month of the time at

- 705.10 Notice of seizure and order to show cause.
- 705.11 Notice of seizure and order to show cause when owners of property are unknown.
- 705.12 Proceeding when claim filed.
- 705.13 Judgment of forfeiture.
- 705.14 Disposition of proceeds of forfeiture.
- 705.15 Fees for services.

which any money is received a statement of the amount of money received by him, the time at which and the source from which said money was received; which statement shall be kept by the county judge, and a copy thereof forwarded without unnecessary delay to the state comptroller.

History.—§6, ch. 344, 1850; RS 2014; GS 2536; RGS 3891; CGL 5798.

705.06 Recovery from person wrongfully in possession.—Whenever any property described in this chapter, chapter 706, or chapter 707, is ascertained to be wrongfully withheld and the person in possession refuses to give it up to the sheriff on demand, the county attorney of the county in which the property is situated, or the city attorney, if within a municipality, when required to do so by the sheriff, shall enter a suit for said property and prosecute it to a final recovery. All moneys derived from these sources shall be paid by the sheriff into the state treasury for the benefit of the state school fund.

History.—§§4, 5, ch. 344, 1850; RS 2015; GS 2537; RGS 3892; CGL 5799; §4, ch. 63-267.

705.07 Finder of derelict goods failing to report.—Whoever finds wrecked or derelict goods and fails to report them to the county judge of the county wherein the same are found, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§4, ch. 1005, 1859; RS 2501; GS 3334; RGS 5232; CGL 7351.

705.08 Finder appropriating derelict goods.—Whoever finds wrecked or derelict goods and secretes or appropriates the same to his own use, or shall refuse to deliver the same when required, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§2502 RS 1892; GS 3385; RGS 5233; CGL 7352.

705.09 Disposition and appraisal of property seized by the sheriff or by any other officer.—

(1) When personal property not subject to be summarily destroyed is seized by the sheriff pursuant to any of the provisions of the law of this state permitting forfeiture thereof, or when property seized by any other officer is delivered to the sheriff under such provisions, the sheriff shall forthwith fix the approximate value thereof and make report thereof to the county judge. The report shall contain a schedule of the property seized, a full statement of the facts giving cause for said seizure, the name and position of the person making the seizure and the name and address of the owners or persons having possession of the property seized, and names and addresses of all persons, firms or corporations known to the sheriff to have an interest in the property seized.

(2) The sheriff shall hold the property seized pending an order of disposal by the court.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

705.10 Notice of seizure and order to show cause.—

(1) The county judge upon receiving the report and schedule of the sheriff shall treat it as a petition or libel in rem for the forfeiture of the property therein described. The report shall be sufficient as said petition or libel notwithstanding the fact that it may not contain a formal prayer or demand for forfeiture. The report shall be subject to amendment at any time before final hearing upon due notice to all interested parties.

(2) Upon the filing of the report, the county judge shall cause to be issued a citation directed to all persons, firms, and corporations owning, having or claiming any interest in or lien upon the seized property, giving notice of the seizure and directing all such persons, firms and corporations to file their claims stating their particular interest in said property. All persons, firms and corporations personally served shall file their claims within twenty days after receiving service of the citation. The citation shall set the time for filing a claim for interested parties not personally served not to exceed thirty days from the date the report was filed. Personal service shall be made on all parties in the state having liens noted upon a certificate of title as shown by the records in the office of the motor vehicle commissioner.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

705.11 Notice of seizure and order to show cause when owners of property are unknown.—

When personal property not subject to summary destruction is seized by the sheriff pursuant to any of the provisions of the law in this state permitting forfeiture of said property, or when property seized by any other officer is delivered to the sheriff, and the name of the owners of said property or the names of any person, firm or corporation having an interest in or lien upon said property cannot be ascertained, the sheriff shall give notice of seizure and an order to show cause why the property should not be forfeited and sold by publication for a period of thirty days in the manner provided in chapter 49.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

705.12 Proceeding when claim filed.—When one or more claims are filed in the cause, the cause shall be tried upon the issues made thereby with the petition for forfeiture with any affirmative defenses being deemed denied without further pleading. Judgment by default shall be entered against all other persons, firms and corporations owning, claiming or having an interest in and to the property seized after which the cause shall proceed as in other common law cases; except any claimant shall prove to the satisfaction of the court that he did not know or have any reason to believe, at the time his right, title, interest or lien arose, that the property was being used for or in connection with the violation of any of the statutes or laws of this state making such property subject to such forfeiture, and further, that at such time there was no reasonable reason to believe that said property might be used for such purpose. Where the owner of the property has been convicted of the violation of a statute or laws of the state which provide for the seizure and forfeiture of property, such conviction shall be prima facie evidence that each claimant had reason to believe that the property might be used for or in connection with a violation of such statutes and laws, and it shall be incumbent upon such claimant to satisfy the court that he was without knowledge of such conviction.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

705.13 Judgment of forfeiture.—On final hearing the report of the sheriff to the county judge shall be taken as prima facie evidence that the property seized was or had been used in, or in connection with, the violation of the statutes and laws of this state subjecting the property involved to forfeiture and sale and shall be sufficient predicate for a judgment of forfeiture in the absence of other proofs and evidence. The burden shall be upon the claimants to show that the property was not so used or if so used that they had no knowledge of such violation and no reason to believe that the seized property was or would be used for the violation of such statutes and laws. Where such properties are encumbered by a lien or retained title agreement under circumstances wherein the lien holder had no knowledge that the property was or would be used in violating such statutes and laws, and no reasonable reason to believe that it might be so used, then the court may declare a forfeiture of all the rights, titles and interest, subject, however, to the lien of such innocent lien holder, or may direct the payment of such a lien from the proceeds of any sale of said property. The proceedings and judgment of forfeiture shall be in rem and shall be primarily against the property itself. Upon the entry of a judgment of forfeiture the court shall determine the disposition to be made of the property, which may include the destruction thereof, the sale thereof, the allocation thereof to some other governmental function or use, or otherwise, as the court may determine. If any of the property declared forfeited is of such a nature as to be readily adaptable for use in the office of sheriff, the sheriff of the county involved shall be allowed to requisition such items of the forfeited property before any other disposition is made under the judgment. The sheriff's requisition shall be filed before judgment and the property requisitioned therein shall be allocated to the office of the sheriff in said judgment. The balance of the property shall be destroyed or sold or allocated to some other governmental function or use. Sales of such property shall be a public sale to the highest and best bidder for cash after two weeks public notice as the court may direct. Upon the application of any claimant, the court may fix the value of a forfeitable interest in the seized property and permit such claimant to redeem the said property upon the payment of a sum equal to said value which sum shall be disposed of as would the proceeds of the sale of said property under a judgment of forfeiture.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

705.14 Disposition of proceeds or forfeiture.

—All sums received from the sale or other disposition of the seized property shall be paid into the state treasury for the benefit of the state school fund and shall become a part thereof.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

705.15 Fees for services.—Fees for services required hereunder shall be the same as provided for sheriffs and clerks for like and similar services in other cases.

History.—§5, ch. 63-267.

CHAPTER 706

WRECKED COTTON; LUMBER ADRIFT; BOATS AND VESSELS ADRIFT

- | | |
|---|--|
| 706.01 Finder of wrecked cotton to advertise. | 706.13 Fees. |
| 706.02 Owner to pay expenses and salvage. | 706.14 Sale of lost timber. |
| 706.03 Sale. | 706.15 Picking up lumber adrift. |
| 706.04 Persons to adopt brand for lumber. | 706.16 Ports having no public custodian; lumber, etc., not to be stayed before reaching the sea. |
| 706.05 Damages for fraudulently using stamp. | 706.17 Lumber taken up in sea, etc., to be advertised. |
| 706.06 Booms may be constructed. | 706.18 Sale and disposition of proceeds. |
| 706.07 Public custodian for certain ports. | 706.19 Selling rafted lumber adrift. |
| 706.08 To what ports §§706.04-706.15 apply. | 706.20 Proceedings like those for estrays. |
| 706.09 Custodian; duties as to vessels. | |
| 706.10 Custodian; duties as to lost timber. | |
| 706.11 Notice of finding lost timber. | |
| 706.12 Stamp to be evidence. | |

706.01 Finder of wrecked cotton to advertise.—Persons taking up cotton afloat in the rivers of this state shall place it in a secure place out of the weather and give early notice, by advertisement at the port to which said cotton was destined, of the finding of the same, giving the marks or brands on said cotton, together with the place of finding and the name of the finder.

History.—§1, March 4, 1841; RS 2016; GS 2538; RGS 3893; CGL 5800.

706.02 Owner to pay expenses and salvage.—The person finding said cotton shall deliver it to the owner, on his paying the expense of advertisement and the sum of five dollars for each bale so saved.

History.—§2, March 4, 1841; RS 2017; GS 2539; RGS 3894; CGL 5801.

706.03 Sale.—If no owner shall appear within three months after the time of such advertisement, the person finding shall expose the same at public auction to the highest bidder, and shall hold the proceeds, after the payment of proper costs and charges and the salvage aforesaid, for the benefit of the owner.

History.—§3, March 4, 1841; RS 2018; GS 2540; RGS 3895; CGL 5802.

706.04 Persons to adopt brand for lumber.—Any person floating lumber, logs or timber down the current of rivers, streams or water-courses in the state may adopt, to his exclusive use, a particular mark, brand or stamp, to be used and applied on all such lumber, logs or timber, to distinguish and designate his ownership thereof; but such person adopting any such mark, brand or stamp shall have it recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, describing it particularly and its usual mode of application.

History.—§2, ch. 507, 1853; RS 2019; §1, ch. 4174, 1893; GS 2541; RGS 3896; CGL 5803.

706.05 Damages for fraudulently using stamp.—Any person who shall after such record knowingly use said mark, brand or stamp shall be liable in double damages to the party aggrieved.

History.—RS 2020; §2, ch. 4174, 1893; GS 2542; RGS 3897; CGL 5804.

706.06 Booms may be constructed.—Owners of timber or lumber floating down rivers or water-courses may make use of floating booms on such streams for the purpose of securing such timber or lumber from loss, but such booms shall not be used in such manner as to cause any unnecessary delay to boats and vessels engaged in the navigation of such streams, nor shall they remain stretched out upon or across such streams any longer than is absolutely necessary to secure the timber or lumber from loss.

History.—§3, ch. 507, 1853; RS 2021; GS 2543; RGS 3898; CGL 5805.

706.07 Public custodian for certain ports.—The governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for each port in the state into which have or shall come during any calendar year not fewer than fifty vessels of five hundred tons burden each, a public custodian of lost timber and lumber, who shall give a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars to the governor for the faithful discharge of his duties, and shall hold his office for four years, unless sooner removed by the governor for good cause.

History.—§1, ch. 5171, 1903; GS 2544; RGS 3899; CGL 5806.

706.08 To what ports §§706.04-706.15 apply.—Sections 706.04-706.15 shall apply to all ports, and none other, into which have come during the past five years vessels of five hundred tons burden and upwards, at the average of not less than two hundred and fifty vessels per year, according to the records of the United States custom house at or nearest the port for which such appointment shall be made.

History.—§2, ch. 4803, 1899; GS 2552; RGS 3905; CGL 5812.

706.09 Custodian; duties as to vessels.—The said public custodian shall keep in his office a register book, wherein he shall immediately upon the arrival of any vessel record the name, date of arrival, master, nationality, and the tonnage thereof, and the cargo stamp to be furnished as hereinafter provided. The said public custodian of timber and lumber shall furnish to the master of each vessel loading cargo from the water a suitable stamp, with which the master of the said vessel shall cause to be stamped all timber and lumber immediately upon its receipt alongside to be loaded as above set forth.

History.—§2, ch. 3899, 1889; RS 2023; GS 2545; RGS 3900; CGL 5807.

706.10 Custodian; duties as to lost timber.—The said public custodian, either by himself or his agent, shall keep at all times a careful watch over the waters of his port, and shall recover and place in a boom to be kept by him for the purpose, convenient to the shipping, all timber and lumber that shall be found adrift in said waters, and safely keep the same until disposed of in the manner hereinafter provided; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the public custodian, or his agent, or any other person, to take possession of any lumber or timber afloat upon the waters of such port, or its tributaries, when the owner thereof, or his bailee or agent, shall be in possession, view or immediate pursuit thereof.

History.—§3, ch. 3899, 1889; RS 2024; §2, ch. 5171, 1903; GS 2546; RGS 3901; CGL 5808.

706.11 Notice of finding lost timber.—The said public custodian of timber and lumber immediately upon the recovery of any timber or lumber shall give public notice for five days in some newspaper published at said port giving the description, quantity and stamp of such timber or lumber, and stating that unless said timber or lumber be called for and identified by the owner within five days, the same will be sold as provided in §706.14, and that if the proceeds of such sale be not called for by the person lawfully entitled to the same within ninety days after such sale, the same will be forfeited and paid into the county treasury for the use of county schools; and the owners of any such timber or lumber shall be entitled to have the same delivered when at said boom upon paying to the said custodian the fees hereinafter provided.

History.—§4, ch. 3899, 1889; RS 2025; §3, ch. 5171, 1903; GS 2547; RGS 3902; CGL 5809.

706.12 Stamp to be evidence.—The stamp furnished and used under the provisions of §706.09 when appearing upon timber or lumber adrift shall be, in the courts of the state, prima facie evidence of ownership.

History.—§5, ch. 3899, 1889; RS 2026; GS 2548; RGS 3903; CGL 5810.

706.13 Fees.—The said public custodian of lost timber and lumber shall be entitled to demand and receive from the master of each vessel using the stamp provided for in this chapter the sum of two dollars for the use of the same while engaged in loading, and for each stick of sawn timber recovered and delivered the sum of seventy-five cents and for each stick of hewn timber recovered and delivered the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, and for lumber recovered and delivered the sum of three dollars per thousand superficial feet measurement, two dollars and fifty cents for each chain and five cents for each iron dog recovered and delivered, and five dollars for each ship's boat or yawl recovered and delivered, and the said custodian shall have a first lien upon timber, lumber, chains, iron dogs and boats or yawls so recovered by him for all his fees and dues for same until the same be fully paid, and he shall not be required to deliver any timber, lumber, chains, iron dogs, boats or yawls until such payment is made.

History.—§6, ch. 4044, 1891; §1, ch. 4803, 1899; GS 2549; RGS 3904; CGL 5811; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

706.14 Sale of lost timber.—After any lost timber or lumber has been advertised as above required for the period of five days, and no owner or claimant has appeared, the custodian shall sell the same at public sale, after public notice as aforesaid, advertised for five days, for the benefit of whom it may concern, for which service he shall receive from the proceeds of such sale five per cent on the gross amount of such sale; the net proceeds of such sales to be held and paid by him to such person as shall be lawfully entitled to the same.

History.—§7, ch. 3899, 1889; §3, ch. 4044, 1891; RS 2028; GS 2551; RGS 3906; CGL 5813.

706.15 Picking up lumber adrift.—No person other than the custodian of lost timber, or his agents, in ports where such custodian has been appointed, shall pick up, recover, or in any manner interfere with any timber or lumber found adrift in the waters of such port, which has been stamped as required by law or which has not been stamped. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by fine of not less than five dollars and not more than fifty dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days.

History.—RS 2503; §8, ch. 3899, 1889; §4, ch. 5171, 1903; GS 3886; RGS 5234; CGL 7853.

706.16 Ports having no public custodian; lumber, etc., not to be stayed before reaching the sea.—In ports having no public custodian, no person other than the owner or his agents shall arrest, stay or take possession of any sawed lumber in rafts, hewed timber, round saw-mill logs or spars adrift before the same shall have reached the mouths or outlets of the rivers and streams and have passed out into the open sea or bays where the said rivers or streams empty their waters.

History.—§1, ch. 507, 1853; RS 2030; GS 2552; RGS 3907; CGL 5814.

706.17 Lumber taken up in sea, etc., to be advertised.—Whenever any person shall find any rafts of the timber or lumber mentioned in §706.16 in the said open sea or bays, he shall secure it in the place where found, or in the nearest place of safety, and shall proceed to advertise it at the door of the courthouse of the county wherein it was found, stating the kind and probable quantity of lumber, the place where found and where deposited.

History.—§1, Feb. 10, 1834; RS 2031; GS 2553; RGS 3908; CGL 5815.

706.18 Sale and disposition of proceeds.—If after the expiration of sixty days from the date of the advertisement no person shall claim and establish his right of property to said timber or lumber to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace of the district (to prove which right the person claiming to be the owner of said timber or lumber shall not be required to produce testimony upon oath to the identity thereof, but such circumstantial proof as the nature of the case admits) then the finder may take it to the nearest market and deliver it to some justice of the peace, who shall forthwith sell the same to the best advantage, pay to the finder all necessary and reasonable expenses, reserve to himself five per cent as compensation for his services, and place the balance in the hands of the clerk of the circuit court, whose receipt he shall take. But if before the expiration of the sixty days the owner shall appear and establish his right to said lumber such owner shall pay all expenses and reasonable charges for securing the same, to be determined, in case of difference between the parties, by an arbitrator appointed by each; but if after the expiration of another term of sixty days no right shall have yet been established to said lumber, then the balance of said money remaining in the hands of the clerk shall be paid over, one-half to the finder and the other half to the county treasury, to be applied in common with other funds to county purposes.

History.—§2, Feb. 10, 1834; RS 2032; GS 2554; RGS 3909; CGL 5816.

706.19 Selling rafted lumber adrift.—Whoever finding any timber or lumber adrift, outside of ports for which a public custodian for lost timber and lumber is appointed, sells it without complying with the law relative to lumber adrift, or disposes of it, in the place or places where found, as his timber or lumber, or appropriates it to his own use, shall be deemed guilty of larceny, grand or petit, as the case may be, and shall be punished accordingly.

History.—§3, Feb. 10, 1834; RS 2446; GS 3294; RGS 5128; CGL 7229.

706.20 Proceedings like those for estrays.—If any person shall take up any boat or other vessel adrift, he shall as in the case of estrays, make application to some justice of the peace of the district where such boat or vessel was taken up for his warrant to have the same valued and described by her kind, burthen and build, and shall proceed in all other respects and shall have the same benefits as directed in the case of estrays.

History.—§8, Nov. 21, 1828; RS 2033; GS 2555; RGS 3910; CGL 5817.
cf.—Ch. 707 Estrays.

CHAPTER 707

ESTRAYS

- 707.01 Definitions.
- 707.02 Maliciously taking up animals as estrays.
- 707.03 Failure to comply with regulations.
- 707.04 Who may take up estrays.
- 707.05 Proceedings for estrays broken to service.
- 707.06 Proceedings for other animals.
- 707.07 Justice to record certificate.
- 707.08 Clerk to record certificate and to advertise estray.
- 707.09 Sale and disposition of proceeds in case of horses, etc.
- 707.10 Sale and disposition of proceeds in case of cattle, etc.
- 707.11 Claim by owner of estray.
- 707.12 Taker-up not responsible for death of estray.
- 707.13 Estray may be put into service.

707.01 Definitions.—Cattle of all kinds, hogs, sheep and goats wandering about the neighborhood for six months, and stud-horses, geldings, mares, fillies, colts, asses and mules for three months, shall be considered estrays.

History.—§9, Nov. 21, 1828; RS 2034; GS 2556; RGS 3911; CGL 5818.

707.02 Maliciously taking up animals as estrays.—If any person shall vexatiously or maliciously take up any animal as an estray contrary to law, he shall be liable to an action for damages to the party injured.

History.—§7, Nov. 21, 1828; RS 2035; GS 2557; RGS 3912; CGL 5819.

707.03 Failure to comply with regulations.—Any person taking up any estray and failing or neglecting to comply with the regulations of this chapter relative to such estray, and being thereof duly convicted before a court of competent jurisdiction, shall for every such offense (except when otherwise provided) forfeit and pay a sum equal to double the value of the estray, which appraisement and advertisement as aforesaid, to be recovered by suit or action at law by any person who may prosecute for the same to the use of the county school fund.

History.—§13, Nov. 12, 1833; RS 2036; GS 2558; RGS 3913; CGL 5820.

707.04 Who may take up estrays.—Any person may take up all estrays that may be found straying away from their owners.

History.—§2037 RS 1892; GS 2559; RGS 3914; CGL 5821.

707.05 Proceedings for estrays broken to service.—If the estray has been broken to service, the person taking it up shall within five days take or drive it before the justice of the peace of the district, who shall take down in writing a full description of the estray, including a particular description of its marks, natural and artificial brands, stature, age and color, and shall immediately cause it to be appraised by two or more discreet persons of the vicinage, under his warrant, they being

- 707.14 Compensation to taker-up.
- 707.15 Fees.
- 707.16 Clerks to render statement of proceeds of sales.
- 707.17 Penalty for malfeasance of justice or clerk.
- 707.18 Owners of strayed animals may enter pasture of another to seek for same.
- 707.19 Owner of strayed animals to notify owner of pasture of intention to enter.
- 707.20 Duty of owner of pasture to facilitate entry.
- 707.21 Refusing entrance to pasture to seek strayed domestic animals.
- 707.22 Stud horse or ass running at large may be gelded by permission of justice of peace.
- 707.23 Proceedings, when not gelded.

first sworn well and truly to ascertain the value of such estray which appraisement and description, together with the name of the taker-up and his place of residence, the justice shall within five days transmit to the clerk of the circuit court, having special care that the taker-up do solemnly swear that he has not altered, or caused to be altered, the marks or brands of such estray, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief such marks or brands have, or have not (as the case may be), in any case been altered, and that the owner is to him unknown.

History.—§1, Feb. 12, 1833; §1, Feb. 11, 1837; RS 2038; GS 2560; RGS 3915; CGL 5822; §29, ch. 29615, 1955.

707.06 Proceedings for other animals.—In case any person shall take up any estrayed neat cattle, sheep, goats or hogs, he shall cause the same to be viewed by a householder in the county, and the taker-up shall be compelled to advertise said estray at least five days at the place of holding justice's courts, as in the district prior to tolling, and shall immediately thereafter go with such householder before the justice of the peace and make oath before him that the same was taken by him, and that the marks or brands of such estray have (or have not) to the best of his knowledge and belief been altered, and the said justice shall take from the taker-up and householder, upon oath, a particular and exact description of the marks and brands, color and age of all and every such neat cattle, sheep, goats or hogs, and such justice shall, in manner as above directed, issue his warrant for the appraisement of such estrays, which description and valuation shall by said justice within five days be transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court, by him to be disposed of as hereinafter directed.

History.—§2, Feb. 12, 1833; RS 2039; GS 2561; RGS 3916; CGL 5823.

707.07 Justice to record certificate.—The justice shall enter a true copy of the certificate by him transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court in a book to be by him kept for that purpose.

History.—§3, Feb. 12, 1833; RS 2040; GS 2562; RGS 3917; CGL 5824.

707.08 Clerk to record certificate and to advertise estray.—The clerk of the circuit court in each county shall receive and enter in a book by him to be provided and kept for that purpose all such certificates of description or appraisement as to him shall be transmitted from the respective justices, and he shall also advertise the estray, with description, and the name of the taker-up, as returned to him by the justice of the peace, at the courthouse door of the county and in a newspaper published in the county once a week for four weeks.

History.—§4, Feb. 12, 1833; §2, Feb. 11, 1837; RS 2041; GS 2563; RGS 3918; CGL 5825.

707.09 Sale and disposition of proceeds in case of horses, etc.—The taker-up shall bring to the courthouse, or place of holding court in the county in which he resides, every such strayed horse, mare, colt, filly, ass or mule, on the first sheriff's sale day that shall happen after the expiration of the said advertisement, and the clerk of the circuit court of the county, on said sheriff's sale day, upon giving ten days' notice at such places as is usual for advertising the sheriff's sales of said county, shall cause the estray to be sold at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, and pay over the proceeds of such sale to the clerk, after defraying the charges and fees directed for county school fund purposes. Every taker-up who shall neglect or refuse to comply with the requirements of this section shall be liable for double the amount of the appraisement to be recovered before a court of competent jurisdiction, which shall be applied to the use of the county school fund, after deducting the legal fees.

History.—§5, Feb. 12, 1833; §2, Feb. 11, 1837; RS 2042; GS 2564; RGS 3919; CGL 5826.

707.10 Sale and disposition of proceeds in case of cattle, etc.—In case any person shall take up as aforesaid any neat cattle, sheep, goats or hogs, and no person shall appear and make satisfactory proof that the said estray is his property, the justice of the peace before whom the estray has been tolled, having given five days' notice by advertisement in two of the most public places in the justice's district wherein he resides, shall proceed to sell the said estray, at such place and by such person as he may consider most to the interest of the county upon one of his regular court days, between the usual hours for ready money, to the highest bidder; and the justices of the peace shall pay to the county treasury of their respective counties, within twenty days after receipt, all moneys in their hands that have arisen from the sale of estrays as aforesaid, deducting five per cent for commission and such other charges as are allowed by law.

History.—§6, Feb. 12, 1833; §3, Feb. 11, 1837; RS 2043; GS 2565; RGS 3920; CGL 5827.

707.11 Claim by owner of estray.—If any person shall, within six months from the time of such sale, prove to the satisfaction of the board of county commissioners of the county that the estray so sold was his own property, or that of his employer (as the case may be), the board of county commissioners shall, after deducting the fees and charges herein-after allowed, direct the money arising from such sale to be paid to the claimant of said estray. If no person shall so make proof, the board of county commissioners shall cause the moneys arising from such sale, after deducting the said fees and charges, to be paid to the county school fund.

History.—§7, Feb. 12, 1833; §2, Feb. 11, 1837; RS 2044; GS 2566; RGS 3921; CGL 5828.

707.12 Taker-up not responsible for death of estray.—If after notice published as aforesaid any estray shall happen to die, or by any casualty get out of the possession of the person who took up the same without his default, such taker-up shall not be answerable for the same or the valuation thereof.

History.—§10, Nov. 21, 1826; RS 2045; GS 2567; RGS 3922; CGL 5829.

707.13 Estray may be put into service.—The taker-up of such estrays shall, as a compensation for maintaining and keeping the same, put them to immediate service (if capable of service), and if incapable, or if he should prefer it, receive from the owner, if the estray be claimed, or from the board of county commissioners, if it be sold, a reasonable satisfaction, to be adjudged by the clerk of the circuit court and a justice of the peace of the county according to the circumstances of the case. In case of putting such estray to labor, he shall be bound to produce the same to the owner, if claimed, or the clerk of the circuit court, if sold (casualties excepted), in as good condition as when appraised.

History.—§9, Nov. 12, 1833; RS 2046; GS 2568; RGS 3923; CGL 5830.

707.14 Compensation to taker-up.—Upon the delivery of any such estray to the legal owner, or in case of sale, upon the sale thereof, the taker-up shall receive from the owner or the clerk of the circuit court, as the case may be, the sum of one dollar for each horse, mare, colt, filly, ass, mule or ox, in addition to the sum by him paid to the justice of the peace, and the sum of twelve and a half cents for each head of neat cattle, sheep, goats or hogs, in addition to the sum above mentioned for the keeping and maintaining of the same.

History.—§10, Nov. 12, 1833; RS 2047; GS 2569; RGS 3924; CGL 5831.

707.15 Fees.—The justice of the peace, for his services, shall receive from the taker-up, at the time such estray shall be brought before him, or description or valuation presented to him as above, the sum of twenty-five cents for each horse, mare, colt, filly, ass or mule, and the sum of six and one-quarter cents for each head of neat cattle, sheep, goats or hogs. The clerk of the circuit court shall receive, for the receiving, entering and publishing every certificate as above directed, the sum of six cents, to be paid by the owner claiming the property, or deducted from the moneys arising from the sale of such property, and the further sum of five per cent upon the balance of such money as a compensation for selling or collecting and paying.

History.—§88, 11, Nov. 12, 1833; RS 2048; GS 2570; RGS 3925; CGL 5832.

707.16 Clerks to render statement of proceeds of sales.—The clerk of the circuit court in each county shall render to the chairman of the board of county commissioners annually a true statement of all moneys arising from the sale of estrays as aforesaid, accompanied with the proper vouchers, and exhibit a correct statement as aforesaid to the grand jury at every fall term thereof, if required.

History.—§12, Nov. 12, 1833; RS 2049; GS 2571; RGS 3926; CGL 5833.

707.17 Penalty for malfeasance of justice or clerk.—If any justice of the peace or clerk of the circuit court shall refuse or neglect to perform the duties required by this chapter, chapter 705, or chapter 706, such justice or clerk so neglecting or refusing shall for every such neglect or refusal forfeit the sum of ten dollars to the use of the county school fund of the county where such offense shall be committed, to be recovered by action of debt in any court having jurisdiction of the same, and shall moreover be liable to an action of damages to the party injured.

History.—§14, Nov. 12, 1833; RS 2050; GS 2572; RGS 3927; CGL 5834.

707.18 Owners of strayed animals may enter pasture of another to seek for same.—It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of any cattle or other domestic animals or the agent or agents of said owners to enter the pasture of another for the sole purpose of seeking and recovering any cattle or other domestic animals that may have strayed or broken into, or which may have been driven into, such inclosure, inadvertently or otherwise and to drive from such inclosure any cattle or other domestic animals belonging to such owners or under the control of such agent or agents so entering.

History.—§1, ch. 5417, 1905; RGS 3928; CGL 5835.

707.19 Owner of strayed animals to notify owner of pasture of intention to enter.—The owners of any cattle or other domestic animals or their agent or agents, desiring to enter any pasture of another for the purpose as set forth in §707.18, shall notify the owner or owners or their agent or agents of the time and place they desire to enter such pasture for the purposes set forth in said section. Such notice may be given verbally or in writing.

History.—§2, ch. 5417, 1905; RGS 3929; CGL 5836.

707.20 Duty of owner of pasture to facilitate entry.—The owner or owners, their agent or agents shall facilitate the entering into any pasture owned by them or controlled by their agent or agents when request is made by any party or parties entitled to the benefits of §707.18, the request to be made according to §707.19.

History.—§3, ch. 5417, 1905; RGS 3930; CGL 5837.

707.21 Refusing entrance to pasture to seek strayed domestic animals.—Any person or owner of any pasture, who refuses to allow entrance or who hinders any owner or owners of cattle or other domestic animals, or their agent or agents, who have complied with §707.19, either by their own acts or the acts of their agent or agents, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and when convicted of the same by a competent court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars for each and every such offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail at hard labor not to exceed one month. Provided, that this section shall not apply to any county having no-fence districts.

History.—§§1, 4, ch. 5417, 1905; RGS 5238; CGL 7357.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

707.22 Stud horse or ass running at large may be gelded by permission of justice of peace.—It shall not be lawful for any stud-horse or ass to run at large, and if any such shall be found running at large, any person may take up the same, and having taken him before the justice of the peace of the district, may geld the same stud-horse or ass, with the permission of the justice, taking care that the operation be performed by a person usually doing such business, for which the person so gelding shall receive five dollars, to be paid by the owner of the horse or ass, to be recovered from him by summary proceedings before a justice of the peace. But if any person shall take up and geld such stud-horse or ass contrary to §§707.22 and 707.23, or without fully pursuing the directions of this section, he shall for every such offense forfeit to the party injured double the value of such horse or ass, to be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—§11, Nov. 21, 1828; RS 2051, 2052; GS 2573; RGS 3931; CGL 5838.

707.23 Proceedings, when not gelded.—Any person who shall take up any stud-horse or ass, and may not choose to geld him, may take him before the justice of the peace of the district, and shall cause the said horse or ass with his brands and marks, if he has any, and if not, with a description of him, to be advertised is not less than three of the most public places of the county, and the person taking up said horse or ass shall recover from the owner thereof, before the proper justice of the peace, the sum of five dollars and all reasonable expenses of keeping such horse or ass. If such stud-horse or ass shall not be claimed by any person within ten days the person taking up the stud-horse or ass shall proceed as in other cases of estrays, but in no case shall he forfeit or lose the sum of five dollars and all reasonable expenses allowed him by this chapter.

History.—§12, Nov. 21, 1828; RGS 3932; CGL 5839.

CHAPTER 708

MARRIED WOMEN'S PROPERTY

- 708.01 Rights reserved under the Spanish laws.
 708.02 Right to separate property.
 708.03 Custody and management of such property.
 708.04 Sales and conveyances.
 708.05 Husband not liable for antenuptial debts of wife.
 708.06 Right to wages and earnings.

708.01 Rights reserved under the Spanish laws.—Whereas some doubts have been entertained as to the effect and operation of the introduction of the common law of England upon the separate rights of husband and wife under the laws of the provinces of East and West Florida upon marriages solemnized before the change of government; to obviate any doubts in future, be it enacted, that all the rights and privileges of husband and wife established or derived by marriage under the civil laws of Spain while this state was under the jurisdiction of that government, shall be held, possessed and exercised by the husband and wife respectively in this state, and each shall be permitted to sell, succeed to, dispose of and convey by sale, devise or will their goods, chattels, lands and tenements in the same manner as they could or might have done under the laws of Spain, observing only the formalities of conveyance required by any other laws established, or which may hereafter be established, in this state.

History.—§1, Dec. 23, 1824; RS 2069; GS 2587; RGS 3946; CGL 5865.

708.02 Right to separate property.—All property real and personal, of a wife, owned by her before marriage or lawfully acquired afterward by gift, devise, bequest, descent, or purchase, shall be her separate property, and the same shall not be liable for the debts of her husband without her consent given by some instrument in writing executed according to the law respecting conveyances by married women.

History.—§§1, 2, March 6, 1945; RS 2070; GS 2588; RGS 3947; CGL 5866.
 cf.—§2, Art. XI, Const.

708.03 Custody and management of such property.—The property of the wife shall remain in care and management of the husband but he shall not charge for his care and management, nor shall the wife be entitled to sue her husband for the rent, hire, issues, proceeds or profits of her said property.

History.—§§1, 3, March 6, 1845; RS 2071; GS 2589; RGS 3948; CGL 5867.
 cf.—§§ 62.40 through 62.46, Removal of disabilities of married women.

708.04 Sales and conveyances.—The husband and wife shall join in all sales, transfers and conveyances of the property of the wife, other than personal property and choses in action.

History.—§4, March 6, 1845; RS 2072; GS 2590; RGS 3949; §1, ch. 12255, 1927; CGL 5868.

708.05 Husband not liable for antenuptial

- 708.07 Specific performance against married woman.
708.08 Married women's rights; separate property.
708.09 Same; agreements with husband, power of attorney, etc.
708.10 Same; construction of law.

debts of wife.—The husband shall not be liable to pay the debts of the wife contracted before marriage, but the property of the wife shall be subject to such debts.

History.—§5, March 6, 1845; RS 2073; GS 2591; RGS 3950; CGL 5869.

708.06 Right to wages and earnings.—A married woman's wages and earnings acquired by her in any employment separate from her husband shall be her separate property and subject to her own disposal, and she shall be entitled to sue for and recover the same as though she were a single woman.

History.—§2076 RS 1892; GS 2593; RGS 3952; CGL 5871.

708.07 Specific performance against married woman.—Coverture shall not prevent a decree against husband and wife or either of them to specifically perform their written agreement to sell or convey the separate property of the wife or to relinquish her right of dower in the property of the husband, regardless of whether the same shall be acknowledged or not.

History.—§2076 RS 1892; GS 2594; RGS 3953; CGL 5872; am. §1, ch. 23820, 1947.

708.08 Married women's rights; separate property.—Every married woman is hereby empowered to take charge of, and manage and control her separate property, to contract and to be contracted with, to sue and be sued, and to sell, convey, transfer, mortgage, use and pledge her property, real and personal, and to make, execute and deliver instruments and documents of every character, without restraint, without the joinder or consent of her husband, in all respects as fully as if she were unmarried. Every married woman, without the joinder or consent of her husband, shall have and may exercise all rights and powers with respect to her separate property, income and earnings, and may enter into, obligate herself to perform, and enforce contracts or undertakings to the same extent and in like manner as if she were unmarried; provided, however, that no deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or encumbering real property owned by a married woman shall be valid without the joinder of her husband; provided, further, that any claim or judgment against any married woman shall not be a claim or lien against such married woman's inchoate right of dower in her husband's separate property.

History.—§1, ch. 21932, 1943.

cf.—§46.10, Right to sue individually.
 §§62.40 through 62.46, Removal of disabilities of married women.
 §689.01 et seq., Conveyances of real property.
 §689.11, Conveyance between husband and wife.
 §693.01, Requiring joinder of husband.
 §693.03, Married women's acknowledgments.

708.09 Same; agreements with husband, power of attorney, etc.—Every married woman may enter into agreements and contracts with her husband, may become the partner of her husband or others, may give a power of attorney to her husband, and may execute powers conferred upon her by her husband, including the power to execute and acknowledge deeds to property owned by her or by herself and her husband as tenants by the entirety or by her husband. All powers of attorney heretofore executed by a wife to her husband and vice versa, and the execution of all documents executed thereunder, are hereby validated and confirmed.

History.—§1, ch. 21696, and §2, ch. 21932, 1943.

708.10 Same; construction of law.—This law shall not be construed as (1) relieving a husband from any duty of supporting and maintaining his wife and children; (2) abolishing estates by the entirety or any of the incidents thereof; (3) abolishing dower or any of the incidents thereof; (4) changing the rights of either husband or wife to participate in the distribution of the estate of the other upon his death, as may now or hereafter be provided by law; (5) dispensing with the joinder of husband and wife in conveying or mortgaging homestead property.

History.—§3, ch. 21932, 1943.

CHAPTER 709

POWERS OF ATTORNEY AND SIMILAR INSTRUMENTS

- 709.01 Power of attorney; authority of nominee when principal dead.
 709.02 Power of appointment; method of release.
 709.03 Same; property held in trust.

- 709.04 Same; effect of revocation.
 709.05 Same; prior powers validated.
 709.06 Same; powers included in law.
 709.07 Same; effect on title to property.

709.01 Power of attorney; authority of nominee when principal dead.—If any agent, constituted by power of attorney or other authority, shall do any act for his principal which would be lawful if such principal were living, the same shall be valid and binding on the estate of said principal, although he or she may have died before such act was done; provided, the party treating with such agent dealt bona fide, not knowing at the time of the doing of such act that such principal was dead. An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent setting forth that he has not or had not, at the time of doing any act pursuant to the power of attorney, received actual knowledge or actual notice of the death of the principal, or notice of any facts indicating his death, shall in the absence of fraud be conclusive proof of the absence of knowledge or notice by the agent of the death of the principal at such time. If the exercise of the power requires the execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable under the laws of this state, such affidavit shall likewise be recordable. No report or listing, either official or otherwise, of "missing" or "missing in action" regarding any person in connection with any activity pertaining to or connected with the prosecution of any war in which the United States is then engaged, as such words "missing" or "missing in action" are used in military parlance, shall constitute or be interpreted as constituting actual knowledge or actual notice of the death of such principal, or notice of any facts indicating the death of such person, or shall operate to revoke the agency.

History.—§1, ch. 23011, 1945.

709.02 Power of appointment; method of release.—Powers of appointment over any property, real, personal, intangible or mixed, may be released, in whole or in part, by a written instrument signed by the donee or donees of such powers. Such written releases shall be signed in the presence of two witnesses but need not be sealed, acknowledged or recorded in order to be valid, nor shall it be necessary to the validity of such releases for husbands of married donees to join such donees in the execution of releases, in whole or part, of powers of appointment.

History.—§1, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.03 Same; property held in trust.—If property subject to a power of appointment is held in trust by a person, firm or corporation other than the donee or donees of the power, a written release, in whole or in part, of a power to appoint the same shall be delivered to such trustee or trustees before the written release becomes legally effective. In no other instance shall a delivery of a release, in whole or in part, of a power of appointment be necessary to the validity of such release.

History.—§2, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.04 Same; effect of revocation.—Any power of appointment wholly released by a written instrument signed by the donee or donees of such power shall be, in legal effect, completely revoked, and shall not, after such release, be subject to being exercised in any manner whatsoever. Any power of appointment partially released by a written instrument signed by the donee or donees of such power shall be, in legal effect, as to such released part, completely revoked, and shall not after such release be subject to being exercised in any manner whatsoever as to such released part.

History.—§3, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.05 Same; prior powers validated.—All releases, in whole or in part, of powers of appointment heretofore executed in a manner that conforms with the provisions of this law be and they are hereby validated and shall be given the same force and effect as if executed subsequently to the effective date of this law.

History.—§4, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.06 Same; powers included in law.—Powers of appointment referred to in this law shall include not only those recognized as such by general law but also those designated as such under the tax law of the United States.

History.—§5, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.07 Same; effect on title to property.—No such release, in whole or in part, of a power of appointment shall affect the title to property of any bona fide purchaser for value who does not have notice or knowledge of such release.

History.—§7, ch. 23007, 1945.

CHAPTER 710

GIFTS TO MINORS

- 710.01 Short title.
 710.02 Definitions.
 710.03 Manner of making gifts.
 710.04 Effect of gift.
 710.05 Duties and powers of custodian.
 710.06 Custodian's expenses, compensation, bond and liabilities.

710.01 Short title.—This act may be cited as the Florida Gifts to Minors Act.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 57-53.

710.02 Definitions.—In this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) An "adult" is a person who has attained the age of twenty-one years.

(2) A "bank" is a bank, trust company, national banking association, saving or industrial bank.

(3) A "broker" is a person lawfully engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others. The term includes a bank which effects such transactions. The term also includes persons lawfully engaged in buying and selling securities for his own account, through a broker or otherwise, as a part of regular business.

(4) A "savings and loan association" is a savings and loan association organized under the laws of this state or the United States, and located in this state.

(5) "Court" means the circuit court.

(6) The "custodial property" includes:

(a) All securities and money under the supervision of the same custodian for the same minor as a consequence of a gift made to the minor in a manner prescribed by this act.

(b) The income from custodial property; and

(c) The proceeds, immediate and remote, from the sale, exchange, conversion, investment, reinvestment or other disposition of such securities, money and income.

(7) A "custodian" is a person so designated in a manner prescribed by this act.

(8) A "guardian" of a minor includes the general guardian, guardian, tutor or curator of his property, estate or person.

(9) An "issuer" is a person who places or authorizes the placing of his name on a security (other than as a transfer agent) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in his property or in an enterprise or to evidence his duty or undertaking to perform an obligation evidenced by the security, or who becomes responsible for or in place of any such person.

(10) A "legal representative" of a person is his executor or administrator, general guardian, guardian, committee, conservator, tutor or curator of his property or estate.

(11) A "member" of a "minor's family" means any of the minor's parents, grand parents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts,

710.07 Exemption of third persons from liability.

710.08 Resignation, death or removal of custodian; bond; appointment of successor custodian.

710.09 Accounting by custodian.

710.10 Construction.

whether of the whole blood or the half blood, or by or through legal adoption.

(12) A "minor" is a person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years.

(13) A "security" includes any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, (certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease), collateral trust certificate, transferable share, voting trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a security, or any certificate of interest or participation in, any temporary or interim certificate, receipt or certificate of deposit for, or any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing. The term does not include a security of which the donor is the issuer. A security is in "registered form" when it specifies a person entitled to it or to the rights it evidences and its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer.

(14) A "transfer agent" is a person who acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities.

(15) A "trust company" is a bank authorized to exercise trust powers in Florida.

History.—§1, ch. 57-53; (4) n., subsequent subsections renum. by §1, ch. 61-125.

710.03 Manner of making gifts.—

(1) An adult person may, during his lifetime, make a gift of a security or money to a person who is a minor on the date of the gift:

(a) If the subject of the gift is a security in registered form, by registering it in the name of the donor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for _____ under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act";

(b) If the subject of the gift is a security not in registered form, by delivering it to an adult member, other than the donor, of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or trust company, accompanied by a statement of gift in the following form, in substance, signed by the donor and the person designated as custodian:

"GIFT UNDER THE FLORIDA GIFTS TO MINORS ACT" _____ hereby delivers to (name of donor)

_____ as custodian for (name of custodian)
_____ under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act, the following security(ies): (insert an appropriate description of the securities or security delivered sufficient to identify it or them)

_____ (signature of donor) _____ hereby acknowledges
(name of custodian) receipt of the above described security(ies) as custodian for the above minor under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act.

Dated: _____

_____ (signature of custodian)
(c) If the subject of the gift is money, by paying or delivering it to a broker, savings and loan association, or a bank for credit to an account in the name of the donor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a bank with trust powers, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act."

(2) Any gift made in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) may be made to only one minor and only to one person as custodian.

(3) A donor who makes a gift to a minor in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) shall promptly do all things within his power to put the subject of the gift in the possession and control of the custodian, but neither the donor's failure to comply with this subsection, nor his designation of an ineligible person as custodian, nor renunciation by the person designated as custodian affects the consummation of the gift.

History.—§2, ch. 57-53; (1) (c) a. by §2, ch. 61-125.

710.04 Effect of gift.—

(1) A gift made in a manner prescribed in this act is irrevocable and conveys to the minor indefeasible vested legal title to the security or money given, but no guardian of the minor has any right, power, duty or authority with respect to the custodial property except as provided in this act.

(2) By making a gift in a manner prescribed in this act, the donor incorporates in his gift all the provisions of this act and grants to the custodian, and to any issuer, transfer agent, bank, broker, savings and loan association, or third person dealing with a person designated as custodian, the respective powers, rights and immunities provided in this act.

History.—§3, ch. 57-53; (2) a. by §3, ch. 61-125.

710.05 Duties and powers of custodian.—

(1) The custodian shall collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property.

(2) The custodian shall pay over to the minor for expenditure by him, or expend for the minor's benefit, so much of or all the custodial property as the custodian deems advisable for the support, maintenance, education and benefit of the minor in the manner, at the time or times, and to the extent that the custodian in his discretion deems suitable and proper, with or without court order, with or without regard to the duty of himself or of any other person to support the minor or his ability to do so, and with or without regard to any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for any such purpose.

(3) The court, on the petition of a parent or guardian of the minor or of the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, may order the custodian to pay over to the minor for expenditure by him or to expend so much of or all the custodial property as is necessary for the minor's support, maintenance or education.

(4) To the extent that the custodial property is not so expended, the custodian shall deliver or pay it over to the minor on his attaining the age of twenty-one years or, if the minor dies before attaining the age of twenty-one years, he shall thereupon deliver or pay it over to the estate of the minor.

(5) The custodian, notwithstanding statutes restricting investments by fiduciaries, shall invest and reinvest the custodial property as would a prudent man of discretion and intelligence who is seeking a reasonable income and the preservation of his capital, except that he may, in his discretion and without liability to the minor or his estate, retain a security given to the minor in a manner prescribed in this act.

(6) The custodian may sell, exchange, convert or otherwise dispose of custodial property in the manner, at the time or times, for the price or prices and upon the terms he deems advisable. He may vote in person or by general or limited proxy a security which is custodial property. He may consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution or liquidation of an issuer, a security which is custodial property, and to the sale, lease, pledge or mortgage of any property by or to such an issuer, and to any other action by such an issuer. He may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing which he deems advisable to carry out any of his powers as custodian.

(7) The custodian shall register each security which is custodial property and in registered form in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for _____ under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act." The custodian shall hold all money which is custodial property in an account with a broker, savings and loan association, or in a bank in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for _____ _____ under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act." The custodian shall keep all other custodial property separate and distinct from his own property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property.

(8) The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property and keep them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years.

(9) A custodian has and holds as powers in trust, with respect to the custodial property, in addition to the rights and powers provided in this act, all the rights and powers which a guardian has with respect to property not held as custodial property.

History.—§4, ch. 57-53; (7) a. by §4, ch. 61-125.

710.06 Custodian's expenses, compensation, bond and liabilities.—

(1) A custodian is entitled to reimbursement from the custodial property for his reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

(2) A custodian may act without compensation for his services.

(3) Unless he is a donor, a custodian may receive from the custodial property reasonable compensation for his services as directed by the donor when the gift is made.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this act, a custodian shall not be required to give a bond for the performance of his duties.

(5) A custodian is not liable for losses to the custodial property unless they result from his bad faith, intentional wrongdoing or gross negligence or from his failure to maintain the standard of prudence in investing the custodial property provided in this act.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 57-53.

710.07 Exemption of third persons from liability.—

No issuer, transfer agent, bank, broker, savings and loan association or other person acting on the instructions of or otherwise dealing with any person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian is responsible for determining whether the person designated by the purported donor or purporting to act as custodian has been duly designated or whether any purchase, sale or transfer to or by or any other act of any person purporting to act in the capacity of custodian is in accordance with or authorized by this act, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this act of any instrument or instructions executed or given by a person purporting to act as a donor in the capacity of a custodian, or is bound to see to the application by any person purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian of any money or other property paid or delivered to him.

History.—§6, ch. 57-53; §5, ch. 61-125.

710.08 Resignation, death or removal of custodian; bond; appointment of successor custodian.—

(1) Only an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a trust company is eligible to become successor custodian. A successor custodian has all the rights, powers, duties and immunities of a custodian designated in a manner prescribed by this act.

(2) A custodian may petition the court for permission to resign and for the designation of a successor custodian.

(3) If a person designated as custodian is not eligible, renounces or dies before the minor attains the age of twenty-one years, the guardian of the minor shall be successor custodian. If the minor has no legal guardian, a donor, his legal representative, the legal representative of the custodian, the natural guardian of the minor, the minor's legal representative, an adult member of the minor's family, or the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, may petition the court for the designation of a successor custodian.

(4) A donor, the legal representative of a donor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, may petition the court that, for cause shown in the petition, the custodian be removed and a successor custodian be designated or, in the alternative, that the custodian be required to give a bond for the faithful performance of his duties.

(5) Upon the filing of a petition as provided in this section the circuit court shall issue an order, directed to the custodian and returnable on such notice as the court may require, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the petition should not be granted and, in due course, grant such relief as the court finds to be in the best interest of the minor.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 57-53.

710.09 Accounting by custodian.—

(1) The minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, or the legal representative of the minor, an adult member of the minor's family, or a donor or his legal representative may petition the court for an accounting by the custodian or his legal representative.

(2) The court, in a proceeding under this act or otherwise, may require or permit the custodian or his legal representative to account and, if the custodian is removed, shall so require and order delivery of all custodial property to the successor custodian and the execution of all instruments required for the transfer thereof.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 57-53.

710.10 Construction.—This act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. This act shall not be construed as providing an exclusive method for making gifts to minors.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 57-53.

CHAPTER 711
CONDOMINIUM ACT

- 711.01 Short title.
- 711.02 Purpose; cumulative.
- 711.03 Definitions.
- 711.04 Condominium parcels; appurtenances; possession and enjoyment.
- 711.05 Restraint upon separation and partition of common elements.
- 711.06 Common elements.
- 711.07 Legal description of condominium parcels.
- 711.08 Creation of condominiums; contents of declaration.
- 711.09 Recording of declaration.
- 711.10 Amendment of declaration.
- 711.11 Bylaws.
- 711.12 The association.

711.01 Short title.—This law shall be known and may be cited as the condominium act.

History.—§1, ch. 63-35.

711.02 Purpose; cumulative.—The purpose of this law is to give statutory recognition to the condominium form of ownership of real property. It shall not be construed as repealing or amending any law now in effect except those in conflict herewith, and any such conflicting law shall be affected only insofar as they apply to condominiums.

History.—§2, ch. 63-35.

711.03 Definitions.—As used in this law:

(1) Assessment means a share of the funds required for the payment of common expenses which from time to time is assessed against the unit owner.

(2) Association means the entity responsible for the operation of a condominium.

(3) Bylaws mean the bylaws for the government of the condominium as they exist from time to time.

(4) Common elements means the portions of the condominium property not included in the units.

(5) Common expenses means the expenses for which the unit owners are liable to the association.

(6) Common surplus means the excess of all receipts of the association, including but not limited to assessments, rents, profits and revenues on account of the common elements, over the amount of common expenses.

(7) Condominium is that form of ownership of condominium property under which units of improvements are subject to ownership by different owners, and there is appurtenant to each unit as part thereof an undivided share in the common elements.

(8) Condominium parcel means a unit together with the undivided share in the common elements which is appurtenant to the unit.

(9) Condominium property means and includes the land in a condominium, whether or not contiguous, and all improvements thereon and all easements and rights appurtenant

711.13 Maintenance; limitation upon improvement.

711.14 Common expenses and common surplus.

711.15 Assessments; liability; lien and priority; interest; collection.

711.16 Termination.

711.17 Equitable relief.

711.18 Limitation of liability.

711.19 Separate taxation of condominium parcels; survival of declaration after tax sale.

711.20 Liens.

711.21 Zoning and building.

711.22 Authority to regulate.

711.23 Remedies for violation.

thereto intended for use in connection with the condominium.

(10) Declaration, or declaration of condominium, means the instrument or instruments by which a condominium is created, and such instrument or instruments as they are from time to time amended.

(11) Limited common elements means and includes those common elements which are reserved for the use of a certain unit or units to the exclusion of other units.

(12) Operation, or operation of the condominium, means and includes the administration and management of the condominium property.

(13) Unit means a part of the condominium property which is to be subject to private ownership.

(14) Unit owner or owner of a unit means the owner of a condominium parcel.

History.—§3, ch. 63-35.

711.04 Condominium parcels; appurtenances; possession and enjoyment.—

(1) A condominium parcel is a separate parcel of real property, the ownership of which may be in fee simple, or any other estate in real property recognized by law.

(2) There shall pass with a unit as appurtenances thereto:

(a) An undivided share in the common elements.

(b) The exclusive right to use such portion of the common elements as may be provided by the declaration.

(c) An exclusive easement for the use of the air space occupied by the unit as it exists at any particular time and as the unit may lawfully be altered or reconstructed from time to time, which easement shall be terminated automatically in any air space which is vacated from time to time.

(d) An undivided share in the common surplus.

(e) Such other appurtenances as may be provided in the declaration.

(3) The owner of a unit is entitled to the exclusive possession of his unit. He shall be entitled to use the common elements in accordance with the purposes for which they are intended, but no such use shall hinder or encroach upon the lawful rights of owners of other units.

History.—§4, ch. 63-35.

711.05 Restraint upon separation and partition of common elements.—

(1) The undivided share in the common elements which is appurtenant to a unit shall not be separated therefrom and shall pass with the title to the unit whether or not separately described.

(2) A share in the common elements appurtenant to a unit cannot be conveyed or encumbered except together with the unit.

(3) The shares in the common elements appurtenant to units shall remain undivided, and no action for partition of the common elements shall lie.

History.—§5, ch. 63-35.

711.06 Common elements.—

(1) Common elements includes within its meaning the following items:

(a) The land on which the improvements are located and any other land included in the condominium property whether or not contiguous.

(b) All parts of the improvements which are not included within the units.

(c) Easements through units for conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services to units and the common elements.

(d) An easement of support in every portion of a unit which contributes to the support of a building.

(e) Installations for the furnishing of utility services to more than one unit or to the common elements or to a unit other than the unit containing the installation.

(f) The property and installations in connection therewith required for the furnishing of services to more than one unit or to the common elements.

(2) The declaration may designate other parts of the condominium property as common elements.

History.—§6, ch. 63-35.

711.07 Legal description of condominium parcels.—Following the recording of the declaration, a description of a condominium parcel by the number or other designation by which the unit is identified in the declaration together with the recording data identifying the declaration shall be a sufficient legal description for all purposes. Such a description shall include all appurtenances to the unit concerned whether or not separately described, including but not limited to the undivided share in the common elements appurtenant thereto.

History.—§7, ch. 63-35.

711.08 Creation of condominiums; contents of declaration.—

(1) A condominium may be created by recording in the public records of the county wherein the land to be included is located a declaration executed with the formalities of a deed by all persons having title of record to such land, which declaration shall contain or provide for the following matters:

(a) A statement submitting the condominium property to condominium ownership.

(b) The name by which the condominium is to be identified, which name shall include the word condominium or be followed by the words a condominium.

(c) Legal description of the land included.

(d) An identification of each unit by letter, name, or number, or combination thereof, so that no unit bears the same designation as any other unit.

(e) Survey of the land and a graphic description of the improvements in which units are located and a plot plan thereof which together with the declaration are in sufficient detail to identify the common elements and each unit and their relative locations and approximate dimensions. Such survey, plot plan and description may be in the form of exhibits consisting of building plans, floor plans, maps, sketches, surveys or other means, provided that there shall be included or attached a certificate or certificates of an architect, engineer or surveyor authorized to practice in this state that such material, together with the wording of the declaration, is a correct representation of the improvements described, and that there can be determined therefrom the identification, location, dimensions and size of the common elements and of each unit.

(f) The undivided shares, stated as percentages or fractions, in the common elements which are appurtenant to each of the units.

(g) The proportions or percentages and manner of sharing common expenses and owning common surplus.

(h) Voting rights of owners of units.

(i) Method of amendment of declaration.

(j) Bylaws.

(k) The name of the association and whether or not it is incorporated. If the association is not incorporated, the name and residence address of the person designated as agent to receive service of process upon the association. Such agent must be a resident of the state.

(l) Such other provisions not inconsistent with this law as may be desired, including but not limited to those relating to amendment of the declaration, values of the condominium property and of each unit or condominium parcel, statement of purpose for which condominium property and units are intended, designation of limited common elements, responsibility for maintenance and repair of units, insuring of the condominium property against loss and the owners and association against liability, reconstruction or repair after casualty and votes required in connection therewith, use restrictions, limitation upon conveyance, sale, leasing, purchase, ownership and occupancy of units, termination of the condominium.

(2) The declaration may include such covenants and restrictions concerning the use, occupancy and transfer of the units as are permitted by law with reference to real property.

(3) All valid provisions of the declaration shall be enforceable equitable servitudes and shall run with the land and shall be effective until the declaration is revoked.

History.—§8, ch. 63-35.

711.09 Recording of declaration.—

(1) When duly executed with the formalities required for the execution of a deed, a declaration together with all exhibits thereto and all amendments thereof shall be entitled to record according to law as an agreement relating to the conveyance of land and when recorded in the public records of the county where the land described in the declaration is located shall constitute constructive notice to creditors, subsequent purchasers and all other persons.

(2) Graphic descriptions of improvements constituting exhibits to a declaration, when accompanied by the certificate of an architect, engineer or surveyor elsewhere required, shall be recorded as a part of a declaration without approval of any public body or officer.

(3) The clerk of the circuit court recording the declaration may for his convenience file or record the exhibits of a declaration in a separate book and indicate the place of filing or recording upon the margin of the record of the declaration.

History.—§9, ch. 63-35.

711.10 Amendment of declaration.—

(1) An amendment of a declaration shall become effective when recorded according to law.

(2) An amendment shall be evidenced by a certificate executed with formalities of a deed and shall include the recording data identifying the declaration.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in the declaration as originally recorded, no amendment shall change any condominium parcel unless the record owner thereof and all record owners of liens thereon shall join in the execution of the amendment.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act or the declaration, the designation of the agent for the service of process named in the declaration may be changed from time to time by an instrument executed by the association with the formalities required for the execution of a deed and recorded among the public records of the county in which the condominium property is located.

History.—§10, ch. 63-35.

711.11 Bylaws.—

(1) The operation of the condominium property shall be governed by bylaws, which shall be set forth in or annexed to the declaration. No modification of or amendment to the bylaws shall be valid unless set forth in or annexed to a duly recorded amendment to the declaration.

(2) The bylaws shall provide for the following:

(a) The form of administration, indicating the title of the officers and board of administration, if any, and specifying the powers, duties, manner of selection and removal, and compensation, if any, of officers and boards.

(b) Method of calling or summoning unit owners to assemble at meetings; the percentage of unit owners or voting rights required to make decisions, and to constitute a quorum. The foregoing requirements as to meetings are not to be construed, however, to prevent unit owners from waiving notice of meetings or from acting by written agreement without meetings, if so provided in the bylaws, the declaration or this law.

(c) Manner of collecting from the unit owners their shares of the common expenses.

(d) The method by which the bylaws may be amended consistent with the provisions of this law.

(3) The bylaws may provide for the following:

(a) Method of adopting and of amending administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation and use of the common elements.

(b) Such restrictions on and requirements respecting the use and maintenance of the units and the use of the common elements, not set forth in the declaration, as are designed to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of the units and common elements.

(c) Such other provisions not inconsistent with this law or with the declaration as may be desired.

History.—§11, ch. 63-35.

711.12 The association.—

(1) The operation of the condominium shall be by the association, the name of which shall be stated in the declaration. The declaration may require the association to be organized as a particular entity, such as but not limited to a corporation for profit or corporation not for profit, in which the owners of units shall be stockholders or members.

(2) The association, whether or not incorporated, shall be an entity which shall act through its officers and shall have the capability of contracting, bringing suit and being sued. If not incorporated the association shall be deemed to be an entity existing pursuant to this act. Service of process upon the association if not incorporated may be had by serving any officer of the association or by serving the agent designated for service of process. Service of process upon the association shall not constitute service of process upon any unit owner.

(3) No unit owner, except as an officer of the association, shall have any authority to act for the association.

(4) Unless limited by the declaration the powers and duties of the association shall include those set forth in this law. The powers and duties of the association shall include also those set forth in the declaration and bylaws.

(5) The association shall have the irrevocable right to have access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any common elements therein or accessible therefrom, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the common elements or to another unit or units.

(6) The association shall have the power to make and collect assessments, and to lease, maintain, repair and replace the common elements.

(7) The association shall maintain accounting records according to good accounting practices which shall be open to inspection by unit owners at reasonable times. Such records shall include:

(a) A record of all receipts and expenditures.

(b) An account for each unit which shall designate the name and address of the unit owner, the amount of each assessment, the dates and amounts in which the assessment come due, the amounts paid upon the account and the balance due.

History.—§12, ch. 63-35.

711.13 Maintenance; limitation upon improvement.—

(1) The maintenance of the common elements shall be the responsibility of the association.

(2) There shall be no material alteration or substantial additions to the common elements except in a manner provided in the declaration.

(3) No unit owner shall make any alterations in the portions of the improvements of a condominium which are to be maintained by the association or remove any portion thereof, or make any additions thereto, or do any work which would jeopardize the safety or soundness of the building containing his unit or impair any easement.

History.—§13, ch. 63-35.

711.14 Common expenses and common surplus.—

(1) Common expenses shall include the expenses of the operation, maintenance, repair, or replacement of the common elements, costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the association and any other expense designated as common expense by this law, the declaration or the bylaws.

(2) Funds for the payment of common expenses shall be assessed against unit owners in the proportions or percentages of sharing common expenses provided in the declaration.

(3) The common surplus shall be owned by unit owners in the shares provided in the declaration.

History.—§14, ch. 63-35.

711.15 Assessments; liability; lien and priority; interest; collection.—

(1) A unit owner, regardless of how title is acquired, including without limitation a purchaser at a judicial sale, shall be liable for all assessments coming due while he is the owner of a unit. In a voluntary conveyance the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for his share of the common expenses up to the time of such voluntary conveyance, without prejudice to the rights of the grantee to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefor.

(2) The liability for assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common elements or by abandonment of the unit for which the assessments are made.

(3) Assessments and installments thereon not paid when due shall bear interest from the date when due until paid at the rate provided in the declaration, not to exceed the rate allowed by law, and if no rate is provided then at the legal rate.

(4) The association shall have a lien on each condominium parcel for any unpaid assessments, and interest thereon, against the unit owner of such condominium parcel. If authorized by the declaration said lien shall also secure reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien. Said lien shall be effective from and after the time of recording in the public records in the county in which the condominium parcel is located of a claim of lien stating the description of the condominium parcel, the name of the record owner, the amount due and the date when due, and the lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by the lien shall have been fully paid. Such claims of liens shall include only assessments which are due and payable when the claim of lien is recorded. Such claims of liens shall be signed and verified by an officer or agent of the association and shall then be entitled to be recorded. Upon full payment the party making payment shall be entitled to a recordable satisfaction of the lien. All such liens shall be subordinate to the lien of a mortgage or other lien recorded prior to the time of recording of the claim of lien.

(5) Liens for assessments may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the association in like manner as a foreclosure of a mortgage on real property. In any such foreclosure the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the condominium parcel, if so provided in the declaration or bylaws, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The association shall have the power, unless prohibited by the declaration or bylaws, to bid in the condominium parcel at foreclosure sale, and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments may be maintained without waiving the lien securing the same.

(6) Where the mortgagee of a first mortgage of record or other purchaser of a condominium unit obtains title to the condominium parcel as a result of foreclosure of the first mortgage, such acquirer of title, his successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of common expenses or assessments by the association pertaining to such condominium parcel or chargeable the former unit owner of such parcel which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of the foreclosure. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectible from all of the unit owners including such acquirer, his successors and assigns.

(7) Any unit owner shall have the right to require from the association a certificate showing the amount of unpaid assessments against him with respect to his condominium parcel. The holder of a mortgage or other lien shall have the same right as to any condominium parcel upon which he has a lien. Any person other than the owner who relies upon such certificate shall be protected thereby.

History.—§15, ch. 63-35.

711.16 Termination.—

(1) All of the unit owners may remove the condominium property from the provisions of this law by an instrument to that effect, duly recorded, provided that the holders of all liens affecting any of the condominium parcels consent thereto or agree, in either case by instruments duly recorded, that their liens be transferred to the percentage of the undivided interest of the unit owner in the property as hereinafter provided.

(2) Upon removal of the condominium property from the provisions of this law, the condominium property shall be deemed to be owned in common by the unit owners. Unless otherwise provided in the declaration, the undivided interest in the property owned in common by each unit owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common elements.

(3) The condominium may be terminated in such other manner as may be prescribed in the declaration.

(4) The termination of a condominium shall not bar the creation of another condominium affecting the same property.

History.—§16, ch. 63-35.

711.17 Equitable relief.—In the event of substantial damage to or destruction of all or a substantial part of the condominium property, and in the event the property is not repaired, reconstructed, or rebuilt within a reasonable period of time, any unit owner shall have the right to petition a court of equity having jurisdiction in and for the county where the condominium property is located for equitable relief, which may, but need not necessarily, include a termination of the condominium and a partition.

History.—§17, ch. 63-35.

711.18 Limitation of liability.—

(1) The liability of the owner of a unit for common expenses shall be limited to the amounts for which he is assessed from time to time in accordance with this law, the declaration and bylaws.

(2) The owner of a unit shall have no personal liability for any damages caused by the association on or in connection with the use of the common elements. A unit owner shall be liable for injuries or damages resulting from an accident in his own unit to the same extent and degree that the owner of a house would be liable for an accident occurring within his house.

History.—§18, ch. 63-35.

711.19 Separate taxation of condominium parcels; survival of declaration after tax sale.—

(1) Property taxes and special assessments assessed by municipalities, counties and other taxing authorities shall be assessed against and collected on the condominium parcels and not upon the condominium property as a whole. Each condominium parcel shall be separately assessed for ad valorem taxes and special assessments as a single parcel. The taxes and special assessments levied against each condominium parcel shall constitute a lien only upon such condominium parcel so assessed and upon no other portion of the condominium property.

(2) All provisions of a declaration relating to a condominium parcel which has been sold for taxes or special assessments shall survive and be enforceable after the issuance of a tax deed or master's deed upon foreclosure of an assessment, certificate or lien, a tax deed, tax certificate, or tax lien, to the same extent that they would be enforceable against a voluntary grantee, immediate, mediate, or remote, of the owner of the title immediately prior to the delivery of the tax deed or master's deed.

(3) Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to alter, amend, or expand the laws governing exemption of homesteads from taxation. It is the specific intent of the legislature that the aggregate of all of the homestead exemptions from taxation in any one building shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars irrespective of the number of units contained therein.

History.—§19, ch. 63-35.

711.20 Liens.—

(1) Subsequent to recording the declaration and while the property remains subject to the declaration, no liens of any nature shall thereafter arise or be created against the condominium property as a whole except with the unanimous consent of the unit owners. During such period liens may arise or be created only against the several condominium parcels.

(2) Labor performed or materials furnished to a unit shall not be the basis for the filing of a lien pursuant to the mechanics' lien law against the unit or condominium parcel of any unit owner not expressly consenting to or requesting the same. No labor performed or materials furnished to the common elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon, but if duly authorized by the association such labor or materials shall be deemed to be performed or furnished with the express consent of each unit owner and shall be the basis for the filing of a lien against all condominium parcels in the proportions for which the owners thereof are liable for common expenses.

(3) In the event a lien against two or more condominium parcels becomes effective each owner thereof may relieve his condominium parcel of the lien by payment of the proportionate amount attributable to his condominium parcel. Upon such payment it shall be the duty of the lienor to release the lien of record for such condominium parcel.

(4) Service or delivery of notices, papers or copies thereof permitted or required under the mechanics lien law for or incident to the perfection or enforcement of liens arising from labor or materials furnished to the common elements, duly authorized by the association, may be effected by service on or delivery to the association. Suits to foreclose or otherwise enforce liens arising from labor or materials furnished to the common elements may be brought against the association and the owners of units shall not be deemed necessary parties to such suits.

History.—§20, ch. 63-35.

711.21 Zoning and building.—Laws and ordinances concerning buildings and zoning shall be construed with reference to the nature and use of such property without regard to the form of ownership.

History.—§21, ch. 63-35.

711.22 Authority to regulate.—Buildings included in a condominium property shall be subject to the authority, regulation or control of the Florida hotel and restaurant commission only to the extent provided in chapter 509. Such buildings not subject to the authority, regulation or control of the Florida hotel and restaurant commission under chapter 509 shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 399 with respect to elevators.

History.—§22, ch. 63-35.

711.23 Remedies for violation.—Each unit owner shall be governed by and shall comply with this law and the declaration and bylaws as they may exist from time to time. Failure to do so shall entitle the association or any other unit owner to recover sums due for damages or injunctive relief or both. Such actions may be maintained by the association or in a proper case by an aggrieved unit owner. Such relief shall not be exclusive of other remedies provided by law.

History.—§23, ch. 63-35.

CHAPTER 712

MARKETABLE RECORD TITLES TO REAL PROPERTY

- 712.01 Definitions.
 712.02 Marketable record title.
 712.03 Exemptions.
 712.04 Interests extinguished by marketable record title.
 712.05 Effect of filing notice.
 712.06 Contents of notice; recording and in-

- dexing.
 712.07 Limitations of actions and recording acts.
 712.08 Filing false claim.
 712.09 Extension of thirty year period.
 712.10 Law to be liberally construed.

712.01 Definitions.—As used in this law:

(1) The term person as used herein denotes singular or plural, natural or corporate, private or governmental, including the state and any political subdivision or agency thereof as the context for the use thereof requires or denotes.

(2) Root of title means any title transaction purporting to create or transfer the estate claimed by any person and which is the last title transaction to have been recorded at least thirty years prior to the time when marketability is being determined. The effective date of the rest of title is the date on which it was recorded.

(3) Title transaction means any recorded instrument or court proceeding which affects title to any estate or interest in land.

History.—§1, ch. 63-133.

712.02 Marketable record title.—Any person having the legal capacity to own land in this state, who, alone or together with his predecessors in title, has been vested with any estate in land of record for thirty years or more, shall have a marketable record title to such estate in said land, which shall be free and clear of all claims except the matters set forth as exceptions to marketability in §712.03. A person shall have a marketable record title when the public records disclosed a title transaction affecting the title to the land which has been of record for not less than thirty years purporting to create such estate either in:

The person claiming such estate; or

Some other person from whom, by one or more title transactions, such estate has passed to the person claiming such estate, with nothing appearing of record, in either case, purporting to divest such claimant of the estate claimed.

History.—§2, ch. 63-133.

712.03 Exemptions.—Such marketable record title shall not affect or extinguish the following rights:

(1) Estates or interests, easements and use restrictions disclosed by and defects inherent in the muniments of title on which said estate is based arising after the root of title; provided, however, that a general reference in any of such muniments to easements, use restrictions or other interests created prior to the root of title shall not be sufficient to preserve them unless specific identification by reference to book and page of record or by name of recorded plat be made therein to a recorded title transaction which imposed, transferred or continued such easement, use restrictions or other interests;

subject, however, to the provisions of subsection (5).

(2) Estates or interests preserved by the filing of a proper notice in accordance with the provisions hereof.

(3) Rights of any person in possession of the lands, so long as such person is in such possession.

(4) Estates or interests arising out of a title transaction which has been recorded subsequent to the effective date of the root of title.

(5) Recorded or unrecorded easements or rights, interest or servitude in the nature of easements, rights of way and terminal facilities, including those of a public utility or of a governmental agency, so long as the same are used and the use of any part thereof shall except from the operation hereof the right to the entire use thereof.

(6) Rights of any person in whose name the land is assessed on the county tax rolls for such period of time as the land is so assessed and which rights are preserved for a period of three years after the land is last assessed in such person's name.

History.—§3, ch. 63-133.

712.04 Interests extinguished by marketable record title.—Subject to the matters stated in §712.03, such marketable record title shall be free and clear of all estates, interests, claims or charges whatsoever, the existence of which depends upon any act, title transaction, event or omission that occurred prior to the effective date of the root of title. All such estates, interests, claims or charges, however denominated, whether such estates, interests, claims or charges are or appear to be held or asserted by a person sui juris or under a disability, whether such person is within or without the state, whether such person is natural or corporate, or is private or governmental, are hereby declared to be null and void, except that this act shall not be deemed to affect any right, title or interest of the United States or Florida reserved in the patent or deed by which the United States or Florida parted with title.

History.—§4, ch. 63-133.

712.05 Effect of filing notice.—

(1) Any person claiming an interest in land may preserve and protect the same from extinguishment by the operation of this act by filing for record, during the thirty year period immediately following the effective date of the root of title, a notice, in writing, in accordance with the provisions hereof, which notice shall have the effect of so preserving such claim of right for a period of not longer than thirty years after filing the same unless again filed as required herein. No disability or lack of knowledge of any kind on the part of anyone shall delay the commencement of or suspend the running of said thirty year period. Such notice may be filed for record by the claimant or by any other person acting on behalf of any claimant who is:

- (a) Under a disability,
 - (b) Unable to assert a claim on his behalf,
- or
- (c) One of a class, but whose identity cannot be established or is uncertain at the time of filing such notice of claim for record.

(2) It shall not be necessary for the owner of the marketable record title, as herein defined, to file a notice to protect his marketable record title.

History.—§5, ch. 63-133.

712.06 Contents of notice; recording and indexing.—To be effective, the notice above referred to shall contain:

(1) The name or description of the claimant and the name and particular post office address of the person filing the claim.

(2) The name and post office address of an owner, or the name and post office address of the person in whose name said property is assessed on the last completed tax assessment roll of the county at the time of filing, who, for the purpose of such notice, shall be deemed to be an owner.

(3) A full and complete description of all land affected by such notice, which description shall be set forth in particular terms and not by general reference, but if said claim is founded upon a recorded instrument, then the description in such notice may be the same as that contained in such recorded instrument, provided the same shall be sufficient to identify the property.

(4) A statement of the claim showing the nature, description and extent of such claim, except that it shall not be necessary to show the amount of any claim for money or the terms of payment.

(5) If such claim is based upon an instrument of record, such instrument shall be sufficiently described to identify the same, including reference to the book and page in which the same is recorded.

(6) Such notice shall be acknowledged in the same manner as deeds are acknowledged for record.

Such notice shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county or counties where the land described therein is situated, together with a true copy thereof. The clerk shall enter, record and index said notice in the same manner that deeds are entered, recorded and indexed, as though the claimant were the grantee in the deed and the purported owner were the grantor in a deed, and the clerk shall charge the same fees for recording thereof as are charged for recording deeds. In those counties where the circuit court clerk maintains a tract index, such notice shall also be indexed therein.

The clerk of the circuit court shall, upon such filing, mail by registered or certified mail to the purported owner of said property, as stated in such notice, a copy thereof and shall enter on the original, before recording the same, a certificate showing such mailing. For mailing each such copy, the claimant shall pay the sum of fifty cents, in addition to the recording charges. If the notice names purported owners having more than one address, the person filing the same shall furnish a true copy for each of the several addresses stated, and the clerk shall send one such copy to the purported owners named at each respective address. Such certificate shall be sufficient if the same reads substantially as follows:

I hereby certify that I did on this _____ _____, mail by registered (or certified) mail a copy of the foregoing notice to each of the following at the address stated:

Clerk of the circuit court of _____ county, Florida,

By _____
Deputy clerk

Failure of any purported owner to receive the mailed notice shall not affect the validity of the notice or vitiate the effect of the filing of such notice.

History.—§6, ch. 63-133.

712.07 Limitations of actions and recording acts.—Nothing contained in this law shall be construed to extend the period for the bringing of an action or for the doing of any other act required under any statute of limitations or to affect the operation of any statute governing the effect of the recording or the failure to record any instrument affecting land. This law shall not vitiate any curative statute.

History.—§7, ch. 63-133.

712.08 Filing false claim.—No person shall use the privilege of filing notices hereunder for the purpose of asserting false or fictitious claims to land; and in any action relating thereto if the court shall find that any person has filed a false or fictitious claim, the court may award to the prevailing party all costs incurred by him in such action, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and in addition thereto may award to the prevailing party all damages that he may have sustained as a result of the filing of such notice of claim.

History.—§8, ch. 63-133.

712.09 Extension of thirty year period.—If the thirty year period for filing notice under §712.05 shall have expired prior to July 1, 1965, such period shall be extended to July 1, 1965.

History.—§9, ch. 63-133.

712.10 Law to be liberally construed.—This law shall be liberally construed to effect the legislative purpose of simplifying and facilitating land title transactions by allowing persons to rely on a record title as described in §712.02 subject only to such limitations as appear in §712.03.

CHAPTER 715

PROPERTY GENERALLY

- 715.01 Title to personal property found in public places.
- 715.02 Prohibiting recovery from seller of forfeited deposit or down payment made by check, draft or obligation refused through no fault of seller.

715.01 Title to personal property found in public places.—The title to all personal property found in or upon public conveyances, premises at the time used for business purposes, parks, places of amusement, public recreation areas and other places open to the public is hereby vested in the finder unless the same be called for or claimed by the rightful owner thereof within six months after the finding thereof. Employees of public transportation systems shall be deemed agents of such transportation systems and personal property found on public conveyances, in depots, and garages of said transportation system shall be turned in to the proper person or department designated to receive such property by the said transportation systems, and such property shall be securely kept for the period of time as required by this section after which time if unclaimed by the rightful owner the title of such property shall be vested in the transportation system and not in the employee.

History.—§1, ch. 24313, 1947.

715.02 Prohibiting recovery from seller of forfeited deposit or down payment made by check, draft or obligation refused through no fault of seller.—In any action by any person against the seller of real property for any share of a forfeited deposit or down payment by a prospective purchaser, no check, draft or other obligation of such prospective purchaser shall be construed to be a deposit and the action shall not be maintained by any person against the seller by reason thereof, if payment of said check, draft or obligation is refused through no fault of the seller, notwithstanding any recitation of a receipt of said deposit in any written agreement.

History.—§1, ch. 24304, 1947.
Am. §11, ch. 25035, 1948.

715.03 Laundries and dry cleaners; disposition of unclaimed articles.—If any person shall fail to claim any garment, clothing, household article or other articles delivered for laundering, cleaning, or pressing to any laundry or dry cleaning establishment for a period of six months after the delivery of such article for laundering, cleaning or processing the laundry or dry cleaning establishment to whom the garment, clothing or household article is delivered shall have the right to dispose of such garment, clothing or household article by whatsoever means it may choose without incurring liability or responsibility to the owner provided, however, that before such laundry or dry cleaning establishment may claim the benefits of this section it shall at the time of the receiving of

- 715.03 Laundries and dry cleaners; disposition of unclaimed articles.
- 715.04 Pawnbrokers; disposition of pledged property for nonpayment of principal or interest.
- 715.05 Reporting of unclaimed motor vehicles.

such garment, clothing or household articles, give to the individual delivering such article notice in writing that the articles so delivered may be disposed of by such laundry or dry cleaning establishment unless such articles are reclaimed within six months from date of delivery to such laundry or dry cleaning establishments. Provided, further, that if any garment, clothing, household article or other articles referred to above is left at a laundry or dry cleaning establishment for storage, and insurance is charged for thereon, then, in that event, the said six months as set forth above in this section shall not start to run until the period for which the article so insured has expired and when the time for which the insurance on said garment, clothing or household article shall have expired then the laundry or dry cleaning establishment may dispose of the property as though no insurance had been placed on said property in the same way as is provided herein above in this section.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-416.

715.04 Pawnbrokers; disposition of pledged property for nonpayment of principal or interest.—

(1) Any article or articles placed with a licensed pawnbroker within this state pledged as security for a loan of money shall be subject to sale and disposal at public or private sale when there has been no payment on account of principal or interest made for a period of six months, subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) Every pawn ticket or receipt for such pledge shall have printed thereon the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) this section which shall constitute notice to the pledgor of such sale and disposal and shall further constitute notice of intention to sell and dispose of the property without further notice to the pledgor, and shall further constitute consent to such sale by the pledgor. Any sale or disposal of property under this section shall terminate all liability of the pledgee to the pledgor and shall vest in a purchaser the right, title and interest of the pledgor and pawnbroker.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 57-811.

715.05 Reporting of unclaimed motor vehicles.—

(1) The person in charge of any garage or repair shop, or automotive service, storage, or parking place, shall report in writing to the city police department, or the nearest police department where the establishment is located outside of an incorporated municipality, and the sheriff's department, and the nearest Florida highway patrol office on a form prescribed, prepared in triplicate and furnished by the department of public safety, any motor vehicle involuntarily brought in or left unclaimed in his place of business for more than two weeks from date of storage when he does not of his own knowledge know the name of the owner or the reason for such storage, even though an officer may have authorized the vehicle to be pulled in and stored.

(2) Nothing herein contained in this act shall apply to any licensed public housing establishment.

(3) Failure to comply with subsection (1) shall preclude the imposition of any storage and repair charges against such vehicle after two weeks from the date of storage.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 63-431.

CHAPTER 716

ESCHEATS, FORFEITURE, ETC.

- 716.01 Declaration of policy.
 716.02 Escheat of funds in the possession of federal agencies.
 716.03 Comptroller may recover federal funds.
 716.04 Jurisdiction.

- 716.05 Money recovered to be paid into the state treasury.
 716.06 Public records.
 716.07 Recovery of escheated property by claimant.

716.01 Declaration of policy.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state, while protecting the interests of the owners thereof, to possess all unclaimed and abandoned money and property for the benefit of all the people of the state, and this law shall be liberally construed to accomplish such purpose.

History.—§1, ch. 24333, 1947.

716.02 Escheat of funds in the possession of federal agencies.—All property within the provisions of subsections (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) of this section, are declared to have escheated, or to escheat, including all principal and interest accruing thereon, and to have become the property of the state.

(1) All money or other property which has remained in, or has been deposited in the custody of, or under the control of, any court of the United States, in and for any district within this state, or which has been deposited with and is in the custody of any depository, registry, clerk or other officer of such court, or the United States treasury, which money or other property the rightful owner or owners thereof, either:

(a) Has been unknown for a period of five or more consecutive years; or,

(b) Has died, without having disposed thereof, and without having left heirs, next of kin or distributees, or

(c) Has made no demand for such money or other property for five years; are declared to have escheated, or to escheat, together with all interest accrued thereon, and to have become the property of the state.

(2) After June 16, 1947, all money or other property which has remained in, or has been deposited in the custody of, or under the control of, any court of the United States, in and for any district within this state, for a period of four years, the rightful owner or owners of which, either:

(a) Shall have been unknown for a period of four years; or,

(b) Shall have died without having disposed thereof, and without having left or without leaving heirs, next of kin or distributees; or,

(c) Shall have failed within four years to demand the payment or delivery of such funds or other property; is hereby declared to have escheated, or to escheat, together with all interest accrued thereon, and to have become the property of the state.

(3) All money or other property which has remained in, or has been deposited in the custody of, or under the control of any officer, department or agency of the United States for five or more consecutive years, which money or other property had its situs or source in this state, except as hereinafter provided in subsection (4) of this section, the sender of which is unknown, or who sent the money or other property for an unknown purpose, or money which is credited as "unknown", and which said governmental agency is unable to credit to any particular account, or the sender of which has been unknown for a period of five or more consecutive years; or when known, has died without having disposed thereof, and without leaving heirs, next of kin or distributees, or for any reason is unclaimed from such governmental agency.

(4) In the event any money is due to any resident of this state as a refund, rebate or tax rebate from the United States commissioner of internal revenue, the United States treasurer, or other governmental agency or department, which said resident will, or is likely to have his rights to apply for and secure such refund or rebate barred by any statute of limitations or, in any event, has failed for a period of one year after said resident could have filed a claim for said refund or rebate, the comptroller of Florida is hereby appointed agent of such resident to demand, file and apply for said refund or rebate, and is hereby appointed to do any act which a natural person could do to recover said money, and it is hereby declared that when the comptroller files said application or any other proceeding to secure said refund or rebate, his agency is coupled with an interest in the money sought and money recovered.

(5) It is the purpose of this chapter to include all funds or other property in the possession of the government of the United States, and of its departments, officers, and agencies, which property has its situs in this state or belonged to a resident thereof, and not to limit the application of this chapter by the naming of any particular agency. This chapter shall include all funds held in the veterans administration, comptroller of currency, United States treasury, department of internal revenue, federal courts, registry of federal courts, and such evidences of indebtedness as adjusted service bonds, old matured debts issued prior to 1917, unclaimed and interest thereon, postal savings bonds, liberty bonds, victory notes, treasury bonds, treasury notes, certificates of indebtedness, treasury bills, treasurer's savings certificates, bonuses and adjusted compensation, allotments, and all unclaimed refunds or rebates of whatever kind or nature, which are subjects of escheat, under the terms of this chapter. Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any funds now held or controlled by the United States postal savings deposits or any refunds due ratepayers under order of any court of the United States shall become property of the state. Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any refunds due rate-payers under order of any court of the United States shall become the property of the state.

History.—§2, ch. 24333, 1947.
Am. §11, ch. 25035, 1949.

716.03 Comptroller may recover federal funds.—When there exists, or may exist, escheated funds or property under this chapter, the comptroller shall demand and/or institute proceedings in the name of the state for an adjudication that an escheat to the state of such funds or property has occurred; and shall take appropriate action to recover such funds or property.

History.—§3, ch. 24333, 1947.
Am. §11, ch. 25035, 1949.

716.04 Jurisdiction.—Whenever the comptroller is of the opinion an escheat has occurred, or shall occur, of any money or other property deposited in the custody of, or under the control of, any court of the United States, in and for any district within the state, or in the custody of any depository, registry or clerk or other officer of such court, or the treasurer of the United States, he shall cause to be filed a complaint in the circuit court of Leon county, or in any other court of competent jurisdiction, to ascertain if any escheat has occurred, and to cause said court to enter a judgment or decree of escheat in favor of the state, with costs, disbursements and attorney fee.

History.—§4, ch. 24333, 1947.

716.05 Money recovered to be paid into the state treasury.—When any funds or property which have been escheated within the meaning of this chapter, shall have been recovered by the comptroller, he shall first pay all costs incident to the collection and recovery of such funds and property, and shall promptly deposit the remaining balance of said funds or property with the treasurer of the state, to be distributed in accordance with law.

History.—§5, ch. 24333, 1947.

716.06 Public records.—All records in the office of the state treasurer or comptroller relating to federal funds, pursuant to this chapter, shall be public records.

History.—§6, ch. 24333, 1947.

716.07 Recovery of escheated property by claimant.—Any person who claims any property, funds or money delivered to the state treasurer under this chapter, shall, within five years from the date of receipt of said property, funds or money, file a verified claim with the state treasurer, setting forth the facts upon which said party claims to be entitled to recover said money or property. The state treasurer, within five days after receipt of such claim, shall submit said verified claim or a verified copy thereof, to the comptroller. All claims made for recovery of property, funds or money, not filed within five years from the date that said property, funds or money is received by the state treasurer, shall be forever barred, and the treasurer of the state shall be without power to consider or determine any claims so made by any claimant after five years from the date that the property, funds or money was received by the state treasurer. The comptroller shall, within thirty days after he has received said claim from the state treasurer, approve or disapprove the same. If the claim is approved, the funds, money or property of the claimant, less any expenses and costs which shall have been incurred by the state in securing the possession of said property, as provided by this chapter, shall be delivered to him by the state treasurer upon warrant issued according to law and his receipt taken therefor. If the comptroller shall disapprove the claim so filed, upon the ground that it does not show or state facts legally sufficient to entitle said claimant to recover said property, funds or money, then the claimant may file a complaint in the circuit court of Leon county, naming therein the treasurer and the comptroller of the state as defendants, in said action, setting forth in said petition or complaint all the facts supporting his claim to said property, funds or money. A hearing on said petition or complaint shall be held by the court not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the filing of said petition or complaint, and a copy of said petition or complaint, and notice of the date of hearing, must be served upon the comptroller and the state treasurer within ten days from the date of filing thereof; the comptroller and the state treasurer may answer said petition or complaint, as in other chancery actions. Any party interested and aggrieved by the decision of said court may appeal from such decision or judgment to the district court of appeal, first district, as provided by law for appeals in chancery cases. After hearing of the issues upon the merits of the case, if the court finds that the petitioner or plaintiff is entitled to the property, money or funds claimed, and shall render judgment in his or its favor, declaring that the petitioner or plaintiff is entitled to said property, funds or money, then upon presentation of said judgment or a certified copy thereof to the state comptroller, said comptroller shall draw his warrant for the amount of money stated in said judgment, without interest or cost to the state, less any sum paid by the state as costs or expenses in securing possession of said property, funds or money. When payment has been made to any claimant, no action thereafter shall be maintained by any other claimant against the state or any officer thereof, for or on account of said money, property or funds.

History.—§7, ch. 24333, 1947; §30, ch. 63-559.

CHAPTER 717

DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

717.01	Short title.	717.14	Payments or delivery of abandoned property.
717.02	Definitions and use of terms.	717.15	Relief from liability by payment or delivery.
717.03	Property held by banking or financial organizations.	717.16	Income accruing after payment or delivery.
717.04	Unclaimed funds held by insurance corporations.	717.17	Periods of limitation not a bar.
717.05	Deposits and refunds held by utilities.	717.18	Sale of abandoned property.
717.06	Undistributed dividends and distribution of business associations.	717.19	Deposit of funds.
717.07	Property of business associations and banking or financial organizations held in course of dissolution.	717.20	Claim for abandoned property paid or delivered.
717.08	Property held by fiduciaries.	717.21	Determination of claims.
717.09	Property held by state courts and public officers and agencies.	717.22	Judicial action upon determination.
717.10	Miscellaneous personal property held for another person.	717.23	Election to take payment or delivery.
717.11	Reciprocity for property presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state.	717.24	Examination of records.
717.12	Report of abandoned property.	717.25	Proceeding to compel delivery of abandoned property.
717.13	Notice and publication of lists of abandoned property.	717.26	Administration.
		717.27	Penalties.
		717.28	Rules and regulations.
		717.29	Effect of laws of other states.
		717.30	Repeal.

717.01 Short title.—This act may be cited as the Florida disposition of unclaimed property act.

History.—§31, ch. 61-10.

717.02 Definitions and use of terms.—As used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Banking organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company.

(2) "Business association" means any corporation, joint stock company, business trust, partnership, or any association for business purposes of two or more individuals.

(3) "Financial organization" means any savings and loan association, building and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, or investment company, engaged in business in this state.

(4) "Holder" means any person in possession of property subject to this act belonging to another, or who is trustee in case of a trust, or indebted to another on an obligation subject to this act.

(5) "Insurance corporation" means any association or corporation transacting within this state the business of insurance on the lives of persons or insurance appertaining thereto, including, but not by way of limitation, endowments and annuities; disability, accident and health insurance; and property, casualty and surety insurance; as all said terms are defined in chapter 624, part V.

(6) "Owner" means a depositor, or a person entitled to receive the funds as reflected on the records of the bank or financial organization, in case of a deposit, a beneficiary in case of a trust, a creditor, claimant, or payee in case of other choses in action, or any person having a legal or equitable interest in property subject to this act, or his legal representative.

(7) "Person" means any individual, business association, government or political subdivision, public corporation, public authority, estate, trust, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(8) "Utility" means any person who owns or operates within this state, for public use, any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, for the production, storage, transmission, sale, delivery or furnishing of electricity, water, steam, or gas, or for the transportation of persons or property.

(9) "Administrator" means the state comptroller.

History.—§1, ch. 61-10.

717.03 Property held by banking or financial organizations.—The following property held or owing by a banking or financial organization is presumed abandoned:

(1) Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit made in this state with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividend thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within fifteen years:

(a) Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest; or

(b) Corresponded in writing with the banking organization concerning the deposit; or

(c) Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking organization.

(2) Any funds paid in this state toward the purchase of shares or other interest in a financial organization, or any deposit made therewith in this state, and any interest or dividends thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has within fifteen years:

(a) Increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit, or presented an appropriate record for the crediting of interest or dividends; or

(b) Corresponded in writing with the financial organization concerning the funds or deposit; or

(c) Otherwise indicated an interest in the fund or deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the financial organization.

(3) Any sum payable on checks certified in this state or on written instruments issued in this state on which a banking or financial organization is directly liable, including by way of illustration but not of limitation, certificates of deposit, drafts, and traveler's checks, that has been outstanding for more than fifteen years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, unless the owner has within fifteen years corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking or financial organization.

(4) Any funds or other personal property, tangible or intangible, removed from a safe deposit box or any other safekeeping repository, or agency or collateral deposit box, in this state on which the lease or rental period has expired due to nonpayment of rental charges or other reason, or any surplus amounts arising from the sale thereof pursuant to law, that have been unclaimed by the owner for more than fifteen years from the date on which the lease or rental period expired.

History.—§2, ch. 61-10.

717.04 Unclaimed funds held by insurance corporations.—

(1) LIFE INSURANCE.—

(a) Unclaimed funds, as defined in this subsection, held and owing by a life insurance corporation shall be presumed abandoned if the last known address, according to the records of the corporation, of the person entitled to the funds is within this state. If a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured or annuitant according to the records of the corporation.

(b) Unclaimed funds as used in subsection (1), means all moneys held and owing by any life insurance corporation unclaimed and unpaid for more than fifteen years after the moneys become due and payable as established from the records of the corporation under any life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract which has matured or terminated. A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the death of the insured is deemed to be matured and the proceeds thereof are deemed to be due and payable if such policy was in force when the insured attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based, unless the person appearing entitled thereto has within the preceding fifteen years,

1. Assigned, readjusted, or paid premiums on the policy, or subjected the policy to loan, or

2. Corresponded in writing with the life insurance corporation concerning the policy.

(2) INSURANCE OTHER THAN LIFE INSURANCE.—

(a) Unclaimed funds as defined in subsection (1), held and owing by a fire, casualty or surety insurance corporation shall be presumed abandoned if the last known address according to the records of the corporation, of the person entitled to the funds is within this state. If a person other than the insured, the principal, or the claimant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured, the principal, or the claimant according to the records of the corporation.

(b) Unclaimed funds as used in subsection (2), means all moneys held and owing by any fire, casualty or surety insurance corporation unclaimed and unpaid for more than fifteen years after the moneys become due and payable as established from the records of the corporation either to an insured, a principal, or a claimant under any fire, casualty or surety insurance policy or contract.

(3) Moneys otherwise payable according to the records of the corporation are deemed due and payable although the policy or contract has not been surrendered as required.

History.—§3, ch. 61-10.

717.05 Deposits and refunds held by utilities.—The following funds held or owing by any utility are presumed abandoned:

(1) Any deposit made by a subscriber with a utility to secure payment for, or any sum paid in advance for, utility services to be furnished in this state, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled thereto for more than fifteen years after the termination of the services for which the deposit or advance payment was made.

(2) Any sum which a utility has been ordered to refund and which was received for utility services rendered in this state, together with any interest thereon, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled thereto for more than fifteen years after the date it became payable in accordance with the final determination or order providing for the refund.

(3) Any sum paid to a utility for a utility service, which service has not, within fifteen years of such payment, been rendered.

History.—§4, ch. 61-10.

717.06 Undistributed dividends and distribution of business associations.—Any stock or other certificate of ownership, or any dividend, profit distribution, interest, payment on principal, or other sum held or owing by a business association for or to a shareholder, certificate holder, member, bondholder, or other security holder, or a participating patron of a cooperative, who has not claimed it, or corresponded in writing with the business association concerning it, within fifteen years after the date prescribed for payment or delivery, is presumed abandoned if:

(1) It is held or owing by a business association organized under the laws of or created in this state; or

(2) It is held or owing by a business association doing business in this state, but not organized under the laws of or created in this state, and the records of the business association indicate that the last known address of the person entitled thereto is in this state.

History.—§5, ch. 61-10.

717.07 Property of business associations and banking or financial organizations held in course of dissolution.—All intangible personal property distributable in the course of a voluntary dissolution of a business association, banking organization, or financial organization organized under the laws of or created in this state, that is unclaimed by the owner within fifteen years after the date for final distribution is presumed abandoned.

History.—§6, ch. 61-10.

717.08 Property held by fiduciaries.—All intangible personal property and any income or increment thereon, held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of another person is presumed abandoned unless the owner has, within fifteen years after it becomes payable or distributable, increased or decreased the principal, accepted payment of principal or income, corresponded in writing concerning the property, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the fiduciary:

(1) If the property is held by a banking organization or a financial organization, or by a business association organized under the laws of or created in this state; or

(2) If it is held by a business association, doing business in this state, but not organized under the laws of or created in this state, and the records of the business association indicate that the last known address of the person entitled thereto is in this state; or

(3) If it is held in this state by any other person.

History.—§7, ch. 61-10.

717.09 Property held by state courts and public officers and agencies.—All intangible personal property held for the owner by any court, public corporation, public authority or public officer of this state, or a political subdivision thereof that has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than fifteen years is presumed abandoned.

History.—§8, ch. 61-10.

717.10 Miscellaneous personal property held for another person.—All intangible personal property, not otherwise covered by this act, including any income or increment thereon and deducting any lawful charges, that is held or owing in this state in the ordinary course of the holder's business and has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than fifteen years after it became payable or distributable is presumed abandoned.

History.—§9, ch. 61-10.

717.11 Reciprocity for property presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state.—If specific property which is subject to the provisions of this act is held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is in another state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of that state, the specific property is not presumed abandoned in this state and subject to this act if:

(1) It may be claimed as abandoned or escheated under the laws of such other state; and

(2) The laws of such other state make reciprocal provision that similar specific property is not presumed abandoned or escheatable by such other state when held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is within this state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of this state.

History.—§10, ch. 61-10.

717.12 Report of abandoned property.—

(1) Every person holding funds or other property, tangible or intangible, presumed abandoned under this act shall report to the administrator with respect to the property as hereinafter provided.

(2) The report shall be verified and shall include:

(a) The name, if known, and last known address, if any, of each person appearing from the records of the holder to be the owner of any property of the value of twenty-five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this act;

(b) In case of unclaimed funds of life insurance corporations, the full name of the insured or annuitant and his last known address according to the life insurance corporation's records;

(c) The nature and identifying number, if any, or description of the property and the amount appearing from the records to be due, except that items of value under twenty-five dollars each may be reported in aggregate;

(d) The date when the property became payable, demandable, or returnable, and the date of the last transaction with the owner with respect to the property; and

(e) Other information which the administrator prescribes by rule as necessary for the administration of this act.

(3) If the person holding property presumed abandoned is a successor to other persons who previously held the property for the owner, or if the holder has changed his name while holding the property, he shall file with his report all prior known names and addresses of each holder of the property.

(4) The report shall be filed before November 1 of each year as of June 30 next preceding, but the report of insurance corporations shall be filed before May 1 of each year as of December 31 next preceding. The administrator may postpone the reporting date upon written request by any person required to file a report.

(5) If the holder of property presumed abandoned under this act knows the whereabouts of the owner and if the owner's claim has not been barred by the statute of limitations, the holder shall, before filing the annual report, communicate with the owner and take necessary steps to prevent abandonment from being presumed. The holder shall exercise due diligence to ascertain the whereabouts of the owner.

(6) Verification, if made by a partnership, shall be executed by a partner; if made by an unincorporated association or private corporation, by an officer; and if made by a public corporation, by its chief fiscal officer.

(7) The initial report filed under this act shall include all items of property that would have been presumed abandoned if this act had been in effect during the ten year period preceding September 30, 1961.

History.—§11, ch. 61-10.

717.13 Notice and publication of lists of abandoned property.

(1) Within one hundred twenty days from the filing of the report required by §717.12, the administrator shall cause notice to be published at least once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in this state in which is located the last known address of any person to be named in the notice. If no address is listed or if the address is outside this state, the notice shall be published in the county in which the holder of the abandoned property has his principal place of business within this state.

(2) The published notice shall be entitled "Notice of names of persons appearing to be owners of abandoned property," and shall contain:

(a) The names in alphabetical order and last known addresses, if any, of persons listed in the report and entitled to notice within the county as hereinbefore specified.

(b) A statement that information concerning the amount or description of the property and the name and address of the holder may be obtained by any persons possessing an interest in the property by addressing an inquiry to the administrator.

(c) A statement that if proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder and if the owner's right to receive the property is not established to the holder's satisfaction within sixty-five days from the date of the second published notice, the abandoned property will be placed not later than eighty-five days after such publication date in the custody of the administrator to whom all further claims must thereafter be directed.

(3) The administrator is not required to publish in such notice any item of less than twenty-five dollars unless he deems such publication to be in the public interest.

(4) Within one hundred twenty days from the receipt of the report required by §717.12, the administrator shall mail a notice to each person having an address listed therein who appears to be entitled to property of the value of twenty-five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this act.

(5) The mail notice shall contain:

(a) A statement that, according to a report filed with the administrator property is being held to which the addressee appears entitled.

(b) The name and address of the person holding the property and any necessary information regarding changes of name and address of the holder.

(c) A statement that, if satisfactory proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder by the date specified in the published notice, the property will be placed in the custody of the administrator to whom all further claims must be directed.

History.—§12, ch. 61-10.

717.14 Payments or delivery of abandoned property.—Every person who has filed a report as provided by §717.12 shall within twenty days after the time specified in §717.13 for claiming the property from the holder pay or deliver to the administrator all abandoned property specified in the report, except that, if the owner establishes his right to receive the abandoned property to the satisfaction of the holder with the time specified in §717.13, or if it appears that for some other reason the presumption of abandonment is erroneous, the holder need not pay or deliver the property, which will no longer be presumed abandoned, to the administrator, but in lieu thereof shall file a verified written explanation of the proof of claim or of the error in the presumption of abandonment.

History.—§13, ch. 61-10.

717.15 Relief from liability by payment or delivery.—Upon the payment or delivery of abandoned property to the administrator, the state shall assume custody and shall be responsible for the safekeeping thereof. Any person who pays or delivers abandoned property to the administrator under this act is relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the property so paid or delivered for any claim which then exists or which thereafter may arise or be made in respect to the property. Any holder who has paid moneys to the administrator pursuant to this act may make payment to any person appearing to such holder to be entitled thereto, and upon proof of such payment and proof that the payee was entitled thereto, the administrator shall forthwith reimburse the holder for the payment.

History.—§14, ch. 61-10.

717.16 Income accruing after payment or delivery.—When property is paid or delivered to the administrator under this act, the owner is not entitled to receive income or other increments accruing thereafter.

History.—§15, ch. 61-10.

717.17 Periods of limitation not a bar.—The expiration of any period of time specified by statute or court order, during which an action or proceeding may be commenced or enforced to obtain payment of a claim for money or recovery of property, shall not prevent the money or property from being presumed abandoned property, nor affect any duty to file a report required by this act or to pay or deliver abandoned property to the administrator.

History.—§16, ch. 61-10.

717.18 Sale of abandoned property.—

(1) All abandoned property other than money delivered to the administrator under this act may be sold by him. Such sale shall be to the highest bidder at public sale in whatever place in the state affords in his judgment the most favorable market for the property involved. The administrator may decline the highest bid and re-offer the property for sale if he considers the price bid insufficient. He need not offer any property for sale if, in his opinion, the probable cost of sale exceeds the value of the property.

(2) Any sale held under this section shall be preceded by a single publication of notice thereof, at least three weeks in advance of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is to be sold.

(3) The purchaser at any sale conducted by the administrator pursuant to this act shall receive title to the property purchased, free from all claims of the owner or prior holder thereof and of all persons claiming through or under them. The administrator shall execute all documents necessary to complete the transfer of title.

History.—§17, ch. 61-10.

717.19 Deposit of funds.—

(1) All funds received under this act, including the proceeds from the sale of abandoned property under §717.17 shall forthwith be deposited by the administrator in the state school fund of the state, except that the administrator shall retain in a separate account an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars from which he shall make prompt payment of claims duly allowed by him as hereinafter provided. Before making the deposit he shall record the name and last known address of each person appearing from the holders' reports to be entitled to the abandoned property and of the name and last known address of each insured person or annuitant, and with respect to each policy or contract listed in the report of an insurance corporation, its number, the name of the corporation, and the amount due. The record shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

(2) Before making any deposit to the credit of the state school fund, the administrator may deduct:

(a) Any costs in connection with sale of abandoned property,

(b) Any costs of mailing and publication in connection with any abandoned property.

History.—§18, ch. 61-10.

717.20 Claim for abandoned property paid or delivered.—Any person claiming at any time an interest in any property delivered to the state under this act may file a claim thereto or to the proceeds from the sale thereof on the form prescribed by the administrator.

History.—§19, ch. 61-10.

717.21 Determination of claims.—

(1) The administrator shall consider any claim filed under this act and may hold a hearing and receive evidence concerning it. If a hearing is held, he shall prepare a finding and a decision in writing on each claim filed, stating the substance of any evidence heard by him and the reasons for his decision. The decision shall be a public record.

(2) If the claim is allowed, the administrator, shall make payment forthwith. The claim shall be paid without deduction for costs of notices or sale or for service charges.

History.—§20, ch. 61-10.

717.22 Judicial action upon determination.

—Any person aggrieved by a decision of the administrator or as to whose claim the administrator has failed to act within ninety days after the filing of the claim, may commence an action in the circuit court of the second judicial circuit in and for Leon county, to establish his claim. The proceeding shall be brought within ninety days after the decision of the administrator or within one hundred eighty days from the filing of the claim if the administrator fails to act. The action shall be tried de novo without a jury.

History.—§21, ch. 61-10.

717.23 Election to take payment or delivery.

—The administrator, after receiving reports of property deemed abandoned pursuant to this act, may decline to receive any property reported which he deems to have a value less than the cost of giving notice and holding sale or he may, if he deems it desirable because of the small sum involved, postpone taking possession until a sufficient sum accumulates.

History.—§22, ch. 61-10.

717.24 Examination of records.—The administrator may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice examine the records of any person if he has reason to believe that such person has failed to report property that should have been reported pursuant to this act. If any person refuses to permit the examination of his records, the administrator may issue subpoena to compel such person to testify and produce his records; said subpoena to be served by the sheriff of the county where the person resides or may be found. Such person shall be entitled to the same per diem and mileage as witnesses appearing in the circuit court of the state which shall be paid by the state. If any person shall refuse to obey any subpoena so issued or shall refuse to testify or produce his records, the administrator may present his petition to the circuit court of the county where any such person is served with the subpoena or where he resides, whereupon said court shall issue its rule nisi to such person requiring him to obey forthwith the subpoena issued by the board or show cause why he fails to obey the same, and unless the said person shows sufficient cause for failing to obey the said subpoena, the court shall forthwith direct such person to obey the same, and upon his refusal to comply, he shall be adjudged in contempt of court and shall be punished as the court may direct.

History.—§23, ch. 61-10.

717.25 Proceeding to compel delivery of abandoned property.—If any person refuses to deliver property to the administrator as required under this act, he shall bring an action in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to enforce such delivery.

History.—§24, ch. 61-10.

717.26 Administration.—The administrator shall create a division of his office, to be known as the abandoned property office, for the purpose of administering the provisions of this act and of chapter 716. An appropriation shall be made biennially for the maintenance of such office, and to provide sufficient staff to adequately enforce the provisions of this law. Other divisions of the office of the administrator, as well as all state officers and employees generally, shall assist in the enforcement of this act in connection with the performance of their normal duties.

History.—§25, ch. 61-10.

717.27 Penalties.—

(1) Any person who wilfully fails to render any report or perform other duties required under this act, shall be punished as for a misdemeanor.

(2) Any person who wilfully refuses to pay or deliver abandoned property to the administrator as required under this act shall be punished as for a misdemeanor.

History.—§26, ch. 61-10.

717.28 Rules and regulations.—The administrator is hereby authorized to make necessary rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this act.

History.—§27, ch. 61-10.

717.29 Effect of laws of other states.—This act shall not apply to any property that has been presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state prior to September 30, 1961.

History.—§28, ch. 61-10.

717.30 Repeal.—The following sections of Florida Statutes are hereby repealed: §§69.07, 69.16 and 14.07-14.13. This act shall not repeal, but shall be additional and supplemental to the existing provisions of §§54.04-54.06 and 550.-164, chapter 716, §§731.28, 731.33 and 965.08(4).

History.—§30, ch. 61-10.

Note.—The repeals cited in the section above did not appear in the title of ch. 61-10.

TITLE XL

STATUTE OF FRAUDS, FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES AND GENERAL ASSIGNMENTS

CHAPTER 725

UNENFORCEABLE CONTRACTS

725.01 Promise to pay another's debt, etc.
725.02 Contracts to sell personalty.

725.01 Promise to pay another's debt, etc.—
No action shall be brought whereby to charge any executor or administrator upon any special promise to answer or pay any debt or damages out of his own estate, or whereby to charge the defendant upon any special promise to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another person or to charge any person upon any agreement made upon consideration of marriage, or upon any contract for the sale of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or of any uncertain interest in or concerning them, or for any lease thereof for a period longer than one year, or upon any agreement that is not to be performed within the space of one year from the making thereof, unless the agreement or promise upon which such action shall be brought, or some note or memorandum thereof shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith or by some other person by him thereunto lawfully authorized.

725.03 Newspaper subscription.

History.—§10, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1995; GS 2517; RGS 3872; CGL 5779.
cf.—§689.01 Fraudulent sales.

725.02 Contracts to sell personalty.—No contract for the sale of any personal property, goods, wares or merchandise shall be good, unless the buyer shall accept the goods (or part of them) so sold and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the bargain or in part payment, or some note or memorandum in writing of the said bargain or contract be made and signed by the parties to be charged by such contract, or their agents thereunto lawfully authorized.

History.—§11, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1996; GS 2518; RGS 3873; CGL 5780.

725.03 Newspaper subscription.—No person shall be liable to pay for any newspaper, periodical or other like matter, unless he shall subscribe for or order the same in writing.

History.—§1, ch. 379, 1851; RS 1997; GS 2519; RGS 3874; CGL 5781.

CHAPTER 726

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES, SALES, AND LOANS

- 726.01 Fraudulent conveyances void.
 726.02 Vendee of stock of goods in bulk to demand from vendor statement of creditors, etc.
 726.03 Notice to creditors by vendee.
 726.04 Sale without notice to creditors presumed fraudulent.
 726.05 What sales deemed fraudulent; proviso.

726.01 Fraudulent conveyances void.—Every feoffment, gift, grant, alienation, bargain, sale, conveyance, transfer and assignment of lands, tenements, hereditaments, and of goods and chattels, or any of them, or any lease, rent, use, common or other profit, benefit or charge whatever out of lands, tenements, hereditaments or goods and chattels, or any of them, by writing or otherwise, and every bond, note, contract, suit, judgment and execution which shall at any time hereafter be had, made or executed, contrived or devised of fraud, covin, collusion or guile, to the end, purpose or intent to delay, hinder or defraud creditors or others of their just and lawful actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, demands, penalties or forfeitures, shall be from henceforth as against the person or persons, or bodies politic or corporate, his, her or their successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and every one of them so intended to be delayed, hindered or defrauded, deemed, held, adjudged and taken to be utterly void, frustrate and of none effect, any pretense, color, feigned consideration, expressing of use or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that this section, or anything therein contained, shall not extend to any estate or interest in lands, tenements, hereditaments, leases, rents, uses, commons, profits, goods or chattels which shall be had, made, conveyed or assured if such estate shall be, upon good consideration and bona fide, lawfully conveyed or assured to any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, not having at the time of such conveyance or assurance to them made any manner of notice or knowledge of such covin, fraud or collusion as aforesaid, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

History.—§1, Jan. 28, 1823; RS 1991; GS 2513; RGS 3864; CGL 5771; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

726.02 Vendee of stock of goods in bulk to demand from vendor statement of creditors, etc.—It shall be the duty of every person who shall bargain for or purchase any stock of goods, wares or merchandise in bulk for cash or credit, before paying or delivering to the vendor any part of the purchase price therefor, to demand and receive from the vendor thereof, and if the vendor be a corporation, then from the managing officer or agent thereof, a written statement under oath of the names and addresses of all the creditors of said vendor, together with the amount of in-

- 726.06 Punishment for making false statements to vendee of stock of goods in bulk.
 726.07 Fraudulent conveyance void against subsequent purchasers.
 726.08 Conveyances with power of revocation void against subsequent purchasers.
 726.09 Fraudulent loans void.
 726.10 Watches, used; sales regulated.

debtedness due or owing by the said vendor to each of such creditors; and it shall be the duty of such vendor to furnish such statement, whether he be a wholesale or a retail merchant.

History.—§1, ch. 5679, 1907; RGS 3865; CGL 5772.

726.03 Notice to creditors by vendee.—

(1) Thereupon it shall be the duty of the purchaser, at least five days before the completion of said purchase, or the payment therefor, to notify personally or by registered mail, each of said creditors of the said proposed sale, the price to be paid therefor, and the terms and conditions thereof.

(2) In counties having a population in excess of two hundred thousand inhabitants, according to the latest official state-wide decennial census, it shall be the duty of the purchaser to cause to be published one time in a daily newspaper in the county in which the vendor resides, not less than seven days prior to the completion of said purchase, a notice of intention to purchase, in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PURCHASE UNDER BULK SALES LAW TO ALL PERSONS HAVING CLAIMS OR DEMANDS AGAINST

(Name of Business and Vendor)

The undersigned intend(s) to purchase in bulk the stock of goods, wares or merchandise and/or the business fixtures or equipment used in connection with that certain business or enterprise known as _____ _____ located at _____ _____ and to conclude such purchase on _____ 19__ at _____ and all persons having claims or demands against the vendor are admonished to notify the undersigned at that address on or before said date.

Dated at: _____

(Name of Purchaser)

In the event such notice is not published by the purchaser, such sale or transfer shall be presumed to be fraudulent as to any and all creditors of the vendor.

History.—§2, ch. 5679, 1907; RGS 3866; CGL 5773; (2) N. by §1, ch. 59-296.
 cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

726.04 Sale without notice to creditors presumed fraudulent.—When any person shall purchase any stock of goods, wares or merchandise in bulk, and shall pay the price or any part thereof, or execute or deliver to the vendor thereof, or to his order, or to any person for his use, any promissory note, or other evidence of indebtedness, for said purchase price, or any part thereof, without having first demanded and received from said vendor the statement under oath mentioned in §726.02, and without first giving to each of the creditors whose names have been furnished by said vendor the notice provided for in §726.03, such sale or transfer shall, as to any and all creditors of the vendor, be presumed to be fraudulent.

History.—§3, ch. 5679, 1907; RGS 3867; CGL 5774.
cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

726.05 What sales deemed fraudulent; proviso.—Any sale or transfer of a stock of goods, wares or merchandise out of the usual or ordinary course of business or trade of the vendor, or whereby substantially the entire business or trade theretofore conducted by the vendor shall be sold or conveyed, or attempted to be sold or conveyed, to one or more persons, shall be deemed a fraudulent transaction or transfer in bulk in contemplation of §§726.02-726.06; provided, that nothing contained in said sections shall apply to sales by executors, administrators, receivers or any public officer under judicial process.

History.—§5, ch. 5679, 1907; RGS 3868; CGL 5775.

726.06 Punishment for making false statements to vendee of stock of goods in bulk.—Any vendor of a stock of goods, wares or merchandise in bulk who shall knowingly or willfully make or deliver, or cause to be made or delivered, any false statement or any statement of which any material portion is false, or shall fail to include the names of all his creditors in any such statement, as is required in §726.02, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months.

History.—§4, ch. 5679, 1907; RGS 5200; CGL 7304.

726.07 Fraudulent conveyance void against subsequent purchasers.—Every feoffment, deed, conveyance, mortgage, grant, charge, lease, transfer, assignment, estate, encumbrance, interest, and limitation of use or uses of, in or out of any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, which shall at any time hereafter be had, made, executed or contrived for the intent and purpose of defrauding and deceiving such person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, as shall afterward purchase the same lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any part thereof, or any estate, interest, rent, property, right or commodity, in, to or out of the same, or any part thereof, so formerly conveyed, granted, leased, charged, transferred, assigned, encumbered or limited in use, shall be deemed, adjudged, taken and held as against the person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and against all and every person and persons lawfully having or claiming by, from, through or under them, or any of them who shall have so purchased for money or other good consideration the same lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part thereof, or any estate, right, interest, profit, benefit or commodity, in, to or out of the same, to be utterly void, frustrate and of none effect, any pretense, feigned consideration or expressing of use or uses to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that nothing in this section contained shall extend or be construed to impeach, make void or frustrate any conveyance, assignment or lease, assurance, grant, charge, lease, estate, interest or limitation, or use or uses of, in, to or out of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, which shall be made upon and for good consideration and bona fide, to any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

History.—§2, Jan. 28, 1823; RS 1992; GS 2514; RGS 3869; CGL 5776.

726.08 Conveyances with power of revocation void against subsequent purchasers.—If any person or persons shall make any conveyance, gift, grant, demise, charge, limitation of use or uses, or assurance of, in or out of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, with any clause, provision, article or condition of revocation, determination or alteration at his, her or their will or pleasure, of such conveyance, gift, assurance, grant, demise, charge, limitation of use or uses contained in the same, or in any other writing whatever of, in or out of the said lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part and parcel of them, and after such conveyance, grant, gift, demise, charge, limitation of uses or assurance so made or had, shall or do bargain, sell, demise, grant, convey, transfer or charge the same lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part or parcel thereof, or any estate, right or interest in the same to any other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, for money or other good consideration (the said first conveyance, assurance, gift, grant, demise, charge or limitation not being revoked, made void or altered according to the power and authority reserved or expressed in and by the said first conveyance or other writing), then the said former conveyance, assurance, grant, demise, charge or limitations, as touching the said lands, tenements and hereditaments and estate, right or interest in the same so afterward bargained, sold, granted, conveyed, demised, transferred or charged, as against the said bargainees, vendees, grantees, lessees and every of them, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and as against all and every person and persons who shall or may lawfully claim by, through, from or under them, or any of them, shall be deemed, taken and adjudged to be void and of none effect.

History.—§3, Jan. 28, 1823; RS 1993; GS 2515; RGS 3870; CGL 5777.

726.09 Fraudulent loans void.—When any loan of goods and chattels shall be pretended to have been made to any person with whom or those claiming under him, possession shall have remained for the space of two years without demand and pursued by due process of law on the part of the pretended lender, or where any reservation or limitation shall be pretended to have been made of a use or property by way of condition, reversion, remainder or otherwise in goods and chattels, and the possession thereof shall have remained in another as aforesaid, the same shall be taken, as to the creditors and purchasers of the persons aforesaid so remaining in possession, to be fraudulent within this chapter, and the absolute property shall be with the possession, unless such loan, reservation or limitation of use or property were declared by will or deed in writing proved and recorded.

History.—§4, Jan. 28, 1823; §1, ch. 872, 1859; RS 1994; GS 2516; RGS 3871; CGL 5778.

726.10 Watches, used; sales regulated.—

(1) The purpose of this law is to identify all watches other than new, with a label or designation of "used" in order to safeguard the public from being misled in purchasing used, rebuilt or reconditioned watches as new.

(2) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged in the business of buying or selling watches, or any agent or servant thereof, who shall sell or exchange, or offer for sale or exchange, expose for sale or exchange, possess with the intent to sell or exchange, or display with the intent to sell or exchange any used watch, shall affix and keep affixed to the same a tag with the word "used" clearly and legibly written or printed thereon, and the said tag shall be so placed that the word "used" shall be in plain sight at all times.

(3) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged in the business of buying or selling watches, or any agent or servant thereof, who shall sell a used watch or in any other way pass title thereto shall deliver to the vendee a written invoice bearing the words "used watch" in bold letters larger than any of the other written matter upon said invoice. Said invoice shall further set forth the name and address of the vendor, the name and address of the vendee, the date of the sale, the name of the watch or its maker, and the serial numbers (if any), and any other distinguishing numbers or identification marks upon its case and movement. If the serial numbers or other distinguishing numbers or identification marks shall have been erased, defaced, removed, altered or covered, said invoice shall so state. The vendor shall keep on file a duplicate of said invoice for at least two years from the date of the sale thereof, which shall be open to inspection during all business hours by the sheriff or any prosecuting officer of the county in which the vendor is engaged in business.

(4) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent or servant thereof, who may advertise or display in any manner a used watch for sale or exchange shall state clearly in such advertisement or display that said watch is a used watch.

(5) A watch shall be deemed to be used if:

(a) It as a whole or the case thereof or the movement thereof has been previously sold to or acquired by any person who bought or acquired the same for his use or the use of another, but not for resale; provided, however, that a watch which has been so sold or acquired and is thereafter returned either through an exchange or for credit to the original individual, firm, partnership, association or corporation who sold or passed title to such watch within ten days after the sale or acquisition thereof, shall not be deemed to be a used watch for the purpose of this section, if such vendor shall keep a written or printed record setting forth the name of the purchaser thereof, the date of the sale or transfer thereof and the serial number (if any) on the case and the movement, and any other distinguishing numbers or identification marks, which said record shall be kept for at least two years from the date of such sale or transfer and shall be open for inspection during all business hours by the sheriff or any prosecuting officer of the county in which such vendor is engaged in business; or,

(b) Its case serial numbers or movement numbers or other distinguishing numbers or identification marks shall be erased, defaced, removed, altered or covered; or,

(c) Its movement is more than five years old and has been repaired by any person or persons, including the vendor. Cleaning and oiling a watch movement or recasing the movement in a new case shall not be deemed a watch repair for the purpose of this section.

(6) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent or servant thereof, who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 22040, 1948.

CHAPTER 727

GENERAL ASSIGNMENTS

- 727.01 To be in writing and to contain no preferences.
 727.02 Oath of assignor.
 727.03 Record of assignment and oath.
 727.04 Qualifications of assignee.

727.01 To be in writing and to contain no preferences.—No assignment made for the benefit of creditors shall be valid in this state, except the same shall be made in writing and shall provide for an equal distribution of all the assignor's real and personal property, except such as is exempted by law from forced sale, among the several creditors of the said assignor in equal proportion to their respective demands.

History.—§1, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2307; GS 2926; RGS 4666; CGL 6752.

727.02 Oath of assignor.—The said assignor shall make and subscribe an oath in writing before any officer authorized to administer oaths in the county in which he lives and does business, or of the county or counties wherein is situated the property assigned, not more than ten days after the assignment, that he has placed or assigned, and that the true intention of his assignment was to place in the hands of his assignee all of his property of every description, except such as is exempt by law from forced sale, to be divided among the creditors in proportion to their respective demands.

History.—§2, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2308; GS 2927; RGS 4667; CGL 6753.

727.03 Record of assignment and oath.—Both the said deed of assignment and oath of assignor shall be recorded in the office or offices of the clerk or clerks of the county or counties in which the property assigned is situated.

History.—§3, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2309; GS 2928; RGS 4668; CGL 6754.

727.04 Qualifications of assignee.—No one shall be selected and appointed as assignee by the assignor, in such assignment, who does not give bond to be approved by the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the assignor lives or does business, or of the county wherein is situated the property assigned, payable to the governor of Florida, in double the value of the property assigned, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties devolved on him as such assignee, said bond to be filed in the office aforesaid, immediately upon the assignee's taking possession of the assigned property.

History.—§4, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2310; GS 2929; RGS 4669; CGL 6755.

727.05 Notice of assignment.—Said assignee immediately upon taking possession of the as-

- signed property shall give notice by publication in a newspaper, published in the county where the assigned property is situated or wherein a portion of the same is, once a week for four consecutive weeks, to all the creditors of the assignor, of the fact of the assignment, and calling upon said creditors to file with him within sixty days, if such creditors reside in the state, or if beyond the limits of the state, within four months, sworn statements of their claims against said assignor, and he shall send by mail a copy of the newspaper containing said notice to each of the said creditors, as far as he may know them.
- 727.05 Notice of assignment.
 727.06 Disposition of property.
 727.07 Semiannual statements.
 727.08 Application for discharge of assignee.

History.—§6, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2311; GS 2930; RGS 4670; CGL 6756.

727.06 Disposition of property.—The said assignee shall, as soon as the foregoing provisions have been complied with, proceed to dispose of all the property mentioned in the deed of assignment to him, to the best interest of all the parties concerned, either at public or private sale, as to him may seem best, and to collect and to recover by law, or otherwise, all debts due the assignor in the same manner as said assignor might or could do in his own right if such assignment had not been made, and for this purpose said assignee may employ an attorney to prosecute such claims.

History.—§7, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2312; GS 2931; RGS 4671; CGL 6757.

727.07 Semiannual statements.—Semiannually, as long as shall be necessary after his appointment, said assignee shall file his sworn statement in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, of all his doings and financial transactions as said assignee.

History.—§8, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2313; GS 2932; RGS 4672; CGL 6758.

727.08 Application for discharge of assignee.—After the final statement of the assignee of all the matters pertaining to his position, he may, after publication for thirty days in a newspaper in the county where he published his notice mentioned in §727.05, apply by petition to the judge of the circuit court of said circuit for his letters of discharge as said assignee, and if the said circuit judge shall be satisfied that the said assignee has complied with his duties as such assignee, he shall then grant him such letters as prayed for.

History.—§9, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2314; GS 2933; RGS 4673; CGL 6759.

TITLE XLI

ESTATES OF DECEDENTS

CHAPTER 731

FLORIDA PROBATE LAW, FIRST PART

- | | | | |
|---------|---|--------|---|
| 731.01 | Short title. | 731.16 | Revocation of codicil. |
| 731.02 | Application. | 731.17 | Republication of wills by codicil. |
| 731.03 | Definitions. | 731.18 | Republication of wills by re-execution. |
| 731.04 | Who may make a will. | 731.19 | Charitable devises and bequests. |
| 731.05 | Property which may be devised. | 731.20 | Lapsed or void legacies or devises. |
| 731.051 | Agreements to make a will, requirements. | 731.21 | Vesting of legacies or devises. |
| 731.06 | Requisites of nuncupative wills. | 731.22 | Income from legacies or devises. |
| 731.07 | Execution of wills. | 731.23 | Order of succession. |
| 731.08 | Effect of fraud, duress, mistake or undue influence. | 731.24 | Half blood. |
| 731.09 | Revocation by fraud. | 731.25 | Inheritance per stirpes. |
| 731.10 | Marriage after execution of will. | 731.27 | Descent of homesteads. |
| 731.101 | Will void as affecting surviving divorced spouse. | 731.28 | Alien. |
| 731.11 | Children born after execution of will. | 731.29 | Illegitimate child as heir. |
| 731.12 | Implied revocation by subsequent inconsistent will. | 731.30 | Adopted child. |
| 731.13 | Revocation by written instrument. | 731.31 | Murderer. |
| 731.14 | Other revocation. | 731.32 | Inheritance from persons of color. |
| 731.15 | Revival by revocation. | 731.33 | Escheat. |
| | | 731.34 | Dower in realty and personalty. |
| | | 731.35 | Election to take dower. |
| | | 731.36 | Articles in addition to dower. |

731.01 Short title.—This chapter, together with the three chapters next following, shall be known and may be cited as the Florida probate law.

History.—§1, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5457(1) am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.02 Application.—This Florida probate law shall apply to and govern the estates of all decedents, whether dying prior to or after its enactment; provided, however, that estates of decedents dying prior to October 1, 1933, which are now in the process of administration may be completed and closed in accordance with the statutes and laws under which they have heretofore been administered.

History.—§2, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5457(2); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.03 Definitions.—In these statutes, when applied to wills and the probate thereof, descent and distribution of decedents' estates, dower, administration of decedents' estates, and practice and procedure relating thereto, where the context permits, the word, phrase or term:

- (1) "Administration" refers to the administration of estates and to all probate proceedings;
- (2) "Bequeath" means to dispose of personal property by will, but it may be used interchangeably with the word "devise";
- (3) "Bequest" means a gift of personal property received by the beneficiary in a will, but it may refer to real estate also;
- (4) "Curator" means a person appointed by the county judge to take charge of the estate of a deceased person until letters testamentary or of administration are granted;

(5) "Devise" when used as a verb, means to dispose of real estate by will, but it may be used interchangeably with the word "bequeath";

(6) "Devise" when used as a noun, means a gift of real estate by will, but it may be used interchangeably with the word "bequest";

(7) "Gift" means either devise or bequest, or both;

(8) "Heir" and "heir at law" have the same meaning as "next of kin";

(9) "Interested persons" and "persons interested in the estate" mean heirs, legatees, devisees, distributees, spouses and creditors, or others having a property right in or claim against an estate being administered; and such words mean the persons entitled to the estate of a decedent in the event of intestacy;

(10) "Legacy" has the same meaning as "bequest," hereinbefore defined;

(11) "Legatee" and "devisee" may be construed as synonymous;

(12) "Letters" means letters of administration or letters testamentary;

(13) "Personal representative" means the executor or administrator;

(14) "Probate" means not only probate proceedings pertaining to wills, but also the administration of estates;

(15) "Property" means real estate, personal-ty, choses in action, or any interest in the same, legal or equitable.

(16) The words "attesting witnesses" and the words "subscribing witnesses" as used in these statutes shall have the same meaning, and no witness shall be considered an attesting witness or a subscribing witness to a will unless he actually signs his name to such will.

History.—§3, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(3); §1, ch. 22783, 1945; sub. §(16) comp. §1, ch. 29925, 1955.

731.04 Who may make a will.—Any person, male or female, married or single, who is eighteen years or more of age and who is of sound mind may make a will. No other person may make a will.

History.—§5, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(1); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.05 Property which may be devised.—

(1) Any property, real or personal, held by any title, legal or equitable, with or without actual seisin, may be devised or bequeathed by will; provided, however, that whenever a person who is head of a family, residing in this state and having a homestead therein, dies and leaves either a widow or lineal descendants or both surviving him, the homestead shall not be the subject of devise, but shall descend as otherwise provided in this law for the descent of homesteads.

(2) A will becomes effective at the time of the death of the testator, and all property, real or personal, acquired by the testator after making his will is transmissible under general expressions in the will showing such to be the intention of the testator. Every will containing a residuary clause shall transmit after-acquired property unless the testator expressly states in his will that such is not his intention.

History.—§6, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(2); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§222.13, Life Insurance.
§731.27, Homestead.
§731.34, Dower.

731.051 Agreements to make a will, requirements.—

(1) No agreement to make a will of real or personal property or to give a legacy or make a devise shall be binding or enforceable unless such agreement is in writing signed in the presence of two subscribing witnesses by the person whose executor or administrator is sought to be charged.

(2) This section shall apply to agreements made on, after or prior to January 1, 1958.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-148.

731.06 Requisites of nuncupative wills.—No nuncupative will shall be good unless it is proved by the oaths of three witnesses present at the making thereof; nor unless it is proved by the said witnesses that the testator at the time of pronouncing the same did desire the persons present, or some of them, to bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect; nor unless such nuncupative will was made at the time of the last sickness of the deceased. Personal property only shall be subject to disposition by nuncupative wills.

History.—§7, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(3); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§§732.39, 732.40, Time of proof and probate.

731.07 Execution of wills.—Every will, other than a nuncupative will, must be in writing and must be executed as follows:

(1) The testator must sign his will at the end thereof, or some other person in his presence and by his direction must subscribe the name of the testator thereto.

(2) The testator, in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses present at the same time, must sign his will or cause his name to be signed as aforesaid or acknowledge his signature thereto.

(3) No will executed by a nonresident of Florida, either before or after this law takes effect, is valid as a will in this state unless it is executed in accordance with the laws of this state in force at the time of its execution, except that a will valid under the laws of the state or country in which the testator is domiciled at the time of his death is valid in this state, so far as it relates to personal property.

(4) A will executed by a resident of this state prior to October 1, 1933, is valid if executed according to the laws of this state in force at the time of its execution.

(5) All devises and bequests to subscribing witnesses are void unless there are at least two other disinterested subscribing witnesses to the will. If a subscribing witness would be entitled to any share of the estate of the testator in case the will were not established, he shall take such proportion of the devise or bequest made to him in the will as does not exceed the share of the estate which would be distributed to him if the will were not established.

(6) No particular form of words is necessary to the validity of a will if it is executed according to the formalities required by law.

(7) A codicil shall be executed with the same formalities as a will.

History.—§8, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(4); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.08 Effect of fraud, duress, mistake or undue influence.—A will is void if the execution thereof is procured by fraud, duress, mistake, menace or undue influence. Likewise, any part of a will is void if so procured, but the remainder of the will not so procured shall be valid if the same is not invalid for other reasons.

History.—§9, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(5); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.09 Revocation by fraud.—If the revocation of a will, or any part thereof, is procured by fraud, duress, menace or undue influence, such revocation shall be void.

History.—§10, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(6); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.10 Marriage after execution of will.—When a person marries after making a will and the spouse survives the testator, such surviving spouse shall receive a share in the estate of the testator equal in value to that which such surviving spouse would have received if the testator had died intestate, unless provision has been made for such spouse by marriage contract or unless such spouse is provided for in the will, or unless the will discloses an intention not to make such provision. The share of the estate which is assigned to such pretermitted spouse shall be raised in accordance with the order of appropriation of assets set forth in this law.

History.—§11, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(7); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.101 Will void as affecting surviving divorced spouse.—All wills offered for and admitted to probate subsequent to June 11, 1951, made by husband or wife who have been divorced from each other subsequent to the date of said will, shall be made null and void by means of said divorce insofar as said will affects the surviving divorced spouse.

History.—§1, ch. 26914, 1951; tr. from §732.261, 1961.

731.11 Children born after execution of will.—When a testator omits to provide in his will for any of his children born after the making of the will and such child has not had bestowed upon him by way of advancement a portion of the testator's property equivalent to a child's part, unless it appears from the will that such omission was intentional, such child shall receive a share in the estate of the testator equal in value to that which he would have received if the testator had died intestate. The share of the estate which is assigned to such pretermitted child shall be raised in accordance with the order of appropriation of assets set forth in this law.

History.—§12, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(8); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.12 Implied revocation by subsequent inconsistent will.—A will is revoked by a subsequent inconsistent will, even though the last will does not expressly revoke all previous wills; but such revocation extends only so far as the inconsistency exists.

History.—§13, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(9); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.13 Revocation by written instrument.—A will or any part thereof may be revoked or altered by a subsequent written will, codicil or other writing, declaring such revocation or alteration; provided, that the same formalities required for the execution of wills under this law are observed in the execution of such will, codicil or other writing.

History.—§14, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(10); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.14 Other revocation.—

(1) A will may be revoked by the testator himself or by some other person in his presence and by his direction, by burning, tearing, canceling, defacing, obliterating or destroying the same, with the intent and for the purpose of revocation.

(2) Neither subsequent marriage nor subsequent marriage and birth of issue shall revoke the prior will of any person; but the pretermitted child or spouse shall inherit as set forth in this law regardless of such prior will.

History.—§15, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(11); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.15 Revival by revocation.—The revocation of a will expressly revoking a former will shall not revive the former will, even though such former will is in existence at the date of the revocation of the subsequent will.

History.—§16, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(12); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.16 Revocation of codicil.—The revocation of a will revokes all codicils thereto previously made.

History.—§17, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(13); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.17 Republication of wills by codicil.—The execution of a codicil referring to a previous will has the effect of republishing the will as modified by the codicil.

History.—§18, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(14); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.18 Republication of wills by re-execution.—If a will has been revoked or if it is invalid for any other reason, it may be republished and made valid by the re-execution of the same with the formalities required by this law for the execution of wills.

History.—§19, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(15); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.19 Charitable devises and bequests.—If a testator dies leaving issue of his body or an adopted child, or the lineal descendants of either, or a spouse, and if the will of such testator devises or bequeaths the estate of such testator, or any part thereof, to a benevolent, charitable, literary, scientific, religious or missionary institution, corporation, association or purpose, or to this state, or to any other state or country, or to a county, city or town in this or any other state or country, or to a person in trust for any such purpose or beneficiary, whether or not such trust appears on the face of the instrument making such devise or bequest, such devise or bequest shall be avoided in its entirety within eight months from the death of the testator by one or more of the above specified persons who would receive any interest in the devise or bequest so avoided, by filing written notice thereof in the probate proceedings unless said will was duly executed at least six months prior to the death of the testator, or unless testator, by his will duly executed immediately next prior to such last will and more than six months before his death, made a valid charitable bequest or devise in substantially the same amount for the same purpose or to the same beneficiary, or to a person in trust for the same person or beneficiary as was made in such last will. The making of a codicil within the six-months period before testator's death, which codicil does not substantially change a charitable devise or bequest as herein defined, shall not render such charitable gift ineffective under this section. This section shall not be construed to apply to devises or bequests made to institutions of higher learning.

History.—§20, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(16); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 57-243.

731.20 Lapsed or void legacies or devises.—

(1) If a devisee or legatee dies during the lifetime of the testator, the testamentary disposition to such devisee or legatee lapses unless an intention appears from the will to substitute another in his place; but, when any property is devised or bequeathed to an adopted child or blood kindred of the testator, and when such devisee or

legatee dies before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, or is dead at the time the will is executed, leaving lineal descendants who survive the testator, such legacy or devise does not lapse, but such descendants take the property so given by the will in the same manner as the devisee or legatee would have done had he survived the testator.

(2) If a legacy or devise is void or lapses, it shall become a part of the residuum and shall pass to the residuary legatee or devisee unless a contrary intent is expressed by the testator in his will.

History.—§21, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(17); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.21 Vesting of legacies or devises.—The death of the testator is the event which vests the right to legacies or devises unless the testator in his will has provided that some other event must happen before a legacy or devise shall vest.

History.—§22, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(18); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.22 Income from legacies or devises.—The net income, interest or increase arising from property specifically devised or bequeathed shall belong to the specific legatees and devisees entitled thereto from the date of the death of the testator. From and after the time fixed by the county judge in an order of distribution, general legacies shall bear legal interest until paid.

History.—§23, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5477(19); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.23 Order of succession.—The real and personal property of an intestate shall descend and be distributed as follows:

(1) To the surviving spouse and lineal descendants, the surviving spouse taking the same as if he or she were one of the children.

(2) If there are no lineal descendants, to the surviving spouse.

(3) If there is no surviving spouse, to the lineal descendants.

(4) If there is none of the foregoing, to the father and mother equally, or to the survivor of them.

(5) If there is none of the foregoing, to the brothers and sisters and the descendants of deceased brothers and sisters.

(6) If there is none of the foregoing, the estate shall be divided into moieties, one of which shall go to the paternal and the other to the maternal kindred in the following course:

(a) To the grandfather and grandmother equally, or to the survivor of them.

(b) If there is no grandfather or grandmother, to the uncles and aunts and the descendants of such of them as may be deceased.

(c) If there is no grandparent, uncle or aunt, or their descendants, to the great-grandfathers and the great-grandmothers equally, or to the survivor of them.

(d) If there is no great-grandfather or great-grandmother, then to the brothers and sisters of the grandfather and grandmother on the same side and to the descendants of such of them as may be deceased.

(e) And so in other cases without end, passing to the next lineal ancestor or ancestors, and, for want of them, to the descendants of such ancestors.

(7) Where the estate is hereinbefore directed to go by moieties to the paternal and the maternal kindred, if there are no such kindred on the one part, the whole shall go to the other part; and, if there are no kindred on either the one part or the other, the whole estate shall go to the kindred of the deceased spouse of the intestate in like course as if such deceased spouse had survived the intestate and then died entitled to the estate.

History.—§24, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(1); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§§734.02-734.04, Distribution of estate.

731.24 Half blood.—In the cases before mentioned, where the estate is directed to pass to the collateral kindred of the intestate, if part of such collateral kindred are of the whole blood to the intestate and the other part of the half blood only, those of the half blood shall inherit only half as much as those of the whole blood; but, if all are of the half blood, they shall have whole portions.

History.—§25, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(2); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.25 Inheritance per stirpes.—Descent and distribution, whether to lineal descendants or to collateral heirs, shall always be per stirpes.

History.—§26, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(3); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.27 Descent of homesteads.—The homestead shall descend as other property; provided, however, that if the decedent is survived by a widow and lineal descendants, the widow shall take a life estate in the homestead, with vested remainder to the lineal descendants in being at the time of the death of the decedent.

History.—§28, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(5); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§734.08, Administration of exempt estates.

731.28 Alien.—

(1) An alien may devise, bequeath, inherit and transmit inheritance in real and personal property as if he were a citizen of the United States; and in making title by descent it shall be no bar to a party that the intestate or any ancestor through whom he derives his descent from the intestate is or has been an alien.

(2) When the county judge determines that any alien legatee, devisee, heir, beneficiary or distributee not residing within the territorial limits of the United States or any territory or possession thereof would not have the benefit or use or control of property due him and that special circumstances make it desirable that delivery to him be deferred, the county judge may order that such property be converted into available funds and paid into the state treasury, after such attorney's fees of the attorney for such legatee, devisee, heir, beneficiary or distributee, as the court shall set, have been paid therefrom, and said funds held in the state treasury subject to such further orders as the said court may enter.

History.—§29, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(6); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945; (2)n. by §1, ch. 59-128.

731.29 Illegitimate child as heir.—

(1) Every illegitimate child is an heir of his mother, and also of the person who, in writing, signed in the presence of a competent witness, acknowledges himself to be the father. Such illegitimate child shall inherit from his mother and also, when so recognized, from his father, in the same manner as if the child had been born in lawful wedlock. However, such illegitimate child does not represent his father or mother by inheriting any part of the estate of the parents' kindred, either lineal or collateral, unless his parents have intermarried, in which event such illegitimate child shall be deemed legitimate for all purposes.

(2) If any illegitimate child dies intestate, without lawful issue or spouse, his estate shall descend to his mother, or, in case of her decease, to her heirs at law.

History.—§30, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(7); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.30 Adopted child.—An adopted child, whether adopted under the laws of Florida or of any other state or country, shall be an heir at law, and for the purpose of inheritance, shall be regarded as a lineal descendant of his adopting parents, and the adopting parents shall inherit from the adopted child. The adopted child shall be regarded as the natural brother or sister of the natural children and other adopted children of the adopting parents for the purpose of inheritance from or by them. The adopted child shall inherit the estate of his blood parents, but his blood parents shall not inherit from the adopted child.

History.—§31, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(8); §1, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §1, ch. 28223, 1953.

731.31 Murderer.—Any person convicted of the murder of a decedent shall not be entitled to inherit from the decedent or to take any portion of his estate as a legatee or devisee. The portion of the decedent's estate to which such murderer would otherwise be entitled shall pass to the persons entitled thereto as though such murderer had died during the lifetime of the decedent.

History.—§32, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(9); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.32 Inheritance from persons of color.—

(1) Whenever, upon the death of any person of color seized or possessed of real or personal estate, there are persons in being who would inherit said property or any portion thereof under the several statutes of descent in this state but who are prevented from doing so on account of the legal incapacity of said persons of color to contract marriage in a state of slavery (which said estate would otherwise escheat to the state), all the right, title and interest of the state is vested in and waived in favor of those persons who would have inherited said estate if said parties had been competent to contract marriage.

(2) The fact that the said parties have failed to obtain a license to marry or have failed to be married according to the forms of law shall in no case affect the operations of this section, but the same shall be held to apply to all cases wherein the parties were known as husband and wife.

History.—RS 1829; GS 2305; §33, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(10); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.

731.33 Escheat.—

(1) Whenever any person dies leaving property and without being survived by any person entitled to the same, such property shall escheat to the state.

(2) In any such case, or in any case where doubt exists as to the existence of any person entitled to the property, the personal representative shall, within one year after letters have been issued to him, institute a proceeding for the determination of beneficiaries as provided in this law, and citation shall be served upon the attorney general of the state. If the personal representative fails to institute such proceeding within the time herein fixed, the same may be instituted by the attorney general, and it is hereby made the duty of the attorney general to secure from each county judge of the state, and the duty of each such county judge to furnish to the attorney general, on or before January 15 of each year, a list of all estates being administered in such county judge's court wherein no person appears to be entitled to the assets thereof and in which the personal representative has instituted no proceedings for the determination of beneficiaries.

(3) If the county judge determines in such proceeding that there is no person entitled to the property and that the property escheats, said property shall, within a reasonable time to be fixed by the county judge, be sold and converted into money and paid to the treasurer of the state and by him deposited in the state school fund.

(4) Any person claiming to be entitled to the property of the decedent may, at any time within twenty years after the granting of letters, by petition filed with the county judge and service of citation upon the attorney general, reopen the administration and assert his rights. If such claimant is determined to be entitled to any of the property of the decedent, the county judge shall by order fix the amount to which he is entitled, and the same shall be repaid to him without interest by the officials charged with the disbursement of state school funds. If no such claim is asserted in the manner and within the time herein fixed, the title of the state to such property and the proceeds thereof shall become absolute.

(5) The attorney general shall represent the state in all proceedings with respect to escheated estates.

(6) Except as herein provided, escheated estates shall be administered as in other cases.

History.—§33, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5480(10), am. §1, ch. 21994, 1943; am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§34.25, Determination of beneficiaries.
§192.24, Disposition of unclaimed funds.

731.34 Dower in realty and personalty.—Whenever the widow of any decedent shall not be satisfied with the portion of the estate of her husband to which she is entitled under the law of descent and distribution or under the will of her husband, or both, she may elect in the manner provided by law to take dower, which dower shall be one third in fee simple of the real property which was owned by her husband at the time of his death or which he had before conveyed, whereof she had not relinquished her right of dower as provided by law, and one third part absolutely of the personal property owned by her husband at the time of his death, and in all cases the widow's dower shall be free from liability for all debts of the decedent and all costs, charges and expenses of administration; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as exempting any personal property from liability for any debt secured by written assignment, pledge, mortgage or other security instrument mortgaging, assigning, or pledging, or otherwise granting, or imposing a lien upon, such personal property, whether or not possession of such property is delivered to such mortgagee, assignee, pledgee, or other security holder, and that nothing herein contained shall be construed as impairing the validity of any mortgage, pledge, assignment, or other lien so imposed or provided for in such security instrument, nor the rights therein created or provided for, and nothing herein contained shall be construed as impairing the validity of the lien of any duly recorded mortgage or the lien of any person in possession of personal property. The homestead shall not be included in the property subject to dower but shall descend as otherwise provided by law for the descent of homesteads. In any case where the dower interest of the widow shall have the effect of increasing the estate tax, her dower shall be ratably liable with the remainder of the estate for the estate taxes due by the estate of her deceased husband. Whenever the decedent has died intestate leaving no lineal descendants and the widow has duly elected dower, all property of the decedent not included in the widow's dower shall descend to her subject to the debts of the decedent except that the homestead of the decedent shall descend to her with the exemptions provided by the constitution.

History.—§35, ch. 16103, 1933; §1, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(1); §1, ch. 18066, 1937; §1, ch. 18999, 1939; §1, ch. 20844, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22000, 1943; am. §1, ch. 22783, §1, ch. 22847, 1945; §1, ch. 26582, 1951; am. §1, ch. 28222, 1953; §1, ch. 63-119.
cf.—§733.01, Possession of estate during administration.
§733.09-733.14, Assignment of dower.
§734.041 Apportionment of estate taxes.

731.35 Election to take dower.—

(1) In order to take dower, a widow must so elect by an instrument in writing, signed by her and acknowledged or sworn to by her before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments or to administer oaths, and filed, within nine months after the first publication of the notice to creditors, in the office of the county judge in whose court the estate of the deceased husband is being administered. The county judge shall record all elections to take dower.

(2) Should the county judge extend the time in which creditors may file their claims, or should litigation occur involving the admission of the will to probate, or its validity or the construction thereof, or should any claim filed be contested, a widow shall have sixty days from the date to which such extension for filing claims is extended or from the date of a final judgment determining any litigation or contested claim or from the time allowed to the personal representative for filing his objection to any claim, in which to elect to take dower.

(3) The guardian of a widow suffering under disabilities may, at any time during which the widow might have done so, file an election on behalf of the widow to take dower in lieu of the provisions of the will of her husband or under the law of descent and distribution, and thereupon the county judge shall grant or deny such election as the best interest of the widow may require. If the widow shall die prior to the expiration of the time allowed for the filing of her election to take dower in lieu of the provisions of the will of her husband or under the law of descent and distribution, and shall not have filed such election, then the same may be filed at any time before the expiration of such period by any person who has a beneficial interest in the estate of such deceased widow, and such election shall be granted or rejected by the county judge as the best interest of the parties entitled to participate in the estate of the deceased widow may require.

History.—§36, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(2); §1, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 26948, 1951; (3) N. by §1, ch. 67-408; §§1, 2, ch. 59-123.

731.36 Articles in addition to dower.—The widow of an intestate shall be entitled to receive and retain all wearing apparel and such household goods and farming utensils, provisions and clothing as may be necessary for her maintenance and that of the family, to be set apart by the county judge either upon her petition or upon the petition of the personal representative, with citation or notice to the other, special regard being had for the ability of the widow and children to provide for and maintain themselves. Such articles shall not be considered as part of the widow's dower or inheritance in any case.

History.—§37, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(3); am. §1, ch. 22783, 1945

CHAPTER 732

FLORIDA PROBATE LAW, SECOND PART

- | | | | |
|---------|---|--------|---|
| 732.01 | Jurisdiction of county judge. | 732.37 | Probate of notarial will. |
| 732.02 | Court always open. | 732.38 | Effect of probate of will after foreign probate and of notarial will. |
| 732.03 | Power to enforce judgments. | 732.39 | Time of proof of nuncupative will. |
| 732.04 | Disqualification of county judge. | 732.40 | Probate of nuncupative will. |
| 732.05 | Substitution of circuit judge. | 732.41 | Construction of will by probate court. |
| 732.06 | Venue of probate proceedings. | 732.42 | Construction of wills by courts of equity. |
| 732.07 | County judge's records. | 732.43 | Petition for letters of administration. |
| 732.08 | Pleadings. | 732.44 | Preference in appointment of administrator. |
| 732.09 | Citation and service. | 732.45 | Individuals who may be appointed personal representatives; resident agents. |
| 732.10 | Service or publication when not otherwise provided. | 732.46 | Minor not qualified. |
| 732.11 | Duty to designate residence and post-office address. | 732.47 | Nonresidents. |
| 732.12 | Testimony and subpoenas. | 732.48 | Married woman. |
| 732.13 | Depositions. | 732.49 | Trust companies and other corporations. |
| 732.14 | Costs. | 732.50 | Joint executors and administrators. |
| 732.15 | Right of appeal. | 732.51 | Effect of appointment of debtor or creditor. |
| 732.21 | Curators. | 732.52 | Succession of administration. |
| 732.22 | Production of wills. | 732.53 | Executor de son tort. |
| 732.23 | Petition for probate of will. | 732.54 | Guardian ad litem. |
| 732.24 | Proof of wills. | 732.55 | Administrator ad litem. |
| 732.25 | Commission to prove will. | 732.56 | Recovery of judgment; proceedings. |
| 732.26 | Effect of probate. | 732.57 | Judgment in favor of personal representative. |
| 732.27 | Establishment and probate of lost or destroyed will. | 732.58 | Compensation of administrator ad litem. |
| 732.28 | Notice of probate. | 732.59 | Oath of personal representative. |
| 732.281 | Educational, charitable, and religious beneficiaries to be notified. | 732.60 | Oaths and affidavits. |
| 732.29 | Caveat; proceedings. | 732.61 | Bond of personal representative. |
| 732.30 | Revocation of probate. | 732.62 | Bond by a surety company. |
| 732.31 | Burden of proof in contests. | 732.63 | Bond required of executor. |
| 732.32 | Discovery of later will. | 732.64 | Insufficiency of bond. |
| 732.33 | Discovery of will after settlement of estate. | 732.65 | Liability of surety. |
| 732.34 | Probate of will written in foreign language. | 732.66 | County judge to act on his own motion. |
| 732.35 | Probate of will of resident after foreign probate. | 732.67 | Informality of bond. |
| 732.36 | Foreign probate prior to local probate of estate of resident decedent prohibited. | 732.68 | Release of surety. |
| | | 732.69 | County judge may reduce bond. |

732.01 Jurisdiction of county judge.—The county judge shall have jurisdiction of the administration, settlement and distribution of estates of decedents, of the probate of wills, of the establishment of lost or destroyed wills, of the granting of letters testamentary and of administration and of all other matters usually pertaining to courts of probate.

History.—§38, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(1); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§734.12, Jurisdiction in removal proceedings.

732.02 Court always open.—The court of the county judge, as a court of probate, shall be open at all times for the transaction of its business.

History.—§39, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(2); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.03 Power to enforce judgments.—In all cases where the county judge is authorized to enter orders, judgments or decrees, he may issue attachments of persons or property, executions, writs of possession, and all such other writs and orders as are necessary or appropriate to enforce such orders, judgments or decrees.

History.—§40, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(3); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§§732.56, 732.57, Judgments for estates.

732.04 Disqualification of county judge.—The county judge shall be disqualified for interest in all instances in which judges generally are so disqualified and also in estates in which he is an heir of the decedent or is a legatee, devisee, trustee or executor under the will, or a witness thereto.

History.—§41, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(4); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.05 Substitution of circuit judge.—

(1) In the case of the disqualification, absence, sickness, or other disability of the county judge, any judge of the circuit court of the county may discharge all of the duties and powers of the county judge as a probate judge. In the event such circuit judge is disqualified, absent from the circuit, sick, or under other disability, then any other circuit judge in the state who is not disqualified, may discharge such duties and powers.

(2) The county judge, when disqualified for interest, shall file a certificate thereof. In no instance may he act as judge in any matter in which he is interested. Should he presume so to do, the circuit judge may, in his supervisory jurisdiction of probate matters, upon proper petition and short notice to the county judge, revise the action of the county judge.

(3) Sickness, absence, or disability of the county judge shall be conclusively evidenced by the certificate of the clerk of the county judge's court, or otherwise evidenced prima facie by the affidavit of any interested party. No decree or order of the circuit judge in probate reciting the disqualification, sickness, absence, or disability of the county judge shall be collaterally attacked.

(4) No county judge, while holding such office, shall act as personal representative of any estate any part of which is required to be administered in his own court; provided, however, a county judge, individually in his personal capacity, on his certificate of disqualification and on appointment and continued supervision by a judge of the circuit court acting as county judge, may serve as personal representative of the estate of his deceased spouse, adoptive parent, adopted child, or the estate of any decedent related to him by lineal consanguinity.

History.—§42, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(5); am. §1, ch. 22767, 1945; §2, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §1, ch. 24294, 1947.

732.06 Venue of probate proceedings.—The venue of probate of all wills and granting of letters of administration shall be:

(1) In the county in this state where the decedent had his domicile.

(2) If the decedent had no domicile in this state, then in any county in which the decedent was possessed of any property.

(3) If the decedent had no domicile in this state and was possessed of no property in this state, then in the county where any debtor of the decedent resides.

(4) For the purpose of this section a married woman whose husband is an alien or a nonresident of Florida may establish or designate a separate domicile in this state.

History.—§43, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(6); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.07 County judge's records.—

(1) Every county judge shall record, or cause his clerk to record, distinctly and at full length, in books kept for that purpose, all wills, testaments and codicils of which probate shall be granted, all letters testamentary and of administration, all bonds of personal representatives (exclusive of supersedeas bonds), all orders and judgments made by him and all other writings in this law especially required to be recorded.

(2) Any interested person may, at his own cost and expense, have recorded as aforesaid any document or pleading filed in the office of the county judge; provided, that the cost of recording same shall not be taxed as costs against the estate unless so ordered by the county judge. A duly certified transcript of the whole or any part of probate or administration proceedings before any court of this state or of any foreign state or country may, upon the payment of appropriate fees, be filed or recorded in the office of any county judge of this state.

(3) All such record books shall be indexed as to the various estates and as to the subject matter therein, and shall be open to the inspection of all persons.

(4) All records, files, orders, judgments and decrees of any court of this state heretofore exercising probate jurisdiction shall be taken and held to be those of the county judge as if made or rendered by said judge, and shall be placed and remain in his custody. Copies thereof certified by the county judge shall be competent evidence.

(5) A progress docket of the proceedings in connection with each estate shall be kept by each county judge, in which docket shall be noted each pleading or document filed and each order entered, with notation of book and page of record of each writing recorded; and the residence and post-office address of each party who has designated same.

(6) County judges shall, upon request and payment of their fees, make and deliver certified copies of any pleading or document filed in their offices or of any of the records of their offices.

(7) County judges, in making certified copies of letters testamentary or of letters of administration, may upon request further certify, whenever such is the fact, that the letters so certified stand unrevoked at the date of the certificate; and such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of such fact.

(8) No county judge shall permit any paper, instrument, document, pleading or file to be removed from his office or custody except under circumstances named in this law or for purposes of taking testimony.

(9) County judges may record any and all instruments entitled to record by such photographic process and with such equipment and supplies as may be recommended by the county judge and approved and designated by the board of county commissioners.

History.—§44, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(7); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.08 Pleadings.—

(1) The pleadings before the county judge in probate matters shall be in writing and signed by the pleader or his attorney. All technical forms of pleadings are abolished. No defect of form shall impair substantial rights, and no defect in the statement of jurisdictional facts actually existing shall render void any proceedings.

(2) PETITION.—The petition shall state in short and simple manner the facts constituting jurisdiction of the court and the ground of the proceedings and shall pray for such relief as is desired. It shall be filed before any process shall issue.

(3) DEFENSE.—Defenses shall be filed on or before the return day specified in the notice or citation. The answer shall, in short and simple manner, set up the facts constituting the defense.

(4) Upon the filing of a sufficient answer the cause shall be at issue, new matters being deemed denied; and the cause shall be tried at such early date as the county judge may direct.

(5) MOTIONS.—Either party may test the sufficiency of an adversary's pleading, or of any part thereof, by motion. Motions addressed to an answer shall be filed within ten days after the return day or within such other time as the county judge may in exceptional circumstances allow. Disposition of motions and all matters of amendment and pleading generally shall be in accordance with the direction of the county judge. Reasonable notice of not more than five days shall be given to the adversary or his counsel of the hearing of any motion. Ordinarily not more than ten days shall be allowed for further pleading.

(6) COPIES.—Copies of all pleadings shall be delivered or mailed to the adversary or his attorney.

History.—§45, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(8); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.09 Citation and service.—

(1) In all matters pertaining to the probate jurisdiction of the county judge where process is necessary or is ordered by the county judge, parties in interest may be cited to answer any petition by a citation in substantially the following form, which may be served personally upon the respondent wherever found, within or without the state:

In the County Judge's Court
_____, County, Florida
Estate of _____, Deceased.

The State of Florida to _____:

You are hereby notified that a petition has been filed in said court, a true copy of which is hereto attached; and you are hereby required to file your written defenses thereto within twenty days after service hereof. Should you fail therein, judgment will be entered in due course upon the said petition.

WITNESS my hand and the seal of said Court at _____, Florida, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____.

County Judge
By _____
Clerk

(2) A true copy of the petition shall be attached to each copy of the citation served personally.

(3) Service may be made within the state in the manner prescribed by law for the service of summons by any sheriff, constable, deputy sheriff, deputy constable or by any other person; provided, that if service is made by other than an officer, the return of service shall be by affidavit.

(4) Service may be made without the state by any person, by the delivery to the person to be served of a true copy of the citation and of attached copy of the petition, and the return of service shall be by affidavit.

(5) Service shall be made upon a minor or insane person by the delivery of a true copy of the citation and of attached copy of petition to such minor or insane person and also to the person in whose care and custody such minor or insane person is.

(6) The return of service of citation in every case shall state the date when it was received by the person making the return, the date when it was served, the place of service, the name of the person served and the manner of service. Returns shall be amendable so as to speak the truth, upon application to the court issuing the process; and when amended shall be effective as of the date of the original return.

(7) (a) If personal service is impracticable, then upon order of the county judge so adjudicating, based upon an affidavit setting forth the reasons thereof, citation may be published once a week for four consecutive weeks, four publications being sufficient, in a newspaper published in the county where the court is located.

(b) Whenever publication of any citation, notice, pleading or other writing is required by any section of this law, and there is no newspaper conforming to the requirements of the laws of Florida in the county of the administration, then, in lieu of such publication in a newspaper, the same may be published by posting a true copy thereof at the courthouse and a true copy at each of two other public places in the county of the administration, such places to be prescribed by the county judge.

(c) Proof of publication or of posting shall be by affidavit and shall be filed in the office of the county judge.

(d) Citation to be published shall be substantially as follows:

In the County Judge's Court
_____, County, Florida
Estate of _____, Deceased.

The State of Florida to _____ and all other persons concerned:

You are hereby notified that a petition has been filed in said court praying for _____ _____ and you are hereby required to file your written defenses thereto within forty days after the first publication or posting hereof. Should you fail therein, decree will be entered in due course upon said petition.

WITNESS my hand and the seal of said Court at _____ County, Florida, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____.

County Judge
By _____
Clerk

First published or posted on _____

(8) Service of citation or of any notice may be waived in writing by any party or person interested.

(9) If any person cited fails to file his defense to the petition within the time prescribed in the citation, or within such time as the county judge, under exceptional circumstances, may allow, then the matter shall proceed ex parte as to such person, and judgment may be entered in accordance with the right and justice of the case.

History.—§46, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(9); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; § (3) am. §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

732.10 Service or publication when not otherwise provided.—Whenever any citation, notice, pleading or other writing is required by any section of this law to be served or published and the manner thereof is not specified in such section, such service or publication may be made as provided in this law for the service or publication of citations.

History.—§47, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(10); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.11 Duty to designate residence and post-office address.—

(1) Every creditor or claimant against the estate of a decedent and every heir, distributee, surviving spouse, legatee and devisee of such decedent shall file with the county judge of the county in which the estate of said decedent is in administration or in which such decedent's will may be probated a designation of the residence and post office address of such party, and, when there occurs a change of same, file likewise a designation of such change. Any party who has filed a claim, petition, answer, election or other pleading or appearance in any county judge's office in relation to any estate, without having made the aforesaid designation, shall be entitled to no notices whatever of any further proceedings with reference to such estate.

(2) Service of any citation or notice upon any party who has designated his residence and post office address as hereinabove required may, at the option of the moving party, be made by registered mail addressed to such party at the post office address designated. Proof of service by mailing may be by certificate of the county judge or by affidavit of the person mailing the citation or notice.

History.—§48, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(11); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§732.47, Nonresident representatives to appoint resident agent.

§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

732.12 Testimony and subpoenas.—Testimony shall ordinarily be taken in open court. The county judge shall, upon application of any party, issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the appearance of witnesses and production of documents upon any trial or hearing.

History.—§49, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(12); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.13 Depositions.—

(1) The testimony of any party or witness may be taken in probate proceedings by deposition de bene esse at any time either before or after issue under either of the following methods:

(a) Said testimony may be taken under the method prescribed in the "Florida rules of civil procedure."

(b) Said testimony may be taken before any notary public, not being of counsel or attorney for any of the parties, nor interested in the event of the proceedings. The depositions may be taken either upon oral interrogatories or upon written interrogatories furnished to the officer taking the depositions. Cross-interrogatories may likewise be either oral or written.

(2) Reasonable notice must first be given in writing by the party or attorney proposing to take such deposition to the opposite party or attorney, which notice shall state the names of the witnesses and the time and place of taking the testimony.

(3) The county judge shall upon application issue any necessary subpoenas running throughout the state to parties and witnesses who, upon being served, may be compelled to attend and testify as in other cases. The county judge may enforce this section by contempt or other proceedings.

(4) Any party failing to attend or to answer any lawful question or to subscribe the testimony given by him shall be liable, upon the motion of the opponent and certificate of the notary evidencing such default, to have his pleading stricken as sham and be placed in the same situation as if he had failed to file his pleading.

(5) Every witness or party deposing under this section shall be sworn to testify the whole truth. His testimony shall be reduced to writing or typewriting by the notary taking the deposition or by some person under his personal supervision and shall thereupon be subscribed by such witness or party unless subscription is waived.

(6) Every deposition taken under this section shall be retained by the magistrate taking it until he delivers it by mail or by his own hand into the court for which it is taken. Upon receipt by the court, depositions shall be filed and open to inspection of all parties. Each deposition shall contain the notice given and the certificate of the magistrate taking it, showing that he is not of counsel in the cause, not related to any of the parties and not interested in the event and showing compliance herewith.

(7) No deposition taken hereunder may be used upon the trial if it is made to appear that the deponent is within the county and able to testify at the time of trial, except that in such case any part of any deposition of any party may be used as an admission against interest, and also except that in such case any witness may be impeached by any part of any deposition.

History.—§50, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(13); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.
cf.—§732.25, Commission to prove will.

732.14 Costs.—

(1) In all probate proceedings costs may be awarded in the discretion of the county judge, ordinarily abiding the result of each particular proceeding, but otherwise when it would be unjust that the failing party pay costs.

(2) When such costs are to be paid out of the estate, the county judge may, in his discretion, direct from what portion of the estate they shall be paid.

(3) An executor, being prima facie justified in offering a will, in due form, for probate, shall generally receive his costs and attorney's fees out of the estate, even though he is unsuccessful.

History.—§51, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(14); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.15 Right of appeal.—All orders, judgments, and decrees of the county judge finally determining rights of any party in any particular proceedings in the administration of the estate of a decedent may, as a matter of right, be appealed to the appropriate district court of appeal except those appeals which may be taken direct to the supreme court as provided by §4, Art. V of the state constitution. Appeals provided by this section shall be governed by the Florida appellate rules including the right to supersedeas.

History.—§52, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(15); §2, ch. 22767, 1945; §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §2, ch. 24294, 1947; (1) §10, ch. 26484, 1951; §31, ch. 63-559.

732.21 Curators.—

(1) The county judge, whenever it is necessary, sua sponte or upon the application of any person, may appoint a curator to take charge of the estate of any deceased person until letters are granted. If, however, the person entitled to letters is a resident of the county where the property is situated, no such curator shall be appointed until after such notice as the county judge may direct to such person so entitled to letters. Upon the appointment, the county judge shall direct the person in possession of the effects of the deceased forthwith to deliver them into the possession of the curator, and this order, when not obeyed promptly, may be enforced by attachment and imprisonment for contempt.

(2) If it is made to appear to the county judge, upon sworn petition, that there is great danger that said property or any portion of it is likely to be wasted, destroyed or removed beyond the jurisdiction of the court, and if the appointment of a curator would be delayed by giving the notice herein provided, then it shall be lawful for such judge to appoint a curator without first giving such notice.

(3) Upon special orders of the county judge from time to time, the curator may be authorized to perform any duty or function of an administrator or executor.

(4) Such bond shall be required of the curator as the county judge deems necessary to secure the property or proceeds, in case of sale, and the county judge may make an order for the sale of such portion of the property as should be sold; provided, however, that no such bond shall be required of banks and trust companies as curators.

(5) The curator shall file immediately an inventory of the property. When the personal representative qualifies, the curator shall immediately account to the personal representative and deliver to him all assets of the estate in his hands, and in default thereof shall be subject to the provisions of this law relating to removed executors or administrators.

(6) Curators shall be allowed such compensation for their services as the county judge deems reasonable.

History.—§58, ch. 16103, 1933; §6, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(140); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.48, Married woman as curator.

§733.08, Continuance of business by curator.

732.22 Production of wills.—

(1) The custodian of a will, within ten days after receiving information that the testator is dead, must deposit such will with the county judge having jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent. Willful failure to do so shall render such custodian responsible for all costs and damages sustained by anyone, in the event the court finds that such custodian had no just or reasonable cause for withholding the deposit of said will.

(2) By petition and citation, the custodian of any will, after ten days' notice of the death of the testator, may be compelled to produce and deposit the same as aforesaid. In such proceedings all costs, damages and a reasonable attorney's fee shall be decreed to petitioner against such delinquent custodian, in the event the court finds that such custodian had no just or reasonable cause for withholding the deposit of said will.

History.—§59, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(59); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.32, Production of later will after probate of prior.

§811.04, Larceny of testamentary instrument.

732.23 Petition for probate of will.—

(1) Every petition for the probate of a will shall be sworn to by the petitioner, his agent or his attorney and shall contain statements to the best of the petitioner's information and belief showing:

(a) The domicile of the decedent at the time of his death;

(b) The date of his death;

(c) The approximate value of his estate;

(d) The residence or post-office address of the petitioner; and,

(e) The names, ages and residences of the surviving spouse and heirs at law of the decedent and their respective relationships to the decedent or averments showing that reasonable search has been made and that they cannot be ascertained without delay which would adversely affect the estate.

(2) No citation need be served before the probate of a will.

History.—§60, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(21); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.43, Petition for letters of administration.

§734.32, Petition for administration of estate of persons believed dead.

732.24 Proof of wills.—

(1) Last wills and testaments may be admitted to probate upon the oath of any attesting witness, taken before the county judge or before his clerk, or before a commissioner as provided in §732.25.

(2) When a will is offered for probate, if it appears to the court that the attesting witnesses have gone to parts unknown or are dead or have after its execution become incompetent or their testimony cannot be obtained within a reasonable time, it may be admitted to probate upon the oath, taken as above set forth, of the executor, whether he is interested in the estate or not, or of any person having no interest in the estate under the will, that he verily believes the writing exhibited to be the true last will and testament of the deceased.

History.—§61, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(60); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §5, ch. 22847, 1945.

732.25 Commission to prove will.—

(1) If any will is produced for probate and any witness attesting the same cannot without inconvenience appear before the county judge, the county judge may issue a commission to which such will or a photographic copy thereof is annexed, directed to any person who, by the laws of the state or country where such witness may be found, is authorized to administer an oath, empowering him to take proof of the attestation of such witness and certify same.

(2) If the person to whom such commission is directed duly certifies that the witness personally appeared and made written oath or affirmation, as the case may be (such written oath or affirmation to be attached to said certificate), as to the execution by the testator of the last will and testament, the original or photographic copy of which is annexed to such commission, such written oath or affirmation shall have the same operation and effect as if such written oath or affirmation had been made in the court whence the commission issued.

History.—§62, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(61); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§732.13, Depositions.

732.26 Effect of probate.—

(1) The will of any person who heretofore has died a resident of the state or any person who hereafter dies a resident of the state must be admitted to probate in an original proceeding in the state in order to establish its validity. Until so admitted to probate, such will shall be ineffective to convey title to, or the right to possession of, real or personal property of the testator; and, until such probate proceedings have been had, no personal representative shall acquire title to, or the right to possession of, any personal property owned by the decedent at the time of his death, notwithstanding that probate or administration proceedings have been had in some other state or country. None of the provisions of the two preceding sentences shall apply to or affect any will or any rights under any will admitted to probate in any other state or country prior to June 12, 1939. The title to personal property wheresoever situate of a person who hereafter dies a resident of the state shall not pass under his will to the legatee or legatees named or designated therein until after such personal property has been administered upon and distributed by the domiciliary personal representative of his estate; provided that this section shall not apply to any property as to which a valid order has been entered that no administration is necessary as to such property or as to the estate of which such property is a part.

(2) In any collateral suit or controversy relating to property, real or personal, thereby devised or bequeathed, the probate of a will in Florida, unless revoked or reversed upon appeal, shall be conclusive of the due execution of the will by a competent testator of his own free will and of the fact that such will, at the date of the testator's death, was unrevoked.

History.—§63, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(62); §1, ch. 19673, 1939; §2, ch. 22783, 1945; sub. §(1) am. §1, ch. 29892, 1955.

cf.—§732.32, Discovery of later will.
§732.38, Effect of prior foreign probate.

732.27 Establishment and probate of lost or destroyed will.—

(1) The establishment and probate of a lost or destroyed will shall be in one proceeding. Upon the probate of such a will, the county judge shall, as a part of his order admitting same to probate, recite, and thereby establish and preserve, the full and precise terms and provisions of such will.

(2) The petition for probate of a lost or destroyed will shall contain a copy of such will or the substance thereof. The testimony of each witness must be reduced to writing, signed by him and filed, and shall be evidence in any contest of the will if the witness has died or removed from the state.

(3) No probate of any lost or destroyed will shall be granted until citation has issued and been served upon those who, but for such will, would be entitled to the property thereby bequeathed or devised; or unless clearly and distinctly proved by the testimony of at least two disinterested witnesses, a correct copy being the equivalent of one witness.

History.—§64, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(63); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§732.32, Discovery of later will.

732.28 Notice of probate.—

(1) Upon the admission of a will to probate, the personal representative or any other interested party may, at his option, file in the office of the county judge a sworn statement containing the name and residence or post-office address of each legatee or devisee named in the will and of the surviving spouse and each heir at law of the decedent.

(2) Upon the filing thereof, the county judge shall cause to be duly mailed, postage prepaid, with the return address of the county judge upon each envelope, to each person named in said statement, a notice of the probate of said will. A certificate of such mailing shall be filed by the county judge.

(3) Thereupon, the county judge shall cause to be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the county, four publications being sufficient, a notice addressed to all persons interested, in substantially the following form:

In the County Judge's Court
_____ County, Florida.
Estate of _____, Deceased.

The State of Florida to all persons interested in the estate of said decedent:

You are hereby notified that a written instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said decedent has been admitted to probate in said court.

You are hereby commanded within six calendar months from the date of the first publication of this notice to appear in said court and show cause, if any you can, why the action of said court in admitting said will to probate should not stand unrevoked.

County Judge
County, Florida.
By _____
Clerk

First publication on _____

(4) The expense of mailing and publication shall be advanced to the county judge by the moving party and shall be taxed as costs of administration, payable out of the assets of the estate.

(5) No person who has been served with citation upon the petition for probate or who has waived such citation need be notified hereunder; but such person shall be bound by the order admitting the will to probate, unless the probate is successfully appealed from. Any person may likewise waive notice of probate by an instrument in writing filed in the office of the county judge and such waiver shall bar any action for revocation of probate.

(6) If no petition for revocation of probate is filed within the time limited aforesaid, the order admitting such will to probate shall be conclusive without further order, upon proof of publication of notice of probate's being filed and recorded in the office of the county judge. No petition for revocation of probate may be maintained unless filed within said six-month period.

History.—§65, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(64); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.281 Educational, charitable, and religious beneficiaries to be notified.—Upon the admission to probate of any will in which an educational, religious, or charitable institution is named as a beneficiary, the personal representative shall, by registered mail, forthwith notify each such institution that it is so named. The notice herein required shall designate the court in which the will has been admitted to probate, and shall give the name and address of the personal representative.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29779, 1955.

732.29 Caveat; proceedings.—

(1) If any state agency which is a creditor of the estate of a decedent is apprehensive that an estate, either testate or intestate, will be administered without its knowledge, or if any heir or distributee of the estate of a decedent is apprehensive that a will may be admitted to probate without his knowledge, such agency or person may file a caveat in the office of the county judge.

(2) No caveat shall be effective unless it contains a statement of the interest of the caveator in the estate, the name and specific residence address of the caveator, and, if the caveator is a nonresident of the county, the additional name and specific residence address of some person residing in the county, designated as the agent of the caveator, upon whom service of citation may be made. After the filing of same, the county judge shall not admit the will of such decedent to probate, or discharge the personal representative of said estate without the issuance of a citation to the caveator.

(3) Such citation shall be served either upon the caveator or upon his agent named in the caveat for service of citation, whichever is stated to be a resident of the county. Upon a return that after diligent search the caveator, if he is a resident, or his resident agent, if the caveator is a nonresident, cannot be found, the county judge may proceed to admit the will to probate upon the expiration of fifteen days after mailing copies of the citation and petition to the caveator and to his agent, if any is named in the caveat, at the respective residence addresses given. Certificate of mailing shall be filed in such instances by the county judge.

(4) Upon the return day of the citation, the caveator may answer the petition for probate. In his answer he shall therein set forth his interest in the estate and the facts constituting the grounds upon which probate of the will is opposed; and the court shall, upon the issue made and the proof adduced, probate the will or deny probate, according to the law and justice of the case.

(5) Unless a will is offered for probate within thirty days after the filing of a caveat, letters of administration may be granted to those entitled to administer. Should a will be offered for probate after such letters of administration have been granted, citation shall also issue upon the petition to the administrator.

History.—§66, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(65); §2, ch. 22783, 1945; (1), (2), §§1, 2, ch. 63-456.

732.30 Revocation of probate.—

(1) Any heir or distributee of the estate of a decedent, including legatees or devisees under a prior will, except those who have been served with citation before probate or who are barred under §732.29, may, at any time before final discharge of the personal representative, make application by petition to the court in which the probate of any will may have been granted, for revocation of such probate. The petition shall set forth the interest of the petitioner in such estate and the facts constituting the grounds upon which revocation is demanded.

(2) Citation to appear and defend shall be served upon the personal representative; and the county judge shall, upon the issues made and the proof adduced, confirm or revoke the probate according to the law and justice of the case.

(3) Any legatee, devisee or other person interested in the estate shall, upon application, be permitted to appear and prosecute or defend as though he were a party to the proceedings.

(4) Pending the determination of any issue made for revocation of probate, the personal representative shall proceed with the administration of the estate as if no such issue had been made, except that no distribution may be made to legatees or devisees in contravention of the rights of those who, but for such will, would be entitled to the property disposed of thereby.

(5) Revocation of probate of a will shall not affect or impair the title to the property, real or personal, theretofore purchased in good faith for value from the executor or administrator with the will annexed.

History.—§67, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(66); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.31 Burden of proof in contests.—In all proceedings contesting the validity of a purported will, whether before or after such will is admitted to probate, the burden of proof, in the first instance, shall be upon the proponent thereof to establish, prima facie, the formal execution and attestation thereof, whereupon the burden of proof shall shift to the contestant to establish the facts constituting the grounds upon which the probate of such purported will is opposed or revocation thereof is sought.

History.—§68, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(67); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.32 Discovery of later will.—Upon the discovery, pending probate proceedings, of a later will or codicil expressly revoking the probated will or impliedly revoking the same in whole or in part, any person interested may by petition offer same for probate. The proceedings shall be, as nearly as practicable, similar to those for revocation of probate generally.

History.—§69, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(68); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.33 Discovery of will after settlement of estate.—

(1) Upon the discovery, after the termination of administration or probate proceedings and the discharge of the personal representative, of an unknown will or a later will or codicil expressly revoking the probated will or impliedly revoking the same in whole or in part, any one or more persons interested may, by suit in equity, impress a trust upon the funds or property received by an heir, legatee or distributee in the administration or probate proceedings recently terminated which, because of the newly discovered will, such recipient is not justly entitled to retain. All persons interested under the newly discovered will and all heirs, legatees or distributees under the former proceedings whose rights are affected by such new will may be made parties to one proceeding. A receiver of any or all of the property may be appointed. It shall be no objection to the complaint that it is multifarious. Such heir, legatee or distributee shall be held to account, not for the value of any such property spent or consumed by him, but only for the property actually remaining in his hands in its original form or as it may be traced into other form or property.

(2) Such proceedings shall neither invalidate any acts of the personal representatives theretofore performed in good faith nor affect the rights of bona fide purchasers for value of any of the property of the estate; nor shall any such proceeding be brought after three years from the date of the discharge of the personal representative.

History.—§70, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(69); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

732.34 Probate of will written in foreign language.—

(1) The petition for the probate of a will written in a foreign language shall contain a true and complete English translation of the will. No probate of any will written in a foreign language shall be granted without citation to the surviving spouse, heirs at law of the testator and all beneficiaries under the will.

(2) Upon the probate of such a will, the county judge shall, in his order admitting the will to probate, establish the correct translation thereof. If possible, the original will shall also be recorded by the county judge in its original form. Any person affected may at any time and from time to time, during the administration of the estate, by petition and by the citation of all interested persons, have the correctness of the translation or of any portion thereof redetermined. No executor shall be held responsible for compliance at the time being with the English translation of the will as then established by the county judge's order.

History.—§71, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(70); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.35 Probate of will of resident after foreign probate.—

(1) In the event that the will of any person who heretofore has died a resident of this state or of any person who hereafter dies a resident of this state is, through inadvertence, error or omission, admitted to probate in any other state or country prior to the probate thereof in this state, the same may be established and admitted to probate in this state if the original thereof might have been admitted to probate in this state, in like manner as though said will had been lost or destroyed, and the proceedings for the establishment and probate thereof shall, in all matters, be as nearly as possible similar to like proceedings in connection with the establishment and probate of lost or destroyed wills.

(2) An exemplified or a certified copy of such will, of the foreign order of probate and of the letters, if any, issued thereon, shall be filed in the office of the county judge where application is made for probate of such will, in lieu of the original will; and the same shall be prima facie evidence of its execution and admission to foreign probate.

(3) Any person cited may oppose the probate of such will as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state. Any person interested adversely may apply for the revocation of the probate of such will in this state as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state.

History.—§72, ch. 16103, 1933; §2, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(71); §1, ch. 19674, 1939; am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.36 Foreign probate prior to local probate of estate of resident decedent prohibited.—

(1) From and after the effective date of this section no person or corporation shall procure, or aid, abet or assist another in procuring, the probate of the estate or will of a person who heretofore has died a resident of this state or of a person who hereafter dies a resident of this state, in any other state or country prior to the probate of such estate or will in this state.

(2) Any person or corporation who shall knowingly and intentionally procure, or aid, abet or assist another in procuring, the probate of the estate or a will of a person who heretofore has died a resident of this state or of a person who hereafter dies a resident of this state, in any other state or country prior to probate of such estate or will in this state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction therefor, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

(3) This section shall not apply to any such probate proceedings or anything heretofore or hereafter done in or in connection with any such probate proceedings instituted in any other state or country prior to June 12, 1940.

History.—§31-3, ch. 19672, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 5541(71A), 8135(38); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.37 Probate of notarial will.—

(1) When a copy of a notarial will in the possession of a notary entitled to the custody thereof, in a foreign state or country (the laws of which state or country require that such will remain in the custody of such notary), duly authenticated by such notary, whose official position, signature and seal of office are further authenticated by an American consul, vice-consul or other American consular officer within whose jurisdiction such notary may be a resident, is presented by the executor or other person interested to the county judge having jurisdiction as prescribed by this law, the same may be admitted to probate if the original might have been admitted to probate in this state.

(2) Such duly authenticated copy shall be filed in the office of the county judge where application is made for probate thereof in lieu of the original will; and the same shall be prima facie evidence of its purported execution and of the facts stated in the certificate in compliance with the preceding subsection.

(3) Any person cited may oppose the probate of such foreign will as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state. Any person interested adversely may apply for revocation of probate of such foreign will as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state. All proceedings in connection with any such foreign will shall in all matters be, as nearly as possible, similar to like proceedings in connection with wills originally probated in this state.

History.—§73, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(72); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.38 Effect of probate of will after foreign probate and of notarial will.—The probate in this state of a will admitted to probate in any foreign state or country or of a notarial will shall have the same force and effect as though the original thereof had been probated in this state.

History.—§74, ch. 16103, 1933; §3, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(73); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§734.31, Ancillary Administration.

732.39 Time of proof of nuncupative will.—No testimony shall be received to prove any nuncupative will after three months from the speaking of such testamentary words, unless the said testamentary words or the substance thereof have been reduced to writing and sworn to by the three witnesses to the will, before an officer authorized to administer oaths, within six days from the speaking of said will.

History.—§75, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(74); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.40 Probate of nuncupative will.—

(1) No probate of any nuncupative will shall be granted until citation has issued and has been served upon those who, but for such will, would be entitled to the property thereby bequeathed.

(2) Upon the probate of a nuncupative will, the county judge shall, as a part of his order admitting same to probate, recite, and thereby establish and preserve, the full and precise terms and provisions of such will.

History.—§76, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(75); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.41 Construction of will by probate court.

—The county judge in whose court the will has been probated shall have jurisdiction to entertain direct proceedings for the construction of such will or any part thereof. Such proceedings for construction shall be by petition filed by the executor or by any other person interested in the will, with citation and service as required by this law.

History.—§77, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(76); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.42 Construction of wills by courts of equity.—Courts of equity shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county judges in the construction of wills or of any parts thereof, but the court first obtaining jurisdiction for construction shall retain the same. No petition or complaint for the construction of a will may be maintained in any court until the will has first been probated.

History.—§78, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(77); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

732.43 Petition for letters of administration.—

(1) Every petition for letters of administration shall be sworn to by the petitioner, his agent or his attorney and shall contain statements to the best of petitioner's information and belief, showing the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death, the date of his death, the approximate value of the estate of the decedent, the residence and post-office address of the petitioner, and a statement that the decedent died intestate, and, if the decedent was a nonresident, whether there is a domiciliary administration pending or not, and if so, the name and post-office address of the domiciliary personal representative.

(2) Every such petition shall contain either a statement of the names, ages and residences of the surviving spouse and heirs at law of the decedent and their respective relationships to decedent, or averments showing that reasonable search has been made and that such information cannot be ascertained without delay which would adversely affect the estate.

(3) No citation need be served or notice given of the granting of letters of administration when it appears by the petition that the petitioner is entitled to preference of appointment; but, before letters shall be granted to any person who is not entitled to preference, citation shall issue to all known persons qualified to act as administrator and entitled to preference over the person applying, unless those entitled to preference waive same in writing.

History.—§79, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(22); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.23, Petition for probate of will.
§734.32, Petition for administration of estate of person believed dead.

732.44 Preference in appointment of administrator.—In the granting of letters of administration, the following preference shall be observed:

(1) The surviving spouse shall first be entitled to letters.

(2) The next of kin, at the time of the death of the decedent, shall next be entitled to letters.

(3) If there are several next of kin, equally near in degree, the one selected in writing by a majority of them who are sui juris shall be appointed. If no such selection is thus made, the county judge may exercise his discretion in selecting the one best qualified for the office.

(4) If no application is made by the next of kin, the county judge in his discretion, may appoint some capable person, but no person may be appointed under this subsection who works for such county judge or who holds public office under such county judge, nor any person who is employed by or holds office under any judge exercising probate jurisdiction.

(5) Persons entitled to an estate may select a disinterested person as administrator; and if such person is otherwise qualified, he shall be appointed.

(6) After letters of administration have been granted, if any person who is entitled to preference over the person appointed and upon whom citation was not served and who has not waived his preference seeks the appointment, letters granted may be revoked, and such person may have letters of administration granted to him after citation and hearing upon his application.

(7) After letters of administration have been granted, if any will is produced and probated, the aforesaid letters shall be revoked and letters testamentary shall be granted to the executor of said will, or letters of administration cum testamento annexo shall be granted, if there is no executor ready and willing to qualify, preference being given to the person, if otherwise qualified, who is selected by the persons beneficially interested in the estate. No such will shall be probated without citation to the administrator.

History.—§80, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(23); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §1, ch. 23722, 1947.

732.45 Individuals who may be appointed personal representatives; resident agents.—

(1) Any person sui juris who is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Florida at the time of the death of the person whose estate he seeks to administer is qualified to act as personal representative in Florida. However, a person who has been convicted of a felony or who, from sickness, intemperance or want of understanding is incompetent to discharge the duties of a personal representative, is not qualified to act as personal representative.

(2) If a resident personal representative removes his residence from the state, he shall have his new place of residence and post-office address recorded in the office of the county judge of the county in which the administration is pending, and he shall designate some resident of said county as his agent or attorney for the service of process, whose name, residence and post-office address shall also be likewise recorded. Such designation, in whatever form it may be, shall be taken to constitute the consent of the person so designating that service of any process upon the designated agent or attorney shall be sufficient to bind the person so designating in any suit or action against such personal representative, either in his representative capacity or personally; provided, that such personal action must have accrued in the administration of such estate. Such designation must be in writing and must be filed in the office of the county judge.

History.—§81, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(24); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §6, ch. 22847, 1945.

cf.—§734.11-734.21, Removal of personal representative.

732.46 Minor not qualified.—

(1) No person who is less than twenty-one years of age shall be qualified or permitted to act as an executor or administrator. If a minor is named as executor in any last will and testament, letters testamentary shall be granted to the other executor or executors, if any is named in said will; if none other is named, letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted to the next of kin or to such other person as the judge shall appoint according to the provisions of this law, until said minor comes of full age, when he may have letters testamentary as the executor if otherwise qualified. In such case, the letters of administration, if any have been granted, shall be revoked, and the said administrator shall render a true and faithful account of his administration to the county judge's court and surrender the estate to the said executor.

(2) The executor in such cases shall be entitled to all rights and proceedings provided for in this law for compelling an accounting from removed personal representatives.

History.—§82, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(25); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.47 Nonresidents.—

(1) A person who is not an actual bona fide resident of the state cannot qualify as a personal representative of an estate in Florida, unless such person is a legally adopted child of the decedent, an adoptive parent or is related by lineal consanguinity to the decedent or is a spouse or a brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew or niece of the decedent. However, any person who has qualified in Florida as a personal representative prior to the effective date of this law may continue to serve in such capacity.

(2) Before any nonresident of Florida shall be issued letters upon any estate, such nonresident shall have his residence and postoffice address recorded in the office of the county judge of the county in which the administration is pending, and shall designate some resident of said county as his agent or attorney for the service of process, whose name, residence, and postoffice address shall also be likewise recorded. Such designation, in whatever form it may be, shall be taken to constitute the consent of the person so designating that service of any process upon the designated agent or attorney shall be sufficient to bind the person so designating in any suit or action against such personal representative, either in his representative capacity or personally, provided, that such personal action must have accrued in the administration of such estate. Such designation must be in writing and must be filed in the office of the county judge.

(3) Any qualified personal representative appointed after May 27, 1947, who becomes disqualified to act as such after his appointment immediately thereupon shall file, in the court where his letters were granted, his petition for resignation pursuant to the terms and provisions of §734.09, and immediately thereupon shall present said petition to said court and do any and all other things necessary or proper to procure an order approving such resignation.

(4) Anything contained in any will of a person who hereafter dies a resident of the state to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be and constitute a violation of this section for any person or corporation to apply for or act under any letters testamentary or of administration with the will annexed issued in any other state or country for or in respect of personal property of a person who hereafter dies a resident of the state and which is located elsewhere than in the state, solely because of the fact that the will of such testator purports to name, constitute or appoint such person or corporation as a purported executor or administrator with the will annexed, when such person or corporation is not qualified to receive and act under domiciliary letters testamentary or of administration with the will annexed issued in the state.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with or who acts or continues to act in violation of any of the terms and provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars for each day his appointment as such personal representative remains in effect contrary to any of the terms and provisions of this section.

History.—§83, ch. 16103, 1933; §1, ch. 19671, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 5541(26), 8135(88-a); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; §7, ch. 22847, 1945; am. §1, ch. 23819, 1947; §§1, 2, ch. 29961, 1955.

732.48 Married woman.—A married woman may act as personal representative or curator without the consent of her husband.

History.—§84, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(27); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.49 Trust companies and other corporations.—

(1) All trust companies incorporated under the laws of the state and all national banking associations authorized and qualified to exercise fiduciary powers in Florida shall be entitled to act as personal representatives and curators of estates under the laws of the state.

(2) When any such corporation has been named as an executor in a will and thereafter sells its business and assets to, or consolidates or merges with, or is in any manner provided by law succeeded by, another such corporation, the successor corporation may, upon the death of the testator, qualify, and the county judge may issue letters to the successor corporation unless the will provides otherwise.

(3) A corporation authorized and qualified to act as a personal representative resulting from merger or consolidation shall, upon filing proof thereof in the county judge's court and without a new appointment, succeed to the rights and duties of all predecessor corporations as the personal representatives of estates. A purchase of substantially all the assets and the assumption of substantially all the liabilities shall be deemed a merger for the purpose of this section.

History.—§85, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(28); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §7, ch. 24337, 1947.

732.50 Joint executors and administrators.—If several executors are named in a will, one or more qualifying shall be entitled to execute all the powers and trusts confided to all in the will unless especially prohibited by the will; if more than one qualify, all must join in discharging the functions of executor unless the county judge gives special authority to one or more of such executors to discharge such functions. Each executor shall be responsible only for his own acts, unless by his own act or gross negligence he has enabled or permitted his coexecutor to waste the estate. The foregoing shall likewise apply to joint administrators.

History.—§86, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(29); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.51 Effect of appointment of debtor or creditor.—The appointment of a debtor or of a creditor as personal representative shall not, either in law or in equity, be construed to operate as a release or extinguishment of the debt due to or by the decedent. This section shall not be construed to prevent a testator from releasing a debtor by last will and testament.

History.—§87, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(30); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.52 Succession of administration.—No executor of an executor shall, as such, be authorized to administer the estate of the first testator; but, on the death of the sole or surviving executor, the county judge shall appoint an administrator de bonis non to complete the administration of such estate.

History.—§88, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(31); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.53 Executor de son tort.—No person shall be liable to a creditor of a decedent as executor de son tort, but any person taking, converting or intermeddling with the property of a decedent shall be liable to the personal representative or curator, when appointed, for the value of all the property so taken or converted and for all damages to the estate of the deceased caused by his wrongful action; but this section shall not be construed to prevent a creditor of a deceased person from suing anyone in possession of property fraudulently conveyed by such deceased person, for the purpose of setting aside such fraudulent conveyance.

History.—§89, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(141); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.54 Guardian ad litem.—Whenever a legal guardian is appointed or qualified in this state for any infant or person non compos mentis who is interested in the estate of a decedent, such guardian shall represent his ward in all proceedings affecting such estate in the county judge's court, except as to proceedings in which the guardian is interested in his own right. The county judge shall, without notice, appoint a guardian ad litem to represent any infant or person non compos mentis where there is no legal guardian appointed or qualified in this state, or where such guardian is interested in his own right, and to represent any unknown person interested in the estate. A guardian ad litem shall, upon appointment, make and file an oath to discharge his duties faithfully. Whenever a guardian ad litem is appointed, no process need be served upon him, but he shall appear and defend as directed by the county judge.

History.—§90, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(142); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.55 Administrator ad litem.—Whenever, in any proceeding before the county judge or in equity in the circuit court, it is necessary that the estate of a deceased person be represented and when there is no personal representative of such estate or when the personal representative is interested adversely to said estate or in such proceeding is enforcing his own debt or claim against the estate, the court in which the proceeding is pending shall appoint an administrator ad litem without bond for that particular proceeding. Whenever the facts authorizing such appointment appear of record or are otherwise made known to the court, the court shall without notice appoint such administrator ad litem. The administrator ad litem shall, upon appointment, make and file an oath to discharge his duties faithfully, and said proceeding shall then be further maintained, prosecuted or defended, insofar as said estate is concerned, by said administrator ad litem and in his name as such.

History.—§91, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(32); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.56 Recovery of judgment; proceedings.—Whenever any such administrator ad litem shall recover any decree or other relief, it shall be enforced as other decrees, except that execution which shall issue shall be in favor of the administrator ad litem for the use of the estate, and the money collected shall be paid to the personal representative of the estate, or, if there is none, then to the county judge when the proceeding is before him, or into the registry of the circuit court when the proceeding is in that court; and said funds, if paid into court, shall be held to await the further order of the court.

History.—§92, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(33); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.03, Enforcement of judgments.

732.57 Judgment in favor of personal representative.—If the personal representative is an adverse party and in a proceeding in equity recovers a judgment or decree against the administrator ad litem, the court may grant him such relief as he may be lawfully entitled to under the provisions of this law.

History.—§93, ch. 16103, 1933; §4, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(139); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.58 Compensation of administrator ad litem.—An administrator ad litem shall be allowed such compensation for his services as the judge in whose court the proceeding is pending deems just and reasonable, and the same shall be taxed as costs in the case unless the court thinks it equitable that the same should be paid out of the assets of the estate without reference to prevailing or losing parties in the cause.

History.—§94, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(34); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §10, ch. 26484, 1951.

cf.—§734.01, Expenses and compensation of personal representatives.

732.59 Oath of personal representative.—Before granting letters the county judge shall require the personal representative to make and file an oath in writing that he will faithfully administer the estate of the decedent, pay debts as far as the assets of the decedent will permit, make distribution of the estate according to law, and render due accounts of his administration.

History.—§95, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(35); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.60 Oaths and affidavits.—Oaths, verifications, affirmations and affidavits required by law in probate proceedings may be made, either within or without the state, before any officer authorized by the laws of this state to administer oaths.

History.—§96, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(78); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.61 Bond of personal representative.—

(1) Every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue (unless the testator waived such requirement) shall be required by the judge, before such letters issue, to execute and file in his office a bond with two or more sufficient sureties, or an authorized surety company as surety, to be approved by the county judge, in such penal sum as the county judge may deem sufficient, respect being had to the value of the estate. Said bond shall be payable to the governor and his successors in office, conditioned to perform faithfully all duties as such personal representative according to law. In form the bond must be joint and several.

(2) The requirements of this section shall not be applicable to banks and trust companies authorized by law to act as personal representatives.

History.—§97, ch. 16103, 1933; §5, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(36); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§733.29, Additional bond upon sale of assets.

732.62 Bond by a surety company.—Any surety company authorized to do business in this state may become surety upon the bonds of personal representatives, and in such cases there need be only one surety upon such bonds.

History.—§98, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(37); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.63 Bond required of executor.—When any person interested in the estate of a decedent files with the county judge of the county wherein a last will is admitted to probate a petition, from which petition and the evidence adduced thereon it is made to appear to the county judge that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any such executor holding the assets of such decedent is mismanaging, wasting or diverting, or will mismanage, waste or divert said assets from their proper administration, the county judge shall require such executor to give a bond with sufficient security conditioned as the law directs; and this bond may be required although the will may exempt said executor from giving the bond. The executor shall have such notice as the county judge may prescribe and the right to appear and defend the proceedings.

History.—§99, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(38); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.64 Insufficiency of bond.—When any person interested in the estate of a decedent files with the county judge of the county wherein the administration is pending a petition, from which petition and evidence adduced thereon it is made to appear to the county judge that the sureties on any bond given by a personal representative or curator are insolvent or insufficient or that the bond is insufficient in amount, said county judge shall enter an order requiring additional sureties or an additional bond, as the circumstances may require.

History.—§100, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(39); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.65 Liability of surety.—No surety for any personal representative or curator shall be charged beyond the assets of an estate by reason of any omission or mistake in pleading or of false pleading of such executor, administrator or curator.

History.—§101, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(40); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.66 County judge to act on his own motion.—Whenever it is known to the county judge of a county where administration of any estate has been granted that cause exists which would authorize him upon the application of others to require a personal representative or curator to give bond or to give additional surety, said judge shall, of his own motion, without the application of any other person, make such orders as he may deem proper.

History.—§102, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(41); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.67 Informality of bond.—No bond executed by any personal representative or curator shall be void or invalid on account of any informality in it, or of informality or illegality in the appointment of such fiduciary. Such bond shall have the same force and effect as if the appointment had been legally made and the bond executed in proper form.

History.—§103, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(42); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.68 Release of surety.—

(1) The surety or sureties, or the personal representative of any surety or sureties, upon the bond of any executor, administrator or curator, taken under the provisions of this law, shall be entitled as a matter of right to be released from future liability upon such bond, upon application to the county judge therefor and the giving of five days' written notice of application to the principal named in the bond.

(2) Pending the hearing of such application, the county judge may, in his discretion, restrain the principal from acting in his representative capacity, except to preserve the estate.

(3) Upon the hearing, the county judge shall enter an order prescribing the terms and amount of the new bond for such fiduciary and the date when same shall be filed. If the principal fails to give the new bond, he shall be removed at once and further proceedings be had as in cases of removal.

(4) The original surety or sureties shall be liable for all acts of the fiduciary until he has given the new bond and after the giving of the new bond shall remain liable for all the fiduciary's acts to the time of the filing and approval of the new bond. The new surety shall be liable for the fiduciary's acts only from and after the filing and approval of the new bond. The costs of the proceeding shall be paid by the surety applying to be released.

History.—§104, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(43); am. §2, ch. 22783, 1945.

732.69 County judge may reduce bond.—The county judge may, for good cause shown, reduce the amount of bond of personal representatives of estates.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29715, 1955.

CHAPTER 733

FLORIDA PROBATE LAW, THIRD PART

- | | | | |
|---------|---|---------|--|
| 733.01 | Personal representative to take possession of entire estate and application of estate income. | 733.29 | Additional bond upon sale. |
| 733.02 | Actions relating to real estate. | 733.30 | Sales upon terms. |
| 733.03 | Inventory. | 733.31 | When personal representative may purchase. |
| 733.04 | Inventories. | 733.32 | Conveyances pursuant to contracts of decedent. |
| 733.05 | Duties of appraisers. | 733.33 | Sale of contract to purchase. |
| 733.06 | Inventories and appraisals as evidence. | 733.34 | Sale of real property subject to contract to purchase. |
| 733.07 | Compensation of appraisers. | 733.35 | Sale of real property subject to mortgage. |
| 733.08 | Continuance of business of decedent. | 733.36 | Sale of stocks and bonds. |
| 733.09 | Duty to assign dower. | 733.361 | Stock held in name of personal representative. |
| 733.10 | Petition for assignment. | 733.37 | Interest in partnership. |
| 733.11 | Petition by widow for assignment of dower. | 733.38 | Lease of real property. |
| 733.12 | Proceedings on the petition. | 733.39 | Borrowing money and mortgaging property. |
| 733.13 | Commissioners. | 733.40 | Power of personal representative to execute instruments. |
| 733.14 | Final judgment. | 733.41 | Purchaser protected. |
| 733.15 | Notice to creditors. | 733.42 | Limitation in favor of purchaser from personal representative. |
| 733.16 | Form and manner of presenting claims; limitation. | 733.43 | Annual returns. |
| 733.17 | Amendment of claims. | 733.44 | Contents of returns. |
| 733.18 | Payment of and objections to claims. | 733.45 | Objection to returns. |
| 733.19 | Execution and levies prohibited. | 733.46 | Trial of objections. |
| 733.20 | Order of payment of expenses of administration and claims against the estate; family allowance. | 733.47 | Examination of returns not objected to. |
| 733.21 | Compromise and settlement. | 733.48 | Recording settlement. |
| 733.211 | Claims undisposed of after three years barred. | 733.49 | Order requiring returns; contempt of court. |
| 733.22 | Sale pursuant to will. | 733.50 | Compulsory settlements. |
| 733.23 | Sales where no power conferred. | 733.51 | Production of assets. |
| 733.24 | Sale on petition of interested persons. | 733.52 | Devastavit. |
| 733.25 | Sale of real property when widow survives. | 733.53 | Who may suggest devastavit. |
| 733.26 | When notice of sale required. | 733.54 | Waiver of statute of limitations, internal revenue matters. |
| 733.27 | Hearing on application to sell. | | |
| 733.28 | Order of sale. | | |

733.01 Personal representative to take possession of entire estate and application of estate income.—

(1) The personal representative shall take possession of the personal property wheresoever situate of a person who hereafter dies a resident of the state, and shall take possession of the real estate (except homestead) within the state of such a deceased person, and the rents, income, issues and profits therefrom whether accruing before or after the death of the decedent, and of the proceeds arising from the sale, lease or mortgage of the same or any part thereof. The personal representative shall take possession of the real and personal property within the state of a person who hereafter dies a resident of some other state or country, and the rents, income, issues and profits therefrom whether accruing before or after the death of the decedent, and of the proceeds arising from the sale, lease or mortgage of the same or any part thereof. All such property and the rents, income, issues and profits therefrom shall be assets in the hands of the personal representative for the payment of legacies, debts, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges and expenses of administration, and to enforce contribution and to equalize advancement and for distribution.

(2) The net income earned by the assets of the estate after the death of the testator, and prior to the distribution of the estate, and not used for the purposes set forth in subsection (1) above shall in the absence of specific provision in the will to the contrary be paid and applied as follows:

(a) To either specific or demonstrative legatees and devisees the net income from the property specifically or demonstratively bequeathed and devised to them respectively;

(b) To general legatees, legal interest on their respective legacies from the time fixed by the county judge in an order of distribution for the payment thereof, or if no date is fixed by the county judge, from and after thirty days from the entry of such order of distribution, except that where the general legacy provides that the net income therefrom shall be paid to or for the benefit of or accumulated for one or more beneficiaries, then such general legatee or legatees shall be entitled to that proportion of the net income which the general legacy at appraised value bears to the appraised value of the entire probate estate, excluding specific and demonstrative legacies and devises, provided, however, that the appraised value shall be the court appraisal unless a United States estate tax return is required to be filed, in which event the appraised value shall be the value finally determined for such tax purposes.

(c) To the residuary legatees and devisees, all the rest and remainder of the net income earned after the death of the testator not hereinabove applied.

(3) If any part of the estate is bequeathed or devised to a trustee the proportion of the net income applied to such bequest or devise shall be paid by the executor to such trustee and shall be held and distributed by the trustee as income.

(4) This section shall apply to estates of all decedents dying on or after July 1, 1953.

History.—§105, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(87); § 1, 2, ch. 20413, 1941; § 3, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §1, ch. 28025, 1953; sub. § (1) am. §1, ch. 29893, 1955. cf.—§734.07, Advancements.

733.02 Actions relating to real estate.—Personal representatives may bring and maintain actions or suits for the possession or recovery of real property of the estate, for the purpose of quieting the title thereto, for waste thereof and trespass thereon, and against cotenants of the decedent in real property for the partition thereof. Heirs and devisees of the decedent may themselves, or jointly with the personal representative, bring and maintain actions or suits for the possession or recovery of real property of the estate or for the purpose of quieting title thereto against anyone except the personal representative. In any suit to quiet title brought by an heir or devisee, the possession of the personal representative shall, for the purpose of such suit, be deemed the possession of the heir or devisee. In all actions or suits involving the title to real property, against an estate for the possession or recovery of real property or for the purpose of quieting title thereto, the personal representative and the heirs or devisees of such property shall be made parties.

History.—§106, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(88); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§734.21, Survival of actions.
§734.30, Actions by or against foreign representatives.

733.03 Inventory.—The personal representative shall file a complete inventory of the personal property wheresoever situate of a person who hereafter dies a resident of Florida, and of the real estate (except homestead) within the state of the estate of such a decedent. The personal representative shall file a complete inventory of the real and personal property within the state of a person who hereafter dies a resident of some other state or country. The inventory shall be filed within sixty days from the date of the granting of letters unless the time is extended by order of the county judge.

History.—§107, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(79); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 29894, 1955.
cf.—§733.37, Inventories; interests in partnerships.

733.04 Inventories.—The county judge on granting letters testamentary or of administration shall appoint two or more competent persons not of kin to the deceased as appraisers of the property of the decedent, and said appraisers shall take oath truly and justly to view and appraise, according to the best of their ability, all the property of the decedent which to them shall be produced or which shall come to their knowledge. It shall not be necessary to appoint appraisers or to have any appraisal whenever the county judge dispenses with the appraisal of an estate.

History.—§108, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(80); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §8, ch. 22847, 1945.

733.05 Duties of appraisers.—On the appointment of the appraisers they shall forthwith proceed to appraise all the property which has been produced to them and which has come to their knowledge and file the appraisal in the office of the county judge; and the appraisal thereupon made, if signed by the personal representative, may be considered as an inventory of such part of the estate.

History.—§109, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(81); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.06 Inventories and appraisals as evidence.—Inventories and appraisals, or certified copies thereof, may be given in evidence in any suit by or against the personal representative; however, they shall not be conclusive, for or against him, as to the real value of the estate or any part thereof, or as to whether it or any part thereof was sold bona fide for more or less than the appraised amount.

History.—§110, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(82); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.07 Compensation of appraisers.—Each appraiser shall be entitled to receive for his services reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the county judge and paid by the personal representative. Application therefor shall be accompanied by an affidavit of each appraiser showing the services rendered by him as appraiser and the reasonable value thereof, and such application may be heard upon such notice as the county judge shall fix.

History.—§111, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(83); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.08 Continuance of business of decedent.—

(1) In every case where a person has died while engaged in any trade or business, the county judge may authorize the curator or the personal representative of the estate of such deceased person to continue and carry on such trade or business for a reasonable time under the supervision of the county judge and require such security or additional security of such curator or personal representative as the county judge may deem proper.

(2) Before any order shall be made authorizing the continuance of the trade or business of the deceased person, the curator or the personal representative of such estate, by a verified petition, shall affirmatively and clearly allege and set forth sufficient facts to make it appear to the county judge that, to prevent great loss to the estate, it is necessary to continue such trade or business of the deceased.

(3) The order of the county judge authorizing the continuance of such trade or business of the deceased may empower the curator or the personal representative of such estate, in his representative capacity, to make such contracts as may be necessary to carry on and conduct such trade or business and to incur debts and to pay out money in the proper conduct of such trade or business, and the net profits of such trade or business only shall be assets of the said estate.

(4) In the conduct of such trade or business the curator or the personal representative shall keep full and accurate accounts of all receipts and expenditures, he shall make monthly reports thereof to the county judge, and he shall be allowed such compensation as the county judge may deem reasonable for his services in conducting such trade or business.

(5) Any person interested in the said estate at any time may apply to the county judge of the county where such order has been granted for an order requiring the curator or the personal representative of such estate to discontinue and to wind up the said trade or business, and upon due notice to the said curator or personal representative, such application shall be heard, and the county judge shall make such order thereon as he deems for the best interest of said estate.

History.—§112, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(89); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.09 Duty to assign dower.—The personal representative shall lay off and assign dower immediately after the widow has exercised her election to take dower.

History.—§113, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(4); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.10 Petition for assignment.—For the purpose of enabling the personal representative to lay off and assign dower, he shall file a petition therefor in the county judge's court in which the administration of the estate of the decedent is pending. Citation shall be served upon the widow and the heirs, devisees, legatees and distributees, or such of them as do not appear and join in the proceedings.

History.—§114, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(5); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.11 Petition by widow for assignment of dower.—

(1) If the personal representative fails to file a petition for the assignment of dower, the widow may file such petition, setting forth her claim, specifying as particularly as may be known to her the property in which she claims dower and praying for the assignment of the same. Citation shall be served upon the personal representative, the heirs, devisees, legatees and distributees, or such of them as do not appear and join in the proceedings.

(2) The widow may in addition file her extraordinary petition or petitions for assignment of dower in the county judge's court of any county or counties in this state where any lands lie which her husband had before conveyed, whereof she had not relinquished her right of dower as provided by law. Citations shall be served upon all persons adversely interested. Proceedings thereupon shall be, as nearly as possible, similar to those for the ordinary assignment of dower.

History.—§115, ch. 16103, 1933; §7, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(6); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.12 Proceedings on the petition.—

(1) The proceedings upon any petition for assignment of dower shall be informal and summary.

(2) On any petition for assignment of dower, the right of dower as well as the admeasurement thereof, shall be determined, and mesne profits from the date of the death of the decedent shall be included in the judgment. The county judge in whose court the administration of the decedent's estate is pending shall have plenary jurisdiction to assign dower in all property, real or personal, located in any county in the state. But no such judgment shall become effective in any other county until a duly certified copy thereof has been recorded in such other county in the judgment lien record.

(3) Upon written demand of any party filed twenty-four hours before trial, the question of right of dower shall be submitted to a jury of six persons. The party demanding a jury trial shall, with the filing of his demand, deposit with the county judge sufficient funds to pay for summoning the jury and the fees of the jurors. Fifteen jurors shall be summoned from the body of the county and not from bystanders.

History.—§116, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(7); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.13 Commissioners.—If a judgment for dower is made, the county judge shall select (unless selected by mutual agreement of the parties) and appoint as commissioners three suitable persons who are entirely disinterested and not connected with the parties either by consanguinity or by affinity. Such commissioners may employ a surveyor and shall be allowed such sum as may be deemed reasonable by the county judge to be paid as part of the costs of administration of the estate. They may be removed by the county judge for good cause shown and others appointed in their places. They shall proceed, immediately upon taking oaths faithfully and impartially to execute the trust imposed in them, to allot and set off the widow's dower. All matters of mesne profits shall be decided by the court upon the pleadings and evidence; provided, however, that when the interested parties agree to the allotment of dower, or when the assets are of such value and such a nature that dower may be allotted without the appointment of commissioners, the county judge may, in his discretion, dispense with such appointment and set off and allot dower.

History.—§117, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(8); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 29714, 1955.

733.14 Final judgment.—In all cases of assignment of dower, the county judge to whom application is made shall, upon hearing after notice, confirm, reject or modify the allotment or assignment made. Such judgment shall vest in the widow a fee simple estate in the lands and the absolute ownership of the personal property allotted. She shall be entitled to writ of possession if necessary.

History.—§118, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5507(9); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.15 Notice to creditors.—Every personal representative, after taking out letters testamentary or of administration, shall cause a notice to be published once a week for four consecutive weeks, four publications being sufficient, in a newspaper published in the county wherein said letters have been granted, notifying all persons having claims or demands against the estate of the decedent to file their claims in the office of the county judge granting such letters, at his office in the courthouse of said county, within six calendar months from the time of the first publication of said notice. If no newspaper conforming to the requirements of law is published in the county of the administration, then such publication shall be made by posting as provided for in this law. Proof of said publication or posting shall be filed with and recorded by the county judge.

History.—§119, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(91); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §2, ch. 61-394.

733.16 Form and manner of presenting claims; limitation.—

(1) No claim or demand, whether due or not, direct or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, or claim for personal property in the possession of the personal representative or for damages, including but not limited to actions founded upon fraud or other wrongful act or commission of the decedent, shall be valid or binding upon an estate, or upon the personal representative thereof, or upon any heir, legatee or devisee of the decedent unless the same shall be in writing and contain the place of residence and postoffice address of the claimant, and shall be sworn to by the claimant, his agent or attorney, and be filed in the office of the county judge granting letters. Any such claim or demand not so filed within six months from the time of the first publication of the notice to creditors shall be void even though the personal representative has recognized such claim or demand by paying a portion thereof or interest thereon or otherwise; and no cause of action, at law or in equity, heretofore or hereafter accruing, including but not limited to actions founded upon fraud or other wrongful act or omission, shall survive the death of the person against whom such claim may be made, whether suit be pending at the time of the death of such person or not, unless such claim be filed in the manner and within the said six months as aforesaid;

(a) Provided, however, that if suit upon any such claim or demand is filed and service of process therein had upon such personal representative within six months from the time of the first publication of the notice to creditors, the claim or demand asserted by such suit shall not be impaired or affected by failure to file in the office of the county judge granting letters a claim or demand in manner and form as hereinabove provided, but such failure shall operate to preclude the plaintiff in such suit from recovering any suit costs or attorneys fees as an incident thereto; and the personal representative shall file in the office of the county judge granting letters a suggestion of the pendency of such suit and the same shall be entered on the claim docket;

(b) Provided further, that the lien of any duly recorded mortgage and the lien of any person in possession of personal property and the right to foreclose and enforce such mortgage or lien shall not be impaired or affected by failure to file claim or demand as hereinabove provided, but such failure shall bar the right to enforce any personal liability against the estate, and the claimant shall be limited to the enforcement of the mortgage or lien against the specific property so mortgaged or held. Any suit heretofore commenced and in which service of process was had upon the personal representative within the period hereinabove specified, and which may now be pending in any court against the personal representative of any estate which has not been finally closed, shall not be subject to attack upon the ground that the claim or demand upon which such suit is based was not made in manner and form and filed in the office of the county judge granting letters, as otherwise hereinabove provided.

(c) Provided further that a creditor shall deliver a copy of such claims as recorded and filed to the county judge, who shall forthwith mail said copy to the personal representative, and note on the original such fact of mailing.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any legatee, devisee or heir at law to file any claim for the share or interest in estate to which he may be entitled.

(3) Any claim filed in any estate during the period of time between July 1, 1961, and July 1, 1963, which was filed within eight months from the first publication of notice to creditors but after six months from the first publication of notice to creditors, may, upon just cause shown to the county judge, be allowed as if it had been filed within six months from the first publication of notice to creditors provided there had not been an order of final distribution entered prior to the actual filing of the claim or the effective date hereof and the claimant can show to the satisfaction of the county judge that the allowance of the claim as though properly filed within six months from the first publication of the notice to creditors will not materially adversely affect the orderly administration of the estate. Provided further the time for filing suit upon objections filed to claims filed under this section is extended to July 1, 1963.

History.—§120, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(92); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 22869, 1945; §1, ch. 23970, 1947; (1)(c) n. §1, ch. 57-194; (1) a. §3, by 61-394; (3) n. §1, ch. 63-309.

cf.—§§734.27-734.29, Suspension of statutes of limitations.
§733.35, Mortgages.

733.17 Amendment of claims.—If a bona fide attempt to file a claim is made by any creditor or other claimant but it is defective as to form, the county judge in his discretion may permit the amendment of such claim at any time before payment.

History.—§121, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(93); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.18 Payment of and objections to claims.

(1) No personal representative shall be compelled to pay the debts of the decedent until after the expiration of six calendar months from the granting of letters; and if any person brings any suit or action against any personal representative within said six calendar months upon any claim to which the personal representative has filed no objection, the plaintiff, although he obtains decree or judgment, shall not receive any costs of suit or attorneys' fees, nor shall such judgment change the class of such claim in any manner.

(2) On or before the expiration of eight calendar months from the first publication of notice to creditors any personal representative or other person interested in the estate may file in the office of the county judge written objection to any claim or demand filed. An objection filed to any unmatured claim matures the same for the purpose of the establishment of the validity and amount thereof by suit. If objection is filed, the person filing it shall, forthwith, but not later than thirty days after same has been filed, serve a copy of such objection by registered mail or personal service on the creditor or claimant to whose claim he objects and also on the personal representative if the objection is filed by any interested person other than the personal representative. Failure to serve copy of such objection as herein provided shall constitute an abandonment of the objection unless the time for service thereof be extended by the county judge for good cause shown. The creditor or claimant shall thereupon be limited to two calendar months from the date of such service within which to bring appropriate suit, action or proceedings upon such claim or demand. The county judge for good cause shown may extend the time for filing objection to any claim or demand or the time for serving such objection, and may likewise for good cause shown extend the time for filing appropriate suit, action or proceedings upon any such claim after objection is filed; but in any of said instances, said extension of time shall be granted only after due notice of such application. No suit, action or proceeding shall be brought against any personal representative after the time limited above. If objection is filed to the claim of any creditor and suit is brought by the creditor to establish his claim or demand, a judgment establishing such claim shall give it no priority over claims of the same general class to which it belongs.

(3) No interest shall be paid by the personal representative or allowed upon the claim of any creditor against the estate of a decedent until the expiration of eight calendar months from the granting of letters unless said claim is founded upon a written obligation of the decedent expressly providing for the payment of interest. Interest shall be allowed and paid by the personal representative upon written obligations of the decedent expressly providing for the payment of interest. Upon all other claims interest shall be allowed and paid beginning eight months from said granting of letters.

History.—§122, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(94); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; (2) §1, ch. 28209, 1953; §1, ch. 61-394; (2), §1, ch. 63-454.
cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

733.19 Execution and levies prohibited.—No execution shall issue upon or be levied under any judgment against a decedent or against the personal representative, nor shall any levy be made against any property, real or personal, of the estate of a decedent. Claims upon all judgments against the decedent shall be filed in the same manner as other claims against estates of decedents; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent the enforcement of mortgages, pledges, liens or claims to specific property, real or personal.

History.—§123, ch. 16103, 1933; §3, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(95); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.20 Order of payment of expenses of administration and claims against the estate; family allowance.—

(1) The personal representative shall pay the expenses of administration and claims against the estate in the following order:

(a) Class one. Costs, expenses of administration, compensation of personal representatives and their attorneys' fees.

(b) Class two. Reasonable funeral expenses not to exceed the sum of seven hundred fifty dollars, any excess over the sum allowed herein for funeral expenses shall be considered as included in the payments specified to be made in class eight.

(c) Class three. Expenses of last illness of the decedent, including debts for board and lodging, for hospital, physicians, surgeons, and druggists' bills, and for nursing, attendance and medicine during the last sickness of the deceased, incurred within a period of sixty days prior to the death of the decedent.

(d) Class four. If necessary for support, a family allowance of one year's support for the widow or minor, mentally or physically incompetent children of said decedent, or both such widow and children, in addition to the homestead and exempt personal property. Upon petition of the widow, if any, or of the legal guardian or of the person having the care and custody of a minor child or children, upon notice to the personal representative, a reasonable allowance shall be fixed by the county judge in personal property or money, or both, for the support of said widow and minor children, considering the needs of the family and the value of the estate. Said allowance or the portion payable in money shall be payable in equal periodic payments to be fixed by the county judge and shall be payable to the widow, if any, for the support of herself and the minor child or children, if any. If there is no widow, then the same shall be payable to the legal guardian or to the person having the care and custody of any minor child or children. Upon the petition of any person interested in the estate, the county judge may increase, decrease, discontinue or modify the allowance; but in no event shall such allowance exceed the sum or value of twelve hundred dollars.

(e) Class five. Wages to the extent of one hundred dollars for each employee of the decedent, for work done or services rendered within sixty days prior to the death of the employer.

(f) Class six. Judgments of record in this state during the lifetime of the decedent.

(g) Class seven. Mortgages, mechanics', material-men's, laborers', employees' and other liens where the value of the property of the estate encumbered by said liens exceeds the amount thereof.

(h) Class eight. All other debts without distinction of rank.

(i) Class nine. If, upon petition of the widow or minor children of decedent, upon notice to the personal representative, it shall appear that the family allowance provided under paragraph (d) of this subsection is insufficient for the reasonable support of said widow or minor children, or both, according to their previous standard of living, then the county judge may order the payment of a supplemental family allowance from the assets of decedent's estate remaining after full provision for payment of prior claims, which in his opinion will reasonably support said petitioners; provided, however, that such supplemental allowance shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars. Said supplemental allowance shall be payable in such manner as the county judge shall direct, and shall be subject to discontinuance or modification in the same manner as the family allowance provided for under paragraph (d) hereof.

(j) Class ten. In case the decedent, dying testate, leaves a natural or adopted child less than eighteen years of age without a legally responsible surviving natural or adoptive parent and without adequate means for support and maintenance in its own right by will, gift or trust, such child shall be deemed a dependent orphan child of the decedent. In addition to any temporary allowance for maintenance during the period of administration as provided by paragraph (d) hereof, the court, on petition of any interested party or on its own motion, shall make such additional provision for such child until its eighteenth birthday as the court deems reasonable and just, subject to the limitations hereinafter set forth. The court may increase, discontinue or modify such allowance, but before entering any order fixing or changing any allowance hereunder the court shall require notice to all interested parties.

This provision is designed to afford reasonable protection to any dependent minor child who has been excluded from the provisions of the parents' will under circumstances which deprive it of an effective legal substitute for the continuing obligation of the parent, while living, for support and maintenance during the period of its minority. It is not intended that this provision should have the effect of creating in any child omitted from the provisions of its parent's will an estate which would exceed the value of its distributive share had the deceased parent died intestate.

The court in its discretion, and in order to conclude the administration of the estate, may order the entire allowance hereunder paid in a lump sum to a guardian of the child's property, and in fixing the amount thereof the court shall consider the net value of the estate subject to distribution and the reasonable requirements of the child prospectively in relation to its eighteenth birthday.

(2) If, after paying any preceding class, the estate shall be insufficient to pay all of the next succeeding class, the creditors or claimants of the latter class shall be paid ratably in proportion to their respective claims.

History.—§124, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(96); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 25274, 1949; sub. §(1)(b), am. §1, ch. 29678, 1955; (1)(b) a. by §1, ch. 61-63; (1)(d) a. by §1, ch. 61-391.

cf.—§734.02-734.04, Payment of legacies and distributive shares.
§734.05, Order of appropriation of assets.

733.21 Compromise and settlement.—Whenever it is proposed to compromise or settle any claim, whether in suit or not, by or against the estate of a decedent or the personal representative thereof, or to compromise or settle any question or dispute concerning the distribution of a decedent's estate, the county judge having jurisdiction of said decedent's estate, on sworn petition setting forth the facts and circumstances of such claim, question or dispute and the proposed compromise or settlement may, if satisfied that such compromise or settlement will be for the best interests of the estate, enter an order ex parte authorizing the same to be made, which order shall operate to relieve the said personal representative of any and all liability or responsibility in the premises; provided, however, that claims against the estate may not be compromised until after the time for filing objections to claims has expired and then only upon notice to those who have filed objection to the claim proposed to be compromised.

History.—§125, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(97); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.211 Claims undisposed of after three years barred.—

(1) Whenever anyone shall have filed a claim against any estate in any probate proceedings in this state, in accordance with this chapter, and which claim has not had objection filed thereto or has not been paid, settled or otherwise disposed of and no proceeding is pending for the enforcement or compulsory payment thereof, then at the expiration of three years from the date such claim is filed such claim shall be forever barred and foreclosed and have no further force or effect and no proceeding or action shall thereafter ever be brought for enforcement or payment of same. This section shall not affect the lien of any duly recorded mortgage or the lien of any person in possession of personal property or the right to foreclose and enforce such mortgage or lien.

(2) This section shall not apply to any claim upon which legal proceedings are brought for enforcement or compulsory payment of same on or before January 1, 1954.

History.—Comp. § 1, 2, ch. 28180, 1953.

733.22 Sale pursuant to will.—In every case where a power is given in a will to sell or dispose of property of the estate, or any interest therein, a sale made under authority of such will shall be valid. The sale and disposition of property under such power may be made by the executors, or such of them as qualify, or by the surviving executor or executors, or by the administrator with the will annexed, or by the administrator de bonis non, if no other person is appointed in the will for such purpose, or, if the person so appointed refuses to perform the trust or dies before he has completed the same or is otherwise rendered incompetent.

History.—§126, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(98); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.23 Sales where no power conferred.—Whenever any administrator of a decedent dying intestate, or any executor or administrator with the will annexed whose testator has not conferred upon him a power of sale or whose testator has granted such power but that power is so limited by the will or by operation of law that it cannot be conveniently exercised, shall consider that it is for the best interest of the estate and of those interested therein that the property of the estate be sold for distribution or for any other purpose, the personal representative may sell the same at public or private sale; provided, however, that no title shall pass until by order of the county judge the sale shall be authorized or confirmed. Sales may be authorized before made or confirmed after made. Application for authorization or confirmation of sale shall be made by the sworn petition of the personal representative setting forth the reasons for such sale, a description of the property sold or proposed to be sold, and except when authorization or confirmation of the sale at the current market of stocks or bonds listed upon an established exchange is applied for, the price and terms of such sale.

History.—§127, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(99); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §9, ch. 22847, 1945.

cf.—§733.36, Sale of stocks and bonds.

§733.40, Execution of instruments by representative.

733.24 Sale on petition of interested persons.—If a personal representative neglects or refuses to sell property of an estate when it is expedient or necessary to do so or when a testator has directed a sale to be made, any person interested may, by petition, apply to the county judge for an order requiring the personal representative to sell. Notice of such petition shall be given to the personal representative and to such persons as would be entitled to notice in case of the application of the personal representative for authorization or confirmation of a sale of such property.

History.—§128, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(100); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.25 Sale of real property when widow survives.—In any case when a decedent is survived by a widow, no sale or disposition of real property shall be made, whether pursuant to the powers contained in the decedent's will or under the provisions of this law, until it appears that the widow will not have dower assigned to her, or, if she takes dower, until after her dower has been assigned, unless the widow consents to such sale and joins with the personal representative in the execution of a deed of conveyance to the purchaser thereof.

History.—§129, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(101); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.26 When notice of sale required.—

(1) No notice of any application for the authorization or confirmation of any sale shall be required when it shall appear that the personal property involved is perishable or rapidly depreciating.

(2) No notice of any application for the authorization or confirmation of any sale shall be required in any other case except as follows:

(a) Whenever it shall appear to the county judge that notice is necessary or desirable, notice shall be given to such persons as the county judge shall by order direct.

(b) Whenever application is made for the authorization or confirmation of the sale of property which has been specifically devised or bequeathed, notice shall be given to the devisee or legatee, unless he waive such notice or consent to such sale.

(c) Whenever any person interested in the estate shall serve upon the personal representative a written demand for notice of sale, containing the post-office address of such person, and file a copy of such demand and proof of the service thereof in the office of the county judge, notice of every application thereafter made for the authorization or confirmation of any sale shall be given to such person, unless he waive such notice or consent to such sale.

(d) Whenever the will of a decedent shall contain a direction or express a desire that any described or designated property be not sold, notice of application for the authorization or confirmation of the sale of any such property shall be given to the legatee or devisee of such property, unless he waive such notice or consent to such sale.

(e) Whenever application is made for the authorization or confirmation of the sale of any property for distribution.

History.—§130, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(102); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §10, ch. 22847, 1945.

733.27 Hearing on application to sell.—Where no notice is required, the county judge may hear and determine petitions for the sale of property ex parte. Where notice is required, such hearings shall be as in other cases. At any such hearing the county judge may in his discretion require an appraisal or new appraisal of the property.

History.—§131, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(103); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.28 Order of sale.—

(1) SALE GENERALLY.—After the hearing upon a petition to sell or confirm the sale of property, the county judge shall make and enter an order thereon, and if the sale is authorized or confirmed, the order shall describe the property, and if said property is authorized to be sold at private sale, the order shall fix the price and the terms of sale. Such order shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the proceedings and of the authority of the personal representative to make a conveyance or transfer of the property. A certified copy of such order relating to real property may be recorded in the judgment lien record in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in each county wherein such real property or any part thereof is situated. When an order authorizing a sale is obtained, it may provide for the public or private sale of any of the property described therein, in parcels or as a whole. If public sale is ordered, the personal representative shall give such notice as the order may require.

(2) SALE BY COMMISSIONER.—In the order of sale, or at any time before a sale authorized to be made by an executor or by an administrator, the county judge, whenever he deems it necessary, may appoint a commissioner to make the sale and to execute whatever instruments may be necessary to consummate it. Any sale made by such commissioner shall be in compliance with the law governing sales by executors and administrators. Any sale so made by a commissioner under such an order shall be as valid as though made by the executor or administrator.

History.—§132, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(104). am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §11, ch. 22847, 1945.

733.29 Additional bond upon sale.—Whenever the county judge makes an order authorizing or confirming a sale of property of an estate, he may in his discretion require the personal representative to execute a bond or an additional bond, with sureties as provided in this law, in such amount as the county judge may deem necessary, conditioned for the faithful accounting of the proceeds of such sale. No such bond shall, in any case, be required where the personal representative is a bank or trust company. All such bonds shall be recorded in the office of the county judge.

History.—§133, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 5541(105); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.62, Bond by a surety company.

733.30 Sales upon terms.—When so provided by the order of the county judge authorizing or confirming a sale of property, personal representatives may sell upon such terms as the order prescribes. If credit is given, it shall be for not more than sixty per cent of the purchase price nor for longer than five years, unless the county judge, in his discretion by written order, authorizes a larger per cent of credit. The county judge, in his discretion by written order, may also enlarge the time for payment. The exercise of such discretion shall be evidenced by written order duly recorded. The deferred purchase price shall be evidenced by the promissory note of the purchaser payable to the personal representative and secured by mortgage upon the property sold, if real property, or by such security as may be approved by the court in any case. The taking of any such promissory note and mortgage or other security shall not defer the final settlement of the estate, but, in the event of final settlement before the payment in full of such note, the same, together with the mortgage or other security, may be assigned and transferred without recourse to such person or persons who, but for such sale, would have been entitled to the property so sold.

History.—§134, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 5541(106); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §12, ch. 22847, 1945.

733.31 When personal representative may purchase.—Any personal representative having an interest in the estate which he represents, either in his own right or in the right of his wife or infant child, as creditor, devisee, legatee or heir at law may, at any public sale of the real or personal property of his testator or intestate made as provided by law under the order of the county judge, become a bidder therefor; and, if such personal representative is the highest bidder at such sale, he may purchase the same, and said property shall be sold to such executor or administrator, but such sale shall always be subject to confirmation by the county judge.

History.—§135, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 5541(107); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.32 Conveyances pursuant to contracts of decedent.—In all cases where written agreements have been made for the sale and conveyance or transfer of real property in this state or of personal property, and the vendor has died before making such conveyance or transfer, the personal representative or person claiming the right to such conveyance or transfer may file with the county judge before whom the administration of the estate is pending a sworn petition setting forth the facts upon which the claim is predicated and annexing thereto the agreement or a copy thereof. The county judge, if he deems notice of hearing on said petition necessary or desirable, shall direct who should have the same and the manner in which it should be given. After a hearing upon such petition and the defenses, if any, made thereto, the county judge may make an order directing the personal representative to make, execute and deliver the conveyance or transfer to the person entitled to the same, or otherwise as justice may require. Such order shall describe the property to be conveyed or transferred. Said order shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the proceedings and of the authority of the personal representative to make the conveyance or transfer. A certified copy of any such order relating to real property may be recorded in the miscellaneous records in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in any county wherein such real property or any part thereof is situated.

History.—§136, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 5541(108); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §1, ch. 23717, 1947.

733.33 Sale of contract to purchase.—If a decedent at the time of his death was possessed of a contract for the purchase of real property, the interest of the estate in such property and under such contract may be sold by the personal representative in the same manner as if the decedent had been the owner in fee simple of such property; provided, the holder of the fee simple title to such property and of the vendor's interest thereto shall execute a release to the personal representative relieving the estate from liability upon such contract. Such release shall not be required if no claim has been filed on such contract and if the time for filing claims has expired. In lieu of such release the personal representative may, upon order of the county judge, take from the purchaser of such contract a bond approved by the county judge with sureties in a penal sum double the amount due and to become due under such contract, conditioned that the purchaser will make all payments upon such contract and perform all agreements therein contained according to the tenor thereof and indemnify and save harmless the personal representative and all persons interested in the estate against all demands, costs, charges and expenses by reason of such contract.

History.—§137, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(109); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.34 Sale of real property subject to contract to purchase.—If a decedent at the time of his death was the owner of real property subject to a contract to sell and convey said property, the interest of the estate in such property and such contract may be sold under order of the county judge in the same manner as other real estate. No recourse shall be had against the estate or the personal representative for the nonpayment or nonperformance by the vendee under any such contract. The consent of the vendee under any such contract to the sale thereof shall discharge the estate and the personal representative from all obligations, duties and liabilities with respect to such contract, but such consent shall not be required if no claim has been filed thereon and the time for filing claims has expired.

History.—§138, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(110); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.35 Sale of real property subject to mortgage.—The county judge may, upon petition of the personal representative and with the written consent of the holder of the mortgage, authorize the sale of real property of the estate subject to mortgage, whether such mortgage was made by the decedent, the personal representative or any other person. The consent of the mortgagee shall discharge the estate and the personal representative from liability for the mortgage indebtedness or obligation. Such consent shall not be required if no claim has been filed upon the mortgage indebtedness and the time for filing claims has expired.

History.—§139, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(111); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§733.16, Presenting claims.

733.36 Sale of stocks and bonds.—The county judge may, upon petition of the personal representative, make an order authorizing the sale, at the current market price, of any stocks or bonds which are listed upon an established stock or bond exchange, and such order need not otherwise designate the price at which such sale shall be made.

History.—§140, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(112); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.361 Stock held in name of personal representative.—Upon entry of an order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, the personal representative or representatives shall have the power and authority to hold any corporate stock or mutual investment trust shares in the name of the sole personal representative or in the name of one or more of the several personal representatives, or in the name of a nominee, with or without disclosing any fiduciary relationship; but for all acts and omissions of the personal representative or representatives in whose names such property is held, and of such nominee, relating to such property, all the personal representatives shall be jointly and severally responsible.

History.—§1, ch. 61-329.

733.37 Interest in partnership.—When at the time of his death, a partnership existed between the decedent and any other person, the surviving partner shall, in the absence of a partnership agreement providing otherwise, without delay, wind up and settle the business and the affairs of the partnership, account to the personal representative and pay over to him all balances due the estate. If, however, at date of the partner's death, there existed a partnership agreement specifying the terms and conditions of termination of the partnership upon death of a partner, then such agreement shall be binding with respect to all matters, duties, rights and obligations relating to the partnership, including the determination of its final accounting period. The interest of the decedent in the partnership shall be included in the inventory of the estate. The personal representative may bring and maintain against the surviving partner any action, suit or proceeding relating to the partnership which the decedent could have brought. Any interest of an estate existing by virtue of a partnership between the decedent and any other person may be sold in the same manner as other property of the estate.

History.—§141, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(143); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.
Am. §1, ch. 26583, 1951.

733.38 Lease of real property.—Whenever it appears expedient and for the best interest of the estate to lease any real property of the estate, the county judge may authorize the personal representative to make such lease. The proceedings in such cases shall be, as nearly as possible, the same as in cases of application for the sale of property, except that notice shall be given to all persons interested in the estate. The personal representative may lease real property without an order of court when the tenancy is from month to month or for a term not extending beyond the time for filing claims against the estate.

History.—§142, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(113); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.39 Borrowing money and mortgaging property.—Whenever it appears expedient or necessary and for the best interest of the estate to borrow money upon a promissory note, either unsecured or to be secured by a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon the property of the estate or any part thereof, the county judge may by order authorize the personal representative to borrow such sum as the county judge shall deem proper. The proceedings in such cases shall be, as nearly as possible, the same as in cases of applications for the sale of property, except that notice shall be given to all persons interested in the estate. In like manner the county judge may authorize the personal representative to extend or renew any existing obligation of the estate or to extend or renew any existing mortgage, pledge or other lien. The signing of promissory notes or the execution of any agreement or other instrument creating a pledge or other lien by the personal representative, as such, shall create no personal liability against the person so signing or executing.

History.—§143, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(114); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§733.23, Sales where no power conferred.

§734.30, Mortgages held by foreign representatives.

733.40 Power of personal representative to execute instruments.—Whenever the county judge authorizes or confirms any sale, authorizes the borrowing of money or the execution of any mortgage, agreement or other instrument creating a lien or a lease, or authorizes the distribution in kind of any property, the personal representative may make, execute, sign, seal, acknowledge and deliver in his name as such personal representative all deeds, bills of sale, assignments, instruments of transfer, promissory notes, mortgages, pledges, leases or any instruments necessary or proper to carry out and give effect to such orders.

History.—§144, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(115); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.41 Purchaser protected.—No person purchasing or leasing from, or taking a mortgage, pledge or other lien from a personal representative shall be bound or concerned to see that the money or other things of value paid to such personal representative are actually needed or properly applied; nor shall such person be otherwise obligated as to the proprieties or expediences of the acts of such personal representative. In all such transactions the acts of the personal representative pursuant to the powers of a will or the order of the county judge shall be prima facie valid.

History.—§145, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(116); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.42 Limitation in favor of purchaser from personal representative.—The title of any purchaser, or of anyone holding under him, who has held possession for three years or more, of any property, real or personal, purchased at any sale made under this law by an executor or administrator, free from fraud, shall not be questioned by any person upon any ground.

History.—§146, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(117); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.43 Annual returns.—A personal representative, unless otherwise ordered by the court, shall make his annual returns on or before ninety days after the expiration of the fiscal year, the election whereof he shall signify by filing notice thereof with the court within ninety days of his appointment, or, in the absence of such notice of election, on or before April first of each year for the calendar year or fraction of a calendar year expiring on December thirty-first preceding. If he fails to make such returns before the time applicable he shall, in the discretion of the county judge, forfeit all commissions on such returns so to be made; provided, however, that if the time for filing claims against the estate has expired prior to the end of the fiscal or calendar year, or shall expire within thirty days thereafter, the personal representative, may, in lieu of making annual returns, file his final returns within ninety days from the expiration of the fiscal year or on or before April 1 after expiration of the calendar year and apply for a discharge. If he fails to make his annual reports within such times as above specified, then, when such returns are made, he shall immediately give written notice of the filing of such returns to all persons interested in the estate being administered by him.

When there is a single heir or beneficiary, or where all of the heirs or beneficiaries are sui juris and consent thereto in writing, it shall not be necessary to file a final accounting, nor to advertise notice thereof, nor shall it be necessary to file annual accountings, unless required in either case by the county judge.

History.—§147, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(118); §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §13, ch. 22847, 1945; §1, ch. 26735, 1951; §2, ch. 29714, 1955; §1, ch. 59-267.

cf.—§734.15, Accounting upon removal.

§734.22, Final settlement and discharge.

733.44 Contents of returns.—A personal representative in his returns shall render a full and correct account of the receipts and expenditures of all the estate of which he may have control, and include therein a statement of the assets of the estate.

Substantiating papers shall not be filed with accountings, but pertinent substantiating papers and records shall be available at a trial of objections to accountings, and all substantiating papers and records shall be preserved by the personal representative for three years after his discharge.

History.—§148, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(119); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; 2nd par. n. by §2, ch. 59-267.

733.45 Objection to returns.—Upon the filing of returns with the county judge by a personal representative, any person interested as creditor, legatee, distributee, devisee or heir at law may, within thirty days after the time limited by law for filing the same, file objection in writing to the account or any item thereof, specifying the ground of objection. No item previously approved by order of the county judge upon notice shall be subject to objection. If any personal representative fails to file his annual returns on or before the first day of April in any year, any person interested in the estate may file in the office of the county judge a written demand for service of a copy of the returns, which demand shall contain the post-office address of the person filing the same. If any demand is on file at the time the returns are filed, the personal representative shall serve a copy of the returns upon the person who filed the demand therefor and shall file proof of the service thereof in the office of the county judge. Objection may be filed to the returns at any time within thirty days after the service of copy thereof.

History.—§149, ch. 16103, 1933; §9, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(120); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.46 Trial of objections.—If objections to accounts are filed, the personal representative or the objecting party may, after the expiration of the time limited for filing objections upon reasonable notice to the other, apply to the county judge who shall fix a day for the hearing. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, an order shall be entered by the county judge finally sustaining or overruling the objections, and he shall thereupon proceed to enter his order thereon.

History.—§150, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(121); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §3, ch. 59-267.

733.47 Examination of returns not objected to.—If no objection is filed to returns within the time limited by law for filing objections, the county judge shall proceed to examine said returns and enter his order approving the same or requiring such proof of the items contained therein as the county judge shall find desirable.

History.—§151, ch. 16103, 1933; §10, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(122); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §4, ch. 59-267.

733.48 Recording settlement.—There may be recorded in the office of the county judge any instrument settling an account in whole or in part, executed by the personal representative and any one or more legatees, devisees, heirs or claimants. To be entitled to record, any such instrument shall be acknowledged or sworn to by the parties before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments or to administer oaths, and the record thereof or a duly certified copy shall be admitted as prima facie evidence thereof and of its due execution without requiring proof of the execution.

History.—§152, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(123); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.49 Order requiring returns; contempt of court.—When any personal representative fails or neglects to make the annual returns as required by this law, the county judge shall issue an order directing said personal representative to make such returns within fifteen days from the service upon him of such order, or show cause why he should not be compelled to do so. A copy of such order shall be served upon the personal representative. If the said personal representative fails, neglects or refuses without good cause shown to file such returns within the time specified by said order, the county judge shall forthwith issue a citation directed to said personal representative to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court for such failure or neglect; and if such personal representative fails to show just cause, the county judge may forthwith adjudge said personal representative to be in contempt of court, and said person shall stand committed for contempt until he makes the annual returns.

History.—§153, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(124); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945; §5, ch. 59-267.

733.50 Compulsory settlements.—Although an executor may, by the terms of the will appointing him, be exempted from making settlements with returns to the county judge, and although no mismanagement or waste is charged against him, upon the application of any creditor, legatee, distributee, devisee, heir or surety, the county judge shall make an order directing the personal representative to file such accounts and to make such settlements and distribution in whole or in part as is deemed necessary for the proper administration of said estate. Such order may also be made by the county judge upon his own motion.

History.—§154, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(125); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§734.15-734.19, Settlement upon removal.

733.51 Production of assets.—Upon the petition of any creditor, legatee, distributee, devisee or heir at law, or upon his own motion if he deems it necessary for the proper administration of said estate, the county judge may require any personal representative to produce satisfactory evidence that the assets of the estate are in his possession or under his control and, if necessary or proper, may order the production of such assets for the inspection of such creditor, legatee, distributee, devisee or heir at law, or of said judge.

History.—§155, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(84); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.52 Devastavit.—When an action suggesting a devastavit is brought against any personal representative, if such personal representative cannot show that he has fully administered according to law, he and his sureties shall be personally charged to the extent of assets not duly administered by him.

History.—§156, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(85); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.53 Who may suggest devastavit.—An action suggesting devastavit may be brought against the personal representative by any person interested in the estate. When a personal representative resigns, dies or is removed, an action suggesting devastavit may also be brought against him or his executors or administrators and against his surety or sureties by the remaining or successor personal representative.

History.—§157, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(86); am. §3, ch. 22783, 1945.

733.54 Waiver of statute of limitations, internal revenue matters.—Any executor or administrator, duly appointed by any county judge in the state and qualified to act under such appointment, may enter into agreements with the proper officer or department head, commissioner or agent, of any department of the government of the United States waiving the statute of limitations with respect to the assessment and collection of any federal tax or any deficiency in any federal tax; provided, however, that any such agreement shall be first approved by the county judge having jurisdiction of the administration of the estate.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 25108, 1949.

CHAPTER 734

FLORIDA PROBATE LAW, FOURTH PART

- | | |
|--|--|
| 734.01 Expenses and compensation. | 734.22 Final settlement and discharge. |
| 734.02 Delivery of legacies and distributive shares. | 734.23 Effect of discharge. |
| 734.03 Proceedings for the payment of legacies or distributive interest. | 734.24 Suit upon bond. |
| 734.04 Distribution. | 734.25 Determination of beneficiaries. |
| 734.041 Apportionment of estate taxes. | 734.26 Subsequent administration. |
| 734.05 Order in which assets are appropriated. | 734.27 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of personal representative. |
| 734.06 Abatement and contribution. | 734.28 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of claimants. |
| 734.07 Advancements. | 734.29 Limitations against unadministered estates. |
| 734.08 Exempt estates. | 734.30 Foreign personal representatives. |
| 734.09 Resignation of personal representative. | 734.31 Ancillary administration. |
| 734.10 Appointment of successor upon resignation. | 734.32 Application for administration upon estates of persons believed to be dead. |
| 734.11 Causes of removal of personal representative. | 734.33 Evidence of presumption. |
| 734.12 Jurisdiction in removal proceedings. | 734.34 Order of presumption. |
| 734.13 Proceedings for removal. | 734.35 Letters of administration; force and effect. |
| 734.14 Administration following removal. | 734.36 Revocation of letters on proof that supposed decedent is alive. |
| 734.15 Accounting upon removal. | 734.37 Substitution of supposed decedent in actions. |
| 734.16 Surrender of assets upon removal. | 734.38 Probate of will of person believed to be dead. |
| 734.17 Proceedings for commitment. | 734.39 Notice to administrator and other persons. |
| 734.18 Commitment proceedings; by whom instituted. | 734.40 Letters to executor of will of supposed decedent. |
| 734.19 Order on proceedings for commitment. | |
| 734.20 Proceedings on bond of removed personal representatives. | |
| 734.21 Survival of action upon resignation or removal. | |

734.01 Expenses and compensation.—

(1) A personal representative shall be allowed all necessary expenses and attorney's fees paid in the care, management and settlement of the estate. A personal representative shall be allowed commissions upon the amount of the estate, real and personal, accounted for by him as compensation for his ordinary services as follows:

(a) For the first one thousand dollars at the rate of six per cent; all above that sum and not exceeding five thousand dollars at the rate of four per cent; and all above five thousand dollars at the rate of two and one-half per cent.

(b) In addition to the aforesaid commissions a personal representative shall be allowed such further compensation as the court may deem just and reasonable for any extraordinary services including the sale of real estate or personal property, the conduct of litigation on behalf of or against the estate, the adjustment and payment of extensive or complicated estate or inheritance taxes, the carrying on of the decedent's business pursuant to an order of court, and any other special services which may be necessary for the personal representative to perform.

(c) When provision is made by the will of the decedent for compensation to a personal representative, the compensation fixed by such will shall be in full satisfaction for his services in lieu of the compensation provided, unless by an instrument filed with the county judge he renounces all claim to the compensation given by the will.

(d) If there be more than one personal representative, each shall be allowed such compensation for his services as the court shall determine to be just and reasonable; provided, however, that the compensation allowed any one of such multiple personal representatives for ordinary services shall not exceed the compensation specified in paragraph (a), nor the total compensation allowed all such multiple personal representatives for ordinary services be less than one commission computed in accordance with paragraph (a) hereunder nor more than the sum of two such commissions.

(2) Any attorney who has rendered services to an estate or the personal representative may apply to the court by petition for an order making an allowance for attorney's fees, and, after notice to persons adversely affected, the court shall make such order with respect thereto as shall be proper.

(3) In annual and final returns, the personal representative shall be entitled to credit for such reasonable sums as he may have paid for the services rendered to the estate by an attorney and his expenses in connection therewith. Objections may be made to the allowance of such items as in other cases, unless the said items have been previously allowed by the county judge.

(4) If the personal representative is a practicing attorney at law of this state and has rendered legal services in connection with his official duties, he shall be allowed such fees therefor as shall be just and reasonable.

History.—§158, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(90); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945; am. §1, ch. 24295, 1947.
(2) a. §10, ch. 26484, 1951; (1) (d) by §1, ch. 59-59; (1) (a) a. by §1, ch. 61-163.
cf.—§732.58, Compensation of administrators ad litem.

734.02 Delivery of legacies and distributive shares.—No personal representative shall be required to pay or deliver any legacy or distributive share or to surrender possession of any land to any heir or devisee until the expiration of eight calendar months from the granting of letters. Any payment, delivery or surrender made by the personal representative prior to that time shall be made at his risk.

History.—§159, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(127); §4, ch. 22783, 1945; §4, ch. 61-394.
cf.—§731.23, Descent and distribution; order.
§733.40, Power of representative to execute instruments.

734.03 Proceedings for the payment of legacies or distributive interest.—

(1) Before any personal representative is compelled to pay, prior to the final settlement of his accounts, any legacy in money or to deliver any specific personal property bequeathed to any person (unless such personal property is exempt personal property) which may have come into his hands, or to pay all or any part of any distributive share in the personal estate of said decedent, or to surrender any land to any heir or devisee, the heir, devisee, legatee or distributee shall file in the office of the county judge a petition setting forth the facts which entitle him to the relief prayed and stating that the property will not be required for the payment of debts, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges and expenses of administration, or for providing funds for contribution or enforcing equalization in case of advancements; and citation shall be served upon or notice given to the personal representative. Upon the return day, or upon such other day as may be fixed by the county judge, he shall make appropriate order as he shall deem proper under the circumstances.

(2) An order directing the surrender of real estate or the delivery of any specific personal property shall describe the property to be surrendered or delivered; and such order, unless and until revoked or unless reversed on appeal, shall be conclusive in favor of bona fide purchasers for value from such heir, devisee, legatee or distributee as against the personal representative and all other persons claiming by, through, under or against the decedent or his estate.

(3) If the administration of the estate, except the distribution thereof, has not been completed prior to the entry of any order of distribution, the county judge in his discretion may require the person entitled to such distribution to give a bond with adequate sureties, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned to make due contribution for the payment of legacies, debts, demands and all costs which may be awarded, if any such debt or demand is duly presented within the time limited by law, and for family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges, expenses of administration and equalization in case of advancements.

History.—§160, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(128); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.04 Distribution.—After the time for filing claims against the estate has expired and all debts, claims, estate and inheritance taxes, family allowance, charges and expenses of administration have been paid or provision made for the payment thereof, and before the final settlement of the accounts of the personal representative, he may apply by petition for an order authorizing him to surrender the possession of any designated or described real estate to the heir or devisee or to deliver any specific property or to make any distribution of the assets of the estate, and an order entered upon such petition shall have the same effect as though entered upon the petition of the heir or devisee as hereinbefore provided. Upon the approval of the final accounts of the personal representative, he shall surrender the possession of all real estate to the heir or devisee entitled thereto and pay over and distribute all personal property to those entitled thereto. An order of final discharge of the personal representative shall be evidence of such surrender or distribution, and unless revoked or unless reversed on appeal, shall be conclusive as to the rights of all heirs, devisees, legatees and distributees.

History.—§161, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(129); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.041 Apportionment of estate taxes.—

(1) Any estate, inheritance, or other death tax levied or assessed under the provisions of the tax laws of this or any other state or of any United States revenue act, with respect to any property required to be included in the gross estate of a decedent under the provisions of any such law, shall be apportioned in the following manner:

(a) If any portion of the estate passed under the will of a decedent as a specific bequest or devise, or general legacy, or in any other non-residuary form (exclusive of property over which the decedent had a power of appointment as defined from time to time under the estate tax laws of the United States), the net amount of the tax attributable thereto shall, except as otherwise directed by the will, be charged to and paid from the residuary estate of the testator without requiring contribution from persons receiving such interests. In the event the residuary estate is insufficient to pay the tax attributable to such interests, any balance of such tax shall, except as otherwise directed by the will, be equitably apportioned among the recipients of such interests in the proportions that the value of each such interest included in the measure of such tax bears to the total of all such interests so included.

(b) If any portion of the estate passed under the will of the decedent as a residuary interest (exclusive of property over which the decedent had any such power of appointment), the net amount of the tax attributable thereto shall, except as otherwise directed by the decedent's will, be equitably apportioned among the residuary beneficiaries in the proportions that the value of the residuary interest of each included in the measure of such tax bears to the total of all residuary interests so included.

(c) If any portion of the property with respect to which such tax is levied or assessed is held under the terms of any trust created inter vivos or is subject to such a power of appointment, the net amount of the tax attributable thereto shall, except as otherwise directed by the trust instrument with respect to the fund established thereby, or by the decedent's will, be charged to and paid from the corpus of the trust property or the property subject to such power of appointment, as the case may be, and shall not be apportioned between temporary and remainder estates.

(d) Real property homesteads which are exempt from execution as defined by the laws of Florida shall be exempt from apportionment of taxes. Persons taking an interest in such homesteads shall not be liable for apportionment of taxes on account of such homesteads. The net amount of the tax attributable to such homestead property shall be paid from other assets of the probate or intestate estate in the order provided by §734.05, and the homestead shall not be subjected to contribution to such tax until the estate's assets are exhausted.

(e) The balance of the net amount of the tax, including, but not limited to, any tax imposed with respect to gifts in contemplation of death, jointly held properties passing by survivorship, property passing by intestacy, or insurance, shall, except as otherwise directed by the decedent's will, be equitably apportioned among and charged to and paid by the recipients and beneficiaries of such properties or interests in the proportion that the value of the property or interest of each included in the measure of such tax bears to the total value of all such properties and interests included in the measure of such tax; provided, that where any such property or interest is an interest in income or an estate for years or for life or other temporary interest, the amount so charged to such recipients or beneficiaries shall not be apportioned between temporary and remainder estates but shall be charged to and paid out of the corpus of such property or fund.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) The net amount of tax attributable to the interests encompassed by any one of paragraphs (a) through (e) of subsection (1) shall be such portion of the net amount of the tax as finally determined, together with interest thereon, as the value of interests included in the measure of such tax and included in such paragraph bears to the amount of the net estate.

(b) The term net estate shall mean the gross estate as defined by the estate tax laws of the United States less the deductions, other than the specific exemption, allowed by such laws. All proportions based on net estate shall be determined without regard to any diminution in deductions resulting from the charge of any portion of the tax to a deductible interest.

(c) The term included in the measure of such tax shall not include any property or interest whether passing under the will or not to the extent such property or interest is exempt, or is initially deductible from the gross estate, without regard to any subsequent diminution of such deduction by reason of the charge of any portion of the tax to such property or interest.

(d) The word value shall mean the pecuniary worth of the interest involved as finally determined for purposes of federal estate tax without regard to any diminution thereof by reason of the charge of any portion of tax thereto.

(3) Unless otherwise directed by the will of the decedent, the tax shall be paid by the executor or administrator out of the estate. In all cases in which any property required to be included in the gross estate does not come into the possession of the executor or administrator, he shall, in cases where property of a trust created inter vivos or property subject to a power of appointment is included in such gross estate, be entitled, and it shall be his duty, to recover from the fiduciary in possession of the corpus of such trust or of property subject to such power of appointment, and in all other cases from the recipients or beneficiaries of property or interests with respect to which such tax is levied or assessed, the proportionate amount of such tax payable by such fiduciary or persons with which they are chargeable under the provisions of this act, unless relieved of such duty as provided in subsection (6); provided that this subsection shall not authorize the recovery of any taxes hereunder from any company issuing any policy of insurance included in the gross estate, or from any bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or similar institution with respect to any account of which it is a depository standing in the names of the decedent and any other person or persons which passed by operation of law on the death of the decedent. In any case where the fiduciary brings an action to recover a share of tax apportioned to an interest not within his control, any judgment he may obtain may, in the discretion of the court, include costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(4) No executor, administrator, or other fiduciary shall be required to transfer any property until the amount of any tax due from the transferee is paid, or, if the apportionment of tax has not been determined, adequate security is furnished for such payment; provided, that in no event shall the fiduciary be required to distribute assets which he reasonably anticipates may be necessary to pay any state or federal taxes.

(5) After the amount of all estate, inheritance and death taxes is finally determined, the executor, administrator or other fiduciary shall petition the county judge's court having jurisdiction of the estate for an order of apportionment and shall give notice of such petition and the hearing thereon by publication once a week for four consecutive weeks, such hearing to be at least twenty-eight days after the first date of such publication, except that where all persons affected by such order are sui juris or properly represented by a natural or legal guardian and consent thereto in writing, such notice shall not be necessary. The fiduciary shall be entitled to, and it shall be his duty (except as provided in subsection (6)), to attempt to effect apportionment as determined by the order entered upon such hearing, and such apportionment shall be prima facie correct in proceedings in any court or jurisdiction. The fiduciary shall not be required to seek collection of any portion of tax attributable to any interest not within his control until after the entry of such order of apportionment.

(6) Any executor, administrator, or other fiduciary who shall have the duty under this act of collecting the apportioned tax from persons interested in the estate, may be relieved of such duty to collect the tax or to attempt to collect the same if the county judge enters an order, after notice and hearing as provided in subsection (5), on a petition filed by such fiduciary finding one or more of the following:

(a) That the estimated court costs and attorney fees in collecting the apportioned tax from a person interested in the estate will approximate the amount of the recovery.

(b) That the person interested in the estate is a resident of a foreign country other than Canada and refuses to pay the apportioned tax on demand.

(c) That it is impracticable to enforce contribution of the apportioned tax against any person interested in the estate in view of the improbability of obtaining a judgment or the improbability of collection under any judgment that might be obtained, or otherwise.

Provided, that in no event shall the fiduciary be liable for failure to attempt to enforce such collection if such attempt would in fact have been economically impracticable; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall limit the right of any person who shall have been charged with more than the amount of the tax apportionable to him to obtain contribution from those who shall not have paid the full amount of the tax apportionable to them, respectively, which right is hereby expressly conferred.

In the event the fiduciary obtains an order as hereinabove contemplated, the share of tax to which it refers shall be paid from assets of the probate or intestate estate in the order provided by §734.05. Any apportioned tax which is not collected shall also be paid from such assets in such order.

(7) This section shall apply:

(a) To estates of decedents dying after the effective date hereof;

(b) To estates of decedents dying after May 13, 1957, provided such decedent had by will directed apportionment of taxes to nonprobate assets consistent with the provisions hereof, and, provided, further, either that the taxes on such estate had been charged and paid consistent with such provision, or that such estate is still in the process of administration and the estate tax has not been finally determined and paid.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 25435, 1949; §1, ch. 57-87; §1, ch. 57-1976; §1, ch. 63-106.

cf.—§198.26 No discharge of executor until tax is paid.

§731.34 Dower in realty and personalty.

734.05 Order in which assets are appropriated.—

(1) If a testator makes provision by his will or designates the funds or property to be used for the payment of debts, estate and inheritance taxes, family allowance, charges and expenses of administration and legacies, the same shall be paid out of the funds, or from the property or proceeds thereof, as provided or designated by the will so far as sufficient. If no provision is made nor any fund designated, or if it is insufficient, the property of the estate shall be used for such purposes and to raise the shares of pretermitted spouse and children in the following order:

(a) Property not disposed of by the will.

(b) Property devised or bequeathed to the residuary legatee or legatees.

(c) Property not specifically bequeathed or devised.

(d) Property specifically bequeathed or devised.

(2) No priority shall exist as between real and personal property.

History.—§162, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(130); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945; (1) by §24, ch. 57-1.

cf.—§733.20, Order of payment of claims.

734.06 Abatement and contribution.—When ever the assets of a testate estate are insufficient for the full payment of debts, estate and inheritance taxes, family allowance, charges and expenses of administration, devises and legacies and when the will directs or discloses an intention as to the order of abatement, effect shall be given to such directions or intentions. Unless such directions are given or such intention appears, residuary legacies and devises shall first abate; general legacies and devises shall next abate, and specific and demonstrative legacies and devises shall abate last. Demonstrative legacies shall be classed as general legacies, upon the failure or insufficiency of fund or property out of which payment should be made, to the extent of such insufficiency. Legacies or devises to the decedent's widow given in satisfaction of or in lieu of her dower or statutory rights in the estate shall not abate until other legacies and devises of the same class are exhausted. Legacies and devises given for a valuable consideration shall abate with other legacies of the same class only to the extent of the excess thereof over the amount of value of the consideration until all others of the same class are exhausted. Except as herein provided, legacies and devises shall abate equally and ratably and without preference or priority as between real and personal property. When property, real or personal, which has been specifically devised or bequeathed or charged with a legacy is sold or taken by the personal representative, other legatees or devisees shall contribute according to their respective interests to the legatee or devisee whose legacy or devise has been sold or taken, and the county judge shall, before distribution, determine the amounts of the respective contributions, and the same shall be paid or withheld before distribution is made.

History.—§163, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(181); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§733.01, Possession of estate of decedent.

734.07 Advancements.—When any person has received any advancements from an intestate in his lifetime and any of the next of kin, by petition, alleges that such advancement has been made, the same shall be determined by the county judge upon hearing after citation or notice to the personal representative and other persons interested and, unless the person to whom such advancement was made or those claiming through him renounce his or their interest in the estate, such advancement as of the value at the time made, without interest, shall be taken into account in determining the distribution of the estate and charged against the person to whom such advancement was made or those claiming through him. No personal representative shall be held responsible for having made distribution before such a petition has been filed and citation served upon or notice given to him. The statute of limitations shall not apply to advancements.

History.—§164, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(132); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.08 Exempt estates.—If at any time during the course of administration it is made to appear to the county judge by petition that the estate consists of no more than the homestead and exempt personal property of the decedent, or in the event the allegations of said petition are denied by trial of the issues made, he may thereupon direct and order the distribution of said estate among the persons entitled to receive the same, and upon said distribution, may thereupon enter his order relieving, releasing and discharging the personal representative.

History.—§164, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541 (132); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§731.27, Homesteads.

§731.34, Dower.

§§735.01-735.051, When administration unnecessary.

734.09 Resignation of personal representative.—Any personal representative may, upon petition to and with the approval of the county judge of the county where letters were granted, resign and be relieved of his office; provided, that notice is given to all interested persons of the filing of said petition; and provided, further, that before making an order relieving the personal representative from the duties and obligations as such the county judge shall require him to make and file a true and correct account of his administration and to pay over and deliver to his successor or to his coexecutor or coadministrator or both, as the case may be, any and all of the property of the deceased and all books of account, bonds, notes or other securities, documents, papers or other property of or concerning the estate, together with all the sums of money due the estate by him; and provided, always, that the acceptance of such resignation shall not be construed to exonerate any personal representative or his sureties from any liabilities previously incurred. The county judge, before making such order, shall be satisfied that the interest of the estate will not be placed in jeopardy by such action.

History.—§166, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(44); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.10 Appointment of successor upon resignation.—When there is no coexecutor or coadministrator, a successor must be appointed and duly qualified before a personal representative shall be relieved of his duties and obligations as provided in §734.09.

History.—§167, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(45); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.11 Causes of removal of personal representative.—Any personal representative may be removed and his letters revoked for any of the following causes, and such removal shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other penalties prescribed by law:

(1) Insanity.

(2) Habitual drunkenness or continued sickness rendering him incapable of the discharge of his duties.

(3) Failure to comply with any order of the county judge, unless such order has been superseded on appeal.

(4) Failure to return schedules of property sold or accounts of sales of property, real or personal, or to produce and exhibit the assets of the estate when so required.

(5) The wasting, embezzlement or other maladministration of the estate.

(6) Failure to give bond or security for any purpose, when so required by the county judge in accordance with the requirements of law.

(7) Conviction of a felony.

(8) Failure of the resident personal representative removing from the state to designate a resident agent or representative with his residence and post-office address.

(9) The appointment of a receiver or liquidator for any corporate executor or administrator.

(10) Conflicting or adverse interest held by the personal representative against the estate, but this shall not apply to the widow because of electing to take dower or claiming family allowance or exemptions.

History.—§168, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(46); §4, ch. 22783, 1945; sub. §(10), comp. §1, ch. 29716, 1955.

cf.—§732.45-732.49, Who may be appointed personal representative.

734.12 Jurisdiction in removal proceedings.—Petition for removal must be made to the court from which the letters were issued.

History.—§169, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(47); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.01, Jurisdiction generally.

734.13 Proceedings for removal.—Proceedings for removal may be instituted by the county judge of his own motion or by any creditor, legatee, devisee, heir, distributee, coexecutor, coadministrator or by any surety upon the bond of the personal representative. Such notice shall be given to the personal representative as the county judge may direct.

History.—§170, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(48); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.14 Administration following removal.—

When a personal representative is removed for any cause and there is a remaining executor or administrator, no other executor or administrator shall be appointed; but such remaining executor or administrator shall complete the administration of the estate. If the executor or administrator so removed is a sole executor or administrator, the county judge shall appoint an administrator cum testamento annexo de bonis non, or an administrator de bonis non, as the case may require, in which event a bond shall be required as in the case of an original administration, the condition of the bond being modified to suit the nature of the case.

History.—§171, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(49); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.15 Accounting upon removal.—A removed personal representative shall file a true, perfect and final account of his administration in the court of the county judge within twenty days after his removal.

History.—§172, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(50); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.
cf.—§733.43, Annual returns.

734.16 Surrender of assets upon removal.—

The remaining executor or administrator with the will annexed of the property not administered or the administrator of the property not administered shall demand of the removed executor or administrator or of his heirs, personal representatives or sureties, all of the property of the deceased and all books of account, bonds, notes or other securities, documents, papers or other property of or concerning the estate, together with all the sums of money due the estate by him. The removed personal representative, his heirs, personal representatives or sureties shall turn over to his successor all said property, upon qualification of his successor and upon demand made as aforesaid.

History.—§173, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(51); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.17 Proceedings for commitment.—If a removed executor or administrator fails or refuses to file a true, perfect and final account of his administration as required, or fails to turn over to his successor all the goods, property and effects of the deceased, and all books of accounts, bonds, notes or other securities or documents and papers that are in his control and which concern the estate, upon demand, or fails to pay over to such new administrator, or remaining executor or administrator all the sums of money due the estate by him, the county judge, in any event, shall issue an order addressed to such personal representative, directing a compliance with the laws in the respects mentioned, or any of them, as the case may be, within ten days after service of a copy of the order. In case of failure or neglect of the removed personal representative to comply with this order within the time required, the judge may—and when such default is not attributable to a cause which is justifiable, he shall—commit such removed personal representative until he complies fully with the requirements of the law in the respects indicated. If sufficient cause is shown for the default, the judge shall then indicate a reasonable time in which a compliance with the law shall be required; and upon failure of the removed personal representative to comply with this or any subsequent like order, the judge may commit the party in default until he does comply.

History.—§174, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(52); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.18 Commitment proceedings; by whom instituted.—

Proceedings for the commitment of such defaulting personal representative may be instituted by the county judge sua sponte or by any creditor, legatee, devisee, heir or distributee, or by the sureties of any of them; or, in the case of a sole personal representative, such proceedings may be instituted by his successor in office as well as the parties above named. In cases where there is more than one personal representative such proceedings may be instituted by the one remaining in office, or, if more than one remain in office, then by any or all remaining.

History.—§175, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(53); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.19 Order on proceedings for commitment.

If proceedings for commitment are instituted by the county judge sua sponte, the order so entered, addressed to such personal representative, directing compliance with the law, shall be sufficient of itself. If proceedings are instituted by a person or persons other than the county judge, they shall be by written petition filed with the county judge, stating the facts upon which the proceedings are based and shall be sworn to by the person so proceeding. Upon the filing of such petition under oath, the county judge shall, if he deems the facts stated sufficient, issue his said order and proceed in accordance with the provisions of this law.

History.—§176, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(54); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.20 Proceedings on bond of removed personal representatives.

In all cases where a personal representative is removed and he is in default for thirty days, either in the delivery of any portion of the estate or in the payment of the balances due to the new personal representative or the remaining personal representative, the bond of such removed personal representative shall be put in suit. In all cases where there is no bond, the new personal representative or the remaining personal representative shall institute an action for the recovery of the money due or of the value of the property retained, or both, as the case may be. In either of the cases stated, an attachment may issue against the property of the removed personal representative upon the affidavit of the new or remaining personal representative, his agent or his attorney, that the removed personal representative is in default for thirty days in delivering any portion of the estate, specifying what portion and its value, or in the payment of the balance due, specifying the amount. When this attachment is issued, bond shall be given as in other cases of attachment.

History.—§177, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(55); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.21 Survival of action upon resignation or removal.—All cases pending before any court in favor of or against two or more personal rep-representatives, if one or more is removed, resigns or dies, shall survive to or against the remaining personal representative, if any, and if there is none, then to or against the successor or successors of such personal representatives; but no remaining or successor personal representative shall be liable for any default on the part of any predecessor nor for any amount beyond the value of the property or assets coming into the hands of the remaining or successor personal representative.

History.—§178, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(56); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.22 Final settlement and discharge.—When a personal representative has completed the administration and nothing remains to be done except to make distribution, he shall file his final report and make application for discharge. After filing a report of his accounts as aforesaid and his application for discharge, the personal representative shall then publish a notice once a week for four consecutive weeks, four publications being sufficient, notifying all persons of the filing of his report and of his application for discharge. After filing the proof of publication, if no objection is filed and if it appears to the county judge that said applicant has faithfully administered the estate, he shall be entitled to an order approving his accounts and shall be directed to make distribution. No distribution of estate assets to a testamentary trustee shall be authorized until proof of qualification of the trustee under the law of the state wherein the testamentary trust is to be administered has been obtained and filed unless it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the county judge that there is no trust qualification law in existence in the state wherein the testamentary trust is to be administered. If objection is filed, trial shall be had as provided in this law for the trial of objections to annual returns. Said personal representative may retain from the funds in his hands before making distribution a sufficient amount to pay the expenses accrued since the filing of his final report and his application for discharge.

It shall not be necessary to file an annual accounting, a final accounting, nor to advertise notice of the filing of final accounting, petition for distribution and discharge when there is a single heir or beneficiary of an estate or where all of the heirs or beneficiaries are sui juris and such heir or heirs consent thereto in writing. When the interest of a minor heir or beneficiary does not exceed the amount authorized by Florida law to be received by his natural guardian, such natural guardian may execute a valid written consent to the foregoing for and on behalf of such minor heir or beneficiary. The county judge in his discretion may require the filing of an annual or final accounting and the advertisement of notice thereof and of petition for distribution and discharge, notwithstanding the waivers aforesaid.

History.—§179, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(126); §4, ch. 22783, 1945; §2, ch. 29716, 1955; §1, ch. 63-262.

734.23 Effect of discharge.—Upon the filing of evidence satisfactory to the county judge that distribution has been made as ordered, the county judge shall enter an order of discharge. Such discharge so obtained shall operate as a release from the duties of personal representative of the estate and as a bar to any suit against said personal representative as such, or as an individual or corporation, and his surety or sureties, unless such suit is commenced within one year from the date of the discharge.

History.—§180, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(57); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 57-124.

734.24 Suit upon bond.—Any bond given by a personal representative or a curator, upon the breach thereof may be put in suit and prosecuted from time to time by the party damaged, in the name of the governor of the state for the use of the party damaged, until the whole penalty of said bond is recovered. The county judge shall deliver to any person on request and on payment of his legal fees for the same, a true copy of any bond given by any personal representative or curator, and such copy certified by said judge, with the seal of the court annexed, shall be prima facie proof of the bond.

History.—§181, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(58); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.25 Determination of beneficiaries.—

(1) Whenever property passes by the laws of descent and distribution or under a will to a person not sufficiently identified in such will, and the personal representative is in doubt as to who is entitled to receive said property, or any part thereof, or if he is in doubt as to shares and amounts which any person is entitled to receive, such personal representative may file with the county judge of the court out of which his letters were issued, his sworn petition setting forth the names, residences and post-office addresses, so far as known or ascertainable by diligent search and inquiry, of all persons in interest, except creditors of the decedent or the estate, and the nature and character of their respective interests and claims so far as known, designating those who are believed by him to be minors or non compos mentis, and stating whether those so designated are under legal guardianship in this state. If the personal representative believes that there are or may be persons who have claims against or interest in such estate as next of kin, distributees, legatees or beneficiaries whose names are not known to him, the petition shall so state.

(2) Upon the filing of such petition, the county judge shall appoint a guardian or guardians ad litem if necessary and shall issue a citation to all claimants and persons in interest whose names are set forth in said petition.

(3) If said petition sets forth that there are or may be persons whose names are not known who have claims against or interests in such estate, citation shall be published, directed to all persons claiming any beneficial interest in the estate of such decedent. Such publication of citation may also include all persons whose names are known and set forth in said petition but who cannot be personally served.

(4) After a hearing upon such petition and defenses thereto and upon such testimony and evidence as may be produced before the court. the county judge shall make and enter an order finding and adjudging who are entitled to such property and the shares and amounts which they, respectively, are entitled to receive. Any personal representative who makes distribution or takes any other action pursuant to such an order shall be fully protected thereby.

(5) Whenever it is necessary to determine who are or were the heirs, legatees or devisees of a deceased person, on the petition of any interested party or like proceedings, the county judge may make a determination thereof, irrespective of whether the estate of such deceased person is administered, or if administered whether the administration of the estate has been closed or the personal representative discharged.

History.—§182, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(134); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.26 Subsequent administration.—The final settlement of an estate and the discharge of the personal representative shall not prevent a revocation of the order of discharge or the subsequent issuance of letters testamentary or of administration if other property of the estate is discovered or if it becomes necessary or proper for any cause that further administration of the estate be had.

History.—§183, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(144); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.27 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of personal representative.—If a person entitled to bring an action dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof and the cause of action survives, the action may be commenced by his personal representative after such expiration and within twelve months from the granting of letters.

History.—§184, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(135); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.28 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of claimants.—If a person against whom a cause of action exists dies before the expiration of the time limited for commencement thereof and the cause of action survives, claim shall be filed thereon and like proceedings had as in the case of other claims against the estate.

History.—§185, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(136); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.29 Limitations against unadministered estates.—

(1) After three years from the death of any person his estate shall not be liable for any obligation or upon any cause of action if no letters testamentary or of administration with respect thereto have been taken out in Florida within said three years, or if such letters have been taken out but neither proof of publication of notice to creditors, nor the claim of any creditor has been filed in the office of the county judge within said period; provided, however, that the lien of any duly recorded mortgage and the lien of any person in possession of any personal property of the decedent, and the right to foreclose and enforce the same with respect to the property encumbered thereby, shall not be impaired by said limitation.

(2) Where a nonresident decedent leaves property in this state, the domiciliary personal representative of his estate, in order to determine the question of claims in Florida before the expiration of said three year period, may file in the office of the county judge of the county where any such property may be situated a duly certified or exemplified transcript of so much of the domiciliary proceedings as will show:

(a) In a testate estate, the probated will and all probated codicils of the decedent and the order admitting same to record, the letters testamentary or the equivalent thereof, and such portion of the record as will show the names of the legatees, devisees and heirs of the decedent, or an affidavit of the domiciliary representative reciting that said names are not shown or fully disclosed by the domiciliary record and specifying the same.

Upon petition and presentation of such transcript and any supporting affidavit of the domiciliary representative, the county judge shall make and enter an order admitting the said will and codicils, if any, to probate and record if he finds that the same complies with the laws of Florida so as to entitle them to probate in this state, and said transcript shall be recorded.

(b) In an intestate estate, the certified letters of administration or the equivalent thereof, shall be included in the transcript of domiciliary proceedings, together with such portions of the record as will show the names of the heirs of the decedent, which names in case of necessity may be supplied by affidavit of the domiciliary representative as provided in paragraph (a) hereof. Upon petition and presentation of such transcript and any supporting affidavit of the domiciliary representative, the county judge shall cause the same to be filed and recorded.

(3) After complying with the foregoing requirements, with respect to any testate or intestate estate, as the case may be, the domiciliary representative may cause a notice to be published once a week for four consecutive weeks, four publications being sufficient, in a newspaper published in said county, notifying all persons having claims or demands against the estate of such decedent to file same in the office of the county judge within six calendar months from the date of the first publication of said notice.

(4) Any claims against said estate must be filed in the form and manner prescribed by law with respect to the regular administration of estates in Florida. If any claim is filed within the period of six months aforesaid, the county judge shall, upon application of any claimant or other person interested in the estate and after ten days written notice by registered mail to the domiciliary representative at his address as shown by the records, appoint an administrator for the estate according to law. If no claim is filed within said period of six months, the property of the decedent in this state shall not be liable for any obligation of said decedent or upon any cause of action against the decedent other than duly recorded mortgages and liens, and claims of persons in possession of property of the decedent as pledgees, lienors or purchasers.

(5) If no claims are filed against the estate, within six months as herein limited, the county judge shall enter an order adjudging that notice to creditors has been duly published, filed and recorded and that no claims have been filed against the estate.

History.—§186, ch. 16103, 1933; §1, ch. 19552, 1939; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(137); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945; §14, ch. 22847, 1945; §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §1, ch. 25031, 1949; (3)-(5) a. by §5, ch. 61-394.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

734.30 Foreign personal representatives.—

(1) Personal representatives who produce probate of wills or letters of administration duly obtained in any of the states or territories in the United States and authenticated under the act of congress of May 26, 1790, shall be authorized to maintain actions in the several courts of this state under the same rules and regulations as other plaintiffs.

(2) Personal representatives appointed in any state or country may be sued in this state with reference to property, real or personal, in this state, and may defend any suit, action or proceeding in any court of this state.

(3) Debtors who have received no written demand for payment from a personal representative or curator appointed in this state, within three months after the appointment of a personal representative in any state or country other than this state, and whose property in Florida is subject to a mortgage or other lien securing such debt held by such foreign personal representative may make payment to the foreign personal representative after the expiration of three months from the date of his appointment. A proper satisfaction of such mortgage or lien executed and acknowledged by the foreign personal representative after said three months has expired, in the manner and form entitling the same to record in this state, with a duly authenticated copy of the letters or other evidence of authority of such foreign personal representative attached thereto, may be recorded in the public records of this state in like manner as other satisfactions, and when so recorded, shall constitute an effective discharge of any such mortgage or lien, irrespective of whether the debtor making payment had received such written demand before paying the same.

(4) All persons indebted to the estate of a decedent or having possession of personal property, either tangible or intangible, belonging to the estate of a decedent, who have received no written demand from a personal representative or curator appointed in this state, for payment of such indebtedness or the delivery of such property, are authorized to make payment of such indebtedness or to deliver such personal property to the foreign personal representative after the expiration of three months from the date of his appointment.

History.—§187, ch. 16103, 1933; §11, ch. 17171, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(138); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§660.10 Trustees, powers and duties.

734.31 Ancillary administration.—

(1) Upon the death of a nonresident of this state leaving assets in this state, credits due him from residents of this state, or liens upon property in this state, the domiciliary personal representative of such decedent may, upon application, have ancillary letters issued to him, if qualified to act. Otherwise, the preference of appointment prescribed in this law shall be applicable. If ancillary letters are applied for by other than the domiciliary personal representative, citation shall be served upon the domiciliary personal representative.

(2) To entitle such applicant to ancillary letters, there shall be filed with the petition a duly certified copy of so much of the domiciliary proceedings as will show either (a) the will, petition for probate, order admitting the will to probate and letters testamentary, if there are such; or, (b) the petition for letters of administration and letters of administration.

(3) Upon the filing of a certified copy of a probated will, including any probated codicils thereto, and of the parts of the record of the domiciliary proceedings as aforesaid, the county judge may, upon petition therefor being filed, if he finds that the said will and codicils, if any, comply with the laws of this state so as to entitle them to probate, make and enter an order admitting said will and codicils, if any, to probate and record in this state.

(4) The ancillary personal representative shall give like bond as personal representatives generally, and all proceedings for appointment and in the administration of the estate shall be, as nearly as possible, similar to those in original administrations.

(5) After the payment of all expenses of administration and claims against the estate in accordance with this law, the county judge may, upon petition, order the remaining personal property in the hands of the ancillary personal representative to be transferred to the domiciliary personal representative.

(6) Ancillary personal representatives shall have the same rights, powers and authority as other personal representatives in Florida with reference to the management and settlement of the estate, and in addition, may sell, lease or mortgage local property in the manner provided in this law, to raise funds for the payment of debts, claims and legacies in the domiciliary jurisdiction. Provided, however, that no such property shall be sold, leased or mortgaged to pay any debt or claim which is barred by any statute of limitation, or of nonclaim, of this state.

History.—§188, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(145); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945; §1, ch. 22890, 1945.

cf.—§732.26, Effect of prior foreign probate.

§§732.35-732.36, Probate of will after foreign probate.

§732.47, Nonresidents as personal representatives.

734.32 Application for administration upon estates of persons believed to be dead.—Letters of administration on the estate of any person believed to be dead, on account of absence for seven years or more from the place of his last domicile, may be applied for; and if the county judge (of the county in which the estate of such person could be administered were the supposed decedent known to be dead) is satisfied that the applicant would be entitled thereto were such supposed decedent known to be dead, he shall order a notice to be published as provided in this law, giving notice therein that on the day of said application said county judge will hear evidence concerning the alleged absence of the supposed decedent and the circumstances and duration thereof.

History.—§189, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(146); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

cf.—§732.09, Process and service.

§732.23, 732.43. Petition for letters.

734.33 Evidence of presumption.—At the hearing, the county judge shall take such evidence as shall be offered, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the presumption of death is established, and no person shall be disqualified to testify by reason of his relationship as husband or wife to the supposed decedent or of his interest in the estate of the person believed to be dead.

History.—§190, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(147); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.34 Order of presumption.—If satisfied, upon the hearing, that the legal presumption of death is established, the county judge shall so order, and shall forthwith cause notice thereof to be published as provided in this law, and also once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper published at or nearest the place where the supposed decedent was last heard from. The said notice shall require the supposed decedent, if alive, or any person for him, to produce, within three months from the date of its first insertion, satisfactory evidence of his continuance in life.

History.—§191, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(148); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.35 Letters of administration; force and effect.—If, within the said period of three months, evidence satisfactory to the county judge of the continuance of life of the said decedent has not been produced, the county judge shall issue letters to the party entitled thereto; and the said letters, until revoked, and all acts done in pursuance thereof and in reliance thereupon, shall be as valid as if the supposed decedent were dead.

History.—§192, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(149); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.36 Revocation of letters on proof that supposed decedent is alive.—The county judge, upon application of the supposed decedent, shall revoke the said letters at any time, on due and satisfactory proof that the supposed decedent is in fact alive; after which revocation all the powers of the administrator shall cease, but all receipts or disbursements of assets and other acts previously done by the administrator shall remain valid; and the administrator shall settle an account of his administration to the time of such revocation and shall transfer all assets remaining in his hands to the person as whose administrator he had acted, or to his duly authorized agent or attorney; provided, nothing herein contained shall validate the title of any person to any money or property received as widow, next of kin or heir of such supposed decedent, but the same may be recovered from such person in all cases in which said recovery would be had if there had been no such administration.

History.—§193, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(150); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.37 Substitution of supposed decedent in actions.—After revocation of the letters of administration, the person erroneously supposed to be dead may, on suggestion filed of record of the proper fact, be substituted as plaintiff in all actions brought by the administrator, whether prosecuted to judgment or otherwise. He may, in all actions previously brought against his administrator, be substituted as defendant, on proper suggestion filed by himself or by the plaintiff therein, but shall not be compelled to go to trial in less than three months from the time of such suggestion filed. Judgments at law and decrees in equity against the administrator, before revocation, as aforesaid, of the letters, may be opened, on application by the supposed decedent made within three months from the said revocation and supported by affidavit, denying specifically, on the knowledge of the affiant, the cause of action or specifically alleging the existence of facts which would be a valid defense; but, if within the said three months such application is not made, or, if being made, the facts exhibited are adjudged an insufficient defense, the judgment or decree shall be conclusive to all intents, saving the defendant's right to have it reviewed, as in other cases, by appropriate appellate proceedings. After the substitution of the supposed decedent as defendant in any proceeding in which any judgment or decree may be procured as aforesaid, the said judgment or decree shall become a lien with like effect as other judgments.

History.—§194, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(151); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.38 Probate of will of person believed to be dead.—After letters of administration have been granted upon the estate of a person believed to be dead, the person having the custody of any will which may have been left by such person may produce said will in the county judge's court of the county in which the proceedings to establish the presumptive death of the supposed decedent have been held, and proceedings may be had as in the case of other wills.

History.—§195, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(152); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.39 Notice to administrator and other persons.—Upon the filing of such petition, the county judge shall issue a citation to the person to whom letters of administration have been issued, as aforesaid, and to the surviving spouse and next of kin of the decedent, entitled under the laws of descent and distribution to his estate, to appear and show cause why the said alleged will should not be admitted to probate.

History.—§196, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(153); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

734.40 Letters to executor of will of supposed decedent.—Upon the hearing, if it appears that the proposed will was in fact the last will and testament of the supposed decedent, the said will shall be admitted to probate, and said will shall be annexed to the letters of administration theretofore issued; and thereafter the administrator shall execute the said will according to its terms; provided, that nothing herein shall prevent the county judge from revoking the said letters, and in case of such revocation the powers of the personal representative and the rights of the legatees and devisees under said will shall cease, and all receipts and disbursements of assets, and other acts previously done by them shall remain as valid as if the said letters were unrevoked; and provided, further, that legatees and devisees may be called upon at any time by the supposed decedent to account for any property which they may have received, in the same manner as is provided in this law, and the administrator may be called upon to render an accounting as to all assets which have come into his custody or control; and provided, further, that if upon probate of the last will and testament of the decedent it appears that an executor is named in the will, the letters of administration shall be revoked and letters testamentary shall be issued to the executor named in said last will and testament.

History.—§197, ch. 16103, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(154); am. §4, ch. 22783, 1945.

CHAPTER 735

SMALL ESTATES; ADMINISTRATION

- 735.01 Small estates.
- 735.02 May be administered in the same manner as other estates.
- 735.03 Certain administrative steps may be dispensed with.
- 735.04 When administration unnecessary; testate or intestate estates.
- 735.05 Petition for order of administration unnecessary.
- 735.051 Filing of petition.
- 735.06 Hearing by county judge.
- 735.07 Order of administration unnecessary.

735.01 Small estates.—Any testate or intestate estate having a gross value of not more than three thousand dollars, exclusive of the property exempt under the constitution and statutes of the state or any estate of a decedent who has been dead for more than three years, may be administered or not administered as set forth in this chapter; provided that proof satisfactory to the county judge, by affidavit or otherwise, is first produced to show that the estate to be administered comes within said value except where the decedent has been dead for more than three years.

History.—§1, ch. 16992, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(155); §15, ch. 22847, 1945; am. §1, ch. 23716, 1947.

735.02 May be administered in the same manner as other estates.—Such estate may be administered in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as provided by law for the administration of any other estate, or it may be administered as provided in the next section of this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 16992, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(156); §15, ch. 22847, 1945.

735.03 Certain administrative steps may be dispensed with.—

(1) In the administration of such an estate the county judge may in his discretion dispense with any steps and proceedings in the administration of such estate which are merely procedural or administrative and which do not affect the substantial rights of the heirs, devisees, legatees and creditors.

(2) The county judge may dispense with the appointment of appraisers and the filing of a warrant of appraisal and may require the personal representative to give a surety bond or a personal bond without sureties. The county judge may authorize notice to creditors to be published in a newspaper, as elsewhere provided by the probate act, or may authorize the notice to creditors to be published by notices posted at the front door of the courthouse and at two or more public places in the county, to be designated by the county judge. He shall require presentation of claims and demands within six calendar months from the time of such posting. He may also relieve the personal representative from filing annual returns and may require the personal representative to file only final returns. He may also authorize the notice of final dis-

UNNECESSARY IN CERTAIN ESTATES

- 735.08 County judge's discretion to deny petition.
- 735.09 Legal effect of order of administration unnecessary.
- 735.10 Optional publication of notice of entry of order.
- 735.11 Rights and remedies of those affected by order of administration unnecessary.
- 735.12 Will subsequently discovered.
- 735.13 County judge's fees.
- 735.14 Joinder of heirs, etc., in small estates.

charge to be published in a newspaper as elsewhere provided in the probate act, or he may authorize the notice of final discharge to be published by notices posted at the front door of the courthouse and at two or more public places in the county to be designated by the county judge.

(3) The procedural steps which may be eliminated by the county judge as set forth above shall not be construed as exclusive, as it is intended hereby to vest broad powers of discretion in the county judge to the end that he may, in the interest of economy, dispense with any procedural step in the administration of small estates, as defined above, when such step appears to him not to be essential to proper and safe administration and to due process of law. Cases pending on the effective date of this act may be concluded under prior law or under this section.

History.—§2, ch. 16992, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(156); §15, ch. 22847, 1945; (2) §31, ch. 63-572.

735.04 When administration unnecessary; testate or intestate estates.—The county judge may dispense with administration upon the estate of any testate or intestate:

(1) When such testate or intestate died a resident of this state and the entire estate is exempt from the claims of creditors under the constitution and statutes of the state; or,

(2) When such testate or intestate died a resident or nonresident of this State and the estate is not indebted and does not, in the judgment of the county judge, exceed in the aggregate five thousand dollars in value in this State, exclusive of property exempt under the constitution and statutes of the state, and there is a sole heir or surviving spouse, or the surviving spouse, if any, and all the heirs agree upon the distribution of the estate, or in case the decedent died testate and the beneficiaries and the widow, if any, agree upon the distribution of the estate upon the probate of the will; or,

(3) When the decedent, whether he died testate or intestate and whether he died a resident or nonresident of this state, has been dead for more than three years and no letters testamentary or letters of administration have been issued on his estate, and his last will and testament, if any, has not been admitted to probate in this state or elsewhere and there is a sole heir or surviving spouse, or the surviving spouse, if any, and all the heirs agree upon the distribution of the estate, or in case the decedent died testate and the beneficiaries and the widow, if any, agree upon the distribution of the estate upon the probate of the will.

History.—§2, ch. 16992, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(156); §15, ch. 22847, 1945; §2, ch. 23716, 1947.

Am. §1, ch. 25010, 1949.

735.05 Petition for order of administration unnecessary.—

(1) INTESTATE ESTATES.—The petition for an order of administration unnecessary on an intestate estate shall be signed and sworn to by all the heirs who are sui juris and by the surviving spouse of the decedent and by the guardians of heirs not sui juris. The petition shall be filed in the office of the county judge of the county where the decedent resided at the time of his death, and shall set forth the name, residence, date and place of death of the decedent; the names, ages and residences of the heirs and surviving spouse of the decedent and their respective relationships to the decedent; a detailed schedule of all the decedent's property, real and personal, showing the cash value of each item, and a statement of the agreed distribution of same among the petitioners; and if the entire estate is claimed to be exempt under the constitution and statutes of the state, the names and addresses of all known general creditors and judgment creditors of the decedent.

(2) TESTATE ESTATES.—The petition for an order of administration unnecessary on a testate estate may be filed only after the will has been probated, and shall be filed in the same case in which the will was probated. The petition shall be sworn to by the widow and by all the legatees and devisees who are sui juris and by the guardian of any of those who are not sui juris. The petition shall be filed in the office of the county judge of the county where the decedent resided at the time of his death, and shall set forth the same information as that specified in the preceding subsection of this section for petitions relating to intestate estates, except that, in lieu of the names, ages and residences of the heirs and the surviving spouse, the petition shall set forth the names, ages and residences of the legatees, devisees and the widow, if any, of the decedent.

(3) GUARDIAN AS PETITIONER.—If any heir, legatee or devisee of the decedent is not sui juris, the legal guardian of the estate of such incompetent shall be a party to the petition and shall have power to accept such distribution as the county judge may order, in full satisfaction and discharge of the interest of such incompetent in the estate. Natural guardians of a minor are authorized to act for such minor in the same manner as a legal guardian appointed by the county judge, where the interest of the minor in the estate does not exceed the amount authorized by the laws of Florida to be received by a natural guardian.

History.—§4, ch. 16992, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(153); §15, ch. 22847, 1945.

735.051 Filing of petition.—The petition for an order of administration unnecessary may be filed at any stage of the administration of any estate in accordance with the procedure as set forth in §735.05 and an order for administration unnecessary entered in accordance with §735.07 if it appears that at the time of such petition the estate would qualify for such an order of administration unnecessary.

History.—§1, ch. 59-308.

735.06 Hearing by county judge.—Upon the filing of the petition, if it appears that the entire estate of the decedent is claimed to be exempt under the constitution and statutes of the state, the county judge shall promptly notify each known creditor of the decedent, by registered mail, of the entry of his order, and shall make and file a certificate of such mailing.

History.—§3, ch. 16992, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(157); §15, ch. 22847, 1945.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

735.07 Order of administration unnecessary.—

(1) After the hearing the county judge, if fully satisfied that the estate is entitled to the special benefits of this law, that the averments of the petition are true, and that there has been no concealment of material facts, shall make and enter his order that administration of the estate of the decedent is unnecessary. Such order shall contain a finding by the county judge of the true cash value of the estate.

(2) In such order, if the estate is an intestate estate, he shall set forth (a) the names and residences of the heirs and surviving spouse of the decedent who are entitled to have distribution of the estate without administration; (b) what particular properties shall be distributed to each; and, (c) if the entire estate is exempt, of what the estate consists and what debts are known to exist against the estate.

(3) If the estate is a testate estate, the order shall set forth (a) the names and residences of the legatees, devisees and the widow, if any; (b) what particular properties shall be distributed to each; and, (c) if the entire estate is exempt, of what the estate consists and what debts are known to exist against the estate.

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945.

735.08 County judge's discretion to deny petition.—The county judge in his discretion may deny the petition and forthwith appoint an administrator of the intestate estate in any case in which he has doubt as to the truth of the averments of the petition; and in the case of a testate estate, if he has doubt as to the truth of such averments, he may order the executor of the will, or his successor, to proceed with the administration.

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945.

735.09 Legal effect of order of administration unnecessary.—The county judge's order that administration of the estate of the decedent is unnecessary shall have the following effect:

(1) Those to whom specified portions of the decedent's estate may be assigned by the order shall be entitled to receive and collect the same and to have the same transferred to them; they may maintain suits to enforce such rights.

(2) Debtors of the decedent, those holding property of the decedent and those with whom securities or other property of the decedent are registered, are authorized and empowered to comply with such order by paying, delivering and transferring to those specified in the order the respective portions of the decedent's estate assigned to them by the order, and such persons shall not be accountable to anyone else for such property.

(3) From and after the entry of such order, bona fide purchasers for value from those respectively to whom properties of the decedent may be assigned by the order shall take the same free, clear and discharged of all claims and demands of creditors of the decedent and all rights of the widow of the decedent and all other heirs, legatees, devisees and claimants against the estate.

(4) Property of the decedent (not exempt from forced sale under process) remaining in the hands of those to whom it may be assigned by such order shall continue to be liable for the debts of the decedent and for all the other claims whatsoever against the estate of the decedent, if any such claims exist, until barred as herein elsewhere provided.

(5) The petitioners for an order of administration unnecessary shall, if the petition is granted, thereby become personally liable, jointly and severally, for all lawful claims and demands against the estate of the decedent, but only to the aggregate gross value of the estate of the decedent, exclusive of the property exempt from process under the constitution and statutes of Florida.

(6) After three years from the death of the decedent, his estate and those to whom it may be assigned shall not be liable for any obligation or liability of the decedent unless in the meantime proceedings are taken for the enforcement of same.

(7) Claimants against the estate of the decedent, if any, shall thenceforth be limited to the remedies prescribed in §735.11

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945.

735.10 Optional publication of notice of entry of order.—

(1) Those who shall have procured the entry of the order of administration unnecessary, or any one or more of them may, at their election, publish a notice to all persons having claims or demands against the estate of the decedent, that an order of administration unnecessary has been entered by the county judge. Such notice shall specify the total cash value of the estate and the names and addresses of those to whom it has been assigned by such order. Such notice, if published, shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the county wherein such order was entered, and proof of publication of such notice shall be filed with the county judge.

(2) If proof of publication of such notice is duly filed in the office of the county judge, all claims and demands of creditors against the estate of the decedent shall be forever barred unless such claims and demands are duly sworn to and filed in the office of the county judge within six months of the first publication of such notice.

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945; (2), §1, ch. 63-146.

735.11 Rights and remedies of those affected by order of administration unnecessary.—

(1) Any creditor or claimant against the estate of a decedent may by bill in chancery, filed at any time within three years from the death of the decedent, or within six months of the first publication of the notice of entry of the order of administration unnecessary, if same shall have been duly published and proof of publication filed, impress a trust upon all property of the decedent (exclusive of property exempt under the constitution and statutes of Florida and exclusive of the widow's exemption) remaining in the possession of the heirs, legatees, devisees and surviving spouse; require such parties to account for the value of all such property alienated, consumed, spent or donated by them, and have deficiency decrees to the extent of the undischarged liability of such parties, together with legal interest from the date of the filing of suit, and costs.

(2) Such suit or suits may be brought by one or more claimants or creditors; other claimants or creditors may intervene and share ratably in the recovery, and any one directly or indirectly affected by the order of administration unnecessary may also intervene in the proceeding or himself institute suit for his own protection. Any one or more of the petitioners who procured the order of administration unnecessary may be made party defendant. Any such defendant may implead other heirs, legatees or devisees for contribution or exoneration. A receiver may be appointed as a matter of course. It shall be no objection that the bill or other pleading is multifarious. Such suits may be brought only in the county in which the order of administration shall have been entered. If more than one suit is brought, such suits shall be consolidated.

(3) Any heir, legatee or devisee of the decedent who was lawfully entitled to share in the estate but who was excluded by the order of administration unnecessary may enforce his rights against those who procured such order in the manner hereinabove prescribed for creditors and claimants; or he may intervene in the suit of a creditor for the enforcement of his rights, subject, however, to the superior rights of creditors.

(4) In all such cases plaintiffs shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees as an element of costs.

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945; (1) a. by §6, ch. 61-394.

735.12 Will subsequently discovered.—If, after the entry of an order of administration unnecessary on an intestate estate, a will of the decedent is discovered, proceedings may be had in accordance with §732.33. But in such cases, those who have procured the entry of the order of administration unnecessary shall be accountable, jointly and severally, not only for the property of the decedent remaining in their hands but also for the proceeds of that which they have alienated and for the value of that which they have consumed, spent or donated.

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945.

735.13 County judge's fees.—The county judge shall receive a fee of seven dollars and fifty cents for all proceedings to and including the entry of an order of administration unnecessary, and fifty cents for each notice given by registered mail, and such fees as are allowed in probate proceedings for any other subsequent services.

History.—§15, ch. 22847, 1945

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

735.14 Joinder of heirs, etc., in small estates.

—That whenever any heir, devisee, legatee, widow or surviving spouse is authorized or required under chapter 735, to join in any agreement or petition and any such person shall have died or shall have become incompetent or shall be a minor or shall have conveyed or transferred all of his or her interest in the property of the estate, then the heirs, devisees, legatees and surviving spouse, if any, and the executor or administrator, if any, of the estate of any such deceased person or the guardian of any such incompetent or minor or the grantee or transferee of any such person, as the case may be, shall be authorized to join in such agreement or petition in lieu of any such heir, devisee, legatee, widow or surviving spouse.

History.—§1, ch. 23872, 1947.

CHAPTER 736

MISCELLANEOUS PROBATE AND SIMILAR PROVISIONS

- 736.01 Receipts for debts due minors; effect.
- 736.02 Compulsory settlement by persons holding interests of minors.
- 736.03 Enforcement of order for compulsory settlement.
- 736.04 Mortgaging property of certain estates for the purpose of paying existing mortgages and liens.
- 736.041 Presumption of order of death.
- 736.05 Uniform simultaneous death law.
- 736.06 Foreign wills; record and effect after three years from death of testator.
- 736.07 Effect of chapter 22783, acts 1945.
- 736.08 Eyes; donation for eyesight restoration.

736.01 Receipts for debts due minors; effect.—If any executor, administrator or trustee receives and gives discharges for debts, rents, dues or sums of money belonging to any orphan or minor, for whom the said executor, administrator or trustee is acting, all such discharges and receipts shall be binding upon the orphan or minor and his heirs, when he shall come to full age, and shall be effectual in law to discharge the person taking the same. But nothing herein contained shall discharge the executor, administrator or trustee from accounting to the orphan or minor where such receipt or discharge has not been legally given, or has been given for a fraudulent purpose.

History.—§40, Nov. 20, 1828; RS 1869; GS 2355; RGS 3678; CGL 5542; am. §5, ch. 22783, 1945.

736.02 Compulsory settlement by persons holding interests of minors.—The county judge may award process to cause to come before him every person who as executor or administrator, tutor, trustee or otherwise is or may be concerned and entrusted or in anywise accountable for any estate, real or personal, belonging to any orphan or minor, to cause him to make within a reasonable time true and perfect inventories of said estate and to render just and true accounts of the same.

History.—§37, Nov. 20, 1828; RS 1879; GS 2371; RGS 3693; CGL 5558; am. §5, ch. 22783, 1945.

736.03 Enforcement of order for compulsory settlement.—If any person directed neglects to account to said court, the court shall immediately issue an attachment against such person, to be executed by the sheriff of the county where such person lives, which sheriff shall, together with his return, produce the delinquent who shall pay all the costs of the attachment; and said person shall stand committed for contempt until he makes such account.

History.—§1880 RS 1892; GS 2372; RGS 3694; CGL 5559; am. §5, ch. 22783, 1945.

736.04 Mortgaging property of certain estates for the purpose of paying existing mortgages and liens.—In estates of decedents in the process of administration on June 10, 1935, who died prior to October 1, 1933, leaving real estate encumbered by mortgage, lien or taxes, when it is made to appear to the county judge having charge of the administration of such

- 736.09 Eye bank; establishment and maintenance.
- 736.10 Donee of eyes may be designated.
- 736.11 Written statement required to effect donation.
- 736.12 More than one person signing written statement.
- 736.13 Donation of eyes by will.
- 736.14 Authority for use of eyes.
- 736.15 Cost to donee for eyes.
- 736.16 Registration of persons in need of eyesight restoration.
- 736.17 Bequests and devises to trustee.
- 736.18 Donation or bequest of parts of body.

estate, at any time before the final settlement of such estate, that it is expedient or necessary and for the best interests of the estate to borrow money upon a mortgage upon the real estate belonging to the estate or any part thereof, in order to pay off and discharge such mortgages or liens upon the real estate of the deceased, the county judge may by order authorize the personal representative to borrow such sum as the judge shall deem proper or necessary for such purpose and to execute such mortgage as may be necessary to secure the same. Such mortgage, when so executed by such authority, shall be effective in law to bind the real estate described therein as effectually as the same was bound by the mortgage or lien which is discharged and paid off by such loan, with the same rights, equities and priorities as existed in favor of the debts and liens so discharged.

History.—§1, ch. 17105, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 5541(114A); am. §5, ch. 22783, 1945.

736.041 Presumption of order of death.—When there is no sufficient evidence of the order in which the deaths of two or more persons occurred, no one of such persons shall be presumed to have died first; provided, however, that where the title to property or the devolution thereof depends upon priority of death and there is no sufficient evidence of the order in which the deaths of such persons occurred, the provisions of §736.05 shall control.

History.—§2, ch. 63-183.

736.05 Uniform simultaneous death law.—(1) NO SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE OF SURVIVORSHIP.—Where the title to property or the devolution thereof depends upon priority of death and there is no sufficient evidence that the persons have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property of each person shall be disposed of as if he had survived, except as provided otherwise in this law.

(2) BENEFICIARIES OF ANOTHER PERSON'S DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.—Where two or more beneficiaries are designated to take successively by reason of survivorship under another person's disposition of property and there is no sufficient evidence that these beneficiaries have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property thus disposed of shall be divided into as many equal portions as there are successive beneficiaries, and these portions shall be distributed respectively to those who would have taken in the event that each designated beneficiary had survived.

(3) JOINT TENANTS OR TENANTS BY THE ENTIRETY.—Where there is no sufficient evidence that two joint tenants or tenants by the entirety have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property so held shall be distributed one-half as if one had survived and one-half as if the other had survived. If there are more than two joint tenants and all of them have so died, the property thus distributed shall be in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of joint tenants.

(4) INSURANCE POLICIES.—Where the insured and the beneficiary in a policy of life or accident insurance have died and there is no sufficient evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, the proceeds of the policy shall be distributed as if the insured had survived the beneficiary.

(5) NOT RETROACTIVE.—This law shall not apply to the distribution of the property of a person who has died before June 12, 1941.

(6) DOES NOT APPLY IF DECEDENT PROVIDES OTHERWISE.—This law shall not apply in the case of wills, living trusts, deeds or contracts of insurance wherein provision has been made for distribution of property different from the provisions of this law.

(7) UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION.—This law shall be so construed and interpreted as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law in those states which enact it.

(8) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the uniform simultaneous death law.

History.—§§1-8, ch. 20884, 1941; am. §5, ch. 22783, 1945.

736.06 Foreign wills; record and effect after three years from death of testator.—

(1) A duly authenticated copy of any will, including any codicils thereto, of a nonresident, which devises real property in this state, or any right, title or interest therein, and which conforms to the laws of this state as to form and manner of execution, when duly proved and admitted to probate in the proper court of any other state, territory or country, when accompanied by a duly authenticated copy of the petition for probate and order admitting it to probate, may be admitted to record in the office of the county judge of any county of this state in which such real property is situated, at any time after three years from the death of the testator or at any time after the domiciliary personal representative has been discharged, when there has been no probate of such will in this state. Provided, however, if in the jurisdiction where the will of the nonresident was probated no petition is required as a prerequisite to the probate of a will, upon proof by affidavit or certificate of the judge of said court that no such petition is required in such jurisdiction, a duly authenticated copy of any such will, when accompanied by a duly authenticated copy of the order admitting it to probate, may be admitted to record, as herein provided, without being accompanied by duly authenticated copy of petition for probate, and the order of court admitting such will to record in Florida shall recite that in the state of original probate no petition was required.

(2) The said duly authenticated copies of will, codicil and order admitting to probate, may be admitted to record by the county judge upon the petition of any person. If the court finds that the will and any codicils thereto conform to the laws of this state as to form and manner of execution and that the said copies are duly authenticated, he shall, by short order, admit the same to record.

(3) All orders heretofore made for the record of such wills and codicils and all proceedings had under §736.06 unaccompanied by an authenticated copy of the petition for probate are hereby validated and such wills and codicils shall be as valid and effectual to pass title to the real property therein described or referred to as if said wills and codicils had been accompanied by an authenticated copy of the petition for probate.

(4) When so admitted to record, such will and any codicils thereto, and all such as may have heretofore been recorded in the office of the county judge, whether admitted by order of the county judge or not, shall be as valid and effectual to pass title to real property, and any right, title or interest therein, as if such will had been duly proved and admitted to probate in the proper court in this state.

(5) The record of such copy, or a duly certified transcript thereof shall be presumptive evidence of the authority of any person authorized by such will, or any codicil thereto, to convey or otherwise dispose of any such real property or any right, title or interest therein.

History.—§1, ch. 22884, 1945; am. §1, ch. 24341, 1947.

736.07 Effect of chapter 22783, acts 1945.—

Laws passed at the regular session of the legislature of 1945 shall not be repealed or affected by chapter 22783, acts of 1945 (revision of chapters 731, 732, 733, 734 and 736) but shall have full effect as if passed after the enactment of said chapter.

History.—§6, ch. 22783, 1945.

736.08 Eyes; donation for eyesight restoration.—Persons desiring to donate and give their eyes for eyesight restoration purposes may do so by a written instrument declaring such gift, or by their last will and testament, as in §736.11 provided.

History.—§1, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.09 Eye bank; establishment and maintenance.—Any state, county, district, or other public hospital may purchase and provide the necessary facilities and equipment to establish and maintain an eye bank for restoration of sight purposes.

History.—§2, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.10 Donee of eyes may be designated.—Persons so donating and bequeathing their eyes for eyesight restoration purposes may designate the donee, but such shall not be necessary. If no donee is named by the donor in such written instrument or last will and testament, then any hospital in which the donor may depart this life, or any available physician or surgeon shall be considered the donee and have full authority to take and remove the eyes of the donor upon his death, and thereafter to use such donated eyes for restoration of sight of the person designated by the donor, or if such donee be not available, or no donee named by the donor, then the use of such eyes for said restoration of eyesight purposes shall be made available to any person in need thereof. No consent shall be required of the personal representative or heirs of the deceased nor shall any physician, hospital or institution have any liability for the removal of any eyes so donated by any subsequent invalidation by any court of the written instrument declaring such gift, or any last will and testament.

History.—§3, ch. 23805, 1947; §1, ch. 61-346.

736.11 Written statement required to effect donation.—No particular form or words shall be necessary or required but any such written statement or last will and testament or codicil shall be liberally construed to effectuate the intent and purpose of the persons wishing to donate and bequeath their eyes for eyesight restoration purposes.

The following shall be held and considered sufficient and legal for any person to give and donate their eyes for eyesight restoration purposes, to wit:

"DONATION OF EYES FOR EYESIGHT RESTORATION PURPOSES

I, the undersigned, desiring that my eyes may be made available upon death for eyesight restoration purposes, do hereby give and donate my eyes for said purpose to _____,

Name

_____,
Address Telephone Number
if living, and if not, then my eyes may be used for such purpose by any person.

I hereby authorize any physician, surgeon, or hospital to remove and use my eyes for said purpose.

_____,
Name

_____,
Address Telephone Number
Such written statement need not be witnessed or acknowledged and the said donor may execute more than one copy thereof.

History.—§4, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.12 More than one person signing written statement.—Such written statement so donating and giving eyes for eyesight restoration purposes may be signed by more than one person. Hospitals and other institutions and organizations are hereby authorized to prepare and have made available such written statements in the form of an eye bank register for persons desiring to give and donate their eyes for such purpose.

History.—§5, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.13 Donation of eyes by will.—Persons may by their last will and testament or codicil bequeath their eyes for eyesight restoration purposes and any such provision in any last will and testament or codicil, but no other, shall become effective immediately upon death of the testator.

History.—§6, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.14 Authority for use of eyes.—The authority for any hospital, physician or surgeon to so remove, and thereafter use the eyes of any person so donating or bequeathing their eyes shall be such written statement or last will and testament or codicil.

History.—§7, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.15 Cost to donee for eyes.—No charge or cost whatsoever shall be made to the donee for such eyes to be so used for eyesight restoration purposes, provided that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the payment of a reasonable fee to any physician or surgeon for performing an operation whereby the donee of such eyes has his or her eyesight restored.

History.—§8, ch. 23805, 1947.

736.16 Registration of persons in need of eyesight restoration.—The Florida council for the blind is hereby authorized to help and assist in the execution and furtherance of the purposes of §§736.08-736.16, and may provide for the registration of persons in need of having their eyesight restored.

The Florida council for the blind may have prepared, printed, and thereafter distributed:

- (1) Said written statement,
- (2) Said eye bank register, and
- (3) Wallet cards reciting such written statement.

History.—§9, ch. 23805, 1947.
cf.—§413.011, Creating Florida council for the blind.

736.17 Bequests and devises to trustee.—

(1) An otherwise valid bequest or devise may be made to the trustee of a trust which is evidenced by a written instrument in existence at the time of the making of the will or by a written instrument subscribed concurrently with the making of the will, provided that such written instrument is identified in the will.

(2) Such devise or bequest shall not be invalid for any or all of the following reasons:

(a) Because the trust is amendable or revocable or both by any person whomsoever; or

(b) Because the trust has been amended or revoked in part after execution of the will or codicil thereto; or

(c) Because the trust instrument or any amendment thereto was not executed in the manner required for wills; or

(d) Because the possible expectancy of receiving benefits as named beneficiary of a life insurance policy deposited, or to be deposited with the trustee is the only trust res, and even though the testator or other person has reserved any or all rights of ownership in such insurance contracts, including the right to change the beneficiary.

(3) Such devise or bequest shall operate to dispose of property under the terms of the instrument which created the trust as theretofore or thereafter amended.

(4) An entire revocation of the trust by an instrument in writing prior to the testator's death shall invalidate the devise or bequest.

(5) Unless the will provides otherwise, the property so devised or bequeathed shall not be deemed held under a testamentary trust of the testator and thus shall not be subject to the terms of chapter 737, Florida trust accounting law, but shall become a part of the principal of the trust to which it is devised or bequeathed.

(6) This section shall not be construed as repealing or amendatory of, but as cumulative to, all laws touching upon the subject matter hereof and now in force and effect.

(7) This act shall take effect immediately upon the date the same becomes law and shall be applicable to wills executed before and after said date by persons who are living on or after said date.

History.—§1, ch. 59-57; §§2, 3, ch. 61-427.

Note: §1, ch. 61-427 repeals this section and §2 reenacts the same section.

736.18 Donation or bequest of parts of body.—

(1) Any person may donate or bequeath to another person any part of his body for grafting or transplantation by written instrument or by his last will and testament, and may further by such written instrument or his last will and testament donate and give his body or any part thereof for experimentation and scientific research purposes.

(2) Any state, county or district hospital or medical school may use and expend public moneys, donations and devises for the necessary facilities and equipment to establish and maintain banks and repositories for any part of the human body and also for experimentation and scientific research. Donations and devises may also be made for the same purpose to private hospitals, medical schools and body banks.

(3) Any state, county or district hospital or medical school may expend public moneys, donations and devises for experimentation and scientific research designed to find ways and means whereby various parts and components of the human body may be grafted and transplanted from a living or deceased donor or testator to a living person. Donations and devises may also be made for the same purpose to private hospitals, medical schools and body banks.

(4) The following form of written instrument shall be sufficient and legal for any person to donate and give his body or any part thereof for the purposes recited in this act:

I, the undersigned, desiring that my eyes, ears, bones or any other part of my body be made available upon my death for grafting and transplantation purposes, do hereby donate and give any needed part of my body to _____ of

(name)

_____ (address) _____ (telephone) if living at the time of my death, or to _____ hospital or to _____ _____ (name) _____ (name) medical school or to _____ _____ (name of eye bank. I do or other body bank)

hereby donate any part of my body for immediate grafting and transplantation purposes if so needed and if not, then the same may be, if possible, repositied and banked for future use, otherwise any part or all of my body may be used for experimental and scientific research purposes as provided by the laws of the state.

If no donee is named in this written instrument, then any part of my body may be made available and used by any person needing the same for grafting or transplantation and/or used for experimental and scientific research purposes.

I do hereby authorize any physician, surgeon, hospital or medical school to remove and dismember any part of my body for said uses and purposes, and do further authorize any such physician, surgeon, hospital or medical school to examine and, if necessary, make copies of my medical history and records.

_____ (name of donor) _____ (address)

(It is suggested that the donor keep one copy of this written instrument and give signed copies to named donee, his physician, hospital and next of kin.)

(5) Said written statement need not be witnessed or acknowledged, and the donor may execute more than one copy thereof. The written statement may be in the form and size of wallet cards. No particular form or wording shall be necessary and said written instrument or last will and testament shall be liberally construed to effectuate the intended purpose of the person wishing to make any such donation or devise. The written instrument may be in such form and so worded that more than one person may sign the same. The donor may deliver signed copies of such written instrument to the donee, donor's physician, hospital or available body bank.

(6) All hospitals, doctors, surgeons, civic clubs, welfare organizations and the state board of health are hereby authorized to prepare and make available for free use and distribution copies of such written instrument and copies of this act.

(7) Any person may by his last will and testament devise any part of his body for grafting and transplantation. The testator may designate the beneficiary but if the testator names no beneficiary, or if such beneficiary be deceased or unavailable, then the part of the testator's body authorized to be used for grafting and transplantation may be made available for any person needing the same, or it may be banked and repositied, if possible, for future use.

The testator may authorize, by his last will and testament, the use of his body or any part thereof for experimental and scientific research purposes as provided in this act.

(8) It shall not be necessary for any person so donating or devising his body, or any part thereof for the purposes designated in this act, to name the donee thereof. If no person is so named by the donor or testator, or if the named person is deceased or unavailable, then the hospital where the donor or testator dies, or any physician or surgeon shall have full authority to remove the designated part of the body of the donor or testator for said grafting and transplantation purposes, and if not then needed therefor, the same may be so used for experimentation and scientific research purposes unless such can be expediently reposit and banked for future use.

(9) Said written instrument or said last will and testament shall be full authority for any such bank, hospital, medical school, physician or surgeon to act and proceed under the terms of any such written instrument or last will and testament. No consent or permission from the personal representative or the heirs of the deceased shall be required for such bank, hospital, medical school, physician or surgeon to so proceed and act under the terms of this act.

(10) The judgment by any court of competent jurisdiction declaring any such written instrument or last will and testament to be invalid shall not create a liability against such bank, hospital, medical school, physician or surgeon who acts and proceeds under the terms and provisions of any such written instrument or last will and testament.

(11) All donations and devises for the furtherance and purposes of this act shall constitute a charitable public trust for the welfare and benefit of the public and as such shall be exempt from all taxation.

(12) This act shall not prevent, limit or restrict civic organizations, clubs and chartered nonprofit corporations from continuing and furthering eyebank and eyesight restoration projects and programs.

(13) This act shall not repeal or limit chapter 245 and shall be held and construed to be supplemental thereto. No provision or section of said chapter 245 shall be held to restrict or limit the terms and provisions of this act.

(14) This act shall not repeal or limit §§736.08 to 736.16 inclusive and shall be held and construed to be supplemental and in addition thereto.

History.—§§1-14, ch. 63-386.

CHAPTER 737

TRUST ACCOUNTING LAW

- | | | | |
|--------|---|---------|--|
| 737.01 | Definitions. | 737.14 | Objections to annual accounts. |
| 737.02 | Testamentary trustees to establish qualifications. | 737.15 | Order on trustee's account. |
| 737.03 | Requisites of petition. | 737.16 | Final account. |
| 737.04 | When petition to be filed. | 737.17 | Declaratory relief. |
| 737.05 | Respondents. | 737.18 | Removal of trustee. |
| 737.06 | Representation of incompetent beneficiary. | 737.19 | Vacancy in trust. |
| 737.07 | Representation in case of remainder to a class. | 737.20 | Powers of court. |
| 737.08 | Who may qualify as trustees. | 737.21 | Penalties. |
| 737.09 | Resident agent. | 737.22 | Expenses and compensation. |
| 737.10 | Hearing and decree. | 737.23 | Waiver of accounting. |
| 737.11 | Bond of trustee. | 737.24 | Application to inter vivos trusts. |
| 737.12 | Annual accounts, authority to appoint examiners and auditors. | 737.25 | Practice and procedure. |
| 737.13 | Notice of filing annual accounts. | 737.251 | Charitable trusts where beneficiaries unknown; representative. |
| | | 737.26 | Short title. |
| | | 737.27 | Effective date. |
| | | 737.28 | Inapplicability of chapter 737. |

737.01 Definitions.—In this chapter, where the context requires or permits, the words "person," "trustee" and "beneficiary" and pronouns related thereto shall include both the singular and plural and individuals and corporations. The word "trustee" shall mean any person or corporation designated in a will to perform trust functions and also shall include a temporary or successor trustee. The word "executor" shall include administrator cum testamento annexo. The word "trust" shall include trust estate and trust fund. The word "beneficiary" shall mean any person or corporation having any interest, vested or contingent, in the trust fund, including the guardian or other representative of any beneficiary. The words "supervisory proceeding" shall mean the proceeding in the circuit court required by this chapter. The words "incompetent beneficiary" shall include a minor, a person legally adjudged incompetent, an unknown person and an unborn person.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.02 Testamentary trustees to establish qualifications.—

(1) Every person named as trustee under a will admitted to original probate in Florida shall, before he is entitled to receive any part of the property devised or bequeathed to him as such trustee, apply by petition to the circuit court of the county in which the decedent was domiciled, or in which the trustee is domiciled or has his principal place of business, to establish his qualifications as trustee and to submit the administration of the trust to the supervision of the court; provided, however, that if the trustee is a nonresident individual or a corporation organized under the laws of some other jurisdiction and having its principal place of business in some other state or country and where it appears from the will that the testator intended the trust to be administered in and subject to the laws of the jurisdiction in which the individual trustee resides or the corporate trustee has its principal place of business, such individuals or corporate trustee shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter and the county judge shall authorize distribution of any property devised or bequeathed to the trustee without requiring such individual or corporate trustee to establish his qualifications hereunder.

(2) The court costs, costs of premium of the surety bond of the trustee and the initial fee of legal counsel incurred in first establishing the qualifications of the first trustees hereunder shall be paid as administration expenses by the executor of the estate of the decedent whose will created the trust.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.03 Requisites of petition.—The petition shall conform substantially to the following requirements. It shall be entitled "In re: Trust under Will of _____, deceased," and shall contain:

(1) the name and address of the trustee and a statement showing his qualifications as trustee;

(2) the name of the decedent, the date of his death, the date upon which his will was admitted to probate, the court admitting the will to probate, a copy of the will, and the status of the administration of the decedent's estate;

(3) an inventory and itemized statement of the value of the trust, insofar as this information is available;

(4) the name, address and status of each beneficiary and a description of their respective interests in the trust; and

(5) a prayer for a decree determining that the trustee is qualified to act, fixing the amount of his bond, if any, assuming judicial supervision of the trust and a prayer for instructions as to any other matters presented by the petition.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.04 When petition to be filed.—The petition shall be filed and the qualifications of the trustee duly established before the trustee shall be authorized to receive any of the trust funds or assets. If the trustee fails to file the petition within sixty days after notification by the executor that he is ready to make distribution of the trust, a similar petition may be filed by any beneficiary or by the executor of the will.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.05 Respondents.—The executor of the will shall be made a respondent to the petition unless such executor is also a petitioning trustee, and each beneficiary of the trust shall also be made a respondent to the petition. If the petition is not filed by the trustee, he shall be made a respondent. Each respondent shall be served with process as in suits in equity; provided, however, that any respondent may, by answer signed, waive service of process upon himself. Unknown and unborn beneficiaries need not in express terms be made parties respondent to the proceedings; but in any event such beneficiaries, whether named as parties or not, shall be deemed parties to the proceedings; represented, as the case may be, in the manner provided by §§737.06 and 737.07, but the testator may waive notice to any or all of the beneficiaries, or he may limit the notice to certain of the beneficiaries, or to direct beneficiaries, and in such case notice need be given only to those beneficiaries required to be served, but such beneficiaries, if sui juris, may waive such notice in writing.

History.—§5, ch. 26656, 1951; §1, ch. 29924, 1955.

737.06 Representation of incompetent beneficiary.—The guardian of the property of any incompetent beneficiary shall represent such incompetent beneficiary in the supervisory proceedings. Any incompetent beneficiary for whose property no guardian has qualified, including any unknown or unborn beneficiary, may be represented by a competent living member of the class to which said beneficiary belongs or would belong or by a guardian ad litem as the court shall determine, except in such cases as come within the purview of §737.07. A guardian ad litem may appear and plead without service of process upon him. If the trustee is serving also as guardian of the property of an incompetent beneficiary, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent such incompetent beneficiary.

History.—§6, ch. 26656, 1951; §2, ch. 29924, 1955.

737.07 Representation in case of remainder to a class.—Where an interest in the trust has been limited in any contingency to the persons who shall compose a class upon the happening of a future event, it shall be sufficient to make parties to the supervisory proceeding the persons in being who would constitute the class if such event had happened immediately before the commencement of the supervisory proceeding, and all decrees entered therein shall be conclusive on all present and future members of the class. Where an interest in the trust has been limited to a person who is a party to the supervisory proceeding, and the same interest has been further limited upon the happening of a future event to persons who are or may be the distributees, heirs, issue or other kindred of such party, it shall not be necessary to make such distributees, heirs, issue or other kindred parties to the supervisory proceeding, and all decrees entered therein shall be conclusive upon them.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.08 Who may qualify as trustees.—Generally, any person sui juris or any corporation authorized under the laws of Florida to receive testamentary bequests in trust may qualify as such trustee; but no person who has been convicted of a felony or who, from sickness, intemperance or want of understanding, is incompetent to discharge the duties of a trustee, shall be permitted to qualify.

History.—§8, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.09 Resident agent.—Before any person may qualify as trustee hereunder, he shall file in the supervisory proceeding the name and address of an agent residing in the county in which the proceeding is brought, with the consent in writing of such resident agent, the service of process upon whom shall bind such person in his representative capacity and personally; provided, however, that any liability sought to be imposed in any such action must have accrued in the administration of the trust, and provided further that service of process upon such resident agent may be made only when the trustee, whether a resident or non-resident of Florida, is not amenable to service of process within the state. Inability to effect personal service on the trustee may be evidenced by return of the sheriff.

This section does not apply to corporations authorized to exercise trust functions in Florida or to trustees exempt from the provisions of this chapter under §737.02.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.10 Hearing and decree.—If, at the hearing on the petition, the trustee is found qualified to act, the court shall determine the amount of his bond, if any, and the time within which it must be filed. Upon qualification of the trustee and giving of bond as required, the court shall enter a decree declaring the trustee qualified to act and the court shall thereupon assume supervisory jurisdiction of the trust. The decree may also contain any other appropriate provisions concerning the administration of the trust. If the trustee fails to qualify, the court shall appoint some other suitable person who upon qualifying shall be appointed to serve as trustee. No oath of the trustees shall be required as evidence of acceptance of the trust or the undertaking of faithful performance thereof.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.11 Bond of trustee.—When any person interested in the trust estate files with the circuit court having jurisdiction of such trust estate a petition, from which petition and the evidence adduced thereon it is made to appear to the court that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that the trustee is mismanaging, wasting or diverting, or will mismanage, waste or divert the assets of said trust estate from their proper administration, the court shall require such trustee to give a bond with sufficient security conditioned as the law directs; and this bond may be required although the will may exempt said trustee from giving the bond. The trustee shall have such notice as the court may prescribe, and the right to appear and defend the proceedings. No bond shall be required of any corporation qualified to exercise trust powers in Florida, and whenever a corporate trustee is a cotrustee with one or more individuals and such corporate trustee certifies to the court that it has the custody of all of such assets, no bond shall be required of such individual, cotrustee or trustees.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.12 Annual accounts, authority to appoint examiners and auditors.—

(1) Every trustee shall file an annual account within ninety days after the expiration of the immediately preceding full calendar or fiscal year of the administration of the trust; providing, however, that where the value of the trust property or the volume of transactions of the trust is small, the court may, in its discretion, authorize the trustee to file periodic accounts covering two or more years each. Each annual or other periodic account shall contain an inventory of the trust fund at the end of the accounting period, a statement of the trustee's principal and income, receipts and disbursements during the accounting period, whether in cash or other property, and any other information which the trustee may desire to submit. All disbursements and distributions shown upon the account shall be supported by receipts or vouchers showing the purpose therefor whenever the court or any beneficiary shall so request. The trustee may withdraw such receipts or vouchers from the court files upon order of the court and whenever all of the beneficiaries are sui juris and shall file in such action their several consents in writing waiving the filing of an accounting, the trustee shall then be relieved of filing such accounting unless required by the court, until one or more of the beneficiaries shall file a withdrawal in writing of such consent and waiver, or files a request in writing for an accounting. This shall not prevent any trustee from filing an accounting at any time.

(2) The court may examine or audit the accounts, or may appoint an examiner or auditor to examine and audit such accounts and report thereon to the court.

(3) The cost of the audit or examination shall be paid out of the trust estate or as the decree of the court shall otherwise direct.

History.—§12, ch. 26656, 1951; §3, ch. 29924, 1955; (2), (3)n. by §1, ch. 59-376.

737.13 Notice of filing annual accounts.—The trustee need not, but may, at his option, give notice of the filing of an annual account, but the notice, if given, shall state that it is an application for the approval of all annual accounts then on file not previously approved. Such notice may be by registered mail with return receipt, by personal service, or by delivery made by any person within or without the state, or by such other method as the court may authorize; but service on an attorney of record shall not be sufficient, nor shall the entry of a decree pro confesso against any beneficiary on the original petition constitute notice to such beneficiary under this section.

History.—Comp. §13, ch. 26656, 1951.
cf.—§1.01(13) Defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

737.14 Objections to annual accounts.—Objections to any unapproved annual account may be filed by any beneficiary at any time. If notice of filing an annual account is given, objections to any unproved account must be filed within sixty days after the notice is given or mailed; if notice of filing such account is waived, objections must be filed within sixty days after the filing of the account. Objections shall be tried and determined by the court upon the application of any party in interest, including the trustee, after due notice to all other parties.

History.—Comp. §14, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.15 Order on trustee's account.—If notice of the filing of an annual account has been given or waived, the court may, after the time for filing objections has expired, or at the hearing on any objections, enter an appropriate order on such account and on all unapproved annual accounts previously filed.

History.—Comp. §15, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.16 Final account.—Prior to the final distribution of the trust, the trustee shall file a final account in the same form as an annual account, and give notice thereof to all beneficiaries as prescribed in §737.13. Objections to a final account shall be filed and determined as prescribed for annual accounts. If the court finds that the trustee has properly administered the trust, an order shall be entered approving the final account and all unapproved annual accounts and directing distribution; and upon filing of proper receipts showing distribution as directed, an order shall be entered finally discharging the trustee and the sureties on his bond, which order shall be conclusive, subject only to the right of appeal.

History.—Comp. §16, ch. 26656, 1951.
cf.—§1.01(13) Defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

737.17 Declaratory relief.—The supervisory proceeding is hereby declared to be a continuing proceeding and service or waiver of process based upon the original petition shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction of all parties thereto for the purpose of granting any declaratory or other relief authorized by chapter 87. Application for any such relief may be made by the trustee or any beneficiary and due notice of the application shall be given. Such notice may be given as provided in §737.13, but the applicant at his option may make service of process thereon as in suits in equity.

History.—Comp. §17, ch. 26656, 1951.
cf.—§1.01(13) Defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

737.18 Removal of trustee.—The trustee may be removed for good cause on the petition of any beneficiary or by the court on its own motion after due notice to the trustee and all other beneficiaries. The court may appoint a temporary trustee to administer the trust estate until final determination of removal proceedings.

History.—Comp. §18, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.19 Vacancy in trust.—In the event of a vacancy in the office of trustee from any cause, the court shall appoint a successor trustee, upon whose qualification the supervisory proceeding shall proceed as if the trustee so appointed had been named in the will. Upon the resignation, removal or death of a trustee, the court may enter all necessary orders with reference to the filing of accounts by the resigned or removed trustee or by the personal representative of the deceased trustee and the delivery of the trust to the successor trustee. Such orders may be enforced by commitment or contempt proceedings.

History.—Comp. §19, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.20 Powers of court.—All provisions of the Florida guardianship law with reference to devastavit, production of assets, and proceedings on the bond of a removed guardian, shall, where relevant, apply to trustees in the supervisory proceedings.

History.—Comp. §20, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.21 Penalties.—Any executor who makes distribution of any trust assets or any person who, as trustee or purporting to act as trustee, accepts distribution of any property under the will of a decedent prior to the entry of a decree establishing the trustee's qualifications, as required by this chapter, shall forfeit the right to his office, shall forfeit all compensation for his services, and shall be personally liable to the beneficiaries for the value of all property so distributed or received together with the income therefrom subsequent to the date of distribution. The trustee shall be subject to all the penalties provided by law for perjury for any wilfully false statement of a material fact made in any petition or account filed by him even though such petition or account is not verified. When a trustee fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter or with any order of the court entered in the supervisory proceeding, he may be removed or his compensation may be reduced or forfeited, or both, in the discretion of the court.

History.—Comp. §21, ch. 26656, 1951.
cf.—§837.01, Perjury.

737.22 Expenses and compensation.—The trustee shall be allowed reasonable compensation for his services, and all necessary expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by him in the management of the trust estate.

History.—Comp. §22, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.23 Waiver of accounting.—The court shall have discretionary power to require the filing of annual and final accountings, notwithstanding any waiver thereof by the testator in his will or by the beneficiaries of the trust. The court may also require any additional accounting to be filed at any time.

History.—Comp. §23, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.24 Application to inter vivos trusts.—This chapter shall not apply to inter vivos trusts, but the creator of an inter vivos trust, by provision in the trust instrument, may require the trustee to comply with the provisions of this chapter, in which event the trustee and the administration of said trust shall be subject to the provisions hereof in all respects as if said trust had been created by will. The trustee under an existing active inter vivos trust shall not be required to comply with this chapter by reason of any testamentary bequest or devise to him as such trustee unless such compliance is expressly required by the will, and in such circumstances only the property so bequeathed shall be subject to administration under the provisions hereof.

History.—Comp. §24, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.25 Practice and procedure.—Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, practice and procedure in the supervisory proceedings shall be as prescribed by law for suits in equity. Appeals shall be governed by the statutes and court rules applicable to equity cases.

History.—Comp. §25, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.251 Charitable trusts where beneficiaries unknown; representative.—In all proceedings under this chapter involving charitable trusts with unknown or unascertainable beneficiaries, the state's attorney for the judicial circuit having original jurisdiction of said trust shall be deemed to be the representative of such beneficiaries for all the purposes of this chapter.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-149.

737.26 Short title.—This chapter shall be cited as the Florida trust accounting law.

History.—Comp. §26, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.27 Effective date.—This chapter shall take effect on May 19, 1951 and shall apply only to trusts created by wills dated on or after January 1, 1952; provided, however, that the trustee under any testamentary trust created by the will of a decedent dying prior thereto may, at his option, subject such trust to the provisions of this chapter.

History.—Comp. §27, ch. 26656, 1951.

737.28 Inapplicability of chapter 737.—Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 737 or any other law requiring a testamentary trustee to qualify and account to any court, any person who in his last will and testament shall hereafter appoint a testamentary trustee, may in such will and testament or any codicil thereto, waive compliance by the trustee with the provisions of chapter 737 as such chapter now exists or may hereafter be amended and may also specifically or by general terms waive compliance with any other law requiring qualification, administration or accounting by such trustee to any court and in any such instance the testamentary trustee shall be relieved of compliance therewith; provided, however, this section shall not prevent any beneficiary, or other interested party, instituting suit and obtaining an accounting of the administration of the trust or instituting any other suit against the trustee in connection with the administration or disposition of the trust.

History.—§1, ch. 63-434.

TITLE XLII

DOMESTIC RELATIONS

CHAPTER 741

HUSBAND AND WIFE

- | | | | |
|----------|--|--------|---|
| 741.01 | County judge to issue marriage license. | 741.08 | Marriage not to be solemnized without a license. |
| 741.02 | Additional license fee. | 741.09 | Record of license and certificate. |
| 741.03 | County judge not to send out marriage license signed in blank. | 741.10 | Proof of marriage where no certificate available. |
| 741.04 | Marriage license issued. | 741.11 | Marriages between white and negro persons prohibited. |
| 741.05 | Penalty for violation of laws regulating issuance of marriage license. | 741.12 | Penalty for intermarriage of white and negro persons. |
| 741.051 | Marriage licenses; conditions precedent to issuance; certificate of physician. | 741.13 | County judges not to issue licenses for white and negro intermarriages. |
| 741.052 | Same; serological tests. | 741.14 | Penalty for violation of §741.11. |
| 741.053 | Same; forms to be prescribed. | 741.15 | Marriage between white and negro persons not to be performed. |
| 741.054 | Same; making of tests. | 741.16 | Penalty for marrying white and negro persons. |
| 741.055 | Same; affidavit of positive report. | 741.17 | Marriage laws to apply to negro persons. |
| 741.056 | Same; no charge for laboratory test. | 741.18 | Certain marriages by judge of probate validated. |
| 741.057 | Same; filing of certificates. | 741.19 | Certain marriages between white and negro persons valid. |
| 741.058 | Same; limitation on licenses. | 741.20 | Certain cohabitations declared marriage. |
| 741.059 | Same; use of information by state board of health. | 741.21 | Incestuous marriages prohibited. |
| 741.0510 | Penalties for violation of law. | 741.22 | Punishment for incest. |
| 741.0511 | Same; reports confidential. | 741.23 | Husband not liable for wife's torts. |
| 741.0512 | Effective date of law. | | |
| 741.06 | When marriage license may be issued to persons under twenty-one years. | | |
| 741.07 | Persons authorized to solemnize matrimony. | | |

741.01 County judge to issue marriage license.—Every marriage license shall be issued by the county judge of the county wherein the woman resides, under his hand and seal, and said county judge shall issue such license, upon payment of his fee of two dollars, if there appear to be no impediment to the marriage.

History.—§2, Nov. 2, 1829; §2, ch. 3720, 1887; §1, ch. 8890, 1889; RS 2055; GS 2574; RGS 3933; CGL 5848.

741.02 Additional license fee.—Upon the issuance of each and every marriage license issued by any county judge in the state, such county judge shall, in addition to the fee allowed by §741.01, collect and receive an additional fee of one dollar, to be distributed as provided by §382.24.

History.—§1, ch. 11869, 1927; CGL 5851; am. §7, ch. 22000, 1943.

741.03 County judge not to send out marriage license signed in blank.—It is unlawful for any county judge in the state to send out of his office any marriage license signed in blank to be issued upon application to persons not in the office of the county judge.

History.—§1, ch. 7828, 1919; CGL 5849.

741.04 Marriage license issued.—No county judge in this state shall issue a license for the marriage of any person, unless there shall be first presented and filed with him an affidavit in writing, signed by both parties to the marriage, made and subscribed before some person authorized by law to administer an oath, reciting the true and correct ages of such parties, and unless both such parties shall be over the age of twenty-one years; provided, that if either of such parties shall be under the age of twenty-one years, such county judge shall not issue a license for the marriage of such party unless there shall be first presented and filed with him the written consent of the parents or guardian of such minor to such marriage, acknowledged before some officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments and administer oaths; provided, this section shall not apply in any case where both parents of such minor shall be deceased at the time of making application for such marriage license; but no minor who has been before married shall be required to produce evidence of consent of parents or guardian as aforesaid; and provided, further, no marriage license shall be issued by any county judge in this state after application therefor until after expiration of three days, including day application is made to county judge by the parties seeking to be married, for the issuance of a marriage license, and it shall be the duty of the county judge to post a true copy of said application at the front door of the court house in the county where said application was made for a period of three days prior to the issuance of said marriage license, which said three days shall include day of application therefor.

History.—§2, Nov. 2, 1829; §2, ch. 3720, 1887; §1, ch. 3890, 1889; RS 2055; GS 2574; §2, ch. 7828, 1919; RGS 3933; CGL 5850; §1, ch. 22643, 1945; am. §1, ch. 28103, 1953. cf.—§741.06, When license may issue to minors. §741.08, Necessity of license.

741.05 Penalty for violation of laws regulating issuance of marriage license.—Any county judge, or other person, who shall violate any provision of §§741.03 and 741.04, shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of not more than one year, or by fine not to exceed five hundred dollars.

History.—§3, ch. 7828, 1919; CGL 7517. cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

741.051 Marriage licenses; conditions precedent to issuance; certificate of physician.—After October 1, 1945, every person making application for license to marry shall file with the county judge, as a condition precedent to the issuance of any such license, a certificate from a duly licensed physician, which certificate shall state that the applicant has been given such physical examination, including a standard serological test, as may be necessary for the discovery of syphilis, made not more than thirty days prior to the date of application for such marriage license, and that the applicant is not infected with syphilis, or if so infected is not in a stage of that disease which is or may become communicable to the marital partner.

History.—§§1, 15, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.052 Same; serological tests.—The certificate of the duly licensed physicians, as aforesaid, shall be accompanied by a statement by the person making the standard serological test or from the person in charge of the laboratory making the test, setting forth the name of the test, the result of the test, the date it was made, the name and address of the physician who submitted the sample of blood for the test, and the name and address of the person whose blood was tested. In submitting the blood specimen the physician shall designate that this is a premarital test and the statement from the laboratory shall show that this was a premarital test.

History.—§2, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.053 Same; forms to be prescribed.—The certificate of a physician and the statement constituting the laboratory report on the serological test shall each be on a form to be provided by the Florida state board of health and distributed to the offices of all county judges and to all laboratories, hospitals and/or clinics in the state approved by the Florida state board of health.

History.—§3, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.054 Same; making of tests.—For the purpose of this law a standard serological test shall be a test for syphilis approved by the Florida state board of health, and an approved laboratory shall be the state board of health laboratory, any of its branches, or any other laboratory licensed or operated in accordance with the laws of this state or of the state in which it is located; provided, however, that the serological test or tests shall be such as will exclude the possibility that the disease as shown by said test or tests is some other disease than syphilis.

History.—§4, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.055 Same; affidavit of positive report.—In any case where such examinations and tests have been made and certificate or certificates have been refused because one or both of the applicants have been found to be infected with syphilis, the county judge shall nevertheless be authorized and empowered on application of both parties to such marriage to issue the license without the certificate of a physician if the judge is satisfied by affidavit or other proof that the female is pregnant; providing, that all other requirements of the marriage laws have been complied with and that the public health and welfare will not be injuriously affected thereby. In every such case, however, the county judge shall transmit to the state board of health a transcript of the court record and file a copy of the order of the court in lieu of the physician's certificate. The court when it is deemed necessary may, to the extent authorized by law or rules of court, order all the proceedings instituted under the provisions of this section to be confidential and private. There shall be no fee for the court proceedings authorized in this section.

History.—§5, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.056 Same; no charge for laboratory test.—All serological tests required by this law on blood specimens submitted to the laboratory of the Florida state board of health or to any of its authorized branches shall be made without charge. The fee of the physician for making the examinations and issuance of the certificate required by this law shall not exceed the sum usually charged for office visits.

History.—§6, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.057 Same; filing of certificates.—The physician's certificate and the laboratory report shall be filed with the transcripts of court proceedings in the office of the county judge for a period of not less than sixty days, after which time they may be destroyed at the discretion of the county judge.

History.—§7, ch. 22738, 1945; §1, ch. 61-17.

741.058 Same; limitation on licenses.—From and after the effective date of this law, marriage licenses shall be valid only for a period of thirty days after issuance, and no person shall perform any ceremony of marriage after the expiration date of such license. The county judge shall recite on each marriage license the final date that such is so valid.

History.—§8, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.059 Same; use of information by state board of health.—The state board of health shall be authorized to use the information derived from premarital serological tests for such follow-up procedures as are required by law or deemed necessary by said board for the protection of the public health.

History.—§9, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.0510 Penalties for violation of law.—Any applicant for a marriage license, physician or representative of a laboratory who shall misrepresent his identity or any of the facts called for by the certificate form or laboratory report form as provided for in §741.053; or any county judge or his deputy who shall issue a marriage license without having received the physician's certificate, laboratory report or order from the court, or who shall have reason to believe that any of the facts have been misrepresented and shall nevertheless issue a marriage license; or any person who shall otherwise fail to comply with the provisions of this law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

History.—§10, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.0511 Same; reports confidential.—Physicians' certificates, laboratory reports and court orders and all information therein contained shall be confidential and shall not be divulged to or open to inspection by any person outside the office of the county judge other than the state or local health officers or their duly authorized representatives. Any person who shall divulge such information or open for inspection such certificates, laboratory reports or court orders, without authority, to any person not by law entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

History.—§11, ch. 22738, 1945.
cf.—§775.07, Misdemeanor, punishment.

741.0512 Effective date of law.—From and after October 1, 1945, any person who enters into the contract of marriage without having first complied with §§741.051-741.0511, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be punished as prescribed by law.

History.—§12, ch. 22738, 1945.
cf.—§775.07, Misdemeanor, punishment.

741.06 When marriage license may be issued to persons under twenty-one years.—The county judge of any county in the state may, in the exercise of his discretion, issue a license to marry to any male or female under the age of twenty-one years, upon sworn application of both applicants under oath that they are the parents or expectant parents of a child. The consent of the parents or guardian of such applicants shall not be required for the issuance of a license to marry under the provisions of this section. No license to marry shall be granted to any male under the age of eighteen years, nor to any female under the age of sixteen years, with or without the consent of their parents except as hereinabove provided.

History.—§1, ch. 18021, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5850(1); §1, ch. 63-238.

741.07 Persons authorized to solemnize matrimony.—All regularly ordained ministers of the gospel or elders in communion with some church, and all judicial officers and notaries public of this state may solemnize the rights of matrimonial contract, under the regulations prescribed by law. Provided that any marriage which may be had and solemnized among the people called quakers, or friends, in the manner and form used or practiced in their societies, according to their rites and ceremonies, shall be good and valid in law; and wherever the words "minister" and "elder" are used in this chapter they shall be held to include all of the persons connected with the society of friends, or quakers, who perform or have charge of the marriage ceremony according to their rites and ceremonies.

History.—§1, Nov. 2, 1829; §2, ch. 1127, 1861; RS 2056; GS 2575; RGS 3934; CGL 5853; am. §1, ch. 28104, 1953.

741.08 Marriage not to be solemnized without a license.—Before any of the persons named in §741.07 shall solemnize any marriage, he shall require of the parties a marriage license issued according to the requirements of §741.01, and within ten days after solemnizing the marriage he shall make a certificate thereof of the license, and shall transmit the same to the office of the county judge from which it issued.

History.—§§ 2, 3, Nov. 2, 1829; §1, ch. 3890, 1889; RS 2057; GS 2575; RGS 3935; CGL 5854.

741.09 Record of license and certificate.—The county judge shall keep in good and substantially bound books a correct record of all marriage licenses issued, with the names of the parties and the date of issuing, and upon the return of the license and certificate he shall enter therein the name of the person solemnizing the marriage and the date of marriage and of the return.

History.—§3, Nov. 2, 1829; §1, ch. 3890, 1889; RS 2058; GS 2577; RGS 3936; CGL 5855.

741.10 Proof of marriage where no certificate available.—When any marriage is or has been solemnized by any of the persons named in §741.07, and such person has not made a certificate thereof of the marriage license as required by §741.08, or when the marriage license has been lost, or when by reason of death or other cause the proper certificate cannot be obtained, the marriage may be proved by affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths made by two competent witnesses who were present and saw the marriage ceremony performed, which affidavit may be filed and recorded in the office of the county judge from which the marriage license issued, with the same force and effect as in cases in which the proper certificate has been made, returned and recorded.

History.—§1, ch. 3126, 1879; RS 2059; GS 2578; RGS 3937; CGL 5856.

741.11 Marriages between white and negro persons prohibited.—It is unlawful for any white male person residing or being in this state to intermarry with any negro female person; and it is in like manner unlawful for any white female person residing or being in this state to intermarry with any negro male person; and every marriage formed or solemnized in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be utterly null and void, and the issue, if any, of such surreptitious marriage shall be regarded as bastard and incapable of having or receiving any estate, real, personal or mixed, by inheritance.

History.—§ 1, 2, Jan. 23, 1832; RS 2063; GS 2579; RGS 3938; CGL 5857.
cf.—§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.12 Penalty for intermarriage of white and negro persons.—If any white man shall intermarry with a negro, or if any white woman shall intermarry with a negro, either or both parties to such marriage shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 3283, 1881; RS 2606; §1, ch. 5140, 1903; GS 3529; RGS 5419; CGL 7562.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.
§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.13 County judges not to issue licenses for white and negro intermarriages.—All county judges are prohibited from knowingly issuing a license to any person to intermarry against whom the disabilities in §741.11 specified may or do attach, under the penal sum of one thousand dollars, to be recovered by action of debt in any court of record having jurisdiction, for the use of the school fund.

History.—§3, Jan. 23, 1832; RS 2065; GS 2581; RGS 3940; CGL 5859.
cf.—§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.14 Penalty for violation of §741.11.—If any county judge shall knowingly and willfully issue a marriage license for a white person to marry a negro, he shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§2, ch. 3283, 1881; RS 2067; GS 3530; RGS 5420; CGL 7563.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.
§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.15 Marriage between white and negro persons not to be performed.—Any of the persons described in §741.07, who shall knowingly perform the ceremony of marriage between any persons who by the provisions of §741.11 are prohibited to intermarry shall in like manner forfeit and pay the penal sum of one thousand dollars, to be recovered in like manner as in §741.13 for the use of the school fund.

History.—§4, Jan. 23, 1832; RS 2066; GS 2582; RGS 3941; CGL 5860. cf.—§798.04, White persons and negroes living in adultery.
§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.16 Penalty for marrying white and negro persons.—If any judge, justice of the peace, notary public or minister of the Gospel, clergyman, priest or any person authorized to solemnize the rites of matrimony, shall willfully and knowingly perform the ceremony of marriage for any white person with a negro, he shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§3, ch. 3283, 1881; RS 2608; GS 3531; RGS 5421; CGL 7564.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.
§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.17 Marriage laws to apply to negro persons.—From and after the eleventh day of October, 1866, all laws applicable to or regulating the marriage relation between white persons shall apply to the same relation between the colored population of the state.

History.—§5, ch. 1469, 1866; RS 2067; GS 2583; RGS 3942; CGL 5861.

741.18 Certain marriages by judge of probate validated.—In all cases where marriages have been solemnized by a judge of probate prior to the tenth day of January, 1849, the same shall be held as valid in every respect, as if the said marriages had been solemnized after the passage of the act entitled "An act to authorize the several judges of probate to solemnize the rites of matrimony and for other purposes," approved the day and year aforesaid.

History.—§2, ch. 253, 1849; RS 2061; GS 2584; RGS 3943; CGL 5862.

741.19 Certain marriages between white and negro persons valid.—In all cases where marriages have been contracted and solemnized between white persons and persons of color prior to the twelfth day of January, 1866, and where the parties continued to live as man and wife up to that date, the said marriages shall be held valid to all intent and purpose.

History.—§2, ch. 4168, 1849; RS 2062; GS 2585; RGS 3944; CGL 5863.
cf.—§1.01, Definition of negro.

741.20 Certain cohabitations declared marriage.—In all cases where persons of African blood have, prior to January first, A. D. 1866, cohabited and lived together as husband and wife, and have prior to said date, recognized each other before the world, and were recognized as husband and wife, they shall in law be deemed, taken and held to have been lawfully husband and wife so long as such relationship existed between them, as fully and effectually for all purposes as if the marriage between them had been solemnized by a proper officer thereto lawfully authorized; and all children, the issue of any such marriage, are legitimized and made heirs of their parents and of their blood relatives generally in the ascending, descending and collateral lines of inheritance according to the general laws of descent in force in this state, as fully as if they had been born in legally recognized wedlock.

History.—§1, ch. 4749, 1899; GS 2586; RGS 3945; CGL 5864; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

741.21 Incestuous marriages prohibited.—A man may not marry any woman to whom he is related by lineal consanguinity, nor his sister, nor his aunt, nor his niece. A woman may not marry any man to whom she is related by lineal consanguinity, nor her brother, nor her uncle, nor her nephew.

History.—§2602, RS 1892; GS 3525; RGS 5415; CGL 7558.

741.22 Punishment for incest. — Persons within the degrees of consanguinity within which marriages are prohibited or declared by law to be incestuous and void, who intermarry or commit adultery or fornication with each other, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding twenty years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year.

History.—§7, sub-ch. 8, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2601; GS 3524; RGS 5414; CGL 7557.

741.23 Husband not liable for wife's torts. —The common law rule whereby a husband is liable for the torts of his wife is hereby abrogated.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26529, 1951.

CHAPTER 742

BASTARDY

- 742.011 Bastardy proceedings; circuit court jurisdiction.
 742.021 Same; venue, process, complaint.
 742.031 Same; hearings; court orders, support, hospital expenses, etc.
 742.041 Same; monthly contributions.
 742.06 Same; jurisdiction retained for future orders.

742.011 Bastardy proceedings; circuit court jurisdiction.—Any unmarried woman who shall be pregnant or delivered of a bastard child, may bring proceedings in the circuit court, in chancery, to determine the paternity of such child.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.021 Same; venue, process, complaint.—The proceedings shall be by verified complaint filed in the circuit court of the county in which the woman resides or of the county in which the alleged father resides. The complaint shall aver sufficient facts charging the paternity of the child. Process directed to the defendant shall issue forthwith requiring the defendant to file his written defenses to the complaint in the same manner as suits in chancery. Upon application and proof under oath, the court may issue a writ of ne exeat against the defendant on such terms and conditions and conditioned upon bond in such amount as the court may determine.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.031 Same; hearings; court orders, support, hospital expenses, etc.—Hearings for the purpose of establishing or refuting the allegations of the complaint and answer shall be held in the chambers and may be restricted to such persons, in addition to the parties involved and their counsel, as the judge in his discretion may direct. The court shall determine the issues of paternity of the child, and the ability of the parents and each of them to support the child and if the court shall find the defendant to be the father of the child he shall so order and shall further order the defendant to pay the complainant, her guardian or such other person assuming responsibility for the child as the judge may direct, such sum or sums as shall be sufficient to pay reasonable attorney's fee, hospital or medical expenses, cost of confinement and any other expenses incident to the birth of such child. In addition the court shall order the defendant to pay periodically for the support of such child such sums as shall be fixed by the court in accordance with the provisions of this act, and also all taxable costs of the proceedings. Upon request of either party, the issue of the paternity of such child may be tried by jury and the chancellor shall transfer the cause for the determination of such issue.

History.—§3, ch. 26949, 1951; §1, ch. 59-45.

742.041 Same; monthly contributions.—The court shall order the defendant to pay monthly

- 742.07 Effect of adoption.
 742.08 Default of support payments.
 742.09 Publishing names; penalty.
 742.091 Marriage of parents.
 742.10 Chapter in lieu of other proceedings.

for the care and support of such child the following amounts:

From date of birth to 6th birthday—$40 per month

From 6th birthday to 12th birthday—$60 per month

From 12th birthday to 15th birthday—$90 per month

From 15th birthday to 18th birthday—$110 per month

Such amounts may be increased or reduced by the judge in his discretion depending upon the circumstances and ability of the defendant.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.06 Same; jurisdiction retained for future orders.—The court shall retain jurisdiction of the cause for the purpose of entering such other and further orders as changing circumstances of the parties may in justice and equity require.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.07 Effect of adoption.—Upon the adoption of a child, for whom support has been ordered, by some person other than the father, the liability of the father for the support of the child shall be terminated.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.08 Default of support payments.—Upon default in payment of any moneys ordered by the court to be paid, the court may enter a judgment for the amount in default which shall be a lien upon all property of the defendant both real and personal. Willful failure to comply with an order of the court shall be deemed a contempt of the court entering the order and shall be punished as such. The court may require bond of the defendant for the faithful performance of his obligation under the order of the court in such amount and upon such conditions as the court shall direct.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.09 Publishing names; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for the owner, publisher, manager or operator of any newspaper, magazine, radio station or other publication of any kind whatsoever, or any other person responsible therefor, or any radio broadcaster, to publish the name of any of the parties to any court proceeding instituted or prosecuted under this act; and any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twelve months or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or both.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.091 Marriage of parents. — If the mother of any bastard child and the reputed father shall at any time after its birth intermarry, the child shall in all respects be deemed and held legitimate, and upon the payment of all costs and attorney fees as determined by the court, the cause shall be dismissed and the bond provided for in §742.021 shall be void. The record of the proceedings in such cases shall be sealed against public inspection in the interests of the child.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-267.

742.10 Chapter in lieu of other proceedings. —This chapter shall be in lieu of any other proceedings provided by law for the determination of paternity and support of bastard children.

History.—§9, ch. 26949, 1951; am. §10, ch. 27991, 1953.

CHAPTER 743

DISABILITY OF NONAGE OF MINORS REMOVED

743.01 Married male minors disability removed.

743.02 Applied to divorced persons, etc.

743.03 Removal of disabilities of female minors.

743.04 Removal of disabilities of persons entitled to benefits of servicemen's readjustment act.

743.01 Married male minors' disability removed.—The disability of nonage of all male minors who are married, who have been married, or who may hereafter become married, is removed, and all such persons may assume the management of their estate, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, and do and perform any and all acts, matters and things that he could do if he were twenty-one years of age.

History.—§1, ch. 7364, 1917; RGS 3962; CGL 5881; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.
of.—§62.23, Removal of minor's disabilities.

743.02 Applied to divorced persons, etc.—The provisions of §743.01 shall apply to all such persons who may have obtained a decree of divorce, or who may hereafter obtain a decree of divorce, or whose wife may have died before such person has reached his majority.

History.—§2, ch. 7364, 1917; RGS 3963; CGL 5882.

743.03 Removal of disabilities of female minors.—The disabilities of nonage of all female minors who are married, who have been married, or who may hereafter become married, including those divorced or hereafter divorced, and those who are or who may hereafter become widows, are removed, and hereafter all such female minors may assume the management of their estate, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, and do and perform any and all acts, matters and things that she could do if she were twenty-one years of age.

History.—§1, ch. 9286, 1923; CGL 5883.

743.04 Removal of disabilities of persons entitled to benefits of servicemen's readjustment act.—Any person under the age of twenty-one years authorized to participate in the rights, 743.05 Removal of disabilities of minors; borrowing money for educational purposes.

privileges and benefits conferred by the "servicemen's readjustment act of 1944," being chapter 268 of the 78th congress, and the infant wife of any such person, are hereby authorized to make and execute any and all contracts necessary to the full realization of the rights, privileges and benefits conferred under that act provided that such persons shall be otherwise competent to enter into agreements and contracts. Contracts so entered into by any such persons under twenty-one years of age shall have the same force and effect as though they were the obligations of persons over twenty-one years of age.

History.—§1, ch. 23873, 1947.

743.05 Removal of disabilities of minors; borrowing money for educational purposes.—For the purpose of borrowing money for their own higher educational purposes, and for such purposes only, the disabilities of nonage of minors are removed for all persons, whether male or female, who are between the ages of sixteen years and twenty-one years. Any person between the ages of sixteen years and twenty-one years is authorized to make and execute any and all promissory notes, contracts, or other instruments necessary to be executed by him in order to borrow money for his own higher educational purposes. Any promissory note, contract, or other instrument entered into by any such person pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as though they were the obligations of persons over the age of twenty-one years; provided, that no such obligation shall be valid if the rate of interest thereon exceeds six per cent per annum, simple interest.

History.—§1, ch. 59-268.

CHAPTER 744

FLORIDA GUARDIANSHIP LAW, FIRST PART

- | | | | |
|--------|--|--------|---|
| 744.01 | Short title. | 744.30 | Petition for appointment of guardian. |
| 744.02 | Application. | 744.31 | Petition for appointment of guardian for a person mentally or physically incompetent. |
| 744.03 | Definitions. | 744.32 | Subpoenas and depositions. |
| 744.04 | Liberal construction. | 744.33 | Notice of hearing on petition for appointment of guardian for an incompetent. |
| 744.05 | Guardians of incompetent world war veterans. | 744.34 | Order of appointment. |
| 744.06 | Jurisdiction. | 744.35 | Preference in appointment. |
| 744.07 | Court always open. | 744.36 | Oath of guardian. |
| 744.08 | Disqualification of county judge. | 744.37 | Oaths and affidavits. |
| 744.09 | Substitution of circuit judge. | 744.38 | Bond of guardian. |
| 744.10 | Change of domicile of ward. | 744.39 | Bond of surety company. |
| 744.11 | Venue. | 744.40 | Letters of guardianship. |
| 744.12 | Guardian ad litem. | 744.41 | Insufficiency of bond. |
| 744.13 | Natural guardians. | 744.42 | Validity of bond. |
| 744.14 | Testamentary guardian. | 744.43 | Liability of surety. |
| 744.15 | Foreign guardians. | 744.44 | Suit upon bond. |
| 744.16 | Foreign guardian may manage the property of nonresident ward. | 744.45 | Release of surety. |
| 744.17 | Sale, mortgage or lease by foreign guardian of nonresident ward. | 744.46 | Resident agent. |
| 744.18 | Resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.47 | Costs. |
| 744.19 | Petition for appointment of resident guardian for the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.48 | Duties of guardian of the person. |
| 744.20 | Guardian ad litem for property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.49 | Powers of guardian of the person. |
| 744.21 | Notice of hearing on petition for appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.50 | Payments to guardian of the person. |
| 744.22 | Hearing on petition for appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.51 | Duties of guardian of the property. |
| 744.23 | Costs on appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.52 | Guardian to take possession of all property. |
| 744.24 | Testimony at hearing on appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.53 | Duty to file inventory. |
| 744.25 | Preference in appointment as resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent. | 744.54 | Appointment and qualification of appraisers. |
| 744.26 | Bond, oath, duties and powers of resident guardian of the property of nonresident ward. | 744.55 | Form and return of appraisal. |
| 744.27 | Who may be appointed guardian of a resident incompetent. | 744.56 | Compensation of appraisers. |
| 744.28 | Pleadings. | 744.57 | When appraisal unnecessary. |
| 744.29 | Notice and service. | 744.58 | Inventory or appraisal as evidence. |
| | | 744.59 | Subsequently discovered or acquired property. |
| | | 744.60 | Compromise and settlement. |
| | | 744.61 | Suits by and against guardian or ward. |
| | | 744.62 | Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of guardian. |
| | | 744.63 | Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of claimants. |
| | | 744.64 | Application of income of property of ward. |
| | | 744.65 | Petition for support of ward's dependents. |
| | | 744.66 | Continuance of business. |
| | | 744.67 | Cultivation of lands. |

744.01 Short title.—This chapter, together with chapters 745 and 746 next following, is known and may be cited as the Florida guardianship law.

History.—§1, ch. 8478, 1921; CGL 5884; §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.02 Application.—This Florida guardianship law shall take effect on January 1, 1946, at 12:01 o'clock in the morning, and thereafter shall govern all matters pertaining to guardians and wards and the property of such wards, whether the guardianship exists at the time this law takes effect or arises thereafter; provided, however, that all guardianships and curatorships pending in the circuit courts at the time this law takes effect shall be completed in such courts according to the laws heretofore existing.

History.—§50, Nov. 20, 1828; RS 2087; GS 2604; RGS 3965; §1, ch. 8478, 1921; CGL 5885; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.03 Definitions.—When used in this law, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) A "guardian" is one to whom the law has entrusted the custody and control of the person or of the property, or of both, of an incompetent. "Guardian" may mean curator, conservator or committee where the context indicates a general, and not a particular, use of the term.

(2) A "guardian ad litem" is one appointed by a court, in which particular litigation is pending, to represent a ward in that particular litigation.

(3) A "foreign guardian" is one appointed in another state or country.

(4) A "testamentary guardian" is one appointed for the person of a minor child by the will of its parent.

(5) An "incompetent" is any person who, because of minority, senility, lunacy, insanity, imbecility, idiocy, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs or other physical or mental incapacity, is incapable of either managing his property or caring for himself, or both.

(6) An "infant" or a "minor" is a person under twenty-one years of age whose disabilities have not been removed by marriage or otherwise according to law.

(7) "Probate court" means county judge's court.

(8) "Property" means realty, personalty, choses in action or any interest in the same, legal or equitable, and also claims or rights of action arising in tort.

(9) A "ward" is an incompetent for whom a guardian has been appointed.

History.—§50, Nov. 20, 1828; RS 2088; GS 2605; RGS 3966; §1, ch. 8478, 1921; CGL 5886; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.04 Liberal construction.—This law shall be liberally construed to the end that controversies and the rights of the parties may be speedily and finally determined; and the rule that statutes in derogation of the common law shall be strictly construed does not apply.

History.—§2089, RS 1892; GS 2606; RGS 3967; CGL 5887; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.05 Guardians of incompetent world war veterans.—The provisions of this law shall extend to incompetent world war veterans, specifically provided for in chapters 293 and 294, or any amendment or revision thereof. The provisions of this law shall be cumulative to the provisions of said chapters. However, any conflict arising between provisions in said chapters 293 and 294, or any amendment or revision thereof, and this law shall be resolved by giving effect to the law as stated in said chapters.

History.—§1, Nov. 20, 1828; RS 2090; GS 2607; RGS 3968; CGL 5888; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.06 Jurisdiction.—

(1) COUNTY JUDGE. — (a) The county judge shall have jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to guardians and wards and to the management and the administration of the property of wards, regardless of the origin or cause of the incompetency of the ward.

(b) The county judge may appoint a guardian of the person or of the property, or of both, of an incompetent. The county judge may hear and determine complaints of wards against their guardians, require of guardians security or additional security when necessary, displace them, and make such orders as to the said county judge may seem equitable and right relating to the estates of wards. The county judge may require of guardians, from time to time, inventories of their wards' estates, and accounts of receipts and disbursements, and shall make such orders as to him shall seem just. He may enforce his orders in a summary way by attachment for contempt and by imprisonment.

(c) All orders of the county judge in guardianship matters shall be in writing and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county judge.

(d) In a conflict as to jurisdiction between county judges' courts, the first to obtain lawful jurisdiction shall retain it.

(2) DISTRICT COURTS OF APPEAL*.—In guardianship proceedings the district courts of appeal shall have no jurisdiction except the appellate and the supervisory jurisdiction authorized by §5, art V, of the constitution of Florida.

(3) COURT OF EQUITY. — No court of equity shall be deprived of its inherent jurisdiction to appoint or to remove guardians or require of them accountings of their trusts or to administer the estates of wards in cases in which equitable intervention is necessary for complete and adequate relief.

History.—§1, ch. 3887, 1889; RS 2091; GS 2608; RGS 3969; CGL 5889; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

* See §5 (3), Art. V state const. as amended (1955) re jurisdiction of district courts of appeal.

744.07 Court always open.—The court of the county judge, for the exercise of its jurisdiction in all guardianship matters, shall be open at all times for the transaction of business.

History.—§2092, RS 1892; GS 2609; RGS 3970; CGL 5890; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.08 Disqualification of county judge.—The county judge shall be disqualified in all instances in which judges generally are so disqualified in Florida.

History.—§2093, RS 1892; GS 2610; RGS 3971; CGL 5891; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.09 Substitution of circuit judge.—A circuit judge may be substituted for the county judge in guardianship proceedings in the same manner as provided for the substitution of circuit judges in probate proceedings by §732.05.

History.—§2094, RS 1892; GS 2611; RGS 3972; CGL 5892. Am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.10 Change of domicile of ward.—The domicile of a resident ward is the county in which the guardian of the person was lawfully appointed. The county judge may, upon good cause shown by petition of the guardian of the person and proof of the allegations therein contained, authorize a change of the domicile of the ward.

History.—§35, Nov. 20, 1828; §1, ch. 1560, 1866; RS 2095; GS 2612; RGS 3973; CGL 5893. Am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.11 Venue. — The venue in proceedings for the appointment of any guardian shall be as follows:

(1) If the incompetent is a resident of this state, the venue shall be in the county where the incompetent resides.

(2) If the incompetent is not a resident of this state, then the venue shall be in any county in Florida in which property of the incompetent is located.

(3) If the incompetent is not a resident of this state and owns no property located or situated in this state, then the venue shall be in the county where any debtor of the incompetent resides.

(4) Whenever the domicile of an incompetent is changed to another county, the guardian of said incompetent may, by filing a petition, in which the facts concerning said change of domicile are stated, have the venue of said guardianship changed to the county of the acquired domicile.

History.—§1, ch. 14733, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5893(1); am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945; (4) n. by §1, ch. 61-114.

744.12 Guardian ad litem.—Whenever an incompetent is made a party to any litigation pending in any court in this state and has no guardian, or when his interest is adverse to that of his guardian, such court shall appoint, with or without notice, a guardian ad litem for such incompetent. A guardian ad litem shall be responsible to such incompetent for his conduct in connection with such litigation in the same manner as if he were a regularly qualified guardian. A guardian ad litem shall make and file an oath to discharge his duties faithfully; however, this oath shall not be jurisdictional. The guardian ad litem may appear and plead without service of process upon him, and he shall appear and plead without service of process upon him if directed to do so by the court appointing him.

History.—§3, ch. 868, 1859; RS 2097; GS 2613; RGS 3974; CGL 5894; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.
cf.—§744.03(2), Definition.

744.13 Natural guardians.—

(1) The mother and father jointly are natural guardians of their own children and of their adopted children during infancy. If one parent dies, the natural guardianship shall pass to the surviving parent, and such right shall continue even though the surviving parent remarries. In the event of a divorce between the parents, the natural guardianship shall belong to the parent to whom the custody of the children was awarded. If the parents are given joint custody, then both shall continue as natural guardians. In the event a divorce is granted, and neither the father nor the mother is given custody of the children, then neither can act as natural guardian of the children. The mother of an illegitimate child is the natural guardian of such child.

(2) The mother and father jointly, or the survivor, may, without appointment, authority or bond, collect, receive, manage and dispose of any personal property inherited by, or otherwise accruing to the benefit of the child during infancy, when the amount involved in any instance does not exceed one thousand dollars; provided, however, that in case of a personal injury or other tort claim the power and authority of a natural guardian may be exercised only when the amount of any settlement or compromise of such claim does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars.

(3) All receipts, bills of sale, releases or other instruments executed by a natural guardian under the powers provided for in subsection (2) of this section shall be binding upon the ward.

History.—§5, ch. 868, 1859; RS 2098; GS 2614; RGS 3975; CGL 5895; §1, ch. 22750, 1945; (2) a. by §1, ch. 61-395.

744.14 Testamentary guardian.—A surviving father or a surviving mother may by will name a guardian for the person of his or her minor child to serve during such child's minority or any part thereof. Such guardian shall be subject to the provisions of law in the same manner as other guardians.

History.—§2099, RS 1892; GS 2615; RGS 3976; CGL 5896; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.
cf.—§744.03(4), Definition.

744.15 Foreign guardians.—

(1) Foreign guardians who produce orders appointing them guardians, curators, conservators or committees, duly obtained in any state, territory or country and certified or exemplified according to law, shall be authorized to maintain actions in the several courts in this state under the same rules and regulations as other plaintiffs.

(2) Guardians appointed in any state, territory or country may be sued in this state with reference to property, real or personal, in this state, and may defend any suit, action or proceeding in any court of this state.

(3) Debtors who have received no written demand for payment from a guardian appointed in this state within three months after the appointment of a guardian, curator, conservator or committee in any state, territory or country other than this state, and whose property in Florida is subject to a mortgage or other lien securing such debt held by such foreign guardian, curator, conservator or committee, may make payment to the foreign guardian, curator, conservator or committee after the expiration of three months from the date of his appointment. A proper satisfaction of such mortgage or lien executed and acknowledged by the foreign guardian, curator, conservator or committee after said three months has expired, in the manner and form entitling the same to record in this state, with a duly certified or exemplified copy of the letters or other evidence of authority of such foreign guardian, curator, conservator or committee attached thereto, may be recorded in the public records of this state in like manner as other satisfactions; and when so recorded shall constitute an effective discharge of any such mortgage or lien, irrespective of whether the debtor making payment had received such written demand before paying the same.

(4) All persons indebted to a ward or having possession of personal property, either tangible or intangible, belonging to a ward, who have received no written demand for payment of such indebtedness or the delivery of such property from a guardian appointed in this state, are authorized to make payment of such indebtedness or to deliver such personal property to the foreign guardian, curator, conservator or committee after the expiration of three months from the date of his appointment.

History.—§ 1924, 2100, RS 1892; GS 2616; RGS 3977; CGL 5897; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.16 Foreign guardian may manage the property of nonresident ward.—

(1) A guardian of the property of a nonresident ward, duly appointed by a court of another state, territory or country, who desires to manage any part or all of the real and personal property located in Florida of such nonresident ward, shall file a petition in the office of the county judge of the county wherein such property is located, setting forth his appointment, describing the property involved, stating the estimated value thereof, showing, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the indebtedness, if any, existing against the ward in this state and setting forth his desires with reference to such property.

(2) Such guardian shall also designate a resident agent as required by §744.46.

(3) Such guardian shall file with such petition, certified or exemplified copies of his letters of guardianship and of his bond or other security. Evidence satisfactory to said county judge shall be produced showing that the foreign bond or other security is sufficient to guarantee the faithful management of the ward's property in this state. The county judge in his discretion may require a new guardian's bond in this state in such amount as he deems necessary, to be executed in accordance with the laws of this state and to be conditioned for the proper management and application of the property of the ward coming into the custody of said guardian in this state. The county judge may make such order or orders with reference to said petition as he deems appropriate.

(4) This section shall apply to and be operative in all cases in which the guardian of a nonresident ward is appointed by a court, or is made such guardian by virtue of the laws of another state, territory or country. In cases in which, by virtue of the laws of such state, territory or country, a person becomes the guardian of an estate of an incompetent domiciled therein, without an appointment by a court, or is not required to give bond or other security as such guardian, then the production of copies of letters of guardianship and bond or other security, and the evidence referred to in this section, shall not be required; provided, that satisfactory proof to the county judge is produced that such guardianship exists under the laws of such state, territory or country; and provided, further, that bond may be required by the county judge in such amount as he may deem necessary.

History.—§1, ch. 5144, 1903; GS 2617; RGS 3978; CGL 5898; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.17 Sale, mortgage or lease by foreign guardian of nonresident ward. — A foreign guardian of a nonresident ward may sell, mortgage or lease real or personal property of his ward in this state in the same manner as provided in this law for the sale, lease or mortgage of real or personal property by a resident guardian; provided, however, that such foreign guardian must designate a resident agent as required by §744.46; and provided, further, that the county judge having jurisdiction may require of such foreign guardian bond for the proper application of the funds arising from such sale, lease or mortgage, as in his discretion he may deem necessary to protect the interests of the ward and to protect the Florida creditors of the ward. Any deed, lease or mortgage executed by a foreign guardian of a nonresident ward under the provisions of this law, when authorized or confirmed by the county judge, shall be effective to convey, lease or mortgage the right, title and interest of the ward in the property involved.

History.—§1, ch. 5904, 1909; RGS 3979; CGL 5899; §1, ch. 14837, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5902(1); am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.18 Resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—The county judge of a county in which property, real or personal, of a nonresident incompetent is located, which requires the care of a guardian, may appoint a resident of Florida as guardian of the incompetent's property upon the petition of a relative, next friend or creditor of such incompetent, regardless of whether he has a foreign guardian or not. The foreign guardian, if there is one, may also petition for the appointment of such resident guardian.

History.—§2, ch. 5144, 1903; GS 2618; RGS 3980; CGL 5900; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.19 Petition for appointment of resident guardian for the property of nonresident incompetent.—

(1) The petition for the appointment of a resident guardian for the property of a nonresident incompetent shall be in writing, and shall be prepared in accordance with the requirements of §744.30.

(2) If it is alleged that the incompetency is due to mental or physical incapacity, the petition shall be accompanied by a duly certified or exemplified copy of the adjudication of unsoundness of mind or of physical incapacity from the qualified authorities in the state, territory or country where such incompetent is domiciled, and shall state whether said incompetent is in the custody of any person or institution, and if so, shall give the name and post-office address of the custodian. Said adjudication shall constitute prima facie proof of such incompetency.

(3) If the question as to the mental or physical incapacity of a nonresident is presented while he is temporarily residing in Florida, and if he is not under an adjudication of incompetency made in some other state, territory or country, the procedure for the appointment of a resident guardian of his property shall be the same as though he were a citizen of Florida.

(4) The county judge may, if he deems it advisable, require the petitioner to execute and file a bond with good and sufficient sureties in a penal sum to be fixed by the judge and conditioned to pay the costs of such proceedings.

History.—§1, ch. 12042, 1927; CGL 5901; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

cf.—§744.26, Bond, oath and duties.

§744.30, Petition for appointment of guardian.

744.20 Guardian ad litem for property of nonresident incompetent.—After the filing of the application for appointment of a resident guardian of the property of a nonresident incompetent, the county judge shall make an order in writing appointing an attorney at law as guardian ad litem to defend the interest of the person alleged to be incompetent, who shall take oath and traverse the allegations of the application and defend the interests of the person alleged to be incompetent.

History.—§2, ch. 12042, 1927; CGL 5902; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.21 Notice of hearing on petition for appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—When the ground for the appointment of such guardian is minority or is incompetency previously adjudicated in another state, territory or country, notice of the hearing shall be served personally or by registered mail on such incompetent and his legal custodian, if any, and also on one or more members of his family or relatives, if any are known to the petitioner, at least ten days before the hearing.

History.—§1, ch. 14836, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 5902(2); am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

744.22 Hearing on petition for appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—Upon the day set for the hearing on the petition for appointment of a resident guardian of the property of a nonresident incompetent, or on the date until which the hearing is adjourned for cause, the county judge, after hearing the evidence, shall issue an order granting or denying the relief sought in the petition.

History.—§2101, RS 1892; §1, ch. 4134, 1893; GS § 2619, 2620; RGS 3981, 3982; CGL 5903, 5904; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.23 Costs on appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—

(1) The county judge shall fix the compensation of the guardian ad litem and shall tax such compensation as costs in the case.

(2) If the petition is granted, the judgment for costs shall be against the guardian of the property of the nonresident incompetent, to be satisfied out of said property. If the petition is denied, the costs shall be against the applicant, or against the applicant and the obligors on the bond for costs, when such bond has been required.

History.—§2102, RS 1892; GS 2621; RGS 3983; CGL 5905; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.24 Testimony at hearing on appointment of resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—Testimony to be used at the hearing on the petition for the appointment of a resident guardian of the property of a nonresident incompetent may be taken and filed, as provided in this law for the taking of testimony in other guardianship proceedings.

History.—§1, ch. 4720, 1899; GS 2629; RGS 3991; CGL 5913; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.25 Preference in appointment as resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—In the appointment of such guardian the county judge shall be governed by the provisions of §744.35.

History.—§2, ch. 4720, 1899; GS 2630; RGS 3992; CGL 5914; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.26 Bond, oath, duties and powers of resident guardian of the property of nonresident ward.—When a resident guardian of the property of a nonresident ward has been appointed, his duties as to oath and bond, and his other duties, powers and liabilities as to the custody, control, management and disposition of his ward's property, and as to his removal, accounting and discharge shall be governed by the laws of this state pertaining to resident guardians of property of resident wards.

History.—§2, ch. 1554, 1866; RS 2110; GS 2631; RGS 3993; CGL 5915; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.27 Who may be appointed guardian of a resident incompetent.—

(1) RESIDENT.—(a) Any resident of Florida who is sui juris is qualified to act as guardian of the person or of the property, or of both, of an incompetent; provided, however, that no person who has been convicted of a felony, or who, from sickness, intemperance or want of understanding, is incompetent to discharge the duties of guardian, shall be appointed to act as guardian. A married woman may act as guardian in Florida without the consent of her husband. The guardian of the person and the guardian of the property may be the same person, or they may be different persons.

(b) No county judge shall act as guardian after this law becomes effective, except in cases in which he has qualified prior to his election as county judge and in cases in which he is related to his ward by blood, marriage or adoption. When any county judge is a guardian, he shall make his settlement as such guardian with a judge of the circuit court of the county where he resides in the same manner as other guardians are required by this law to make their settlements with the county judge.

(2) NONRESIDENT.—Any nonresident who is sui juris may be appointed guardian of the person but not of the property of a resident incompetent; provided, such nonresident complies with the laws of Florida relating to guardianship of incompetents.

(3) TRUST COMPANY OR NATIONAL BANK.—A trust company incorporated under the laws of Florida or a national banking association authorized and qualified to exercise fiduciary powers in Florida may act as guardian of the property of any incompetent.

History.—§1, ch. 1554, 1866; RS 2111; GS 2632; RGS 3994; CGL 5916; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.28 Pleadings.—The pleadings before the county judge in guardianship matters shall be in writing and shall be signed by the pleader or his attorney. All technical forms of pleading are abolished in guardianship matters. No defect of form shall impair substantial rights; and no defect in the statement of jurisdictional facts actually existing shall render void any proceedings. The pleadings and procedure with reference thereto shall be as nearly as possible the same as the pleadings and procedure under the probate law, as specified in §732.08.

History.—§1, ch. 9285, 1923; CGL 5933; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.29 Notice and service.—

(1) Whenever a notice or citation is required to be published in a newspaper by any of the provisions of this law, unless otherwise specified by law, publication shall be once a week for four weeks in a newspaper authorized to publish legal notices in the county of the guardianship, four publications being sufficient. If no newspaper is published in the county of the guardianship, then such notice may be published as aforesaid in a newspaper authorized to publish legal notices in any adjoining county. In lieu of publication in a newspaper in an adjoining county, such notice or citation may be by posting at not fewer than three public places in the county of the guardianship, one of which shall be at the courthouse, such other places to be prescribed by the county judge.

(2) Proof of publication or of posting shall be by affidavit, and such proof shall be filed in the office of the county judge.

(3) Whenever notice or citation is required by any of the provisions of this law and the manner and duration of such notice or citation is not specified, such notice or citation may be in such manner and for such length of time before the hearing as the county judge in his discretion may deem proper.

(4) Service may be made within the state in the manner prescribed by law for the service of any summons by any official of this state, or service may be made by any person by delivery of a true copy of a notice or citation to the person to be served. The return of service when made by a person other than an officer shall be by affidavit. Serving of notice or citation may be made outside the state by any official authorized to make service in the state, territory or country where the person to be served resides or can be found, or such service may be made by any person; provided, that if service is made by a person other than an officer, the return shall be made by affidavit. Whenever it is necessary to make service upon an incompetent, the notice or citation shall be served upon such incompetent and also on the person in whose care and custody such incompetent may be.

(5) The return of service in every case shall state the date when the notice or citation was received by the person making the return, the date it was served, the place of service, the name of the person served and the manner of service. Returns shall be amendable so as to speak the truth, and when amended, shall be effective as of the date of the original return.

(6) Service of notice or citation may be waived in writing by any interested person who is sui juris.

(7) If any person upon whom notice or citation is served fails to respond within the time prescribed in the notice or citation or within such time as the county judge, under exceptional circumstances, may allow, then the matter shall proceed ex parte as to such person, and judgment may be entered in accordance with the right and justice of the case.

History.—§1, ch. 4034, 1891; GS 2633; RGS 3995; CGL 5917; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.30 Petition for appointment of guardian.—

Every petition for the appointment of a guardian shall be sworn to by the petitioner, his agent or his attorney, and shall be filed in the probate court having jurisdiction. The petition shall contain statements, to the best of petitioner's knowledge and belief, showing the name, age, residence and post-office address of the alleged incompetent, the nature of his incapacity, the approximate value and description of his property, the residence and post-office address of the petitioner, the names and addresses of the persons most closely related to the incompetent, or averments showing that reasonable search has been made and that such information cannot be ascertained without delay which would adversely affect the incompetent named in the petition, or his property.

History.—§2, ch. 4034, 1891; GS 2634; RGS 3996; CGL 5918; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.31 Petition for appointment of guardian for a person mentally or physically incompetent.—No guardian of the person or of the property, or of both, of a person alleged to be mentally or physically incompetent can be appointed until after such person has been adjudicated to be incompetent in separate proceedings instituted for that purpose in accordance with §§394.20 to 394.22, inclusive, relating to the adjudication of incompetency. After such adjudication, a petition may be filed for the appointment of a guardian of either the person or of the property, or of both, of such person, and the general guardianship laws of this state shall apply to such petition and to all subsequent proceedings thereon. Any guardian appointed as a result of the filing of such petition shall be subject to the general guardianship laws of this state.

History.—§3, ch. 4034, 1891; GS 2635; RGS 3997; CGL 5919; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.32 Subpoenas and depositions.—The county judge, upon application of any party, shall issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the appearance of witnesses and the production of documents at any hearing. Depositions of witnesses in guardianship proceedings shall be taken, as nearly as possible, in the same manner as depositions are authorized to be taken under the probate law of Florida.

History.—§1, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 3998; CGL 5920; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.33 Notice of hearing on petition for appointment of guardian for an incompetent.—

(1) When the petition alleges that the nature of the incapacity is minority, if the petitioner is not the parent and if the parents of the minor are living, reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given to them. When a parent applies for appointment as guardian of his minor child, no notice is necessary unless the other parent is living and refuses to consent to such appointment.

(2) When the petition for the appointment of a guardian alleges that the person named therein as respondent has been adjudicated to be physically or mentally incompetent, or both, the county judge shall hear the petition without notice if it is filed at the conclusion of the hearing in which such person was so adjudicated. If it is filed on a later date, then reasonable notice of the hearing shall be served on the respondent and also on one or more members of his family or relatives, if any can be found within the jurisdiction of the county judge, or if no such person can be found within the jurisdiction, then notice shall be given by such publication or otherwise as the county judge may think proper.

History.—§2, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 3999; CGL 5921; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.34 Order of appointment.—

(1) Upon the day fixed for the hearing on the petition for the appointment of a guardian, the county judge shall hear the evidence on the question of the competency of the person who is the subject of the hearing. An order of the county judge previously adjudicating a person to be incompetent shall constitute conclusive proof of such incompetency until reversed or set aside or until the competency of such person has been restored as provided by law. The county judge may hear testimony on the question as to who is entitled to preference in the appointment as guardian. Any person interested may intervene in such proceedings with leave of the county judge. If the county judge, on such hearing, is satisfied that the person who is the subject of the hearing is incompetent, he shall appoint a guardian of the person or of the property, or of both, as he may deem necessary. The order shall state the specific nature of the incapacity found to be existing. The order of appointment shall also specify the amount of the bond to be given by the guardian.

(2) The testimony adduced at the hearing may be transcribed and filed at the request of any of the parties or upon the direction of the county judge.

History.—§3, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4000; CGL 5922; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.35 Preference in appointment.—In the appointment of a guardian the county judge shall give due consideration to the appointment of one of the next of kin of said incompetent who is a fit and proper person and qualified to act, and likewise to any person designated as guardian in any will in which the incompetent is a beneficiary. The county judge may in his discretion appoint any person who is qualified to act as guardian, whether related to the ward or not.

History.—§4, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4001; CGL 5923; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.36 Oath of guardian.—Every guardian, before exercising his authority as guardian, shall take oath that he will faithfully perform his duties as guardian and that he will render true accounts whenever required according to law, which oath may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this state and shall be filed in the office of the county judge. This oath is not jurisdictional.

History.—§6, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4003; CGL 5925; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.37 Oaths and affidavits.—Oaths, affirmations, verifications and affidavits required by law in guardianship proceedings may be made, either within or without the state, before any officer authorized by the laws of this state to administer oaths.

History.—§5, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4002; CGL 5924; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.38 Bond of guardian.—

(1) Every person appointed a guardian of the property of a ward in Florida, before entering on his duties as guardian, shall be required by the county judge to execute and file in his office a bond with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the county judge, or an authorized surety company as surety. Such bond shall be payable to the governor of the state and his successors in office, conditioned to perform faithfully all duties as such guardian according to law. In form the bond must be joint and several.

(2) All bonds required in guardianship proceedings, whether original bonds or additional bonds, shall be filed in the office of the county judge having jurisdiction and shall be recorded by him.

(3) The requirements of this section shall not be applicable to banks and trust companies authorized by law to act as guardians.

(4) Signatures of principals and sureties other than surety companies on a guardian's bond shall be witnessed by two competent witnesses, but the failure to have such a signature witnessed shall not affect the validity of the bond.

(5) When the sureties on a bond are persons (and not a surety company), the guardian shall be required to file with his annual returns proof satisfactory to the county judge that the sureties are alive and solvent.

(6) The penal sum of a guardian's bond shall be fixed by the county judge in his discretion, and it must be in an amount not less than the full amount of the cash on hand and on deposit belonging to the ward, plus the value of the notes and bonds owned by the ward which are payable to bearer.

(7) The county judge, for good cause shown, may reduce the amount of bond of any guardian.

History.—§8, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4005; CGL 5927; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945; sub. §(7), comp. §1, ch. 29717, 1955.

744.39 Bond of surety company.—Any surety company authorized to do business in this state may become surety upon the bond of a guardian; and in such case, there need be only one surety on such bond.

History.—§7, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4004; CGL 5926; am. §7, ch. 22000, 1943; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.40 Letters of guardianship.—While letters of guardianship are not necessary to the validity of an order appointing the guardian, the county judge may issue such letters to the guardian of the person or of the property or of both, and he must issue the same whenever a request is made by the guardian for such letters, and the cost of the issuance of such letters of guardianship shall be paid by the estate of the ward.

History.—§9, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4006; CGL 5928; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.41 Insufficiency of bond.—If any person files with the county judge having jurisdiction a petition alleging that the sureties on any bond given by a guardian are insolvent or insufficient or that the bond is insufficient in amount and substantiates the same with evidence satisfactory to the county judge, after notice to the guardian and his sureties and hearing on the petition, said judge may enter an order requiring additional sureties or an additional bond, as the circumstances require. If the county judge has such knowledge, though no petition has been filed, he may, after notice, enter such order sua sponte as the circumstances require.

History.—§10, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4007; CGL 5929; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.42 Validity of bond.—No bond executed by any guardian shall be invalid because of informality in it or because of informality or illegality in the appointment of such guardian. Such bond shall have the same force and effect as if the bond had been executed in proper form and the appointment had been legally made.

History.—§11, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4008; CGL 5930; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.43 Liability of surety.—No surety for any guardian shall be charged beyond the assets of the ward's property because of any omission or mistake in pleading or because of the false pleading of such guardian.

History.—§12, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4009; CGL 5931; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.44 Suit upon bond.—A bond given by any guardian, upon the breach thereof, may be from time to time put in suit and prosecuted by or on behalf of the person damaged by such breach, until the whole penalty of such bond has been recovered. The county judge shall deliver to any person, on request and payment of his legal fees for the same, a true copy of any bond given by any guardian, and such copy duly certified, with the seal of the court affixed, shall be prima facie proof of the bond.

History.—§13, ch. 6943, 1915; RGS 4010; CGL 5932; am. §1, ch. 22750, 1945.
cf.—§746.10, Suit on removed guardian's bond.

744.45 Release of surety.—The surety or sureties, or the personal representative of any surety or sureties, on the bond of any guardian shall be released by the same procedure and on the same conditions as provided in §732.68, for the release of a surety in probate matters.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.46 Resident agent.—

(1) Every foreign guardian who seeks to sell, lease, manage, control or mortgage any of his ward's property, real or personal, in the state, shall have his residence and post-office address recorded in the office of the county judge and designate in writing, which shall likewise be filed, some resident of the county where the guardianship property is located as his agent or attorney for the service of process, whose name, residence and post-office address shall likewise be recorded.

(2) A resident guardian removing his residence from the state shall also comply with the foregoing requirements.

(3) The aforesaid designation, in whatever form it may be, shall be taken to constitute the consent of the person so designating that service of any process upon the designated agent or attorney shall be sufficient to bind the person so designating in any suit or action against such person either in his representative capacity or personally; provided, only, that such personal action must have accrued in the administration of the guardianship estate.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.47 Costs.—In all guardianship proceedings costs may be awarded in the sound judicial discretion of the county judge, and shall ordinarily abide the result of each particular proceeding unless, under the special circumstances of a particular case, it would be unjust that the losing party pay the costs. When the costs are to be paid out of the estate of the ward, the county judge may, in his discretion, direct from what portion of the estate such costs shall be paid.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945; §13, ch. 59-1.

744.48 Duties of guardian of the person.—

It is the duty of the guardian of the person to take care of the person of the ward, to treat him humanely, and if he is a minor, to see that he is properly educated and that he has the opportunity to learn a trade, occupation or profession.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.49 Powers of guardian of the person.—

The guardian of the person shall be entitled to the custody of the ward. Such guardian shall not have power to bind the ward or his property or to represent him in any legal proceedings pertaining to his property.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.50 Payments to guardian of the person.—

If the guardian of the person of the ward is other than the guardian of the property, either guardian may apply by petition to the county judge, upon reasonable notice to the other, for an order directing the guardian of the property to pay to the guardian of the person an amount weekly, monthly, quarterly, semiannually, annually, or as the county judge may direct, to be expended in the support, care, maintenance and education of the ward, which amount may be increased or decreased from time to time in the discretion of the county judge. The decision upon such petition shall be in the discretion of the county judge. If such order is made, the receipt of the guardian of the person for payments made in pursuance thereof shall be a sufficient acquittance to the guardian of the property, and he shall not be bound to see to the application thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.51 Duties of guardian of the property.—It is the duty of the guardian of the property of the ward to protect and preserve it, to invest it prudently, to apply it as provided in §744.64, to account for it faithfully, to perform all other duties required of him by law, and at the termination of the guardianship, to deliver the assets of the ward to the person or persons lawfully entitled thereto.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.52 Guardian to take possession of all property.—The guardian of the property shall take possession of all of the ward's property, real and personal, and of the rents, income, issues and profits therefrom, whether accruing before or after his appointment, and of the proceeds arising from the sale, lease or mortgage of the same or any part thereof. All such property and the rents, income, issues and profits therefrom shall be assets in the hands of the guardian for the payment of debts, taxes, claims, charges and expenses of the guardianship, and for the care, support, maintenance and education of the ward or his dependents, as may be authorized or approved by the county judge.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.53 Duty to file inventory.—Within sixty days after his appointment the guardian of the property shall file with the county judge a complete verified inventory of the real and personal estate which has come to his knowledge and of any cause of action on which his ward has a right to sue or on which he has the right to sue in behalf of his ward. Said inventory shall be recorded in the office of the county judge having jurisdiction.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.54 Appointment and qualification of appraisers.—Whenever the county judge deems it necessary, he may appoint two persons of discretion not related to the ward or to the guardian and not interested in the property, authorizing them to appraise the property of the ward that may come to their knowledge. The form of the warrant of appraisal shall be substantially that prescribed for the appointment of appraisers of the estates of decedents. On the death or on the neglect or refusal to act of an appraiser, another may be appointed by the county judge to act in his place. Before making the appraisal, the appraisers shall make and subscribe an oath or affirmation before any person authorized to administer oaths, substantially in the following form:

"We solemnly swear or affirm that without partiality we will truly appraise the estate of the ward (giving his name) so far as it may come to our knowledge, and that in all respects we will perform our duties as appraisers to the best of our ability."

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.55 Form and return of appraisal.—The appraisers shall list every article or parcel of property owned by the ward with its value in dollars and cents. When the appraisal is completed, but in any event within sixty days from the date of the warrant, unless the time is extended by the county judge, the appraisers shall certify it under their hands and seals and shall deliver it to the county judge.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.56 Compensation of appraisers.—Each appraiser shall be entitled to receive for his services reasonable compensation to be fixed by the county judge after reasonable notice to the guardian of the property. Such compensation shall be paid by the guardian of the property from the estate of the ward.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.57 When appraisal unnecessary.—If the whole estate of the ward consists of money, no appraisal thereof shall be necessary. The county judge may dispense with the appraisal of any estate whenever he deems an appraisement unnecessary.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

